COMMONS DECIDE TO ADJOURN HOUSE TILL JULY

INDIGNANT ALASKANS IN REBELLION AGAINST UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Three Hundred Citizens of Cordova Start Another "Boston Tea Party"---Angered at the Way the Country is Chained to the Coal Speculators, They Dump Three Hundred Tons of Imported Coal into Harbor---Mayor is Powerless to Preserve Order and Has Appealed to the Governor for Assistance---Citizens In Sympathy

(Canadian Press Dispatch)
 Cordova, Alaska, May 5.—Incensed at the action of the United States government which has refused to deal with the coal lease question, three hundred men are now busy on the wharf of the Alaska Steamship Company, emulating the heroes of the Boston Tea Party of 1773, by dumping three hundred tons of Canadian coal into the sea.
Authorities Powerless
 The feeling here is intense over the situation. There is no animosity towards the steamship company, and general feeling is behind the three hundred citizens. The Mayor and local authorities are powerless to afford protection to the company's property, and have appealed to the Governor of Alaska to send aid.
Cause of the Trouble
 The trouble began this morning when the news of the receipt of a message at the company's office, from its agent at Washington leaked out. The message stated that the government had reported against taking any action in regard to the coal land leases, as the Supreme Court had not considered the appeal from the decision of Judge Hanford, quashing the indictments against the claimants in the English group of Alaska coal claims. The Government report added that nothing could be done towards opening the coal fields until after the court had passed on the case.

Coal from Nanaimo
 The people from the Copper River district have been greatly exercised over the question. They point out that while Alaska is one great coal field, the people of Alaska are sport for the coal speculators and millionaires who have blanketed the country, so that it is impossible for the people of Alaska to touch the coal at their doors. For a long time they have been obliged to import coal from Nanaimo in Canada, over a thousand miles away to sell here at $25 a ton.

Rush to the Wharf
 The coal on the wharf had been shipped in by the Alaska Steamship Co. following the receipt of their agent's message that nothing would be done to open up the coal fields this year. It is valued at $8,000. At a secret meeting of citizens it was decided that the best way to show the indignation of the people was to follow the example of the heroes of 1773.
 The work of throwing the coal into the sea is still going on. Practically every able bodied man in Cordova is on the scene.

WILL BREAK ALL RECORDS

Prince Rupert Will Outstrip All Coast Cities
HOLD ALL HER TRADE

Convincing Impression of Progress and Prosperity Made by the City on Mr. J. P. Graves of Granby Consolidated Mine
 "Prince Rupert can take care of all the business of her surrounding district."
 The words were said confidently and with all the convincing decision of a far seeing business man well satisfied with his first impression of our city. The speaker was Mr. J. P. Graves, managing director of the Granby Consolidated Mining and Smelting Co., president of the Spokane Inland Railway Co., and director of many flourishing concerns in the Eastern States. Mr. Graves is well-known in business circles in New York and throughout Canada.
 "What most impressed me on my journey to this city," said Mr. Graves, "is the magnificent water route to Prince Rupert. It is as valuable commercially as it is beautiful. And the certainty of rapid transfer of goods via the Grand Trunk to the eastern markets is another great factor which has favorably impressed me about Prince Rupert."
 "Never before in the history of the Pacific Coast has there been such an influx of population. Men and money are pouring in steadily. Seattle, Tacoma, and Vancouver sprang up fast, but they had not behind them anything like the tide of immigration which is setting towards Prince Rupert. While it is impossible for a coast city in the making to avoid its dull spells in the time of waiting for the completion of transportation facilities, I am convinced that Prince Rupert's growth is going to break all records for coast cities. The great wave of inflowing population greater now than ever before in the history of the West makes this an absolute certainty."

OUTFIT FOR WORKS DEPT.

City Engineer's Contract on First Avenue to Start

EQUIPMENT REQUIRED
Tenders for Supply of Rails, Pulleys, Car-wheels, etc., From Three City Hardware Firms are Before the Streets Committee.

Another step in the establishment of a Public Works Department in Prince Rupert was taken by the council last night. Contract "B. 6" on First Avenue on which the City Engineer bid lowest has not yet been started and before it can be begun a regular outfit of contractor's tools must be purchased. These will form the nucleus of the Public Works Department equipment.

Tenders for the materials and tools required were called for the other day by the City Clerk, and last night these were opened. Three of the city hardware firms tendered, but not all as completely as the council desired. The firms tendering were the Prince Rupert Hardware Co., Messrs. Handasyde & Hurt, and the Thompson Hardware Co. The tenders were referred to the streets committee.

WILL ADJOURN HOUSE AT OTTAWA FOR CORONATION

Truce Declared in Reciprocity Struggle from May 23rd to July 16th—Members Will Have to Come Back to Work in Dog Days Without Any Extra Indemnity

(Canadian Press Dispatch)
 Ottawa, May 5.—It is now practically decided that Parliament will adjourn from May 23rd until July 16th. The decision has been come to after a conference between the two leaders.

Fielding to Lead House
 It has been agreed that Hon. W. S. Fielding is to assume the leadership of the House during the absence of the Premier in England attending the Coronation. For Sir Wilfrid to have given up his visit to London on this occasion was felt would not reflect to the credit of Canada, and though the Premier was ready to make the sacrifice in his fight for reciprocity the declaration of a truce is welcomed.

NO VOTE TAKEN
District Ministers Will Discuss Church Union Next Week

No vote was taken on Church union last night at the concluding session of the Methodist ministers of the district. The matter was left over until next week when all the ministers of the Methodist Church of British Columbia confer in Vancouver. The pastors of this district will meet there and vote before the matter is discussed at the conference.

 This morning most of the delegates who attended here left on the S. S. Prince Rupert to attend the conference. Rev. J. C. Sing will leave for Vancouver on Monday morning and will be away for nearly two weeks. On Sunday May 14, Rev. G. H. Raley of Stewart, will preach in the First Methodist Church.

Heavy on Members
 In a general way, the truce is admitted to be a victory for the opposition, but the terms will bear heavily upon the members all round. They will have to return to the House in mid-summer to complete their work without further remuneration.

COUNCIL ACCEPTED NEW FIRE ENGINE LAST NIGHT

Mayor and Aldermen Pleased With New "Red Devil" After Given Joy Ride Yesterday—J. E. Gibson Appointed as Driver—Machine Showed Up Splendidly in the Test

Prince Rupert owns that fine $7,850 red fire-fighting auto-car. At a special meeting of the city council last night the final stages in the purchase were completed. Reports of Fire Chief McInnis on the machinery and equipment of the car, and on its performance, were read and approved. Then the motion to accept delivery of the car was carried.

Important Document
 Before the cheque in payment for the car is signed and sent off the council on the recommendation of Alderman Smith will have returned to them the original order for the car, in order that it may be filed for future reference. The names of those responsible for the ordering of the vehicle are liable to be handed down to posterity in short. Mr. J. E. Gibson will be engaged for a probation term of sixty days as driver of the car. His credentials are good, and he is a trained mechanical engineer with marine as well as motor car experience. He can repair a breakdown.

Trial Run Yesterday
 Last night's special council meeting was the result of a spectacular speed and efficiency trial in which all the civic officials who could be crammed on board took part. There were the Mayor and council. There were the minions of the press armed with speedometers and stop-watches. There was Fire Chief McInnis, and last but not least there were Emmett P. Browning, western sales manager for the W. E. Seagrave Co., Walkerville, Ont., who built the car, and William Lee, the company's mechanical expert at the wheel and levers. Everything went splendidly.

The car behaved like a million dollar steam yacht in smooth water. It obeyed the driver's every touch on the steering gear. It started and stopped to order. It took the steepest grades with never a sign of hesitation. Right out to Seal Cove it spun with its heavy load of civic, mechanical and journalistic genius at an average speed of thirty miles an hour. The car is capable of doing up to thirty-five miles an hour if need be. It took only seven minutes to make the trip to Seal Cove. In another seven it was back again at the fire hall. Here genius and civic dignity dismounted in front of a camera waiting to take a picture of the party beside, and in the machine. Everybody tried to look pretty, but the car in its fresh youthful glory of rich red enamel outdid them all.

Fit for Fire Service
 Fifteen hundred feet of hose can be carried by the new car. It is equipped with a large tank of chemical for the speedy extinguishing of newly started fires. This saves property from damage by water. Gong and loud warning horns are attached to clear the path for the auto on its way to a fire. Everything about the machinery is in excellent shape. It is a six cylinder engine, developing 80 horse power. In every way the new car will be an improvement on the old system, so trying on the men. Had it been in operation when the Hays Cove Circle fire happened the other day, there would probably have been far less loss.
 The title of the new jigger in curbstone vernacular is the "Red Devil."

NEW COURT HOUSE

Building for the Police Will Cost $600

To build the proposed new police offices and court house on Third avenue and Fourth street, will involve an expenditure of $600. In adopting the report of the streets works and property committee on this last night the council considered the first idea of renting a building. Mayor Manson stated that to rent a suitable building, such as say, the old Bank of Montreal would cost $50 per month. It was decided to proceed with the new police station and court house.

PIONEER IS GONE HOME

Rev. Ebenezer Robson Is Dead at Vancouver
WAS WELL KNOWN

He Was the First Methodist Missionary to Enter British Columbia—A Brother of the Late Johnson Robson, Once Premier of Province.

(Canadian Press Dispatch)
 Vancouver, May 5.—Rev. Ebenezer Robson, the pioneer Methodist missionary in British Columbia, passed away at his home here this morning. He was in his eightieth year, and for over half a century his name had been closely identified with the history of the Methodist church west of the Rockies.
 He was a brother of the late Hon. Johnson Robson, who was Premier of British Columbia from 1889 to 1892.

Will Develop Claims
 B. F. Stanwood, the well-known prospector is back in the city on a trip to California. He will leave here shortly for Copper River to develop his valuable claims there.

Paying for the New Fire-car
 Payment for the new auto-chemical hose wagon just accepted by the city will not be made until thirty days after date of acceptance of the car, that is in a month from now.

Real Estate Moving
 Some evidence of the fact that real estate is moving in the city can be gathered from the monthly report of Mr. O. M. Helgerson who closed deals last month amounting to $34,290. Most of the lots sold were in Sections 1 and 5 and were to people living away out of the city.

VAST INSURANCE SCHEME PLAN OF LLOYD-GEORGE

Two and a Half Million Workers at First Will Be Safeguarded Against Unemployment at a Cost of $35,000,000—Extension of Scheme Will Involve $100,000,000

(Canadian Press Dispatch)
 London, Eng., May 5.—Lloyd-George introduced to the House today his system of State Insurance of workers, the most radical legislation ever yet undertaken by the Liberals. The measure it is estimated will involve an expenditure of $35,000,000 in 1912-13 rising to $100,000,000 in 1915-16.

Bill Is Approved
 General approval of the bill is expressed by the representatives of all parties, though some of the details are criticized. It is admitted that a system of State

Insurance is likely to meet with success and the wide-spread approval of the great mass of the people. The measure is of course aimed at the problem of unemployment.

Two and a Half Million
 At first the system of State Insurance against unemployment as devised by Mr. Lloyd-George will be applied only to the engineering shops, the building, and house-building trades. These trades alone, however, are represented by about two and a half million workmen.

LIGHT-KEEPERS' RAISE
Lonely Watchers of Our Coast Will be Wealthier

Taking effect from the beginning of the present year, an increase has just been granted by the Dominion Government by which salaries of the lighthouse keepers of Canada have been raised from 20 to 35 per cent. The men who keep lonely-vigil over the waters of this coast will receive their arrears since January 1. In every instance the increase has been a substantial one.

It is not very long since the lighthouse keepers were awarded a good increase. The government, however, has sized the proposition up rightly, in their belief that the men who take up positions on the stormy shores or barren islands should be well paid. The highest salary on this coast is $1,770, and this class includes Race Rocks, Cape Beale, Carmanan Point and Pine Island.

For the first time this spring swallows were seen in the city.

DAILY EDITION.

FRIDAY, MAY 5

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CAMMORRA

Every few days the newspaper readers are treated to an item of news about the trial of the Cammorrists in Italy. It is probable they will continue to be so regaled for a year more at least. The Cammorrists are on trial for a crime committed in 1906, and most of them have been in custody since that time. Some folk whose opinions are not to be sneered at think the trial will drag on until the Judge and jury and most of the prisoners die of old age. It is a matter to be deferred as long as possible, this trial of the Cammorrists, according to popular opinion in Italy. The phenomena of the Cammorra is a matter of interest to young communities where law and order enforcement may conflict with the interest of local authorities. For the Cammorra is the outcome of conditions, created largely by those who are hired to preserve law and order.

The Cammorra, unlike its kindred societies the Black Hand and the Mafia, is a vast secret society comprising all ranks of society in Italy. In some of its sections none but those of noble birth are admitted. These are the Raffles, the Arsene Lupins of Southern Italy, the Smart Set of crime. Their speciality is the extortion of blackmail from gambling dens and the like though they do not stop at deeds of violence. Their operations are winked at by the authorities. Last year, indeed, the Government selected Gennaro Cardinale, a Naples lawyer and an attache of the Cammorrists, to study Italian schools in America. The Cammorra is stronger than the Government, and holds the police and local authorities in fear. Even the visitor in Naples who loses his watch or pocket book soon learns that it is of no avail to look to the police to recover his valuables. Instead he goes to the local agent of the Cammorra who for a suitable fee returns the lost or stolen article.

Within its ranks the Cammorra has its own ethical code. The "barratollo"—the proceeds from the gaming houses—and the "sbruffo"—the proceeds of robbery and extortion—are apportioned every week or two among its members, after a portion has been deducted for social purposes and legal expenses.

That the civic police of Naples were in league with the Cammorrists is beyond doubt. Not until the carabinieri, the military police from the north, came on the scene was a genuine effort made to arrest any of the leaders. Since their arrest, it has taken nearly five years to bring them to trial, and how long the trial will last no one can safely prophesy.

That they are a band of desperate characters goes without saying. The fierce impotent hate which prompted one of the prisoners to take out his glass eye and hurl it at the Judge is not merely a humorous incident; it is an indication of the wild ferocity of the caged men.

Thriving upon the license accorded them, the Cammorrists of Italy have initiated an era of Anarchism. Anarchism as a philosophic doctrine among professors is a singularly easy and ideal condition to argue for. But as a condition of existence for masses of people under present economic systems it proves a failure. It is a truth that before we get a New Jerusalem, we need some new Jews. To administer the law "without fear or favor" is the only safeguard for communities yet awhile. It is for her laxity in this regard in times past, that Italy is now reaping a harvest of terrorism and crime.

Society must be remodelled from within, without letting down the barriers of government until a new generation arrives.

MUSINGS BY MACK

"It is a globular shaped ball set on a pedestal all made of brass and copper and plated with nickel." says a contemporary describing the new steriliser at the Hospital. The advantage of having a "globular shaped ball" is greater than you might at first appreciate. No three-cornered, rectangular, or octagonal shaped balls need apply.

Nearly every game that has grown popular on the surface of the "globular shaped ball" on which we live is played with a ball of some material. Up to the present they have all had a marked tendency towards the "globular." But as there evidently are some new styles and shapes knocking about, the public must be on its guard against the base substitution of triangular and other awkwardly shaped balls which the unscrupulous might attempt to palm off.

A particularly unsatisfactory type of ball is that designed in the form of an isosceles triangle. Do not be led into the purchase of an obtuse-angled equilateral parallelogram shaped ball. It will prove erratic. An oblong ball never makes good, and the cylindrical style while not so bad one way is awkward the other.

HINTS TO INVESTORS, NO. 1

You can tell what sections of the city are developing fastest by looking through the real estate ads. Wherever there is real estate activity—there must be real estate advertising. And the more real estate advertising, the more real estate "activity."

Letters to the Editor

Help! Help! Help!

Dear Sir: Who is the dead one that earned the "epitaphic sentiments"? What are the aforementioned adjectival sentiments? Who is Mike? What relation is an auto to a wheelbarrow? Why the geographical reference to Scotland and Italy? Also, what, oh what are "fraulines"? Many a time I have had to leap high in the cold wet atmosphere to grasp the drift of some of your contemporary's utterances and at last they have put one over that beats me. It worries me. Won't some one, for the love of Mike, and the honor of his name, come across with an explanation, now, while the explaining is good. MUTT.

Busiest When Quietest

No cases in the police court for the past few days. The fact may be taken as an indication that the police are not idle, but that they are watchful. A well behaved city is always a compliment to the force.

The Weather

Weather conditions along the coast as reported by wireless continue fairly favorable. Prince Rupert in glorious sunshine for the past few days, fairly puts the frequent "Cloudy" and "Overcast" note from the down below stations to shame.

If you "Keep Boarders" at all, why not keep enough boarders to make it PAY? A small campaign of classified advertising in The Daily News will keep you busy.

Yes; Some Good Printing Costs Too Much, Too! "If a Man Deceives You Once, Shame on Him. If he Deceives You Twice, Shame on You!"

Mr. Martin O'Reilly and His Bride Now in Rupert

These embroideries appear in all colors and are easily applied as a majority of them are finished with a scalloped edge. Another pleasing feature about them is that they are exceedingly reasonable in price.

New York, May 4.—James J. Jeffries is ready to announce through a "friend" that he was forced to enter the ring at Reno last July, hungry and ill nourished through the treachery of those he trusted in the training camp.

According to an old-time racing man who has known Jeffries intimately for years, but who declined to have his name used, Jeffries will go to Baden-Baden shortly for the sole purpose of priming himself for a second go with Johnson.

Paris, May 4.—A prize of $10,000 was announced today by the cities of Folkestone, England and Boulogne, France, for a passenger carrying flight across the channel in an aeroplane that arises from and alights on the water.

Steamers Aletha and Glenworth Ashore. Aletha Badly Wrecked with Burst Steam-pipes—Glenworth May Lose Wheat Cargo.

(Canadian Press Dispatch)
 Ogdensburg, N. Y., May 5.—Two vessels were wrecked in a wind storm which swept Lake Ontario today. The steamer Aletha met with serious disaster. She struck submerged rocks near Kingston, and shortly afterwards her steam pipes burst disabling the machinery and flooding the engine room with steam. The passengers and crew were forced to take to the lifeboats. After a battle with wind and wave they reached shore safely.

At the same time the steamer Glenworth bound for Montreal with a cargo of wheat ran fast aground, and it is doubtful if she can be got off. Her plates are badly stove, and there is serious risk of damage to her cargo.
