ALLIES SMASHING THE HINDENBURG LINE

TREMENDOUS ATTACKS BEING MADE ON THE GERMANS FROM LENS TO RHEIMS

HINDENBURG LINE GETS FIVE BLOWS

Allies Deliver Smashing Attack at Five Different Points—Counter Attacks Are Desperate.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 18.—Lens, La Fere, St. Quentin, Cambrai and Laon, which constitute the five key points of the vaunted Hindenburg line are being struck at so savagely by the Franco-British drive that their continuation in the hands of the enemy much longer seems impossible. Of the five towns, Lens, La Fere and St. Quentin may fall to the Allies at any minute. The onslaught of the Allies is in great force and the Germans cannot withstand the pressure. Cambrai and Laon are less closely enveloped, but the menace of the drive is none the less at these points. General Haig's latest report tells of another successful thrust being made to the south of Cambrai around Epehy. This attack was aimed at Le Catelet, about eleven miles to the south of Cambrai.

French Front.

Paris, April 18.—The official statement of the fighting more than confirmed the most sanguine hopes of success in the joint offensive entertained here. General Nivelle reported a desperate German attempt to stem the French forward rush to Laon. Their counter attack took place at Ailles which lies about seven miles to the south of Laon. The attack was repulsed by the French easily. At Courcy, four miles to the north of Rheims, General Nivelle's forces has to withstand another powerful German attack. These attacks were apparently made on two sections of the French wedge which has been driven into the German line. The losses of the enemy in dead and wounded have been enormous, while 2,500 more prisoners have been taken by the French. The German forces have been forced to vacate many miles of territory and the French soldiers are still sweeping onward.

Mesopotamia.

The Turkish troops in Mesopotamia are steadily retreating before the British advancing forces, who are meeting with slight opposition.

AUSTRIA MAKES PEACE OVERTURES TO RUSSIA

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 18.—The overtures which have been made to Russia by Austria-Hungary are considered here to predicate the disintegration of the Germanic Alliance. The recent decisive battles heightens this belief. The Arras disaster may be the war's turning point in favor of the Allies.

ITALIAN ARTILLERY EXTREMELY ACTIVE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Rome, April 18.—Advices from Switzerland have reported that the Italian artillery are extremely active on the Isonzo front. The large number of Austrians taken prisoner and sent behind the lines suggest that Italy may be starting her offensive, which has been so timed to catch the Teutons when they are direly in need of men to withstand the great British push on the western front.

WHAT VIMY MEANS TO OUR ARTILLERY

Canadian Headquarters in France, via London, April 16.—The final phase of the battle of Vimy "proceeds," to use the words of the phrase-makers of Berlin, "entirely in accordance with our intentions," while our guns are avoiding doing any damage to the many coal mines and other industrial establishments in this neighborhood, they are destroying the enemy's defenses as thoroughly as they did his trenches and wire entanglements on this western side of the crest before the assault by our troops. The situation has changed remarkably in the last week. When the British and Canadian guns opened the preparatory bombardment in the offensive sector, the entire eastern section of Vimy Ridge, together with the crest and a strip, ranging from a thousand yards to a mile in width on the west slope, was in the enemy's hands. From Hill 145 and other commanding points, the Germans could look down on Lorette Ridge, the shell-scattered ruins of Souchez, Cerency, Ablain, Villers-aux-Bois, Nouville-la-Targette and Mount St. Eloi, as well as Zouave Valley and the Labyrinth. In this terrain our guns had to be placed to secure effective range. Some of them, by careful use and owing to the conformation of the ground could be concealed. Many others had, however, to take chances in the open, where every flash of their discharge, day or night, could be spotted from the ridge by German observation officers, with the result that they could accurately direct their return fire. Our only way of learning what was the result of our bombardment on the crest and the eastern slope of the ridge was by aeroplane observation and photographs. This was no use at night and at such times the gunners had to "go it blind," trusting to the previous work of the observers.

Irish Nationalists and an Election

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 18.—Faced with the organized effort of the Irish Nationalists to force a general election by defeating the bill for the prolongation of Parliament, Bonar Law, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon that a statement would be made outlining the Government's attitude regarding the Irish Home Rule Bill.

Tell of Living in Prison Camp

(Special to The Daily News.)

London.—Three Canadian escaped prisoners have reached London. They are Ptes. H. S. Kenyon, of Vancouver, captured at St. Eloi in April, 1916; G. Langlais, of Montreal, captured in April, 1915, and B. B. Gray, of the Mounted Rifles, enlisted in the West, captured at Ypres, in June 1916.

"In one prison four of us," Kenyon said, "were put in a dark cell seven feet by twelve. It was filthy. They turned on the steam until the place was so unbearably hot that we had to take off all our clothes and lie on the floor. Even then we could hardly breathe. For the first 24 hours of this we had neither food nor water. Then they gave us each a ration of about seven ounces to last three days." Pte. Langlais was taken to So. (Continued on Page four.)

Peck and has been in France with about the first of the Canadians.

WOMEN MUST REGISTER IN ORDER TO VOTE

Now that the woman's suffrage measure has become law, every woman, who is over twenty-one years of age, and is a British subject, is entitled to a vote at parliamentary elections. But while she is entitled to a vote, there is one thing necessary on her part and that is, that she must appear before a duly appointed commissioner and register her name, for inclusion on the voters' roll. This is necessary.

ONLY ONE MONTH'S FOOD IN GERMANY

Amsterdam, via London, April 17.—The Dusseldorf Anzeiger in an article explains to the working people of the Rhineland of Westphalia that hard necessity has driven the country to a new food rationing. This will begin April 18th and will include a reduction of 25 per cent in the bread ration. The newspaper says the old crop must serve for four months, but that there are only supplies for one month. No peace, the newspaper adds, even if it came tomorrow, would alter the situation, and even after peace, it would be a long time before the food situation is again brought to normal.

HOW THE P. G. E. CAME INTO BEING

For his services in securing the Pacific Great Eastern Railway franchise and a traffic agreement between the Pacific Great Eastern and the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, Mr. Darcy Tate, vice-president and general counsel of the Pacific Great Eastern, received by agreement with J. W. Stewart $500,000 in cash and 25 per cent of the capital stock of the company.

Contributed for Years.

It was understood when Gen. J. W. Stewart made the agreement to pay me $500,000 to secure the franchise and traffic rights that out of it I was to take care of the campaign funds as far as the Conservative party was concerned.

The understanding was that I was to get the franchise and traffic rights and make the customary contributions. We all know that these contributions are customary. I have made contributions to campaign funds for the past fifteen years," said Mr. Tate.

He told Gen. Stewart that he thought he could get the franchise and also the traffic rights over the Grand Trunk Pacific.

"I don't want to appear egotistical, but it is necessary for me to make this explanation," continued Mr. Tate. "I do not think that any other person but myself could have secured the passage of the acts because no one but I could have got the traffic arrangement with the G. T. P. that Sir Richard McBride insisted upon. Norton Griffiths tried to get it, but failed. The Norton Griffiths people, in fact, were willing to pay more than $500,000 if they could get the franchise."

WESTHOLME THEATRE

Tonight at the Westholme Theatre "Madame X" will be the title of the photoplay screened. This is a play of exceptional power. It is full of exciting episodes and thrilling incidents. Dorothy Donnelly is the star artist, who is admittedly in the front rank of her profession, and she is supported by a splendid cast. The plot, from the beginning of the story until the climax is reached, holds the interest of everyone. The last tragic scene is a very strong one and is beautifully acted. "Madame X" will surely rank among the triumphs at the Westholme.

Word has been received in town that Carlyle Brand who was wounded recently at the front, has recovered and has rejoined his company.

THE COMING SESSION

In an editorial, under the caption of "The Coming Session," the Victoria Colonist says: "Recently there have been evidences that the Liberal members will, during the coming session at Ottawa, oppose an extension of the life of Parliament. Throughout the Liberal press there is at present a systematic, though veiled, attempt to justify this step."

To any right-thinking man, there is no need to look for justification of the opposition to the proposed further extension of the life of the present Parliament. It has been so clearly apparent that the Borden Government is a square peg in a round hole that the difficulty of all but the most rabid partisans will be to find the slightest justification for its continued existence.

The Victoria organ of the Tory party goes on to say that, if a Federal election is fought now, the issue will be the conduct of the war and that the recent happenings in the various provinces, where the Tories have been ignominiously driven from power from coast to coast, will have no bearing whatever on the result. Is there anything in the conduct of the war by the Borden Government and its friends, especially its friends, to justify its return to power?

Have the people of the Dominion regained confidence in the party which permitted its friends to make millions out of the sufferings of our soldiers? Have the people of Canada forgotten "Colonel" John Wesley Allison and his fellow profiteers? Have they forgotten the paper shoes; the Ross rifle, which the government persisted in using for a year after it had been condemned as a service weapon; the millions of dollars worth of equipment which was piled up in England as useless, and the enormous commissions taken by friends of the government who were innocent of all knowledge of the supplies which they were permitted to sell to the government?

Taking the Tories on their own ground, the conduct of the war, is there any justification to be found for their plea for a continuance in office?

If a further extension is refused, however, other issues than the war are bound to crop up. The Borden government cannot be allowed to cover up its misdeeds under the plea that it is too busy conducting a war to be troubled with the right conduct of its domestic affairs. For instance, does The Colonist suggest that the fact that the Empire is at war is any excuse for the retention of a gentleman of the calibre of the Hon. Robert Rogers in the cabinet? Is the Hon. Bob to be allowed to play fast and loose with the domestic affairs of the Dominion of Canada simply because Ottawa is too busy with Imperial matters? Are the people of Canada to be forced to stand for debauchery at home merely because they are fighting debauchery abroad?

Coming nearer home, are the people of Prince Rupert to be asked to forget all about the post office site deal just because the country is at war? Are they to shut their eyes and bless H. S. Clements and curse the Kaiser as they pass that $95,000 hole in the ground on Third Avenue? Are they to turn their heads away and forget how much they are being taxed to pay the rentals of the government offices in the Federal Block?

The war has done yeoman service as an excuse for the covering up of wrong-doing, but it failed to save a corrupt government in Manitoba; it failed to save the Bowser maladministration in British Columbia, and the Borden government must suffer a like fate. If the Federal government wishes an extension of power, let it first ask the people if they are willing. If Sir Robert Borden and his colleagues and their friends have justified the confidence that was placed in them, they will be returned to power for a term of years; if they have failed, they will go down to defeat. Are they afraid to ask the question?

HOW THE TANKS TREAT THE GERMAN DEFENCES

London, April 16.—Newspaper correspondents with the British armies in France describe at length the violent fighting which ended in the capture of Wancourt and Heninel, south of the Arras-Cambrai highroad. Some of the attackers underwent a terrible ordeal, lying on the open slopes in deep snow and an icy gale, and swept by German machine gun fire from Guemappe, while the sky above them was flashing with the burst of shrapnel and high explosives.

When the British soldiers fought their way into Wancourt they were faced by great uncut belts of wire and waves of bullets from machine guns. The "Daily Telegraph's" correspondent, referring to this action, says:

Tanks to Rescue.

"The men were held up by great stretches of wire and menaced most evilly by an enfilade fire from machine guns. Two tanks came to the rescue and did most daring things. They came up in their elephantine way, and most skillfully guided, climbed over rough ground, cleaving through snow-drifts and mudbanks, and, breasting their blunt noses above the old trenches and sandbag barricades, they made straight for the great hedges of barbed wire and drove straight through them, leaving broad lines of broken strands. One cruised into Wancourt, followed from a distance by the cheers of the infantry. It trampled upon machine gun redoubts and fired into the German hiding places.

"A second tank struck a zigzag course for Heninel, and in that village swept down numbers of German soldiers. For 40 hours these two tanks did not rest, but went about breaking down wires and searching out German strong points, so that the way would be easier for the infantry. Even then our men had no easy fighting, as the enemy defended themselves stubbornly in places."

HIS HEART BADLY AFFECTED

"Fruit-a-tives" Soon Relieved This Dangerous Condition

682 GERRARD ST. EAST, TORONTO. "For two years, I was a victim of Acute Indigestion and Gas In The Stomach. It afterwards attacked my Heart and I had pains all over my body, so that I could hardly move around. I tried all kinds of Medicines but none of them did me any good. At last, I decided to try "Fruit-a-tives". I bought the first box last June, and now I am well, after using only three boxes. I recommend "Fruit-a-tives" to anyone suffering from Indigestion". FRED J. CAVEEN.

RED CROSS NOTES

The sale of home cooking this week will be in charge of Mrs. Halsey and Mrs. John Conway. Now that the Easter holidays are over the sales will be held on Fridays as usual, and in the same place as last week, namely, at the corner of Third Avenue and Fulton Street.

A cable from headquarters in London has been received by all the Canadian Red Cross branches asking urgently for help to cope with the terrible casualty lists of the last few weeks. Unless this is forthcoming, the necessary help cannot be given. Prince Rupert has done well, but at this critical time let us give as never before. Every five cent piece will help to save a life. Let everyone help, no matter how small a contribution is given, it will be gratefully received by the society.

A life membership in the society costs 825 and may be obtained from the secretary, Mr. J. B. Roerig. Help in this way if you can.

The Prisoners of War branch has decided to adopt two prisoners, John Day Bell and P. Cowley, both in prison camps in Germany. Parcels of food cost $10 each monthly and donations of money are asked for this purpose by the society.

The society is very much indebted to the committee of young ladies who so successfully conducted the sale last Saturday; to all who contributed in any way, and to the public for their splendid support.

Mr. McMeekin sent a box of apples, which was won by Mr. R. E. Walker; Mr. Broderick a five-dollar gold piece, won by Miss Alice Jacobson; Mr. H. F. McRae a picture, won by Mr. R. J. D. Smith; Mrs. Cameron a water color picture, won by Mr. H. F. McLeod; Mr. D. G. Stewart a box of cigars, won by Mr. W. O. Fulton; Miss Beckwith a box of candy, won by Sheriff Shirley; Mrs. Jabour a lace yoke won by Mrs. Orme; Miss Johnson a baby dress won by Mrs. R. S. Wright; Miss Young a bouffant cap won by Miss McLennan; Mrs. Jenns a baby jacket won by Mrs. F. Williams; Mr. R. L. Melulosh a pipe won by Mr. M. J. Hobin; Mrs. Atkins candle shades won by Mrs. Harvey Peck; Miss Pillsbury shoe tress won by Mrs. Craig, and Mrs. Deasey, of Massett, an Indian basket which was won by Mrs. P. W. Anderson.

As there are no articles on hand for the sale this week, donations will be very welcome.

tau, from where many men were sent to work in the salt mines. "This," he said, "is terrible work. I have seen our boys come back from the mines with their hands eaten away by the salt. Crippled men are forced to work at the point of the bayonet, which the Germans are not slow to use."

For the greater part of nine months' imprisonment, Gray was working in a railway carriage show at Duisburg, near Dusseldorf. There was a particularly brutal doctor, who invariably refused to allow men to go away sick. Conditions at Duisburg, Gray said, were very bad. Everybody was hungry. Frequently German officers would beg the British prisoners to sell them a small tin of food, for which they were ready to pay almost any sum. All the men complain bitterly of ill-treatment by their captors and agree in describing food inadequate and fit only for pigs, had it not been for continuous supply of parcels through the Canadian Red Cross they would have been half starved, in rags and bootless. Fourteen days in the cells on a bread and water diet was the punishment for attempts to escape.
