TEUTONS REACHING LIMIT OF ENDURANCE

GERMAN PRESS DISCUSSES ALLIED REPLY -- GERMAN RAIDER IN THE ATLANTIC

TEUTONS ARE NEARING LIMIT OF ENDURANCE

Conditions Very Serious in Germany and Austria—Ambassador Gerard and Hollweg Discuss Terms.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Jan. 4.—Official information regarding conditions in Austria and Germany, substantiating press reports regarding the seriousness of the conditions under which the Central Powers are laboring, was partly instrumental in bringing about the Allies' decision to turn a deaf ear to the German peace proposals. It is evident that the Teutonic nations are within measurable distance of the limit of their endurance and there is much suffering amongst their people. Feeding the civilian populace is proving a huge problem for both Germany and Austria.

Te reply to the Wilson note, which was fully drafted today, is expected to be positive, candid and sincere.

Berlin Discussion.

Berlin, Jan. 4.—American Ambassador Gerard and Von Bethmann-Hollweg have discussed the Entente reply to Germany's peace proposals. It is believed that the American Ambassador learned just what possibility there is of Germany acting favorably on a renewed request for a statement of the conditions under which peace can be arranged, should the United States be prepared to make a further move in that direction.

New York, Jan. 4.—The gravest fears are entertained for the safety of the White Star liner Georgic, which sailed from Philadelphia for Liverpool on December 3rd with a cargo which was insured for a million dollars.

Nestorian Aground.

London, Jan. 4.—The British steamer Nestorian is aground and will probably become a total loss, according to a report from Lloyd's agency. No details are available regarding the wrecking of the vessel but it is believed that the crew is safe. She was a steamer of four thousand tons.

Western Front.

British Front.

London, Jan. 4.—Along the British portion of the western front operations yesterday were confined to artillery activity. There was the usual cannonading along the French front, with particularly heavy bombardments in the Verdun sectors.

WASHINGTON CONSIDERS MILITARY SERVICE BILLS

Washington, Jan. 4.—Universal military service in the United States is now actively before the lawmakers of the nation. Bills were introduced a few days ago radically amending the military system. These are backed by the Secretary for War, who severely criticises the present voluntary system of military service.

WORKING MEN WANT BORDEN'S RESIGNATION

(Special to The Daily News.)

The meeting took particular exception to Premier Borden's changed attitude on the question of conscription.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL AND PATRIOTIC FUND

His Excellency, the Governor-General, as President of the Canadian Patriotic Fund, has issued the following New Years appeal on behalf of the fund.

Twice His Royal Highness, the Duke of Connaught, appealed to the people of Canada in support of the Canadian Patriotic Fund. The prompt and generous response on each occasion proves how truly Canada appreciates the debts which she owes to sons who are fighting for the Empire.

Heavy as the sacrifices have already been, the Dominion is as determined as ever to carry the war to a successful conclusion, and, however onerous the burden may be, she is equally determined to help the families of those who are serving in the army and navy.

The administration of the fund has been most successful and economic, and subscribers can be fully assured that their contributions are being expended to the best advantage. Fifty-five thousand families, comprising one hundred and fifty thousand individuals, are today dependent upon the fund, and it is estimated that $12,500,000 will be required to meet the requirements of the next twelve months. The sum is a large one, but when the circumstances are fully realized I am confident that the people of Canada will willingly contribute the amount necessary for the fund to continue its patriotic and beneficent work.

GERMAN PRESS DISCUSSES THE ENTENTE REPLY

Remarks Concerning Belgian Raid Regarded as Insulting—Wilson and House Confer—Wilson Knows Terms.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Berlin, Jan. 4.—The reply of the Entente Allies to the Teutonic peace proposals is today widely discussed in the German morning papers. The press is unanimous in declaring that the answer of the Entente Powers is only what was expected in view of the previous utterances of the statesmen of the Allied countries.

The newspapers express the opinion that the strong declamatory language of the reply shows that the message is addressed more to neutral nations than to the Central Powers, especially the part referring to Belgium, which is regarded here as insulting.

(The part referred to is the following paragraph: "Belgium was invaded by an empire which had guaranteed her neutrality, and which had the assurance to proclaim that treaties were 'scraps of paper,' and that 'necessity knows no law'").

Important Conference.

Washington, Jan. 4.—President Wilson and Colonel House, the President's special envoy to Berlin and London last year, conferred yesterday. Extreme secrecy was observed and nothing has yet been made public as to the results of the conference.

Wilson Knows Terms.

London, Jan. 4.—Count Andrassy, former Premier of Hungary, is quoted as asserting that President Wilson knows Germany's peace conditions and that, if the Entente Powers are anxious to learn them, they may get the details from Washington.

Discussion in Senate.

Washington, Jan. 4.—America's diplomacy will probably come in for a big airing if Senator Hitchcock and his colleagues insist on the adoption of his resolution endorsing Wilson's note to the belligerents. Senators ask what good can possibly come from any support of Wilson's note today.

The Allies' rejection of the German peace proposals was cabled from Washington yesterday for the Entente Powers.

Take Wilson Seriously.

London, Jan. 4.—The Westminster Gazette advises the Entente Powers to take President Wilson seriously in his request for a peace conference.

Daily Mail Demands Recall of the Expedition—Society Lady is Severely Censured—Canadians Honored.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Jan. 4.—The Daily Mail, in an editorial this morning condemning the Saloniki expedition, demands its recall and declares that the expedition was notoriously badly planned by a group of civilians in defiance of all military traditions.

Society Lady Censured.

A court of enquiry has severely censured Mrs. Cornwallis West, one of the most prominent of England's society leaders and the mother of Winston Churchill, for exercising her influence with certain military officers causing injustice to subordinates. Several officers came in for criticism, including Lord French. The lady's injudicious boasting of the power she wielded at the war office was confirmed by letters which were produced at the enquiry.

British Casualties.

London, Jan. 4.—The total British casualties from Dec. 1st to 23rd inclusive amount to 815 officers and 36,350 men.

Over one thousand wounded Canadians have been moved to Boxton to recuperate.

Many Canadians have been awarded the Military Cross for distinguished service on the field.

The combing-out process adopted by the government in the various works and industries and the adoption of the substitution system will make nearly four million men available for active service.

A CIVIL WAR PARALLEL

The following is an extract from a highly interesting editorial in the New York Times regarding the proposed peace conference:—

It is a Hampton Roads conference that Germany has proposed. The proposal then, as now, was that the hostile parties should get together around a table and talk of terms. Like the Allies today, President Lincoln was averse to the idea, and but for General Grant's persuasion he would have called off the conference at the last moment. In his message to Congress he had said that no good could come of a conference with President Davis:

He does not attempt to deceive us. . . . Between him and us the issue is distinct, simple, and inflexible. It is an issue which can only be tried by war and decided by victory. . . . What is true, however, of him who heads the insurgent cause is not necessarily true of those who follow. Although he cannot reaccept the Union, they can. Some of them, we know, already desire peace and reunion.

Lincoln's idea was exactly that of the Allies today; that the war should be continued until the people of the other side awake to the impossibility of victory, and put themselves in a position to be treated with, regardless of the implacability of any Davis or Hohenzollern. He finally yielded to Grant's persuasion and met the Confederate Peace Commissioners. There, at Hampton Roads, he refused to accept any proposal except unconditional surrender. He promised "clemency," but refused to define it, except to say that he individually favored compensation for slave owners, and that he would execute the confiscation and other penal acts with the utmost liberality. He made it plain throughout that he was fighting for an idea and that it was useless to talk of compromise until that idea was triumphant.

But the Allies have before them an opportunity which was not in the same way or to the same extent open to Mr. Lincoln. In making these overtures for peace the Central Powers have quite unwittingly opened to the governments of the Entente a way to get at the minds of the German people to drive out error, put truth in its place. The Germans have been led to believe that this was a war of hate, that it was prosecuted for their destruction. In the reply Lloyd George is to make to the German proposal, an answer which will represent the views of all the Allies, it can be made clear that they are not fighting like wild beasts to raven and destroy, that they battle for no wrongful things, that they carry on the war in defense of principles that are eternally right. They seek to establish the principle that small nations must be effectively guaranteed against invasion and devastation by powerful neighbors, that no nation can be permitted to achieve its own ambitions of greatness in ruthless disregard of the rights and interests of all other nations, that the love of military glory and conquest cannot be indulged at the frightful cost of keeping all Europe in terror of war and of demanding of millions of people the sacrifice of their happiness and of their lives. No German can be so wrong-headed as to hold these principles to be wicked, all Germans know and must admit that they are sound and wholesome, that Europe, even Germany itself, will be better off when they are firmly established. The vital necessity of the hour is to make the people of Germany and of Austria understand that these are the purposes for which the Allies are fighting. It can be made plain to them in the reply to the overtures from the Central Powers. That in itself will be a very long step toward peace.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

LEO STANLEY BURDON. NOVEMBER 8, 1916. F. 6.

The Poor Man's University

"JONES knows more about motor cars than any other man I know," said a man to his friend. "He has obtained his knowledge chiefly from motor car advertisements, and the catalogues and booklets circulated through them."

"All I know about photography," declared a well-known amateur, "I have learned from the men who advertise cameras, plates, papers and films."

Advertisements have been well called "The Poor Man's University," but other than poor men have been schooled thereby.

Much of what the average individual knows concerning personal and domestic hygiene, modern office methods, books and authors, electricity, precious stones, investments, and almost everything else, he has learned from advertisements.

Advertisements have stimulated our intelligence, added enormously to our knowledge, and given us aspirations which have raised us to higher levels of thinking and living. Advertising is indeed "The Poor Man's University."

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.
