ITALIAN ARMIES MAKE FURTHER CAPTURES

AUSTRIANS THROWN FROM THEIR DOMINATING POSITION ON MOUNTAIN TOP

ITALIANS ARE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS NOW

Further Positions Are Captured From the Austrians—Duels With Artillery in Both East and West.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 21.—The only outstanding developments in the war theatres yesterday were on the Isonza front, where the Italians have captured the crest of Mount Vodice. This is the key to the Austrian defences to the north of Gorizia. From this commanding position the Italian armies will be able to dominate and out-flank the Austrian troops. The other positions taken by the Italians to the east of Gorizia have been maintained against repeated Austrian attacks.

Artillery Duels.
On the Russo-German front, incessant artillery duels have been in progress and still continue, while aeroplanes on both sides have been very active.

Western Front.
All the way from the Belgian coast to St. Quentin on the western front, artillery duels have been maintained, and in which the Allies have once again demonstrated their superiority. In the number of guns and in the quality of the gunners, the Germans are outclassed. In a further attack to the northwest of Rheims, the Germans were beaten back with great losses. Burning liquid was used extensively by the enemy on this occasion.

FAMINE IN GREECE

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 21.—Athens suffers from a food famine. The action of speculators is making provisions scarce. Alarming riots have taken place. Many stores of concealed food stuffs have been discovered by the Government.

EXEMPTION FOR WORKERS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, May 21.—Exemption from army conscription for the workers necessary for the manufacture of munitions, and for the production of articles needed to maintain the civilian population is urged by Samuel Gompers, President of the Federation of Labor.

WEDDING BELLS

The ceremony of marriage was solemnized yesterday morning in the Presbyterian Church Manse by the Rev. Dr. Grant, when Miss Sylvia Hathaway, of Seattle, and Mr. Frank A. McKinnon, of Anxox, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The wedding party arrived early yesterday morning from Anxox, accompanied by Mrs. McKinnon, of the Hay View Hotel in this city, mother of the bridegroom, and the ceremony took place in the forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon will return to Anxox today, and have been in receipt of the congratulations of the many friends of the bridegroom here.

MILITARY SERVICE FOR CANADA NOW

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, May 21.—All men eligible will have to sign the roll for military service. Those conscripted must appear before the board of military authorities. Judges will act as a Court of Appeal. Much of this proposal will depend upon whether an extension of the life of Parliament is granted by the Opposition under Sir Wilfrid Laurier. Otherwise it is said that the possibility will be a bitter election campaign with conscription as the issue.

SHIPBUILDING IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

The following is an excerpt from a Vancouver newspaper, which is of interest at the present time: "The Canadian Pacific Railway Company has offered the city of Port Alberni a free site for a shipbuilding industry on the shores of the Alberni Canal. This is the result of the recent letter to Lord Shaughnessy and every effort is being made by the industrial committee to have a shipyard, capable of handling ocean-going ships, established at the earliest possible moment. H. S. Clements, M. P., has been advised that the city council and leading citizens request him to obtain an order from the Munitions Board for at least three of the standard ships proposed."

Mr. H. S. Clements, M. P., is the member of the Dominion House for this riding, although from the reading of this article, and for all Prince Rupert sees of him, he might be member for the district in which Port Alberni is located.

What about shipbuilding orders for Prince Rupert, where the plant is already established?

NEW SNARES FOR SUBMARINES

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 21.—The German submarines are being mastered by the Admiralty with the aid of a new device. This new method of warfare on the under-water boats is meeting with much success. It is hoped that by this means an earlier termination of the war may be the result.

Fewer vessels were sunk, according to the report for last week, and the supplies of cereals are in better position than they were six weeks ago. The need for compulsory rationing in Great Britain has not yet arisen.

CABARET AND GEISHA TEA

The forthcoming Cabaret and Geisha Tea at Mrs. Frizzell's promises to be a big success. The programme is replete with many novel features. Proceeds will be devoted to patriotic purposes and substantial financial results are expected. Many prominent ladies are assisting.

Mrs. Frizzell will be grateful for small parcels containing articles not to exceed 25 cents in value. The public in general is asked to contribute these parcels, which will be sold at the Cabaret.

BULGARIA ANXIOUS FOR SEPARATE PEACE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, May 21.—The frequent absences of the Czar Ferdinand from his capital of late lend color to the rumors that he is trying to effect a coup in the direction of a separate peace. The Bulgarian people are sick of the war, and although the Czar Ferdinand is said to dislike war, he finds it hard to moderate his greed sufficiently to accept the terms the Entente Allies will offer him.

SIR RICHARD RESIGNS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Victoria, May 21.—Sir Richard McBride has cabled his resignation to Premier Brewster. He will return to Canada in August next. Ill health is said to be the cause of his resigning.

STRIKE SETTLED

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 21.—The strike of engineers which threatened to cripple the industrial centres has been settled by a conference presided over by Premier Lloyd George.

THE CASUALTIES

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 21.—The number of men killed in the war thus far was estimated at seven millions, says Mr. Arthur Henderson. The estimated total casualties in the war exceed forty-five millions.

ARGENTINA'S PLEA

Washington, May 21.—The Government of Argentina states that the shortage at home prevents the exporting of any of her crop to the Allies. This plea is under investigation by the State Department. If the reports of an actual surplus are borne out, the United States will prevent the imports of American coal to Argentina.

ARRESTED TODAY

This morning at ten o'clock, Officer Bailey boarded the steamer Prince John on her arrival and arrested a man named R. W. Keith. A warrant had been issued some time ago for the arrest of this party, but he got to Ketchikan, and he was said to be fighting extradition. He was charged with the theft of jewelry to the value of about $500 from the safe of the Savoy Hotel last December.

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OF FOOD STUFFS ASKED

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, May 17.—The ground-work of debate this session is the High Cost of Living. Directly or indirectly, by resolution or otherwise, the Borden Government is under continuous criticism for its cruel mismanagement of the food problem. And it isn't only the Liberals who do the criticising. Some of the staunchest Conservatives get hot under the collar when the question is broached.

For instance, nobody would accuse W. F. Cockshutt of Brantford, ex-president of the Cockshutt Plow Company, of not being a strong party man. He is known far and wide as a party stalwart and his name is being mentioned right now as one of the next batch of Senators to be appointed by the Government. And yet Mr. Cockshutt blew up the other night.

It was the delicate tact of Mr. Crothers that touched off the fuse. The Minister of Labor breathed the word "plows," when Mr. Cockshutt was talking about prices, and Mr. Cockshutt went up in the air. He disclaimed having anything to do with the price of plows for the last twenty years, after which he proceeded to speak right out in meeting.

A Food Dictator.

He said that Parliament should look after the workingman, that the time for shilly-shallying had gone by and that there must be a food dictator for Canada, as there was in other belligerent countries. He did not, however, mention Mr. Flavelle. Mr. Cockshutt declared that if $1.50 to $2.00 was a fair price for wheat in ordinary times, if $2.00 was a fair price for potatoes, or 35 or 40 cents a pound was a fair price for butter, or 25 cents a fair price for cheese it was no hardship on the farmer for this or any other Government to say that beyond these prices, owing to the exigencies of war, they cannot at the present time go.

This strong gospel suffered no dilution at the hands of A. K. Maclean of Halifax, who stated that it was an undisputed fact that hundreds of thousands of people in Canada were living on or below the poverty line. With wages in general advanced only two per cent., food prices up forty five per cent., and the purchasing power of the dollar shrunk to sixty cents, the workingman was many times worse off than he was before the war. He had come round, with some reluctance, he admitted, to the opinion that the Government ought to fix prices, run the flour mills, if necessary, control transportation and repulse export.

All these remarks were apropos of a resolution to consider the abnormal increase in the price of flour which was introduced by Kyte of Richmond, N. S. Mr. Kyte said that the wild speculation in wheat which took place last week accompanied by a sharp advance in the price of flour, was due to the millers exploiting the Winnipeg grain market as a means of squeezing another profit out of the public. The flour, he said, which the millers were selling for fifteen dollars a bushel was made from wheat which the millers had had on hand for many months and consequently the present price of flour had no basis in the present price of wheat. Furthermore, Mr. Kyte stated that the millers had enough cheap wheat on hand to provide flour for months to come and that there was absolutely no excuse for the swollen prices they were asking for flour.

Getting right down to cases, Mr. Kyte asked why a Government which could fix the price of news-

RUSSIA IS NOW UNITED FOR WAR

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, May 21.—The Minister of War, M. Kerensky, has a firm faith in the readiness of the army to fulfill its duty. He is confident of its ability to dissipate all pessimistic ideas of the conditions existing in the ranks. The democratic committees declare Russia's loyalty to the Allies and demand a closer and inseparable union with the allies of Russia.

The Workmen's delegates endorse the Government.

TREASON IN CHINA

(Special to The Daily News.)

Pekin, May 21.—The Chinese House of Representatives declares emphatically against the possibility of hostilities under the conditions existing. The leader of the house is accused of selling his country to Japan for a hundred million yen. The demand for radical changes is insistent. A leading editor has been placed under arrest for criticising secret negotiations with Tuan Chi Jui.

print paper for fear of the newspapers, could not regulate the price of flour for love of the people at large. The remedy he suggested was that the Government commandeer all the wheat now in the hands of the farmers. They had talked about it a year ago and not longer than a few weeks ago had been suggesting the prices at which the wheat might be sold to the British Government. Was it too much to ask that the Borden Government should bestir itself on behalf of the Canadian people in general?

Mr. Kyte demanded that the Government eliminate the speculative element from prices and that the people get their flour for actual cost of the wheat, received by the farmer, plus milling, transportation and a reasonable profit for the miller.

Mr. Kyte contrasted this neglect of the people's interests with the Borden Government's tenderness toward Capital in its Business Profits War. Tax. He characterized the tax of 50 per cent. on profits over 15 per cent. and of 75 per cent. on profits over 20 per cent. as a great bluff. No doubt it had been arrived at after a careful canvassing of what kind of tax would hurt the fewest rich friends of the Borden Government. He quoted some interesting comparisons between Canada's love taps in the way of taxes, and the way Australia gets (Continued on Page four.)

MACDONALD'S RESIGNATION

Mr. MacDonald's retirement from the ministry, the Victoria Times states, was rendered inevitable by the proceedings of the inquiry into the Cowper charges, apart altogether from the actual findings of the Commissioner. Granted that the evidence did not challenge his personal integrity, that the contribution under investigation was not shown to have been Canadian Northern money, the bare fact that he was in receipt of funds from any person intimately connected with the promoters of that company, no matter for what purpose, was enough to compromise his position in the public mind. This, not the form or details of them, constitute the gravamen of the Cowper charges. Campaign funds from the Canadian Northern, the Pacific Great Eastern, or anybody directly connected with them, are tainted, for they are intended to shackle the independence and mar the usefulness of those in whose behalf they are made. We have only to refer to the millions of dollars of trust moneys released to those companies by the late administration in utter violation of the law to illustrate the possibilities which flow from the receipt of campaign funds from such sources by candidates for office.

Mr. Brewster stated his attitude on this subject most emphatically. The resignation of the Attorney-General, he said, had been accepted because of the fact, apart from all undisclosed considerations, that money was received by him from one who was very closely associated with a railway corporation which had obtained favors from the province, and the general impression must be that it was given with the idea of influencing the action of the Government. In view of the record it was hardly necessary for the Premier to remind the House that if such were the object of the contribution under recent investigation the contributors were very greatly mistaken. The stiff rebuff Sir William Mackenzie received here last January and the haste with which he made Ottawa transfer the C. N. R. system in British Columbia from the jurisdiction of the province to that of the Dominion Railway Commission, furnish eloquent proof of this.

If the recent development is a mine laid and exploded from Toronto in the expectation that it would bury the Government among the ruins and restore an administration which would dance every time Sir William Mackenzie cracked the whip, we hope he will persevere and inwardly digest the report of the proceedings in the Legislature recently, particularly the following observation by Mr. Brewster:

"I want it understood, Mr. Speaker, and I think the country generally does understand, that when it comes to the place where there is the slightest suggestion that there is any corporate interest, railway or other, controlling this Government I refuse to allow that impression to exist and I am going to have it thrashed out so that the truth may be made plain."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The intimation that Great Britain and France are prepared to arm and equip the volunteer force raised by Colonel Roosevelt should go a long way to influence the Washington authorities to send these troops overseas as soon as possible. It might be possible, indeed, to handle in this way the major part of the entire number enrolled under the Roosevelt banner, which now aggregates nearly 200,000 men, more than the number recruited by the Government for the National Guard.

Mr. Crothers, Minister of Labor, is trying to solve the food question by writing letters to the combines asking them if it is true that they are "unduly" enhancing prices. When said combines reply that these charges are wickedly false, Mr. Crothers will triumphantly exclaim to the House of Commons, "There, I told you so!"

From New York comes the report that Herbert Hoover, head of the United States food board, may be asked to control the situation in Canada also. What is the matter with the Canadian Government? Is it paralyzed altogether? Why does it not set up its own organization? Is it going to leave everything to the municipalities and women's councils?

VOLUNTARY VERSUS COMPULSORY SERVICE

To the Editor:—Two apparently rival systems are being forced upon our consideration in the present crisis—the voluntary and the compulsory. The voluntary system from a moral and spiritual standpoint must always be the higher of the two, but the compulsory system from a practical and national standpoint will always be the wider of the two.

The reason for this is plain. On the one hand, it is the appeal to a man's will which stirs what is noblest and best within him. If he is not free to choose otherwise he is not offering a willing sacrifice for a great cause but on the other hand, the number of those who will cheerfully respond to an appeal to the will is limited and when something more than the individual is involved and the whole body of which the individual is a member comes prominently into view the necessity of having every member in the body doing his share and not leaving the burden to the willing few becomes very evident.

It is natural and best that we should begin with the voluntary system and work up to the compulsory system as our realization of what the whole body requires becomes more intense. In every great undertaking there must be some room left for the voluntary element if the highest achievements are ever to be attained, while at the same time this element should work within the circle of a system which brings (Continued on page three.)

SEVEN YEARS TORTURE

Nothing Helped Him Until He Took "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

ALBERT VARNER
Buckingham, Que., May 3rd, 1915.
For seven years, I suffered terribly from Severe Headaches and Indigestion. I had belching gas from the stomach, bitter stuff would come up into my mouth after eating, while at times I had nausea and vomiting, and had chronic Constipation. I went to several doctors and wrote to a specialist in Boston but without benefit. I tried many remedies but nothing did me good. Finally, a friend advised "Fruit-a-tives". I took this grand fruit medicine and it made me well. I am grateful to "Fruit-a-tives", and to everyone who has miserable health with Constipation and Indigestion and Bad Stomach, I say take "Fruit-a-tives", and you will get well".

a certain amount of pressure to bear upon all.

It is because we have been too individualistic in our past training and have not made enough of the socialistic idea of life that it seems to us now that the voluntary system is breaking down. There is just the danger that we may swing to the other extreme if we do not see clearly the value of both systems—the voluntary combined with the compulsory though this may seem a contradiction in words.

Let us apply this principle to National Economy.

We have begun with the voluntary system. An appeal has been made to our people to economize in every possible way so as to be able to invest in war loans. Much has been achieved in this way, but there are many who will not respond to such an appeal and so the compulsory system has to be applied. Taxes are imposed to meet the cost of war. Every citizen must now bear his share.

With our enormous drink bill staring us in the face, we began by calling upon our people to "follow the King" and abstain from intoxicating drink during the war. Some nobly responded, but not enough to have any marked effect upon the millions of dollars expended upon this unnecessary luxury. A certain amount of compulsion brought to bear upon the drinking habits of our people is in the best interests of the whole body. The voluntary element may solve the drink problem for an individual, but it can never alone solve the drink problem for a nation. There must be corporate action as well as individual effort.

Let us apply this principle to Patriotic Funds.

It would have been a great moral loss to our people if they had not been asked to give for Red Cross purposes and Patriotic Funds. The generous response to these appeals has had an uplifting effect, but as the work of providing for those dependent upon our soldiers needing additional assistance grows apace it will seem only reasonable to fall back upon the compulsory system with a graduated tax upon profits to meet such claims.

Let us apply this principle to enlisting. The voluntary system called forth our noblest and best. It gave a spirit to our Canadian forces which has covered them with glory which can never die, but now the weakness of the voluntary system is being felt. It is too limited in its reach. It does not spread the burden equally. The willing bear the whole load, whereas every citizen has his duty to perform to the State in some direction or other which should be indicated to him by those who review the whole situation.

We are thus driven step by step to the inevitable conclusion that conscription of men as well as conscription of money is necessary in a great crisis like the present. In other words we arrive at the socialistic principle that the State has the right to call for what it needs for the maintenance of its existence and the promotion of its welfare.

This is a rude shock to those who have been brought up with a false idea of personal liberty which in most cases means the essence of selfishness.

This is a sad blow to those who are making money their god and are living under the Dominion of the Dollar, but this is no shock to those who have been taught the Christian principle which recognizes both the rights of the individual and the claims of society. This is no blow to those who are worshipping the Father above and are living under the Dominion of Christ. As St. Paul has taught us, we are not independent units, we are ministering members of Society. "No man liveth unto himself."

Metropolitan of British Columbia.

Didn't Think It So Bad.

Widow (weeping): "Yes, poor Tom met with a horrible death. He fell from the fifth-story window and was instantly killed."

Friend (sympathetically): "Dear, dear! Is it possible it was as bad as that? Why, I understood that he only fell from a third-story window."

Bathe Internally and Keep Well!

Nature has mightily equipped us all, old and young, to resist disease—but she requires that we give her a chance.

We give her no chance if we permit the Lower Intestine to be more or less clogged with accumulated waste. Yet that is a universal condition today, as is proven by the number of laxative drugs that are consumed.

You can help Nature in Nature's most effectual way by Internal Bathing, and in an easy, non-habit-forming way keep the Intestine as sweet and clean as Nature demands it to be for perfect health and surer defence against contagion. Over half a million keen, bright, healthy people testify to its result.

Mrs. C. G. M. (name on request) of Strathroy, Ont., writes:—

I am pleased to have this opportunity of testifying to the merits of the J. B. L. Cascade. I have been using it now for a year with satisfactory results. I am an old woman, but my health is so improved that I have a renewed lease of life. You are at liberty to give my address to anyone privately who may desire to write to me regarding the Cascade.

Just call on Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, corner 3rd Ave. and 6th Street, Prince Rupert, and request free booklet, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent Efficient." The most efficient device for Internal Bathing, The "J. B. L. Cascade" will also be shown and explained to you at your desire. If you prefer, write for Booklet to Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell, 163 College Street, Toronto.

WATER NOTICE

USE AND STORAGE

TAKE NOTICE that Magnus P. Olsen, whose address is Anyox, B. C., will apply for a licence to take and use about sixty cubic feet per second and to store about 300 acre-feet of water out of Bonanza Creek which flows southeasterly and drains into Granby Bay about at or near Lot 1675, Cassiar District.

The storage-dam will be located at about one and one-half miles from mouth of Bonanza Creek. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 300 acre-feet, and it will flood about twenty acres of land. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point at or near the dam, and will be used for power for mining purpose upon the mine described as the Midas, Farmigan and Fox Groups, situate near the headwaters of Bonanza Creek.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 19th day of March, 1917. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act, 1914," will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Prince Rupert, B. C. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local paper.

M. P. OLSEN, Applicant. The date of the first publication of this notice is March 26, 1917.

after the profiteers. For instance, Stanfields Limited—the Conservative whip's woolen company—which made 14 1/2 per cent in 1916, paid that year as a war tax to the Dominion Treasury $54,844. If Stanfields Limited had been in Australia it would have paid on the same amount of business $142,907 into the public treasury. Similarly the Consolidated Rubber Company paid $154,887 in taxes in 1916, which, in Australia, would have been $453,750. Dominion Canners was another conspicuous example—the Canadian tax on this company's business in 1916 was $99,125. In Australia it would have been $278,125.

Speaking of the speculators and manipulators who wear the white flour of a shameless life, Alphonse Verville of Maisonneuve, the Labor member, contributed a few illuminating remarks on the high cost of living from the workman's point of view. Mr. Verville considered it a shame and a scandal that the cost of living which had only risen twelve per cent, in Australia had been allowed to soar forty-five per cent, in Canada. Taking that with the shrunken value of the dollar, Canada had become very dear to all Canadians and the food pirates were daily making it dearer.

He punctured the myth of high wages in munition factories or anywhere else. A little handful of highly skilled workmen might be getting ten dollars a day in munition factories, but the average was about two dollars and a quarter. He also laughed at backyard cultivation, vacant lot tillage and other philanthropic suggestions unless the Government handled the matter, which they might well do by appropriating for use the unoccupied real estate subdivisions in the neighborhood of cities which now grow nothing but grass and vacant lots. How, he asked pertinently, could the poor man afford to pay $4 a bag for potatoes for seedling. If he tilled an acre of potatoes he would have to pay out $40, and if a frost came he would be that much money out.

Mr. Verville stated that what a man made by the day was not the question, but what he got in a year. He estimated that in Montreal alone ninety thousand workmen's families—large families at that—were living on seven hundred dollars a year or less. How they did it he did not know—except that they starved a little.

In the recent wheat surpluses and the exorbitant price of flour Mr. Verville saw a plot of the millers, in which the Government had a hand, to prove that free wheat did not help the consumer.—H. F. G.
