WILSON NOTE IS PRACTICALLY ULTIMATUM

TREBIZOND HAS FALLEN -- RUSSIANS CAPTURE FIFTY THOUSAND PRISONERS

WILSON'S NOTE IS PRACTICALLY AN ULTIMATUM

An Immediate Reply Demanded—Diplomatic Relations will be Broken if no Satisfactory Answer is Received.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, April 19.—President Wilson despatched his note to Germany today warning her that unless the attacks upon merchantmen carrying American citizens cease, diplomatic relations will be severed.

The note is practically an ultimatum. No time limit is stated, but an immediate reply is demanded. The President will address Congress this afternoon, when he will make a full statement regarding the note.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German Ambassador, is in conference with Secretary of State Lansing. The Department of Justice is keeping an espionage on two hundred Teutons, including the various German consuls. If a break comes, they will be arrested and charged with conspiracy as members of the German secret service organization. The delicacy of the international situation precluded their arrest before.

SUBSTANTIAL SUM FOR PRISONERS OF WAR

Mrs. G. A. Woodland, on behalf of the Prisoners of War department of the Red Cross Society, begs to acknowledge with thanks the receipt of $82.50 from the Knights of Pythias, being the proceeds of their whist drive and dance.

It may not be generally known that a Prisoners of War department of the Red Cross Society was recently formed. The office-bearers are Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, president; Mrs. G. A. Woodland, secretary-treasurer, and an executive of Mrs. Geo. P. McColl, Mrs. Besner and Mrs. R. H. Shockley.

TREBIZOND HAS FALLEN TO THE CAUCASUS ARMY

Last and Largest Turkish Black Sea Port Captured—Fifty Thousand Prisoners are Taken.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 19.—It is officially announced that Trebizond has fallen to the Russians. Trebizond was the largest and last remaining Turkish port in the Black Sea, and was defended by fortifications and three Turkish army divisions.

The stronghold was attacked by land and sea by the Caucasian army and the Black Sea fleet.

Trebizond makes a priceless pivot for the entire strategy of the Russian campaign in Armenia and its fall means the end of Turkish rule in Asia.

Western Front.

Paris, April 19.—Heavy artillery attacks are being made on Haudremont. The British have penetrated the German trenches at St. Eloi, the raids being carried out by two bombing parties at midnight. The German bombardment of Rheims continues.

OFFICIAL COURIERS

The Grand Trunk Pacific Steamship Company have appointed two official couriers to travel along the coast pointing out the various points of interest to tourists. Messrs. Metcalf and Lane, who are now acting in this capacity, have just reached here from Alice Arm.

Mr. Aubrey Neale, successor to Mr. A. H. Tomlinson, as assistant provincial horticulturist, has arrived in the city, accompanied by Mrs. Neale. Mr. Neale intends to visit the various parts of his district without delay.

Mrs. Kanaya, of Skeena City, has sent along a beautifully executed piece of decoration for the Japanese booth at the Carnival of the Allies. It is made up of cherry blossoms and buds cleverly worked out in paper.

OUR NEW ALLIES—THE PORTUGUESE ARTILLERY

The Portuguese artillery, which is well equipped, will likely cooperate with the British in East Africa, where Portuguese and British interests against Germany are largely mutual.

SHAKESPEAREAN FESTIVAL IN WESTHOLME THEATRE

In the Westholme on Thursday evening a grand Shakespearean Festival will be held by the students and staff of the High School, at which portions of some of Shakespeare's most popular plays will be presented. The tercentenary of England's greatest dramatist occurs on April 23rd and never before have his plays aroused such interest as at the present day.

Throughout the British Empire and the United States, great preparations have been made to fittingly celebrate the 300th anniversary of the birth of the "immortal bard of Avon." The students of the High School have been hard at work for weeks in preparing for this festival. The costumes will be on an elaborate scale, and, of the Shakespearean period, and fitted for the characterization of the several plays. Under the able tuition of Principal Brady many of the students have developed marked dramatic ability and the concert promises to be a memorable one, and, by the enthusiasm which is manifested on all sides, the festival ought to draw a packed house tomorrow night. Reserve your seats at Orme's ere it is too late.

PLANTS AND FLOWERS AT THE SERBIAN BOOTH

The Serbian Booth, at the Carnival of the Allies, which will be under the management of Mrs. J. H. McLeod, will have a beautiful assortment of carnations, roses, violets and daffodils in cut flowers and in potted plants, spiraea, Hydrangeas, etc., while there will also be on sale some very fine rose trees, daisy and marguerite roots, etc., and potted ferns. The plants and flowers are of the finest and prices will be reasonable. Now is the time to refresh your garden and brighten up your homes with lovely plants.

F. W. Doherty left for Port Alberni on the Venture this morning.

SERBIAN SOLDIER RETURNS FROM FRONT

There stepped off the train last evening a stalwart, swarthy Serbian, wearing a curious little round cap with N. I. in gold braid on the front of it. The Serbian was Nicolas Vukilich and the letters on his cap represented Nicolas L., the King of Montenegro, in whose army the Prince Rupert Serbian fought through the strenuous days of last winter.

Nicolas Vukilich was the six-footer who carried the Union Jack in the parade of the seventy-two Serbians and Montenegrins who left this city on August 15th last for the seat of war in the Near East, and since that date Nicolas has had some stirring experiences. A month after leaving here, they were in the trenches and took part in the terrible fighting which followed the taking of Belgrade by the Germans. A large number of the men who left here were killed, many were wounded and only a few are now at Saloniki with the French and British preparing for the spring offensive in the Balkans.

Last December Nicolas received his discharge at Scutari and made his way to San Juan de Medua and from there to Naples where he took ship for Boston, along with Daniel Raseta, who is now in Chicago. He had many thrilling experiences but the least exciting seems to have been the dodging of Austrian bombs, for which Nic has a wholesome contempt. The Austrians dropped bombs from aeroplanes repeatedly in his vicinity, but never yet did one explode. They also dropped a few on the ship on which he sailed from San Juan de Medua but all were quite harmless, as far as exploding went.

Nicolas, who, though a Serbian, was born in Austria, received a right warm welcome from his fellow countrymen on his arrival in Prince Rupert and, when interviewed by The Daily News, was the central figure of a happy gathering in Nic Gurbich's boarding house on Fraser Street. The older members of the party were anxiously asking questions regarding the welfare of their relatives and friends in the war zone, while the youngsters cast worshipping eyes on the returned warrior.

SIR SAM HUGHES DEFENDS FUSE CONTRACTORS

Says Allison was Entitled to Ten per cent. for Handling the Contracts—Homesteads Act Disapproved.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, April 19.—Sir Sam Hughes, minister of militia, in reply to the Kye charges, characterized them as petty partizan piffle. He said that, if Colonel Allison had made a million dollars on the fuses, he was taking only ten per cent. profit for handling. He was entitled to profits just the same as if he dealt in sausages or boots.

Sir Sam said that the shell committee had bought transport cars, shells, pistols, small arms and ammunition cheaper than Great Britain had been able to buy them and had thus saved millions for Britain.

Homesteads Act.

Victoria, April 19.—A meeting of business men here has expressed disapproval of the Soldiers' Homestead Bill and declared that settlement in communities is the only feasible way of helping men on the land. The meeting wanted the benefit extended to sailors also.

The bill provides homesteads for naval, as well as military volunteers.—Editor.)

SALMON MONOPOLY

The fishermen of Prince Rupert presented their demands to Messrs. Cunningham and McIntyre in December and the advisory board met in Ottawa in January and Mr. Cunningham forwarded a report only last Friday, April 14th, and that only after it had been asked for. This shows clearly how much consideration the fishermen are liable to receive at the hands of "their" representatives.

Now that the report is to hand, it is very clear that the advisory board was very careful that it did not interfere with the rights of the monopolists. While the cannerymen are allowed to fish the mouths of streams covered by their licenses, though as a matter of fact they do not fish them all, but simply prevent others from doing so, the halibut fishermen are to be debarred from taking a few humpbacks and dog salmon as bait, "in order that these valuable fish may be preserved." Tens of thousands of these "valuable" fish are destroyed by the cannerymen every year, as they are not considered to be of any use for canning, yet the halibut men dare not take a few for bait.

The board prides itself upon the fact that an unlimited number of independent licenses will be issued this year, as last. The fishermen know full well just how much of a privilege this is, so long as the cannery boat-rating is allowed to remain as it is. In plain language, the cannery monopoly must be protected and it is evidently the duty of the board to do the protecting.

Respect for law and order is something which is ingrained in the British people, but respect for unjust laws has never been, and never will be, a part of the public duty of British citizens. The fishermen have put their desires and needs fully before the advisory board and have received nothing, that is they have been granted no extended privileges which will touch upon the preserves of the men who have "canned" the salmon industry and thrown away the can opener. It is now up to the fishermen to get together and repeat their demands, but it is no use repeating them to the advisory board. If they take the matter up with the department, they will be referred to the board, just as the board has conveniently referred many of the questions to the department. The fishermen, and all interested in the business, should at once call a meeting to consider the reply of the board and to decide upon a plan of further action. Action is necessary and that immediately.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Bowser says that the P. G. E. must be completed as soon as possible in order that the northern traffic may be diverted to Vancouver. William Manson told his audience in Vancouver the other night, during a calm moment, that the P. G. E. must be completed. Of course William was speaking to a Vancouver audience.

William's preliminary canter as a public speaker in Vancouver was hardly a success. He seemed to get away to a bad start, in fact it is rather hard to find just how and when he started. However he finished all right, that is to say he stopped talking.

Horatio Bottomley was pretty near the truth when he said recently that there is no such thing as neutrality in this war.

The moment the United States declares war on Germany the shipping situation should be relieved by the seizure of every German interned ship in American ports. If the Germans want to carry on the submarine warfare, let them torpedo their own ships.

A million independent salmon fishing licenses for the Skeena river would not help the fishermen in the slightest so long as the canneries prefer to take their fish from the Japs who hold licenses through them.

Since H. S. Clements is evidently something of a fighter, why not get him to go after the members of the fisheries advisory board.

REMARKABLE DRAMA AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

"The Curious Conduct of Judge Legarde," the big five-act drama at the Majestic tonight, is one of the most sensational pictures ever screened. It is the story of Jekyll and Hyde brought up to date, and Lionel Barrymore, as the judge who has developed a dual personality, as the result of an accident to the base of his skull, is given a great opportunity to display his powers.

Legarde, a judge of the criminal court, unconsciously plays the part of a denizen of the underworld, the discovery being made when he is caught along with the members of a notorious gang, robbing his own house. This is a play well worth seeing.

There is also an Eclair war gazette and a splendid two-act drama of Italy, a tale of the Vendetta.

"THE LONG CHANCE" AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"The Long Chance," the six-act western drama at the Westholme tonight, is reminiscent of Bret Harte, being a story of Californian mining life in which Frank Keenan plays the role of professional gambler. The gambler is in love with the belle of the town, but says nothing until another comes along and, finding that she loves the newcomer, the gambler seeks pastures new and earns the reputation of being one of the worst men in town. At bottom, the gambler has a streak of pure gold in his make-up and shows it in taking care of Marie when she is left destitute and a widow. It is a thrilling story splendidly told.

There is also an Universal Animated Weekly and a Keystone comedy, featuring Ford Sterling. There is a great Chaplin coming on Friday and Saturday.

NEW OIL-BURNING MOTOR IS INVENTED

A Seattle firm is placing on the market a fuel oil motor which does away with many of the complicated features of the Diesel engine and which, it is believed, is destined to replace the gasoline engine in small power boats, while it will be equally useful in boats of a larger type. The engine, which is known as the Burnoil engine, will operate on any low grade mineral, animal or vegetable oil without special adjustment.

The scientific principles involved in the burning of oil in the new engine are based upon the fact that all oils, however heavy, carry a film of lighter volatile product which can be easily exploded if the proper conditions are provided. It would take more space than we have to spare to go into all the technical details in the burning of heavy oils, but from a detailed description in the Railway and Marine News, the new engine seems to answer all the demands necessary. The working of the engine is simplicity itself and as the cost is low and the engine can be fitted in small boats as well as large it should prove highly interesting to power boat owners in these days of dear gasoline.

How Brown Learned How.

There is a man who makes shoes for children—and sells them to stores all over Canada But he is only just learning how people buy.

It was this way: His wife—let us call her Mrs. Brown—'phoned to him and asked him to buy some underwear for little Brown.

Picture Brown now among the throng of mothers at the "Children's Underwear" counter. He asks for Underwear for a child of six. He looks it over helplessly. What on earth does he know about Children's Underwear? For lack of anything better to say he asks: "Is this good quality?" The answer is short and quite conclusive: "It's Blank's"—naming a well-advertised line. That short word says everything. Brown pays his money and goes home, quite satisfied with his purchase.

Now what bothers Brown—a manufacturer of shoes, is this: How would it affect the purchase of a child's shoes if the salesman said "They're Brown's"?

Nobody knows Brown's shoes. Brown doesn't advertise.

The name Brown signifies nothing when used in connection with children's shoes. The salesman must use all his persuasive wiles to induce people to buy them.

The point is—If the name Brown was as synonymous with Children's Shoes as "Blank's" is with Underwear, wouldn't Brown sell more shoes with less effort?
