MAYOR GILLETT IS RETURNED FOR PR. GEORGE

(Special to The Daily News.)
Prince George, Jan. 14.—W. G. Gillett has been re-elected mayor with a majority of 78 over Thomas Porter.

There were 605 ballots polled in the mayoralty election, eleven of which were spoiled.

Actions are the substance of life, dreams are life's shadows.

TWO ICE HOCKEY GAMES FOR TODAY

Owing to the mixed train from the east being late in arriving last night, the hockey match with Hazelton was out of the question. Two games will be played today, the first at 3 p. m. and the other at 8 p. m.

TWO LADIES ELECTED AS SCHOOL TRUSTEES

In the election for School Trustees, the two ladies were returned along with Dr. W. T. Kergin. Mrs. Davies and Dr. Kergin were elected for the two year term, while Mrs. Kirkpatrick is elected for one year to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of J. A. Kirkpatrick. The vote was as follows:

Dr. W. T. Kergin	408
Miss Davies	373
Mrs. Kirkpatrick	273
P. W. Anderson	256
O. Hanson	157

G. T. P. OFFICIALS HERE

There arrived in the city last evening by special train, Vice-president and General Manager Morley Donaldson of the G. T. P. and Chief Engineer Woods. They left for Anyox last night to inspect the smelter there. They were accompanied by Captain Nicholson, who came north to meet them here.

MAYOR M'CAFFERY

The returning of M. P. McCaffery as mayor is a triumph for broad-minded citizenship which knows no faction or party, but recognizes that the welfare of the city is the one thing of paramount importance. Mayor McCaffery polled a large number of votes from all sections of the community, and, if the vote could be analysed, it would be found that he had a stronger working-man vote than S. M. Newton. The fight is over and M. P. McCaffery is now everybody's mayor, and is ready and willing to devote every energy he possesses to the welfare of the city as a whole.

PUBLIC MEETING IN WESTHOLME THEATRE

Thanks to the generosity of Mr. Albert, the Westholme Theatre was last night placed at the disposal of the citizens for the usual after-election meeting. George Frizzell presided over a large audience, having with him on the platform the mayor-elect, ex-Mayor Newton and the newly-elected aldermen.

Mayor-elect McCaffery, after thanking the electors for the great honor they had conferred upon him in making him chief magistrate for the year, congratulated the Trades and Labor Council on the manner in which they had conducted their campaign.

He congratulated the citizens on the board of aldermen which they had placed in power. He believed that they would make a splendid council.

He was particularly pleased that there had been no trace of party politics in this election. In every phase of the campaign, political party had been entirely eliminated, which was just as it should be in municipal affairs. His election was largely to be attributed to circumstances which he did not control.

Mayor McCaffery said in conclusion that he would give to the city the best that was in him. He would conduct its affairs along the lines on which he had conducted his own business, or a business which he had been engaged to manage. He again thanked those who had voted for him and assured those who had not that they would, had they known him better. As mayor, he represented now all the citizens and would carry on the duties of his office with "charity to all, and malice toward none."

Ex-Mayor Newton assured the electors that he had this same dose before, though, on this occasion, he still believed he could have won had he set to work on the voters' list last September. He did not accept the defeat as an indication that his efforts had not been in the best interests of the city.

He took exception to the statement that there had been no politics in the fight, as both parties had combined to defeat him. He assured them, in spite of reports to the contrary, that he would still remain here and stay with the game. The same combination had beaten him before, and he came back. He had still the same staying power. He extended to every elector his very best wishes, and wished the mayor-elect every success.

The new aldermen expressed appreciation of and thanks for the confidence placed in them and promised to work together for the benefit of the city. "God Save the King" brought the meeting to a close.

MONTENEGRO PUTS ITALY IN A BAD POSITION

Vienna Claims Cetinje has been Captured—Montenegro will Make Separate Peace With Austria.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Jan. 14.—Following the occupation of the heights dominating Cattaro and Cetinje by the Austrians, Montenegro accepts an armistice from the Austrians, and will negotiate a separate peace.

This new phase of the campaign seriously affects the Italian domination of the Adriatic. The Italians are criticised for their delay in assisting Montenegro. Vienna announces the capture of Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro.

Escaped Germans Captured.

Wilmington, Jan. 14.—Four of the German officers who escaped from German warships at Norfolk have been arrested. Altmann and Klatzstein were working on a United States dredge in connection with the building of fortifications, while Truger and Ehrmann were employed in textile mills.

These four officers boarded at a house but a stone's throw from the Hagley Yards of the plant of Dupont Powder Company, where mills were recently blown up.

BIG APPROPRIATION ASKED FOR ALASKA LINE

Washington, Jan. 12.—Another $2,000,000 to push the Alaskan railway further into the interior of Alaska was asked before the house appropriations committee today by Chairman Edes of the Alaskan engineering commission. Congress already has appropriated $3,000,000. Mr. Edes said the commission was eager to hasten the work to Matanuska coal fields and begin work from Kern creek to Anchorage Junction along the Tunagan river.

CHARLES CHAPLIN AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

The Westholme tonight presents the greatest eight-reel show ever screened here, including six acts of screaming comedy. The one and only Charlie Chaplin is again to the front in "His Night Out", a two-act comedy which teams with most comical situations and Chaplin stunts.

The sprightly Cutey appears in a great two-act comedy "Love, Snow and Ice." After a laughable obstacle race over snow and ice, Jean and Cutey reach the parson's first and papa melts in the sunshine of their love. "When War Threatened" is a thrilling modern drama in two great acts, while "Clothes Make the Man," a good comedy, completes a fine eight-reel program.

SERIAL BONDS ENDORSED

The vote on the question of submitting a private bill to the legislative assembly in regard to the changing of the basis of the city's indebtedness from the sinking fund plan to that of serial or annuity bonds was endorsed by the citizens yesterday by 424 votes to 60. There were 118 ballots returned unmarked.

THE NEW COUNCIL

The new council is thoroughly representative of the citizens of Prince Rupert, and, when it gets down to business, should prove an asset to the community. It is impossible that everyone can be satisfied, but, now that the election battle is over, all that remains is for the citizens to give them every support in their efforts to further the interests of the city. The newcomers to the board will link up with the old-timers to preserve the resources of the city, and to bring nearer the time of prosperity which must, in the very nature of things, come to the terminal of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

SEATTLE STILL WORRYING OVER PRINCE RUPERT

Grand Trunk Pacific Terminal Gets More Free Advertising From Southern Railroad Men.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Seattle, Jan. 14.—The conference of the North Pacific Coast Passenger Association has been adjourned without reaching any agreement regarding the proposal of the American railroad and steamship lines, having their terminals in Seattle, to make mutual reductions in their rates to meet competitive railway and water fares announced by the Grand Trunk Pacific Company.

It was conceded by members present that the G. T. P., with its shorter haul, will ultimately divert a large traffic from Puget Sound. The C. P. R. has met a reduced rate of $10. The proposal by the railroads to make a reduction of $6 if the steamboats reduce the remaining $4 was not agreed to by the vessel companies. It is expected that they will resume negotiations a month hence.

BILLIE REEVES AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

The Majestic tonight presents another attractive program of comedy and drama. The chief item is "Tides that Meet," a three act Mexican drama which should hold the attention of the audience from start to finish.

There are two good comedies and another great railroad feature in which Helen plays a daring part. This railroad story is entitled "The Escape on the Fast Freight." "When Snakeville Struck Oil" is one of the funniest Snakeville films yet screened, while "His Body Guard," with Billie Reeves as the bright particular star is simply side-splitting. There is another great bill for Monday.

MORAL CONSCRIPTION

Someone said the other day that the recruiting of 500,000 men of military-service age would mean moral conscription in Canada. So it would. And so it ought.

But moral conscription operates in Canada today. It is as compelling as legal conscription, more impartial in its draft and more insistent in its demands. Coercion by military law says "You must," and there is no escape unless one can dodge the officer or prove unfitness. Moral coercion is the constraint of one's own conscience; its straight word is "You ought." And there is no condition, no alternative. The officer of the law may be hoodwinked or a fast express may get you beyond his reach, but the moral monitor in a man's own conscience never blinks his eye or loses the scent. Take the holy orders of the Church, and he is there. Secure a government office through the patronage pull of the party boss, and, behold, he is there. Take a ticket and a passport to the loneliest island in the Southern Sea, and even there your own conscience will face you, and its moral imperative will dog your footsteps and haunt your dreams. There is only one way a man can escape when conscience says "You ought." It is to answer "I will."

No, perhaps that is not the only way. There is one alternative. It is the way of the moral suicide. When a man's inner sense of right and duty says "You ought," and the man draws back and says "I won't," there is committed the most appalling crime in all the calendar of the moral universe. It is the suicide of a soul. What that means your Bible, your Shakespeare, and your Dante try to tell. But its deepest tragedy never can be told in words.

And that moral tragedy is only a little less terrible, the catastrophe it works may be only a little less desolating, when committed by one who has authority or control over another's will. When a young man answers what he holds to be his supreme duty with a loyal "I will" and someone else, with the authority either of parental command or of love's self-willed constraint, says "You shall not," there may follow tragedy more inglorious, more disastrous, than death on the field of battle. All along the ways of life are the wrecks of what might have been noble manhood—wrecked because recreant to duty, and recreant because of a parent's selfish ambition, or a wife's passionate entreaty, or a sweetheart's beseeching voice.

In a hundred different ways, in city and in country, in the church and in the school, in the home and in public service, the call for recruits to serve and to sacrifice for humanity's sake and for freedom means, and must inevitably mean, moral conscription in Canada. But he only is free who is Duty's willing conscript.—The Toronto Globe.

VALUABLE DISCOVERY OF PHOSPHATES IN EGYPT

It is announced that a valuable discovery has been made by certain New Zealand soldiers, who are farmers by profession, and whose attention has been drawn while serving in Egypt, to the immense natural supplies of phosphate. At Sofaja Bay, on the shores of the Red Sea, they have found what is claimed to be the richest phosphate field in the world. A trial shipment of 500 tons has been forwarded to New Zealand.—Ex.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

If you look up the list of nominations in the Daily News for Monday you will notice that the first seven names mentioned are now members of the new council. Some coincidence.

The twentytwo aldermanic candidates were all perfectly satisfied with the result of the election, so everybody is happy once more.

The Empire of Wednesday said that it hoped The Daily News would be satisfied with the answer. IT IS.

MIRACULOUS RECOVERY OF WOUNDED SOLDIERS

The case of the blind Canadian soldier whose sight was restored miraculously through the shock of being thrown into the sea from the torpedoed liner Hesperian is but one of many startling cases of marvellous recoveries which have occurred during the war.

A few months ago an entertainer was giving a performance before wounded soldiers in a Bristol hospital, when Corporal Stevens, of the 2nd King's Royal Rifles, who had been rendered deaf and dumb in Flanders, suddenly burst into loud laughter, and to the amazement of doctors and nurses showed that he had miraculously recovered his speech and hearing.

In another case a man who had been rendered deaf and dumb through the bursting of a shell at Mons suddenly recovered speech through the pain brought about by placing his hand on a hot water pipe in the corridor of the Queen Alexandra Military Hospital at Millbank. In the same hospital Lance-Corporal Fowkes, of the 18th Hussars, who was rendered blind at Mons, and whose case was regarded as hopeless by the surgeons, received special X-ray treatment with the result that he regained his sight.

Recently Corporal Leonard, who was bereft of hearing and speech went to a cinema show at Liverpool. As the film revealed the antics of the well-known comedian Billie Ritchie, the risible faculties of the soldier were touched. He felt a burning in his throat and a painful drumming in his ears, which seemed about to burst. Then, to his agreeable surprise, he heard a shout and found that it was his own voice.—Ex.

SELF SACRIFICE OF BRAVE LITTLE BELGIUM

"By her self sacrifice Belgium rescued Europe and rescued France and us as well," said T. P. O'Connor, recently in a patriotic speech, touching upon Belgium's heroic stand during the dark days of August, 1914.

Belgium rescued us; there is no doubt of that, and through her self sacrifice she did it. Britain is safe now and Canada is undoubtedly secure, but Belgium's self sacrifice has not ended and will not end until the war ends. Mr. O'Connor referred chiefly to the economic sacrifice of the nation, but added to that is the loss of husbands, fathers, brothers and sons borne by the women of Belgium—the hunger and cold that is the lot of the mothers and little tots, without work, without resources, without a crust of bread, except that which is given them.

Canada must and Canada undoubtedly will answer the appeal that is being made for these uncomplaining, suffering people by the Belgian Relief Committee. All that is asked is a bag of flour for each to keep them alive a month. Out of the plenty of Canada's rich harvest the Belgian Relief Committee believes this possible. It believes that Belgium's self sacrifice will be recognized concretely by Canada.

"We have to thank Belgium that she turned the scale by holding out at the beginning of the war, by which our own national security from invasion was preserved," says Mr. O'Connor. Canada can thank the soldiers who did this by feeding their starving wives and children.

LUX

BLANKETS are luxuriously clean, soft and fleecy when washed with LUX. Every housewife knows that blankets are very liable to shrink in the wash and become hard and thick. LUX is the ideal preparation for washing blankets, all woollen things, fine laces, etc., because it cannot shrink them.

LUX is the economical cleanser—it dissolves readily in hot water—makes a foamy, cream-like lather which coaxes rather than forces the dirt out of clothes.

BELGIAN FUND

An account has been opened at the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the name of the Belgian Relief Committee and subscriptions for the relief of these worthy people are now in order. There will be no canvass made, and citizens are requested to simply walk into the bank and deposit what they can afford. The object needs no commendation here, as all are aware of the part played by gallant little Belgium in holding up the Germans in their first great raid on France. The fund is economically managed and citizens may rest assured that every dollar will do a hundred cents' worth of work in aiding those patriots. The account will be open until January 31st.

Local News Notes

Mayor McCaffery and the new board of aldermen were sworn in at the city hall this afternoon.

Geo. H. Munro desires to sincerely thank all those who supported him in yesterday's election.

Don't miss the hockey game between the Amateur Athletic boys and the team from Hazelton at Market Place tonight at 8 o'clock.

The News was only four out in McCaffery's majority, when it said that Sam's thermometer would register 100 below.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick and Miss Davies are to be congratulated on the vote they polled in the election of School Trustees. They will undoubtedly prove efficient members of the board.

TO THE ELECTORS

Ladies and Gentlemen,
I thank you for the honor you have conferred upon me in electing me to the city council for 1916, and again assure you that I will do my utmost to show that your confidence has not been misplaced.
Yours faithfully,
W. G. BARRIE.

"THE STORE THAT IS DIFFERENT"

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the
