DIPLOMAS PRESENTED TO GRADUATE NURSES

Last evening, in the old St. Andrew's Hall, on Second Avenue, the graduation ceremony in connection with the nursing class of the local hospital was held. The three nurses, Misses E. Carlson, J. McKay and K. Raper, who have passed their final examinations, were granted their diplomas.

George W. Morrow, president of the hospital board, presided, and, in making the presentation of the diplomas, referred to the work which is being done by the local institution. He congratulated the matron, Miss Carmichael, and the nurses for the manner in which they performed their duties. He remarked upon the perfect harmony prevailing between the board and the medical men of the city, and dwelt upon the splendid financial assistance accorded the hospital by the city and provincial governments.

Miss Carmichael, matron of the hospital, pinned on the nurses' badges which the hospital board presented to the successful candidates.

Mayor McCaffery addressed the nurses, dwelling upon the splendid work which is done by the institution and the nobility of the nursing profession.

Dr. Kergin, on behalf of the medical examiners, impressed upon the graduates the importance of the duties they had to perform. While they had graduated, their training had not ceased. They would go on receiving instruction for all time. Five or ten years hence, if they followed the profession, they would be still better trained than now.

Rev. H. R. Grant offered up a prayer at the opening of the ceremony and short addresses were delivered by Rev. J. F. Dimmick and Canon Rix. Rev. Father McGraw was unavoidably absent.

After the graduation ceremony, the nurses gave a most enjoyable little dance.

"HAM AND BUD" AT WEST HOLME TONIGHT

Ham and Bud are at the Westholme tonight for the first time since Ham had the misfortune to break his leg. "Ham at the Seaside" is a scream from start to finish, the big fellow and his comical little partner getting into all kinds of trouble.

There is also a very fine four-act photoplay, entitled "Coral," featuring Mary Wallcamp, while there is an extremely funny Joker comedy in "His 20th Century Susie."

In addition to this great bill, this is Country Store night at the Westholme, when there will be a distribution of a host of useful articles and no end of fun. There will be special music by P. C. Daugherty and H. A. Harvey

RETAIL CLERKS AND SATURDAY HOLIDAY

The Retail Clerks held a meeting last night in the Carpenters' Hall to discuss the half-holiday question. The members of the Merchants' Association and the Trades and Labor Council were invited to attend and many were present. George Kerr occupied the chair.

S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades Council, went fully into the question. He said that it did not affect the Trades and Labor Council further than that they wished to assist the Retail Clerks in the choosing of a day which would be agreeable to all concerned. The council did not threaten anyone and he denied that there had been any suggestion of boycotting.

D. W. Morrissey, as a member of the Merchants' Association, then addressed the meeting. He felt that there were two sides to the question. He favored Wednesday closing simply because the vast majority of his customers favored it. He respected the opinions of others and did not wish to be arbitrary, but he felt that he had the right to choose for himself and his customers.

Max Heilbronne, explained that his reason for favoring Saturday was that he had a tourist trade in curios and the C. P. R. boats arrive from the north on Saturday afternoon. If he were to close he would lose a lot of trade.

Arthur Spurr said that he had closed last Wednesday but he was willing to close Saturday if all the stores closed on that day. He handled large quantities of soft fruits and he felt that on that account he should be allowed to remain open.

D. W. Morrissey suggested that a plebiscite be taken. Several others spoke, all being in favor of Saturday closing and the general trend of the meeting was strongly in favor of Saturday.

"HUMAN HEARTS" AT THE MAJESTIC TONIGHT

"Human Hearts," the big feature at the Majestic tonight, is a story dealing with prison life. The famous movie actor, King Baggot plays the leading part in this great film. "Human Hearts" is one of the most widely discussed movie features and has at times been heavily censored but is now being produced complete. "The Man on the Chair," is a good two-act drama, with Hobart Henley in the lead and "Sin of the Sabbath," is a two-act comedy. With bright music and first-rate pictures, the Majestic is deservedly popular.

AUSTRIANS ARE COLLAPSING ON EASTERN FRONT

Many Thousands of Prisoners Taken by Brusiloff's Army—Russians Making for Lemberg.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, July 7.—Two hundred and thirty-five thousand prisoners; a thousand guns, and immense quantities of munitions and transports have been captured during the last month in the great advance under General Brusiloff. The Teutonic losses on this front are estimated at half a million.

Yesterday, our forces captured five thousand Austrians and there are indications that the Austrian defence between Buczacz and Stanislaw, in the region lying between Czernowitz and Lemberg, has completely collapsed. If this is so it will greatly affect Von Bethmer's army which is trying to retreat northwards from Delatyn, where the Russians have cut off their chief supply base by the seizure of the railroad.

No Holidays.

London, July 7.—The munition workers have been denied summer holidays, owing to the urgent necessity of keeping up the enormous output of shells for the big offensive on the western front.

German Naval Losses.

Sir John Jellicoe estimates that twenty-one German ships were lost in the big naval battle off Jutland last month.

SHIPPING FISH

In March, 1915, an order-in-council was made to encourage American fishermen to bring their fish to Prince Rupert. In the past fifteen months the results have been gratifying and so much American fish was brought to this port that American fish-buying firms opened up branches here. In the halibut business, very small or very large fish are reckoned as culls, and there is a market for them only near the port of entry, unless they are kept frozen. The American firms found a ready market for their small and large fish in Seattle and they were allowed to ship them there in bond by steamer. This continued, without a word of protest from the customs authorities, for fifteen months, when suddenly there came an order from Ottawa stating that no more fish could be shipped in bond by steamer. Later, a useless modification was made permitting this fish to be shipped by boat to Vancouver on condition that it was transferred to rail there. As this necessitates the carrying of the shipments across the city of Vancouver, the extra handling being very injurious to the fish as well as very expensive, it is of little advantage to the handlers.

On Tuesday, H. S. Clements, M. P., interviewed the fisheries committee of the Board of Trade in the matter, and coolly informed them that they need expect nothing more along this line, as the order-in-council must be lived up to. Now the order referred to is some years older than the city of Prince Rupert, and a special order was made in 1915 in favor of this city. Why, at this time of day, is one of Prince Rupert's privileges to be taken away?

Mr. Clements tried to show that it was an international question, but this fell flat when Mr. Clayton asked if the United States authorities had complained. In the long run, he had to admit that a private concern had drawn the attention of Ottawa to the matter. Evidently, it is another case of Vancouver v. Prince Rupert, with the odds largely in favor of the south. There seems to be a great fear somewhere that this city will ever become prosperous.

It is clear that Ottawa knew of the old order-in-council when it permitted fish to be shipped south in bond, but it did not make a move for fifteen months, during which time several American firms came here and started doing business. It is also clear that the slight alteration made in permitting fish to be sent by steamer to Vancouver and thence per rail is a contravention of the ancient order-in-council. If such a change could be made, why could the whole order not be rescinded? The answer is that some private interest in Vancouver has a stronger pull at Ottawa than the city of Prince Rupert has.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

So the election is to be on September 14th. How sorry Bowser must be to have to make the announcement.

By September 14th, Hon. William Manson will have held a portfolio for a longer spell than he ever has done. Well, he will be relieved of it then. So far as the government is concerned, the election might as well have been fixed for the 13th.

The next big news from the eastern front will be the taking of Lemberg.

Sir Douglas Haig and General Joffre are evidently content to pursue the advance in easy stages.

The despatches seem meagre but each little episode reported means much more than the wording of the despatch signifies. A gain of a mile seems little in view of the terrific Russian advance, but it

SPLENDID RECITAL BY AILEEN FERLUCE

Miss Aileen Ferluce, at the Westholme last evening, provided one of the finest musical recitals a Prince Rupert audience ever listened to. An accomplished vocalist, Miss Ferluce reached a high artistic level in all her work, but excelled herself in three remarkably pretty little Indian songs and in a splendid portrayal of Carmen. Miss Ferluce is an actress of considerable ability. Her costumes won the admiration of all the ladies, her Indian garb being particularly striking, while she appeared as the daintiest of Giesha girls. As a harpiste, she also scored a big success, receiving a double encore on each occasion.

Besides playing the accompaniments with perfect sympathy, J. Hamilton Howe rendered some of the finest of pianoforte music in masterly style, having to bow his acknowledgements repeatedly. If Prince Rupert is privileged to hear Miss Ferluce again, the theatre will undoubtedly be packed to the roof.

Her program was ambitious and must have entailed a tremendous amount of hard work upon the young artiste, but her voice proved equal to all demands made upon it and she scored a most decided success in every number.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the Central Executive Committee, 59 St. Peter St., Montreal. $2.50 Feeds A Belgian Family A Month.

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw then more clearly than ever before had Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a general business it would be well for you to have counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

Production and Thrift

"To win the war with the decisiveness which will ensure lasting peace, the Empire will require to put forth its full collective power in men and in money. From this viewpoint it is our true policy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exertions and by exercising rigid economy, which reduces to the minimum all expenditures upon luxuries and non-essentials. Only in this way shall we be able to make good the loss caused by the withdrawal of so many of our workers from industrial activities, repair the wastage of the war, and find the funds for its continuance. It cannot be too frequently or too earnestly impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still lie before us, and that industry and thrift are, for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfilment our success, and consequently our national safety, may ultimately depend."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

- PRODUCE MORE, SAVE MORE.
- MAKE LABOUR EFFICIENT.
- SAVE MATERIALS FROM WASTE.
- SPEND MONEY WISELY.

LET US PRODUCE AND SAVE—

The war is now turning on a contest of all forces and resources—men, munitions, food, money. The call to all is to produce more and more. It may be necessary to work harder. The place of those who enlist must be taken by those at home, men and women, old and young. The more we produce the more we can save. Produce more on the farms and in the gardens. Save more and help to win the war.

LET US NOT WASTE OUR LABOUR—

In this war-time all labour should be directly productive or should be assisting in production. Make it as efficient as possible. If your labour is on something that can be postponed, put it off till after the war and make your labour tell now. Making war is the first business of all Canadians. Efficiency in labour is as important as efficiency in fighting.

LET US NOT WASTE MATERIALS—

Begin at home. The larger portion of salaries and wages is spent on the home—food, fuel, light, clothing. Are any of these things being wasted? $20,000 a year saved from waste in every home in Canada will more than pay the interest on a war debt of $500,000,000.

LET US SPEND OUR MONEY WISELY—

Are you spending your money to the best advantage? What do you think of extravagance in war time? Tens of thousands of Canadians are daily risking their lives for us at home. Is it not our duty to be careful and economical? Canadian dollars are an important part of the war equipment. Make them tell. Have a War Savings Account. Buy a War Bond.

PATRONISE

The

Stores Closing on Saturday

Notice to the Public.

At a meeting called by the Prince Rupert Retail Merchants' Association for the purpose of selecting a half-holiday, a petition signed by practically all the retail employees of the city was presented asking that Saturday afternoons be adopted. The meeting unanimously resolved to make Saturday the half-holiday and notices to that effect were ordered printed and have since been displayed in most of the stores in the city.

Certain merchants who are opposed to Saturday as the half-holiday have published a notice to the effect that their stores will be open on that day. As this will create confusion as to which stores will be open on Saturday afternoons, and which will be open on Wednesday afternoon, the undersigned hereby give notice to the public that their stores will be closed on Saturday afternoons and open every Friday evening until 9:30.
