RUMANIANS CHASE HUNS ACROSS FRONTIER

KIMPOLUNG SAVED -- SIX HUNDRED PRISONERS TAKEN -- AVIATORS ARE BUSY

ALLIES REGAIN UPPER HAND IN TRANSYLVANIA

Jul Valley Drive Continues and Enemy Driven Across the Frontier—Small Gains in Macedonia.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, November 2.—The Rumanians and Russians seem to have at last gained the upper hand on the Transylvanian front and are continuing their drive against the Austrians and Germans in the Jul Valley.

South of the Torberg pass, where Von Falkenhayn has been striving to capture the important railroad centre of Kimpolung, the Rumanians have chased the Austro-Germans across the border, taking six hundred prisoners. The attack was carried out with the utmost brilliance and the Russians and Rumanians are now facing the enemy with much more confidence.

In the Predeal Pass sector, the news is not so favorable. The Teutons, who occupy the Rumanian villages of Rachevitza and Titehti, have penetrated the Rumanian positions and have captured ten cannon and seventeen machine guns.

The Russians have again assumed the offensive on the Galician front.

Macedonian Front.

London, Nov. 2.—The British, in the Struma region, have captured a village from the Bulgarians, while the Serbians have repelled an enemy attack in the Cerna district and have captured German and Bulgarian prisoners.

FRED HARDY LISTED AMONG THE WOUNDED

Mr. G. Hardy, who has two boys on active service, received a telegram from Ottawa yesterday stating that his son Fred had been admitted to the Military Hospital at Wurmereux, France, on October 23rd, suffering from a gunshot wound in the arm. Fred and his brothers were well known in athletic circles in the city, being active members of the Sons of England football team. It is to be hoped that he makes a speedy and complete recovery. Just the night before the wire arrived, his father received a letter from him saying that he was well, and expressing thanks for the receipt of copies of The Daily News which he and the other boys looked forward to eagerly.

GERMANS LOSE VERY HEAVILY ON WEST FRONT

Ground Covered With Dead After Futile Attack—British Make Air Raid on German Batteries.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Nov. 2.—There is heavy shelling being carried on by the Germans around Lesars, Gueudecourt and at the Schwaben redoubt, which was recently captured from the enemy.

The British bombarded the enemy trenches with good results and also repelled a German counter-attack.

A fleet of Allied aeroplanes made a raid on the German positions, bombarding their batteries. One hostile machine was brought down in a damaged condition and one British aeroplane has failed to return to headquarters.

French Success.

Paris, Nov. 2.—On the northern section of the Somme front, the French have made small gains, capturing two German trenches in the Les Boeufs region. At Sailly Saillisel the enemy attacked vigorously but failed to make any impression on the French defences. The Germans were obliged to retire, sustaining tremendous losses, according to the large number of dead covering the battlefield after the encounter.

SPLENDID PATRIOTISM OF THREE YOUNG GIRLS

In writing to Mrs. W. T. Kergin, in connection with the knitting of socks for the boys at the front, Mrs. Sandilands, of Queen Charlotte City, draws attention to the magnificent work done by three French-Canadian girls at Queen Charlotte during the past year. Juliette Girard, aged 16, knitted 27 pairs of socks in five months; Bertha Girard, aged 14, knitted 11 pairs in three months, and Theolene Girard, aged 11, knitted 16 pairs in four months. The girls were not at school last year, therefore they devoted all the time they could to knitting for the boys at the front. Such devotion to a patriotic duty by these young girls is worthy of the highest praise and their example might be followed by many others with great advantage to themselves and to our soldier boys.

LOCAL FISHERMAN KILLED IN ACTION

Harry Haines, who left here with the 102nd, writes a most interesting letter from the trenches. He says the boys are veterans now and, at the time of writing, had just returned to billets after 26 days in the trenches. The boys were in England only six weeks before being sent to the front and three days after they reached the front they found themselves within forty yards of the German trenches. He declares that in artillery and in the air, we have the Germans badly beaten. He says the British and French aviators are very daring and aeroplanes are flying over the German trenches all the time. The Germans are content to fire shrapnel at them and the aviators carry out a few "stunts" just to show them that they don't mind it in the least.

Harry states that Stewart Shepard, one of the fishermen who enlisted from here, has been killed but that all the other "halibut" men are all right. He says that the boys greatly appreciate the receipt of copies of The Daily News and that they sit calmly reading the news from Prince Rupert while the shells fly overhead.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Buffalo, Nov. 2.—President Wilson, in addressing a huge gathering here last night, declared that the United States is not afraid or disinclined to fight for the objects for which it was founded.

MISS HUMBLE MET SERGT. ROBERT CAMERON

Miss Humble, formerly of the nursing staff in Prince Rupert Hospital and now in charge of a division of the Canadian Hospital at Ramsgate Hospital, England, has written to Mrs. W. G. Humble of this city, telling of her transfer from a French to a Canadian hospital. One of the first patients Miss Humble met at Ramsgate was Sergeant "Bob" Cameron, who left here with the first contingent. "Bob" has been in hospital for several months suffering from a badly shattered arm. Miss Humble has taken charge of the dressing of Mr. Cameron's arm, so he is in good hands.

BOWSER GETS FIFTH PLACE IN VANCOUVER

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, November 2.—The British Columbia election returns are now complete, showing 37 Liberals elected and 10 Conservatives. The soldiers' votes taken in Britain and France give W. J. Bowser fifth place in the list of Vancouver members.

Prohibition carried by a majority of 5,833 and will become effective on July 1st, 1917, while Woman Suffrage goes into effect on January 1st.

LARGE SAWMILL MAY BE OPERATED HERE

J. S. Emerson, who arrived from the south yesterday, accompanied by E. F. Duby, of the Brunette Sawmills on the Fraser River, has made up his mind that Prince Rupert is to be the centre of the fishing industry and that a sawmill at this point would be a good business proposition and an asset to the community, the railroad company included. After lunch yesterday, he visited Seal Cove, along with George A. Mc-Nicholl and E. F. Duby, to look over a site which had been recommended to him. Today, he will again go over the ground and have a look around the harbor generally.

Mr. Emerson's intention is to put in a mill which will cut about 75,000 feet per day. Besides devoting his attention to the needs of the local fishing and building trades, he will produce lumber for the world's markets. The mill, with the hands employed in getting out the timber, will employ about three hundred men in this vicinity and such a payroll would be a big asset to Prince Rupert. W. P. Hinton will come to the coast from Winnipeg to confer with Mr. Emerson in regard to a site.

J. C. HALSEY HAS BEEN GIVEN HIS MAJORITY

Mrs. Youngman has received a letter from her husband, who has returned to the trenches after a short spell in hospital. Charley says that J. C. Halsey has been given his majority on the field and that the late Adair Carss was promoted captain at the same time. Charley is not feeling exactly fit yet and fears that he may have to return to the base hospital for a slight operation. He also mentions having met Jack Dowling recently.

SIR WILFRID AMPLIFIES REASONS FOR DECLINING

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in a telegram to The Sun, answering a telegram sent him by request of the executive committee of the Vancouver Centre Liberal Association, makes his position quite clear with regard to the National Service Commission, which the Borden-Rogers political machine is endeavoring to use for campaign purposes.

The executive committee condemned in strong terms the miserable innuendo with which the Tory press has been attempting to injure Sir Wilfrid by attacking him personally for refusing to have anything to do with the scheme of the Borden-Rogers machine to hide their plans under the cloak of patriotism, and by use of the National Service Commission.

The committee asked The Sun to obtain a statement from Sir Wilfrid, and, accordingly, the following telegram was sent him:—

Vancouver, October 27.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Ottawa:

The Sun has been requested by the Vancouver Centre Liberal Association to ask you to amplify if you think advisable your reasons for refusing to act on the National Service commission beyond what appears in your correspondence with Mr. Borden. Personally, I assume that you became weary of seeing Canada's greatest, most patriotic and noblest task withheld from her people and committed to a party machine for sordid party ends. We will be glad to communicate and publish if you desire, the fullest statement you care to make.

F. C. WADE.

Sir Wilfrid's Reply.

Sir Wilfrid replied as follows:

Ottawa, October 28.

F. C. Wade, The Sun:

You have it just right. If the best man that could be found to head and direct national service found himself so much hampered and interfered with that he found his usefulness gone, my acceptance after his resignation would have amounted to countenancing a situation which has become intolerable.

WILFRID LAURIER.

The Toronto World, Independent-Conservative, comments on the situation as follows:

"Sir Thomas Tait, as director-general of national service, transmitted to the government a recommendation that a parliamentary committee be chosen from all political parties be appointed to stimulate recruiting and national service by an appeal to the men of Canada to enlist, and to the manufacturers to so reorganize their plants as to release men for service at the front. The recommendation was in due course transmitted by the leader of the government to the leader of the opposition. The request was made that the opposition leader name five of twelve members to serve upon the proposed parliamentary committee.

"Sir Wilfrid's reply points out that upon receipt of the premier's

ITALIANS GET TWO AUSTRIAN AEROPLANES

Numerous Air Encounters Over Italian Fronts—Stations Bombed—Big Guns At Douaumont.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Rome, Nov. 2.—On the Carso Plateau and the Gorizia front there is intense artillery activity.

An Italian aeroplane squadron yesterday was engaged in numerous encounters with the enemy and brought down two Austrian machines.

Fourteen Caproni machines, escorted by one of the new very fast Nieuport aeroplane chasers, effectively bombarded the railroad stations at Nabresina, Dottiglitigno and Scoppo. All the Italian aeroplanes returned to camp despite a violent enemy battery fire.

Verdun Front.

Paris, Nov. 2.—The fighting on the Verdun front is confined to heavy artillery engagements which are especially violent in the neighborhood of Fort Douaumont.

letter he would naturally have gone at once to Sir Thomas Tait, but Sir Thomas Tait had already resigned. His resignation, Sir Wilfrid points out, was not based so much upon the interference of the government with the selection of a secretary as it was upon the supposition that interference was indicative of what may be anticipated in connection with the future organization and work of national service.

"Sir Wilfrid, in short, says to the prime minister, that the national registration plan looks to him like a political affair, and that if a man like Sir Thomas Tait cannot stay in it because it smells so strongly of party politics, then Sir Wilfrid would rather not be tied up with it, but continue 'untrammelled' in his efforts to stimulate recruiting.

"Those who are inclined to be critical enquire why the opposition was asked to co-operate in this one matter and not asked to co-operate generally with the government in the conduct of the war, and they may wonder why it is necessary to put more Conservatives than Liberals on a non-partisan committee."

THE SILENT WOMAN

Far away, on a little island in the mid-Pacific, a band of heroic women are at work doing more than their share to support the British flag and the institutions of their "soldier boys" and forbears. Wherever they go, on land or sea, they are everlastingly knitting, knitting, to provide footwear for the "Canucks at the front." With their little satchels full of wool, and the two knitting needles, they sit and converse, wherever they may be, until each night finds a new pair of socks for shipment to the Red Cross society in the neighborhood. Once each week they all meet at the house of a member of the society, where the hostess provides "afternoon tea" for the male visitors, and a collection is taken up. Dances, concerts, raffles and every other means of raising funds are resorted to. During the two years of the war this small band of devoted women sent hundreds of pairs of woollen socks to the soldiers in France. They have raised $1,000 in hard cash and each contributed to the social events from their own purses. All money subscribed goes to the Red Cross society—the expenses are paid by those who, in turn, give the entertainments. These "Silent Women" have no newspaper to bring before the public the many acts of patriotism and charity performed. Communication with the outer world is by a fortnightly mail steamer. In other settlements, the women are doing little for the relief of the "Boys in Khaki." They do not appear to understand that a good pair of woollen socks is appreciated, and may save a man, next winter, from frostbite, which means a "man short in the trenches." If ever women deserve the thanks of those high in authority, it is the women of Queen Charlotte City. Every one of them has been working for over a year—knitting, and knitting. Box after box of socks is going out and there are no contractors to receive commissions from the output of the most necessary clothing. Queen Charlotte City is at the south end of Graham Island, in this province. Visiting the place, at stated times, the ladies were always seen with their work, and it was remarkable to view the number of articles of apparel they make from the strings of wool they use. A number of the men contribute a stated sum monthly to the Red Cross fund, which they have been doing for the past two years. It is safe to assert that Graham Island also sent the largest quota of soldiers to the front, of any part of Canada, considering the population at the commencement of the war. Deserted pre-emptions may be seen on all sides. From one a mother and her son went to Europe at the beginning of the war—the one for the ranks, the other as a nurse. A pretty little cottage stands on a neck of cleared land. Out from the cottage went a young pre-emptor, leaving his wife and child, "to keep the home fires burning." He died in Ypres; the widow and child are now with relatives, in some other place. Two brothers closed the door of their shack, on a pre-emption in the woods; both enlisted and one is recovering from seven wounds. A former captain in the British army heard the call at his home on Massett Inlet. Away he went and is now sleeping beneath a wooden cross in France. One of the best woodsmen in the country locked his door, when a launch reached his landing. A military officer was on the launch, looking for recruits. The woodsman asked no questions further than to obtain a passage outside. "Where are you going?" asked the officer. "Where do you suppose?" was the reply. "I'm just going to have a crack at those Germans," and he is in the officer's company now. All of the small towns are depleted. The pre-emptions are deserted. It has been all outgo of men and money; but the "Good and Silent Women still ply their knitting needles," and all are working for the common cause—the safety of an Empire, which means the Peace of the World.—Vancouver Sun.

M. McCorkindale on "The Justification for Trades Unions." Miss Irwin was the soloist for the evening.

Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Three Mighty Forces Close Linked

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker? On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm? Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast. This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising: Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumden Building, Toronto.

DOUBLE FEATURE AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight there is a big double feature show at the Westholme when, for tonight only, Mary Fuller is presented in "The Huntress of Men," a great five-act society comedy-drama, in which Miss Fuller plays the part of the butterfly. The old butler of "The Million Dollar Mystery" plays a prominent part in this feature. It is splendidly staged and the acting leaves nothing to be desired.

Tonight and tomorrow, the second episode of "Peg O' The Ring" is screened. With such stars as Grace Cunard, Francis Ford and Eddie Polo in the leading parts, this serial is proving a big attraction. The circus scenes are of the most realistic description.

RED CROSS SALE

Friday's sale of home cooking in aid of the funds of the Red Cross Society will be conducted by Mrs. McClymont and Mrs. A. M. Manson. Our boys have been through heavy fighting recently and the casualty lists are ever growing, so that the demand for hospital supplies is still increasing. Ladies are invited to bring what they can in the way of cakes etc., as a large supply can always be disposed of.

"IT'S AN ILL WIND"

One afternoon during the great push (the Liverpool Post relates) a young Liverpool journalist, now an artillery signaller, was sheltering with a comrade from intense fire in a small trench they had made not far from their dug-out. His companion expressed a longing for a cup of tea. A stove and water were at hand, but neither had an emergency ration of tea and sugar. Not ten seconds after the wish was uttered a strong Hun shell dropped amid a heap of infantry rations some 150 yards away, and a badly bent tin of tea and sugar landed at their feet. The contents were intact, and they had their tea.—Ex.

CITY OF PRINCE RUPERT

ATTENTION VOTERS
Persons who hold lots under agreements, or assignment of agreement, must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors.

Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.
