TWO TURKISH CORPS TRAPPED BY RUSSIANS

WAVE OF DEATH SWEEPS LOWER OTAY VALLEY—FIFTY PEOPLE ARE DROWNED

TWO TURK CORPS ARE TRAPPED BY THE RUSSIANS

Many Men and Large Quantities of Turkish Munitions are Captured—Enemy in Full Flight.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, Jan. 29.—Two entire Turkish army corps have been trapped, between Erzerum and Mush in their flight before the Russian forces.

In the preceding battle, the Russians completely crushed a Turkish column, capturing 17 officers and 2,740 men besides artillery and ammunition.

In the pursuit which followed, the Russians captured Turkish troops at the town of Khynyskala with reserves of ammunition for the Turkish army. The Russians continue to pursue the enemy in the direction of Mush.

Success in Persia.

In Persia, the Russians have defeated the troops of the Kurds and Turks, taking a large number of prisoners and quantities of supplies. The enemy is still being pursued southeast of Hamadin.

SHIP-SCUTTLED STORY AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"What Happened on the 'Barbuda,'" the three-act drama at the Westholme, is a stirring tale of the scuttling of a ship by a gang of crooks, who have signed on as members of the crew.

The heroine is the young daughter of a doctor, who is a passenger on board. After capturing the ship and locking the officers, bound hand and foot, in their cabins, the thugs go ashore, taking the girl as cook. She drugs the coffee, putting the gang to sleep, and gets aboard the ship and releases the captives. Blue-jackets come on the scene; the crooks are arrested, and all that is needed is a parson, for a young officer has been captured by the heroine.

Maurice Costello features in a pleasing little drama; Billie Reeves keeps the fun going in "The Cellar Spy," while there is also a good western comedy.

SLIGHT FIRE

The fire brigade was called out this morning to the home of L. M. de Gex on Fourth Avenue, West, where a spark from the furnace had got lodged under the roof and threatened to start a serious blaze. The shingles were chopped through and the trouble rooted out in quick time, the damage done being slight.

TERRIFIC HUN ATTACK ON THE WESTERN FRONT

Artois District Scene of Violent Fighting—French Artillery Drives off German Forces.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, Jan. 29.—The Germans have made violent attacks on the French trenches in the Artois district, following heavy artillery fighting and a series of mine explosions.

The enemy gained a foothold in some of the advanced trenches at the first attack, but in two later attacks at other parts of the line, they failed completely to make any headway owing to the terrific French artillery fire.

Greek Fortress Occupied.

Athens, Jan. 29.—The Allied troops, assisted by the French and British fleets, have taken possession of a Greek fortress at the head of the Gulf of Saloniki, despite the protests of the Greek commander.

FASCINATING SMILES AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Coquette," the four-act Kalem drama at the Majestic, is the story of a dainty young miss, who, with a roguish smile, captivates every mere man she encounters. Her power of fascinating the opposite sex leads to tragedy, while it at the same time helps her out of many difficulties, though sometimes it is a case of "out of the frying-pan into the fire."

It is an interesting play, with many exciting incidents and, of course, a happy ending for the heroine.

"Itsy the Inventor" is a most laughable comedy in which big Hughey's weakness of sleeping late saves him from an awful fate. The railroad drama is full of thrill and excitement.

GRAND TRUNK PRESS AGENT VISITS GRANBY

Walter S. Thompson, of the press bureau of the Grand Trunk Railway System, went to Granby on the George on Thursday night, returning last evening. Mr. Thompson is greatly impressed with the smelter town, and there is no doubt that, as a result of his visit, this district will get more publicity as a mining centre. Mr. Thompson will spend the weekend in the city.

HOSPITAL MEETING

The meeting of the Hospital Association which should have been held last night, has been postponed until Monday, there not being a quorum present last night. The annual meeting of the association is open to all who have contributed at least $5 for the year, and all life members of the institution. The meeting is called for the purpose of electing officers and it is essential that all members turn out on Monday night.

HAZELTON WON IN SECOND HOCKEY GAME

In the second of the series of three hockey games between Hazelton and Prince Rupert, yesterday afternoon, the Hazelton boys won by three goals to one. The weather was ideal and the spectators were treated to the finest exhibition of hockey seen in Rupert.

Owing to the accident to O'Brien of the Hazelton bunch in the previous game, "six-man" hockey was played and the result was a fast game which was full of incident. Boldrick replaced Scott on the local line-up, but was relieved in the second period, having injured a knee, Gilhuly taking his place.

From the face-off, the Hazelton boys set the pace, Macdougall and Warner carrying the puck past the home defence, but failing to register. They came back again, but Irwin broke up the combination and, passing to La Casse, transferred play to the other end. In a series of rushes by both sides, Keddie of Hazelton, and Irwin of the home team, showed up strongly. Some of the boys showed an inclination to adopt "rough-house" methods, and were warned by the judge of play.

A scrimmage around the Hazelton goal in which Irwin, La Casse and Blyth figured, ended in the latter finding the net. Some exciting play followed, in which Keddie displayed great speed and clever stick-handling, saw that player pass to Macdougall who scored from centre.

Before the close of this period, the same player notched one more for Hazelton.

In the second period, there were several stoppages to allow players to recover from minor injuries. There were again some great rushes and some accurate shooting, both goal-tenders being kept busy and successfully turning aside all shots. Towards the end of this period, the pace began to tell, but still it was always an interesting game to watch.

In the final period, La Casse and Holtby changed places on the Rupert side. Play opened with rush and counter-rush and there were many brilliant individual efforts, Irwin on the one side and Keddie on the other, putting in great work. Near the end of the game, Keddie scored a third goal

MAJOR M'MORDIE SPENT XMAS IN THE TRENCHES

Fred Stork has received a letter from Major S. P. McMordie, in which he states that he has been in the trenches for some weeks. He describes the life as not so terrible as has been painted by many, though the mud is a terror, hip rubber boots being the only foot-wear that is any good.

The major spent Christmas at the front and says it was the most remarkable Christmas season he ever experienced. The Huns showed a disposition to be friendly with the boys but it was not reciprocated. He describes trench warfare as the most wonderful thing he ever experienced. Big guns; machine guns; trench mortars; rifles; grenades, and every conceivable form of weapon is there. After the first day or so, he says a man gets used to the bang of the cannon and the "zip" of the rifle bullet. The Canadians are ever on the alert to pick off a few of the enemy, but it is surprising how hard it is to get a shot at anyone behind present-day defences.

While out doing some digging recently, Major McMordie heard a rifle bullet strike right behind him, only to discover that he was exposed from the waist up to the German riflemen, who were only 300 yards away. He quickly turned round into better protected quarters, and then shrapnel began to arrive chasing them into their dug-outs. He says that the Germans are not wasting many shells these days, and everything is comparatively quiet.

for the visitors, this finishing the scoring.

It was a game well worth seeing, and there should be a record crowd around the ice this afternoon, when the final and deciding game of the series is to be played. Yesterday, the Hazelton boys played better hockey all through, "The Cellar Spy," while there is they are no novices at the game and today's match should be the best yet.

BURSTING DAM DROWNED FIFTY IN CALIFORNIA

Wall of Water Thirty Feet High Sweeps Valley—Twenty-five Farms Wrecked—Many Missing.

(Special to The Daily News.)

San Diego, Cal., Jan. 29.—Over fifty persons have been drowned in the lower Otay Valley through the bursting of a dam, which released thirteen billion gallons of water into the little valley, making a rushing wall of water thirty feet high.

The dam, which was one of a series of dams and receivers for the water supply of the city of San Diego, was built of rock and steel filled. A leak of 300,000 gallons daily had been weakening the dam and at the same time puzzling the engineers in charge.

Scores Missing.

Scores of people are missing and twenty-five farm houses were wrecked. An area fifteen miles long and two miles wide has been devastated and many bodies have been carried out to sea.

Rescue parties are starting out. The property loss is estimated at over a million dollars. The dam was 130 feet high.

BILLY KIRK SENDS INTERESTING SOUVENIR

Constable Adams has received another very interesting letter from Billy Kirk, enclosing a franc bill of the Banque D'Emission Le Lille. The Germans being in possession of Lille, the bill is meantime so much waste paper, but it has an historic value far surpassing that carried on its face, which is about 19 cents.

Billy spent Christmas in the trenches, and, where they were, the Germans and Canadians mounted the parapets on Christmas Day and shouted greetings to each other, and the next day resumed plugging operations. He describes the flight of a large fleet of Allied aeroplanes as resembling a flock of geese. The Germans shelled them repeatedly but they passed on their way unharmed and out of sight. It was a thrilling sight.

On behalf of himself and the rest of the boys he extends the heartiest thanks for the many little comforts sent them by the ladies of Prince Rupert. The goods are thoroughly appreciated as is also the spirit which prompts the sending of them.

Artillery duels are going on incessantly, but otherwise everything is comparatively quiet. He left off writing to go on sentry duty.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Wilson left for Vancouver on the Prince George this morning, en route for Moose Jaw, where Mr. Wilson will take over the management of the Royal Bank. A large party of friends was at the wharf to bid them goodbye.

GREAT BRITAIN IS SOWING MINE FIELD IN BALTIC

Neutrals Notified of New Move, Which is Part of German Blockade—Italians at Avlona.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, Jan. 28.—Great Britain is sowing an extensive mine-field at the entrance to the Baltic Sea and it is now impossible for ships to navigate in these waters without a pilot. The British Admiralty has notified the neutral nations to this effect.

This is part of the British scheme for the effective blockading of the coast of Germany. In the past large quantities of supplies have been finding their way to the enemy via the Baltic.

(Courtesy Hotel Prince Rupert.)

The Italians have been successful in linking up with the Albanian army at Avlona, and are confident that they will be able to resist the advance of the Austrians. The Italians have abandoned all of Albania with the exception of Avlona, which is very strongly fortified.

Germany and America.

It is believed that diplomatic relations between the United States and Germany are reaching the breaking point over the sinking of the Lusitania.

Revolution Rumor.

It is stated that a revolution in Greece is not unlikely.

W. A. Myers, proprietor of the Terrace Dispatch, a live little interior sheet, arrived on the train this morning, and will remain in the city until Monday.

* BELGIAN RELIEF *
* Monday is the last opportunity to contribute your mite to the Belgian Relief Fund, which is now open at the Canadian Bank of Commerce. Prince Rupert has never yet been behind in doing its share in any deserving cause, and this should be no exception. The Belgian people deserve the best that we can give. They alone stood between Paris and disaster and made it possible to withstand the German hordes. Their recompense at the hands of the Huns has been terrible and it is up to all Canadians to do what they can to relieve the distress of this brave little people. They gave all and we must repay our share. DO IT NOW.

POOR DICK

Sir Richard McBride has arrived in London, but, according to advices received, J. H. Turner is still agent-general for British Columbia at the capital of the Empire. His appointment, having been made by special act of parliament, can only be set aside by the same means, therefore the aged and faithful servant of the province awaits action by the Bowser administration. J. H. Turner is willing to resign under certain conditions, but these conditions can only be ratified by the house. Sir Richard, therefore, is stranded in London without a job, or, at least, with the present holder of the post still in office.

Bowser, in his own graceful fashion, has sought to show that J. H. Turner, who has served the province faithfully for many years, is no longer fit to shoulder the responsibilities of the position, yet the aged statesman has shown that he has wit and grit enough to prevent the boss of British Columbia from treading over him rough shod, as is his manner, while McBride, the late premier and prospective agent-general, has allowed himself to be ignominiously kicked out. Comparing these two gentlemen under present circumstances, it would appear that the aged gentleman is still much the stronger man of the two, and therefore still better qualified to hold the London job than Dick is.

Poor Dick is in a decidedly awkward predicament, but the Bowser solution will be simple. He will merely saddle the people of British Columbia with another big fat salary to pay. This extra salary is not to be paid in order to further the interests of the province, but simply to relieve Bowser and the Conservative party from a dilemma. The province has been run by the Conservative party for the Conservative party and its friends, and Sir Richard had become so dangerous that he had, last April, even the temerity to show that he had a mind of his own. Such conduct could not be tolerated by the boss, Bowser, so that arrangements to shed Dick had to be made immediately. The getting rid of Dick is to cost the province a fat salary, just as the possession of him cost it a handsome sum. However, people must pay for their privileges, and if they happen to be Conservative privileges to the betterment of good Conservatives, they must pay several times, in fact just as often as Bowser feels like charging them up with something.

Bowser has now surrounded himself with men of the type of Tisdall and Manson, and he will have no further trouble in the way of cabinet ministers who try to think or act for themselves. They will sweetly acquiesce in any old thing that the boss cares to bring along, no matter what it may cost the people. Fortunately, the public have been doing some tall thinking on their own account, and they not only think, but are very certain, that they have had enough of Bowserism. Bowser knows that they have had more than enough, but he is going to endeavor to saddle them with five more years of it. He will find that the thing can't be done.

A section hand was rather severely injured by a blow from a crowbar in a slight collision between a hand-car and a work-train near Zanardi Bridge yesterday. He was removed to Prince Rupert hospital.

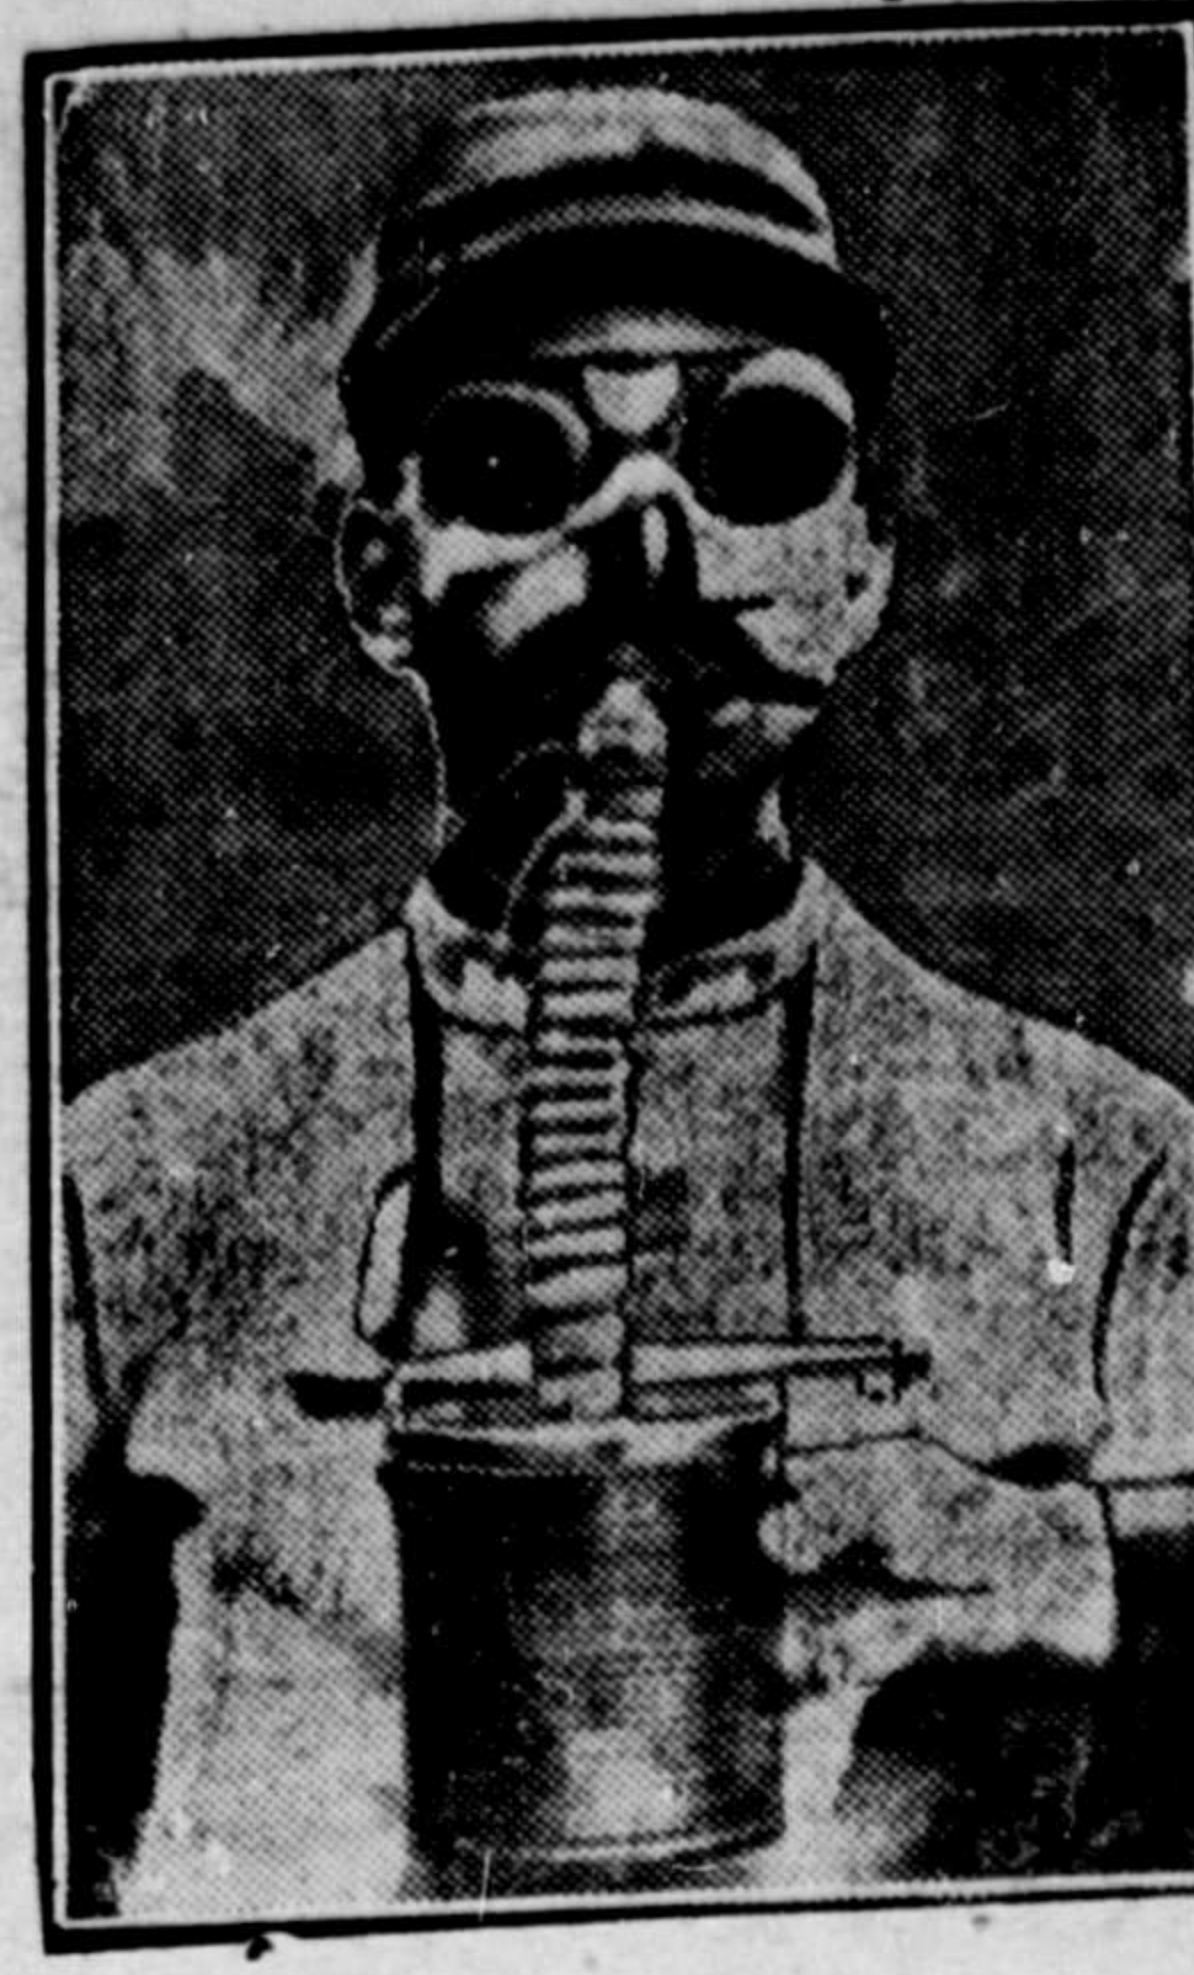

WHERE THE ZEPPELINS HAVE FAILED IN WAR

In spite of all that the Germans claim for Zeppelins the Kaiser's air menace has proved a failure from a military point of view, and the reasons are explained clearly in the Fortnightly Review.

In the first place, Zeppelins being obliged to manoeuvre at a height of several thousand feet and at night, the bomb-droppers have been unable to achieve any effective marksmanship. Flying by night, even when there are lights to steer by, is sufficiently difficult, but when a tract of land lies in darkness and the pilot dare not, for fear of hidden guns, descend close enough to earth to reconnoitre, and when, in addition, he is flying above a foreign and unfamiliar country, his difficulties in navigation are very great. The fact, too, that Zeppelins are threatened by hostile aeroplanes as well as high-angle guns has made airships waste bombs over undefended tracts of land.

In regard to attacks from hostile aeroplanes, the Zeppelin is certainly very vulnerable if an aeroplane can get above it, but,

The newest respirator adopted by the French to combat the gas clouds, enables the men to charge through the thickest clouds of poison gas without difficulty.

if necessary, a Zeppelin can climb at a speed twice as great as that of an aeroplane carrying two persons and a load of bombs. There are, however, certain single seated, powerfully engined aeroplanes specially set aside for airship attack, in which a pilot ascends carrying with him no great burden, and which can be made to climb at a speed appreciably greater than any two-seated craft which carries a machine gun. It is such machines as this, stripped for speed—carrying only a few incendiary bombs—and vying with Zeppelins in the race for altitude, that the airship pilots have chiefly to fear.

THE IMPORTATION OF PAPER TO BE REDUCED

London, Jan. 26.—Walter Runciman, president of the Board of Trade, will meet the leading British newspaper owners today for a conference regarding proposals to reduce importation of paper and wood pulp by 40 per cent., and thus liberate a considerable number of ships for other trades. Such a step will necessitate an agreement for a corresponding reduction in the size of newspapers. It is said that most of the newspaper owners will welcome enforced economy in the use of paper, although several proposals to this effect made recently by individual owners have failed.

Piano lessons, pupils taken. Mrs. L. J. Bay, phone 497.

George W. Nickerson expects to leave shortly for the prairies where he will spend a few months.

S. Grady, formerly on the police force here, is now in Vancouver and may join the overseas forces.

The train from the east arrived at 4:30 this morning. The coaches carried lots of icicles around the bearings.

J. A. Stirrat, who has a contract for the removal of the ledge of rock opposite the drydock slip, left for the south this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant, who have conducted the Pioneer Bakery here for some time, left for the south on the George today, en route for the old country.

EXPLOSIVES MADE FROM KELP POTASH

Word comes from San Francisco that the Hercules Powder Company has proved the practicability of manufacturing potash for explosives from kelp, and that the company is proceeding to construct a reduction plant at San Diego, Cal., at a cost of over a million dollars.

A submarine reaper has been designed to collect the kelp from the ocean bed, and is proving a success. Orders have been placed for a hundred of these reapers and the industry is to be developed on a large scale.

This looks like another opportunity for Prince Rupert district. There is lots of kelp around, so it is up to some ingenious individual to stake kelp claims and get busy.

FORMER "SUN" EDITOR PUBLISHES WEEKLY

J. P. McConnell, late editor of the Vancouver Sun has blossomed out again in the newspaper business in "J. P.'s Weekly," which is devoted almost entirely to blackguarding his former colleagues. He seems to enjoy the task thoroughly and it does little harm to anyone. It is hinted in Vancouver that the sheet is financed by a certain well known Conservative, and there may be some truth in the rumor, as that would be quite in keeping with Tory methods.
