PRICE FIVE CENTS

THE CITY DISPOSES OF ENTIRE BOND ISSUE

PERMANENT FINANCING ARRANGED WITH TOLEDO FIRM AT ABOUT 7 PER CENT.

SERIAL BOND ISSUE HAS BEEN TAKEN UP

The city council last evening, sitting in regular session, entered into an agreement with J. R. Easton, of the financial house of Spitzer, Rorick & Company, of Toledo, Ohio, to take up practically the whole of the bonded indebtedness of the city, amounting to $1,620,000. The financing which has been done is on a permanent basis and eliminates all the treasury certificates falling due in June, replacing them with serial bonds extending over periods of 15, 20 and 30 years.

Mayor McCaffery and his council have worked tirelessly in getting everything in shape for the placing of the bonds, the mayor having been in constant touch with representatives of the bank and bond houses, in order that no time might be lost after the private bill had been passed.

Mr. Easton, of the successful bidders, has put in several weeks in the city going into the question and sizing up conditions. The fact that a firm of the standing of Spitzer, Rorick has taken up such an amount is reassuring to the citizens of Prince Rupert and is an index of how the future of the city is regarded on the outside.

The issue has been placed at prices of 87.50, 92.50 and 95, according to the life of the bonds. According to the figures of Mr. Johnson, the city treasurer, the prices fixed give the city its money at about seven per cent., which is a big saving compared to the 10% which it cost to carry the treasury certificates last year.

Mr. Easton will remain in the city for a few days arranging details before leaving for the east after which Mayor McCaffery will probably have to proceed south. The whole matter will be completed in time to take care of the certificates on June 1st.

The mayor and council are to be congratulated upon the success which has attended their efforts, a great deal of the credit going to the mayor who has personally conducted the negotiations. In the way of congratulations, Mr. Johnson, the city treasurer, must not be forgotten, for it is largely due to the strenuous work which he has put in, in conjunction with the city solicitor, for months past that the matter has been brought to a successful issue.

Owing to the government telegraph system being in trouble, The Daily News had to go to press without its war despatches.

OTTAWA DISCUSSES KITSILANO PURCHASE

In discussing the Kitsilano Reserve deal in the House of Commons the other day, the Hon. Wm. Pugsley said that the government had failed to protect the interests of the Indians in letting the province of British Columbia take the reserve and give them only $220,000 when it was worth one or two millions. The province paid $300,000 altogether, but $80,000 went in commission. Mr Pugsley said that a Mr. Read, a clerk in the law office of Bowser's firm, had got $39,000 of this amount, though when called before the committee of the legislature he was unable to tell clearly how he had done anything to earn the money.

Hon. Dr. Roche said that the Dominion government had not authorized the sale of the reserve and it was being expropriated again by the harbor board of Vancouver and the Indians would receive in addition the difference of the value that is now fixed and the $306,000 paid by the province.

BELGIAN RELIEF FUND THANKS RUPERT PEOPLE

J. G. Scott, Esq., Prince Rupert, Dear Sir:—We beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 24th ult. enclosing cheque for $144.25 subscribed to our relief work by the people of Prince Rupert, B. C.

We feel indeed very grateful to you for this magnificent remittance and beg to thank you most heartily. Kindly convey also our thanks to all the generous contributors for their kind efforts in coming to the rescue of suffering Belgians.

Yours very truly,
Secretary Belgian Relief Fund.

SLIDES INTERRUPT RAILROAD TRAFFIC

Slides on the G. T. P. on Kaijan Island and at mile 41 delayed the departure of the train for the east this morning, and interrupted telegraphic communication. The slide on the island was cleared away by about noon but that at mile 41 is still blocking the track. The train for the east will leave about 6 p. m.

WORK IS PROCEEDING ON THE ALICE ARM ROAD

Mitchell Albert informed The Daily News this morning that there are eighty men at work on the road construction at Alice Arm and that he is ordering forward all kinds of building supplies and hopes to be able to call for from fifty to seventy-five men at an early date.

LIFEBUOYS FOUND

J. H. McLeod, collector of customs, has received notice that four lifebuoys from the cannery tender, Alpha, which was wrecked off the coast some time ago, have been picked up off the south end of Wales Island.

CAN YOU AFFORD IT?

- J. E. MERRYFIELD DRAWS.....$175.00 PER MONTH from the government for the examining warehouse on First Avenue.
- M. M. STEPHENS DRAWS.....$117.50 PER MONTH from the government for the small premises occupied by the Dominion Telegraphs.
- M. M. STEPHENS DRAWS.....$40.00 PER MONTH from the government for the little office occupied by the Dominion Fisheries.
- J. G. SCOTT, M. M. STEPHENS AND OTHERS GET $516.33 from the government for the rooms occupied by the post office, etc., in the Federal Block.

Can you afford to pay such exorbitant rentals as the above to certain of our citizens simply because they happen to be supporters of the government which has allowed millions of dollars of British money to slip through its fingers, either by design or incompetence?

Do you want to see a real Federal Building on that $95,000 site on Third Avenue, which cost over $15,000 to excavate? If so, you must do your part in getting the control of the public purse out of the hands of the party which is feeding the gentlemen who own the building opposite.

J. E. Merryfield, J. G. Scott, M. M. Stephens, J. H. Hilditch and company are drawing $848.83 per month of your money and giving you something worth less than half of that in return. How do you like it?

PRINCE RUPERT MEN RETURNING FROM FRONT

Twenty-three returning western warriors arrived in Winnipeg on Monday night, amongst them E. H. Maynard, Jose De Mayer and A. Carr, who left for the front from Prince Rupert. They came across the Atlantic on the Missanabie and all proceeded to the coast on Monday night. If the Rupert men came by the G. T. P. they should arrive on Friday night, but in all probability they will proceed to Victoria, where they will be discharged.

TORONTO FINANCIER LOOKED OVER SITUATION

Mr. J. Gundy, of the financial house of Wood, Gundy & Company, of Toronto, has been in the city for a few days looking over the situation. Mr. Gundy was figuring on the underwriting of the city's serial bond issue, which was taken up by the Spitzer, Rorick house of Toledo.

Mr. Gundy reports that business on the prairies is steadily improving and is much better than he expected to find it. Toronto is very busy, thanks largely to war orders, but there is a noticeable improvement in general business conditions throughout the country. He left for Edmonton on today's train.

LOCAL MOTOR-BOAT MEN ARE SATISFIED

Captain Hoopes Freeman, who has been indefatigable in his efforts to have the act covering motor boats altered to meet present day conditions, has received a letter from H. S. Clements, M. P., stating that the Hon. J. D. Hazen has brought in an amendment to the old act which allows boats under 65 feet to be handled by one man, who will carry captain's and engineer's papers. Captain Freeman is satisfied that the amendment will meet the situation. A special certificate will be issued for the engineer of a motor boat.

PORT MOODY WILL HAVE SHIPBUILDING

By 115 votes to 15, the rate-payers of Port Moody last Saturday endorsed the proposed agreement between the city and Boyd's Limited, a corporation which has been formed to carry on a general shipbuilding and repairing business.

The company intends to go to work immediately on their yards, and in three months expect to have the plant in shape to lay the first keel. The first vessel is expected to be launched four months later and nine months from the laying of the keel, she will load her first cargo. The yards will accommodate the building of four 2,000 ton vessels capable of carrying 1,500,000 feet of lumber each. The plant is being designed so that steel ships may be built when the price of steel has reached a reasonable level.

GASOLINE LAUNCH CRUSHED BY THE ICE

Capt. Sam Cramer's gasoline launch Traveler, which was the first vessel to force a way through the Cook Inlet ice field to Anchorage this year, was wrecked in the ice Wednesday in Goose Bay. The crew escaped after a thrilling experience. After reaching Anchorage from Seldovia April 1, the Traveler was chartered by the Alaska engineering commission to take a party of government engineers and supplies across Knik arm to Goose Bay. The launch made the trip safely, but, after landing its passengers and cargo, heavy ice floes closed in on the vessel with an ebbing tide, catching the craft in a vice-like grip.

The crew attempted to place timbers under the twenty-one-ton launch so the ice floes would lift the vessel instead of crushing the hull, but their efforts were unsuccessful and they had to take to the dory. They endeavored to row ashore through a narrow passage between the ice floes, but the ice closed in on their small boat, which was crushed into kindling wood. The men clambered onto the ice cakes and managed to make their way safely to land over the ice.

The Traveler's hull was crushed and the superstructure carried away by the ice which drifted down Cook Inlet to Fire creek where the wreckage was deposited on the beach.

The Traveler was one of the most famous craft on Cook Inlet. Last fall the Traveler was nearly crushed while making the voyage from Anchorage to Seldovia through the ice and under Capt. Cramer's command has figured in several adventures in the ice field.—Seattle P.-I.

PARKER WILLIAMS ON THE HOMESTEADS ACT

The following is an extract from Parker Williams' speech on the Soldiers' Homestead Act:

"Many of our soldiers did not leave any employment when they enlisted," he said, "but we should try to have some for them when they come back. When I suggested the other day that possibly other reasons as well as patriotism led them to join the flag, immediately my remarks were tortured into a declaration reflecting on the spirit of our soldiers. This came from the mind of a man unable to hold any two ideas at once."

Mr. Speaker called Mr. Williams to order.

The Newcastle member went on to say that the bill did not do anything for the soldiers. The people had already been told that there was plenty of land left, so if it desired the government could, under its own declaration easily find land for them. The only difference between this bill and the Land Act, insofar as pre-emptions for soldiers was concerned, was that this bill did not say specifically what residence demands would be made upon the soldier pre-emptors by the government.

Get Rid of Speculators.

Mr. Williams announced that he was cheerfully in accord with the government in any decision to get rid of the speculators who held large areas of land. This bill in that respect at least showed that the government had confessed its shortsightedness in the past in selling land in wholesale quantities to companies which did not pay for it.

"There is no need to say anything about soldiers in this bill," he declared. "A little amendment to the Land Act is what this is. The government has been breeding poverty in the province and now blames it on the Kaiser. The government has to go back on its land sales policy, and in dragging some reference to lands for soldiers into the bill, it attempts to throw a glamor of patriotism about the affair."

The speaker said he knew instances of where men paid $800 for a quarter section of land bought from speculators, who in their turn had only paid "four bits" an acre to the government. The innocent purchasers should be protected in the matter of title, he considered. He suggested that if the government really meant to do something for the returned soldiers in the way of land development it should put them on such projects as the reclamation of land south of Creston or at Sumas Lake, where they would get work and later could settle on the rich reclaimed land.—Province.

THE WAR SITUATION

After fifty-one days of the most desperate fighting of the war, the French still hold the Germans at bay on the Verdun front, while they have the satisfaction of knowing that each attack made by the enemy during that time has materially weakened his power and that even were he to succeed in taking the fortress now it would be only to fail. It seems as if the French can hold the position almost indefinitely and that the final result will be that the Germans will have to sit down and take a prolonged rest at that point, unless the Allies decide to begin an attack on their own account.

A month hence, the Russians will be able to get busy, as, by that time, the worst of the spring season will be over and the movement of big guns will be possible, then there should be a big change on both fronts. Germany is wasting tens of thousands of men which she will have great difficulty in replacing with effectives and, when the real pressure begins on the eastern front, she will realise how much the attacks on Verdun have really cost. It seems clear that the loss of man-power is to be Germany's stumbling block, just as Hillaire Belloc pointed out in the early stages of the war. Germany's reinforcements are not only inadequate to cope with the situation on the various fronts, but the calibre is slowly but surely degenerating. Men who were formerly regarded as unfit are now in the trenches and it is impossible that they can make up the efficient fighting machine which Germany placed in the field at the outset. With Britain this is not the case. The men who are going to Europe from the Dominions, and who are being recruited in the Old Land, are quite up to the standard demanded at the beginning of the war. Man for man, the Allies have always been superior to the Germans and the difference is becoming more marked as time rolls on. There is a feeling abroad that the war will be over this fall, and, if the Allies get busy on both fronts this spring, that is possible, but when the war will be over is, comparatively speaking, immaterial to the Allies as time is always on their side.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

So the Kaiser has sustained a severe shock. Well, old Bill will have a few more before he is very much older.

The Premier is in a quandary as to whether to introduce a Woman Suffrage Bill of his own, not, we suppose, because the Place measure is inadequate, but simply as one more bid for favor which is gone. In drafting the bill he should call in William Manson.

If Bowser does bring in a Woman Suffrage Bill, it will not be surprising to find that the Hon. William has completely changed his mind on this subject. The Tory mind is in a turmoil of change these days.

The exposure of the Tory rent game caused quite a commotion the other day. This is not the only "shell" game which is being played by the gang, but it will do to go on with meantime.

It is to be hoped that real estate men don't make an effort to boost rents in town after learning what is being paid for a few rooms in the Stephens Block.

DECLINE SUBSTITUTES

The local motor-boat men are to be congratulated on having been able to have the Shipping Act altered to suit their requirements.

The Journal says that the buildings rented to the government by local Tories do not show profits. We happen to know that the Federal Block pays quite nice dividends, thanks to the enormous charge for upstairs government accommodation.

BABY ROSEN AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

"Father's Child," a three-act baby feature, is the chief item in the Westholme program tonight. It is some baby and causes no end of commotion, even to moving the piano-player to the roof just to please it. Baby Rosen plays the part of the disturber of the peace with the necessary amount of vigor, in fact you can almost hear her yell.

"Her Prey" is a two-act drama telling of how a young lady, who has been told off to rob a young gentleman of a valuable pearl, finds herself in his debt and instead of robbing him of the pearl tries to steal his heart. King Bagot, in "Almost a Papa" gets into a great mix-up and provides lots of fun. A good Universal Weekly completes the bill.

PARAMOUNT SPECIAL AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Only Son" is the title of a great five-act Paramount production showing at the Majestic tonight. It is the story of an engineer who is so engrossed in his work that he forgets his wife. They part and years after, when the husband has become famous and wealthy, thanks to his inventive genius, they meet again, through the scheming of their son and daughter, and all is well. That is a rough outline of the heart of the story but it conveys little idea of the value of this photoplay. It is great.

A very fine Eclair Gazette and an Edison Farce Comedy round off a show which is of the highest class.

EMPRESS OF RUSSIA BROUGHT BACK TROPHIES

Among the war trophies which were brought here by the Empress of Russia are several canoes taken from Arabian dhows. These dhows had the habit of sailing over to the Egyptian coast, raiding a village, capturing the women and boys, and taking them back to Arabia to be sold as slaves. As reported in another column, the Empress of Russia put a stop to this practice. As trophies, she has canoes from the dhows and spear heads, knives and explosive bullets picked up at other points.—Province.

The Royal Standard Test

Here's where we test the choicest samples of Canada's six million acre wheat crop. We grind them into flour in the little mill you see on the left of the picture. Then comes the supreme test—bread-baking. If the bread is perfect in every way we pronounce the wheat A1 and the flour—ROYAL STANDARD.

A Lifebuoy bath means a healthy skin--

First, because it's a good soap—it cleanses thoroughly, though gently. Next, because it is a safeguard against all sorts of germs, infections, etc. that your hands or your clothing may have come in contact with. That's the Lifebuoy story—cleanliness with safety. The slight carbolic odor vanishes immediately.

THE GOVERNMENT LOOKS after ITS children, BIG or little, EACH being provided WITH a pacifier, NOT according TO HIS needs, TO BE sure, BUT if possible ACCORDING to his wants. MOST folks HAVE to like WHAT they get, BUT A few SPECIAL favorites GET WHAT they like. ONE of these IS M. M. Stephens, BESIDES a few FAT rentals FOR LEAN property, HE WAS given A JOB at Digby. THE JOB DID NOT suit him OR HE did not SUIT the job, SO THEY parted. HOWEVER, SPRING time IS SEED time AND ANY old time IS INSPECTOR'S time, SO THEY made him A SEED inspector AND HE has been busy CHASING thistle down DOWN THE Bulkley OR SOME other VALLEY. OF COURSE WHETHER there are ANY seeds TO chase OR inspect IS A MERE detail, THE ONE essential being THAT THE poor man HAVE ANOTHER job.

How Brown Learned How.

There is a man who makes shoes for children—and sells them to stores all over Canada But he is only just learning how people buy.

It was this way: His wife—let us call her Mrs. Brown—phoned to him and asked him to buy some underwear for little Brown.

Picture Brown now among the throng of mothers at the "Children's Underwear" counter. He asks for Underwear for a child of six. He looks it over helplessly. What on earth does he know about Children's Underwear? For lack of anything better to say he asks: "Is this good quality?" The answer is short and quite conclusive: "It's Blank's"—naming a well-advertised line. That short word says everything. Brown pays his money and goes home, quite satisfied with his purchase.

Now what bothers Brown—a manufacturer of shoes, is this: How would it affect the purchase of a child's shoes if the salesman said "They're Brown's"?

Nobody knows Brown's shoes. Brown doesn't advertise.

The name Brown signifies nothing when used in connection with children's shoes. The salesman must use all his persuasive wiles to induce people to buy them.

The point is—If the name Brown was as synonymous with Children's Shoes as "Blank's" is with Underwear, wouldn't Brown sell more shoes with less effort?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
