THE GERMANS SUFFER TREMENDOUS LOSSES

FIERCE AND REPEATED GERMAN COUNTER ATTACKS RESULT IN GREAT LOSSES

MANY COUNTER ATTACKS ARE REPULSED

German Military Chiefs Throw Their Full Weight Against the Allies Time After Time, in Vain.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 27.—This is the forty-third day of the great British offensive, and the tenth day of the latest drive by the French. The fight is developing everywhere along the great western front into the fiercest fighting of the whole war. No battle heretofore has equalled the present fighting in intensity. The German army chiefs are hurling great masses of their men against the French and British. Both London and Paris statements today are exclusively devoted to the narration of the repulse of the terrific counter attacks.

At a Standstill.
The British dispatches reveal a practical standstill of the forces to the north of the Scarpe river, which flows almost due east from Arras. Here the British and the Germans seem to be locked together in death grips. General Haig reported the repulse of German counter attacks on Gavrolle.

British Official.
London, April 27.—Renewed German attacks on our positions near Gavrolle were repulsed last night.

French Official.
Paris, April 27.—The Germans vainly renewed their attacks on the high ground near Chemin des Dames last night in the Champagne. Several enemy surprise attacks were repulsed.

Balkan Front.
Paris, April 27.—Two tremendous German attacks were made on a front of more than a mile and a half, to the west of Cerny smashed unavailing against the French lines. The attack was repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. In two other places, powerful attacks were also repulsed. The day is quieter in the regions of Monastir and Cerny. The enemy positions between the Lake Tabines and the sea were successfully bombarded with the co-operation of the marine forces.

Aeroplane Attack.
British aeroplanes repulsed German aeroplanes in an attack and bombed the enemy depots at Gestavo.

AFRAID OF GERMAN DRIVE ON PETROGRAD

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, April 27.—Negotiations with the University of Urieff for the removal of Parosloff or Veronezh have increased the public disquiet over the possibility of a German drive by land and sea against the Baltic coast in the hope of reaching Petrograd. A frank appeal has been made by the Minister of War, M. Guchkoff, to the soldiers, urging them not to leave the front.

QUESTION OF HOME RULE FOR IRELAND

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 27.—The Irish question has been postponed for a few days. The Premier is reported as being desirous of reconciling the various Irish factions first, as a result of urgent representations from Mr. Balfour now in Washington. Mr. Balfour's report indicated that the American Government and the American people favored Home Rule and that the solidarity between the United States and Great Britain would be greatly enhanced by recognition of this sentiment here. Roosevelt, Taft, and other prominent Americans favor Home Rule.

BRITISH PATROL BOATS MEET GERMAN FLOTILLA

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 27.—British patrol boats met six German vessels in the English Channel near Dover on the 26th of April. Battle was immediately given and the Germans were put to ignominious flight after a short and sharp engagement. The small British boats poured broadsides into the German flotilla. One German vessel was rammed and another sunk, while the Germans bellowed for mercy.

Washington, April 27.—The American schooner Percy Bird-sall, 1128 tons, has been submerged. The crew was rescued.

THE END OF AN ALLIANCE

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 27.—From well informed sources information has been received that it is believed the days of the quadruple alliance of Germany, Austria, Bulgaria and Turkey are numbered. Austria is trying hard to shake off the German fetters.

FIRING GLASS BULLETS

Petrograd, April 26.—The Germans on the northern part of the Russian front have been firing glass bullets from their rifles at the Russian lines, says today's War Office announcement. The statement reports exceptionally bad weather in the Carpathians and on the Roumanian front, where blizzards have prevailed in the mountains and heavy rain in the valleys. Hostile acts by Kurds against the Russians in Persia are increasing, according to the announcement.

IN THE LETTER BOX

Prince Rupert, April 26th.
To the Editor, Daily News.

Sir.—Regarding the article signed "Just Two Girls," etc., appearing in your issue of the 25th instant, the general trend of which was to protest against the display of the American flag for a few hours on the 24th over the city hall unaccompanied by the Union Jack:

It appears that this flag must have been displayed at the request of some magnanimous and broad-minded citizen of Canada who desired to show at least a few hours of visible courtesy, appreciation and friendship for our patient and forbearing blood-kin—Uncle Sam, who, though last but not least, has cast his lot with the group of noble and war-scarred Allies who are spilling the life-blood of their sons and daughters on the most frightful field of carnage in the annals of history. All in the defense of the right, in the defense of humanity—in the defense of civilization—Uncle Sam has unsheathed the sword and is coming forward to the crimson field with his vast finances, his blood and treasure, and the almost inexhaustible natural resources of his vast empire; and he is doing so ungrudgingly.

In view of these facts, and in view of the fact that the good people of Britain and France have through courtesy and appreciation unfurled the banner of Old Glory over public buildings, etc., where no other foreign banner ever had the distinction of waving before, in view of the fact that the great Union Jack is through the same kind of feeling, now floating over many public places in the United States; does it not seem rather inconsistent for some one with a limited amount of information residing in the little city of Prince Rupert to protest against a few hours' display of the banner of our honored Anglo-Saxon brother, Uncle Sam?

While this gentle protest may have not been animated by any spirit of unfriendliness, some of its statements appeared to be not fully substantiated; especially the statement that the Union Jack was not at that time waving over certain other buildings in our good little city. Would it not be well for the writers of such letters to first know whereof they speak before taking such action?

Yours truly,
"Just a Citizen—not a Cynic."

The trawler Carruthers also arrived yesterday for the Cold Storage Co. with 100,000 pounds of all sorts of fish, which is quite a good catch. About fifteen hundred lbs. of salmon have also arrived.

THE FOOD SHORTAGE AND THE SUB MENACE

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, April 27.—The British food controller utters the solemn warning that the people must be prepared for privations. The depletion of shipping daily grows worse. Arrangements are being made for the operation of a broad scheme of food rationing.

Forty British vessels of over sixteen hundred tons each were sunk during the past week.

The London Times and the Daily Mail declare that the Empire should be given the whole truth about the submarine losses. It is realized that the official returns are not conducive to optimism, and it is felt that the country should be permitted to realize the seriousness of the situation.

ANYOX WIN AT BASKETBALL

(By our own correspondent.)

Boosters for the Athletic Association, forming in Anyox, have new powder for their guns. The match game of basketball between the Anyox and Prince Rupert teams, last Monday evening, will be a compelling argument toward club membership for some time to come. It was better than a bull-fight and a close second to a horse race as a sporting event. Small town rivalry was entirely forgotten in the overwhelming excitement of the play; both sides earning and receiving the unstinted cheers of the 210 enthusiasts who "took a chance" on the game.

To mention the individual plays which usually are referred to as particularly brilliant, would be to recite the entire game, as everyone played ball all the time he was on the floor and it was a contest every minute of the game. Anyox scored the first goal in nineteen seconds of play and from that time on pandemonium let loose. Both sides played as though their lives depended upon the next score and the crowd was with them all the time. One or two small accidents only made the game more exciting and the little showing of bull strength by Mobley, of Prince Rupert, and Stucky, of Anyox, added the comedy necessary to save the situation. Both men are husky and showed a sense of humor in their clashes—they would make a good drawing card for the smoker which is advertised for the 11th of May, at which boxing and wrestling will be the features.

Blythe, of Anyox, made the star goal of the evening and his brother, of Prince Rupert, showed that he was of the same family. Swanson, Anyox, threw the highest number of field goals—six in all—with Heidman, Anyox, second with four field and three penalty. Blythe, Prince Rupert, threw three field and one penalty, which was the best work for that team.

There was never a question of superiority during the entire game although the Prince Rupert boys had a shade the best of it in appearance. The Athletes, however, handled the ball in a more decided way and with a great deal more pep besides which they outweighed the youngsters by an average of thirty pounds.

The box score shows a lack of skill on the part of Anyox in throwing penalty goals which would have cost them dear had the Rupert boys been stronger in the scrimmages.

The game on Wednesday evening, as an exhibition of pluck and perseverance in the face of certain defeat, won many friends for the Prince Rupert youngsters. Good sportsmanship is appreciated the world over and Anyox will

U. S. TO HAVE DICTATOR OF FOODSTUFFS

The International Conference of the Allies Develops into Great Campaign to Feed Entente.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, April 27.—Herbert Hoover, or Secretary of Labor Wilson will become the Food Dictator of the United States within the next few months, is what is understood here. This is indicated by the developments of the international conference of the Allies here today. More and more the war council's proceedings are crystallising into a monumental campaign to feed the Entente nations. Finance and shipping problems are also being discussed by the council of the Allies, although the vital food problems are to be left entirely in American hands.

Loans.
The result of the parleys between the financial group at the Allied conference may be the advancing of a big loan to Italy immediately, and other loans later to any of the Allies who may need them. An army of laborers is rapidly being mobilized by Secretary of Labor Wilson, and a start is being made in the building of wooden ships to bridge the Atlantic.

Conscription.
The conscription issue may be decided before the week ends. Conscription seems certain to win.

PRISONERS TO GO ON HOSPITAL SHIPS

Paris, April 23.—"Contrary to all the rules of international law and humanity," says an official note tonight, "the Germans have announced that they will torpedo all hospital ships without warning. Under these conditions, the French Government gives notice that German prisoners will be embarked on these vessels."

be long forgetting the grit of the Rupert boys.

It is hardly fair to single out any individual player for mention, but the sympathy of the crowd was all for plucky young Curry, who played a remarkable game and was almost all in before the game was called. The Prince Rupert team simply wore themselves out bucking up against men who outweighed them at least thirty pounds per man. The high score doesn't tell any part of the story for the visiting team contested every basket as ably as any team could have done—they were simply outweighed.

After the game a small gathering of club officers and committee-men took the two teams to Macy's Cafe for a supper party. The few speeches made were all eulogistic; the sportsmanlike manner in which the boys from the south took their beatings being the theme of the evening. The friendly banter between the captains of the two teams indicates some lively contests to come between the athletes of the two principal cities of Northern British Columbia.

The score was, Anyox, 37; Prince Rupert, 16.

OPEN WARFARE

Military writers in England are very hopeful that the present fighting will develop into open warfare, in which the Allies have invariably defeated the Germans. There have been up to date three great battles in the west, that of Grand Couronne de Nancy, that of the Marne and the first battle of Ypres. In all of these the Allies were victorious. From such experiences it may be argued that with the immensely superior equipment available now, and with the preponderance in numbers, the Anglo-French armies, unless they make some great strategic blunder, are certain to defeat the Germans if fighting can be forced into the open. Both the battles fought on the Marne and in the Ypres region can be classed as decisive in the sense that they altered the course of the war and forced the Germans to seek the shelter of entrenchments. In the same way the battle of the Somme has had decisive results, or at least such as are destined to be permanent, for it forced the Germans to retire from positions they had occupied for two years. The present French offensive seems likely to attain a similar result. It is undoubtedly designed to force a retreat, and if the effectives can be kept up to strength and the supply of ammunition is great enough, there are good reasons for looking for a considerable difference in the alignment of the forces in the west before the summer is well advanced.

The British Army is now at the top of its strength. The organization that has been effected insures its continuing in that condition for many months to come unless it meets with some extremely improbable catastrophe. The French Army is at least as strong as it has been at any time during the war, and we venture to believe that in man-power it is stronger, while in artillery it has infinitely greater power than during the battle of the Marne. The preponderance it enjoys in this respect is shown by the reliance the Germans are placing on machine guns. France's task is not as difficult as it was in the early stages of the war owing to the extent of front that has been taken over by the British. This is a highly important factor that is often lost sight of by those who attempt to measure the offensive power of Britain's great ally. There are those who believe that owing to the tremendous casualties that will result it will be impossible to drive the Germans back on the Rhine. Military men in high position share this view, but as opposed to it is the undoubted fact that from now on Germany's strength will be on the wane, and conditions of fighting are steadily undergoing an alteration which reduce the number of casualties sustained by an attacking force. In the early stages of the war it was estimated that the army on the offensive lost three men to every one of the enemy. That may have been the case up to the time of the battle of the Somme, but it undoubtedly has not been so since. Britain and France have been losing less troops than Germany in the latest offensives. One indication of this is the large numbers of prisoners that have been taken. The weakening of the German morale is another factor in reducing the number of casualties among the armies now on the offensive. These aspects of war as it is being conducted at present go to show that military critics may be at fault in magnifying the task ahead of the Allies. We hope they are, for if this war is to achieve the results hoped for, it must be fought to a decisive conclusion.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Differences over Spain's attitude in the war have led to the formation of a new government headed by Premier Prieto. Spain ever since the outbreak of hostilities, has been the seat of a very pronounced German propaganda. There are some 80,000 Germans living there, many of whom were wealthy visitors to the country at the time war broke out and who were compelled to remain through inability to get back to their own country. All have acted in the role of agents for their country, and while their plan is to keep Spain neutral, they have omitted no opportunity of belittling the Allied Powers.

Germany's submarine warfare against hospital ships has imposed a new and great task on Britain. It is proposed to find hospital accommodation in France for the wounded, the majority of whom heretofore have been removed to England as soon as they were fit to travel. This means that all the physicians and surgeons of military age in the Old Country are being summoned for service abroad.

THE RUSSION PRESS AND SEPARATE PEACE

The Russian press considers the semi-official German and Austro-Hungarian notes concerning the possibility of bringing the war aims of the Central Powers into consonance with those of Russia as a "base, treacherous and hypocritical manoeuvre." The Rech, in reiterating that the Russian Provisional Government is pursuing no aims of conquest, declares it is fully and entirely in agreement with the views expressed by the representatives of the other Entente Powers.

"The enemy precipitately denounces a desire for a separate peace in these notes, scarcely more clever than the proclamations thrown into the Russian trenches inviting the peasants to return to their villages and share the estates of the landowners," says the paper. "These notes will have no better success than the proclamations in the naive attempt to embroil Russia with her Allies."

Emphasizing the "monstrous sophism" of the Austrian declaration that the aim of the Dual Monarchy is to give the peoples the right to regulate their own destinies—the war aim announced by the Russian Provisional Government—The Rech continues:

Transparent Tricks.

"Our enemies are trying to avoid any concrete indication of their aims, just as they abstained from replying to the definite appeal by President Wilson."

"The Russian people know why they are continuing the mortal struggle. They respect the obligations arising from their alliances and will not give up their rights."

The Petrograd papers severely criticize a speech made by one of the returned Socialist exiles, Lenine, in which he advised the Provisional Government to solicit peace with Germany. The Russkoye Volia says that there is no difference between Lenine and Sturmer, both of whom sought to impose on Russia a shameful and disadvantageous peace.

The Novoye Vremya says that the Russian people never understand the psychology of Lenine and his friends, "which is that of Wilhelm and Hindenburg."

2,000,000
Belgians Depend on us for Bread!

Since shortly after the German invasion, the Belgians have depended for food entirely on the "Commission for Relief in Belgium". Their own store of food, even if not destroyed or pillaged, would last only three weeks—they have had no chance to raise more—and the ruthless Germans refuse to supply them!

Backed by the

so generously contributed in the British Empire and the United States, the neutral Belgian Relief Commission has imported enough wheat, flour and other foods to feed the whole nation so far. The great majority of the 7,000,000 Belgians left in the country have been able to pay for their daily allowance of bread—but a steadily growing number have no money left.

Unless we are willing to let these hundreds of thousands of women, children and old men starve, they must be fed at the expense of the Belgian Relief Fund. To make this possible someone must contribute nearly $3,000,000 a month—every month—all this winter!

No people under the Allied Flags are so well able to contribute generously as we Canadians! No cause has ever been more deserving of help! In the name of Justice and Humanity—for the sake of our own self-respect—let us give all we can to help our martyred Allies!

Making a Flat World Round

When Columbus set out to reach India by sailing westward, he met with opposition and ridicule. He believed the earth to be round.

Wise men held that it was flat—that Columbus was mad—and that he'd fall off somewhere if he departed from established beliefs.

But Columbus' belief found him a continent and made him blessed of memory.

The Business World is flat to some men

Their profit-bearing shores of Opportunity stretch only so far as their grandfathers trod. Custom, superstition and apathy have set them confines which they may not pass.

For instance, they believe the business year is a flat one—not an all-year round of trade, with East joining West, with Spring merging into Autumn—but just two distinct seasons, with sawed-off edges gaping into space.

They confine their activities to a Spring trade and to a Fall trade. To them there is no intervening continent with stores of waiting wealth. Their world is flat. They have not explored the mid-year months of Summer trade. June, July and August are never-never land.

Surely this conception of Summer as a "dull" season is as fallacious as the delusion that the earth was flat. People have just as much money in the hot weather and spend quite as freely as in Spring and Fall. Granted that they are not buying skates and snow shovels in August, yet they are buying staple articles. Furthermore, they have an eye on luxuries and comforts they are counting upon purchasing in the Fall.

The modern Columbus has discovered this Summer trade—this golden West lying between the known continents of old beliefs. Departing from established habit, many have made their energies and their Advertising an all-year-round proposition.

Keeping up Advertising during the Summer months not only links your Spring and Fall, but produces rich harvests from the Summer months themselves.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any recognized Canadian advertising agency, or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503 Lumden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write, if interested.

 er. He had in his charge a man from the Islands who was mentally unbalanced.

Just another smashing big William Farnum bit of virile power and dramatic intensity.
 "The Wonderful Adventure," six acts. Westholme tonight only.
 Admission 10 and 25 cents.

The rebuilding of old Centre Street is about completed. It is a straight and narrow way, and a wayfarer man, though fool, need not err therein. A Grand Trunk Pacific Highway, in fact.

Skipper Tom Sylvester, of the Skeena, is in the city on his spring visit. Old Tom's many friends are pleased to see him looking so well.

Mr. J. C. K. Sealy, of Smithers, has returned from the south. Mrs.
 Sealy did not return at this time, but will remain in the south visiting for several weeks yet.

Suspense, action, thrills, a big fight, vivid situations make William Farnum in "The Wonderful Adventure," an ever memorable photoplay. Westholme tonight only. Admission 10 and 25 cents.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

At the Westholme Theatre tonight, William Farnum will be seen in a big photoplay entitled "The Wonderful Adventure." This is a big play in every sense of the word and several of the scenes are taken from real life.
 For variety of action, and both general and particular interest, this play will be a hard one to excell. William Farnum is himself a big actor and he is a great favorite with the people of Prince Rupert. The photoplay tonight will certainly enhance his already great reputation.

In addition to this attraction,
 there is a side-splitting comedy, which will coax out the health-giving laughter from the grump-iest feeling citizen.

Saves Eggs

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes it possible to produce appetizing and wholesome cakes, muffins, corn bread, etc., with fewer eggs than are usually required.

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced and excellent results obtained by using an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted. The following tested recipe is a practical illustration:

SPONGE CAKE

1 cup sugar
 1/2 cup water
 3 eggs
 2 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
 1 cup flour
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup cold water
 1 teaspoon flavoring

DIRECTIONS: Boil sugar and water until syrup spins a thread and add to the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, beating until the mixture is cold. Sift together three times, the flour, salt and baking powder; beat yolks of eggs until thick; add a little at a time flour mixture and egg yolk alternately to white of egg mixture, stirring after each addition. Add 1/2 cup cold water and flavoring. Mix lightly and bake in moderate oven one hour.

The old method called for six eggs and no baking powder

Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients mailed free. Address
