

LENS IS NEXT TOWN TO FALL TO BRITISH

BRITISH PATROLS ENTER CITY -- FURTHER PROGRESS MADE NEAR ST. QUENTIN

PROGRESS IS BEING MADE BY THE BRITISH

Patrols of General Haig's Army Entered Lens Yesterday—Further Progress at St. Quentin.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 16.—At both Lens and St. Quentin, at either end of the front on which the British have been pressing back the Germans, the two objectives are now almost within the grasp of the advancing forces. Smashing blows have been given by the British forces against the German positions to the north and south of Lens, which have been of great effect. The suburban towns of Lievin and Cite St. Pierre are in the possession of the British, and early yesterday morning, British patrols entered the town itself.

German Offensive.

The enemy attempted an offensive near the village of Lasigney. A counter attack was made by the British and the Germans were driven clear through the village and beyond, leaving two hundred prisoners behind. The British gunfire was amazing in its accuracy, and the German troops crumpled up before the intensity of the British fire. The Germans left over fifteen hundred dead behind in this one small action. Among the captured, were several German officers, who stated that the break up of the offensive was due to insubordination among the troops under their command.

St. Quentin.

The French armies are holding fast to the south of St. Quentin, despite repeated and desperate attacks from the enemy. The British have captured Fayet, a mile to the northwest of St. Quentin and have driven the Germans back to within a few hundred yards of the city itself on the north. To the northwest the British have captured the village of Gricourt, and have taken over four hundred prisoners in the fighting around this position. Violent fighting is taking place along the whole line from Lens to St. Quentin and the Allies have everywhere either made gains or repulsed the German counter attacks. Into Lens, heavy explosive shells are reported being rained into this chief mining centre of northern France.

Vimy Ridge.

To the south of Lens and north of the river Scarpe, General Haig's troops continue to plunge forward and have already reached several miles to the east of Vimy ridge. The Germans have put up a very strong resistance at this point, but have been unable to withstand the British attacks.

Mesopotamia.

The Turks have sustained another very severe defeat at the hands of the British in Mesopotamia. Very heavy losses have been inflicted upon the Turks. They have been driven from very strong positions about thirty-five miles to the north of Baghdad.

Roumania's Fighting Monarch.

This photograph shows King Ferdinand of Roumania leaving the headquarters of one of his officers commanding in the field. The King has been with his troops since the very first and has continually risked his life. Note the steel trench hat, similar to the private soldiers', that he is wearing.

SOCIALISTS WANT A SEPARATE PEACE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Stockholm, April 16.—The Russian and German Socialists want peace. The German radicals are supporting the movement for a Socialist peace congress to be held in Stockholm. The British Socialists have flatly refused to take part in this congress. The Russian leader wants a universal peace. If he finds that this is unattainable, he will bend all his energies towards a separate peace between Germany and Russia.

Petrograd, April 16.—The pacifists here have been hooted down. At a congress of the workmen and soldiers in Petrograd the vigorous prosecution of the war was very strongly advocated.

ANYOX BASKETBALL GAME

A very slim crowd attended the match scheduled for Thursday evening in Recreation Hall, between the Cubs and the Giants, both local teams. It is worthy of mention, however, that what they lacked in numbers they made up in enthusiasm.

Both teams appeared early on the floor and the preliminary practice showed them to be in good shape, though one or two of the players could have done better by taking advantage of the practice nights since the last game.

Very little "inside ball" is played by either team though they both have developed wonderfully since the first attempt was made to organize. Only three or four of the members have ever played the game before and it is due to their knowledge of the game that any attempt whatever is made at team play. Individually, all ten of the players gave a performance that was worth the price of admission. Collectively, the game was a succession of Rugby rushes and penalty throws—but it was fine to watch.

The final score was Cubs 12, Giants 9.

SHIPPING BOARD OF THE UNITED STATES

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, April 16.—The Board of Shipping will form a corporation with fifty million dollars capital to build and operate a vast fleet of wooden cargo ships in order to neutralise the chance of success of the German submarine campaign. If necessary, the stock of the corporation will be increased to two hundred and twenty-five millions. Millions of private capital have already been offered for the construction of ships, which it is proposed to build upon standardised plans.

German Shipping.

Seven hundred thousand tons of German shipping have been taken over by the government with the declaration of war. These will undoubtedly be put under the corporation as well as the Austrian ships now in the custody of the United States. It seems to be the general opinion that the German and Austrian owners will be paid for the use of their ships during the war, and eventually for the ships themselves, should they be lost or retained.

STEAMSHIP FREIGHTS HAVE BEEN RAISED

It has been intimated by the steamship companies operating on this coast that becoming effective yesterday, the 15th, a new scale of freight rates will be brought into operation. Of course the whole tendency of the new scale is upward. With prices everywhere else soaring, nothing else could be expected. Fruits and vegetables that used to take $5 per ton to bring them from the south, will now be charged at $7. The extra freight on eggs will put the price of these necessities up at least two cents per dozen. And so on, covering nearly everything that a community is likely to require. The merry game goes on, and the high cost of living goes higher.

For the poor man, the matter is getting serious. It cannot be said that in this locality, wages, nor yet salaries, have shown any particular inclination to keep up with the always increasing cost of even bare subsistence.

Where and when this continuous rise in prices is going to end, the people can only "wait and see."

THE FOOD SCARCITY IN GREAT BRITAIN

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 16.—An appeal has been issued to the agriculturalists in Great Britain by Premier Lloyd George. He says that Britain may have to feed her army and navy as well as her civilian population on home-grown food stuffs, and emphasized the necessity for the greatest possible amount of food stuffs being raised by the people in every manner possible.

THE GOVERNMENT AND THE ELECTION

Ottawa, April 16.—The talk at the capital is that the Borden Government doesn't want an election particularly, but is resigned to have one come. It realizes that to ask for further extension would be crowding the mourners. The Borden Government has been thinking more or less of a general election ever since the war started. In 1914 it had the pamphlets all ready—Borden backs Britain, and a few touches like that—but was scared off the nest by the money magnates who said they would brook no such thing at a time so perilous.

The Government held its breath but did not change its mind. It was still of the opinion that a general election was what was needed in their business and the Hon. Rob Rogers went so far as to discover the "voice of thunder" with which the people were demanding it. However, it was only stage thunder and the election did not come off, though the Government made special preparations for it in the shape of a Votes for Soldiers Act which was to take care of the army at home and abroad.

One remembers with what ardor Premier Borden at that time championed the votes for soldiers bill, which, so he said, was to enable the men who fought for Canada to exercise the second highest privilege of his citizenship—namely, to vote for it. Premier Borden calculated that when the soldiers voted for Canada they would vote for the Borden Government and, under that impression, ballots were printed and sent across the ocean to the High Commissioner in London, in whose office they remain stacked today.

It was no surprise when Premier Borden, at the last session of Parliament, recanted all he had said about votes for soldiers. He took the ground that votes for soldiers were impossible because the soldiers were scattered all over the map and that, besides, it was an impertinence to ask

CHINA'S ATTITUDE IN THE EUROPEAN WAR

(Special to The Daily News.)

Pekin, April 16.—Provincial and military governors are arriving in Pekin in response to a call by the Chinese cabinet for a military conference, which begins soon, to decide China's attitude towards the European war. The Chinese parliament apparently favors joining the United States, while the cabinet leaders are in favor of joining in with the Entente Allies.

VICTORIA DAY CELEBRATIONS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Vancouver, April 16.—It is reported here that Mayor McBeath plans to get a detachment from the American army to help the city to celebrate the great Queen's birthday on March 24. This invitation will be fully in order on account of the republic having entered the war.

them to intermit their duty of killing Germans for anything so trivial comparatively as a general election. Plainly something had happened to change Premier Borden's mind. Not to make a long story of it the things that had happened and which had come to the soldiers' ears and had stuck in their crops were these: Sir Sam Hughes, Lieutenant Colonel John Wesley Allison, Paper Shoes, Foundered Horses, Profitsteering, Camp Borden, Ross Rifle, High Cost of Living for Soldiers' Families at Home, Separation Allowances and Assigned Pay Soaked up by the Government's friends, the Cold Storage Kings, and other things too numerous to mention.

In short, Premier Borden began to suspect that the soldier vote was "agin" him, and when the British Columbia soldiers put the boots to the Bowser outfit as soon as they got the chance, Premier Borden was confirmed in his suspicion. Premier Borden may be a little thick, but he doesn't need more than one house to fall on him before he tumbles. Besides, the British Government told him it would be a hard matter to take the soldiers vote anyway, and the Premier was very glad to agree with them.

So in 1916 the Borden Government was in a chastened frame of mind—so chastened that it forgot all its plots for a general election and willingly took what the people gave them—namely, an extension to October, 1917. They took it because it was all they could get. They knew it was their last chance. Some suggestion was (Continued on page three.)

LIEUT. R. A. STALKER KILLED AT THE FRONT

Word has been received in town that Lieut. R. A. Stalker has made the supreme sacrifice in his country's cause. Lieut. Stalker was very well known in Prince Rupert, especially among the business community, where he had hosts of friends who will be grieved to hear of his death. Lieut. Stalker, it will be remembered, was here last winter recruiting for the 102nd. Full particulars have not yet been received regarding our late townsman's end. The sympathy of the community will be extended to Lieut. Stalker's relatives, Mrs. and the Misses Kenney, and for his orphaned children, in their great loss.

FOUR DOG TEAMS IN ANNUAL RACE

Nome, Alaska, April 9.—The tenth annual all-Alaska sweepstakes dog team race over a course of 412 miles, started this morning at 9 o'clock with four teams entered. The Down-Delezen team, driven by Fay Delezen, was off first, and was the first to reach Solomon, covering the 32 miles in three hours and 42 minutes. Leonard Sepalla, Paul Kjegsted and Anderson were the other starters in the order named. Sepalla was the second to arrive in Solomon and Anderson third. The weather here at the start of the race was clear, with the trails in first-class condition. When the teams arrived at Solomon there was a high wind blowing.

The race is run from Nome to Candler and return.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight at the Westholme, the feature of the photoplay to be screened is Fannie Ward, whom Rupert theatregoers will remember as appearing with such great credit in "The Cheat" some little time ago. In this great play entitled "Witchcraft" she is seen at her best. It is a play of great power and of perfect construction. This artist in others plays created a great sensation when she was "discovered" and is one of the cleverest actresses in film. The interest of the audience is held from start to finish and this play will prove exceedingly popular here, as it has done elsewhere.

THE GREAT BATTLE

The opinion has been expressed in many quarters that the fighting at present going on on the Western front is likely to develop into the last great big battle of this war. The military critics at home, however, do not find that their prognostications in every case are fulfilled. It may be, that the fighting in the west will be continued for quite some time further. The German armies are putting up a desperate resistance, and the German staff must realize that once they are forced back from what has been called the "Hindenburg line" a further and greater retreat lies ahead of them. The country to the east of where they are now standing does not lend itself easily to defence and the advantages would be all with the attackers. That the Allies will take full use of all their advantages is a sure thing, and before long it may be that the German troops will be forced to evacuate a great part of France and Belgium. The line of the Meuse is spoken of as the only possible stopping place for them should they find it necessary to make a further retreat. They will doubtless devastate the country to make the advance of the Allies difficult as possible, in a similar manner to what they did on their previous retreat. The destruction caused then was very thorough.

From orders found on the bodies of dead Germans, it is found that the idea of rendering the countryside uninhabitable was no sudden thought on the part of the enemy, but was premeditated for some considerable time. The wanton destruction would have been great, too, but for the swiftness of the Allied advance.

According to the latest advice, reinforcements for the Hindenburg line have been sent for and are on their way. One dispatch says that the full reserves of the German army are about to be hurled against the Allies on the west in one supreme effort to stem the tide of the victorious advance of the British and French. Such action may delay, but it cannot prevent the gradual and complete ejection of the invaders from the occupied territories. The Allies have proved that no matter how strong and impregnable the Germans may consider they have made any particular defences their superiority of men and guns can batter them to pieces. The speed and accuracy of the fire of the Allied artillery is the despair of the German. His gunners are outclassed as his guns are outnumbered. Now that the enemy is on the move the Allies will see to it that he is kept moving, so far as everything they can do to make this certain is concerned. Once the scene of the fighting is removed across the Rhine and into German territory, the Germans will have learned the true and real meaning of war. The actual invasion of German soil would be one of the first things to compel them to sue for peace at any price. Their plans for the future development of their own country would not permit of them carrying out such acts of wanton vandalism as they perpetrated in France.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

It is estimated that during the coming summer Great Britain will have 5,000,000 men in her armies overseas and that she will be prepared to maintain this strength by a system of reinforcements that has been perfected. It would be idle to speculate on how this great force is distributed, but its size is warrant that, with the aid of the other Allied armies, operations in every theatre of the war can be pushed to a definite conclusion.

On the sea this summer Britain will be 40 per cent stronger than at the outbreak of war in capital ships, upon which relative naval strength is based. What additions in dreadnoughts have been made to the enemy's fleet are unknown. Britain is every day bettering her facilities for combating the submarine menace. Even now German writers are beginning to doubt the efficacy of this campaign and to prepare public opinion in their country to seek elsewhere for a decision against the arch-enemy, Britain.

Canadian troops have taken part in their most important operation in the war and have won a notable success. Up to date in their part of the offensive every objective has been carried and

The number of prisoners which has fallen to General Byng's command is upwards of 3,000. It is not yet known what divisions were in action, but it will probably be found that units from all four participated. The reliance placed upon the troops from the Dominion is indicated by the task set them, namely, the capture of Vimy Ridge with its intricate network of defences which the Germans believed impregnable.

There are very large German interests in Brazil and a number of enemy ships interned there have been seized. What effect that country's entry into the war will have on the economic situation can only be conjectured. In the event of Britain being able to supply the shipping it is possible that a greater supply of foodstuffs can be secured. For Brazil could use her light cruisers for conveying merchant vessels to Europe. Her action is unlikely to influence other South American states. Argentine will probably remain neutral.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN TO RETURN IN MAY

Winnipeg, April 13.—The Ottawa correspondent of the Winnipeg Telegram says:

Sir Robert Borden will not be in attendance when parliament meets next week nor will he probably return until some time in May.

As parliament adjourned to permit the premier's attendance at the imperial conference, it is probable that the question of a further adjournment will be discussed when the house meets. An adjournment for another month would permit of the premier completing his work in England and preparing the necessary legislation for parliament. There have been no steps taken to secure another adjournment, but it is believed here that some such action is contemplated.

Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every week—all this winter!

No people under the Allied flag are so well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was dreadful. I suffered from pain in the back and kidney disease."

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no headaches, no palpitation, no heart trouble, no constipation, no pain or kidney trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-tives" that gave me back my health."

made that they would extend their term indefinitely by using their majority in the House and the Senate and cutting out the consent of the British Parliament, but this assault on the British North America Act was too raw to get away with and was dropped.

What helped to take the pep out of the Borden Government was the fatal results in the provinces which have held general elections since just before the war started. The first blow was Manitoba, which turned the putrid Roblin Government out and converted a Conservative majority of five into a Liberal majority of thirty-nine. This was in July, 1914, and the smell of the Roblin crowd left behind them has not been laid yet. The next blow was Prince Edward Island, which reduced a Conservative majority of twenty-six to four. That election took place in September, 1915, and was enough to hold the Borden Government for that year.

The year 1916 was a horrible one for the Borden Government—it got three wallops in rapid succession. Quebec had a general election which increased its Liberal majority in the Legislature from forty-five to sixty-nine. Nova Scotia followed suit and showed its confidence in a Liberal Government which had been in the saddle for thirty-five years by raising its majority from sixteen to twenty-one. These blows were probably expected, but when British Columbia took the rotten Bowser-McBride crowd in hand and turned a Conservative majority of thirty-six into a Liberal one of twenty-seven, the Borden Government felt that the end was in sight. At any rate that was all they wanted for 1916.

Early in 1917 came perhaps the worst fiasco of all. New Brunswick, which had a Conservative government boasting a majority of forty-three and about as many scandals, threw the scandals out with such force that a landslide took place. The Liberal Government in that fortunate province now has a majority of six and New Brunswick goes on Premier Borden's black list. The victory, under Providence, is largely due to the moral force and fighting quality of Frank Carvell, M. P., who is as vigorous a crusader in his own province as he is at Ottawa. New Brunswick is the blow that almost killed father. It is the final proof to Premier Borden and his colleagues that the majority they expected in the Maritime Provinces has gone glimmering.

Thus Premier Borden, who had at his back when he came into office five provinces with Conservative administrations, now has only two. Evidently the rapids are near and the daylight's past. Add to this the fact that Conservative papers in the Northwest are beginning to advertise their independence and one understands why Premier Borden has that haunted look.

Meanwhile the Government is getting ready to meet its fate with a good front. To do this a little window-dressing has to be done. The first effort along this line was firing Sir Sam—after he had done his worst. The next thing was the registration cards—twenty-four questions instead of a straight answer to the volunteer problem. The next thing was the application of a dehorned Militia Act to coax fifty thousand cautious souls into a Home Guard, guaranteed to conflict with nothing more hostile than the Esquimaux or the hyphenated Americans—not conscription, you know, but a safe substitute.

The next thing was to cancel the Ross rifle contract and expropriate the factory, thus throwing two thousand men out of employment, after they had been kept working two years and a half on a rifle the British authorities refused to make use of on the battlefield. Incidentally some seven or eight million dollars was wasted in this way before the government made up its mind to stop the expense at a time chosen with a view to doing the least harm to the shareholders and making the most of it as a campaign argument. The Ross rifle, reported against, tinkered with, reported against again, but still thrust on our soldiers until the British generals absolutely took it out of their hands and substituted the Lee-Enfield—is one of the most shameful of many stains on the Borden Government.

Ted (Kid) Lewis, of England, welter-weight champion of the world, who has given his services gratis to the Canadian military authorities, and will appear in bouts throughout Canada.

The last bit of window-dressing is perhaps the boldest—after waiting thirty-two months, Postmaster General Blondin volunteers for overseas service. But the Government will not take advantage of his impulsiveness. He is not to be sent overseas where the bullets are flying and where the valiant Mr. Blondin might very well be shot full of the same holes he wished for the Union Jack. No, indeed, Mr. Blondin will stay at home and raise a Quebec regiment. Mr. Blondin's is a more important duty than fighting the Germans. The Borden Government intends to use him as a guarantee of good faith—a converted Nationalist. When the general election comes on Mr. Blondin will probably stump Ontario as Exhibit A.—H. F. Gadsby.

Bathe Internally and Keep Well!

Nature has mightily equipped us all, old and young, to resist disease—but she requires that we give her a chance.

We give her the chance if we permit the Lower Intestine to be more or less clogged with accumulated waste. Yet that is a universal condition today, as is proven by the number of laxative drugs that are consumed.

You can help Nature in Nature's most effectual way by Internal Bathing, and in an easy, non-habit-forming way keep the Intestine as sweet and clean as Nature demands it to be for perfect health and surer defence against contagion. Over half a million keen, bright, healthy people testify to its result.

Mrs. C. G. M. (name on request) of Strathroy, Ont., writes—

I am pleased to have this opportunity of testifying to the merits of the J. B. L. Cascade. I have been using it now for a year with satisfactory results. I am an old woman, but my health is so improved that I have a renewed lease of life. You are at liberty to give my address to anyone privately who may desire to write to me regarding the Cascade.

Just call on Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th Street, Prince Rupert, and request free booklet, "Why Man of Today Is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient." The most efficient device for Internal Bathing, The "J. B. L. Cascade" will also be shown and explained to you if you so desire. If you prefer, write for Booklet to Dr. Chas. A. In the Highest Degree Profitable

Some men figure that as the mercury climbs up sales will fall down. And figuring that way, fate is kind and does not disappoint them.

So there has grown up a commercial superstition that Summer is a dull season.

No greater fallacy has ever gone so long unchallenged.

Summer is a dull season for many lines—but there is no fundamental reason why it should be.

For instance, take a typical case—that of the Canadian wallpaper manufacturers.

They wished to secure their placing orders from the retailers before the early Fall—when American lines are offered. Through education by Advertising, they advanced the season to start the middle of June, instead of the end of August, and they now beat their foreign competitors to the market by nearly three months.

Perhaps you face a selling problem that education by Advertising will solve. Perhaps your Summer business needs the tonic of Summer Advertising.

As the mercury climbs up to its highest degree, increase, rather than slacken, your Advertising and selling efforts. You will find it profitable—in the highest degree.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lansden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.
