JAMES CARRUTHERS HAD A STORMY TRIP

The James Carruthers, of the Gold Storage Company's fleet, came in yesterday afternoon from her second trip as a trawler. The Carruthers experienced terrific weather outside and, although getting her trawl down a few times, was never able to put a full day's fishing, the result being that her fare was light and the test of trawling under such conditions was very unsatisfactory. Mr. Johnston, who is determined to give trawling on the Pacific a thorough test, will send the vessel out again on a third trip when it is hoped that the weather conditions will be such as will allow of a proper test being made of the North Sea method of deep-sea fishing.

BERNSTORFF'S LETTER TO PRESIDENT WILSON

The letter with which Count Von Bernstorff accompanied the notice to Washington of the unrestricted submarine campaign makes interesting reading as a sidelight on the "kink" in the German mind. The following are a few extracts from it:

After pointing out that the principles which govern the actions of the United States include self-government and equality of rights for all nations, the letter says "Germany would be sincerely glad if in recognition of this principle countries like Ireland and India, which do not enjoy the benefits of political independence, should now obtain their freedom."

Referring to Belgium, from which country Germany is withdrawing into slavery all able-bodied men, Bernstorff says:

As to Belgium, for which warm and cordial sympathy is felt in the United States, the chancellor had declared only a few weeks previously that its annexation had never formed a part of Germany's intentions. The peace to be signed with Belgium was to provide for such conditions in that country, with which Germany desires to maintain friendly, neighborly relations, that Belgium "should not be used again by Germany's enemies for the purpose of instigating continuous hostile intrigues."

The letter concludes thus:

"The imperial government could not justify before its own conscience, before the German people and before history the neglect of any means destined to bring about the end of the war. Like the president of the United States, the imperial government had hoped to reach this goal by negotiations. After the attempt to come to an understanding with the Entente Powers have been answered by the latter with the announcement of an intensified continuation of the war, the imperial government, in order to serve the welfare of mankind in a high sense and not to wrong its own people, is now compelled to continue the fight for existence, again forced upon it, with the full employment of all the weapons which are at its disposal.

"Sincerely trusting that the people and government of the United States will understand the motives for this decision and its necessity, the imperial government hopes that the United States may view the new situation from the lofty heights of impartiality and assist, on their part, to prevent further misery and unavoidable sacrifice of human life."

The latest photograph of the gentleman to whom all the neutral nations are looking for a lead in regard to the German submarine campaign. Woodrow Wilson faces the most serious situation any president of the United States has been called upon to solve since the time of Abraham Lincoln.

SCOTTISH VOLUNTEERS IN NORTHERN INDIA

George Wilson has received a highly interesting letter from his brother, Lieut. Ninian Wilson, Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders, who is located amongst the foothills of the Himalayas in Northern India. Lieut. Wilson joined the army in the hope of being sent to France, where the Germans had numbered his younger brother amongst their victims, but was instead sent to India, via South Africa. From Bombay, he travelled for three nights and four days to Peshawar and is now stationed at the entrance to the historic Kyber Pass, the scene of many thrilling battles with the hardy hillmen of Northern India in the past. Four British regiments stationed there keep up a regular patrol of the pass. They have blockhouses at regular intervals all the way through, with barbed wire protection on either side, while a "live" wire extends from end to end, to touch which is instant death.

So far, the hillmen have been quiet but they are liable to break out at any moment. Lieut. Wilson says the heat is terrific and it is possible to work only about two hours a day. To a Britisher, Northern India is highly interesting and picturesque, though the climate is severe on a European and the general outlook barren and sandy. One of the sights which attract the Scottish soldiers is the camel train of the merchant of Kabul who makes his way through the mountains with his merchandise just as his forefathers did for centuries.

WHAT WILL BORDEN BRING FROM LONDON?

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—Gossip in the corridors still centers around Premier Borden's coming visit to the Imperial Conference. What is the message he will bring back? Will he put Canada in pledge while he is over there, or will he come back and get the consent of Parliament?

Although the matter has not been made public yet, it is an open secret among the members of Parliament that all the overseas governments, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada, were consulted in regard to the Allies' reply to the German peace note. The views of the various overseas governments were found to correspond with those of the Allied governments and the reply was drafted with their previous knowledge and consent. No doubt the British government took the view that Canada had paid well to get a look in on the negotiations and a look in she got. The logic of this attitude is, of course, that Canada accepts joint responsibility with the European powers for the continuance of the war, and the outcome of this joint responsibility is that Canada should take a hand when the peace terms are being settled.

In short, Great Britain seems disposed to let Canada take as much responsibility and, inferentially, as much of the burden of the war as she feels disposed. Such being the case, members of Parliament are asking what Premier Borden will do next. Having subscribed to the Allied reply and thereby having established Canada's title to take part in the peace treaty, what is the next step which the Borden government contemplate?

Having accepted the doctrine of joint responsibility for the war and the peace, it follows in some minds that there should be joint responsibility for the trials and troubles and gargantuan taxes which will be the fruit of Great Britain's staggering war debt after the war is over. Also there is the cost of Imperial defence. Will Great Britain want to bear this burden alone, or will Premier Borden be met with suggestions that Canada should bear a share by way of a yearly contribution of fifty millions?

Such are the views of Mr. Lionel Curtis and his fellow enthusiasts of the Round Table. What is more to the point, such are the views of Lord Curzon, Lord Milner and Bonar Law, members of the inner war cabinet who have a very high idea of the duty of the colonies towards the Empire, and such are the views of Sir Edward Carson, who loathes home rule so much that he has kept Ireland out of it for the last five years.

What Parliament cannot help observing is that when Premier Borden goes to the Imperial Conference he sticks his head into a den of the finest old crusted high Tories that England has seen in cabinet positions for the last ten years. They belong to the good old high-binding Tory type which built up the Empire in the eighteenth century, incidentally losing the United States of America by the ripeness of their opinions. Mr. Lloyd George is a restraining influence, but, of course, Premier Lloyd George can't be with Premier Borden to protect him all the time. They'll find him and get at him some day when David Lloyd George isn't looking. Besides, Premier Lloyd George would probably side with them anyway!

The question parliament is asking is, will Premier Borden be able to stand up to them or will

SAWMILL CONSTRUCTION WILL START SHORTLY

Mr. E. F. Duby, of New Westminster, who is soon to start the construction work on a new sawmill at Prince Rupert with certain Vancouver men, has just returned to his home, after a two weeks' visit and inspection of all the modern and up-to-date sawmills of the states of Washington and Oregon. The object of Mr. Duby's visit was to make a study of all the latest methods in the sawmill business and especially the devices for the quickest and safest way of handling the large timbers.

He stated to The Sun yesterday morning that he had gained much information that would enable him to place one of the most up-to-date mills in the northern city in the province of British Columbia, as well as on the Pacific coast.

While away, Mr. Duby visited at the large plants of Everett, Seattle, Portland, Aberdeen, Hoquiam, Port Angeles, Bellingham and many other smaller places.

If weather conditions are all favorable, Mr. Duby further stated that the construction work of his new plant at Rupert would start about the first of next month. Once this part of the work is started, the erection of the new plant will be rushed to completion. He will leave for the north within a few days' time.—Vancouver Sun.

they put it in his eye? They are great persuaders over there in Westminster. The last time Premier Borden went to a conference in England he came back with three dreadnoughts in his head—put there by Winston Churchill, who has since blown up. When Premier Borden couldn't put his Canadian special contribution policy over, he was so enraged that the Niobe and the Rainbow were not only dismantled, but the tenders for the Laurier navy were dropped in the waste paper basket, with the result that when the war broke out Canada was in the humiliating position of having no ships either to defend herself with or to help the mother country. In short, Premier Borden went back on his favorite doctrine of letting well enough alone by making it a great deal worse.

Pessimists on both sides of the House view with alarm the fact that Premier Borden will be the only front rank statesman from overseas present at the conference. Sir Louis Botha, foreseeing a dilemma, perhaps, does not appear for South Africa, but sends a deputy, who can always back out of a tight hole by saying that he must consult his principal. Premier Hughes, having failed to deliver the goods—that is to say, having failed to put conscription across in good old Australia—will also be among those absent. He will send a proxy to London and stay at home to mind his own

CONCESSIONS

The Fisheries Advisory Board has at last been prevailed upon to take some action towards freeing the fishing industry of the north from some of the restrictions which have hampered it for years past. From the standpoint of the fishermen, and the individual who is interested in politics will be apt to say that there must be an election in sight. It is true that the chief change, the doing away with the attached licenses, has been delayed for another season, but that could hardly be avoided, as arrangements for the coming season have probably been made.

Whether the changes would have been made had not a delegation of citizens been sent to Ottawa is problematical. It is very certain that such changes should have been made without its having been necessary to send men to Ottawa. However, the presence of a reputation probably impressed upon the board how much in earnest the citizens of Prince Rupert really were in this matter.

It is only fair to say that much of the credit for the improvement must be given to Alderman W. H. Montgomery. Mr. Montgomery's presentation of the various points to F. H. Cunningham and D. N. McIntyre at the recent meeting in the city hall must have had its effect in impressing firmly upon the minds of the Pacific coast representatives on the board just exactly what the fishermen of this district wanted.

The granting of additional attached licenses seems like an aggravation of the old offence but comfort may be taken from the assurance that boat-rating will be entirely done away with after this season. The Gosse-Millard Company found it impossible to do business last season on equal terms with their competitors because of their having no attached licenses and the change puts them on an equal basis, which is only fair.

The granting permission for the use of gasoline boats is another big step forward and one which should have been taken long ago. This change means much to the city of Prince Rupert as fishermen will now be able to fish for salmon in the Skeena and make their headquarters in Prince Rupert.

Nothing seems to have been done towards doing away with the monopoly which has made salmon canneries so valuable and the big concerns are evidently still to retain full control over huge areas of coast line, immune from competition. The changes, however, are in the right direction and it should be only a matter of another season before further improvements are made and the salmon industry thrown wide open. The question which will be asked by all is, why are the concessions, which were refused in the past, granted on this occasion? Why should it be necessary to hold a gun to the heads of the public servants at Ottawa before they will consent to making partial reparation?

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Sir Sam says that the Ross rifle is all right but that the ammunition was bad. Was this Canadian ammunition?

Several Prince Rupert boys, in the early days of the war, told of throwing away their Ross rifles and grabbing Lee-Enfields from the hands of dead British soldiers. Would they have done this had the Ross rifle been superior?

Sir Sam Hughes said in the House the other day that the people of Dorchester should have thrown out both candidates. Sam should get busy and form a party of his own.

President Wilson is to be congratulated on his having severed diplomatic relations with Germany. No self-respecting neutral can afford to have further dealings with a nation gone mad. Every American citizen worthy of the name will heartily endorse the action of the president.

One citizen, on reading H. S. Clements' wire regarding the fishery concessions, remarked: "That looks like an early Federal election with Herb. Clements as Tory Candidate for Prince Rupert district." It has been rumored on several occasions that "Herb." felt like changing his mind about running for Comox. It doesn't really matter which constituency the Tory member contests, the result will be the same, only, if he runs for the north, it may be more so.

Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915. For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. business, which at this moment is to hang on to his job by the skin of his teeth. Australia is very, very British—perhaps more British than Canada—but not British enough to do what Premier Hughes wanted to do to it. With Australia and South Africa represented at the conference by deputies, Canada and New Zealand will be the only overseas states to send plenipotentiaries. The chances are that Premier Borden will be more plenipotentiary than his comrade of New Zealand, which is a democratic country and very insistent that its Premier should consult the people first and make his answers afterwards.

Premier Borden, on the other hand, has developed a habit since the war began of doing things first and explaining or neglecting to explain them afterwards. Premier Borden does a lot of governing by order-in-council, which, of course, is the good old Tory way of doing it. By order-in-council we have "his National Registration movement, which aims to mark time until the government can see what happens. By order-in-council, we also have Sir George Perley, Overseas Minister of Militia, the first Canadian cabinet minister we have seen fit to keep in London since Confederation fifty years ago. Sir George Perley, as Overseas Minister of Militia, marks a change in our constitution which may be epochal.

Sir George Perley's office in Victoria street is only three or four blocks away from Downing Street. He is, therefore, in close touch with the Imperial Government physically, and, if reports are true, in even closer touch spiritually. Sir George has become saturated with the London atmosphere, and is now very, very English, which is the most natural metamorphosis in the world for a gentleman who was born in the United States. Sir George is one of those staunch democrats, quite prevalent in the United States, who dearly love a country that can make them knights and baronets. Sir George is said to be working for a peerage.

Knowing Sir George's tendencies, Parliament does not reckon on his acting as a brake on Premier Borden's impulsiveness. We may take it for granted that five great minds—Lloyd George, Milner, Curzon, Carson and Balfour—will concentrate their argument on one lone premier from overseas. What chance has the poor fellow against this brilliant attack? They will surround and envelope and scorch his back hair like a curtain of fire. Naturally they will ask him for all that England would like to have from Canada, and we would be glad to feel that Premier Borden will answer by offering all that Canada can afford to give. But this is not Parliament's experience of Premier Borden. When he gets one of those promising moods on he would part with his suspenders—or anybody else's.

Canada will have her own troubles after the war—troubles she has been glad to assume for love of the mother country. Not to mention the treasure of blood Canada has spent, there will be a national debt of staggering proportions, taxes such as run not in the memory of man, and interest charges and a pension list that will aggregate one hundred million dollars a year. All told, it will take about three hundred and fifty million dollars a year to see us through. Some have alluded to this as a man's burden on a boy's neck, but Canada cheerfully bears it as the price of her duty to the British Empire. Canada has done, and continues to do, her bit, fights for the motherland and pays her way. When the war is over she will have a big bill to foot. The question everybody is asking now is whether Premier Borden intends doing anything while in England to make it bigger.—H. F. Gadsby.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Belgian Relief Fund

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committees, or to the Central Executive Committee, 59 St. Peter St., Montreal. $2.50 Feeds A Belgian Family A Month.

ADVERTISED GOODS

THE ROAD TO THE RIGHT.

YOU'VE met at least one of those few good old souls, who are constantly getting the worst of it when shopping, who don't believe in advertising. A hundred disappointing and instructive experiences have failed to teach him their plain lesson.

When he bought his first watch he was beguiled into buying one without a known name or a trustworthy guarantee. That watch—a poor timekeeper—cost him dearly by reason of missed appointments and missed trains, and for frequent repairs. Yet he paid the price of a good watch.

It is the same story with regard to his underwear, his shoes, and his fountain pen.

This good old soul's case is not unique. Many of us, if the truth be confessed, resemble him; we allow ourselves to be sold merchandise with an unknown brand or trade mark instead of buying merchandise which is well known to us through the medium of advertising. In slang language, we get "stung" pretty often.

In most of these cases we have ourselves to blame, for "the road to the right" thing to buy has been made plain by advertising.

There is no good reason for passing by the known thing, soundly guaranteed, to buy a dubious article, which, quality for quality, cannot be cheaper than the known, branded article.

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

"It is better to be sure than sorry."

TRAFFIC DELAYED AND TELEGRAPHIC WIRES DOWN

Traffic over the Grand Trunk Pacific is still tied up owing to snow slides. The snow-plow got through the cut at mile 56 on Saturday but a still heavier snow-storm came on, heavy wet snow, driven by a high wind filling up the cut again. Following the thaw, a big slide took place, causing a further serious delay. Heavy slides have also occurred at Jasper, and the eastbound train is tied up at Prince George, while all telegraphic communication is cut off this forenoon, the wires having been brought down by the slide.

YOUNG MAN DROWNED
WHEN ICE GIVES WAY

Donald McCrimmon, a young man of 19 years of age, engaged at Namu, lost his life by drowning on January 19th, according to a report brought in to Bella-Coola by Constable Tucker of the Dominion police. Deceased was skating on the lake with George Mason, when the ice broke and McCrimmon went under. Mason shoved a board to the struggling man and made an effort to save him but only succeeded in getting into the water himself. Deceased was the only support of a widowed mother.

PRINCESS MAQUINNA HAD STORMY PASSAGE

The Princess Maquinna was unable to make the trip to Granby on Saturday owing to extremely heavy weather. She came back to Prince Rupert after making a call at Port Simpson. There was a little excitement at the wharf yesterday, when the C. P. R. vessel was torn from her moorings by the wind and drifted out a short distance into the harbor. She was soon moored again, however, and no harm resulted.

"THE WALLS OF JERICHO" AT WESTHOLME TONIGHT

Edmund Bresse, the renowned actor, is presented at the Westholme tonight in "The Walls of Jericho," a splendidly produced five-act society drama. In addition to this big feature, Mutt and Jeff, who have made the whole world laugh for years through the columns of the newspaper comic sections, will be shown in a highly amusing series of cartoons.

NEW DANCE GAME

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Douglas, well known residents of Prince Rupert in the early days, have, at their dancing academy in Seattle, produced something entirely new in the way of a combination of basket ball and the fox trot. It is called the "Bal A La Dance." Each participant dances alone and must keep in perfect rhythm with the music while a ball is propelled towards the goal at either end, as in basket ball. An exhibition of the new "stunt" was given in Seattle recently by Miss Vineta Engle, Mr. Arthur Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Douglas.
