LIBERALS HELD ROUSING MEETINGS

H. C. Brewster, the Liberal leader, who arrived from the south this morning, accompanied by M. A. Macdonald, states that, wherever the Liberals have held meetings, there has been the greatest enthusiasm displayed, large audiences following the speakers closely and sympathetically on every occasion.

"The most gratifying feature of those meetings," said Mr. Brewster, "was the splendid reception accorded to Mr. Macdonald, whom the Bowser machine has done its utmost to kill. At every meeting, Mr. Macdonald was received with round after round of cheering. The Sullivan gang did all that money could tempt it to do, for the Bowser machine, but the despicable attack failed completely." Mr. Brewster added that it would not be surprising if the Tories tried to bring about an attempted coup by making further arrangements with their friends from Seattle. "They will spend unlimited money in their effort to defeat us," said the Liberal leader.

At Vancouver, Nanaimo, Port Alberni, Duncan, Victoria and Kerrisdale, the Liberal leaders have held great meetings. In Nanaimo, William Sloan will be elected. Mr. Planta, who figured so prominently in the Gosden perjury case, is discredited because of the part he has played recently, and further developments locally have put him out of the running entirely.

At Duncan, as elsewhere, the Liberals had the finest meeting ever held in the district and there is every indication that Kenneth Duncan, a native son whose father gave the place its name, will be elected. The fact that the Tories have nominated Captain Hayward as an "independent" is sufficient evidence of the general opinion regarding Bowser and Company in this constituency.

In Victoria, where the meeting was held on a very hot night, the theatre was filled and M. A. Macdonald was given the most rousing reception of the tour. Right in the centre of the "plugging" investigation and the scene of the Gosden episode, Mr. Macdonald was hailed with tremendous cheering.

In Kerrisdale, the Liberals again held the biggest meeting ever, and again there was the utmost enthusiasm and confidence in the result of the election. Here again, in a suburb of Vancouver, Mr. Macdonald was singled out for special applause and cheering. G. G. McGeer will easily make the grade in Kerrisdale.

WONDERFUL FEAT OF TRANSPORTATION

Saloniki, June 1 (By mail).—The Allies have another wonderful feat to their credit. Over 100,000 men have been brought through seas infested with submarines with never a single mishap or the loss of one man. It is an astounding performance, especially if we take into consideration the means the enemy undoubtedly possessed of knowing all about every departure and the zeal with which the Austrian U-boats particularly must have sought the prize of a Serbian transport. But in spite of their vigilance and their daring and their ruthlessness they have not been able to interfere with the steady flow of troops which has poured into Saloniki regularly, methodically, and unceasingly for the past four weeks. The vessels have been entirely French transports, and great praise is due to skippers and crews for the manner in which they have accomplished their duties, but both the French and the Serbians gladly and gratefully recognize that their achievement would not have been possible without the British navy; that only the constant vigil and unceasing patrolling of our warships has made these Mediterranean seaways clear and safe.

Over 100,000 Serbians are now encamped on the plains and in the valleys somewhere near Saloniki. A fine lot of men they are. Perhaps it has been a case of the survival of the fittest, but these tall, thick-set fellows show no traces of the hardships and sufferings of the retreat and exposure in Albania. Four months' recuperation in Corfu has sloughed away all marks of sickness, toil and privation. These Serbian soldiers look fit to go anywhere and do anything. And the men are as eager as they are fit. It is a new-born army, and, entirely re-equipped with new French and British uniforms, the men look exceedingly smart and soldier-like. Very proud they are of their new clothes, especially of the general service buttons on the British uniforms. It speaks well for the moral stamina of a people that can come through such trials without losing courage or becoming embittered. These soldiers are as cheerful and confident as though the tragic past were not, or had never been. Artless, good-natured and genuine, their faith in the great Allies is implicit. They are sad when they think of

ENEMY ALIENS ARE NO LONGER ADMITTED

Amid scenes of great enthusiasm the following resolution was passed at a special general meeting of the London Chamber of Commerce held at the Cannon-Street Hotel yesterday:

"That the London Chamber of Commerce request all German and Austrian members, whether naturalised or not, to resign, and that in future the London Chamber of Commerce shall be for British-born members and members of the present Allied and neutral countries."

Thus the London Chamber of Commerce has followed the example of the Baltic in deciding to expel all members of enemy origin whether naturalised or not.

The Stock Exchange has also taken a strong stand in the matter.—Daily Mail.

their homes in Serbia, and of the women and children they have left behind. Few have heard anything from their families for over six months. But there is a grim determination about them, an enthusiasm at the thought of the advance, that bodes ill for the enemy that opposes them.—Reuter's Special Service to Vancouver World.

WHALING STEAMER FROM NADEN HARBOR

A smart looking tug was seen sailing up the harbor last evening with what appeared to be a gun mounted in her bows. She turned out to be the S. S. Blue of the Naden Harbor whaling fleet and the gun was a very real gun of its kind, for it was a harpoon tube, the torpedo of the whaling business. The harpoon is fired from what is practically a cannon, though it resembles a rifle in that it has a crude trigger and sights. The Blue is registered in Liverpool, England, and had she been in her home waters would have made a very serviceable minesweeper.

BASEBALL

The game between the Colts and C. C.'s last evening was the fastest of the series. The C. C.'s won by 8 to 5 in nine innings, thus placing the teams on an equal footing in the league. Babe Fortin pitched for the winners, with Territt behind the bat. Hugh Scott and Wally made the Colt's battery. One of the features of a most enjoyable game was a great catch by Joe Hatchford in centre field from a drive by Leo Ives. The next game between these teams should be well worth seeing.

STALWART COSSACK IS RUSSIA'S HERO

"About the most popular man in Russia," says Mr. Julius West, in "Soldiers of the Czar" (Iris Publishing Co.), "at the moment is a Cossack named Cosma Krutchkov. On August 11, 1914, he was on outpost duty at some point near the frontier, with four comrades, when some peasants came and announced the presence of Germans in the neighborhood. It was then 11 p. m., and the Cossack dislikes night work, so nothing happened.

"Early the next morning a detachment of twenty-seven German cavalrymen was seen in the distance. The Cossacks immediately rode to the attack. When a few shots had been exchanged, the Germans, seeing how few their opponents were, turned round and rode to meet them. After a few minutes' fighting, twenty-two Germans lay wounded on the ground, and the remaining three had fled.

"Krutchkov had been wounded sixteen and his horse eleven times. The other Cossacks had each received a few wounds. All were taken to hospital at Vitebsk, where they recovered in a wonderfully short space of time; now they are again at the front. Krutchkov received his Cross and his fame filled all Russia. His vividly-illustrated exploit is to be seen in every other shop window in working class neighborhoods. Pamphlets and songs about him are on sale everywhere. He is the hero of an operetta, the subject of a thousand articles, and the ideal of every Russian nursery."—Tit Bits.

TORY MACHINE METHODS ARE AGAIN EXPOSED

Vancouver, July 13.—Following the disclosures in connection with the contributions to the Vancouver Conservative funds by firms seeking school board contracts, a letter has been discovered among the private papers of J. C. Pendray, the soap manufacturer who sent along $25 and then added the amount to his tender for soap, in which a demand for 5 and 10 per cent on all contracts is hinted at. The amounts were to be added to the invoices and remitted to the Tory secretary.

The following is a copy of the letter, which was sent by the Vancouver manager for Messrs. Pendray to the head of the firm in Victoria.

Got the Wrong Letter.

"Vancouver, April 24, 1916.

"J. C. Pendray: Dear Sir—Mr. Giles called this morning re private letter you sent me and he says it is not the one he expected. What he wants is the letter asking for party funds, and the 5 and 10 per cent. to be put on the invoice. Will you therefore kindly let me have that one?"

"Mr. G—— again stated that it shall not be used in any way whatever without first getting permission. He is at the moment very satisfied with the turn of events after having interviewed the whole of his board. The majority are in favor of his being retained, and many of them have a strong feeling against Fred W., and want to get him out.

"I think we can depend on Giles handling this matter rightly, because after all he has acted honorably and straight, and should have no kick coming from the board, and he is determined to uphold his rights. . . . Giles says he has heard we are to have no more orders. . . .

"By the way, in the event of Mr. Giles getting out he has retained Sir Charles Tupper as counsel, who, as you know, although Conservative, is now cleaning up or trying to clean up the dirty grafters of this government.

"Of course, in the event of our getting a share of the business it will show that F. W. is afraid of you and I hope he is.

"Yours faithfully,

"J. N. DAVEY."

"P.S.—Mr. Giles would like you to send the other letter as soon as possible, as with that in his pocket he would feel like a man with a 'six-shooter,' and he says he would hit F. W. between the eyes. What he wants is moral support."

When the soap enquiry had been disposed of, S. S. Taylor, K. C., cross-questioned F. W. Welsh as to goods supplied to the board by Walter Leek & Company, which firm had supplied thousands of (Continued on Page four.)

OUR LEADERS

There arrived in Prince Rupert this morning two men who will play very prominent parts in the rebuilding of the province of British Columbia. H. C. Brewster, leader of the opposition in the late legislature, needs no introduction to the people of Prince Rupert. All along the coast, and throughout the province, he has been known for years as a man of sterling character and solid business ability, who has striven hard to bring about cleaner and more democratic government in British Columbia.

M. A. Macdonald is not so well known, though, in the past three months, he has bulked more largely in the public eye than his chief. Mr. Macdonald is a young man of rare ability, who, in honesty of purpose and fighting power of the real old highland type, has proven an able lieutenant to the Liberal leader in the strenuous session of the Legislature which closed at the end of May, or perhaps on March 14th. The exact date depends on the decision of the courts.

How those two stalwarts carried Vancouver and Victoria for the Liberals in the by-elections needs no retelling. Their entry into the house caused the Bowser bunch to do some furious thinking and many anxious hours were spent in drawing up every conceivable kind of legislation which seemed to carry with it the hope of support at the polls. The fact that so much work was done during the last session was entirely due to the members of the opposition, and the fact that much of that work was done very crudely was due to the haste of Bowser and Company in rushing through everything that looked like an election plank. Planks were freely stolen from the Liberal platform and launched as real Tory timber.

To quote Mr. Brewster, "The Liberal party has done more for the people of British Columbia out of power than the Conservative party in."

Chagrined at the tremendous turn in the political tide, the Bowser machinists made M. A. Macdonald a target for the most infamous attacks ever directed at a public man in this Dominion. What the Bowser machine is capable of needs no explaining to the people of the north, where it has been carrying on its nefarious work for years. Mr. Macdonald has passed through the fire of the enemy unscathed and is the stronger for the battle. His opponents in the south have gone to pieces, as witness F. W. Welsh, one of the strong Tory witnesses in the "plugging" charges. In the enquiry into the Vancouver school board contracts, this gentleman came out in his true colors and another example of Bowser machine methods was laid bare.

Buying the support of such men as John L. Sullivan, and his friends in Seattle, is just on a par with the selling of soap contracts to parties who will contribute to the machine oil fund. Incidentally, the public ultimately pays full price for the oil and John L. Sullivan and his gang get the benefit of it.

A new era has dawned in British Columbia; the get-rich-quick dream is over and, with its passing, must go the real estate government to which every piece of legislative work wassimplly a "deal" to be put through to the best advantage of the party and its friends. The process of rebuilding will necessarily be slow, but under the guidance of such men as H. C. Brewster and M. A. Macdonald, with a strong backing of clean, honest men in the south, and men of the type of T. D. Pattullo, Frank Mobley and A. M. Manson from the north, the province will enter upon a stage of real prosperity, built upon a solid foundation of truth and respect for the rights of all men, of whatever political creed.

REMARKABLE STORY OF GERMAN SPY SYSTEM

A remarkable story showing the extraordinary versatility of the German spy is related by a British Colonial officer just home on leave (says the Weekly Dispatch.)

"On the part of the British front where my regiment was stationed," he said, "we were puzzled to know the means by which the German Intelligence Department were able to discover certain pieces of information, not of very great importance, but still important enough to worry us."

"Now, at the back of our lines the peasants were ploughing the fields with the admirable non-chalance and indifference to shells which has so won our admiration. We knew it could not be any of them, for they were all known to us—or at least we thought they all were."

"This business was getting much too hot to be tolerated any longer, so an officer was ordered out, but this time he took with him half a dozen men. In the course of their search they came to an isolated farm, through the door of which was passing an old and bent peasant woman, whose face was furrowed with the usual lines of age."

"Our men were inclined to be suspicious about this woman, and promptly told her to hold her hands up. Having searched her, they marched inside the farm and found three other supposed peasant women there with hoes in their hands who affected well-feigned surprise when we told them in turn to hold up their hands."

"When all four had been marched up into line we started giving their faces a good scraping and, as we suspected, the age lines easily washed off, revealing the unmistakable physiognomies of Germans. Seeing that the game was up, they promptly confessed their real identity. The first one we had captured was a German officer and the other three non-commissioned officers.

"They had cleverly disguised themselves as peasant women, painting in the necessary lines, and to make the deception even more complete had actually worked in the field from morning till evening as hard as any of the genuine peasants."

GERMAN PEOPLE MUST REMAIN IN GERMANY

A Berlin correspondent of the Neue Zürcher Zeitung states that no more passports to visit foreign countries will be issued to civilians by the German authorities, and that this measure is to be enforced even as regards Austria-Hungary and Turkey. The effect of this measure will be severely felt in Switzerland, where, since the war began, the Germans have been by far the most numerous visitors to the mountain resorts. It is believed that the immediate object of this measure is to keep money in Germany. For a considerable time German spa and hotel directors have been complaining of the lack of patronage shown by many Germans in spending money in Switzerland instead of in their own forest and mountain resorts.

Coughing scatters germs—Stop it
Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others.
Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure.
The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is specially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer.
Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of justice and humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

The Tale The Wagons Tell

My office window faces a street, close to the railway freight sheds.

All day long a steady stream of trucks and lorries lumber by—loaded with boxes, barrels and bales.

One truck I noticed the other afternoon was particularly interesting. No two boxes were the same, and stencilled on the end of each was the name of some well-known product—soap, tobacco, socks, breakfast food, cocoa, port, tea, chocolates, perfumery and baking powder.

Gathered there in prosaic wooden boxes were the results of thousands of hand's labor in all parts of the world.

The cocoa had been grown in Brazil, shipped to Bristol, transhipped to Montreal and finally distributed from Toronto.

The tea was gathered by swart-skinned natives of the romantic island of Ceylon; from sunny Portugal the luscious, big grapes had been gathered years ago, fermented, bottled and branded with a famous name; from Egypt had come the cotton and from South America the dyes that entered into the product finally stamped with the brand of a well-known hosiery.

There, behind that obviously prosaic truck-load of freight was the whole romance of modern commerce—the skilled production, the universal demand for food, drink and raiment, and the world-wide distribution of the things we use every day.

And then I speculated why we use these things every day, instead of some other things; and that brought me plump back to my own job of advertising.

The names of some of the boxes on the lorry were known everywhere to-day, but had been unknown a few years ago; and I saw then more clearly than ever before that Advertising is really a great channel digger. It is like the Panama Canal. You can sail from Montreal to Vancouver now, around the Horn. You can get there, but it is going to take months. A year or so from now you will sail through the Panama Canal and chop the journey to less than half. A new channel will have been dug.

The great names in commerce to-day are those of the manufacturers who have let modern advertising steam-shovel a channel across the isthmus of distributing difficulties.

The great names in the commerce of to-morrow will be those of men who widen and dredge this channel so that the greater traffic may pass smoothly and quickly from the source of production to the homes of the consumer.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lunenburg Building, Toronto.

Production and Thrift

TO win the war with the decisiveness which will ensure lasting peace, the Empire will require to put forth its full collective power in men and in money. From this viewpoint it is our true policy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exertions and by exercising rigid economy, which reduces to the minimum all expenditures upon luxuries and non-essentials. Only in this way shall we be able to make good the loss caused by the withdrawal of so many of our workers from industrial activities, repair the wastage of the war, and find the funds for its continuance. It cannot be too frequently or too earnestly impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still lie before us, and that industry and thrift are, for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfillment our success, and consequently our national safety, may ultimately depend.—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

PRODUCE MORE, SAVE MORE.
MAKE LABOUR EFFICIENT.
SAVE MATERIALS FROM WASTE.
SPEND MONEY WISELY.

LET US PRODUCE AND SAVE—
The war is now turning on a contest of all forces and resources—men, munitions, food, money. The call to all is to produce more and more. It may be necessary to work harder. The place of those who enlist must be taken by those at home, men and women, old and young. The more we produce the more we can save. Produce more on the farms and in the gardens. Save more and help to win the war.

LET US NOT WASTE MATERIALS—
Begin at home. The larger portion of salaries and wages is spent on the home—food, fuel, light, clothing. Are any of these things being wasted? $20.00 a year saved from waste in every home in Canada will more than pay the interest on a war debt of $500,000,000.

LET US NOT WASTE OUR LABOUR—
In this war-time all labour should be directly productive or should be assisting in production. Make it as efficient as possible. If your labour is on something that can be postponed, put it off till after the war and make your labour tell now. Making war is the first business of all Canadians. Efficiency in labour is as important as efficiency in fighting.

LET US SPEND OUR MONEY WISELY—
Are you spending your money to the best advantage? What do you think of extravagance in war time? Tens of thousands of Canadians are daily risking their lives for us at home. Is it not our duty to be careful and economical? Canadian dollars are an important part of the war equipment. Make them tell. Have a War Savings Account. Buy a War Bond.

dollars' worth without any tenders being called for. It is alleged that they charged retail prices and then added ten per cent., the percentage being added to cartage charges and also to street car fares. Messrs.
