SECRETARY FOR IRELAND SENDS IN RESIGNATION

Augustine Birrell resigns Because of Criticism—London Press Clamored for his Removal.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 3.—Augustine Birrell, Secretary for Ireland, resigned his portfolio today as a result of the criticism which has been levelled at him over the disturbance in Ireland.

Besides the Northcliffe papers, the Daily Telegraph, the Manchester Guardian, The Evening News, the Pall Mall Gazette and other papers which have supported the Asquith administration, clamored for Birrell's resignation.

The Westminster Gazette, probably the most influential political publication in London, said it "Needs a great deal more information than at present is available before passing judgment on Mr. Birrell or the other members of the Irish executive."

The Rt. Hon. Augustine Birrell is a Scotchman and an essayist of note. He has been Secretary for Ireland for ten years and did much towards the passing of the Irish Home Rule Bill. He brought in a Home Rule Bill shortly after the Asquith government went into power but his measure was rejected by the Nationalists, as not being drastic enough.

GERMAN WOMEN ARE SHOT DOWN IN BERLIN RIOTS

Vast Crowds Clamor for Peace in Various Parts of Germany—Germans are Again Repulsed.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, May 3.—Vast crowds, composed largely of women of the laboring class, are clamoring for peace in Berlin and other parts of Germany. Twenty-five have been killed and two hundred wounded by the police in Berlin. Three have been killed and seventy wounded in Leipzig during food riots.

Germans Repulsed.
A German attack near Harazee in the Argonne region has been repulsed with serious losses to the enemy. There is heavy artillery fighting on the Verdun front.

A German offensive which was commenced before Raggasem has been repulsed by the Russians.

Barriers of floating mines bearing the legend "Christ is Risen," in Bulgarian characters, have been discovered in the Black Sea.

Italian Successes.
The Alpine towns of Crozzon and Covento have been taken by the Italians following upon the capture of the heights by the Italian troops.

ANOTHER RUPERT SOLDIER RETURNS

Albert Allett, one of Prince Rupert's first contingent, arrived on the train last evening, having crossed the Atlantic in the Allen liner Scandinavian. Mr. Allett was wounded in the right arm at Festubert at the time Art. Noble was wounded.

On recovering, he went back to the trenches and at Givenchy sustained a wound in the body from a piece of shrapnel, while his eyes were affected by the gas which was then used by the Germans. Private Allett was beside Lionel Crippen when he fell, and stated that "Crip" was carrying ammunition when he was knocked out. He received a terrible blow in the body and died almost instantaneously. Private Allett was not slow to express his thankfulness in being back once more in Prince Rupert. While in England he met several of the boys who went from this city with the later contingents. He states that he had several opportunities of speaking with German prisoners, many of whom had been in Canada. He says that the thinking men amongst them admitted that the Germans are beaten.

RUSSIAN TROOPS LAND IN FRANCE
The accompanying map shows the probable route taken by the Russians who have been landing in France to fight beside their French allies on the western front.

FIFTEEN HALIBUT SCHOONERS ARRIVE

There were fifteen halibut schooners at the government wharf this morning with about 200,000 pounds of halibut. The fares were: Theckla 23,000, Thelma 27,000, Elsie 16,000, Aurora 8,000, Eagle 25,000, Norman Sunde 27,000, Teddy J. 18,000, Viking 3,000, Tuladi 12,000, Gilford 10,000, Alliance No. 1 9,000, Roald 4,000, Kincolith 5,000, Muirneag 11,000, and Merry Maid 3,000 pounds.

There had been no bidding up to going to press, but it is expected that the price will be around 7 cents, there being a big supply of fish at Seattle.

The captain of the American schooner Theckla asked the authorities for permission to tie up at the wharf here, his men having joined the strikers.

GOLETAS COMPANY WILL START CURING

F. E. Payson, who has been here for some time making arrangements for the opening of a branch of the Goletas Fish Company of Vancouver, expects to return south shortly. Mr. Payson has every confidence in the future of the fishing industry here. His company intends to develop the smoked fish trade as well as to handle fresh halibut. A smoke house has been secured at Cameron Bay where black cod and other fish will be cured and prepared for shipment. Mr. Davidson will represent the company at this point.

APRIL CASUALTY LIST IS HEAVY

London, May 2.—British casualties for the month of April are slightly in excess of those for March. The total from all fields of operation is 4,255 officers and 19,256 men, compared with 4,107 officers and 19,317 men in March.

"Graft," the Westholme feature for tonight, is a series of sixteen splendid stories illustrating the machinations of a big combination of bloodless capitalists.

SEATTLE YARN OF MAROONED GERMANS

The following yarn is from the Seattle Times:

Marooned on a small Canadian island just north of Queen Charlotte Sound, four Germans, who are technically prisoners of war, now face the danger of starvation, according to word brought to Seattle yesterday by the purse seine fishing boat Hellenic, of this port, arriving from a cruise after halibut in Southeastern Alaska waters.

The Hellenic touched at the island on the voyage back to Seattle. Members of the vessel's crew say that the Germans had barely enough flour to last three days. The fishermen were appalled by the plight of the Germans. For each German, the vessel left two pounds of butter, two cans of condensed milk and other provisions. The crew also donated a small sack of potatoes. They gave the Germans all the food they could spare from the ship.

The Germans have a small boat but it is too frail to venture out on the Queen Charlotte Sound waters. The crew of the Hellenic report that the marooned Teutons said they took up homesteads on the island before the European war. On the outbreak of the war, it was said, the Canadian authorities provided means for allowing the womenfolk and children of the four Germans to come back to civilization, but the men were left to shift for themselves.

While appalled at the plight of the four men, the Hellenic was unable to give any assistance other than the donation of food. To have taken the Germans off the island and brought them to Seattle would have been violating neutrality.

The Daily News made enquiry of J. H. McLeod and Chief Gammon regarding the alleged German prisoners and finds that there is no truth in the above yarn. Either the crew of the Hellenic or the Times reporter had been "stuffed."

IRISH LEADERS ARE TRIED AND SHOT IN LONDON

Loyal Irish Demand Relentless Severity—German Officers Promised Troops from Germany.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 3.—Three of the Irish rebel leaders, signatories to the Irish Republican proclamation, were tried by court martial and shot today.

Irish opinion is demanding relentless severity in the handling of the rebels. Many of the latter have turned King's evidence and will reveal the identity of the higher-ups who had a hand in the rebellion.

German Promises.

There were Irish speaking German officers amongst the rebels, who had promised that, if the British troops were held at bay until May 2, German troops would arrive to the assistance of the insurgents.

The uprising has now been completely extinguished and sightseers are permitted to enter the city of Dublin. The rebel losses exceed five hundred.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM THE TRENCHES

A lengthy and most interesting letter has reached town from Bob Wiggins, one of the Scotch boys who left with the 48th Battalion. Bob is one of five brothers who enlisted for active service, three of whom are still in the trenches. A fourth brother was killed and the fifth lost an arm in the fray.

The censor has deleted some of the epistle, but what is left makes interesting reading. Bob says that the frost and snow are gone and for the last three weeks they have had dry feet and a comfortable time. He is particularly struck by the attention the Belgians pay to their religious duties, nearly every house having its little shrine. The peasants near the firing line appear to be poverty stricken, but most of them make a fairly good living selling soft drinks and native beer to the soldiers. Occasionally the boys are fortunate enough to be billeted at a well-furnished farmhouse when they consume unheard of numbers of fresh eggs and unlimited quantities of milk.

Bob was lucky enough to meet his two brothers in the trenches, one of them having cycled 25 miles to meet him. In spite of the shells they seem to have had a real good time. He describes "listening post" duty as rather trying to the nerves and tells of one occasion when a party of Canadians crept close up to the German barbed-wire entanglements when they were met by a German picket, when a battle royal ensued. Four of the Canadian boys were killed and seven.

HOTEL-KEEPER PAID FINE FOR IMPERSONATOR

Sullivan had "Kelly" Released from Jail—Bowser did not Remember about Mannington Graft.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Victoria, May 3.—The enquiry into the alleged "plugging" in the Vancouver election is proceeding. W. H. Waller, John Redderick and Peter Stewart testified that they accompanied the party on the trip from Seattle and voted for Macdonald. All admitted that they had previously been in trouble with the police.

Waller said that John L. Sullivan, the Vancouver hotel-keeper, paid "Kelly's" fine and secured his release from jail to allow him to come to Victoria to testify at the enquiry.

Mannington Recalled.

H. C. Mannington, late inspector of legal offices, was recalled before the Public Accounts Committee and took back his statement that Bowser knew of his $2,000 commission three years ago. He said that Bowser cannot remember anything about it and he accepts Bowser's memory as final.

JUDGMENT AGAINST PRINCE RUPERT CLUB

After due deliberation, His Honor Judge Robertson has given his decision in the suit of the Prince Rupert Club V. The Employers' Liability Assurance Corporation for the recovery of $1,000. Judgment is given in favor of the defendant company with costs. The ground taken is that the club did not give the corporation proper notice of the defalcations of its book-keeper, as required in the contract.

Alfred Cars represented the Prince Rupert Club when the case was heard here some two months ago and Alex. M. Manson appeared for the Employers' Liability Corporation.

LOOKING BACK

Very few men in our midst have made such a close study of the present war as the Rev. H. R. Grant, and on Sunday evening he made an observation which is worthy of comment. He used it to make a point in his able discourse to the Oddfellows, but it is of great historic importance. It was to the effect that had the Germans taken the straightforward course and attacked France directly through Verdun, instead of taking the roundabout way through Belgium, there would have been a vastly different story to tell.

A glance at a map shows that the shortest way to Paris was via Verdun. In order to evade tackling this fortress, the Germans criminally cast aside their treaty with Belgium and the other nations, and tried to rush through to France via Liege and Namur. It is a matter of history how those forts, manned by the brave sons of Belgium, stayed their progress, but it is also almost a certainty that, in August, 1914, Verdun would have put up very little more resistance, if any, than Liege did, for today, it is not the old fortress which is holding the Germans at bay, but the methods of trench defence which have been devised since the battle of the Marne.

It seems tolerably certain, therefore, that had the Germans attacked Verdun first, they would have made their way to Paris and there would have been no battle of the Marne. Had Germany taken the honest course, Great Britain would not have had her excuse to step in when she did, and probably France would have been overrun by Germans and the British coast bombarded before Britain took any action. It seems useless to dwell on what might have been, but it is interesting to note how Germany's ruthless disregard for international law at the beginning has proved her undoing.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Latest reports from the Verdun front do not point to a very cheerful celebration of Crown Prince Willie's birthday on Saturday.

The French aviators during April bagged, on an average, one German aeroplane per day, with one over, while the French lost only six during the month. In the air and on land, the French are doing wonders.

The Irish rebels gained nothing, and could never have hoped to gain anything, while they have brought about the wrecking of the best part of the fair city of Dublin.

The most important part of "Kelly's" evidence in the election enquiry is the part he refused to give, namely the name of the man who paid him to come to Vancouver and vote.

Perhaps the Bowser government will see its way to promise immunity to the man who provided the money to the "pluggers" in order that the truth may come out.

With a prospective enquiry into the Victoria election frauds, including the purchase of $22 worth of whisky by one called Harry Price, Bowser will now be figuring that the public will forget all about the twisting of contracts in connection with the Parliament Buildings.

SPLENDID SHOW AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Elsie Janis, in "Twas Ever Thus," scored a most decided hit at the Westholme last night. This sprightly little actress displays wonderful versatility in the role of a maiden of the stone age; a daughter of the period of crinolines, and as an up-to-date, clear-eyed young lady of the present. It was perhaps in the latter role that she was most successful, her acting of the kitchen maid being particularly clever and highly amusing. There was also a two-act drama of frontier days and an Eclair Gazette.

Tonight, the second episode of "Graft" will be shown, and there should be another full house. This week's installment deals with the "Tenement Graft" and is full of interest and clever acting.

teen wounded, but they were able to carry off their dead and wounded, the Germans having had enough of it.

He confesses to being at times impressed by the inhumanity of war, but not for long as they are kept very busy and the boys are so cheerful and optimistic that there is not much time for brooding. He is loud in his praises of the work which has been and is still being done by the French soldiers. The Canadian and British troops recently drafted to the front have taken over the trenches of the French in order to allow seasoned French troops to be transferred to the Verdun front. He is strongly of the opinion that the war will not last another winter.

One of the most striking scenes he has encountered is the French and Belgian farmer plowing and sowing up to within a mile of the firing line. The other day he saw a farmer sowing wheat while shells were bursting not more than a hundred yards away. Bob is looking forward to returning to Prince Rupert when his present job is over.

NAPOLEON WAS TOWNSHEND'S MODEL

General Townshend, the gallant British leader at Kut-El-Amara, whom the Turkish commander permitted to retain his sword because of the bravery of his defence, was one of the heroes of the Chitral expedition in 1894, when a small band of British and Indian soldiers held a mountain post against heavy odds until the arrival of a relief company. At that time, Townshend was a lieutenant and this was his first taste of warfare. The exciting experience fired his ambition and he set to work to study strategy and military organisation. Napoleon was his model and every work on the military theories and practices of the great general he pondered carefully, devoting seven hours every day to the task. He visited every one of Napoleon's famous battle fields, reconstructing for himself the disposition of the forces of the battles which decided the fate of nations in the early part of the nineteenth century.

General Townshend was one of the soldiers who believed that, in the event of war with Germany, Britain would not be able to rely solely on her fleet, but must have a large army ready for the field. He always contended that the German attack would be made through Belgium and many times surveyed what he considered would be the probable battle fields and formed his theories and plans of campaign years before 1914. It was one of the ironies of fate which sent him away up the Tigris to spend months besieged by Turks and Arabs at Kut-El-Amara, when so much of his military training and study had been devoted to the field of the western front.—Ex.

Coughing scatters germs — Stop it
Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others. Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure. The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is especially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer. Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.

PRINTERS' "PI."

"J. J. Kelly,"
THE VOTE expert,
FROM Seattle,
REFUSED yesterday
TO REVEAL the name
OF THE party
WHO PAID him
FOR HIS labors
IN Vancouver
ON ELECTION day.
"KELLY" has evidently
BEEN granted immunity
FROM GIVING evidence
AS WELL as
IMMUNITY from arrest.
IF THE committee
FAILS to discover
WHO paid
FOR THE votes
IT HAS failed
ENTIRELY.
"KELLY" says
HE wants
TO TELL the truth,

BUT HALF the truth,
IN THIS case,
IS WORSE
THAN a falsehood,
IT MAY be
THAT the committee
DOES not wish
TO discover
ALL the truth,
AND, in that event,
THE PUBLIC will draw
ITS OWN conclusions.
IF the name

THE WHOLE enquiry
WILL have been
A HUGE farce,
AS IT will
HAVE succeeded
IN HIDING the truth
INSTEAD OF FINDING IT.

THE BEAUTY OF SUNLIGHT

is that every garment washed with it bears the impress of purity; a purity begotten of sweet, cleansing oils, and maintained by absolute cleanliness in manufacture; a purity exalted by the co-operation of workers united for the purpose; a purity demonstrated by the "$5,000 guarantee" which rests upon every bar of SUNLIGHT SOAP.

A substitute for Sunlight is not as good and never can be. Insist upon the genuine—Sunlight Soap.

The name Lever on Soap is a guarantee of Purity and Excellence.

Don't merely smother your cough

CURE IT—Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil not only promptly arrests coughing, but thanks to its tonic and strengthening properties it helps the system to throw off the cold and thus effects a permanent cure. It is this quality which has won for it the largest sale of any cough and cold remedy in Canada.

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights

the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising

he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
