BRITISH AND FRENCH MAKE GAINS IN WEST

French Capture Thousand Prisoners and Important Territory—Germans Driven Downhill By the British.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, August 14.—North of the Somme the French attacked the third line of German trenches at the Ducecourt River on a four-mile front. The French succeeded in capturing the enemy trenches for a depth of two thirds of a mile and took a thousand prisoners. The Germans attacked the French in a nearby cemetery and church, but were repulsed after sustaining terrible losses.

British Front.

British Headquarters, France, August 14.—The British infantry have renewed their offensive along the Somme, making important gains.

North of Pozieres the British ascended a ridge, and, driving the Germans down the slope, the enemy was unable to retain their positions intact owing to the fierce snifre of the British.

Daylight revealed the sight of a number of Germans holding up their hands bandaged with handkerchiefs in an attitude of surrender.

Canadians Released.

Western Canadians who have been released from enemy camps complain bitterly of the quantity and quality of food supplied by their German captors.

HONOURABLE BOB HAD PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE

Ottawa, August 12.—Some time last February, after fire had destroyed the Parliament Buildings, the Honourable Bob Rogers made a hit by pulling the old rhetorical bromide that they would rise like the Phoenix from the ashes. The idea was circulated and gained wide credence that the Phoenix would take perhaps one year, or at most two years, to rise, and that Parliament would be back in its old home early in 1918.

By the same token, a non-partisan committee with the usual majority of Conservatives was appointed to assist the Honourable Bob in his patriotic effort to cause the Phoenix to rise on time. It was thought that the Phoenix would make a good job of early rising because it would be the old Phoenix with extensive repairs and modern alterations, that would rise, and not a new Phoenix that would have to be created from the ground up.

The Phoenix, as our readers will remember, was not entirely destroyed by the flames. The tail of the Phoenix, that is to say, the Parliamentary Library, which was the most beautiful part of the venerable bird, was left practically unscathed. The neck and crest of the classic fowl, that is to say, the central tower, would have to be replaced, but the architect's report was that the walls were good enough to keep with a little strengthening and that altogether about two million dollars worth of the Phoenix was left standing, which would take about three or four million dollars to re-feather, after which the old Phoenix would be as good as new. The rearranged interior would give the Phoenix's gizzard about forty per cent. more accommodation, and that altogether fire was a good thing for Phoenixes, because it gave them a chance to remodel up to date.

To drop the allegory for one sentence, the architect reported that the central tower would have to be rebuilt, but that two million dollars worth of sound walls were in situ, which, with a steel frame inside and a concrete reinforcement would carry the new building with a fourth story added and preserve the lines of the old building as perfectly as if no fire had ever happened. The Ottawa newspapers were dissolved in pure delight for that the beautiful facade which inspired so many of their editorials was to be left unmarred. Art lovers all over Canada wept with joy because their dear old Italian-Gothic Phoenix was to be restored to them with not a pin feather out of place.

That was the public feeling toward the Phoenix of Parliament Hill when the non-partisan parliamentary committee on Phoenixes, under the guidance of the Honourable Bob Rogers, got to work. Architect Pearson imported expert Gothicists from Europe and drew plans of a Phoenix that would look in all respects, save in a few matters of ornamental detail, like the old one. The innards, of course, were to be

CAPTAIN MAGAR DEAD AT WEST PEACE RIVER

Word reached town last evening that Captain Magar, one of the best known river navigators of British Columbia, died last Wednesday morning at his residence at West Peace River. Capt. Magar navigated the Peace for a number of years in the employment of the Hudson's Bay Company, and built the Northland Gall in connection with James Cornwall.

Captain Magar was known and highly respected by all Prince Rupert old timers, having been one of the most popular of the Skeena River skippers during the early days of railway construction here. He also ran a boat on the Yukon in the days of the gold rush and was known throughout the length and breadth of this province amongst the pioneers.

FRANK H. MOBLEY WILL GET LARGE MAJORITY

Frank H. Mobley has returned from a tour of the Atlin district and is highly delighted with the results of his trip. He was warmly welcomed everywhere and in each part of the constituency is assured of a handsome majority. Wherever he visited he found the settlers ready for a change of government and thoroughly disgusted with the Bowser government. The electors in the north feel that, in Mr. Mobley, they will have a clean, sterling representative whose sole aim will be to render all the assistance he possibly can to the development of this great mining district along sane lines.

Throughout the north, H. C. Brewster is looked upon as the coming premier of British Columbia and everywhere there is supreme confidence in the sterling character and tenacity of purpose of the Liberal leader.

On Saturday evening, at the drydock, the Fusiliers had quite a celebration on the occasion of the breaking up of the canteen. A smoker was held; all sorts of good things to eat were provided, and a very fine musical program was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The men who left to join the Foresters were: Sergt. Mason, Lance-Corp. Wills, and Privates Lupton, Clapton, Frow, Nield, Cobb, Hempstead and McInnis.

CAPT. RORVIG'S BROTHER KILLED AT PORTLAND

The sad news has been received that Captain Carl Rorvig, brother of Captain P. Rorvig, of this city, has been accidentally killed at Portland, Ore. He was shore captain for the McCormick Lumber Company and had his headquarters at San Diego. Miss Rorvig has gone south to attend the funeral. The sympathy of the whole community will go out to the members of the family in their sad bereavement.

William Keith, one of the best known and most popular of Rupert's old timers, left for Ottawa this morning to join the Forestry Battalion. Mr. Keith is delighted that the forming of this battalion has given him his chance to "do his bit" as he was over age for the other contingents.

THE WAR

From an Allied standpoint, the war news becomes more encouraging every week. Weakened by the withdrawal of a large number of men from the Isonzo front, to endeavor to stem the advancing tide of Russians in Galicia, the Austrians opened the door to Gorizia to the Italians, and the latter were not slow to take advantage of the opportunity. This transference cost the Austrians 100,000 men and Gorizia, and it will go on costing them dearly for the next few weeks, as the Italians are following them up so closely that they are getting no opportunity to consolidate their forces, while they are losing huge quantities of supplies and war material in their flight.

On the other hand, the Austrian reinforcements in Galicia have utterly failed to put strength enough into the Austrian defence to keep back the Russians for a single hour. On both fronts, the Austrian movement has been disastrous and the situation is desperate. Stanislaw is in Russian hands and two passes through the Carpathians, the Jablonica, from Kolomea, and the Tucholka from Stanislaw, are now opened up to the Russians. Our despatches of Saturday indicated that Stanislaw might be made a base for the invasion of Hungary, and, on German military principles, which call for the taking of territory rather than for the meeting of the enemy, this would be the Russian move. Lemberg, however, is the great Russian objective, as it is there that the bulk of the Austrian strength is, and the probability is that from Stanislaw an effort will be made to reach Lemberg, with a view to cutting off the Austrian rear.

It has been evident recently that Brusiloff is more keenly interested in completely crippling the Austro-German forces than in capturing territory which would require a huge army to hold. With a network of railroads at their command, the Russians now control the situation and Lemberg is theirs for the asking, which should be just as easy as the capturing of Stanislaw.

One of the most important movements of the past week was the beginning of the Allied offensive in the Balkans. Quiet has reigned there for months, but the Allies have not been simply marking time. A new Serbian army has been remodelled from the old, and this gallant little country has now 100,000 men of the best fighting blood in Europe linked up with the French and British at Saloniki. Large supplies of big guns and munitions have been steadily pouring in, in spite of the watchfulness of the enemy submarines in the Mediterranean and the Allied armies in the Balkans are ready to carry out just such magnificent work as has been done since July 1st on the western front.

Roumania has been waiting to see what would happen in that region and it has been a watchful waiting, during which warlike preparations have gone steadily forward. Roumania is ready to strike at the opportune moment, and she will strike a blow for the Allies. Austria and Germany can spare no men for any defensive in the Balkans, and the Bulgarians and Turks will be left pretty much to take care of themselves. The Bulgarians did not come into this struggle to fight Germany's battle, but to get a share of the spoils. Now that Bulgaria realizes that there are to be no spoils but rather the reverse, there is liable to be quite an agitation in Sofia for peace. They will get it—when the Allies are through.

Turkey has refused to contemplate any American committee investigating the situation in Syria. No wonder. The Turks will do their best to see that no Syrian Christians remain to tell the awful tale.

Von Hindenburg is no longer to command the German forces on the eastern front. This comes as rather a surprise, as he has always been hailed as Germany's greatest leader. Perhaps he is needed elsewhere.

"THE MASTER KEY" BEGINS AT WESTHOLME

The Westholme Theatre tonight presents what is claimed to be the biggest show ever given in this city on one night. The first installment of the great serial, "The Master Key," has arrived and is certain to win the attention of all from the beginning and to hold the interest throughout. Wherever shown, this great serial has proven to be a big attraction.

Grace Cunard and Francis Ford, two old favorites here, will also be presented in "Behind the Mask," a three-act drama which is full of thrill, while in "A Circus Girl's Romance," there is a real big circus shown. This is a two-reel picture in which Marie Walcamp and Wellington Playter are the stars. This great show is for one night only and should be well worth seeing.

Marguerite Clark, in "Out of the Drifts" at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow.

MARGUERITE CLARK AT THE MAJESTIC THEATRE

Marguerite Clark, in "Out of the Drifts," is the big attraction at the Majestic tonight and tomorrow. "Out of the Drifts" is a tale of the eternal snows, of avalanches, dizzy heights and yawning chasms, ranging from the pastoral beauties of Alpine shepherd life to the grim fight for existence against the smashing, hurricane-driven snows. Marguerite Clark as a sweet and innocent Alpine snapperess is seen at her best. A young rogue tries to tempt this innocent girl away to London, but she is saved by a guide who sends the villain over a precipice. A snow drift saves him and the battle is resumed in the guide's cabin. It is a powerful story which ends happily. Miss Clark is supported by a strong caste of stars and this drama of the mountains is undoubtedly one of her greatest plays. An Eclair Gazette showing the latest from Europe completes a big show in which the music furnished by the Balagno-Stillwell orchestra is a pleasing feature.

Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well!

changed a little. The Hall of Fame and the Court of Honor, likewise the members' rooms and the parliamentary offices would be in the centre, and the two Houses in the wings, but outwardly the Phoenix would present the same old chaste, unruffled calm.

The committee on Phoenixes was very tender toward this plan which was both economical and effective, and the Liberal members of the committee were especially pleased that they had been invited in to take part in a purely national undertaking, from which party politics would be excluded—namely, the recreation of a fine roomy Phoenix with modern conveniences which would adequately represent the dignity of Canada as a great self-governing state. Their idea was that the Phoenix would be restored as cheaply as might be consistent with good work, and that this country would not be burdened with extravagant expenditures at a time when it was groaning under taxes which were the outcome of our war obligations.

This happy state of mind lasted all session, but after the session was over and the legislators had scattered, things began to happen which robbed them of their dream. The Liberal members of the Committee found that they were not being consulted as much as they might be. Several autopsies on the Phoenix were held at which no Liberal members were present. Among others the Hon. Charles Murphy decided that he was not wanted, and dropped out accordingly. It became plainer and plainer that the Hon. Bob was intending to handle the Phoenix all by himself. This was his chance to spend money. He wasn't going to let Sam have all the glory of throwing millions to the birds—at any rate not when he had a bird of his own to blow the coin on. A Phoenix in hand is worth two in the bush.

The Honorable Bob knows as well as the next man that more money can be spent on hatching a new Phoenix than in refeathering an old one. Besides, he had had experience in handling Phoenixes before. There was the Phoenix at Winnipeg, for example—a Phoenix that involved a million and a quarter graft, caused four cabinet ministers to be indicted for conspiracy, put several public officials on the grill for accepting bribes and doctoring specifications, brought the contractor within smelling distance of the penitentiary, and wrecked a government. Some Phoenix, eh! And yet a mighty poor Phoenix at that. A Phoenix according to the architect's report, with its feet in the mud instead of on a bed of rocks as they ought to be. A profitable Phoenix, however, to a few people.

Such is the story of the Winnipeg Phoenix, and such threatens to be the story of the Ottawa Phoenix for it has been practically decided that we are to have an entirely new Phoenix that will cost anywhere from seven to ten million dollars, instead of an old one refurbished that would cost four millions. The Department of Public Works has made its contract with P. Lyall & Son along these generous lines. The contractor is to have eight per cent. on all he spends, take all the time he likes and be paid twenty per cent. yearly for depreciation of his plant. It's a safe guess that the job will last long enough to pay the contractor the top-market price for any old junk that he cares to use as plant, not to mention his eight per cent. profit on an unlimited expenditure. There is no telling just how far these bird fanciers will go.

All of which is to say that we have seen the last of our beautiful old Phoenix on Parliament Hill. It will not rise from its ashes. We shall have instead a new Phoenix that will eat millions till its eyes bulge. The feed bill for our Phoenix for the next few years will keep us humping because a young growing Phoenix always eats more than one that has attained maturity.

As if that were not bad enough, stories have been deliberately set afloat which cast discredit on the old Phoenix—that it had the pip, the blind staggers, and other ailments known to Phoenixes. And yet it was a sturdy old Phoenix, plenty of life in it even now, if what the Ottawa correspondents say be true. For example, there was the new fire proof wing, the west wing, the liver wing so to speak of the venerable. The Phoenix destroyers couldn't pull that wing apart, they had to blast it with dynamite.—H. F. Gadsby.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the

Three Mighty Forces Close Linked

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker?

On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising:
Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of those will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

Production and Thrift

"TO win the war with the decisiveness which will ensure lasting peace, the Empire will require to put forth its full collective power in men and in money. From this viewpoint it is our true policy to augment our financial strength by multiplying our productive exertions and by exercising rigid economy, which reduces to the minimum all expenditures upon luxuries and non-essentials. Only in this way shall we be able to make good the loss caused by the withdrawal of so many of our workers from industrial activities, repair the wastage of the war, and find the funds for its continuance. It cannot be too frequently or too earnestly impressed upon our people that the heaviest burdens of the conflict still lie before us, and that industry and thrift are, for those who remain at home, supreme patriotic duties upon whose faithful fulfilment our success, and consequently our national safety, may ultimately depend."—SIR THOMAS WHITE, Minister of Finance.

PRODUCE MORE, SAVE MORE.

MAKE LABOUR EFFICIENT.

SAVE MATERIALS FROM WASTE.

SPEND MONEY WISELY.

LET US PRODUCE AND SAVE—

The war is now turning on a contest of all forces and resources—men, munitions, food, money. The call to all is to produce more and more. It may be necessary to work harder. The place of those who enlist must be taken by those at home, men and women, old and young. The more we produce the more we can save. Produce more on the farms and in the gardens. Save more and help to win the war.

LET US NOT WASTE OUR LABOUR—

In this war-time all labour should be directly productive or should be assisting in production. Make it as efficient as possible. If your labour is on something that can be postponed, put it off till after the war and make your labour tell now. Making war is the first business of all Canadians. Efficiency in labour is as important as efficiency in fighting.

LET US NOT WASTE MATERIALS—

Begin at home. The larger portion of salaries and wages is spent on the home—food, fuel, light, clothing. Are any of these things being wasted? $20.00 a year saved from waste in every home in Canada will more than pay the interest on a war debt of $500,000,000.

LET US SPEND OUR MONEY WISELY—

Are you spending your money to the best advantage? What do you think of extravagance in war time? Tens of thousands of Canadians are daily risking their lives for us at home. Is it not our duty to be careful and economical? Canadian dollars are an important part of the war equipment. Make them tell. Have a War Savings Account. Buy a War Bond.

PATRIOTIC WORK AT MILL BAY CANNERY

Mill Bay Cannery, on the Naas River, netted the handsome sum of $45 in aid of the prisoners of war fund, as the result of a happy social gathering which was held on the large verandah of the cannery messhouse on the evening of August 2nd. The verandah was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags, plants and Chinese lanterns, the latter illuminating the many small tables which were heaped with dainties of every description. Cakes, candies, coffee, and all sorts of good things were in evidence and during the evening a program made up of purely local talent rendered splendid entertainment.

Most of the money was realized from the auctioning of articles donated by the residents, and considering the small population, the greatest credit is due the promoters of the event for the success which attended their efforts in a worthy cause. The Indians and Japanese at the cannery did their share in making the function a success.
