MEXICAN SITUATION LOOKS MORE SERIOUS

WILSON STANDS FIRM -- GERMANS TAKE TRENCHES ONLY TO LOSE THEM AGAIN

SITUATION IN MEXICO LOOKS MORE SERIOUS

Wilson Stays with His Demands that Offenders be Punished— Report Further Treachery by the Mexicans.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, June 24.—The Mexican situation is still clouded and it is believed that President Wilson will demand that Carranza repudiate the acts of the persons responsible for the attack upon American bluejackets at Mazatti and also of those who instigated the recent fight with United States cavalry at Carrizal, and that the offenders be punished.
It is reported that the United States has asked Great Britain to look after American interests in Mexico, through her diplomats, in the event of hostilities breaking out.

El Paso Report.

El Paso, Texas, June 24.—The Mexican government states that a million men have offered their services for the defence of Mexico since the crisis with Washington loomed up.

Another Scrap.

The Hotel Rupert bulletin says that two parties of the Tenth Cavalry have been practically wiped out by the Mexicans. In course of a parley, the Mexicans turned machine guns on the Americans and charged. There were but seven survivors.

DUKE OF CONNAUGHT MAY RETURN HOME

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 24.—H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught, whose term as Governor-General of Canada expires next October, has received the sanction of King George to return to England.
The King has also excused Prince Alexander of Teck, whose appointment as successor to the Duke of Connaught was made before the outbreak of the war. The Prince feels that he cannot at present relinquish his military duties.

GERMANS' LIQUID FIRE TURNED ON THEMSELVES

A French officer who went through some of the fiercest episodes in the Verdun fighting relates in his notebook the story of how he and a companion were able to turn the tables on a section of the enemy, in the course of a desperate hand-grenade fight.

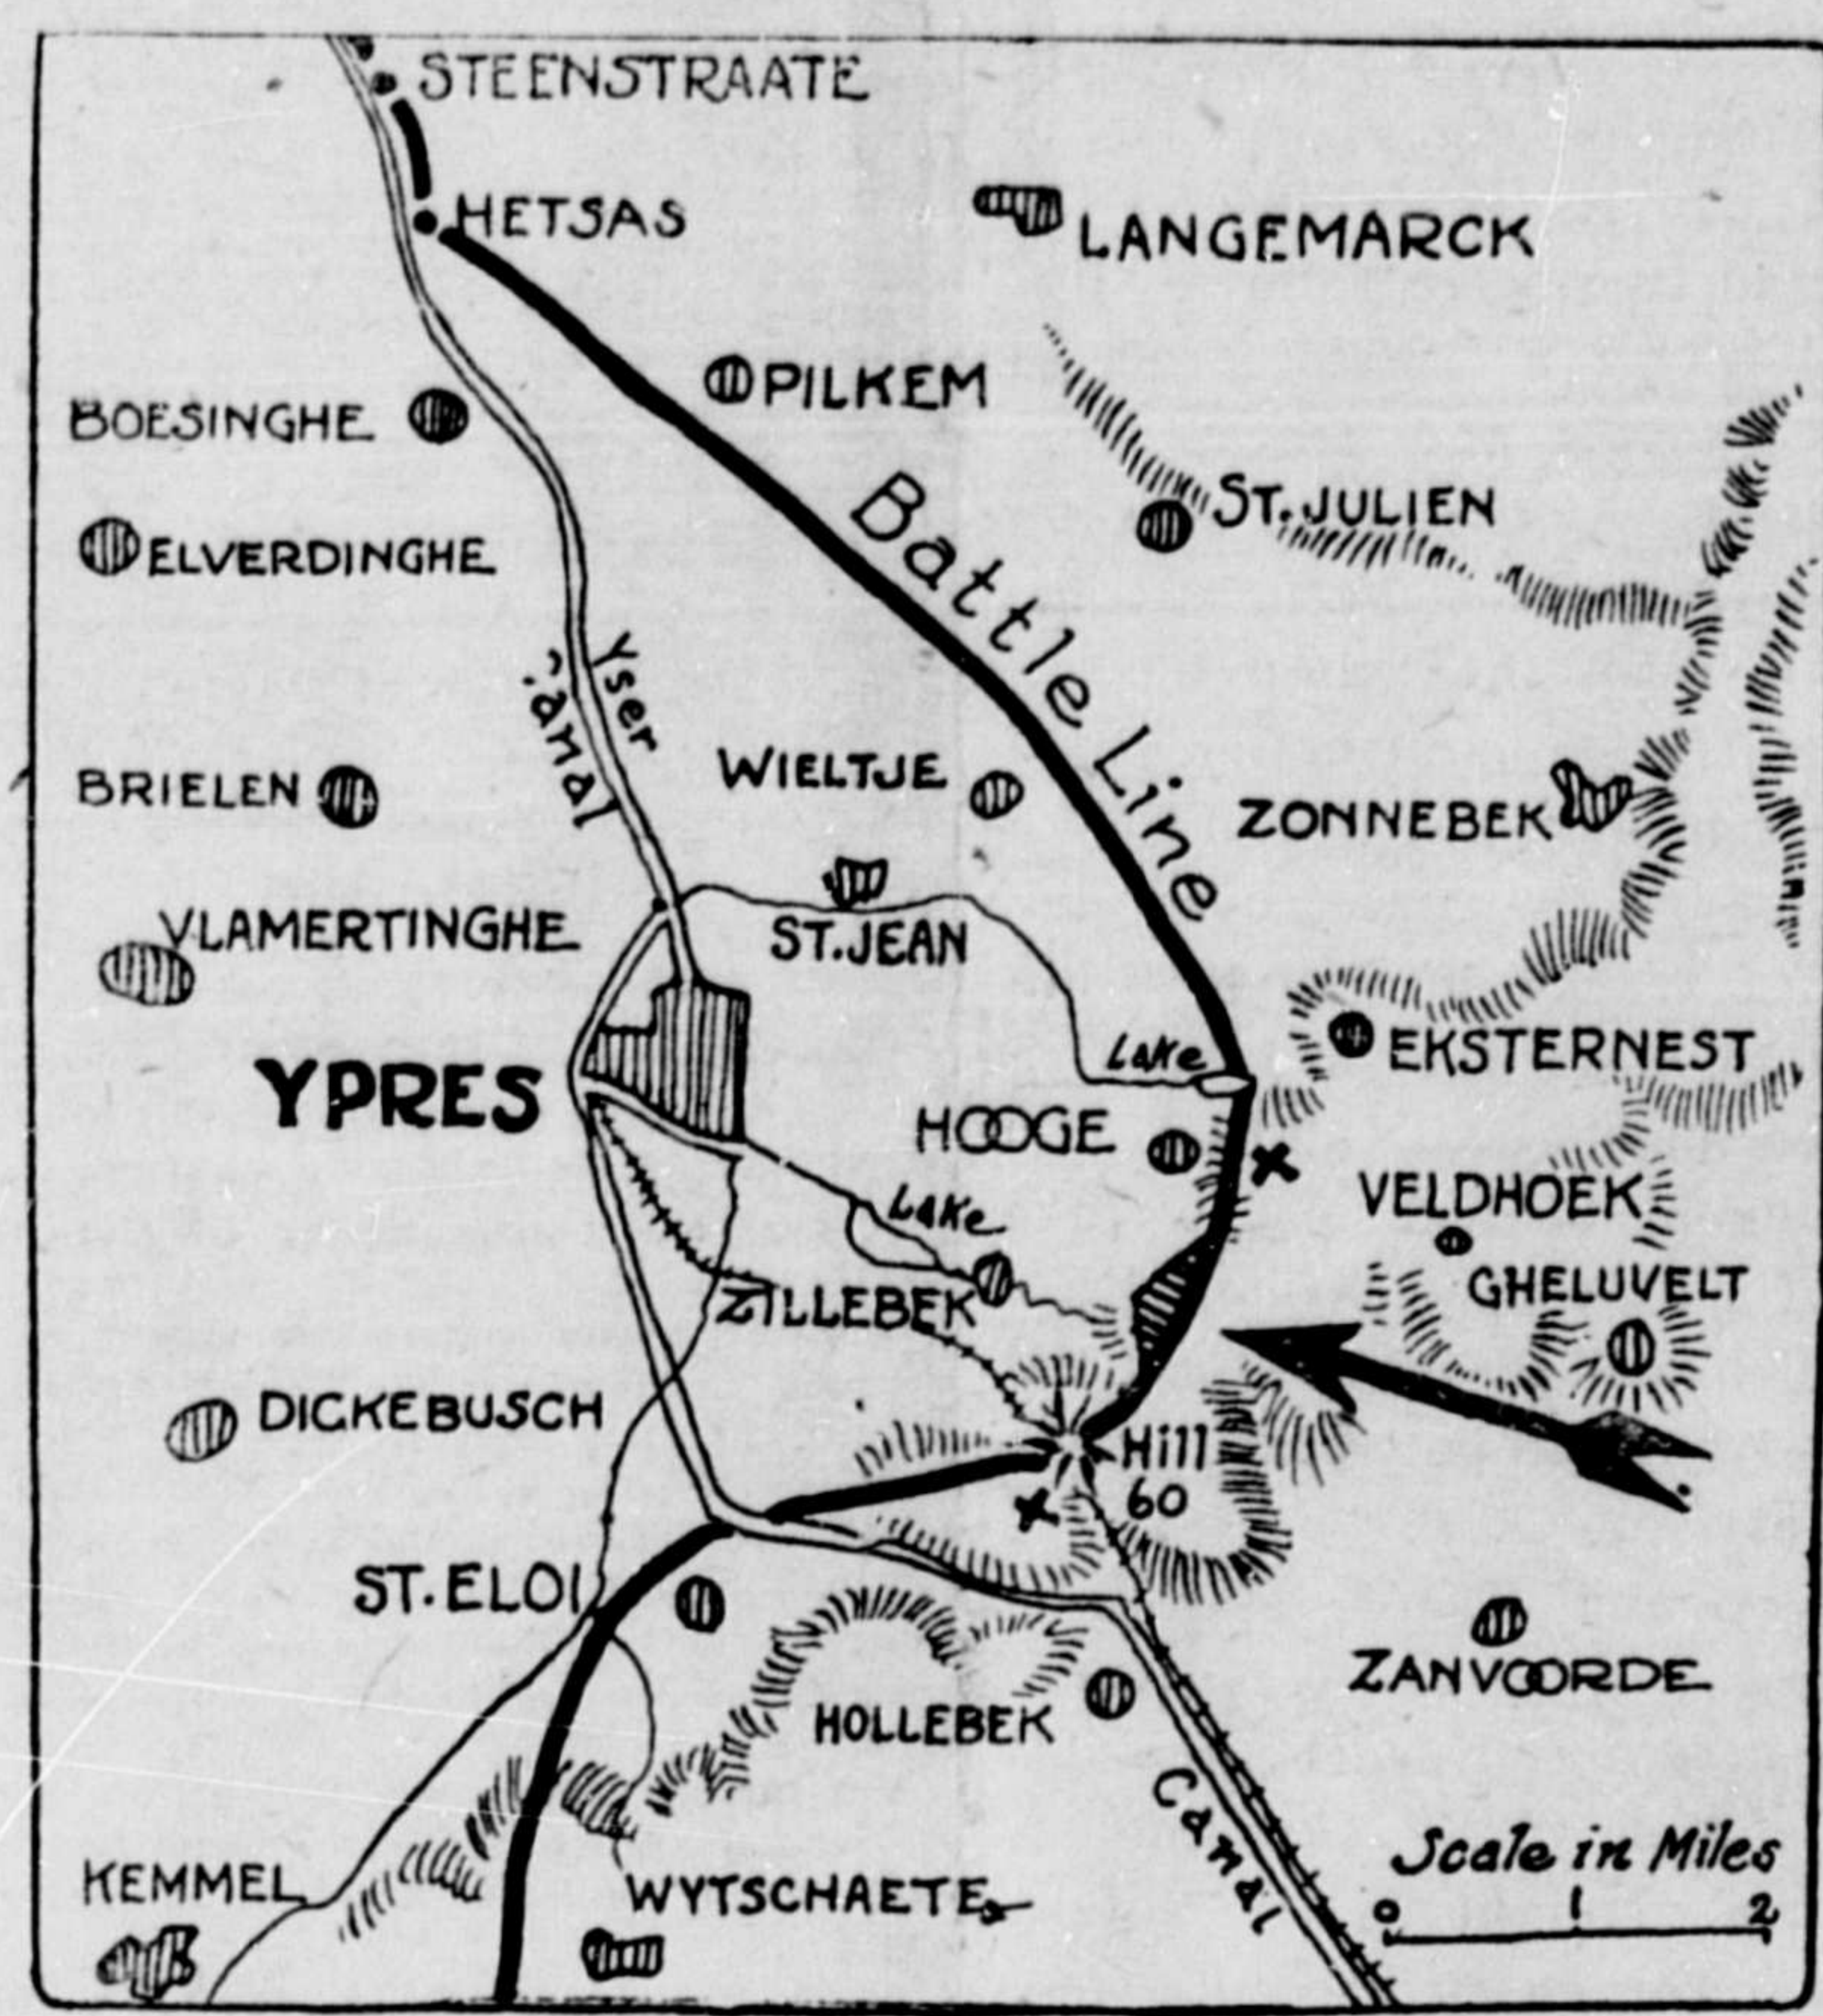

It was while this fight was going on that one of my corporals called me. He had made a discovery that was very interesting, and was destined to turn the tables on the enemy. He took me to a sort of vat that he had found in front of the parapet of the Boche trench. I recognized it as an apparatus for burning liquid, and hastily studied its mechanism by a pocket lamp. It was very simple. It needed nothing but the movement of a pump handle, and was all ready, no doubt, for our reception.

We hurriedly carried the infernal vat to the mouth of the trench where our comrades were fighting. Some of them had already fallen, and were lying there in their blood. The fall of dusk helped us, and we installed the machine without being seen. A spark, and then what a sight! With a hiss, a green and red flame shot out like a fiery serpent, and spread into a huge fan of flames that submerged the whole trench.

I shall never forget the piercing shrieks and hoarse groans. They were the cries of the damned! The sheet of fire surprised the thirty Germans who were sheltered behind the barrier of Chevaux-de-frise and fired on us from there. They tried to scramble out, but their limbs were a mass of burns, and they could not use them and their eyes were blinded. After a vain attempt they fell back for ever, and all was over. We were now masters of the trench and during the night my men fortified the position.—Scotsman.

HEAVY ARRIVALS OF HALIBUT YESTERDAY

About 200,000 pounds of halibut and 30,000 pounds of spring salmon came in yesterday and all went to the Cold Storage Company. The arrivals were: Muirneag, 5,000; Alliance, 9,000; Dooreen, 10,000; Roald Amundsen, 20,000; Grier Stirratt, 25,000; Zibassa, 30,000, and the Andrew Kelly, 75,000.

The German official statement admits that the British at Ypres recovered fifteen hundred yards of territory taken by the Germans near Sanctuary Wood on June 3rd.

PARTY OF PRAIRIE FARMERS VISIT CITY

A party of fourteen prairie farmers arrived from the east last evening and are staying at the Savoy Hotel. Most of the party own land in the Bulkley Valley and have been visiting their holdings in the interior.

The party is:—A. E. Harvey, Oak Lake, Man.; Isaac Cormack, Oak Lake, Man.; H. R. Tolton, Oak Lake, Man.; E. Langley and O. Drummond, Langley, Man.; J. R. Horn, J. Wall and J. Milne, of Lenora, Man.; A. Thomson, Roden, Man.; C. E. Mackenzie, Bradwarden, Man.; W. Mackay and G. Campbell, Kenton, Man.; and W. Cowling and D. Cowling, Crandall, Man. Several of the party left for San Francisco this afternoon and the others will return east on Monday's train.

FORMER RUPERTORIAN IN ROYAL IRISH RIFLES

Word has been received in town from Percy Miller, one of Prince Rupert's old timers and now in the 15th Royal Irish Rifles. Mr. Miller has been at the front for six months and has been through some heavy fighting in which his regiment suffered severely. His company, however, got off with only one man killed and four wounded.

Unlike most of the soldiers from here, he has met none of his old friends from the north and at the time of writing had just heard that Crippen had been killed. He makes anxious enquiries regarding Gamble, Crew and the rest of his old friends.

Last evening, in the presence of a few friends, Rev. Father Bunoz united in holy matrimony, Miss M. L. Murphy, of this city, and Mr. Bruce Morton, of Anyox, and formerly of Prince Rupert. Mr. and Mrs. Morton are receiving the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

NORTHERN REUNION ON WESTERN FRONT

The boys of the first contingent from Prince Rupert held a great reunion in the trenches on June 1st, when fifty-two of the original party met to spin old-time yarns about the north.

On the back of the Menu Card was the following: Itinerary of the "Great Adventure" Tour—Nov. 6th, 1914—Left Prince Rupert for Victoria, B. C. Feb. 14th, 1915—Left Shorncliffe Camp for France. April 28th, 1915—Arrived at "The Front." Ypres, Festubert, Givenchy, Ploegstreet, Kemmel, Messines, Hill 60—Committee in charge: Lieut. G. E. Gibson, Sergt. R. W. Cameron, Corp. F. Batchelor, Pte. P. F. Godenrath.

The Menu reads: A la Hotel Prince Rupert—Hors d'oeuvres—Poisson, Saumon Mayonnaise a la Skeena—Vrandes Fordes, Jambon de Fort George; Poulet de Porcher; Rote boeuf Lac Fraser. Salades—Pommes de tene en Salade Hazelton; Salade de Granby. Entremets—Macedoine de Fruits de Terrasse; Souffle; Gelee de Massett, Fruits—Pommes; Bananas; Oranges; Figs; Raisins; Fromage Blanc. Celeri; Orquon; Cresson. Cafe Noir a la Stewart.

FAMILIAR NAMES IN LATEST CASUALTY LIST

Two names appear in the latest casualty lists which may represent local men. One is Pioneer Robert Noble, killed, and the other is William Dennis, wounded. Mr. Noble was formerly on the Liela R, and joined the pioneers.

There is a possibility that the William Dennis mentioned is not the popular "Scotty," as his initials were W. G. It will be sincerely hoped that Prince Rupert's soldier poet is still on the firing line. The Weekly Scotsman has recently published several pieces of "Scotty's" verse dealing with life in the trenches.

HEAVY CANADIAN CASUALTY LISTS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, June 24.—Major General Sir Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia, has left for the west on a tour of inspection of the various military training camps in the prairie provinces and British Columbia.

More Casualties.
Yesterday's casualty lists issued by the Militia Department show a total of 541 in the ranks of the various Canadian battalions.

No More Kilts.
The militia department will not authorize the mobilization of any more Highland regiments as it is claimed that the kilt is not suited to trench warfare.

Dr. James Dead.
Toronto, June 24.—Dr. R. C. James, Dominion Agricultural Commissioner, died here yesterday.

GIVE AND TAKE FIGHTING ALONG VERDUN FRONT

Germans take Trenches but are Driven out later—Heavy Attacks Repulsed—Air Activity.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, June 24.—In the region northeast of Verdun the Germans took the French first line trenches between Hill 321 and 320 and also at Thiaumont.

The Germans drove their attack as far as Fleury, but were there repulsed. In other sectors in this region heavy German offensives were stopped by the French artillery and machine gun fire.

The Hotel Rupert bulletin says that the French here regained most of the ground lost northeast of Verdun.

Air Activity.
London, June 24.—Along the western front there is considerable activity in the air, there being frequent encounters between German and Allied aeroplanes. Two British machines have been brought down.

Home Rule.
Belfast, June 24.—A Nationalist Convention, at which there were representatives from the six counties in Ulster which would be excluded from Home Rule, has accepted the proposals of the Hon. D. Lloyd George.

SIR H. RIDER HAGGARD EN ROUTE TO CANADA

Sir H. Rider Haggard, the famous novelist and agriculturist, is now on his way to Canada to investigate the possibilities of the Dominion in connection with the Imperial colonization plans for soldiers after the war. Sir Rider Haggard has already visited South Africa, New Zealand and Australia and is expected to arrive in Vancouver from the Antipodes in a few days.

HEALTHIEST ONE IN THE FAMILY

No Sign Of Dropsy And Kidney Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

HATTIE WARREN
Port Robinson, Ont., July 8th, 1915.
"We have used "Fruit-a-tives" in our house for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for "Fruit-a-tives" and would never be without them".

A GERMAN JOKE

The Ulk, the comic supplement of the Berliner Tageblatt, has the following skit on the British official reports on the Zeppelin visits: "Yesterday, once more four Zep-pelins appeared over England. They threw 38 bombs, of which 42 did not explode. As usual no damage was done. Only at Dover an inkstand was upset by the air draught and a bright red tablecloth was spoilt. A pike was also hit on the Suffolk coast at the very moment when it was going to attack a lady bather. In Devonshire the Mayor's new silk hat was soiled by a splash of mud. Nobody was wounded or killed. On the contrary, a sick soldier on leave recovered from his illness through excitement. Anyone who does not attach complete credence to this report will be conscripted without delay."

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw them more clearly than ever before that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You can sail from Montreal to Vancouver now, around the Horn. You can get there, but it is going to take months. A year or so from now you will sail through the Panama Canal and chop the journey to less than half. A new channel will have been dug.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumden Building, Toronto.

Production and Thrift

"To win the war with the decisiveness which will ensure lasting peace, the Empire will require to put forth its full collective power in men and in money. From this viewpoint it is our true policy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exertions and by exercising rigid economy, which reduces to the minimum all expenditures upon luxuries and non-essentials. Only in this way shall we be able to make good the loss caused by the withdrawal of so many of our workers from industrial activities, repair the wastage of the war, and find the funds for its continuance. It cannot be too frequently or too earnestly impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still lie before us, and that industry and thrift are, for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfilment our success, and consequently our national safety, may ultimately depend."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

- PRODUCE MORE, SAVE MORE.
- MAKE LABOUR EFFICIENT.
- SAVE MATERIALS FROM WASTE.
- SPEND MONEY WISELY.

LET US PRODUCE AND SAVE—

The war is now turning on a contest of all forces and resources—men, munitions, food, money. The call to all is to produce more and more. It may be necessary to work harder. The place of those who enlist must be taken by those at home, men and women, old and young. The more we produce the more we can save. Produce more on the farms and in the gardens. Save more and help to win the war.

LET US NOT WASTE OUR LABOUR—

In this war-time all labour should be directly productive or should be assisting in production. Make it as efficient as possible. If your labour is on something that can be postponed, put it off till after the war and make your labour tell now. Making war is the first business of all Canadians. Efficiency in labour is as important as efficiency in fighting.

LET US NOT WASTE MATERIALS—

Begin at home. The larger portion of salaries and wages is spent on the home—food, fuel, light, clothing. Are any of these things being wasted? $20.00 a year saved from waste in every home in Canada will more than pay the interest on a war debt of $500,000,000.

LET US SPEND OUR MONEY WISELY—

Are you spending your money to the best advantage? What do you think of extravagance in war time? Tens of thousands of Canadians are daily risking their lives for us at home. Is it not our duty to be careful and economical? Canadian dollars are an important part of the war equipment. Make them tell. Have a War Savings Account. Buy a War Bond.
