THE TRANSYLVANIAN CRISIS BELIEVED OVER

RUSSIANS SAVE THE SITUATION -- THE ALLIES ARE FOUR MILES FROM MONASTIR

EXPERTS STATE CRISIS OVER IN TRANSYLVANIA

Russian Reinforcements Saved the Situation -- Heights Captured and Prisoners Taken.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, Nov. 17.—In the region of Kimpolung, in Transylvania, the Rumanians have fiercely engaged the Austro-Germans and have been successful in retaining their positions.

In the region of Dorna Watra, key position of the whole Transylvanian campaign from an Allied standpoint, the Russians have stopped a hostile offensive movement and have been successful in capturing a strongly fortified height and a hundred and eighty prisoners.

Crisis Over.

There is intermittent activity prevailing along the Stokhod River, and on the Brezany and Halez fronts, but the Russians have directed their attention chiefly to the Rumanian theatre of war, where experts believe that the crisis is now past. The arrival of fresh Russian reinforcements in this region is thought to have removed all danger of any further advance being made by Von Falkenhayn's army.

CASUALTY MESSAGES ARE TRANSMITTED FREE

The Grand Trunk Pacific Telegraph Company, through Mr. G. B. Brien, city manager, makes the following announcement which will prove of considerable interest to relatives of soldiers serving at the front:

Every soldier's next of kin, whose address has been changed since the last directory was published, and every such person whose name does not appear in the directory or telephone book, should register at the Grand Pacific Telegraph Company's office their name, new and old address, soldier's name and regimental number.

No charge of any description is made on the addressee for transmission or delivery of official telegrams regarding casualties, and no payment should be made to any person in connection with them.

The Grand Trunk Pacific Telegraph Company will transmit free of charge three messages to the record office in Ottawa requesting information of any soldier who has been reported wounded or missing. Official notice from Ottawa must be presented at the Telegraph Company's office when making request for this service.

Any "next of kin" to a soldier, who finds the name of the soldier in the casualty list, and who has not been officially notified, may send a collect message to the office in charge of records at Ottawa, requesting information.

W. H. Pierce, the missionary at Essington, is a visitor in the city.

CONTINENTAL TRUST CASE RESUMED TODAY

The case of McGregor v. Naden occupied the whole of yesterday in the Supreme Court and is likely to last until Saturday, there being five more witnesses to examine for the defence.

Mr. McGregor stated that he received from Mr. Hobin and Mr. Peterson a statement of the affairs of the company as at January 31st, 1914. He went over it item by item and asked questions regarding several points. The statement showed a loss in operating for the year of $92, which was in keeping with the statement made by Mr. McCaffery in Vancouver at the time the option was taken. He believed that, when the deficit was cleared off, the company ought to make a little money. After figuring out the quality of the assets, he entered into an agreement with G. R. Naden, M. P. McCaffery and T. D. Pattullo to purchase 110 shares for $2,000, paying $1,000 in cash and the balance in sixty days, with the understanding that he was to remit sums at stated intervals for the carrying on of the business. His partner Wilson had meantime got into difficulties and McGregor assumed full responsibility under the agreement. He later paid in $2,350 and his total investment amounted to $4,700. The latter portion of his investment was sent up at intervals to take up stock. He also entered into an agreement with the defendants in regard to his arranging with a guarantee company for the $25,000 bond made necessary by the new trust company legislation.

He carried out his part of the agreement by sending along money at intervals, but the company seemed to be getting further behind. He asked for an explanation and showed a statement of the company's affairs to Mr. Leyens, a financier whom he was trying to interest in the company. There was one item which he did not understand, and he suggested that Mr. Leyens come to Prince

"NO FIRM HAND AT THE HELM," SAYS LAURIER

Winning the War More Important Than Party Triumph—Folly to Expect Efficiency Under the Circumstances.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, Nov. 17.—At a dinner in the Chateau Laurier last evening, under the auspices of the Liberal Associations of Ontario, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the Liberal leader, declared that the winning of the war is much more important than the triumph of any political party.

He asserted that the correspondence which had passed between Sir Robert Borden and Sir Sam Hughes had revealed the fact that there is no firm hand at the helm in Canada. "It is folly for Canadians to expect efficiency under such circumstances," declared Sir Wilfrid.

Reverting for a moment to the retirement of Sir Thomas Tait from the National Service Board, the Liberal leader said that Sir Thomas had been compelled to resign his National Service appointment because of the continued jarring and discord which obtained at Ottawa.

Rupert with him and go into the matter. Arrived at Prince Rupert, Mr. Leyens went into the affairs of the company but decided that he would have nothing to do with it. There were several aspects of the statement provided that he did not like.

Cross-examined by Mr. Patmore, on behalf of Mr. Pattullo, witness admitted that he had been told that the operating loss for the first year was $12,000 and that he had gone into the statement provided by Mr. Hobin and Mr. Peterson and found that the loss in the second year had been reduced to $92. A letter which plaintiff had written to Mr. Hobin in December, 1914, was produced, in which McGregor told Hobin that he believed the company's charter was worth $15,000. "Was it not simply the charter you wanted?" asked Mr. Patmore. Witness replied that he bought stock in the company and that included the charter.

Asked if he had told Mr. Peterson that he intended to float stock to the amount of $400,000, witness said that he did not remember having said so. Witness denied that, when in Prince Rupert with Mr. Leyens, he tried to get Messrs. Naden, Pattullo and McCaffery to purchase $1,000 of stock each. He also denied having said to Mr. Hobin, on going on board the boat for the south, that he would make them come through yet and that there were more ways than one by which he could do it.

Cross-examined by Mr. Williams, witness was again taken over the whole ground, from the conversation he had with Mr. McCaffery up to the time when he

BELGIAN KING HAS APPEALED TO WASHINGTON

State Department Asked to Intervene Regarding Deportation of Belgians—Thousands in Slavery.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, Nov. 17.—The King of Belgium, through M. Havenith, the Belgian minister to Washington, has presented an appeal to the State Department of the United States government, asking for its intervention on behalf of the Belgian civilians who have been deported to Germany by force in order that they may be compelled to labor for the Germans.

The appeal states that many thousands of Belgians have been compelled to enter Germany and have been practically forced to fight against their native country. The King asks that the government of the United States intervene in order to prevent any more Belgians being sent to Germany and also that a request be made that the thousands already deported be given their liberty.

AMAZING SPECTACLE ON THE SOMME FRONT

British Headquarters, Nov. 15. During the fight of Saturday the front wave swept over Regina Trench in pursuit of Germans already on the run.

A lieutenant, who had been crouching in a "cubby" home, began firing his automatic pistol after our men. Unluckily for him he had forgotten all about the second wave, and before he could stir or cry out, one of our men was on him with the bayonet.

Quite a number of Germans scrambled out of their trench and came running to meet our men, with arms up and fingers spread to show they were not clasp-bombing. The attack was not to be held up, therefore, the order was passed to let them through.

So the amazing spectacle was witnessed of British soldiers charging in one direction, bayonets poised, and German warriors bolting in the other, hands in air. It is stated that German officers who attempted to arrest this flight were shot by their own men. There have been several authenticated instances of late.

A significant fact is that several machine gun teams voluntarily surrendered. The machine-gunners constitute a corps d'elite, and every member takes an oath never to yield.

As a rule this is kept, and that it should have been thus deliberately broken is suggestive.

HALIBUT ARRIVALS

SIR WILLIAM ROBERTSON

Chief of the British army staff addressing village crowds, Gen. Sir William Robertson delivered an important speech in unveiling a village cross at Dalderby, Lincolnshire, for securing the greatest percentage of enlistments among its eligible manhood. Dalderby, which has scarcely three hundred inhabitants, sent 72 per cent. of its men to the front which is the largest in Lincolnshire. Sir William Robertson is himself a native of a small village in this county, though his parents were Scotch.

CAPTAIN CARSS KILLED WHILE AIDING WOUNDED

Magistrate Carss last evening received a letter from Colonel Warden extending his sympathy in the death of Captain Adair Carss. The colonel states that Captain Carss was amongst the first into a captured trench and was assisting a dying German when the latter threw a bomb which he had concealed about him, killing Mr. Carss who was seeking to make his enemy's departure from this world a little easier.

Colonel Warden states that Captain Carss was like a brother to him; was loved by his men and would very shortly have been given his majority.

Bulgarians Abandon Important Positions—More Prisoners Taken Along Ancre River.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Nov. 17.—French and Russian troops on the Macedonian front are now within four miles of Monastir and the Bulgarians and Germans have been compelled to abandon their principal positions along the Cerna River, where the Serbians have done magnificent work.

Western Front.

North of the Ancre River, British artillery fire caused several explosions within the German lines. Three hundred more prisoners have been captured and the offensive at this point still continues. South of the Ancre, there has been considerable hostile shelling of the British lines, while the British successfully bombarded the enemy positions. British aeroplanes carried out several fruitful bombing raids, driving down one German machine.

French Front.

Paris, Nov. 17.—Enemy detachments gained a footing in a group of houses near Saillisel but were driven out by means of a French counter-attack. The artillery struggle is being continued with great violence in the neighborhood of Ablaincourt.

A French pilot brought down an enemy aeroplane near Chaumes.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Hosson and family of Fort Fraser, who arrived in town last evening, have gone to Vancouver.

QUEBEC'S ATTITUDE

The Quebec government's contribution of a million dollars to the Patriotic Fund should go far toward correcting the somewhat prevalent notion that Mr. Bourassa speaks for the people of that province. He never has voiced the view of more than a comparatively small fraction of them. His followers who occupy seats in the House of Commons represent the maximum strength he has ever attained, and they occupy decidedly less than half the Quebec seats. As each of them was elected by a fraction more than half the votes in his constituency, at the utmost they could not be presumed to reflect the views of more than one-quarter of the people of the province. And it must be remembered that this parliamentary contingent was created by the combined votes of the Nationalists and of so many Conservatives as could be got to vote for Nationalist candidates under persuasion of their party organization. Eliminating the latter, the voters who can be counted as out-and-out Bourassaites must be a pretty small fraction of the entire electorate. Yet, thanks to the noise he has made, and to the distinction conferred upon him by the inclusion of his lieutenants in the Dominion government, Mr. Bourassa has been somewhat generally accepted as speaking the mind of Quebec on imperial questions and in reference to the war. Sir Lomer Gouin is taking a very effective way of correcting that impression, by contributing provincial money to the Patriotic Fund, and challenging Mr. Bourassa to do what he likes about it. If the federal ministers would only play up to Sir Lomer Gouin's lead—by going into Quebec and carrying on a recruiting campaign designed to bring the knowledge of the facts home to the public—the chances are that enlistment from that province would soon astonish the rest of the country—as this contribution has done. Quebec people have been to some extent misled, but more misrepresented, and still more misunderstood. Being different in race and language, they did not respond so readily as the people of other provinces to the call to arms, and could not in reason be expected to do so. What was needed to enlist their enthusiasm was that kultur should be put plainly and forcefully before them as threatening themselves, their homes, and their liberty—not merely the prestige and might of a "British" empire. That has not been done, and the result has been what was to be foreseen. It is not too late to mend matters yet.—Edmonton Bulletin.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

What will become of all the little Hugheses now that their "big chief" is no longer Commander-in-Chief of the Dominion of Canada? Colonel James will now be afraid that Lloyd George will make some horrible blunders now that Sir Sam is not on the job to advise him.

Dr. Bland, of Winnipeg, will probably be considered as rather revolutionary by many of his brethren, still he ought to know the church pretty well and the first step towards improvement is the realization that things are not as they should be. He probably overstates the case when he says the church is dead, but it has certainly shown signs of somnolence for some time. The talk of union seems to have woke up quite a few of the Presbyterians however.

There have been fighting parsons in every battle in British history, but the chaplain who, with a few men, grabbed four hundred Germans must be the record-holder. He will probably get the V. C., and he won't be the first reverend gentleman to attain to this great honor.

Whatever the cause of the coal strike in Australia, it is a crime that a hundred thousand men should be idle at the present time, and still more criminal that so many steamers should be tied up in harbor when they are needed so badly elsewhere.

wanted to get out of his agreement. He admitted that the statement provided by Hobin and Peterson showed the company to be quite solvent. He did not remember asking Hobin how much money he thought would be necessary per month to carry the business along. "Are you clear that you did not ask such a question?" asked Mr. Williams. "No, I am not," was the reply. He remembered Mr. Hobin saying what the expenses per month amounted to. "Was it not considered the case that the $3,000 was the amount necessary for the protection of the company at the time?" That was his conclusion. He admitted that the statement provided by Hobin and Peterson was clear and that he was satisfied with the answers given to his questions. "You purchased $11,000 worth of stock in the company for $2,000?" "Yes," replied the witness. "From the price paid for the stock, did it not strike you that the company was not very strong?" He replied that he was quite satisfied. "Did you not consider that the stock had no real value, so far as dividends were concerned?" He considered that the stock was worth $2,000. "Did you place a separate value on the stock and the charter?" Witness replied that the two went together.

"Did you prepare a stock-selling pamphlet?" asked Mr. Williams. He replied that he might have done so at a later date. "Did you or did you not?" asked counsel. "I might have done so," was the answer. Mr. Williams produced a stock-selling pamphlet, which Mr. Steers objected to as evidence, as he had not seen it before. His Lordship reminded Mr. Steers that he could examine it now. Witness then contended that his name was used on the pamphlet by his partner Wilson, and afterwards admitted that he permitted his name to be used. "The defendants made no other representations to you, further than those contained in the statements provided?" asked counsel. "No," was the reply.

called. He testified to McGregor's coming to him in regard to the Continental Trust Company, with a view to getting him to take an interest in it. He said that he met Mr. McCaffery in Vancouver and asked Mr. McCaffery as to the affairs of the concern. Mr. McCaffery said that if Mr. Leyens was interested he had better make a trip to Prince Rupert, where Mr. Hobin and Mr. Peterson would be able to provide him with full particulars as to the standing of the company. Along with Mr. McGregor, witness came to Prince Rupert and went into the affairs of the company and decided that he would not have anything to do with it. Witness admitted that the statement of assets and liabilities seemed all right. He discussed the placing of the company on a solid basis and in a conversation with Messrs Naden, Pattullo and McCaffery suggested that these three gentlemen put up notes for $1,000 each. Mr. Naden and Mr. McCaffery were willing to do this but Mr. Pattullo objected.

Cross-examined by Mr. Pattullo, witness denied that he and Mr. McGregor each offered at that time to put up $1,000, if the other gentlemen would do so. "You did not offer to buy $1,000 stock in the company?" Answer, "No." "You swear that you did not make such an offer?" asked Mr. Pattullo. "Yes," replied witness.

Cross-examined by Mr. Williams, witness said that Mr. McCaffery did not make any representations to him in Vancouver. "Did Mr. McCaffery make any representations to you in Prince Rupert?" asked counsel. "Not that I remember of," was the reply. He admitted that McGregor turned him over to Mr. Peterson when he wanted information, saying that Mr. Peterson understood the business better than he (McGregor) did.

E. D. Johnson was the first witness called for the defence. Mr. Johnson testified to having gone through the books of the company and that he found the financial statements compiled by Mr. Hobin and Mr. Peterson to be correct according to the books. He had carefully looked for any discrepancies but found that the figures in all the items followed in their natural sequence throughout the books of the company. From the books he considered that the company was solvent. He had gone into the balance sheets for the years 1913 and 1914 and found that the statement given to Mr. McGregor was correct. He was cross-examined by Mr. Steers.

C. B. Peterson was examined this morning as to the financial statement prepared from the books of the company and handed to Mr. McGregor.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the

Three Mighty Forces Close Linked

Have you ever noted how an audience yawns in the face of an uninspired speaker?

On the other hand, have you noted how an audience will lean forward and grasp the chair arms when the speaker reveals enthusiasm?

Enthusiasm is the buoyant expression of truth. To impart belief in anything, a man must believe it deeply himself. We call such a man an enthusiast.

This applies to the written word also—particularly to advertisements. When the manufacturer really believes in his wares, his enthusiasm will almost inevitably find expression in Advertising. And enthusiasm will be contagious—his audience—the readers of the newspaper—will, figuratively speaking, "lean forward and listen intently."

To be convincing an advertisement must convey an unmistakable impression of enthusiasm. This it will only do when the article advertised has inherent worth.

Thus we have:

Sincerity -- Enthusiasm -- Advertising:
Three mighty forces, close-linked.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper. If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Laidman Building, Toronto.

ATTENTION VOTERS

Persons who hold lots under agreement, or assignment of agreement must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors. Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.

FRED PETERS, City Clerk.

JOHN BARRYMORE AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

John Barrymore, in "The Red Widow," a Famous Players' production, is the feature at the Westholme Theatre tonight only. As Butts, a corset salesman who finds himself mixed up with a gang of Russian Nihilists, Barrymore is funny in the extreme. He is introduced as the greatest living king killer and he dies about three imaginary deaths in as many minutes when he is elected to kill the Czar. Perhaps the funniest part of an exceedingly amusing comedy is when Butts, who has eluded secret police, nihilists and other snares with apparent ease, falls into the hands of his indignant wife. The story shows Barrymore at his best and is something not to be missed. The 11th episode of "The Girl and the Game," featuring the daring Helen Holmes, completes a fine show.

HANDY MEN WANTED

The 6th Field Company, Canadian Engineers, whose headquarters are at North Vancouver, are offering splendid opportunities to the handy man. Any man of ordinary intelligence, able to use tools; drive a horse or motor wagon, or use tools of any kind, can find an opening with the Engineers. The Engineers offer a scope where the natural abilities of a man will have the best chance for development. Promotion is rapid to anyone possessing constructive instinct. Carpenters, miners, wheelwrights, fitters, plumbers, electricians, etc., as well as handy men without experience, are wanted. The recruiting offices for the Canadian Engineers are at the corner of Hastings and Homer Streets, Vancouver, and at 606 View Street, Victoria. Free transportation arranged from any part of British Columbia.

LUMBERMEN WANTED

The British army requires lumber just as much as it requires munitions and there are many men in Canada who can do their share for the Empire by enlisting in the Forestry Battalions. Sgt. Stokes is at the Red Cross rooms recruiting for a new Forestry Battalion and blacksmiths, teamsters, chaffeurs, sawyers, fliers, edgemen, fellers, laborers and anyone having a knowledge of lumbering will be welcomed to the ranks.

SAW TWO BURNING ZEPPELINS DOWNED

Mrs. Jack Knight has received a most interesting letter from her brother, W. C. White, who is with the 149th Canadian Battalion at Bramshott. He was greatly struck with the old city of London and had the unique experience of seeing two flaming Zeppelins brought down over there. He says the women of Britain are doing magnificent work, many thousands of them being engaged in work formerly done by the men. The boys of the 149th have gone through lots of hard training and are now in splendid shape. They hold the record for barbed wire work, having beaten the previous record by six minutes.

Mr. White was one of seventeen hundred Canadians who enlisted in Chicago for service in the Spanish-American war so this is not his first experience of active service.
