AUSTRIAN FLEET SCATTERED IN ADRIATIC

PETROGRAD SILENT BUT RUSSIAN ARMY ACTIVE—SUCCESSSES ON WESTERN FRONT

ENEMY FLEET SCATTERED IN THE ADRIATIC

Austrians Lose two Destroyers in Attempted Attack on Port of Durazzo—The Enemy Makes for Home.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, Dec. 30.—Two Austrian destroyers have been sunk in an engagement with the Allies off Cattaro, the great Austrian naval base in the Adriatic.

Attack on Durazzo.

An Austrian naval squadron left Cattaro to attempt a bombardment of Durazzo, the Albanian port at which a large Italian army recently landed. The destroyer Lika encountered a mine and sank.

The Allied squadron, which was guarding the Albanian and Montenegrin coasts, gave battle and the Austrian destroyer Trimlav was sunk by our gunfire.

Enemy Dispersed.

The remainder of the Austrian fleet dispersed and was pursued by the Allied cruisers in the direction of the Austrian base at Cattaro. The Trimlav was built in 1913, was 266 feet long and had a displacement of 787 tons.

GOOD SHOW AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Ingrate," the three-act drama at the Majestic, is a rather pathetic story of a wife who steals to pay her hubby's "debts of honor," only to find him desert her for another woman. Of course a protector comes on the scene, but it wouldn't do to tell all the story here.

There is a good Pathe Gazette with the latest war news, Cherolles playing ball and other live items.

"The Sky's the Limit" finds our old friend Louie and his sunny partner up to their old tricks again and funnier than ever. "When Charlie was a Child" depicts the adventures of a boy who dreams that he is Charlie Chaplin. It is a good all-round bill.

GREETINGS FROM THE 16TH

Mr. Newey, chief steward on the Prince George, has received a beautiful Christmas card from the officers and men of the 16th Battalion in France. The card is in royal blue and bears the badge of the battalion embossed. It was sent by Percy Godenrath.

The Andrew Kelly and the James Carruthers, of the Gold Storage Company, brought in about 250,000 pounds of halibut between them yesterday.

PETROGRAD IS SILENT ABOUT BIG OFFENSIVE

Austrians Report Big Russian Offensive now on in Bukovina—Big Battle Proceeding.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Dec. 30.—Although Petrograd is silent, the Russians are undertaking a great offensive in Bukovina, near the Bessarabian frontier.

Great Battle on.

Austrian official reports indicate that the Russians have a large number of men and that a great battle is in progress at Torpedovouts. A simultaneous attack is being made by the Russians along an extended front from the River Pruth to north of the River Dneister, a distance of forty miles.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION OPENING ENTERTAINMENT

The official opening of the Prince Rupert Athletic Association gymnasium took place last night in McIntyre Hall, when the boys entertained their friends to a combined concert and gymnastic display.

President Fred Stork, who was in the chair, opened the proceedings with a short speech in which he outlined the aims of the association, dwelling upon the need for physical culture amongst the young men.

Hon. William Manson, in a few well chosen words, congratulated the association on the success attending its efforts to provide such a gymnasium, and wished the boys every success in the continuance of their efforts to develop a love for healthy athletics.

During the evening, songs were rendered by Mr. Moore and Mr. Corkhill, while Bandsman Pescott, of the 11th Canadian Mounted Rifles, who is here on furlough, gave a violin solo which was heartily encored.

A four round boxing display by Messrs. Biddle and Gilmour was greatly enjoyed, both boys showing marked ability with the gloves. Roi Barnes was referee. Len Porter contributed a very clever club swinging exhibition and F. Somers performed on the horizontal bar. Mr. Somers, who is no novice in the gym, gave a display which touched a very high mark and brought forth loud applause.

The gymnasium is splendidly fitted up and the boys are entering into their work with the utmost enthusiasm. "God Save the King" brought a most enjoyable event to a close.

RUSSIANS MAY JOIN BRITISH IN MESOPOTAMIA

The recent news from Persia is important and reassuring. The Russians have occupied Kum and are moving southward with the evident intention of joining the British forces near Bagdad.

MAN OF MANY MILES LECTURED LAST NIGHT

Dr. Jack Dawson, the Australian globe-trotter, delivered a lecture on his travels around the world in the Empress Theatre last night, in aid of the Patriotic fund.

Mayer Newton, who presided, introduced the lecturer in a few brief sentences descriptive of the doctor's efforts along geographical lines and his plans for a four years' tour through South America.

Dr. Dawson, at the outset, said that his travels began at the age of three, when he explored a menagerie from below the edge of the canvas. He described himself as a horn traveller, most of his family being inflicted in the same way. During his varsity vacation days, he spent his time and money in making long trips, and he had been making them ever since.

Seeing little before him as a doctor in England, he set out for Western Australia and had no sooner landed there than he was given command of an expedition to the South Sea Islands, which occupied three and a half years. After that he journeyed over the lone trail across the desert of Australia, a trip of 168 days in which he experienced great hardships through the lack of water.

After being away in the interior for ten years, in which time he saw only six white men and one white woman, he returned to Perth, W. A. Shortly after his arrival there, a bet was made that a man could not make his way around the world in ten years, by the longest route, without using a train, or borrowing, begging or stealing. Men to try the experiment were advertised for and 250 applied, three, of which he was one, being selected.

Leaving Western Australia in 1905, he travelled across the continent to Sydney, thence to New Zealand, Japan, China, Indo-China, to the forbidden country of Tibet, where he encountered an Irish Buddhist priest who was his guide and passport.

From there he wandered by a wild trail across the Himalayas to India, then to Afghanistan and on to Turkestan. Going on to Siberia he had a fight with a Russian who had torn up his passport, the scrap landing the doctor in jail

JAPANESE FLEET GUARDS SUEZ CANAL

Japan has entered the European theatre of war with a powerful fleet which has been sent to the Suez Canal, according to A. M. Papajian Bey, former Minister of the Interior in Egypt, who is at present in Los Angeles.

"Great Britain realizes that she cannot lose the canal, which is a vital element in her life as a unified Empire," declared Papajian Bey. "For that reason the canal has been remarkably fortified, and a Japanese fleet is on hand ready for business.

"Every effort has been made to keep the news of the presence of Japanese battleships at the canal from spreading, and I have heard nothing of the fleet in this country. They are there nevertheless."

In speaking of conditions in Egypt today, Papajian Bey said: "A rebellion may and probably will break out almost any day in Egypt. However, it will not be successful. There are about 600,000 British troops there and some 50,000 Egyptian troops. In the interior there are several regiments of blacks, who are fine fighters, and who fight for the Empire."

Papajian Bey scoffs at the idea of a German invasion in Egypt.

"Only in January and February, the least hot months, is it possible for an army to cross the desert sands between Turkey and Egypt," he asserted. "Then, too, the Red Sea forms a natural barrier as efficacious as an army. Many ships and transports would be needed, and Germany could not procure them."—Toronto Globe.

Insurance Rates for Suez Canal Shipping are Trebled—Allies Make Naval Base in The Aegean Sea.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Dec. 30.—News that shipping insurance rates for vessels sailing through the Suez Canal have been trebled is believed to indicate that an attack upon Egypt by a German-Turkish expedition is imminent.

Vessels for India, Australia and the Far East are now taking the South African route, as a result of the increased cost of operating through the canal.

Aegean Naval Base.

Paris, Dec. 30.—French troops have occupied the Turkish island of Castelorizo, in the Aegean Sea. The island is reckoned to be indispensable to the Allies as a naval base.

ANOTHER UNIVERSITIES' COMPANY BEING FORMED

The Universities' Companies are now well known throughout Canada. A fresh company is raised, equipped and partially trained about every two months, and it is unnecessary to advertise for recruits inasmuch as each company is made up of brothers or relatives or friends of those who have joined previous companies.

The first company, under the command of Captain Gregor Barclay, has joined the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry and has been for some time in the trenches.

The second company, under the command of Captain George McDonald and Captain Percy Molson, is also on the Continent.

The third Company went overseas about 330 strong, and has gained a golden reputation at Shorncliffe.

The fourth company is at full strength and has now embarked. In quality it is in no respect inferior to its predecessors.

A fifth company has been authorized, a large number of applications are on the waiting list, and recruits will be welcomed at Montreal.

Those who wish to join must receive a rigorous medical examination locally by an army medical officer. Those who are not medically and physically fit are not wanted, so there is a subsequent examination on reaching Montreal. The recruit should also be attested locally before the nearest justice of the peace, and transportation to Montreal can be speedily obtained by sending a night lettergram to Captain A. S. Eve, 382 Sherbrooke Street, West. (Continued on Page Two.)

HUN DEFENCES ARE CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH

Successful Attack all Along the Western Front—Works and Prisoners taken in The Vosges.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Dec. 30.—The French have followed up their recent successes in the Vosges by capturing more German defence works and taking 1,668 prisoners.

The British and Belgians report that the recent terrific artillery actions have been successful.

South of Dixmude, the shelling of enemy machine gun shelters brought good results, while our batteries destroyed the parapets of the German fortifications at Chateau de Wiumen near Luyghen.

In Macedonia.

The position in Macedonia is unchanged. The Austrians and Germans are unable to spare men for a forward movement and the main attack on this front must be made by the Bulgarians.

"THE DIAMOND FROM THE SKY" AT THE WESTHOLME

"Desperate Chances," this week's episode of "The Diamond from the Sky" at the Westholme, is just about the best seen yet. Esther, after being tied up in the mine blacksmith shop, effects a clever escape which immensely pleased the audience last night, but what tickled them most was the dilemma of poor old Marmaduke when he found himself stranded with Esther's suitcase. His efforts produced as much laughter as a Chaplin.

"The Puppet Crown" is an intensely interesting drama of love against a crown and kingdom, which keeps the audience keyed up for five reels. Ina Claire is a dainty princess and acts charmingly. A good war gazette completes a very fine eight-reel program.

CONSCRIPTION

The British government today is struggling with the question of conscription. The idea of compulsory service, or compulsory anything for that matter, is entirely foreign to the British character, with the result that a very large number of people are strongly opposed to it. The idea seems to prevail that once conscription is adopted as a recognized principle, there will be no going back from it, but that a vast standing army will be kept up for many years by a measure of conscription.

Conscription, or anything resembling it, is repugnant to the British mind, but the one great fact remains that, unless a sufficient number of men is forthcoming, men must be brought out by compulsion. Not conscription, but the necessity for it, is what should strike home to the young men of our race. If the men of Britain are not ready and willing to come forward voluntarily, there is no alternative but to bring them. There is one thing much worse than conscription, and that is going under in the great struggle. If the young men of Britain had rather see Germany conquer than that they should offer themselves in defence of home and country, they are no longer worthy of the name of Britons, and conscription is their natural lot.

Kitchener has promised our Allies that the British army will be 4,000,000 strong, and that promise must, and will, be kept. It would have been in keeping with the traditions of the Empire if this number of men could have been raised voluntarily, but, in any case, they must be raised. Britain cannot go back on a promise to her friends, simply because about two million young fellows prefer golf and tennis to serving their country. That conscription, no matter in how mild a form, has had to be resorted to is greatly to the discredit of our youths. That conscription will continue as the recognized British method of raising an army, after the war is over, we cannot conceive as likely.

It was thought that Lord Derby's scheme would have been so successful as to have obviated any such necessity, and, in view of the question put by Derby's canvassers, it is shameful that the plan has been a comparative failure. The one question put to the men of Britain was: "Are you willing to serve your country?" That hundreds of thousands of young men, with no one dependent upon them, furnished a wide variety of evasive answers to this question is disgraceful.

That a bill proposing even a modified form of compulsory service will create political division and discord is certain, but politics and political factions will not weigh a featherweight as against the security of the Empire and breaking of Prussianism. Even the most ardent upholders of the voluntary system must admit that the one thing essential is to get the men, and that, if the voluntary system has failed to meet the situation, there is no alternative but compulsion.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

America is doing a signal service for the British Empire in jailing the conspirators in her midst.

Newspaper men were amongst those exempt from service under the Derby scheme. So little news is allowed to come through these days that they might as well have taken the newspaper men too.

It is to be regretted that the new premier is not feeling well, as he will be called upon to bear up under a severe shock pretty soon.

The 11th Regiment of Bulgarian infantry must just have heard of the great Irish bayonet charge when they quit cold.

While in Spain, he was invested with the ancient order of Isabelle of Spain by King Alfonso, and in London was presented with the gold medal of the Royal Geographical Society by King George. After a brief visit to Scotland, he sailed for Canada, making his way on foot right across the continent to Vancouver, only to find that the Makura had sailed two days before for Australia, which delay cost him the $50,000 prize and a side bet of $18,000.

He had travelled 86,000 miles, mostly on foot and had failed, though he believed that he had gained greatly from an educative standpoint, as he believed that travel is one of the finest educative forces in the world.

ANOTHER UNIVERSITIES' COMPANY BEING FORMED

(Continued From Page One.) Montreal. On arrival the recruit is issued without delay, his blankets, palliasses and uniform, and his training commences on the campus of McGill University and on the slopes of Mount Royal. As to barracks the Canadian Northern Land Company loans the headquarters building, McGill University lends the Molson Hall, and the students not only lend the top floor of the Union, but also give the soldiers the privileges of the building as though they were students. Moreover, the Y. M. C. A. opens its quarters and places the swimming pool at their disposal. The training is varied, and includes shooting at the C. P. R. Gallery, drill, tactics, bayonet fighting and physical training.

Nearly 1,200 men have already been raised by this organization, which is efficient, and also economical, inasmuch as there are no officers above the rank of captain.

A considerable number of young men who cannot get commissions in Canada are joining the Universities' Companies with a view to commission in England. About fifty men who joined as privates, have already been appointed as officers. Information has been received from London that there is room for 40 to 50 a month if suitable men are forthcoming.

Particulars may be obtained from Captain A. S. Eve, 382 Sherbrooke St., West, Montreal, who is in charge of the depot.

Martyred Belgium Cries for FOOD!

You have Plenty — Share it!

We cannot—we MUST NOT let the destitute Belgians starve! No victory could be lastingly glorious if it involved the decimation by famine of a small nation that deliberately sacrificed itself rather than sacrifice honor!

Earl Curzon of Kedleston, says:

"We have to relieve from privation, and from worse, these unhappy people during the forthcoming winter, the second winter which they have passed under these cruel conditions; we have to keep alive their vital resources, to support their courage, and enable them to continue to endure".

Belgian Relief Fund

has been and is administered with an Efficiency and Economy never before equalled in Public Relief Work.

All accounts are audited, and every pound of food and supplies is accounted for. The arrangements are absolutely effective for securing that none of the food or money goes into the hands of the Germans, is requisitioned by military authorities, or in any way diverted from the object for which it is given.

Nearly 3,000,000 Belgians must depend this winter on charity! Without help hundreds of thousands will starve! We in Canada have plenty! In the name of humanity and of the cause for which we are fighting, let us do our part toward saving these heroic allies!

XMAS ENTERTAINMENT AT PORT ESSINGTON

The children of Port Essington Indian School held their Christmas entertainment on Monday night, December 27, in the Methodist Church, Rev. W. Pierce occupying the chair. There was a splendid program of solos, motion songs and recitations, in which the children performed their various parts with delight and satisfaction to all present. The gathering was well patronized by the white population, the church being filled to the door.

After the children had finished their performances, there was a short intermission, during which Santa Claus appeared at the door and made his way up the aisle to the Christmas tree, where he gave a short address in which he said that he was sorry that times were hard and that he was not able to give so many gifts as he would have wished. After the old gentleman had distributed the gifts from the Christmas tree, the entertainment closed with the singing of "God Save the King."

- FACT HUNGER -

As children, our first demand is for nourishment; our second for facts.

All through life we go about searching for information.

We make a new acquaintance; but before we will accept him as a friend or invite him to our home we ask for facts about him.

We visit a foreign land; and from the moment we step across its border we are asking questions—searching for facts.

We are asked to try, a new food product; isn't it instinctive with us to ask at once:

"Who makes this new article?"

"How is it made? what goes into it?"

"Is it worth the price charged for it?"

Facts—we are simply hungry for them.

Strange, isn't it, that we should so often have to search for them? Odd, that some manufacturers still withhold the facts about their product. Not always because they are facts to be ashamed of—for there are many worthy articles yet unadvertised.

But it will not be so much longer. The fact-hunger of the human race is becoming keener and keener. The more facts we get, the keener our relish for more of them.

Soon it will be impossible to sell a man or a woman anything until everything has been told about the goods that can be told through Advertising.

The public has discovered that Advertising tells much-needed facts—that, in fact, Advertising satisfies fact-hunger.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.
If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
