WASHINGTON STILL WAITING -- LINER CALIFORNIA SUBMARINED OFF IRELAND

REPUBLICANS STAND FIRMLY BEHIND WILSON

Opposition Leader in the Senate Eagerly Supports Resolution —Denmark Will Maintain Neutrality.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, Feb. 8.—Feeling is still at a high tension, awaiting a reply from Germany to President Wilson's action. The navy yards and arsenals are working at high pressure and the battleships Missouri and Minnesota have been put in commission and are now on duty, as also is the cruiser Wisconsin.

The Senate, late yesterday afternoon, by a vote of 78 to 5, passed a resolution endorsing President Wilson's action in regard to the German submarine menace. Senator Lodge, the leader of the Republican party in the Senate, was one of the most eager in supporting the resolution.

Wall Street.

New York, Feb. 8.—Big Wall Street influences held a conference yesterday afternoon, when the action of the President was endorsed and plans discussed for the financing of war, should the break lead to hostilities.

Gerard Arrives.

Washington, Feb. 8.—That Ambassador Gerard has arrived on neutral soil is evident from the fact that the State Department has been notified by Ambassador Willard, in Spain, that he has received a despatch from Gerard from Berne, Switzerland.

Cubans Willing.

Havana, Cuba, Feb. 8.—The break between the United States and Germany is the one absorbing topic in Cuba. Cubans are freely offering their services to the government in the event of war.

Denmark Neutral.

Copenhagen, Feb. 8.—It is stated that the Danish government has intimated that it cannot follow the example of the United States in breaking off relations with Germany.

RED CROSS SALE

The Red Cross sale on Friday will be in charge of Mrs. Allison and Mrs. J. H. Kelly. Mrs. Kelly will display the splendid collection of war curios which she has received from Europe. They are well worth seeing, both as curios and works of art. Ladies are reminded that a large supply of home cooking can be disposed of at these sales and that the demand for supplies for Red Cross work is insistent.

Effective Measures Adopted to Frustrate Attacks—British Have Made Important Gain
on the Ancre.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Feb. 8.—The British Admiralty has announced the adoption of effective measures to frustrate the threatened German submarine menace.

Western Front.

Continuous pressure by the British forces on both banks of the Ancre has resulted in the British capturing Grandcourt, which strong German position has stood out against the British attacks for many weeks. Following this success, the British are now seriously threatening the strong enemy position at Le Transloy and have entered the German lines southwest of La Basse, where they killed a number of Germans and captured prisoners. The enemy dug-outs were destroyed.

GERMANY BEGAN WAR ONE YEAR TOO SOON

The following letter, written to the New York Tribune by Henri Bazin, of Paris, last November, shows very clearly just what the German idea was at the outbreak of the war:—

Sir,—The most highly significant evidence of the German mind and, by the same token, never intended for publicity outside Germany, is to be found in a recent article in the "Berlin Lokal Anzeiger" over the signature of Walter Rathenau, the individual who, for a number of years before the war, had complete charge of official organization among war need industrial establishments in the German Empire, and who has been deputized to continue this particular work in the supreme effort the Teutonic nation is about to put forth.

This article, which is before my eyes as I write, says in full, copied verbatim:—

"We began the war a year too soon. When we have secured a German peace we must begin at once a reorganization upon a broader and firmer basis than ever before. Establishments that produce raw materials essential to the army must not only continue their work, but enter into it upon lines of increased energy, forming thus the kernel of economic Germany in preparing in the economic sense for the next war. We must carefully calculate in advance, in view of the lessons learned in this war, what our country lacks in raw material and essentials of raw material, and secure immense reserves to remain unused until a day in the future. We must organize as genuine an industrial mobilization as we had a military mobilization. Every technician or semi-technician, enrolled or not in the list of mobilized, must be empowered through official credentials to take charge and direction of a given establishment upon the second day following a new declaration of war. Every establishment manufacturing for commercial purposes must be mobilized also and understand officially that upon the third day after declaration of war their entire abilities are to be devoted to serving the army upon demand. It must also be determined in advance just what qualities and sort of essentials such establishments can furnish the army in a given time. Each establishment also should be required to furnish a detailed list of workmen who can be dispensed with, these alone to be mobilized in the military sense.

At The Heart of The Submarine, Where The Entire Ship Is Controlled.—With this mass of wheels, levers and push buttons, the officer in charge of a submarine can steer, start, stop, cause her to rise to the surface or submerge at will. This is the most remarkable picture of the interior of a submarine ever published.

RETURNED SOLDIERS AS DEPUTY GAME WARDENS

Bert Wearmouth, appointed deputy game warden in this district, arrived from the south yesterday afternoon. Mr. Wearmouth served for fourteen months in the trenches as a bomber. Last September, his brother was killed by his side, and two weeks later, Private Wearmouth received a severe wound which necessitated his being invalided home. He is a brother of Captain Wearmouth, formerly of Prince Rupert, and well known all along the coast. Before going to the front, the new deputy game warden was a pre-emptor on Graham Island. J. R. Barker and G. R. Fisher, both returned soldiers, have been appointed as deputy game wardens in other parts of the province.

"We must finally establish some definite commercial understanding with nations outside of Europe that will offer them advantages to be duly specified in detail whereby these nations, as neutrals, will find it to their direct disadvantage commercially to trade or sell munitions during war to either ourselves or our enemies. We can afford to offer such conditions ourselves. And, finally, when the next war comes, it must not be a year too soon."

Here in a nutshell, or "kernel," to quote Mr. Rathenau, is what Allied Europe has long understood, and what has not been truly understood in the United States save by a relative few.

It is the reason why the war would be continued for ten years if necessary by France, England and their allies. It is the reason why nothing short of the "knock-out" will serve. It is the reason why any talk or effort for peace would be ill-received, even if backed by the best of motives and official sanction from the greatest

POLICE MAKE RAID ON CHINESE JOINT

Four Chinamen and one colored man were arrested last night in a raid on the premises of King Tai on Fulton Street. For some time the police have had suspicions that there was gambling and other illegal work going on at this house and, on receiving detailed information recently, Chief Vickers drew up the necessary papers and gave instructions for a raid late last night. The work was carried out by Constables Bailey, Adams and McClinchy about ten-thirty. The attack was made quietly and the police were on the premises before the Orientals were aware of their presence. There was a rush and scramble; doors were slammed and the police had to batter their way in to the room where the play was taking place.

A lottery game was interrupted; the bank was smashed and the money seized and the participants arrested. It was also discovered that the place was used as an opium den, four hundred dollars worth of the drug being taken by the police. Accused were brought up before Magistrate Carss this morning but the case was adjourned until Saturday morning.

SOME FISH

"Bill" Shrub-sail did big business for the Red Cross Society yesterday in George Frizzell's store, selling tickets for the raffle of the huge black cod which was captured recently and which "Bill" smoked to perfection. This fish is one of the finest specimens of the fluky tribe ever landed on the coast. As it would prove a burden to the winner, Mr. Shrub-sail has promised to supply an equal amount of fish in small quantities as desired by the winner, and will send the big fish to Ottawa.

Arrived on Yesterday's boat, J. W. Kerrigan, the ladies' idol, who will star at the Westholme tonight only in "The Beckoning Trail."

OTTAWA PAPER IS ATTACKED BY ROBERT ROGERS

Reveals Criticism of His Work In Manitoba—Confederation to Celebrate Its Fiftieth Anniversary.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, Feb. 8.—Before adjourning Parliament yesterday until April 19th, to allow Premier Borden to attend the Imperial conference in London, Sir Robert appointed a committee to consider a suitable plan for the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of confederation. Another committee was appointed to make plans for the taking care of returned soldiers.

The appropriation bill was given its third reading, and Premier Borden thanked the Opposition for facilitating urgent business.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, replying to Sir Robert's speech, said that the members of the Opposition were undeserving of any thanks as they had merely performed their duty as citizens of the Dominion.

Rogers Sore.

The closing feature of the session was a fiery attack by Hon. Robert Rogers on the "Ottawa Citizen," a paper owned by Southam Brothers. Mr. Rogers claimed that unwarranted criticism of him had been published in connection with the finding of the commission of enquiry into the building of the Manitoba Agricultural College. He asserted that the attack was entirely due to the fact that he had refused to purchase a four hundred thousand dollar post office site in Montreal from the Southams as he would not allow his department to be despoiled.

SUGGESTED RAILWAY FOR GRAHAM ISLAND

Queen Charlotte Islands,
January 20, 1917.

To the Editor,

Dear Sir:—In the consideration of the various plans for the benefit of the returned soldiers, it would appear that the advantages of Graham Island have been overlooked. There we have the largest compact area of agricultural land in British Columbia. The climate is cool in summer and warm in winter, as compared with other parts. The fact that every year it has won the cup for the best agricultural produce, proves that it is superior to all other districts competing in northern British Columbia. Of course the winter is the rainy season, but it is not a disagreeable season nor are all the winters very wet. We all know the hardships and the time it takes to clear land but it is not a hard proposition if the government would assist with the necessary machinery (a donkey engine) and we do say $500 worth of work on each place, taking a mortgage for that amount and charging the least possible interest and hiring the settlers to do the work. The Dominion government might also help by building a railway from Skidegate Inlet to Queenstown, about 40 miles, thus connecting both ends of the island by a railway which would run through the best part. If the railway was built by the settlers it would afford work at all times and enable them to earn money as they require it. This work need not be hurried as when a few miles was built it could find traffic, as it would pass through fairly good timber and pulp wood which could

DETERMINATION STEELED BY THE HUN OUTRAGES

King George Addressed Parliament Yesterday—Asquith Says
Germany Has Declared War
On Neutrality.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, Feb. 8.—His Majesty King George, in his speech at the opening of Parliament yesterday, speaking of the unrestricted German submarine warfare, said, "the threats of further outrages on the common rights of humanity only serve to steel our determination."

H. H. Asquith, addressing the House of Commons last night, said that the German submarine threats are a declaration of war upon neutrality and that he was glad that the challenge had been taken up by the greatest of the neutral nations. "It is not fitting that we should seek to advise or suggest to a government which has shown itself to be perfectly able to conduct its own affairs, what it should do or what it should not do in such a crisis," said the ex-premier.

Ten Ships Sunk.

Ten ships were sunk in the war zone yesterday. The total tonnage of the vessels which went under was 15,000. The liner California was amongst the victims. Full particulars as to the fate of her crew and passengers have not come to hand. There were six smaller steamers, three being British; one Italian, another French and the sixth Peruvian. Two steam trawlers were also sunk and two fishing boats.

Later.

Washington, Feb. 8.—A German submarine off the Irish coast sunk without warning the British liner California. One hundred and sixty survivors have been landed from a crew of a hundred and eighty-four. There were thirty-one passengers on board, including four American citizens, who are believed to have been saved.

be hauled to the shipping point. Another advantage over building in a hurry by contract is that the money would remain on the island and with the settlers, and, by the time it was finished, the farms would be producing. Also the local government might build a wagon road on the same lines, spending a certain amount each year, not to keep the settlers at work all the time, but to enable them to earn enough to help live and get the land under cultivation. Apples, cherries, plums, strawberries and raspberries do very well and from all parts the settlers have shown some very good exhibits.

ANXIOUSLY WAITING

News from the front these days has to take second place to reports from Washington in the war despatches and every eye is fixed on the bulletin boards anxiously watching for the stirring news that Uncle Sam has joined the Allies in the fight for freedom. All criticism of President Wilson is stifled in the rush of the new turn which affairs have taken. It may be that before this is in type war may have been declared, though that seems hardly likely, in spite of the report from Washington that war is believed inevitable. From Germany's intimation that the Belgian Relief Commission representatives shall be allowed to remain in Belgium until the United States declares war, it would appear that Berlin is to allow Washington to make the first belligerent move. From the activity which prevails in naval circles in the great republic to the south, it is clear that the moment any provocative act is committed, the struggle will begin and America shall be ready for the fray.

In spite of Berlin's boast that she will pursue her submarine course without deviation, in spite of America's action, it is not unlikely that great care will be taken not to bring the United States into the war. It begins to appear as if Berlin has misjudged the temper of the American people and their president, just as it did the temper of our Indian population at the outset of the war. Up to a point, President Wilson showed himself to be so rootedly opposed to war that Germany may have been lulled into the belief that nothing it could do would ever stir up any feeling of hostility. In this, it made a grave miscalculation. The American people have been, as always, slow to rouse, but they have been gradually approaching boiling point and, now that Berlin has gone absolutely mad, and has torn all international and every other law to pieces, she finds that there are some things which even the most peaceful of nations will not stand for.

America was once divided in a great national crisis and the lesson learned at that time has been taken to heart. Since that memorable time, the American people have presented a solid front to the world whenever trouble threatened. Today, there is no division in the ranks. Every American is solidly behind President Wilson and lined up against Germany. The hyphenates are not included in the ranks as they are not Americans but simply Germans residing in the United States. When the day of war comes, if it does come, it will find an enthusiasm throughout the States which has never been equalled. American pride has been injured; a German effort has been made to clip the eagle's wings, and America is just sitting on the lid to keep its indignation from boiling over. When the blow falls, Washington will be ready; the navy will be ready, and the day of Prussian defeat will not be far distant.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

America is all for preparedness now. Some of the Irish oppose going into the war but that is just as it should be. They would feel that something was seriously wrong if they were not "agin the government."

Switzerland is reported to be remaining neutral. Switzerland is largely German and it has neither a seaboard nor a navy.

Germany may be making a big showing and bluster over her submarines but she is hopelessly outclassed in the air. The British and French aviators triumphed over the German in every recent encounter.

The snow-slides in this vicinity must have been slight compared with those which tied up fifty trains on the Union Pacific, keeping sections of the road blocked for five and six days.

Zimmerman says Germany will take no step backward. She will very soon take one great big step backward and for generations she will forget there ever was such a thing as the goose-step.

THE COST OF HIGH LIVING

Yesterday there was to be seen in Prince Rupert, exposed for sale—VEAL! THREE MURDERED BEEVES!! And the accessories before and after the fact go Scot free!

We cry out at the high price of beef—and will cry out more yet for prices are still rising—but, notwithstanding, we stand for our next year's beef supply being taken away now.

Just let us consider the loss on these three animals alone. Yesterday they weighed about 60 pounds each. Full grown, they would attain to 700 pounds. The hides weigh 7 or 8 pounds and, full grown, should be about 60 pounds each.

This makes a net shortage of about 2,000 pounds of beef and 150 pounds of leather in the immediate future. And this is on only three animals.

This is a time of world-wide scarcity of beef and leather. Our governments are all preaching—although not always practising—economy. Here is one instance of absolute, criminal waste, which is patent to even the "man in the street."

It is high time we had a Food Controller with power to prohibit the slaughter of immature livestock, not after our next two years' supplies are killed off, but now, while there is yet something to control. The welfare of the people demands that our food stocks be conserved. If the individual farmer or stock raiser cannot afford to feed his young stock, let such young animals be fed by those who can.

Veal at any time is a luxury and is of a lower food value than beef. To those thoughtless people who may henceforth visualize the succulent joint of veal, tender and tasty, we would say, "Ponder whence comes next year's beef." The ordinary wage earner, and he is in the majority, cannot afford veal. It costs too much, and is by no means an economical dish in other ways. Therefore, ye richer veal-eaters, remember that every pound of veal you consume now denies your poorer brethren ten pounds of beef later on. The beef famine is just commencing and the situation right now is one that demands close attention.

Buckingham, Que., May 2nd, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

Belgian Relief Fund

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flag are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Send your subscriptions weekly, monthly or in one lump sum to Local or Provincial Committee, or to the

The Case of A.B. Smith Retailer.

A. B. SMITH has a dry goods store in a certain Canadian city. He does a good business, but wants to do more. He believes that Advertising in his local newspaper is the way to get more business. So he advertises—every now and then. This is where our friend Smith is wrong—in advertising every now and then. He should advertise regularly—as frequently as his local newspaper is published.

Smith says he wants to advertise regularly, but he can't always find the time to prepare advertisements, which is true, for he is his own buyer, salesman, director of store service, credit man and half-a-dozen other things. What Smith should do is this: If he is located in one of the smaller cities, in which there are no advertising agencies giving a local copy service, and he has no one among his own staff qualified by instinct or experience to write the daily announcements, he should go to the publisher of the newspaper in which he means to advertise, requesting his help. In nine cases out of ten, the publisher, through his advertising manager, will be only too glad to give Smith the assistance desired.

If Smith is located in one of the larger cities he should secure the services of a recognized advertising agency which will take over the work of preparing his advertisements.

In this way Smith can be sure of having his advertisements prepared regularly and intelligently, with no more trouble to him than the supplying of the information required by the writer of the advertisements.

So Smith can do more business, and more business means a larger income for himself, to say nothing of other gains that go hand in hand with the doing of bigger business.

This man Smith---do you know him?

Are YOU Smith?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto.

RAW FURS! RAW FURS!*GERMANY BEGAN WAR
ONE YEAR TOO SOON

of neutrals, or the smallest, or all the neutrals collectively.

The war cloud that hung over Europe for thirty years prior to August, 1914, must be dispersed finally and forever. The intolerable conditions prevailing must be finally made impossible of repetition. The horrors and miseries, the suffering and privation, the whole gamut of evil that no single individual can understand through reading the writing of another, that must be seen, felt, experienced through the senses to be grasped even in outer circles, must never again be a worldly portion.

This will only be possible through making war against war until a humane peace is the reward. It would be as impossible under a German peace as would a railway journey to Mars.

Germany realized all I have here written in a sincerity beyond mere words for the telling. She feels her setting sun. She is reaching out at the two extremes of the compass in vain effort to remedy that "beginning the war a year too soon."

One is her present huge peace propaganda in the United States.
The other is her last supreme effort in the levee en masse, the deportation of the Belgian populace, the "kingdom" of Poland, and all the rest of it.

Neither scheme, neither plan, will avail. She feels it, and senses but a desperate postponement of the inevitable. The mills of the gods are grinding.

The article from "Berliner Lokal Anzeiger" is but reiterative proof of open stupendous fact patent to individual or nation who will judicially examine the evidence at this 850th day of hostilities.

The fact is, the issue is no longer between the Allied and Central Powers. They but represent two ideas. One champions justice, humanity, civilization, the right of peoples, respect for moral law, and understanding as to definition of the word honor.
The other has deliberately as aim the ultimate domination of the globe by a Prussianized Germany.
