RUSSIANS GET GREAT WELCOME TO FRANCE

GERMANS STILL BOMBARDING VERDUN FORTS--VON DER GOLTZ REPORTED DEAD

RUSSIANS GET ROYAL WELCOME AT MARSEILLES

Bands Play National Anthem as Troops Disembark—Huns Prepare for Another Attack.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, April 22.—Great celebrations marked the welcome to the Russian forces which arrived in Marseilles on Thursday. A French band played the Russian National Anthem as the troops disembarked, while the Russian bands played the "Marseillaise."

The Russian force is composed of picked soldiers, all of whom carry decorations earned in previous campaigns. A quarter million more Russians are expected to arrive on the western front this spring.

Still Hammering.

Presaging another general assault on the Verdun portion of the western front, the Germans are directing an unceasing artillery fire on the French lines between the Meuse and Vaux.

During the night the enemy penetrated the French advance trenches at Deadman's Hill, but were expelled by a counter attack.

The Germans were also repulsed in a liquid fire attack against Caurette wood. The Germans are withdrawing men from the Russian, Macedonian and Serbian fronts to carry on the attack against Verdun.

SUDDEN DEATH OF PORT SIMPSON INDIAN

While William Moody, an Indian, was taking his wife and family from Georgetown to their home in Port Simpson in a gasoline boat the other day, he dropped dead in the boat. Deceased was 45 years of age. His wife and little ones sustained a severe shock at the tragic occurrence. The body was taken to Port Simpson. Death is believed to have been due to heart failure.

TURCO-GERMAN LEADER DIES OF SPOTTED FEVER

Death of Von Der Goltz Announced in Berlin—Germans Repulsed in Galicia—Connaught Inspects the 72nd.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 22.—An Amsterdam despatch reports that the death of Baron Lolmar Von Der Goltz, the military commander in Constantinople, has been announced in Berlin. Von Der Goltz is reported to have died of spotted fever at the headquarters of the Turkish army.

General Von Der Goltz was reported to have been in command of the Turkish forces at Erzerum when they succumbed to the attacks of the Russians.

Repulse in Galicia.

Petrograd, April 22.—A German offensive near Popovogora in Galicia has been repulsed.

Duke Inspects 72nd.

Ottawa, April 22.—The Duke of Connaught inspected the 72nd Seaforth Highlanders here yesterday. He warmly complimented the crack Vancouver regiment on its smart appearance.

NEW RUSSIAN PORT READY FOR BUSINESS

New York, April 19.—A London cable to the Herald says:

"Shipping facilities into Russia will be increased during the coming season by the opening of the port of Soroka on the White Sea, and the port of Nikolaievsk at the mouth of the Amur River. The railroad from Petrograd to Soroka is now open for traffic, and as soon as the ice moves outward, vessels may steam past Archangel direct from Soroka and unload at the latter port.

"The new Soroka-Petrograd line is broad gauge throughout. It is made up of three sections—the first comprising the northern section, the main line of which runs each way from Petrograd 73 miles; the second section, comprising the Olonets private-owned line, which extends from Zvanka, on the northern main line, to Petrozavodsk, a distance of 173 miles, and the third section, made up of the recently-built road running north from Petrozavodsk to Soroka. This last stretch measures 237 miles.

"It is proposed this season to utilize the Archangel road wholly for government supplies and divert to Soroka all other shipments. In this way it is hoped to relieve speedily any congestion which may occur at either channel."

SLIGHT FIRE

What might have been a very serious fire broke out in the upper storey of the Royal Hotel on Thursday afternoon. The brigade was quickly on the scene and the blaze was put out in a very few minutes. The damage was slight.

The men in the photo have the task of seeing that the "dinner pails" (cartridge belts) are filled with shells to enable their gun to do effective work. Note the size of the belt.

BERLIN VIEWS THE SITUATION AS GRAVE

(Courtesy Hotel Rupert.)

London, April 22.—Hungarian newspapers call for peace. They are afraid of German treachery in dealing with her allies.

The Kaiser continues his submarine campaign and is likely to reject the demands of the United States. Berlin views the situation as very grave.

SHAKESPEAREAN FESTIVAL WAS A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Ablly assisted by Principal and Mrs. Brady and Miss McLenaghan, the pupils of the High School presented selections from Shakespeare's plays in the Westholme Theatre on Thursday evening. The theatre was packed, and the work of the students must have been something of a revelation to nearly all in the audience. Several of the young folks displayed marked ability and all did well, their success being remarkable considering that they had little more than a month in which to make preparation. The performance reflected the greatest credit on teachers and pupils alike.

The program opened with a pianoforte solo by Charles Balagno and during the evening C. D. Jones contributed vocal solos and G. A. Woodland gave a flute solo and also a vocal selection. The accompaniments were played by Mrs. G. A. Woodland and W. V. Davies.

HALIBUT NEW RECORD

Halibut reached a new high record today when the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Company paid 10% cents for the following fares: The Annie St. Leon, 8,000 pounds; the Moringen, 30,000, and the Venus, 25,000.

JOHN W. ALLISON PHILANTHROPIST IS INTERVIEWED

Denies that He Made Millions—Did all out of Friendship for Sir Sam—Will Answer All Questions.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, April 22.—Colonel John Wesley Allison, in an interview given at Ogdensburg, N. Y., denied the suggestions that he had made millions in commissions in the purchasing of war supplies for the Dominion government and that he had made a secret division of his profits with Sir Sam Hughes.

Allison said that he is poorer now than when he began placing contracts and that he only served in the capacity of a middleman because of his friendship for Sir Sam Hughes, and was actuated by a spirit of patriotism. Colonel Allison says he will go before the public accounts committee and the Davidson or Meredith commissions and will answer all questions.

POINTLESS DRAW IN FOOTBALL GAME

The football game between the Callies and the rest of Prince Rupert yesterday afternoon, ended in a pointless draw. It was an easy-going game, in which none of the players seemed inclined to take matters very seriously. Both sets of forwards lost several splendid opportunities of scoring but there always seemed to be too many goal-keepers.

For the "rest" Charlie Youngman saved a penalty in good style, while in the second period he seemed to bring some magnetic influence to bear upon the ball and the Callies' forwards, as the sphere was invariably placed right into his hands. There was little attempt at combined play and the defence on both sides proved too strong for the forwards.

BANTAM BATTALION FILLING UP QUICKLY

The 143rd Battalion, the B. C. Bantams, has now two complete companies and a third is well on the way. Lieut.-Col. A. Bruce Powley, the commanding officer, has seen service in the present war and feels satisfied that the "midget" battalion will give a good account of itself at the front.

The bantam badge, consisting of a bantam rooster, with a maple leaf background and bearing the words "Multum in Parvo," the motto of the battalion, is now ready and has met with the approval of both officers and men. The translation of the motto is "Much in little" and aptly describes the qualities of this smart battalion. All who want to proceed to the front should see Lieut. Greenhill at the recruiting offices on Second Avenue at once. Pay starts as soon as recruits are sworn in.

LIBERALS ASK FOR PROBE INTO IMPERSONATION

Warrant issued for the Arrest of Peter Annance who Offered Bribe to Men to Impersonate Absent Voters.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, April 22.—On information laid by the Liberal candidates in Vancouver, a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Peter Annance, on a charge of attempting to procure impersonation in the recent by-election in Vancouver.

Annance had offered scores of Liberals ten dollars each to cast votes for men who were listed as absent voters. The information lodged follows an investigation made by the Liberals, who request that the authorities probe into matters to find out who was responsible for the alleged irregularities.

AMERICAN PARALLEL TO THE APPAM CASE

In commenting upon the silence which is being observed with regard to the disposal of the Appam an exchange cites as a parallel case that of the Chesapeake, an American steamer plying between New York and Portland half a century ago. On a trip between these ports in 1863, several persons who had shipped as passengers and claimed to be officers and men of the Confederacy, overpowered the captain and crew, seized the vessel by force of arms and brought her to Nova Scotia.

While in Sambro Harbor an American man-of-war approached; the Confederates fled to the shore, menaced with firearms those who sought to detain them, and escaped to New Brunswick, where they were subsequently captured.

The United States surrendered the ship to the British authorities and the vessel and cargo were brought into the Admiralty Court at Halifax for adjudication. The United States warship had clearly violated the neutrality of Britain in entering British waters and the legality of the act was not seriously maintained by the North.

Here was a direct parallel to the Appam case, except that the South did not put forward a

HOMES - EADS

In discussing the Soldiers' Homestead Bill, the members of the government dwelt at length on what they are doing for the brave men who have fought for their country. The Hon. William Manson became almost eloquent on this side of the question. We have a copy of the bill and, after reading it over carefully, fail to find where the soldiers are being given anything. The granting of a homestead of 160 acres in return for the fee of ten dollars is just exactly what may be claimed by any British subject in Canada, even though he may be a naturalized Britisher of German sympathies, and there may be such.

William Manson's speech on the bill has been quoted by the Tory organ in this city and was also given at length in the Colonist. At the outset, William dealt with the selling of the resources of the province and blamed Sir Wilfrid Laurier for the fact that this had been necessary, as that statesman had failed to provide British Columbia with better terms. It is interesting to note that a Conservative government has been in power for about five years and still no better terms have been granted. Surely, if there was such a crying demand for such a thing, Sir Robert Borden would have seen to it long ere this that something was done along this line.

In dealing with the bill, William said "The bill, too, should make it clear that those who purchased from the original purchasers and who had made improvements to their holdings, should be fully protected. It was the intention of the government to see to it that such was done." It may have been the intention of the government to see that this was done, but it carefully or carelessly omitted any such provision from the bill. The genuine settler who purchased from the syndicates who bought under power-of-attorney, are entirely cut off from their holdings unless they come through with their payments in six months.

The whole bill carries the stamp of having been scared out of the government and having been drafted in a hurry for political purposes. It neither provides for the soldier, except to give him what any other man may get for the asking, nor does it attempt to solve the real land question. The land troubles in this province are rooted in the fact that many thousands of acres of good land are held by syndicates who have no intention of developing it. There are 42,000 acres of fine farming land in the Bulkley Valley which is still wild and will remain so just as long as the syndicates hold it for exorbitant prices. What British Columbia needs is development and the Homesteads Bill does not move the province one step further towards that goal.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Journal finds it impossible to view any subject except from a party political standpoint and tries to make a party question out of the salmon monopoly. Never mind the votes but let us have a white salmon fishermen's payroll in the north.

Sir Sam seemed to think it was impertinent on the part of ordinary civilians to question his actions in regard to the fuse contracts.

tives have not wasted any time in taking advantage of the amendment in the constitution. It seems clear that the amendment was made to allow the Rev. William Boulton to enter the political field.

Kitchener and Joffre must be working overtime now that Sir Sam is back in Ottawa.

Sam says that Colonel Allison and his friends did not divide up the spoils shortly after the contract was signed. The point made by Mr. Kite was that they received a huge sum when the contract was signed and long before there was a sign of a fuse on the horizon.

A Russian force has landed at Marseilles. It will keep the experts busy figuring how they got there, the Baltic being closed, and the White Sea still frozen over. Well, they evidently got there anyhow and the Kaiser is liable to sustain another shock.

"HIS PREHISTORIC PAST" AT THE WESTHOLME THEATRE

Charlie Chaplin is at the Westholme tonight in "His Prehistoric Past." Though clad in ancient garb Charlie still sticks to his corn-cob pipe and his funny little hat. There is a remarkably pretty two-act Japanese drama entitled "O Mimi San," in which quaint little Japanese gardens figure in the staging. This is an unique production.

"The Cat's Paw" is a two-act drama dealing with German spies which is of peculiar interest at the present time. Florence La Badie and James Cruze, of "Million Dollar Mystery" fame, are in the lead. It is a well-staged, splendidly-acted drama. "Mr. Cinderella" and "Fatal Bumping" are two most laughable comedies.

strong claim that the vessel was a prize of war. Here was a Northern vessel captured on the high seas by persons acting, as it seemed, in the name of the Southern Confederacy, then a recognized belligerent. They had brought her into a neutral port and she had come before a British court to determine the rights of the parties interested.

Though the court did not consider it a case of ordinary piratical capture, it decided that the question must be dealt with on that basis. It was decided that the ownership of the vessel and cargo having been proved, the true owners were entitled to have their property returned to them. Ultimately the Chesapeake returned to her old route. On this basis, set up by the British Admiralty court fifty years ago, the Appam should be returned to her English owners.
