Stubborn Resistance North of Monastir—Artillery Busy in West—British Air Successes.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 24.—Except on the Macedonian front, there is little fighting of any account taking place.

North of Monastir, the Germans and Bulgarians have been strongly reinforced and are offering a stubborn resistance to the Allied armies. In this region, the French have captured additional territory.

Western Front.

Fighting on the western front is confined to heavy artillery engagements and battles in the air. The German artillery is very active at Beaucourt, Seres and Ypres while the British are bombarding the enemy lines in the vicinity of Messines, Armentieres and Loos.

In the air fighting the British have again been successful, three machines having fallen within the British lines and a fourth German aeroplane was brought down on the German side.

Britannic Mined.

New York, Nov. 24.—Officials of the White Star Line state that the British Admiralty reports that the Britannic, which was sunk in the Aegean Sea yesterday, was not torpedoed but struck a mine.

A large attendance of citizens is requested.

MEIGHEN SPEAKS ON NICKEL SITUATION

(Special to The Daily News.)
Toronto, Nov. 24.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, addressing a meeting of a Conservative Association here last night, declared that the responsibility for Canadian nickel reaching Germany rests with the British government. He added that it would have been suicidal for Canada to have placed an embargo on the metal, as that would prevent the Allies from receiving nickel to meet their requirements in the war, on account of the lack of refining facilities in the Dominion.

SANTA ROSA MOURNS FOR DEAD NOVELIST

PLEASING PROGRAM AT PATRIOTIC CONCERT

Owing to the inclement weather conditions last night, there was not a large attendance at the concert given by the Daughters of the Empire in the Empress Theatre. The chief performer was Miss Scruby, a 'cellist of great ability. In tone and execution Miss Scruby showed a thorough command of her instrument and was encored on each occasion. Mrs. E. H. Patterson's recitations brought forth their usual demand for repeats and were much enjoyed. "The Cozy Corner" group from the Presbyterian Club made a pretty picture. Frank Moore sang well in the solo part and the chorus group, composed of Mrs. Darton, Mrs. J. H. McMillan, Miss Irwin, Miss Marguerite Kilpatrick, Miss Kathleen Grant, Miss Garton, with Messrs. J. Currie, D. McCorkindale, S. Darton, L. C. Holtby, and George Hudson, did well. J. E. Davey sang splendidly in both his numbers and Lieut. Drake was heard to splendid advantage in "Glorious Devon," while his humorous numbers were also appreciated. The accompaniments were played sympathetically by Miss L. M. Ellett.

Rev. Dr. H. R. Grant, who presided, opened the proceedings in a short and appropriate speech in which he traced the history of the Daughters of the Empire and dwelt upon the splendid work accomplished by the organization since the outbreak of the war. "God Save the King" brought the concert to a close.

NEWSPAPER CASE VERY COMPLICATED

Before the Supreme Court adjourned last evening, Mr. Justice Morrison intimated to counsel in the Coyle v. McNeil case that he would require an accounting by Mr. Coyle and Mr. McNeil on the different parts of the plant in question.

His Lordship said that he was satisfied that the portions of the plant in the woodshed and at the ranch were not included in the sheriff's sale. There was a direct conflict between the litigants as to what took place at the sale. He was satisfied that the defendant dealt with the plant under the belief that it was all his and that, at the time, plaintiff concurred in his actions. His Lordship believed that both plaintiff and the defendant acted under a bona fide mistake. The connection between McDougall and Coyle did not clearly appear nor was he clear as to whether the defendant was a party to what took place between Bourgon and Dr. Wallace. He accepted the statement of the defendant as to the purchase of the goods from the sheriff and that defendant firmly believed that he was owner of the property. Neither was entirely to blame for what happened, nor wholly blameless, which made the case rather difficult. The defendant was justified in taking the plant which he had purchased and there was no damages coming to Coyle from the taking of McNeil's own property. He also took part of the plant which was not included in the purchase. McNeil must account to Coyle for the sums of the sales he had made of plant which he had not bought. His Lordship asked to hear evidence as to what damage may be considered due to the plaintiff in regard to the plant taken by McNeil which was not really his.

BRITISH CHIEF APPEALS FOR MORE SUPPORT

People Not Yet Awake to Gravity of Situation—Bishops Call For Economy—French Food Plans.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Nov. 24.—Sir William Robertson, Chief of Staff of the British army, declares that he has every confidence in his fellow-countrymen, who are not yet fully awake to the gravity of the war situation. He has appealed to the people for greater support and is satisfied that the appeal will be satisfactorily answered.

No Xmas Dainties.

The leading Bishops of the Anglican Church request the banishment of all extravagancies during the remainder of the war, particularly in the matter of expensive foods used in the celebration of Christmas festivities.

French Economy.

Paris, Nov. 24.—At a meeting of the cabinet this morning presided over by President Poincaré, it was decided to establish a Ministry of Provisions, to have entire supervision of the provisioning of the civilian population as well as the army.

LETHBRIDGE MAY HAVE MINERS' STRIKE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Lethbridge, Nov. 24.—The situation between the miners and the mining companies here presents difficulties and there is no sign of a settlement being arrived at. If the differences are still unsettled on Saturday a strike will probably be declared.

NEW HALIBUT RECORD

The Atlin Fisheries yesterday paid 13½ cents per pound for the halibut brought in by the Doreen, while the Rorvig Fish Co. paid the same price for the fare of the Sealight. Booth Fisheries paid 11½ cents for the American catch.

Shortly after noon today, the Atlin Fisheries paid 14½ cents for the fare of the Joe Baker, topping all previous records for Halibut at Prince Rupert. The reason for the high price is that there was a demand for fish for the Canadian market and the supply of fish in Canadian bottoms was very small.

CANADA'S PART

The municipality of Charlesbourg, Quebec, has passed a resolution opposing conscription and saying that Canada has now done its part in the war. This being a free country, this council of this little municipality is perfectly at liberty to express its opinions on any subject; in fact, only by such free expression of opinion can the thoughts of any community be made known to the other parts of the Dominion.

By stating that Canada has now done its part in the war, this little municipality is telling the world that Charlesbourg, or rather Charlesburg, town council, does not intend to do any more. The statement shows clearly that the aldermen of this little burg do not yet realize what Canada has done, nor do they realize what Canada and the Empire has yet to do. Canada's part in the war is not the giving of a certain number of recruits, nor the supporting of the Imperial forces for any given time, but the giving wholeheartedly of her last man and her last dollar in the cause of liberty and justice. Canada is doing her part nobly, though some sections of the Dominion are doing more than others, but that part has not been done fully until the iron heel of the Teuton has been lifted from France and Belgium, and the Hun invader has been driven across the Rhine from whence he came.

The people of Charlesbourg are undoubtedly largely of French origin. They are probably of that small section of the French people in Canada who have become so wrapped up in their own supposed grievances and the idea of French Nationalism in Canada, that they have forgotten they are really French and Canadians. Had these men been still in the land of their fathers, would they have said today that France has done enough? If they did, they would be unworthy of the name and noble traditions of France. Had they been in Alsace or Lorraine, whence their fathers probably came, would they today be declaring that the French in Alsace and Lorraine had done enough and that they must do no more to drive out the Teuton?

The people of Charlesbourg have forgotten that they are French; have forgotten that they are Canadians, and, in their narrow racialism, fostered by such traitors to the noble French race and to Canada, as Bourassa and his like, have lost their vision of the future and the memory of their past.

The future of Canada depends entirely upon the vanquishing of the Prussianism which has brought such suffering upon the people of France and Belgium. If the people of Charlesbourg are satisfied that Canada should come under the rule of the Prussian, then, and then only, can they say that Canada has done her part. As that noble patriot, Sir Wilfrid Laurier, so ably expressed it in Montreal recently, if they do not want to fight for Britain and do not want to fight for France, then surely they must want to fight for themselves. The resolution passed by this little municipality is the result of gross ignorance of the whole situation, coupled with the ill-feeling which has been fostered by the men whom Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues took under their wing, that they might be successful in fighting the patriotic Laurier in Quebec in 1911. The pandering of Borden and his followers to the men who declared that they would shoot holes in the Union Jack is largely responsible for the state of feeling which prevails in many small communities in Quebec today. Fortunately, it is not a feeling which fills the hearts of the great majority of the French people in Canada. When proper recruiting methods have been adopted in Quebec, it will be found that the French-Canadians of that province are Canadians through and through and that they are ready to fight to the last for Canada; for France, and the Empire of which they form a part.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Premier Bowser has at last made up his mind to resign. It is too bad that he has been at last obliged to relinquish his hold upon the affairs of the province, but he must realize that the people really do not want him.

Emperor Franz Josef seems to be really and truly dead at last. This aged and infirm ruler of the Hapsburgs has been reported dead oftener than any other ruler in history and it would be interesting to know just when he died. It is reported that he has been dead for many months.

Sir Sam Hughes has gone to Quebec on a recruiting expedition. Sam has a habit of talking too much and, for Sir Robert's sake, it is to be hoped that he does not tell all he knows about how things have been conducted in Ottawa.

The United States Hughes has taken a long time to make up his 2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the

The Poor Man's University

"JONES knows more about motor cars than any other man I know," said a man to his friend. "He has obtained his knowledge chiefly from motor car advertisements, and the catalogues and booklets circulated through them."

"All I know about photography," declared a well-known amateur, "I have learned from the men who advertise cameras, plates, papers and films."

Advertisements have been well called "The Poor Man's University," but other than poor men have been schooled thereby.

Much of what the average individual knows concerning personal and domestic hygiene, modern office methods, books and authors, electricity, precious stones, investments, and almost everything else, he has learned from advertisements.

Advertisements have stimulated our intelligence, added enormously to our knowledge, and given us aspirations which have raised us to higher levels of thinking and living. Advertising is indeed "The Poor Man's University."

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

ATTENTION VOTERS

Persons who hold lots under agreements, or assignment of agreement, must make a declaration giving particulars of their title, before the last day of November. Any person neglecting to take such declaration will not be entered on the voters' list.

It is impossible for me to ascertain the names of agreement holders unless they come in personally.

It will greatly facilitate matters if persons wishing to make declaration bring their agreements, so that I may inspect them and thus prevent errors.

Reference to old voters' lists satisfies me that only a small proportion of agreement holders have registered in past years. This, I believe, has happened because people wrongly think their names will be inserted without any action on their part. I therefore call special attention to the necessity of agreement holders making declarations.

FRED PETERS, City Clerk.

HAZEL DAWN AT THE WESTHOLME TONIGHT

The captivating Hazel Dawn and Irving Cummings are the stars at the Westholme tonight in the five-act Famous Players feature, "The Feud Girl." It is a story of the mountains of northern Georgia in the days when the various families in that care-free country were always at "daggers-drawn." The scenes are actually laid in this wild country and the story carries with it all the strength and force of this rugged country. Mountaineers who had actually taken part in the feuds were engaged to appear in the various scenes and the result is one of the most realistic productions ever staged. Miss Dawn is a typical daughter of the mountains and the story of her betrayal should make a strong appeal to those who see this great picture.

Helen Holmes, the ever-popular star of "The Girl and the Game," appears in another episode of this exciting railroad serial, completing a fine show.
