CYCLONE WORKS GREAT HAVOC IN MANITOBA

A SAD EMPIRE DAY IN THE CITY OF WINNIPEG

Four Deaths From Drowning Took Place---Cyclone Breaks on the City Doing Damage---Lightning Storm Puts the City in Darkness---Rain and Hail Fell Upon a City of Sorrow and Gloom---Two Deaths by Drowning Took Place in Toronto Bay.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Winnipeg, May 25.—Empire Day 1911, will long be remembered in Winnipeg as a day of disappointment, sorrow and tragedy. The weather turned from a bright morning, into a stormy, tempestuous day. Before evening a miniature cyclone was raging, with rain and hail storms.

Four Lives Lost

No less than four lives were lost among the holiday makers, all of them being drownings. To deepen the pall of gloom which hung over the city, towards night, in the night of the storm, the lightning affected the electric power plant, and for half an hour the city was in total darkness, with the street cars standing idle in the streets while the storm raged around them.

Hundreds Saw Them Drown

The first tragedy to mar the day's happiness was the tragic drowning of Eber Jones and Miss Maggie McLeod in the Red River, just north of Kildonan Park. Eber Jones is the son of Rev. J. P. Jones, pastor of the St. John's Presbyterian congregation. The young woman is a sister-in-law of Rev. Mr. Jones.

The young man was foolhardy enough to row out into the wash of the steamer Winnitoba. The frail craft in his unskillful hands turned over, and before help could reach them, the young couple had disappeared from view. The drowning took place before the eyes of hundreds of people on the steamer who were unable to help them.

Cyclone Swamped Canoe

The two other victims were George E. Hunt and his sister Jessie. They were two of a party of four who went out in a canoe from Elm Park in the evening. While but a little way out from shore, but in deep water, a terrific squall struck them, swamping the little craft in the seas it raised. The two companions with them managed to save their lives by clinging to the upturned canoe till help reached them, but young Hunt and his sister disappeared from view, and their bodies have not yet been recovered.

Havoc at Norwood

On shore the miniature cyclone, accompanied by thunder, lightning-rain and hail caused great havoc. In the Norwood section of St. Boniface it blew several buildings down, tearing up trees, breaking windows, and doing an immense amount of petty damage. Fortunately so far as is yet learned, no one was injured in the storm.

A City of Gloom

The fierce lightning affected the electric power, so that for thirty minutes the city was in darkness, and the street cars were obliged to come to a standstill in the darkened streets till light and power were available again.

Never before in the history of the city has a holiday been marked with such a succession of tragic and sorrowful incidents.

Tragedy at Toronto

Toronto, May 25.—Empire Day festivities were marred here by a sad drowning accident on Toronto Bay, when Oliver Blain aged 25, and Hazie Hicks were lost through the capsizing of a sail boat. They were half a mile from shore at the time. Their two companions, both students of Trinity College, were rescued after a narrow escape from drowning.

JAMES BAKER DROWNED IN THE SKEENA RIVER

Steamer Operator Struck a Rock, Throwing Him Off His Feet into the Raging River—Was Washed Away and Body Not Recovered

(Special to the Daily News)
Kitselas, B. C., May 25.—James Baker, a deck hand on the steamer Operator was drowned in the Skeena River yesterday afternoon while passing near Skinsisht. His body has not been recovered.

Boat Struck Rock

Baker was standing at the bow of the boat when she struck a rock causing the boat to jar and flinging Baker from his feet into the water. With the rush of water in the river, he was quickly washed out of sight, and disappeared almost instantly.

He was a native of Elliston, Newfoundland, where his parents reside. He was about twenty years old, and is said to have an uncle living in Vancouver.

G. T. P. TRAIN BURNS WRECKED IN WINDSTORM

Street Cars Flung on Mainline by Terrible Gust of Wind Just as Train Came Up—Engine Men Leaped—Passengers Had Narrow Escape

(Canadian Press Despatch)
MacGregor, Man., May 25.—A Grand Trunk passenger train was wrecked here today as a result of a terrific windstorm which hurled two street cars off their own rails on to the G. T. P. main line just as the train was approaching.

Train Crew Jumped

Seeing the accident just in the nick of time, the train crew took a chance and leaped from the flying engine escaping with minor

It is estimated that over three thousand visitors came to Prince Rupert to spend the day.

Australians Look With Alarm on Antarctic Expedition

Sydney, N. S., W. May 24.—This city is in a ferment of excitement over the actions and alleged objects of the Japanese polar party under Commander Shirase, who with his colleagues are suspected of spying out and endeavoring to secure plans of Australian fortifications. The party, compelled to retire from their southern expedition on account of the severe weather encountered, which resulted in the loss of their dogs, have formed a camp close to Southhead fort, and have announced that it will be necessary to remain six months until more dogs are brought out from Japan.

CONCERT WAS A BIG SUCCESS

Lots of Talent in Evidence at the Concert in the Theatre

It was not until the curtain went down after the concert last night given in the Empress Theatre under the auspices of the Overseas Club that one realized there is so much excellent talent in the city. For over three hours the programme lasted and every number was a dandy.

Judging by the applause of the audience the piece par excellence of the evening was the selection played by Skidegate band, winners of the two first prizes in the contest. There's class to that band. A neat little speech was made by the conductor of the band, Arthur Moody, after the Mayor had distributed the prizes.

Every seat in the theatre was filled and the concert was unquestionably the best ever given in Prince Rupert.

The programme was contributed by Miss Nyland, Miss Ellett, Miss Mabel Gray, Miss Grant, Miss Killin, Messrs. Ellis, Fletcher, Bullock Webster, Porter, Russell, and Florrie and Mamie Gray. Skidegate and Kincolith bands, both prize winners in the contest, played selections. Mr. Alex Gray was accompanist.

EVERYBODY WAS HAPPY CELEBRATING EMPIRE DAY

Great Public Festival Was Held in Prince Rupert in Ideal Weather---All Day Programme of Sports was Held on the Grand Trunk Wharf---Immense Crowds Turned Out to Enjoy the Fun---Indian Bands Marched Through the Town---Complete Results of the Contests.

Brilliant sunshine all day, and a whole holiday for the youngsters and the grown-ups guaranteed an Empire Day worth remembering. Boys and girls from the baby stage to the silver-haired variety, of whom we have a few even in youthful Prince Rupert, blossomed forth in the gayest of fresh summer attire, and the merriest of moods. Everywhere there bloomed in glory on masculine heads, the festive panama, and as for the girls, well, their radiance was worthy of the great day, and the glorious sunshine.

Morning for Youngsters

For the youngsters' sports the morning hours had been set apart. Up with the lark, the indefatigable members of the Sports Committee, had made sure that all was in readiness. Thanks to Mr. McMaster the G. T. P. wharf was cleared for a roomy space. Chief Vickers was there active and energetic with a sheaf of programmes and resplendent committee favor, and a panama which inspired deference from mere members of the mass of merry-makers.

With ribbon favors of every hue, and a holiday good humor that carried the whole programme to signal success, the rest of the committee were here, there, and everywhere along the course prepared for the children's races. An hour before the races began an alarming rumor ran round that Mayor Manson had eloped in a gasoline boat across the harbor, and wouldn't be at the races. But when the Wee Girls lined up for the first race of the morning, there at one end of the tape was the Mayor gleefully spotting winners amongst the group of winsome little lassies, and manfully supporting a crimson Committee Favor as resplendent as the red ensign overhead.

Indian Bands Arrive

Due to start off at 10.30 a.m. the morning's sports delayed for a short half hour until the martial strains of the marching Indian bands and the tramp of hundreds of feet down Centre street got the assembled crowd going in the spirit of keen expectancy. Then through his mighty megaphone Jack Beatty, first favorite for the forthcoming fat man's race, and first favorite a dozen times over with the throng of happy children on the wharf, announced in stentorian tones the start of the Wee Girls' Race which led off the series.

In splendid order, and with perfect precision, the Indian bands filed past to their places with tuck of drum, and shrill of fife, as the tiny tots gathered at the starting point.

The Wee Runners

Fresh and fairlike in their spotless frocks, and dainty sashes the babies made a pretty picture. But to them it was no decorative item on the programme. They were there to race and to win if possible, and race they did. Like a small whirlwind the eager little competitors covered the fifty yards and almost altogether broke the tape beside the Mayor. Two fleet-footed fairies than the rest were a fraction of a foot or so ahead of their rivals, and were seized upon by ever watchful Committee men.

Hardworkers All

As starter Rev. W. H. McLeod was busy with the line ups, and J. J. Sloan worked indefatigably taking the names of the winners. J. G. Weston, and W. Casey too,

SHERMAN WON GOOD RACE STIFF THREE MILE RUN

Course Was Rather Bewildering—Some Good Runners Competed—Holmquist Who Dropped Out Owing to Losing Course, Makes Challenge

The three mile race—the event of the day—at yesterday's sports was one of the best races of its kind, and well contested. The winner, W. H. Sherman, carried off the race last year easily. This year he was chased home closely by A. Nicholson, whom he defeated by a yard in a neck and neck race in the stretch. Sherman had previously given a taste of his speed by carrying off the 220 yard dash. He has a good record for running at Trail, B. C., while Nicholson has a splendid reputation at the longer distances.

The course was rather a complicated one. Starting from the wharf it went up Rupert Road, along First avenue to Second street, up Second street to Third avenue, up Fulton street to Sixth avenue, down Sixth avenue to McBride, then down to Seventh, along Seventh to Hays Cove Circle, and back again along the same course. The course was only made known a few minutes before starting. It measures just 100 yards over the three miles.

While Sherman and Nicholson were running near the finish, neck and neck, a frightened dog ran across the track in front of them, obstructing the runners and causing them to collide together, and jarring both. There was some talk of a protest over it, but the matter was allowed to drop.

S. Holmquist, the Swedish runner, who dropped out of the race offers an explanation that while leading on the way out he got confused over the turnings, and kept running up Fulton street, instead of turning onto Sixth avenue. Before he realised his mistake he was too far behind to turn back and attempt to overtake the leaders.

Holmquist, makes no accusation of unfairness as the mistake was his own, but his friends and compatriots have authorised the Daily News to challenge the winners of yesterday's race to another contest on the first of July, when Holmquist would be willing to meet them at any distance from 10 miles to 26 miles.

RIOT IN MEXICO CITY THREE MEN SHOT DEAD

Rumor That Diaz Would Not Resign Precipitated a Furious Demonstration—Govt. Newspaper Building Fired—Diaz is Delirious with Fever

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Mexico City, May 25.—Wild with annoyance at a rumor which got round that President Diaz had refused to resign, a huge crowd of men and boys several thousands strong, massed themselves in front of the "El Imparcial" Government Newspaper Building here last night and set it on fire. The police armed with rifles and revolvers fired on the mob killing three persons.

Hurling stones, and smashing windows along the street the mob resisted the police, but dispersed after a while. A regiment of soldiers turned out, and guarded the street where the Diaz Palace is located. The city is in a state of disturbance still, and the police are patrolling the principal streets fully armed.

That Diaz is going to resign is certain. He is desperately ill, in high fever, and delirious.

THURSDAY, MAY 26

THE COMING OF THE INDIANS

Less than forty years ago—well within the lifetime of the good Queen Victoria whose reign we celebrated yesterday—the coming of the Indians was heralded as a sign of terror down the coast. As far south as San Francisco has the word of warning travelled that the fierce Hydahs in their war canoes were out lusting for blood. Within the memory of men now living around Prince Rupert—and in one case at least, before his eyes—human sacrifices were offered, and human flesh and blood devoured upon the sands of the Tsimpsean peninsula.

Yesterday the Indians came again. From Metlakatla, Kitkatlah, Kincolith, Port Simpson, the Naas River, even from Skidegate in the Graham Island, the tribesmen came. Evid they were for the most part, not in war paint and feathers, but in smartly dressed uniforms bedecked with gold braid. Armed they were, not with tomahawk and club and scalping knife, but with musical instruments. Not in primitive dug out war canoes did they come, but in smart, rakish-looking fishing boats with comfortable cabins and speedy gasoline engines. As an anti-climax to the scenes of savagery of forty years ago, the scene was magnificent.

Rev. John Duncan it was who brought the first set of brass band instruments into the north. He was the pioneer missionary to the Indians, and one Indian who lives among us today, James Pearce, the Methodist missionary, tells that it was the sight of the good man's tears as he beheld the sacrifice of a female slave on the beach at Port Simpson, that made himself, then a little Indian boy, set apart to be a flesh-eater, question the righteousness of murder and cannibalism.

With what feelings would that sainted pioneer missionary have watched that scene on the wharf yesterday morning when the nine massed bands of Indians gave a festival of music for the citizens, or that later scene in the theatre when the individual bands delighted the audience with selections of such classical music as Gounod's Faust, the overture to William Tell, and Hartmann's "A Night in Berlin."

What satisfaction would it not have given him to have seen men of the tribes, all well dressed, well groomed, and a model of quiet and law-abiding behaviour, peacefully strolling about the town.

There is a festival of Empire in progress at the present moment in London. In it, with elaborate stage mummings and trappings, are represented a succession of scenes, visualising great dramatic moments and epochs in the life of the Empire.

We need not envy them. In Prince Rupert yesterday we had, not a tinsel and buckram memory of something past; we had the real thing in dramatic pageantry of Empire.

The sports, the band contests, the good fellowship and merry making—these were all very well by themselves. But the great thing, the significant thing, the Imperial thing, lay in the demonstration of the advance which the Indians of Northern British Columbia have made in the arts of life, and that greater art of peace.

NOTES DUE

Yesterday's sports were a great success. It was a happy gathering that basked in the sunshine as spectators, or sweated with energy as competitors in the races at the wharf. Finer weather there could not have been anywhere in the Dominion, than that combination of cloudless blue sky, warm sun, and gentle Pacific breeze. It was a great day.

Keen regret was felt at the News office last night at learning that our own Mack did not face the starter in the fat man's race. For weeks the staff have been feeling a pride in Mack's growing proportions. No one had been allowed to interrupt him as he mused, for fear lest he should worry and go off his feed. After having nurtured him to the point where he might have brought honor to his friends and glory to the paper, it was disappointing to learn that he was an "also did not ran."

YUKON MAY OPEN VERY LATE

River Not to be Navigable Until June 7

Owing to the peculiar conditions prevailing this year, it is almost impossible to predict with any degree of certainty the probable date of the opening of navigation. It looks now as if the ice would go out of the lake fairly early, but there may not be water sufficient to start a through boat from White Horse to Dawson before between the sixth and the seventh of June at the very earliest.

Owing to the ice on Lake Le Barge and the continued rain, the ice on the lake seems to be in a rather rotten condition for about two miles. From the head of the lake there is a strip of open water for a distance of about two miles. The freighters are having considerable difficulty, as the ice is in bad shape for freighting. They have still about a hundred and fifty tons to move, and, although they will have some difficulty in getting it over probably it will be all cleaned up.

BEAR HUNTER IS IN THE CITY

Many Valuable Skins, and Two Live Little Bear Cubs

On Tuesday Alex Yuille arrived in town after a spell of bear hunting up the Naas. He has some fine skins with him, one of which a silver tip, he sold for $65.

His adventures include several scraps with Sir Bruin, and his scalps number six. But the most interesting part of his experience as the girls think, is the capture of two tiny bears which he has here with him. They are in splendid condition, and already answer to about two dozen pet names.

National league ball players are picking Pittsburg to win the pennant. If the Pirates have the good fortune to "come back" the world's series may be a repetition of two years ago.

Citizens' Rifle Club Members Enthusiastic

On Sunday afternoon members of the Citizen's Civilian Rifle Club crossed the harbor to the ranges and spent a very successful afternoon there. Some capital scoring was done, and the scores made by some of the men less experienced in the handling of the rifle were most creditable, and all the men are enthusiastic over the spirit of the club and the prospective competition shoots.

BULKLEY COAL LANDS SOLD

Valuable Property Nearly Lost Through Telegraph Break

A deal has just been consummated whereby Mr. F. W. Law, manager of the B. C. Life Insurance Company, becomes joint owner with Mr. H. P. Jones, Mrs. Jones and M. A. Cullon, in 26 sections of coal lands in the Bulkley River district. The coal crops along Driftwood creek, and enough work has been done to prove that it gives every assurance of being a very valuable deposit.

The main seam shows four feet, seven inches of clean bituminous coal, capped by 32 feet of coal seams and carbonaceous shale. The Grand Trunk Railway will pass within two miles of the property, and there are no physical difficulties to prevent the construction of a spur direct to the mine.

The original owners of the property retain a controlling interest. With Mr. Law they will incorporate and proceed with the developments of their holdings. Aldermere, in the Bulkley valley, is the nearest postoffice, and is ten miles distant from the mine.

There is an interesting bit of history connected with this property, it having been nearly lost to the discoverers at one time through the telegraph line to Hazelton being down. The money required for holding the property was wired in to the government office at that place, but arrived three days too late, and it was necessary for a re-location to be made. This was attended to last January.

SKIDEGATE PASTOR HERE

Rev. J. C. Spencer of Methodist Church Returns

Rev. Dr. J. C. Spencer, pastor of the Skidegate Methodist church, is in Prince Rupert today staying at the Premier Hotel. He is on his way back to Skidegate from the Methodist Conference just ended at Vancouver.

As the present Methodist church at Skidegate has been purchased by the Government to be used as a school for Indian pupils, it will be necessary for the congregation to arrange for the building of a new church, and the work will probably be put in hands very soon.

PRINCE RUPERT BOY SCOUTS

Have an Easier Time Than Their Comrades in Finland

Boy Scouts in Prince Rupert will be surprised perhaps to learn that their organisation in Finland is not welcomed by the authorities.

It has taken the Russian authorities some little time to realize the headway that the Boy Scout movement has been making in Finland; but now that the governor general has ascertained the existence of the Scouts, he has administered a check which is likely to prove the death-blow to the movement in that part of the world. In the probable event of the governor general's demands being ratified by the bureau at St. Petersburg, the Boy Scouts of Finland will be obliged to give up their parades unless they consent to send a daily record of their doings to the local police.

APPLE BLOSSOMS FOR BRIDES

Prizes Offered to Canadian Girls who Adopt the Fashion

Fragrant apple blossoms will supplant the time honored orange flowers as wreaths for May brides if the plan worked out by Samuel Glasgow meets with as much favor in the apple districts of B. C. as it has met over the border.

The people of the city and country of Spokane are enthusiastic over the plan. The Rev. Dr. Will A. Betts, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, says he will perform the ceremony free of charge for the first bride bedecked with apple blossoms appearing at either his parsonage or church.

Promoters of the plan hope to announce a substantial prize in a short time for a photograph of the best house or church wedding decorations fashioned with apple blossoms and Mr. Glasgow says: "Personally I will present a purse of gold to the bride winning the first prize. This competition is open to every woman in the United States and Canada.

"There is likely to be opposition from the orange growers, who may feel they have a monopoly on the wedding wreath flowers, but I do not believe it will be serious, as the life of the apple blossom season is not more than thirty days in the spring, after which orange blossoms may be worn by bride and bridegroom."

Manager Moffat of the Oakland Wheelmen, has offered Battling Nelson an opportunity to "come back" in a match, with Willie Ritchie, the king of the San Francisco four-rounders, and is expecting a reply from the Battler.

"ASK UNCLE JERRY"
We have also a hotel proposition worthy of consideration, several business opportunities, stores to rent, boats for sale and so forth.
There has been a surprising demand recently for farm lands up the Skeena and in the Bulkley valley. We have a large amount of acreage, carefully selected, all the way from Kitlas to Francis Lake, with full descriptions of the character of the soil and so forth. The price at present is low, running from $10 an acre up. Some of the land is partly cleared and has farm buildings on it. You should certainly look into this.

THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

Social Notes
Miss L. Holmes, niece of Captain T. M. Smith of the City Police Department, is in the city at present paying a visit to her uncle. She is returning shortly to her home in the East.

A PLEA

NEW COLLAR SET
How to Make These Pretty Dutch Collars Yourself

The girl who likes to lighten a dark costume with dainty frills, should make herself one of the sets of rounding Dutch collar and cuffs in plaited lawn.

The frills are made of fine white lawn or dotted muslin, and are cut three and a half inches wide for the collar, and two inches for the cuffs.

Mark the edge in a tiny scallop with a spool of two hundred cotton and buttonhole in white or colored mercerized cotton in a shallow line. When finished sew into eighth of an inch side plaits and sew into narrow band the right length to fit around wrist and neck.

The frill falls softly from the band or in the sleeves may be inverted and turned back, being caught at one side with a lace pin.

Instead of arranging in plaits, which are hard to iron, the frills may be run in thread tucks to give the fullness. This model is good for high turnover effects and for the Dutch collar.

and let rise; now roll out in sheet, cover with melted butter, cinnamon, and sprinkle with sugar and when light press with a spoon deep holes and fill with thick sweet cream and bake at once. Delicious; and warmed over only improves it; not so good cold.

KITCHEN NOVELTIES
New Invention to Help Busy Housewives
Among the new inventions might be mentioned an egg-poacher which poaches eggs three at a time in a cup-like receptacle; also a new cereal cooker, long needed—broad and flat, with dish for water, tight cover and side handles. This is a great improvement on the double boiler on account of the large surface exposed to the heat.

A new kind of steel knife cleaner is fastened to the table and turned by a handle. It is made of two discs, and flour of emery by turning the handle is conveyed to the discs. So far as variety of choice goes, there seems no excuse for any housekeeper going without proper working utensils.

POACHED EGGS
Did You Ever Try Them With Rice?
Have ready some nicely boiled (or steamed) rice. Poach the eggs carefully in boiling milk (with a little salt added), then place each one in the centre of a mound of the rice. Sprinkle the eggs with salt and pepper, placing a small lump of butter on each one; garnish with parsley. The milk may be made into a sauce and served with the rice and eggs, if desired, by adding enough white flour made into a smooth paste to thicken the milk sufficiently, and adding a lump of butter.

Crippled Athlete and Broker Left Fortune to Housekeeper
New York, May 24.—By the will of Walter E. Duryea, the crippled athlete and broker, filed today, the bulk of his fortune, estimated at $2,500,000 goes to Miss Eleanor Peregrin, a trained nurse who acted as his housekeeper for the last twelve years of his life. She is given $50,000 outright, $30,000 in trust and a house in Montclair N. J., and all the residue of the estate after certain legacies have been paid. Her total share is thought to be $1,500,000. Walter Duryea broke his neck in diving in August, 1898. He spent the rest of his life in a harness but managed his affairs with great shrewdness.

ITEMS OF SPORT

Chicago, St. Louis, Cleveland, and Boston have not won a game from Pitcher Ross of the Highlanders since the beginning of the season of 1910.

The handsome Hartney cup, offered for competition among the professional lacrosse clubs by Mr. C. T. Hartney, is an attractive piece of silverware. The trophy, which is a perpetual one, will go to the team scoring the largest number of goals during each season.

Pitcher Jack Pfeister's days with the Chicago National League team are apparently numbered. Manager Frank Chance announced that all the National League clubs had waived on the southpaw and the probabilities are he will be released to the Louisville American Association Club.

By winning the Kempton Park Jubilee Handicap Bachelor's Double, the property of Sir George Murray, stamped himself as one of the greatest handicap horses of the age. He won the race carrying the heavy weight of eight stone eleven pounds. The heaviest burden ever carried to victory in this event was that in 1896, when Victor Wild won with nine stone seven pounds in the saddle.

Mike Donlin may join the Boston Rustlers. Mike has been out of the game two years, but he claims that he is still there as a hitter.

The conclusion of the English football season has been dramatic. Manchester United have for the second time become the league champions, with Aston Villa the runners-up, or exactly the same relative positions as in 1907-08. On each occasion the United have earned 52 points.

No less than thirty players are batting better than .300 in the American association and an even dozen are clouting for .400 and over. Otis Clymer, Billy Hallman, Del Howard, Fred Carlsch and Phil Sitton are ex-Pirates in the charmed circle of club swingers, while Ham Hyatt is about ready to force his way into select society.

Packey McFarland has agreed to meet Mat Wells, the British lightweight champion, in a ten-round bout to be staged in Milwaukee early in June. The fighters have settled upon 133 pounds at 3 o'clock. The date will probably be June 9.

Martin Sheridan announces he has competed for the last time in the all-round championships, and that he is content to leave his present world's all-round record of 7,385 points for others to shoo at. Martin has not the time nor the inclination to go through another long seige of training necessary to fit himself for an all-round championship.

For the first time this year an American owner captured one of the big events over the Long Champs course. Colonel Millard Humsicker's Bolide II won the fillies' trial prize, worth $17,600, from a good field. The distance was one mile and Bolide II finished a length in front of W. F. Latman's La Besace and Walburga, which finished second and third respectively. The betting was 12 to 1 against Bolide II.

Owen Moran, the English lightweight, who is matched with Wolgast for 25 rounds in 'Frisco on July 4th, has an unusual record. Although he has taken part in ninety fights he has never suffered a knockdown. In the recent battle with McFarland at the Fairmont A. C., some of the spectators thought that Moran was floored by a punch on the jaw in one of the early rounds. Moran, after the bout, said that he slipped in avoiding a straight left for the chin, and lost his balance. In this he was corroborated by McFarland, who declared that he did not land a hard blow and that Moran, in breaking ground, tripped

KINCOLITH WON MARCH SKIDEGATE THE OVERTURE

Brass Band Contest Among the Indian Tribes Was a Great Success—Musicians Acquitted Themselves With Very Credit.

Winner of March Contest, Kincoith Band, Conductor, William Macdonald, selection played, "Battleship Alabama March."

Winner of Overture Contest, Skidegate Band, conductor Mr. Soloman, selection played, "Bridal Rose Overture," by Lavelle.

Prizes—Silver cups and medals for the bands. Gold medals for the conductors.

In the Empress Theatre during the afternoon seven Indian Bands took part in the contest got up by Mr. J. S. Gray at very short notice. Some of the bands travelled far to enter and all did very well indeed.

The programme of music played by the Indian Bands reveals at once the ambitious character of the musicians, and the amount of satisfaction they gave to the judges and the audience is in itself as much reward as the prizes they won.

The Kitkatla Band led off with the Overture from William Tell, and a characteristic march. Then followed the Greenville Band which played "Sounds from England," including many favorite airs, and also a popular march.

As Judges Messrs. J. S. Gray, William Godson, W. L. Barker, and J. Casley had a difficult role, but after due consideration of the varied merits of a marvellously meritorious group of bands, they decided as mentioned.

Putting it as tenderly as possible, Prince Rupert really should take a lesson from the Indians of the surrounding districts, and establish a city band.

This Specie is Valuable for Its Sperm—Good Prospect for the New Harbor Whaling Station.

That the new whaling station recently opened at Naden Harbor will in all probability yield the largest returns during the season which has just commenced, is the belief of many shipping men.

According to information received, it is thought the breeding grounds of the "Right" whales are in the vicinity of Naden Harbor.

Whaling at the other three stations of the Canadian Northern Pacific Fisheries Company is becoming brisker every day.

SUPREME COURT HERE IN JUNE

Sittings Will Open on 15th—Strange Anomaly Occurs

In response to a letter to the Deputy Attorney General, from Mr. Alex M. Manson, secretary of the Bar Association here, a telegram was received by the Registrar of the Supreme Court, to the effect that a Supreme Court judge will hear civil cases in Prince Rupert on June 15th and following days.

This creates the strange anomaly that a large number of men will have to go to Victoria for the criminal assize there on June 6th, while a Supreme Court judge will be visiting here only ten days later.

were amongst the most energetic of the Sports Committee. They stayed with it from morning till afternoon without a break, smoothing matters out and guiding the course of the lively programme swiftly and well.

Wee Boys Went It

There were about twenty five little boys in the lineup for the Wee Boys' Race, and they contested every inch of the tourse manfully. One little Dorando came a sad cropper, and was with difficulty consoled with candy.

A Coming Champion

Winners of the first heat in the Boys' race were Frank Hilland and George Ambrose. The race was a tremendously hot one, and the contestants burst the tape with energy fit to finish a record quarter mile.

Jumping Contests

With the finish of the Bigger Boys' hundred yards race there was a dwindling of the crowd of spectators, but the various jumping events were watched with interest by a considerable crowd.
