(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Oct. 16.—Bucharest reports the capture of Mont Siguello, a frontier town near Petrosen and also Rumanian villages northeast of Kronstadt and southeast of Orna.

An official despatch announces that a commission of French officers is on its way to the Rumanian capital to aid the hard-pressed generals of King Ferdinand. More than 15,000 prisoners have been taken by the Rumanians on the various fronts.

The Rumanian troops are fighting desperately to prevent the forces of the Central Powers from entering Rumania. Russian reinforcements are rushing to their aid and it is reported that King Ferdinand will himself take the field at the head of his troops. Stubborn fighting continues on the Dobrudja front.

Italian Front.

Rome, Oct. 16.—The Italians on the Trentino front have advanced toward Mont Roite. An entire Austro-Hungarian battery has been captured in the region of Cosmagnon.

GADSBY DISCUSSES BRITISH COLUMBIA

Ottawa, October 14.—In British Columbia the other day, Mr. Bowser and his prodigal associates reaped the whirlwind which they had plentifully sown. For a number of years the British Columbia Government had been a whirlwind government—two parts whirl, Premier McBride, and two parts wind, Attorney-General Bowser.

About a year ago, a change was made. Premier McBride became Agent General for British Columbia in London at a salary of $15,000 a year, while Mr. Bowser remained at home and became Premier. The result of this change was disastrous. With the whirl removed to London, which is seven thousand miles away from Victoria, B. C., where it used to operate, and only the wind left on the job, the Bow-wowser government collapsed. Which goes to show that Sir Richard McBride supplied a fair quality of whirl while he was whirling, and that if you trust to wind alone to spin a top it goes dead.

Sir Richard was certainly the whirling dervish of British Columbia politics. He was always in a whirl. When the whirling wasn't good in Victoria, he would whirl off to Ottawa and put Premier Borden in a whirl with his troubles. Sir Richard's idea was that he might whirl his way into the Borden cabinet, which proves that he was a bad guesser. The Borden government had a generous notion of war profits, but when Sir Richard soaked them a million and a quarter for a couple of rejected submarines, worth perhaps a hundred thousand dollars each, he hit their limit. There was too much whirl in his financing even for the Borden government. So they passed Sir Richard up and Sir Richard, seeing that the end of his rope had been reached, whirled off to London and fifteen thousand dollars a year, which he will continue to draw until the Brewster government pries him loose.

Meanwhile, Sir Richard is enjoying the social whirl at the heart of the Empire, taking the ten shillings dinner—wine extra—every night at the Savoy and hob-nobbing with Winston Churchill, who once detected "the seal of high destiny on his brow"—a sort of red seal record—Sir Sam Hughes, the only legitimate successor of Lord Kitchener, Sir Max Aitken, the Eye Witness with the long distance eyes, and other notables now holidaying in Piccadilly. In short, Sir Richard is whirling along as gaily as ever. Poor old Bowser is the goat.

As long as Sir Richard supplied the whirl and Bowser supplied the wind, things went at a prodigious gait. In eight years Premier McBride whirled through most of the natural and unnatural resources of his native province. He not only gave away what British Columbia had, timber limits, crown lands, coal mines, fisheries and such, but also a good deal of what she hadn't, in the shape of bond guarantees to (Continued on Page Two)

(Special to The Daily News.)

Striking Speech by Venizelos at Banquet—Allied Successes on Serbian and Russian Fronts.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Athens, Oct. 16.—The Greek cabinet has officially renewed its proposals to the Entente Powers to enter the war on the side of the Allies. At a banquet given by the Green committee of national defence, in honor of the members of the provisional government, ex-Premier Venizelos, in a striking speech, said, "The Greek people have been led to the brink of a precipice but the national consciousness has made common cause against the politicians of a decadent epoch."

Serbian Front.

Saloniki, Oct. 16.—There was serious fighting on Saturday along the entire Serbian front. The Bulgars were expelled from some trenches on the left bank of the Cerna and all Bulgarian counter-attacks were repulsed. The French have cut the railway line south of Sere.

Russian Front.

Petrograd, October 16.—Russian troops north of Koryniza stormed the Teutonic trenches and captured a number of prisoners. The Germans counter-attacked in vain.

Russian Submarine Success.

The Russian submarine Tuler, after an engagement near the Bosphorus, captured the six thousand ton armed war transport Rodiston. The vessel which was commanded by German officers, was taken to Sebastopol.

CONSTANTINE

When the history of the war comes to be written, King Constantine of Greece will either loom up as one of the greatest villains of the drama or as one of the weaklings. Having a German consort seems to have warped his judgment, if he ever had any, and it looks as if his days as king of Greece are numbered. From the beginning, it has been apparent that he was pro-German, but the proximity of a strong Anglo-French fleet and army induced him to declare a "benevolent neutrality," which seems to have been perfectly understood in Berlin. Afraid of the radical element amongst his own; still more afraid of the Allied strength, yet evidently determined to strike a blow for Germany when the opportunity offered, Constantine has been in a very uncomfortable corner ever since the Balkan trouble started.

In some quarters it has been felt that the Greek government has been treated much too patiently by the Allies, but now that they have shown that they are capable of dealing very firmly with the situation, matters will begin to mend, but not for Constantine. The radicals under Venizelos will now be still more determined to oust the Royal family from the control of the destinies of Greece, and, given Venizelos as a leader, there can be little doubt that a republican form of government would be beneficial. In these democratic days, a king should only remain king so long as he is the father of his people. When a monarch betrays his people, as Constantine has attempted to do, his term of kingship should end suddenly and forever.

Constantine seems to have controlled the Greek supply of munitions, but it is very certain that the great majority of the Greek soldiers will be more than willing to join the Allies against the Bulgarian, the Turk and the Teuton. The kid glove stage is long since past, and it would probably be a good thing for Greece, as well as for the Allies, if Constantine and his Teutonic advisors were escorted to a place of retirement say on the Island of Crete. The Cretans would see that they did not get into mischief, and, if the Royal gentleman got shy of amusement, he could form a little court of his own there and rule to his heart's content. Meantime, the Allies are too busy in the Balkans to be troubled with this disturber longer.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The French and British have not been successful in their big effort to break through the German lines on the Somme. The preparations for the next big try will simply be all the greater, and the Allies will keep on trying until they are successful. Meantime the German line is pretty badly bent.

The offensive on the Somme front has not only been successful in that it drove the Germans back for many miles and resulted in many thousands of prisoners being taken, but it entirely relieved the French army on the Verdun front.

Prince Rupert will be busier after next Wednesday than it has been since the days of railway construction. May it be the start of the big things which are bound to come sooner or later.

"The White Flour Pinch"—have you felt it? With the advancing price of wheat "the seven-cent loaf is doomed," say the bakers. In its place we have the eight-cent loaf—in many cities only the sixteen-cent loaf. A loaf of white flour bread is not a complete ration. However wholesome and pure, it does not supply all the proteids the human body needs. In Shredded Wheat Biscuit you have all the body-building nutriment in the whole wheat grain prepared in a digestible form. It is always the same price, always the same high quality. Eat it for breakfast with milk or cream or with fruits.

The Rumanians seem to have got off on the wrong foot in heading through Transylvania. They have probably been too anxious to get hold of the territory which they wanted. Had they devoted all their energies to helping defeat Von Mackenzen on the Dobrudja front, they would have got along faster and with fewer casualties.

It is the duty of every citizen to become a member of the Red Cross Society at this time. Those who cannot go to the front can at least do what they can to help the boys who have gone. By joining the Red Cross Society you render valuable assistance to the cause of the Allies.

two railroads for which five hundred thousand proper could not provide the traffic for years to come. Incidentally the McBride government in direct contravention of the statute, overpaid one firm of railroad contractors seven million dollars.

In short, Sir Richard was some whirler. He was a head of hair—not a brain. Consequently it took all Attorney-General Bowser's wind to keep explaining. Thus it happened that when the badly-looted Dominion Trust Company of Vancouver, of which Bowser, Reid and Wallbridge were the solicitors, blew up, and the high-rolling Count Alvo von Alvensleben, the Kaiser's agent, rolled his hoop to Seattle, and Manager Arnold a confessed embezzler, died in such a way that his life insurance couldn't be collected—when these things occurred, I repeat, poor Bowser was quite out of breath and hadn't a word to say. Whereupon Sir Richard whirled off to London and left Premier Bowser to hold the bag.

The chances are that if the Brewster government institutes an inquiry into the whirlwind methods of the Bowser-McBride combination, a state of things will be disclosed which will make the Manitoba scandal look like a sweet geranium by comparison. This precious pair took as their motto the good old Tory policy of spending all the people had and then some. Late in the day, Premier Bowser, tried to comfort the British Columbia taxpayers with apples—that is to say, with prohibition and woman suffrage, but the trick didn't work. British Columbia accepted prohibition and woman suffrage gladly enough, but not the Bowser government. It got what was coming to it.

No Sign Of Dropsy And Kidney Trouble Since Taking "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

HATTIE WARREN
Port Robinson, Ont., July 8th, 1915.
"We have used "Fruit-a-tives" in our house for over three years and have always found them a good medicine. Our little girl, Hattie, was troubled with Kidney Disease. The Doctor said she was threatened with Dropsy. Her limbs and body were all swollen and we began to think she could not live. Finally, we decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". She began to show improvement after we had given her a few tablets. In a short time, the swelling had all gone down and her flesh began to look more natural. Now she is the healthiest one in the family and has no signs of the old ailment. We can not say too much for "Fruit-a-tives" and would never be without them."

GADSBY DISCUSSES B. C.

The landslide in British Columbia has naturally alarmed the Conservative party in the neighboring province of Alberta, where Leader Michener slips back two inches for every inch he makes of headway. This has led the party to cast longing eyes on R. B. Bennett, M. P., the Calgary Demosthenes, who has got about as far as he can go at Ottawa with a government that is doomed to defeat at the next general election. Rumor has it that R. B.'s seat in Calgary is not as safe as it used to be before British Columbia showed Alberta what a wash-out could do. On the whole R. B. might find the Opposition leadership in Alberta a snugger berth than his hopes deferred at Ottawa. If Alberta gets him back it will be with Ottawa improvements, which have rendered him a sadder and wiser man.

The signs of the times have also spread panic in the flock of village lawyers who are manhandling a fourteen million dollar budget in Queen's Park, Toronto. The Ontario government has been running to seed ever since its strong man, Sir James Whitney, died. Its remaining strong man, the Hon. W. J. Hanna, thwarted of the premiership and not liking the company he is obliged to keep, is gradually easing himself out of politics into his Standard Oil satrapy. Sir Adam Beck's hydro-radial enterprise is more acceptable to the people than Sir Adam is to his colleagues in the government, who, as a matter of fact, refuse to play in his backyard and throw stones at him whenever they can and very often when they can't.

Premier Hearst is charged with being outmanoeuvred on the question of prohibition, and the talk now is to hearse Hearst by making him a High Court Judge. The funeral preparations are in hand right now—no flowers. With Premier Hearst decently interred and a new premier at the head of affairs the government may see its way clear to restore wine and beer licenses in cities of ten thousand and over and perhaps to operate the liquor shops on the Saskatchewan system. This would be the first step. The program is to reorganize the government by making Howard Ferguson, the bush-leager, or Listless Lucas or Dr. Pyne premier, and then an election. In other words, reconstruction followed by destruction.—H. F. G.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Coughing scatters germs — Stop it

Coughing increases the irritation of the already inflamed mucous membranes and is moreover apt to carry disease to others.

Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil promptly stops coughing, and soon, thanks to its tonic properties, effects a permanent cure.

The wonderful popularity of Mathieu's Syrup of Tar and Cod Liver Oil is specially due to its great value as a permanent lung and bronchial healer.

Sold everywhere, 35c large bottles.

Three Mighty Forces Close Linked

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker?

On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising:
Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

Everything is new in the Arcade Cafe, spotless and in excellent taste, with a daintiness about it that is specially inviting. This is as true of the kitchen in the rear as it is of the large room where crowds will gather to feast. The floor and walls of the kitchen are of concrete, which is a protection against fire and easily kept perfectly clean. Such a worthy enterprise will undoubtedly receive liberal patronage.

From the Busy Bee to the new Arcade Cafe is quite a jump if one compares the two establishments. But it is one of many jumps Billy Georgalas has made during his career as a restaurateur. He thoroughly learned his business in the large cities of Europe and since the severance of his connection with the Busy Bee has worked in Dawson, Fairbanks, Iditarod and Nome, returning to Prince Rupert fully confident that this is the place in which to establish a large catering business on up-to-date lines. He has as partner in the new Arcade Cafe H. Killas, who is also an old timer, and they have certainly demonstrated their confidence in Rupert by the lavishness of their business enterprise.

NEW ANGLICAN CHURCH OPENED AT CEDARVALE

Assisted by the Rev. T. J. Marsh, of Terrace, Bishop Du Vernet opened the new Anglican Church at Cedarvale last Sunday Morning. The church is a frame building 18 feet by 32 feet and is neatly finished outside. The congregation, which is not large, did well both in the way of subscriptions and also in the way of labor freely given, the central fund of the Diocese meeting the balance of the expense for material. There was a good attendance at the opening service, settlers coming from both sides of the Skeena River.

BLANCHE SWEET AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight sees the opening of the Westholme Theatre under the management of Ed. Stilwell, when the Lasky feature "The Sowers" will be produced. It is a filmed version of Henry Seton Merriman's widely read novel and deals with the story of the struggles of the Russian people towards political and industrial freedom. Blanche Sweet appears in the leading role, in a part which will appeal to the sympathies of all. There is a strong supporting company, including Thos. Meighan, one of the most brilliant of young movie actors. There is also an Eclair Animated Gazette, showing the latest war pictures. There will be a special musical program by the Stilwell-Balagno orchestra.

YUKON RECRUITS

There was a company of a hundred and twenty sturdy recruits from the Yukon on board the Prince Rupert this morning bound for Victoria. The party is in charge of Governor Black who took his commission some time ago. They were a remarkably fit looking bunch who would be capable of giving the Germans a hot time in hand to hand fighting. They arrived here to the strains of "Tipperary."
