OVERWHELMING ALLIED OFFENSIVE BEGUN

FRENCH AND BRITISH ADVANCE ON TWENTY-FIVE MILE FRONT ON WEST FRONT

BIG OFFENSIVE BEGINS ON THE WESTERN FRONT

British and French Make Great Advances on Twenty-five Mile Front—Thousands of Huns Taken.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, July 3.—North and south of Somme the British and French have advanced on a twenty-five-mile front, at one point the Allied forces gaining five miles in five hours. The advancing army overcame a furious German resistance and captured thousands of Germans and also destroyed six observation balloons.

Since the enemy gained ground recently at Verdun, the French and British on the western front have commenced a general offensive, beginning with a terrific artillery bombardment of the German positions in which a million shells daily were fired and every type of gun used. The terrible attack destroyed the German communication trenches and ammunition stations and prevented the enemy bringing up reinforcements when the general advance began. The big gun fire wrecked everything within its range and opened up channels through which two million fully equipped men were enabled to rush forward, compelling the enemy to retire.

German prisoners declared that the terrific bombardment prevented food supplies being brought up to the German front lines.

Everything indicates that the long anticipated combined drive has begun and, consequently, London and Paris are confident that this action must materially shorten the war. On account of the tremendous opposition on the western front, the Kaiser is prevented from reinforcing his armies owing to the desperate engagements in every other theatre of war.

Great Excitement.

Intense excitement prevails in all the cities in the Allied countries, the population being jubilant at the prospect of an early conclusion of the war if the offensive can be kept up.

In order to prevent the transmission of naval and military information, Britain is regulating all passenger traffic between Great Britain and the continent. All baggage is being searched and unnecessary travel prohibited.

T. D. PATTULLO AND ORIENTAL LABOR

T. D. Pattullo, who has been in California on business for the past few weeks, returned to the city on Friday afternoon. Met by The Daily News this morning, he said:

"Yes, I was south on business."

"I made careful enquiry as to conditions both business and political on the United States as well as the Canadian Pacific coast. Business generally was quiet and the situation felt in the east due largely to war conditions has not reached the Pacific coast.

"Politically the people of the United States coast are opposed to war of any kind. They thoroughly realize their unpreparedness and don't want to fight anybody. I should say that the preponderance of opinion favors Wilson, though if Roosevelt were running many people, who will follow neither Wilson nor Hughes in a belligerent program, would jump in confidently and even eagerly behind "Teddy." In Seattle fifty thousand people were in line in a preparedness parade, but when it came to recruiting, although only 300 had been assigned to Seattle, all that they had been able to get after several weeks' campaign was 150. The reason for this seems to be that people are not willing to go to Mexico and lose their lives in order to hand over that fertile and rich country 'to a bunch of Indians.' That is the argument used. They state that if Uncle Sam will get in and clean up Mexico and 'own' it, they will recruit, but not otherwise.

"On this side of the line I met scores of men who informed me that they would long since have enlisted were it not for the fact that they did not propose to go to Europe and lose their lives for the sake of handing over our resources to Orientals.

"We called at nearly all the canneries coming north and I was shocked to see at first hand how our magnificent fishery resources had passed into the hands of the Orientals. This is a pressing if troublesome question and our public men have got to be big enough and strong enough to face the issue. There is only one solution. Canada must immediately, thoroughly and adequately prepare her coast defences, sea, land and air, and then shut the door on all Oriental immigration.

"There is not the slightest doubt that public sentiment is overwhelmingly against the Bowser government throughout the whole of B. C. I have no hesitation whatever in saying that I am absolutely confident that the government will be badly beaten at the coming election.

"I visited the beautiful Bella Cooola valley on the way north also Ocean Falls. The Bella Cooola valley possesses many possibilities. I very reluctantly left the strawberries and cream. At Ocean Falls some five or six hundred men are working.

"No, I know very little about Lawler, but I know a great deal

KETCHIKAN WON BOTH BALL GAMES

Dominion Day, 1916, was one of the brightest ever enjoyed by the citizens of Prince Rupert. The weather was on its best behavior and everybody, young and old, had a thoroughly good time. The sports at Recreation Park provided many interesting items and some real good fun. Arrangements at the grounds were in the hands of Canon Rix, D. R. Kennedy, Chief Vickers, M. Albert, George McColl, Fire Chief Macdonald, S. J. Winsby and G. Cullen.

The excursion from Ketchikan had to be put off as no boat could be obtained. The ball team came south in a launch, which was met by several Prince Rupert launches near Metlakatlah and escorted into the harbor. The boys from Alaska won both ball games in good style, the first by 12 runs to 4 and the second by 3 to 0. The Ketchikan players were the riper in experience and in every department of the game proved superior, the local boys doing well to hold them to three runs in the second game.

Ben Self had his cafe in order for Dominion Day and had a busy time welcoming his old friends and a host of new ones. The cafe was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the decorations including drawings of the American Eagle, the Beaver of Canada and the British Lion, while John Bull was depicted as welcoming Uncle Sam. Ben has his kitchen fixed up now so that it is fire-proof, the floors and walls being of concrete.

ENJOYABLE SMOKER

A thoroughly enjoyable smoker was held in the K. of P. Hall last Saturday evening under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council. There was a first-rate musical program and the catering, which was managed by the members of the Bartenders Union, under the able guidance of H. E. Ross, was of the best.

A monologue was given by Mr. Hill; songs were sung by Messrs. George Waddell, Arthur Fortin, Couture, Tom Black, Sullivan, Higbee, Charles Hunter, Shaw, who also gave a whistling solo; Hughes and H. Harvey. P. C. Daugherty gave several delightful piano solos. Choruses were given by the Ketchikan ball team and acrobatic stunts by Mr. Dyer. On receipt of the news of the big Allied advance there was great cheering and Mr. Couture sang the Marseillaise.

Short speeches were made by S. D. Macdonald and W. E. Thompson, and everybody had a great time. J. E. Merryfield sent along two boxes of cigars, for which the council wish to thank him.

LABORERS AT COLD STORAGE ON STRIKE

About fifty men are on strike at the Cold Storage. It seems that, about four days ago, the firemen asked for an advance in wages, which was granted. At the same time, T. H. Johnson instructed the superintendent to make a 10 per cent. advance to the laborers.

On Friday evening, after six o'clock, a petition was presented to the management by the laborers, asking for 40 cents per hour ordinary and 60 cents per hour overtime and on Sundays and holidays. Mr. Johnson asked the men who presented the petition what the alternative was and was told that they would quit work unless a settlement was made.

On Saturday morning, the men arrived at the plant evidently with the intention of going to work, and Mr. Johnson offered them 37½ cents per hour, but they did not go to work. On Sunday morning the same thing happened.

Interviewed by The Daily News today, T. H. Johnson said that, under the Industrial Disputes Act, the men should have given thirty days' notice and, failing a settlement, the matter would be submitted to a conciliation board. This procedure he was perfectly willing to follow. Mr. Johnson said that the first question he asked the men was as to their having an organization and he was informed that they had none. To The Daily News he expressed regret that this was the case, as he believed that matters could be much more rapidly settled where there was an efficient organization to handle matters in a business-like way.

In discussing the general situation, he said that his greatest regret was loss to the fishermen and to Prince Rupert. He said that three boats which came in yesterday had felt the lack of the Cold Storage competition when it came to disposing of their fish. One boat immediately pulled out and went to Ketchikan, where fish was selling at 6½ cents, while the others sold here at 6 cents. He instanced other cases where fishing schooners were unable to get supplies of ice.

In discussing the matter of wages in the fish-handling business, Mr. Johnson pointed out that the fish business is unlike any other, in that the supply of fish rises matters. Fish must be handled when they arrive, as they are so perishable and, while he offers 37½ cents straight time, Ketchikan, which is Prince Rupert's great competitor, is still paying only 35 cents straight. He feels that Prince Rupert must be able to compete with Ketchikan as regards fish prices and also as regards labor.

The Daily News also interviewed S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades and Labor Council, but Mr. Macdonald had nothing to report officially. He said that he understood that the men held a meeting this morning to discuss the various phases of the question but that he had meantime received no official report.

INDEPENDENCE

IF further evidence were required that the people of this province have had quite enough of Bowserism it is to be found in the resolution passed by the Conservatives of Duncans, Vancouver Island, in endorsing the candidature of W. H. Hayward, as an Independent Conservative. It has been an open secret for a considerable time that, as an adherent of the Bowser machine, Mr. Hayward would not be acceptable to his constituents at the forthcoming election. Throughout the province there is a general disapproval of the methods adopted by Bowser and his close followers. They have conducted the affairs of the province for the Tory party, and not for the people in general. McBride adopted as his political creed the maxim, "Get in and stay in" and Bowser has followed out the same policy to the letter.

The overwhelming majority obtained by M. A. Macdonald, at the Vancouver by-election, was the first warning which Bowser received that the people were sick and tired of the Bowser method of misgovernment, and, instead of rooting out the iniquitous system of Tory "bossism", Bowser proceeded with an attempt to blackguard the brilliant young member for Vancouver, with disastrous results to the Tory party. Along with the "blackguarding" scheme he brought along a flood of legislation, most of it so ill-considered that the bills had to be remodelled before final passage was possible, devised with the object of gathering in the support which had been lost.

How utterly ineffective the scheme has been shown by the attitude of the electors at the various Bowser meetings in the north, and that even the Conservatives themselves are disgusted is clearly shown by the resolution of the Duncans Conservatives. Independence of thought and action is something entirely new amongst the Conservatives of this "boss-ridden" province, but it is none the less welcome. The life's blood of any political party worthy of the name is the retention of individual independence on the part of its members. There must be a big streak of Liberalism in the Conservatives of Duncans, for independence of thought is the greatest characteristic of the Liberal party and Liberalism without independence would not exist. The Tories are taunting the Liberals in regard to the difference of opinion between Ralph Smith and H. C. Brewster, evidently failing to see that they are paying the highest compliment which can ever be paid to Liberalism. It will be a sorry day for Canada when her Liberals cease to think for themselves, or refrain from expressing their thoughts, no matter how they may differ from the ideas of others in the party.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Kaiser Wilhelm will gain some valuable information during his stay at Kovel but he is not liable to stay there long as the Russians will very shortly occupy that town.

Berlin reports that Bulgaria is becoming uneasy. Berlin will no doubt be able to sympathise with the Bulgars as the German capital is not particularly comfortable itself just at present.

German ministers are upbraiding the press of the Fatherland for spreading a feeling of pessimism throughout the country. The press undoubtedly reflects the opinion of the people and the people of Germany have no great cause for optimism, especially if they are getting full reports from the eastern front.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-lives'." I was a sufferer from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, Music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try "Fruit-a-lives", and now for six months I have been entirely well. I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try "Fruit-a-lives", and you will be agreeably surprised at the great benefit you will receive".  IN THE LETTER BOX *****

Editor, Daily News,
Dear Sir:—Re city estimates and tax reduction: It is not my desire to unjustly criticize, yet an idea suggests itself to me that a more elastic system of finance would aid our struggling citizens to tide over the war period. The curtailing of exorbitant salaries, during this period of distress, is commendable, providing the saving so effected could be employed in providing labor for the more dependent classes, equivalent to the reduction in salary extravagance.

Many of our worthy citizens are obliged to seek labor in other fields, absent from their families and awaiting opportunities to secure residences to move their families to when they can earn a livelihood for them. It is a regrettable circumstance for the citizens of Prince Rupert that each and every industry that helped furnish a payroll (upon which our city depends for sustenance) should be cut off at about one and the same time. The railway; the Federal Government, the provincial government, and the city government, each in their respective ways, were the chief sources for giving the first impetus to the upbuilding of our town.

Each and every one seems to have become bankrupt at the same time and citizens and business people dependent upon a payroll from these sources will be obliged to go bankrupt likewise, unless some steps be taken to provide a sufficient amount of labor to maintain our population at its present standard.

It is perhaps one of the most agreeable conditions in civic life when conditions are normal, to know that a legitimate reduction in taxation has been effected, but in times such as we are now experiencing, if a reduction of taxes should work a hardship upon our residents, then the principle is unwise.

The reduction of millage from 14 to 8% is beyond doubt a praiseworthy showing, if it is justifiable. The beneficiaries from such a reduction at this time should be considered. At an earlier date, it was published that 75 per cent. of our total taxes is paid by non-resident owners, people who hope to grow wealthy from unearned increment, and in no manner are aiding in maintaining our city other than through the tax roll. Now the saving of $47,000 in next year's taxes means that 75 per cent. of $47,000 will be kept out of our city. This in round figures will amount to $35,000. This amount withdrawn from circulation among our people together with the depleted payrolls before mentioned shows a staggering condition compared with when each respective resident decided to make this town his future home.

Making our taxation limit 10 mills and adding to that $35,000 derived from reduction of salaries, quite a nest egg would be formed in starting a sewerage system. The sum would go far in paying the first instalment on a 30-year serial sewer bond. I may be pardoned for suggesting to the city council that a sewer bylaw be introduced; a bond issue made to provide necessary employment for deserving residents during the coming cheerless winter, as all evidences point at the present time.

Yours respectfully,
DANIEL W. MORRISSEY.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

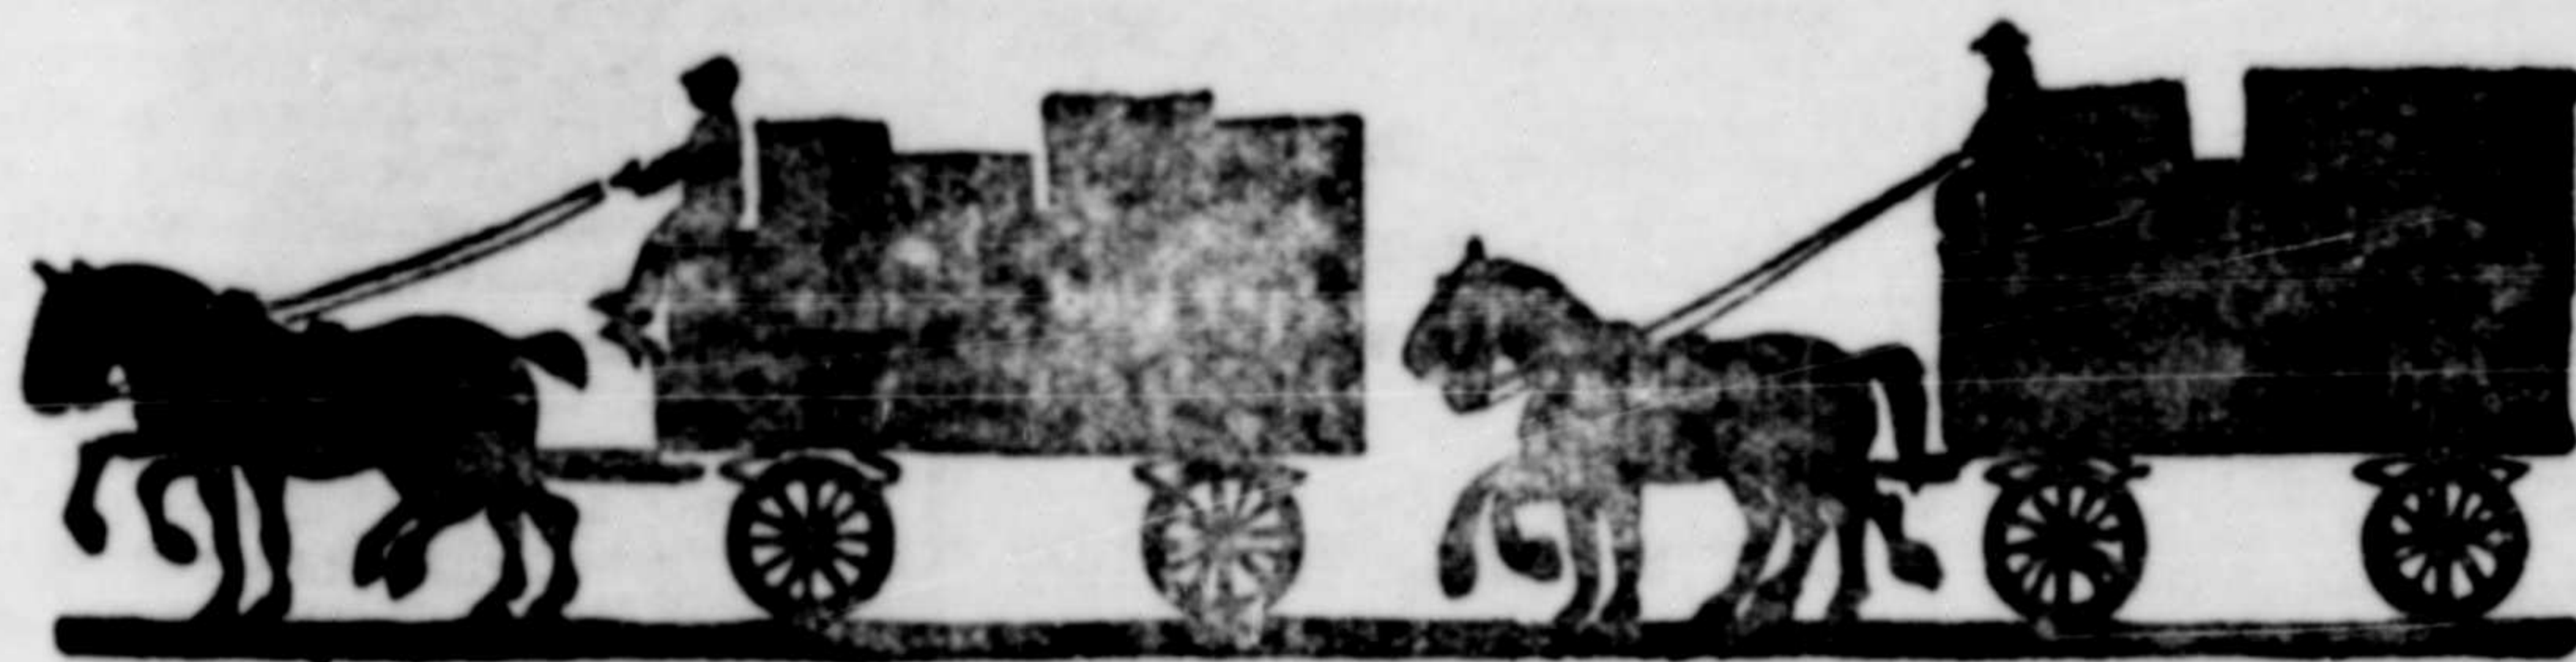

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw then more clearly than ever before that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You can sail from Montreal to Vancouver now, around the Horn. You can get there, but it is going to take months. A year or so from now you will sail through the Panama Canal and chop the journey to less than half. A new channel will have been dug.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

Production and Thrift

"To win the war with the decisiveness which will ensure lasting peace, the Empire will require to put forth its full collective power in men and in money. From this viewpoint it is our true policy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exertions and by exercising rigid economy, which reduces to the minimum all expenditures upon luxuries and non-essentials. Only in this way shall we be able to make good the loss caused by the withdrawal of so many of our workers from industrial activities, repair the wastage of the war, and find the funds for its continuance. It cannot be too frequently or too earnestly impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still lie before us, and that industry and thrift are, for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfillment our success, and consequently our national safety, may ultimately depend."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

- PRODUCE MORE, SAVE MORE.
- MAKE LABOUR EFFICIENT.
- SAVE MATERIALS FROM WASTE.
- SPEND MONEY WISELY.

LET US PRODUCE AND SAVE—

The war is now turning on a contest of all forces and resources—men, munitions, food, money. The call to all is to produce more and more. It may be necessary to work harder. The place of those who enlist must be taken by those at home, men and women, old and young. The more we produce the more we can save. Produce more on the farms and in the gardens. Save more and help to win the war.

LET US NOT WASTE OUR LABOUR—

In this war-time all labour should be directly productive or should be assisting in production. Make it as efficient as possible. If your labour is on something that can be postponed, put it off till after the war and make your labour tell now. Making war is the first business of all Canadians. Efficiency in labour is as important as efficiency in fighting.

LET US NOT WASTE MATERIALS—

Begin at home. The larger portion of salaries and wages is spent on the home—food, fuel, light, clothing. Are any of these things being wasted? $20.00 a year saved from waste in every home in Canada will more than pay the interest on a war debt of $500,000,000.

LET US SPEND OUR MONEY WISELY—

Are you spending your money to the best advantage? What do you think of extravagance in war time? Tens of thousands of Canadians are daily risking their lives for us at home. Is it not our duty to be careful and economical? Canadian dollars are an important part of the war equipment. Make them tell. Have a War Savings Account. Buy a War Bond.

POPULAR STARS AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Anita Stewart and Earle Williams are the stars at the Westholme tonight, appearing in "Two Women," one of the brightest of modern dramas. "The Varsity Race," a two-act drama which is full of lively action, furnishes two other good reels, and "The Busy Bell Boy," a Lubin comedy, provides the fun. "The Story of the Olive," a most interesting picture, completes a good show. There will be a special musical program by P. C. Daugherty.

ANITA STEWART AT MAJESTIC THEATRE

Anita Stewart appears at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow in the great Vitagraph drama "Shadows of the Past." It is a story of political intrigue with, of course, a most interesting love tale as well. It is a play which grips and holds the attention from start to finish and shows Miss Stewart at her best.
 "A Daughter of Earth" and two good comedies complete a first-rate program. There will be special music by the Majestic orchestra with violin solos by William Balagno.
