CHIEF OF VANCOUVER POLICE IS SHOT DEAD

CRAZY NEGRO BATTLES WITH CITY POLICE FOR THREE HOURS—THREE DEATHS

KILLED CHIEF OF POLICE IN VANCOUVER

Insane Negro Barricaded Himself in House—Held Police at Bay for Three Hours—Many Wounded.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, March 21.—A drug crazed negro named Robert Tate refused to pay his rent in Georgia Street and on the Police being called in, he barricaded himself in the house. He fought a three-hour battle with the city police and refused to surrender. The fight only ceased when he blew the top of his head off with a shot gun charge.

The chief of the Vancouver city police, Mr. Malcolm B. McLennan, a man named George Robb and a small boy who was passing on the street were killed by the madman in his fusillade. The chief received the full charge of a shot gun on the side of the head and was killed instantly. He lay where he fell for two whole hours, while the battle raged. No one could approach him without danger of a similar fate. The house was riddled with shots. Police constable John Cameron and the owner of the premises, named King, are both in the hospital, having been shot by the negro. The flying glass from the breaking windows also injured Police Constable Johnston and Detective Russell. A woman of the under world named Frankie Russell was found in the room with the dead body of Tate, after the fight was over, and is held by the police on a charge of murder. Both the negro and the woman have police records. Two revolvers, a rifle and a shot gun were found in the room. The funeral of the dead chief will be held on Friday.

NEW FRENCH CABINET

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, March 22.—The new French cabinet is one of the strongest ever selected. Premier Ribot is believed to have acted very wisely in his selection of colleagues. On his accession to office, Premier Ribot delivered a stirring and optimistic statement and declared that France will fight to the end. It was stated that the necessities of life will be supplied to Switzerland by the French and every endeavor will be made to "keep the wolf away from the Swiss door."

FRENCH FRONT

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, March 22.—Ten additional villages have been occupied by the French forces in their further progress to the north and northeast of Soissons and to the left of the Laon road.

INVESTIGATING THE P. G. E. AFFAIRS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Victoria, March 22.—The parliamentary committee which is speeding up the Pacific Great Eastern affairs has been granted full powers. Mr. D'Arcy Tate, one of the directors, has already been closely examined. A rigorous examination was made by S. S. Taylor. Mr. Tate told the committee that the P. G. E. cannot meet the defaulted interest payment at present. The firm of Foley, Welch & Stewart are in a similar plight. It is expected that the contractors may appeal for clemency under the terms of the moratorium.

VOLUNTARY ENLISTMENT FOR CANADA'S MANHOOD

The voluntary enlistment of 50,000 men in the militia forces of Canada, to release a like number of overseas troops for active service, is the general plan of the military authorities to increase Canada's fighting force in France and at the same time provide an adequate force for purposes of home defence. The details of the plan, which have been maturing for some weeks past, were announced by Sir Edward Kemp, Minister of Militia, who emphasized the fact that the scheme does not involve conscription in any form.

The working out of the details of the home defence proposals will be left largely to Col. C. Newburn, of Hamilton, who has been given the rank of major-general and the officers of the Headquarters Staff.

During March staffs will be organized, and the men who enlist in April will be trained two evenings and one afternoon a week. They will receive 50 cents every time they parade. In May the home guard forces will be sent to camp for the summer. They will receive $1 a day, or ten cents less than members of the overseas forces, while the separation allowance for married men will be $18 a month, or $2 a month less than in the case of men who join the expeditionary force.

Sir Edward Kemp states that it had been decided to confine the enlistments to men between the ages of 18 and 45, because older men cannot stand the strain of military training. Both infantry and artillery forces will be raised and the old militia names of regiments will be adhered to. In the case of men engaged in the making of munitions, local tribunals will be established to decide whether or not they should be permitted to enlist.

Authority to raise the home defence force is not derived from the Militia Act, but the power is taken by the government in a special order-in-council under the authority granted by the War Measures Act.

THE UNITED STATES AND GERMANY

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, March 22.—President Wilson has called Congress into extra session for April 2nd. It is said here that it has been decided to meet Germany's affronts on the high seas with sweeping action.

New York, March 22.—The Union League of New York demands instant action on the part of President Wilson. Hughes, Roosevelt and the newspapers all join in the national cry for war with Germany at once. Public feeling is running very high at the dilatory tactics of the government. The national pride has been hurt at the continued flouting by Germany of the United States' warnings, and dissatisfaction is being voiced because of the lack of action on the part of the government.

YUKON ELECTIONS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Dawson, March 22.—The elections here have resulted in the return of six Liberals and four Conservatives to the House, thus following the example set by the other provinces. The successful Liberals are Messrs. Max Landreville, Wm. O'Brien, Max Salter, Wm. Lowden, Jas. Wilson and Willard Phelps. The Conservatives are Austin Fraser, John Turner, Allan McMillan and Chas. Johnston.

THE FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

The regular meeting of the Fortnightly Club was held last night, when Mr. G. M. Hanson, the United States consul, gave a very interesting address on some of his experiences received when in the Far East. Mr. Hanson described the various peoples he had been among and their customs and religions. Mr. Hanson had a number of curios of a very interesting nature, which he allowed the meeting to examine. Among these was a bolo, the use of which is now forbidden. It is of too deadly a nature even for heathen people to tolerate. The same thing with which the bolo is drawn from its scabbard cuts the desired object.

Mr. Hanson was heartily thanked for his splendid address. Thereafter refreshments were served by the ladies of the club and a very pleasant social evening was spent. The musical part of the programme consisted of a pianoforte duet by the Misses Stephens and a chorus by the high school Glee Club, which was much appreciated.

RUSSIANS NOT THROUGH WITH THE CZAR YET

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, March 22.—It is reported that the new Russian Provisional Government have ordered the Czar and the Czarina to be deprived of their liberty and that they be brought back to Tsarkoe Selo. Tsarkoe Selo lies to the west of Petrograd and is where the Czar in peace times spent the most of his days. The eventual fate of the Czar is doubtful.

TERRACE NOTES

The good people of Terrace are enjoying fine spring weather and invite the people of Prince Rupert to come to Terrace this summer, to the garden spot of B. C. for the vacation.

St. Patrick's Day was celebrated by a dance in the Progress Hall. A goodly number tripped about on the "light fantastic toe." Many quaint attires were displayed, each alluding to the Emerald Isle. A very happy and merry time was spent. The Terrace orchestra rendered selections during the course of the evening. "St. Patrick's Day" and "The Wearin' O' The Green" were very much enjoyed. The dance music was furnished by Mrs. Thos. Walsh, with her usual first class technique.

Charles Harrison, from Lakelse Hatchery, when in town lately reported that he has four and a half million fine young salmon all ready to take to the running water.

The work on the new sawmill is to begin this week at Copper City. The plans are all ready and it is expected to be in running order very soon. Mr. Frank Phiscator has returned from the south after arranging quite a lot of business regarding supplies of machinery.

A meeting will be held regarding the Canadian Patriotic Fund in the Progress Hall, Terrace, on March 24th, at 8 p. m.

Mr. A. McKinnon, after spending the winter in Terrace, has returned to his home in Rosswood. Mr. Joseph Belway, who was in town on a visit has also returned to Rosswood.

NOTICE

Assistant Forest Rangers.
An examination for assistant Forest Rangers will be held at 9 a. m. on March 28th, in the Court House, Prince Rupert. Mr. John Lafon, assistant forester, Victoria, will conduct the examination.

FRANK MOBLEY M.P.P., ADDRESSES THE HOUSE

In telling about Atlin, his constituency, Mr. Frank Mobley made a very neat speech last week in the Provincial Parliament. In the debate on the address a great deal had been said about the illimitable resources of British Columbia, and while he was not complaining, he suggested that other honorable members had not been as observant of the resources of the northern country as might have been those who were familiar with what it could produce. Mr. Mobley disclaimed any intention of becoming an advertising medium, even for the northern country, but he did think that the floor of the house was the proper medium through which to make members of other constituencies familiar with all other parts of British Columbia.

It might be thought by some honorable gentlemen that Atlin existed in name only, but he could show them, as he believed, one of the first and foremost of all the districts in this province, once it is placed in its right rating. At least if they were to peruse the first bulletin on mineral production, they ought to become convinced that Atlin is one of the foremost mineral producing districts. Mr. Mobley had only to quote that report to show them that the Atlin district produced in 1916 25 million pounds of copper, which was 40 per cent of the total production of British Columbia for that period.

In addition to this there were prospects of very much more, prospects which promised very large returns. Besides this, there were many properties yet undeveloped at all, which may yet disclose themselves as large producers.

Mr. Mobley also pointed out that while the northern part of his constituency was much retarded in the way of access, thus forcing large areas to remain unproductive, he was glad to see that the government was proposing to grant relief, under the Mineral Act, in permitting access to proved mineral claims and he was looking forward with much pleasure to successful results accruing from those able efforts of the new minister of mines.

Atlin Scenery.

Reference had been made by a previous speaker, who regarded the scenery of the capital city as an asset, and Mr. Mobley was able to say somewhat of the north country aspect. Mr. Mobley drew attention of the House to the immense quantity of leased property which was being held up on the coast, producing nothing, and that relief by way of agricultural settlement would have to be very carefully enacted in order that it should meet the requirements of the case.

Inaccessibility.

Mr. Mobley pointed out that his constituency suffered much from its inaccessibility; its area was extremely large and the amount appropriated to it in the past had been extremely small so that not much practical result had followed the political expenditure of what had been spent in the district. It would be a long time before assistance of any profit could be extended to the settlers in the agricultural areas in the interior. And there were agricultural areas, as on the Naas river. Therefore he welcomed that community settlement was to be set in motion whereby these people could be got together and enabled to become of some service to themselves and to the state.

The Women's Vote.

In closing, Mr. Mobley said: "I am glad to welcome the women to

GERMANS ARE RETREATING TO VICTORY

Berlin Reports Another Master Stroke Has Been Achieved By Hindenburg—Serious Riots in Berlin.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Berlin, March 22.—Germany is retreating to victory because her armies are taking their places on new positions long ago and carefully prepared. This is another master stroke achieved by Hindenburg's genius, and a great offensive is arranged for the spring. The Allies' plans are thus all upset. They were prepared to commence their offensive on the Somme and now will have to make all their preparations over again on another ground chosen by the German staff.

Riots in Berlin.

Amsterdam, March 22.—The rioting in Berlin has acquired so serious an aspect that the presence of the troops was necessary in order to quell the disturbances.

British Advances.

London, March 22.—Despite the cold weather and the severe gales with snow and sleet, the British troops continue their victorious advance against the retreating Germans. It is believed that the present retirement of the Germans from their positions on the Somme is the precursor of the greatest effort Germany has yet made in the West. It is believed that this counter stroke on the part of the enemy cannot now be long delayed. The pursuit is now in the hands of the cavalry. While of no use in the trenches, the army mounts have been kept in readiness just for such an eventuality as this, within easy reach. It is thought that the great retreat was a scheme, a favorite one with the Germans, to tempt the British armies into a reckless pursuit, and then when their lines were all disorganized, to turn upon them and by a sudden blow, break through to Paris. This ruse has failed completely, as the cavalry can be very quickly withdrawn should a counter offensive begin.

the ranks of our voters. It was ably said by a woman in the north that it was up to the women to do the cleaning about the homes and it would be up to them now that they were about to get the vote, to clean up the party politics of the province. It behooves this or any other government to see that their policies are clean and kept clean or else I assure them that the women are going to clean them up."

RUSSIA'S CONQUEST

To grasp the full significance of Russia's conquest of herself, the greatest victory in her history, it is worth while recalling the events which led to the epochal convulsion of the last few days. The Russian Parliament, consisting of the Duma, or Lower House, and the Council of the Empire, was the product of the revolutionary disturbances which followed the war with Japan. An elective body, it was permitted to enjoy only the shadow of authority. The group of reactionaries, or apostles of despotism, who surrounded the Czar and who up to the recent startling developments completely dominated him, took good care to retain the substance. Thus parliament was little better than a debating society. It had nothing to say in the administration of the army and navy or in matters of policy. The control of legislation was in the hands of ministers who were not responsible to it. It had partial control of the budget, it is true, but the procedure made its authority in that respect more apparent than real. Nevertheless, its membership always included a large number of very able men of progressive ideas, and during the last few years the proportion of these has steadily increased. These men, notably M. Rodzianko, President of the Duma, and Prof. Paul Miliukoff, a prominent Liberal leader, long have conducted a vigorous battle with the reactionaries for the extension of the parliamentary body's powers and for the institution of reforms which they saw were vital to the preservation of the Empire.

The Romanoff dynasty has not been dethroned, but will reign henceforth in a different atmosphere. The grand Duke Michael, the regent, is a strong man of progressive ideas. But behind the whole movement towers the grim, majestic figure of the Grand Duke Nicholas. Was he the real author of the revolution? Only an extraordinarily powerful influence could have wrought such a striking change in so short a time. Nobody else could have delivered to the Duma leaders the entire Russian army. Over two years ago the Grand Duke was reported to have warned the Czar that if he made any move in the direction of a separate peace he would hurl him from the throne. The Grand Duke Nicholas was born and trained an absolutist, but he is first and foremost a great Russian, and once he realized the failure of absolutism to cope with a critical situation he would not hesitate to abandon his old-time theories. A Petrograd dispatch says he will probably resume supreme command of the Russian armies. If that be correct it may be safely assumed that he supported, if he did not inspire, the movement which has finally and irrevocably cut the connection between Potsdam and Petrograd. Thus people and army stand together. And behind both is a new government composed of men of enlightened views and liberal ideas who will give them the efficient support their heroism and sacrifices deserve. In three days Russia has advanced a century.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Hohenzollerns will spend the next few days hoping against hope that the revolution in Russia will be productive of something favorable to the Germanic cause. They cannot find it in the elimination of the reactionaries of Petrograd. It is not improbable that von Hindenburg will try to take advantage of the situation by renewing his offensive on the eastern front.

The weekly record of Germany's unrestricted submarine campaign is becoming smaller and smaller. It is clear that the British navy is rapidly reducing the enemy's star weapon to relative impotence. It will soon be time for the Kaiser and his satellites to divert the attention of the German public to some new distraction.

It is not surprising that the principal military leaders in Russia support the revolution. Their reputations and lives, as well as the fate of their armies, depend upon the loyalty and efficient administration of the government behind them. They are the first to pay the penalty for treachery and incompetence at Petrograd. Their prospects therefore are vastly improved when they know that their efforts at the front are reinforced by the best brains and ability the country possesses in the government.

Russia is progressing. The custom in that great country in the past was to go out and assassinate the Czar when a change in methods of government was considered necessary. Now thorough and complete revolution has been effected simply by kicking the Czar off the throne and imprisoning his ministers. Russia seems to be ripe for government for and by the people.

Internal Bathing's Rapid Growth

It is but natural to expect that a relief from Constipation and the many ills which it causes, which is so effectual and so natural as Internal Bathing, should quickly make many converts.
But its general use has increased so tremendously in the past few years as to suggest other reasons, and these are found in the statement of users that they feel as if "made over new" the morning after an Internal Bath.
The elimination of the pernicious and poisonous waste which is ever present in the lower intestine gives Nature a chance to work unhampered. And one arises in the morning clear-headed, able, bright, confident and eager for the day's duties.
Mr. F. E. Smith writes:—
"Dear Doctor,—Your 'Cascade' made a new man of me at the age of 49. I persuaded my wife to use the treatment also, and today she has better health than ever before. Since the use of the 'Cascade' she sleeps better and can walk for hours without fatigue. Fainting spells have become a condition of the past; can eat anything on the bill of fare and drink all beverages. Does not take cold when exposed; hot weather does not cause oppression."
The "J. E. L. Cascade," the most efficient device for Internal Bathing, is being shown and explained in detail by Cyril H. Ross, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th Street, Prince Rupert. Ask for free booklet, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient." If you prefer, write to Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, 163 College Street, Toronto, for same.

THE RACE COURSE

Racing commenced last night at the Auditorium at 10 p.m. No odds were to be got and the best that could be obtained was even money on the field. The distance was one mile and it was a dandy good race from start to finish. The starters were Dave Cavalier, Douglas Storing, and Chas. Stew. are. Cavalier took the lead and kept it until about the twelfth or fourteenth lap, when Stewart got away in front. In about the 18th lap, Storing also passed Cavalier, or at least it looked that way. It was a very close finish, as a very few feet separated the three at the end.

The judges were Dave Ross and Fred Wormings and the time-keepers, Harry Smart and Bill Blyth. The time for the mile was 3 minutes and 44 seconds.
There was a big crowd out to witness this spring event and all enjoyed themselves.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

At the Westholme last night was shown the first episode of "The Shielding Shadow," one of the most mysterious photoplays ever screened. This first episode will be repeated tonight at the second house. The first episode augurs well for the remainder of the piece. All the necessary requisites for a thriller are there. First there are two suitors for the hand of a fair lady, whose father is on the brink of financial ruin; there is a burning ship at sea with its attendant horror; there is a forged receipt, and when two men meet in deadly combat with nature's weapons, there is the usual result. What will happen next? is what those who witnessed the show last night are asking this morning. In addition, there is a feature programme tonight, which will be well worth seeing. The orchestra is up to its usual high standard and adds greatly to the enjoyment of the evening.

STEWART NOTES

The Riverside group at Seven-mile, on the Salmon river, has been acquired by Mr. R. W. Martin and Dr. C. D. Carter, of Seattle. A contract has been let to Dan Linderberg, the former owner, to drive a hundred feet and the vein averages four feet in width and carries values from $30 to $70 in gold, silver and lead. This is a new start entirely and there are good prospects, but the ground is deep.

The Fitzgerald Brothers are freighting supplies by dog team to their molybdenite claim on the Naas side of the Bear River pass. They expect to spend several months in the proving and developing of the lead.

Dan Linderberg has bonded his Fish Creek claims to Seattle interests.

The Buch properties have been taken over by parties interested it is said, in the Rocher de Boule mountain on the Skeena, and development work has been started by Pat Daly.

J. Nesbit and A. Archie have bonded their copper claims on Bear river for $50,000. Preparations are being made to start development work shortly.

Frank Martin arrived to repair the broken span of the Bear river bridge which collapsed during the floods of last summer, which were caused by the late melting of the snow. The snowfall this year was the severest known in sixteen years.

Willoughby and partner returned from a trip to Willoughby Creek on the Naas. They expect to return during the summer and continue their investigations of the place, deposits there.

Mr. Geo. Moffat, superintendent of the Granby Company's operations on Gibson Island, is in town.
