Briggs, who is an expert with a sling, took up a position behind an oil car about a block away from the steamer and opened fire. #### ROSS MAY RETURN PART OF EXPENSES

Victoria, April 3.—Hon. W. R. Ross, minister of lands, will be asked to pay back $30 he charged up to departmental expenses on a trip to Oak Bay. He will be asked, too, to clear up some other items of expense. The Oak Bay incident, according to the recollection of Mr. Brewster, was a political meeting. Mr. Ross arrived in a launch late and fell out. The premier suggested that Mr. Ross perhaps had gone there on departmental business to correct any misstatements which the Liberal speakers might make.

After explaining to the premier his view of the matter Mr. Brewster demanded that the premier make a statement on the subject. The premier said with great reluctance that he did not approve of it and it might have been that one of the clerks had put the item in, but, he added, he had no doubt the minister would be willing to pay the amount back. Mr. Ross was not present for he had not been feeling well today.

Angus McIver, a student of Captain McGee's Nautical Academy, gained his master's certificate yesterday.

INVESTIGATION

The Tories keep on shouting that the Liberal investigations are revealing nothing, but it is purely a case of whistling to keep their courage up.

In reply to Mr. Macdonald's question regarding the payment of $30 per day to Indian Commissioner Shaw, while that gentleman at the same time drew down his sessional indemnity, the government stated that it was a federal commission, the federal government paying all expenses and asking the province to pay a share afterwards.

Now comes the admission that a provincial inspector of legal offices received a share of $4,000 commission on the sale of the Victoria Court House site. This is no isolated case, as coming investigations will show, but was simply the usual procedure in practically everything handled by the government.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Bowser got quite flustered the other day when M. A. Macdonald pointed out that the estimates for the provincial building in London were being put through illegally, as there was no contract in the possession of the government.

Parker Williams pointed out to the legislature, during the debate on the estimates, that they were giving Sir Richard a larger salary than the men who command our warships in the North Sea receive, but the steam-roller wasn't interested in the salary of our naval commanders.

Sir Richard simply had to have that $15,000 a year. The question of value to be received did not enter into the matter at all.

HAGERVILLE, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913.
 "About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run down in condition. Having seen 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised, I decided to try them. Their action was mild, and the result all that could be expected. My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of a dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. ## HORTICULTURIST GOING EAST

Mr. A. H. Tomlinson, who has been assistant horticulturist under the provincial government here for some time, will leave about the end of April to take a position on the staff of the Agricultural College at Guelph, Ont. Mr. Tomlinson was a student of this college for four years and it is fitting that he should be invited to return there to a staff position.

While in this district, Mr. Tomlinson has proved himself to be a thoroughly capable official, who was enthusiastic in his work. The good wishes of a host of friends will go with him to the east. Mr. Tomlinson notified the press of his appointment in the following letter:

Dear Sir:—I have today received a wire from W. E. Scott, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, that my resignation as assistant horticulturist has been accepted. At the end of this month I propose leaving to take up duties in connection with the landscape branch of the horticultural department of Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph and before I leave I desire to express my high appreciation of your unfailing courtesy to me and your hearty co-operation with the work of this department.

HON. W. R. ROSS,
CHARGED THE people $30
FOR THE privilege
OF HAVING him
MAKE A trip
TO OAK Bay
TO attend
A POLITICAL meeting.
BOWSER says
THAT ROSS
WILL BE willing TO HAND back
THE $30.
THE BOWSER idea
EVIDENTLY is that
WHEN A man
IS CAUGHT
WITH THE goods,
ALL HE need do
IS TO refund
THE BOOTY.
IF PARKER WILLIAMS,
WHO investigated
THE matter,
CARES to enquire,
HE WILL find
THAT THE people
HAVE paid
MANY thousands
OF GOOD dollars

FOR Tory
POLITICAL trips.
MR. ROSS is not
THE ONLY culprit,
IN THE NORTH,
POLITICAL trips
HAVE repeatedly
BEEN made
AT THE Public expense,
BOTH BY members
AND adherents,
PARTICULARLY adherents.
GOVERNMENT launches
ARE THE popular
MEANS OF locomotion
FOR politicians
WHEN OUT foraging,
BUT Government teams
HAVE trudged
MANY WEARY miles
THAT vote-keepers
MIGHT review
THE SITUATION.
THE ITEMS
MAY NOT appear
IN EXPENSE accounts
BUT THE expense
IS THERE
AND THE PEOPLE PAID IT.

BLANCHE SWEET AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

Blanche Sweet, one of the most popular of movie actresses, is the big attraction at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow in "The Secret Sin." It is a thrilling story dealing with the use of drugs. This is a five-act Paramount production which is bound to prove intensely interesting. A very fine Gaumont Gazette is also included in the bill, while a short concert program has been arranged, consisting of vocal solos and recitations and dances by the Bailey Sisters, Prince Rupert's popular little dancers.

The concert program will make a pleasant break in the run of pictures and should be enjoyed by all.

How Brown Learned How.

There is a man who makes shoes for children—and sells them to stores all over Canada But he is only just learning how people buy.

It was this way: His wife—let us call her Mrs. Brown—phoned to him and asked him to buy some underwear for little Brown.

Picture Brown now among the throng of mothers at the "Children's Underwear" counter. He asks for Underwear for a child of six. He looks it over helplessly. What on earth does he know about Children's Underwear? For lack of anything better to say he asks: "Is this good quality?" The answer is short and quite conclusive: "It's Blank's"—naming a well-advertised line. That short word says everything. Brown pays his money and goes home, quite satisfied with his purchase.

Now what bothers Brown—a manufacturer of shoes, is this: How would it affect the purchase of a child's shoes if the salesman said "They're Brown's"?

Nobody knows Brown's shoes. Brown doesn't advertise. The name Brown signifies nothing when used in connection with children's shoes. The salesman must use all his persuasive wiles to induce people to buy them.

The point is—If the name Brown was as synonymous with Children's Shoes as "Blank's" is with Underwear, wouldn't Brown sell more shoes with less effort?

If you are doing a local business, talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
