REBEL LEADERS IN DUBLIN HAVE SURRENDERED

Pearce and Connolly wounded and Prisoners—Dedmond Denounces Rebellion—Germany Timed Move Carefully.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 1.—An official announcement has been made that all the rebel leaders in Dublin have surrendered. An order was issued by "Provisional President" Pearce, who is now wounded and a prisoner, advising a general surrender. "General" Connolly, the military head of the rebels, is also wounded and a prisoner.

Seven hundred and seven rebels were arrested yesterday in the Royal College of Surgeons Building. Amongst these was the Countess Markievicz, who is alleged to have killed a soldier at the outbreak of the rebellion. Many of the prisoners wore green uniforms.

The rebels are now piling their arms at the foot of the Parnell monument on Sackville street.

The Irish soldiers are very bitter at the rebels. John Dedmond, the Nationalist leader, denounces the movement as an attempt to torpedo Home Rule.

The Vice-Roy says that the movement was timed by Germany so as to prevent British troops being sent to reinforce the Allies for the spring offensive on the western front. The damage done during the struggle is estimated at two million pounds.

EIGHTEEN SCHOONERS ARE IN WITH HALIBUT

Between Saturday evening and Sunday noon eighteen halibut schooners brought in about a quarter of a million pounds of halibut between them, and all day yesterday the government wharf and the wharf at the Cold Storage were scenes of the liveliest activity.

The following were the fares of the boats: Lister, 20,000; Magnolia, 3,000; Roald Amundsen, 15,000; Glacier, 16,000; Borealis, 30,000; Star, 18,000; Zorra, 5,000; Chief Skugaid, 30,000; Dorreen, 8,000; Alvilda, 11,000; Valhalla, 12,000; Rolfe, 13,000; Cora, 8,000; Grier Starrett, 14,000; Lillian S., 6,000; Nautilus, 3,000, and the Unity, 4,000 pounds.

The Atlin Company paid 10% cents for the fare of the Lister Saturday night, but as boats began to come along in big numbers on Sunday morning, the price dropped to 8% and 8% cents.

INDIAN WOMAN IS BRUTALLY MURDERED

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, May 1.—Rosie Wilson, an Indian woman aged 35, was hacked to death with an axe in a cabin on Alexander Street. Her companion, Mary Cole, gave the alarm four hours later charging Cecille Aquirre, a Peruvian laborer, with the crime.

Aquirre was arrested, but later, under questioning, the woman Cole admitted she killed the Wilson woman herself in a drunken quarrel over the cooking of dinner. Both prisoners have been held in custody. This is the fourth murder which has been committed within two hundred yards of this cabin in eight years.

ANOTHER FISH CONCERN IS ESTABLISHED HERE

The Goletas Fish Company, of Vancouver, the proprietors of the cannery at Shushartie Bay, have rented space on the government wharf for the handling of their halibut business. Mr. Payson, who represents the company here, made his first shipment today, having bought the fares of the schooners Nautilus and Unity which came in yesterday.

STRIKE DECLARED ON ALICE ARM ROADWORK

S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades and Labor Council, has received a wire that a strike has been declared on the roadwork at Alice Arm, there being a complete cessation of all work.

THOMAS' REPRESENTATIVE PASSED THROUGH TODAY

Charles F. Law, who represents the Thomas interests in this country, arrived from the south last night and left for Kitsumkalum Lake this morning. As was reported in The Daily News some time ago, D. A. Thomas, now Lord Rhondda, is largely interested in gold mining property at the lake. After making arrangements for the taking over of some more claims around Kitsumkalum Mr. Law will proceed into the Peace River country.

AFTER THE WAR—WHAT?

Ottawa, April 29.—While most of the legislators are discussing the Borden government After Sir Sam Lets Go, two or three of the wise ones, including George Grafton, Turiff and Macdonald of Pictou, have broached another subject even more important—Canada After The War, or The Backwash Will Catch You if You Don't Watch Out.

The Major-General's case makes a big noise now but graver questions knock at the door and his name suggests them. George Graham laid his finger on one of them when he pointed out that great care must be taken if this country, after the war, is not to be diverted from its love of peaceful pursuits. There are three hundred thousand men under arms now, with a possibility of two hundred thousand more being added if the war lasts beyond this year. When this great body of opinion in khaki is asked to resume the humdrum routine of peace what will it reply?

Roughly speaking it will reply in two ways. Those who have fought the Germans and seen the horrors of war will be glad to forget the awful experience and will be more or less satisfied to get back into the jog trot of orderly civilization. Never again—that is the sentiment of your citizen soldier who has once been through the hell men call war. Those who have been in khaki, but who have not had a chance to fight the Germans are another story. It is not unlikely that their untired hearts will still harbor a lot of martial fire and that those who want them to beat their swords into ploughshares will find them harder to argue with than the brave fellows who have been up against the real thing.

The courage of those who have fought and those who didn't, get a chance to fight may be taken as equal—they are all eager to serve King and country—but those who fought are sadder, wiser men for their dreadful experience and are more apt to reason than those who never came to grips with the enemy. Close observers of the recruiting cannot fail to have remarked how few of the Canadian South African veterans enlisted for this war. They had earned their release. Once was enough.

George Graham's fears probably have more to do with those who have taught war and never felt it than with those who have actually waged it. Once a soldier has learned through pain of body and stress of soul and the evidence of his eyes and the anguish of his heart what an awful curse war is, he can never have too much peace afterwards. He becomes the most useful citizen any country can have. Some of the most prosperous parts of Canada are those settled by old soldiers, who after a manhood of war's alarms, were glad enough to go back on the land, that refuge of tempered spirits, the good brown earth which spells contentment, happiness, fatness and which is the real strength of nations.

But the soldier has to be convinced first. Until the price of war in blood and tears and material treasure is realized he may have mistaken ideas as to the glory of the dreadful thing. It is these half-aroused heroes who will be confronted after the war, as George Graham points out, by a school of thought which will advocate the maintenance of an armed camp in Canada. This school of thought may be expected to do a lot of talking. The finance minister hinted at it not long ago when he warned parliament that it would be a considerable time before Canada could reduce her army to a peace footing and make the social and industrial readjustments for five hundred thousand men suddenly turned back on the country. Canada has for the time being, been forced into militarism—that is to say it has a wolf by the ears and it is hard to let go. George Graham's suggestions are simply along the line of making it easier to chase the wolf back to the woods by discouraging those who would keep the wild beast in our midst. Preparedness, yes—adequate preparedness—George Graham believes heartily in that but not preparedness to the extent of hampering a sane distribution of our national activities in other directions.

George Graham is no pessimist. He believes that prosperity, development, increased population are in store for Canada after the war, a population, not so many years away, of fifteen millions

GERMANS AGAIN DEFEATED WITH HEAVY LOSSES

Dense Masses Attacked Positions on Deadman's Hill—Enemy Losses Enormous—British Repel Gas Attack.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, May 1.—The German troops in dense masses made their expected attack last night on the positions captured by the French north of Deadman's Hill.

The attack was defeated, the German losses being enormous. The German attackers on the Cumieres positions were also repulsed.

Aerial Fights.

French aviators brought down four Fokkers and three other German aeroplanes yesterday without sustaining any loss.

One aviator brought down two Fokkers at a height of 1,500 metres over the German lines at Royes.

Germans Mowed Down.

The Germans made a gas attack along a two thousand yard British front at Messines, but were defeated. The British artillery mowed down the advancing Germans.

Townshend's Surrender.

The Turkish statement shows that four generals, 240 British officers and 270 Indian officers were taken prisoner at Kut-El-Amara. The Turk commander, Halil Pasha, permitted General Townshend to retain his sword as a token of his brave defence.

MORE LOOTING IS ALLEGED IN B. C.

The following is from the Nanaimo Free Press:

"Now that the wrecked Quadra has been successfully refloated, and will no doubt before long be in commission again, it would be interesting to know just what price was paid for her before salvage operations were begun. No particulars as to the price have ever been divulged, but we have heard it stated on good authority that she was actually sold to the B. C. Salvage Co. for the absurdly low figure of $2,300. If this is correct it is nothing short of scandalous."

The Free Press goes on to say that there was no request for tenders, though many firms were anxious to bid for the purchase of the vessel, and demands that there be an immediate and searching investigation into the whole transaction.

The winches alone must have been worth more than was paid for the whole ship and, as she is today, the Quadra must be worth many times what the B. C. Salvage Company paid for her.

MR. "KELLY"

There may have been "plugging" in the Vancouver by-election, and, if there were, it is to be hoped that the guilty party or parties will be made an example of. It is early yet to deal with the enquiry but it is permissible to review the little evidence which has been submitted.

In the first place, it is singularly unfortunate for the Tories who have been trying to show that there was political debauchery on the part of the Liberals, that "Kelly," of Seattle, was the first witness called. Here is a man who freely claims to have practically committed perjury on seven or eight occasions in one day. It is at once very evident that one more case of perjury would not weigh heavily upon the mind of such a man. If he were willing to break the law seven or eight times for $10, how far would he go for $50?

"Kelly" refused to give his real name, and the chairman of the committee upheld him in his refusal. This nameless gentleman also admitted that he had been convicted on a previous occasion in the south. He also admitted that he had rehearsed his evidence before Mr. Bullock-Webster before appearing before the committee. His mentioning that Sullivan, the hotel-keeper, promised him immunity from arrest four days before the government voted on the question, must have been a slight overlook on his part. He also quite forgot which polling places he voted in. This is a plain statement of the facts brought out in the evidence, and requires little further comment.

It will be more interesting when "Kelly" tells who hired him, though probably he has forgotten that or never knew. One of the jokes of the elections in Vancouver and Victoria was that many of the hired Tory voters "double-crossed" their bosses and this may account for the whole miserable business.

The Tories for years have carried "loaded voters' lists" in this province and it will be remembered that, when local Liberals some time ago tried to have many of the dead names removed, the local Tory organ held up its hands in horror. Such a thing as producing a clean, honest voters' list was not to be heard of. It may prove that the Tories have been "hoist with their own petard," and, if they have, they will get little sympathy.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Tories are hailing the "plugging" investigation with delight as they find it a pleasant respite from the public accounts revelations.

General Townshend seems to have suffered from the usual war office failing of sending a boy on a man's errand.

The Canadian Pacific coast navy has made its first capture. The report did not state whether the Rainbow was accompanied by submarines.

How did John L. Sullivan know that the government would grant immunity from arrest to John J. "Kelly" four days before the government was aware of the fact?

prosperity to develop along right lines, unmolested by a school of thought which would rob the land to make a standing army of European proportions. Preparedness in George Graham's mind probably means a citizen militia, well trained, well armed, well gunned, and the money now spent on gold braid and feathers turned to rifle ranges and good marksmanship. The other school of thought, the one George Graham apprehends, has in mind a Canada with teeth bristling, a permanent corps at least ten times the present size, and a vaster flock of armament millionaires than has been.

This school of thought has gained a lot of headway in Canada owing to circumstances over which Canada has had no control—namely the European war. A majority of the army contractors naturally belong to it, grafters like Colonel John Wesley Allison just naturally love it and Major General Sir Sam Hughes, to say the least, has done nothing to frighten it off. brigadiers, the club-chair colonels, the M. P. and M. P. P. colonels who draw double pay for staying at home, the genial host of half-seas-over warriors who figure battles out on the tablecloth with bread-crumbs,—all these will be for making Canada an armed camp, with day and night shifts. The honorary colonels with whom this country is freckled, not to say pitted, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, will be enthusiastic alumni of the new school of thought. They will not want to hand their handsome uniforms over to the moth balls. They will want to go on strutting.

This is the school of thought which George Graham apprehends will try to convert five hundred thousand soldiers with votes to their ideas. These five hundred thousand soldiers may have ideas of their own, ideas hammered into them by their new life, ideas that may upset a few politicians, but whatever those ideas are they will probably make their own right of way. Meanwhile George Graham deems it advisable to keep tab on any reactionary school of thought which may be hanging around while the soldiers do their thinking.

Canada has got to do some straight thinking and do it quick. Since the booze was abolished this has become a harder country to govern. The workingman—and the workingman one way and another is eighty per cent. of the population—now that his chief drug is taken away will approach public questions and public men in a more thoughtful, if more irritable frame of mind.

It will be harder to fool him.
Statesmen will need to mind their p's and q's. Incidentally it is going to be a harder country to steal in—for two reasons. Because the people will be watching more closely and because the country can't afford it. After-the-war finance is going to be a matter of pinching pennies—there will be no margin for graft.

Also there will be great need of economy. The ministers will have to calculate their estimates to a dollar—there will be little room for over-votes and supple-mentaries. Turriff of Assiniboia, another Liberal who faces the future with clear vision, suggested the other day that the Hon.
Robert Rogers might begin right now. The Hon. Bob has cherished in his department for two years over-votes aggregating $34,000,- 000. He didn't spend the money because it was advisable that the Public Works Department should go slowly, but he kept the money around to make him feel easy.

Nonchalant financing indeed, especially at a time, when, as Turriff points out, Canada is confronted with a possible war debt of a billion dollars and a possible railway debt of another billion, making interest charges of over a hundred million dollars a year. Which is strictly in line with George Graham's apprehensions of a militarist school of thought which would want to spend a hundred millions more.
The country does not need it and can't pay for it—two good reasons for not having it.—H. F. G.

GRAND OPENING OF WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight sees the grand opening of the Westholme Theatre under its new management. The big picture feature for the opening show is "My Old Dutch," a five-act photoplay featuring the world famous coster comedian, Albert Chevalier. Chevalier needs no introduction, as his fame has spread throughout the world in the last twenty years. There is also an Animated Weekly of the latest news and a screaming comedy entitled "Levin's Holiday."

In addition to the picture program, numbers will be rendered by the ladies of the Italian cabaret which was one of the great attractions at the Carnival of the Allies. Ten per cent. of the proceeds will go to the Red Cross fund.

During the remainder of the week the Westholme will provide programs which would bring credit to the big theatres in the large cities. The serials "The Goddess" and "Graft" are being continued.

BIG EASTER BALL AT SMELTER TOWN

At Anyox, last Monday evening, the Danza Club gave an Easter ball which must have been the finest thing of the kind ever organized in the smelter town. The hall was gorgeously decorated with multi-colored lights, clouds of bunting and flowers, while there were liveried attendants and the best of music. The prevailing color tone was a combination of Nile green and pale pink and this effect was carried even to the icing on the cakes and confectionery.

The dancing arrangements were in the capable hands of Messrs. Blatherwick, Bazzett-Jones and Hutchings, while the music was provided by Moore's five-piece orchestra, which is claimed to be second to none in the north. Everybody had a great time and morning came all too soon.

ODDFELLOWS' SERVICE

About forty members of the local lodge of Oddfellows attended divine service in the Presbyterian Church last evening. The Rev. H. R. Grant founded his discourse on the parable of the Good Samaritan, applying its teaching of charity to present day cases, individual and national. In the course of his sermon, the preacher related instances of splendid charity by Oddfellows which had come under his notice, and pointed out that such charity is the first teaching of Christ. The church was crowded, extra chairs having to be brought in and placed in the aisle. The choir rendered music fitting to the occasion.

THE BEAUTY OF SUNLIGHT

A substitute for Sunlight is not as good and never can be. Insist upon the genuine—Sunlight Soap.

The name Lever on Soap is a guarantee of Purity and Excellence.

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights

the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising

he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumada Building, Toronto.
