PROHIBITION DURING THE WAR PROMISED

BONE DRY MEASURE WILL BE INTRODUCED THIS SESSION BY THE GOVERNMENT

PROHIBITION TO BE PASSED THIS SESSION

Soldiers' Vote Cancels Civilian Majority—New Referendum to Be Taken After the Army Returns.

Victoria, Feb. 21.—On account of the civilian population favoring prohibition at the September elections, Premier Brewster assured the Prohibitionists that the government would introduce their prohibition measure in the coming session. This measure will provide absolute prohibition during the period of the war, the understanding being that when the soldiers return a new referendum will be put to the electorate. The soldiers' ballots, according to the latest London figures, cancelled the civilian majority.

GERMAN BRUTALITY TO AFRICAN NATIVES

Reuter's Agency says:—It is a striking coincidence that simultaneously with the utterances at a missionary meeting in Berlin of Dr. Soli, in which the German Colonial Secretary declared that African natives could only be Christianized through Kultur, while he deplored the possibility of the natives' falling under other than German influences, further evidence of German methods with regard to the African natives should reach authoritative quarters in London. First is the receipt of a colored photographic picture postcard, marked No. 24, Fritz Nink, Windhuk (German Southwest Africa, Nachdruck Verboten (reproduction is forbidden)). This is a photograph of a native with his clothing raised above his waist. He is stretched face downward on the ground while his arms and legs are being forcibly held by uniformed natives, apparently Askari. Over the victim stands a German official in white uniform, who is holding aloft a weapon with which he is thrashing the native. The fact that such a scene should be photographed in the form of a picture postcard is itself sufficiently significant. The photo is inscribed "Zuechtigung eines Eingeborenen" (correction of a native).

Scorn evidence dated November 1915, has also just reached London from British East Africa of inquiries held into the German behavior to natives. In one case cited a Mohammedan girl of 12 was seized by Germans, and on the way to Muzi was taken by a German officer named Reicho to his tent and outraged. In another inquiry, a Mohammedan native said that he was made prisoner by the Germans and removed to Tango. He was made to work and given very little food. He saw several natives shot by the Germans for refusing to give information about British troops. The men who were shot had not taken part in the fighting, and were unarmed. An Arab in a sworn statement before a British court declared that he and eight others were made prisoners by the Germans. His old father, who was very ill, was beaten by order of

UNITED STATES STILL WAITING AN OVERT ACT

American People Impatient at the Delay in President's Action—Hungry New York Women Storm City Hall.

Washington, Feb. 21.—Great anxiety is felt here with regard to two unarmed merchantmen now reported to be within the "barred zone."

U. S. Consul Frost at Queens-town has cabled the State Department that two native Americans were aboard the unarmed steamer Dalbeattie, which was sunk thirty miles off Fastnet by a German submarine. One of the men had to be taken to the hospital suffering from exposure, having spent thirteen hours on the open sea. His condition is critical.

New York, Feb. 21.—The New York Times says, "The hour to strike is overdue." The great Democratic journal shows signs of parting company with the President. Says America is humiliated with Germany's embargo and calls for instant action. In the eyes of the world the United States has been humbled and disgraced; American rights have been trampled on and annihilated.

Hunger Demonstration.
New York, Feb. 21.—More than five hundred women, bare headed and scantily clad, stormed the steps of the city hall and demanded relief from the mayor from the high cost of living. Most women carried babies and declared their families were starving.

RED CROSS NOTES

With the permission of the society, a committee of young ladies will give a Daffodil Tea on Saturday afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. Mr. Killas with his usual kindness has placed his tea rooms on Third Avenue at their disposal. The committee consists of Miss Ivy Jenns, Convenor, and the Misses Du Vernet, Young, Pillsbury, Saunders and Beckwith. The society has been asked to redouble their efforts so that aid may be continued to France and the other stricken countries and a liberal patronage is asked for this most worthy cause.

Mrs. Tyre and Mrs. H. P. Wilson will have charge of the sale of home cooking on Friday. In view of the terrible year ahead of the Allies, the British Red Cross is asking for renewed effort on the part of the public, so that supplies may be on hand when needed.

Mrs. A. T. Parkin is thanked by the Society for a donation of $16, the proceeds of a recent whist drive.

the European officer and died. He had, he said, no witness left beside himself. All the others had been killed or had died of their wounds.

Numerous other cases of German brutality were sworn to including that of a Mohammedan who was made to carry very heavy loads and beaten as he staggered along. The statement adds that the prisoners were attached with chains round their necks, and had to live chiefly on roots.—Glasgow Herald.

PRINCE GEORGE WILL DOCK HERE MARCH 1ST

It has been arranged that on the return from the next trip to Anyox, the Prince George will transfer her passengers and freight at this port to the Prince Rupert. She will then proceed to the drydock for overhaul. It may take from two to three weeks to get ready. What with painting, scraping and cleaning and drawing the shafts and adjusting the propellers and other little things, it will be a busy time.

HALIBUT ARRIVALS

There were several fishing boats in yesterday with good catches of halibut. The Puritan brought in 22,000 for the Booth Fisheries. The Panama had 30,000, and the Olympia had 18,000 pounds. The Kadiak arrived at an early hour this morning with 30,000 pounds and up to the time of writing had not sold. The Constance with 25,000 pounds also arrived and sold to the Cold Storage at 13c.

HALIFAX IS NOW EXAMINING PORT

New York, Feb. 20.—The Associated Press says steamships flying flags of neutral countries, which have been detained here since the new German submarine policy was announced, will resume their regular sailings. Plans have been made to substitute Halifax for Kirkwall as the port of call for examination.

It is not yet certain whether vessels coming west will also have to put in there, and pending the completion of the terminal works, the berthing accommodation is limited.

This departure by the British authorities will add greatly to the importance and activity of Halifax.

HOSPITAL BOARD MEETS

The board of directors of the Hospital Association met last night in the city hall. The immediate business in hand was the election of president and vice-president. Mr. D. G. Stewart was elected to be president for the ensuing year and vice-president will be Mr. W. E. Williams.

MORE RAIDS BY BRITISH AND FRENCH TROOPS

Norwegian Steamer Sunk Near the Irish Coast; Americans on Board—Many Captures in Trench Raids.

London, Feb. 21.—Another raid was carried out by the British troops on a strongly fortified enemy post called "the pimple" to the east of Souchez. We took few prisoners but caused much destruction to the enemy. The usual artillery activity prevails on the remainder of the front. General quietness prevails on account of the weather which is very bad.

Paris, Feb. 21.—A surprise raid carried out by the French troops to the north of Fliry and West Waterville. Quite a number of prisoners were taken and the French losses were comparatively light. In the Oise and the Aisne regions there is considerable artillery activity. Calm prevails elsewhere.

Mesopotamia.

The enemy line is being steadily pushed backward. A steady pressure by compressing the Turks within the loop formed by the river to the west of Kut, has practically caught the enemy in a trap.

Neutral Ship Sunk.

London, Feb. 21.—The Norwegian steamer, Dalbeattie has been sunk by shell fire by a German submarine. There were two Americans on board. The crew were in an open boat for thirteen hours in bitterly cold weather before being picked up.

Pacifists Attack Policy of All the Allied Governments—Allege This To Be War of Conquest.

London, Feb. 21.—In the House of Commons yesterday Ponsonby, Trevelyan, Snowden and other pacifists made an attack on the policy of the Allied governments. They reproached the government with their failure to respond to the German peace overtures and declared that the Allies were pursuing a "war of conquest." Bonar Law in replying said that in no other country would such speeches be listened to patiently.

GERMANY AND SELFISHNESS

London:—Austrian papers announce that the first consignments of Roumanian grain have arrived at the Hungarian border, this being the first Roumanian booty that has fallen to Austria. But, add the papers, all has been requisitioned by the army or sent to Germany and the papers complain bitterly that the government has again yielded to Germany.

A WORLD POWER

Before the war the British Empire was not looked upon as a world power. The United Kingdom was so regarded, but the Empire as a whole was not. It is well known that the German Kaiser confidently expected that the British government would find itself condemned to inaction for fear that troubles might arise in India, South Africa and other parts of the Empire, and that the daughter nations generally would refuse to do anything, or at the most would contribute very little towards assisting the mother country in her hour of trial. We sometimes think that many people in the United Kingdom hardly grasped the fact that the Empire was so real, so eager were they to do something to make it so. In Canada and we are sure in Australia and New Zealand, while there may have been some uncertainty as to how much the self governing Dominions would be able to do, there was no doubt as to their readiness to do what lay in their power. And here we may say something which some of us may not have known especially those who are recent comers to the Dominions. It is that a large section of the peoples of the overseas Empire were taught to regard themselves as much an actual and integral part of the British people as though they had been born and lived always under the shadow of Westminster Abbey. We need not be surprised that others did not understand what the British Empire really is because we did not really understand it ourselves. There was also doubt, and what seemed on the surface to be reasonable grounds for doubt, as to what would be the attitude of India in a time of crisis. That doubt exists no longer. The Empire exists one and indivisible.

The Colonies and India have placed more than a million fighting men in the field. Other nations knew them to be a number of isolated communities with different aims, different policies and different interests, but they know them now as one solid whole when the questions of British conceptions of honor and justice, British conceptions of liberty are involved. Let these be assailed and like an electric flash there runs throughout the Empire a demand to know the reason why and each component part of it stands ready to do what in it lies to protect the other parts and to stand shoulder to shoulder to safeguard the whole. More than a million men have gone out to prove this in battle and in two decades from now more than 3,000,000 men can be put into the fighting line if need be. More over the maintenance of British sea power will not be left chiefly in the hands of the United Kingdom, but each self governing Dominion will discover a way by which it can do its share in this great work.—Colonist.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Germany would like to engage the United States in talk when the piracy goes on. President Wilson is not stingy with talk but he does not propose to expend any more of it for the encouragement of German outrages. If he must talk, he will talk with somebody else.

In regard to the present unrestricted German submarine campaign the Admiralty maintains its traditional policy of secrecy, though in well-informed circles in London reports highly satisfactory as to the "surprises" for the Germans are current. "Do not worry about the German submarines. The navy will give them all the worry they want," said a message issued the other day by Vice-Admiral Bacon, and all the experts seem to be in agreement that such success as the Germans have obtained in the first two weeks of "ruthlessness" should neither warrant their preliminary boasts nor arouse alarm in this country.

The withdrawal of the United States relief officers from Belgium is a great misfortune. The money they expended came mostly from Britain and France. But these administrators, under the exceedingly capable Mr. Hoover, did

"Going up on High?"

Better try the low gear first. The human engine must have the right kind of fuel-food. Power to do things comes from food that is rich in muscle-building material, that is easily digested. Shredded Wheat is a high-power food, the kind that fits a man or woman for the day's work—just enough muscle-making material, just enough heat-making material to keep the body in top-notch condition. Shredded Wheat is ready-cooked, ready-to-eat. Two Biscuits with milk make a nourishing meal at a cost of a few cents. Made in Canada.

work that men from no other neutral country can perform so well. Germany has practically driven them out.

Mr. Bryan seems to possess a chivalrous spirit not ordinarily found in a politician. Speaking to a New York audience some days ago, he announced that it would be taking an unfair advantage of Germany to go to war with the empire at a time when its defensive power is already fully utilised in warring with other nations. "We should postpone this war," said Mr. Bryan, "because it is not fair to ask a nation engaged in a death struggle to consider things calmly."

It is very difficult to see how President Wilson can long delay the final step in the course adopted by him. The sinking of the U. S. vessel "Lyman M. Law" can hardly be regarded otherwise than an "overt" act.

Nearly a thousand American citizens are being held in Turkey virtually as prisoners of war. They are allowed no communication with the outside world. There will likely be a break with Turkey also.

NEW GERMAN ATTACK ON BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

Amsterdam, Feb. 20.—Despite the fact that the Kaiser recently conferred upon the Imperial Chancellor his latest creation in orders, the latter's enemies are again at work. They have sent out a new pamphlet, which, according to the "Vorwärts", contains inter alia the following passages:—The Jew and the Social Democrat today govern Germany. The old country families, the old officers and official families, all those in country and in town who have the national spirit in the Prussian sense, are pushed aside and pressed to the wall. With sullen wrath and clenched fists they are looking on powerless, because one thing prevents them seizing the Chancellor, who is fatal to the nation, by the throat and that is the old loyalty which still sees even in this mischievous man the Minister of the King. The pamphlet also speaks of "the amateur of the Chancellor's seat who delights in silly ideas of humanity" and "the greatest culprit among the German people, who prevents us from winning victory."

After condemning the peace proposal, the pamphlet concludes: "Nobody need be surprised at the rumor which is going through Germany, that the Chancellor has been bought by England, for which country he at any rate has done very good service, while prejudicing his own."

The "Vorwärts" adds: "Now we at least know the meaning of loyalty and national spirit in the Prussian sense."

The following is from the Washington, D. C., Post: "There was not one neutral bloodheat in Admiral Dewey's heart. The purpose of Britain he took for granted; the honor of a British officer he would not question; the fact that Britain was mistress of the seas was, to him, as an American, a comfort, not a fear. But in Germany and Germany's real purposes in the Pacific he had no faith whatever."

"All I ask of you is that you keep your throne." So says Bill to Tino. And it looks as if Tino will find it a rather difficult matter after all.

2,000,000 Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,600,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are as well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Modern Beacon Fires

THE old beacon fires were the great advertising mediums of their age.

Though they could not advertise merchandise, they advertised the things of most vital interest to the people.

Placed on the summits of high hills, bearing a message to thousands of "readers," they were prototypes of those modern fires of Twentieth Century commerce—the "beacon" fires of Newspaper Advertising.

The advertisements appearing in the newspapers to-day are shining lights in the world of commerce, flashing out news and information to a waiting world.

When the modern manufacturer lights the Beacon Fires of Newspaper Advertising he places his message before the people in a way that will impart knowledge, beget appreciation and win preference for his goods.

Who can fail to see any day the gleaming messages of "Magic Baking Powder," "Standard Ideal Ware," "Sunlight Soap," "Gillette Safety Razors," "Penman's Underwear," "Infants' Delight Soap," and many others?

To the Manufacturers of Canada

Each day sees more articles given publicity in the newspapers. Are your products and your brand still in the valley of obscurity, or are they blazoned forth by the beacon fires of advertising on the high hill of public favor?

If you are doing a local business talk over your advertising problems with the Advertising Department of this newspaper.

If you are doing a provincial or national business it would be well for you to have the counsel and assistance of a good advertising agency. A list of these will be furnished, without cost or obligation, by the Secretary of Canadian Press Association, Room 303, Lunenburg Building, Toronto.
