ALL FRONTS ARE PREPARING FOR ADVANCE

RAIDS AND LOCAL ATTACKS CONTINUING ON WESTERN FRONT UNCEASINGLY

THE ITALIANS CONSOLIDATE NEW GROUND

Austrian Counter Attacks are Repulsed—Progress Made
In Albania—Attacks
By Hungarians.

Rome, June 1.—No further advances have been made by the Italian forces in the field. The newly captured positions are being consolidated, and several strong counter attacks have been repulsed. From information received, the Austrian authorities have ordered the evacuation of the town of Trieste. Train loads of goods and materials have been removed to the interior, and thousands of refugees have fled already into Dalmatia.

Rome, June 1.—(Official). In Albania our troops continued their advance and several villages have been occupied. The opposing Bulgarian troops, led by German officers, showed little inclination to fight.

French Official.

Paris, June 1.—Attacks made by the Germans have been repulsed at four different points. In the regions of Vaux, Laffaux and Rheims, violent artillery actions are in progress. Great aerial activity has been noticeable, and five enemy machines have been brought down.

British Official.

London, June 1.—Raids made by small parties of German troops have been driven off, to the south of Armentieres. Artillery battles are in progress near Bullecourt, and on the right bank of the River Scarpe. The Germans are being given no rest, but are being worried day and night by local attacks and raids. Many small salients have been straightened out in the British lines preparatory to a further advance. The casualties inflicted upon the enemy forces by these small attacks continues large. In comparison, the British losses are small. Two enemy aeroplanes have been brought down by our high-angle fire.

Total Casualties.

The total British casualties published for the month of May amounts to 112,243.

BRAZILIAN FLEET IS ON PATROL DUTY

Rio de Janeiro, May 31.—An attempted dynamiting of a government depot here today by Capt. Vendig and eight German seamen from the interned German ship Coburn, caused tremendous excitement and added to the war spirit against Germany. The Germans were arrested.

How near Brazil is to a declaration of war against Germany was indicated by today's announcement that the fleet is now patrolling the Atlantic.

The Brazilian Congress continued its secret discussions of the international situation.

Anti-war members were still filibustering and no action was possible.

ALLIES TO STATE THEIR WAR AIMS

London, May 30.—The correspondent has been advised on competent authority that Premier Ribot's recent statement of France's aims in the war was the first of what is to be a series of statements. Each of the Allies will make a similar statement as to its aims. When these have been made, all the Allies will issue a single combined announcement on their war aims, such as was issued in response to President Wilson's famous peace note. It is understood that the combined statement will declare that the Allies agree absolutely on the restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Roumania, the redemption of Alsace-Lorraine for France and the Trentino for Italy and the autonomy of the Slavs now under Austro-Hungarian rule.

All the statements by the Allied statesmen recently have been aimed at Russia. Though that country is sound at heart, much work must be done, especially by the United States, in putting matters before the Russian people in their true light.

THE MUSICIANS OF ANYOX MAKE MERRY

Anyox musicians took advantage of an open evening to give a dance for themselves in the Recreation Hall. This was the first date for a long time on which at least a few of the musical tribe were not engaged and they made the most of it by giving a dance under their own auspices. F. X. Moore, manager and director of Moore's Music, advertised as "a business orchestra," conceived the idea of having all the musicians of the town get together and contribute to the enjoyment of a musical evening, giving the public not only the pleasure of good music well rendered, but also the pastime of dancing at the same time. The affair was informal and closed promptly at midnight, this being the style of dance introduced and maintained by the regular orchestra. A catchy program of sixteen numbers was greatly appreciated, many of the numbers being repeated several times before the dancers were satisfied. This program, especially arranged by the orchestra, is a composite of the programs used during the past year by all the different organizations and private dances at which the orchestra has been employed and is in itself a masterpiece of management. Not only are the forms of dance thus popularly indicated by the repeated use on the several programs of the year, but the music used on the different occasions is recorded and only those best liked are played on this program.

Those who contributed to the musical entertainment were Moore's Music, the regular four-piece orchestra; the Ukulelians, a four-piece Hawaiian string orchestra; the Jaz Band, a combination of seven unattached musicians and Moore's Concert orchestra of eight instruments.

The evening was a great success socially and financially.

WANT NO HALF MEASURES

London, Ont., May 31.—The Ontario Labor Education Association at its annual convention here, adopted a resolution calling upon the Dominion Government to confiscate 75 per cent. of all war profits to date, and urging the nationalization of all industries connected with the manufacture of war material, all banks and railways, including the C. P. R., and all cold storage plants in the country.

THE OLD WORLD TRAIL.—Hall—From the Old Warriors to the New.—"Every inch of the ground covered on the Sinai Peninsula is full of historical interest.... The chief line of communication is the old Palestine Road.... Romani was fought within a few miles of the site where Pelusium was won and lost."—From the Sydney Bulletin.

RECEIVES MILITARY CROSS AND IS NOW "MISSING"

Last week Mrs. E. Smart, of this city received word that her brother, Lieutenant Frank Perraton, of the Royal Fusiliers, had been awarded the Military Cross "for conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty." He rallied and reorganized the elements of three companies, and rendered valuable assistance in repulsing a strong enemy counter attack. He set a splendid example of courage and determination.

The London Weekly News says: "Unofficially it is learned that the unit to which Lieutenant Perraton was attached succeeded after a stubborn fight in occupying a part of the German line. The Germans counter attacked strongly. All the officers were placed hors de combat with the exception of Lieutenant Perraton, who took over the command of those remaining unhurt, organized the defence and succeeded in defeating the efforts of the Germans to dislodge them. On being relieved, officers and men were overwhelmed with congratulations from the general downwards."

Since this, later word has been received that Lieutenant Perraton is missing. Out of his platoon of eighty-eight men, in a later engagement, only seventeen came out, and it is not known whether the lieutenant is a prisoner or not.

COAL MINE TROUBLES

Ottawa, May 31.—The Government, overwhelmed with the situation arising out of conscription, and with a cabinet shuffle in immediate prospect, has taken no action yet in regard to the mining trouble in the West. The situation, however, is pretty clearly defined. If an arrangement between the parties is not reached, the mines will in all probability be operated by a Government commission.

VON BISSING SCHEME BEING HUSHED UP

Copenhagen, via London, May 31.—The Von Bissing memorandum, in which the late Governor-General of Belgium urged on the Emperor the necessity of the annexation of the kingdom, is tabbed to the German press. The censor has apparently forbidden its publication, or any reference or comment upon it.

The case is similar to that of the manifesto of the six leagues early in 1915. This manifesto by the big industrial and agricultural organizations of the empire, advanced similar wide reaching designs of annexation in the east and west, and was published in the Essen organ of the Krupps. The Government at once forbid further publication or comment under the heaviest penalty, declaring that it was calculated not to stir up dissension at home, but also to check any inclination for peace abroad.

Evidently the same reasoning has been applied to the Bissing memorandum in comparison with which the phrasing of the six league manifesto was relatively mild.

FISH ARRIVALS

Among the fishing boats in port yesterday were the Eagle, with 12,000 lbs. halibut; Magnolia, 17,000; Nellie, 4,000; Venus, 7,000; Nautilus, 7,000; Zorra, 8,000; Ed, 4,000; Joe Baker, 5,000. The price realized for Canadian fish was 9 1/4 cents. Today, the Arctic is in with 7,000 lbs. halibut; Theckla, 7,000; Ringold, 1,000; H. and R., 7,000; Soya, 5,000; Reliance, 7,000; Stella, 1,000; Brian, 6,000. The trawler Carruthers had 30,000 lbs. and the Stierat, 10,000 lbs. for the Cold Storage Company. The Pioneer arrived with 40,000 lbs., but on learning the situation, cleared for Seattle.

RUSSIAN GARRISON BURNING TO FIGHT

London, May 31.—The exhortations of the Russian Minister of War, M. Kerensky, that the Russian troops cease their attitude of passiveness, and go into the fray with the object of bringing about the necessary defeat of Germany, evidently are bearing fruit. The entire garrison at Sebastopol, Russia's big fortress and naval station in the Crimea, has requested unanimously that it be permitted to go to the Riga front and give battle to the Germans.

TROUBLE IN TURKEY

Paris, via London, May 31.—Turkey is swept with famine and pestilence; her people are panic-stricken and her army's morale is utterly gone, according to information received here today via Berne. One hundred thousand desertions from the army are reported.

Realizing the loss of all of Turkey's fighting power, 8,000 Austrian troops have recently been sent to Palestine to attempt the bolstering up of the army in front of the British expeditionary forces. Four thousand German troops are said to be guarding the government buildings, factories and bridges in Constantinople. Hundreds in that city are dying each day. Typhus is sweeping over the whole country, the reports declare.

The deserters from the Turkish army, 100,000 strong, are said to have fled into the mountains and to be existing through brigandage.

HUNGER HASTENS GERMANY'S DEFEAT

Among the most instructive of the multitudinous articles in the German press on the reduction of the bread ration is one in The Munich Neueste Nachrichten, headed "Our Daily Bread." It has never been an easy matter for the German to live, says the leading Bavarian journal. German soil had to be coaxed into supplying the daily bread of the people. The world's granaries were remote. Patiently and anxiously the husbandman had to work, and saw desolation brought into the land by enemy troopers, Swedes, Pans, French. Hunger, pestilence and death followed in their train. The times are bad enough now, but these times were worse.

Germany's armies cannot beat her in the open. Germany cannot be forced. An iron wall stands, and Germany is behind it. And as they cannot beat her in fair combat, they try secret and cruel methods to choke her. The people at home are to defeat the armies in the field. A round dozen of enemies weave and plot their schemes of hunger, and over the ocean there is one who helps them with a broad grin on his face. But these wicked machinations will not succeed; may the rope intended to choke Germany, choke Germany's enemies.

"We miss the help of thousands of hands, the last harvest was poor; the winter is so long. Much has happened which ought not to have happened, matters which we do not need to be silent about and which we cannot forget. The time will come when reprisals will be taken for food usury and profiteering. But this is a question for the future."

Tighten Belt Tighter.

What Germans have to consider now is this: "There is a certain quantity of grain available. None of us can work a miracle and make more of it. The man who has hidden away a sack of corn is a traitor. May it burden him every night of his life. There are people drinking milk who know that the children have none."

"It is going to be hard with us, very hard. But we shall have our daily bread. We do not need to interpret 'Daily Bread' as it was interpreted in the old days. A cup of milk, a dish of turnips, a salt herring and a handful of potatoes in war time is also daily bread. First of all the sick, the wounded, the children, the army, and then the others. The Germans are a nation of noblemen, a lordly people, over whom the storms of a thousand years have raged without breaking them. Who dare say we shall not hold out. French hate, Italian cunning, British hypocrisy are waiting for any sign of despondency. And if we do not hold out at home the iron wall at the front will rock."

"If we must tighten still tighter our belt let it be so. On the Island it will be drawn tighter still. A day is coming. A golden day after this iron one."—London Chronicle.

CABINET RECONSTRUCTION

Ottawa newspapers fore-shadow a reconstruction of the Federal ministry. The Citizen predicts the retirement of four, and possibly six, members, naming Hon. Thos. Crothers, minister of labor; Hon. Dr. Roche, minister of the interior; Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, and Hon. Frank Cochrane, minister of railways. The places of these will be filled, it says, either from the Government ranks or from the ranks of the Opposition, the latter of which would mean a coalition cabinet. The Ottawa Journal-Press, which is in close touch with the ministry, says a coalition Government is not probable.

It is indisputable that this war found Canada with one of the weakest administrations in its history. It was weak from its inception, for it was appointed almost in its entirety through the influence of Sir William Mackenzie, the nationalist and the trusts. Sir Robert Borden could name on the fingers of one hand the number of ministers he appointed on his own initiative and best judgment. When the conflict broke out the inevitable happened. The people rose to the situation, but the Government did not rise. The people gave of their best, and with the assistance of the Duke of Connaught, Sir Sam Hughes, a capable chief of staff, and other competent subordinates, sent an imposing force overseas, where it was trained and properly equipped. The Government allowed itself to be doped by political expediency. It tried to make Canada's war effort a party affair. Instead of seeking the co-operation of the experienced statesmen in the Opposition and able men of affairs outside of Parliament, as they did in England, it kept them at arm's length. No attempt was made to nationalize the munition industry. On the contrary splendid Government plants were handed over to private corporations. No effort was put forth to stop profiteering in line with the example of Britain, France and the other Dominions and Allies. The Ross rifle tragedy was prolonged for more than two years. Sir Sam Hughes is authority for the assertion that intrigue, first against himself, and then against the Prime Minister, was going on in the cabinet all along. One army division was held up for four months while the ministers haggled over a contract for motor trucks!

Now we have the recruiting and food questions, which should have been dealt with firmly and energetically months ago, demanding instant action. The petty evasions of abortive orders-in-council, regulations beginning and ending nowhere, bold speeches and hesitating, vacillating action, will be of no avail. No plunge into the turmoil of an election will meet emergencies which call for action now. What Canada needs and has needed ever since the war began is direction by a strong man with a mind of his own, supported by the best ability this country can command, regardless of political and other distinctions. But anything would be better than the policy of drift which Toronto Saturday Night, an independent journal of high standing, recently scored in the following terms:

"What is the Government doing about these things? Nothing; and from present indications will continue to do nothing. A policy of drift seems to be this Government's long suit. But Canadians are getting tired of it, extremely tired. To be quite frank, we are cursed with a most incompetent Government, probably the worst since Confederation, and that is saying a good deal. To pick out the most incompetent member of the Cabinet would be a hard task. It would be unfair, there being so little to choose between them."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Manitoba's master grafters have been ordered by the courts to return to the Government of the province over a million dollars stolen from the treasury through manipulation of contracts. This was accomplished by a change of regime. There is at least a possibility that some part, if not all, of the twelve millions abstracted from the treasury of British Columbia may be recovered.

This is a time of great illusions and the perspective faculties of you are entitled to everything in the whole wheat grain. Dr. Wiley says: "Wheat is a complete food containing all the elements necessary for human nutrition." But be sure you get the whole wheat in a digestible form. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is whole wheat made digestible by steam-cooking, shredding and baking—the best process ever devised for preparing the whole wheat grain for the human stomach. Two or three of these crisp little loaves of baked whole wheat with milk and berries, make a delicious nourishing meal. Made in Canada.

certain individuals appear to be out of joint. Just think of Col. Armand Lavergne, an officer in His Majesty's forces, talking about establishing an "independent republic" on the banks of the St. Lawrence! The man ought to be in one of Quebec's numerous lunatic asylums.

Neither the glowing eloquence of the great French orator Viviani nor the impressive silence of that rugged old Gallic warrior Father Joffre seems to have had a great deal of effect in the Province of Quebec. Lavergne, with his hatred of British institutions and his scorn of the glories of Old France seems obsessed of the idea that he has been called upon to play the part of a "great liberator," while he is nothing more than a bigoted firebrand, who has earned summary treatment.

LAND REGISTRY ACT

(Sections 36 and 134.)
Re Applications Nos. 9086-1 and 9087-1, Filing 5808.

TAKE NOTICE that application has been made to register Sarah Lando, of Prince Rupert, B. C., as owner in fee under two Tax Sale Deeds from the Collector of the City of Prince Rupert, bearing date the 22nd day of September, 1916, and ALL AND SINGULAR that certain parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Municipality of Prince Rupert, more particularly known and described as Lot eleven (11), Block twenty-eight (28), Section Six (6), and Lot thirty-three (33), Block forty-six (46), Section Eight (8), Map 923.

You are required to contest the claim of the tax purchaser within 35 days from the date of the service of this notice (which may be effected by publication), and your attention is called to section 36 of the "Land Registry Act" with amendments, and to the following extract therefrom:— "...and in default of a caveat or certificate of its pendency being filed before the registration as owner of the person entitled under such tax sale, all persons so served with notice, and those claiming through or under them, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by virtue of any unregistered instrument, and all persons claiming any interest in the land by descent whose title is not registered under the provisions of this Act, shall be for ever estopped and debarred from setting up any claim to or in respect of the land so sold for taxes, and the Registrar shall register the person entitled under such tax sale as owner of the land so sold for taxes."

AND WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands, in the name of Sarah Lando.

AND WHEREAS on investigating the title it appears that prior to the 14th day of September, 1915, (the date on which the said lands were sold for overdue taxes), you were the registered and assessed owners thereof.

FURTHER TAKE NOTICE that at the same time I shall effect registration in pursuance of such application and issue a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the said lands in the name of Sarah Lando unless you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, if any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

DATED at the Land Registry Office, Prince Rupert, B. C., this 10th day of April, A. D. 1917.

THE REAL MEN AT THE FRONT

One of the finest letters from the front, descriptive of the real quality of the manhood of the Allies fighting there, appears in the current number of "Good Housekeeping." The description is so fine, and expresses so well the spirit of the boys, that on its face, even without the signature, the writer's character is stamped.

As a literary man, Coningsby Dawson is well known. He says: War's a grim game—not at all what one's civilian mind imagined; it's far more horrible and far less exciting. The horrors which the civilian mind dreams most are mutilation and death. Our here we rarely think about them; the thing which wears on one most and calls out his gravest courage is the endless sequence of physical discomfort. Not to be able to wash, not to be able to sleep, to have to be wet and cold for long periods at a stretch, to find mud on your person, in your food, to have to stand in mud, see mud, sleep in mud, and to continue to smile—that's what tests courage.

Our chaps are splendid. They're not the harebrained idiots that war correspondents depict from day to day. They're perfectly sane people who know to a fraction what they're up against, but who carry on with a grim good nature and a determination to win with a smile. I never before appreciated as I do today the latent capacity for big-hearted endurance that is in the heart of every man. Here are apparently quite ordinary chaps—chaps who washed, liked theatres, loved kiddies and sweethearts, had a zest for life—they're bankrupt of all pleasures except the supreme pleasure of knowing that they're doing the ordinary and finest thing of which

WATER NOTICE

DIVERSION AND USE

TAKE NOTICE that George McRae whose address is Skidegate, B. C., will apply for a licence to take and use 150 cubic feet per minute of water out of Demster Creek, which flows northerly and drains into Alford Bay, about 15 chains from the N. E. corner of T. L. 835. The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about ten chains west from N.W. corner of Lot 4, B. C. Fisheries, and will be used for power purpose upon the land described as adjoining Timber Limit 831 in application to lease.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 15th day of January, 1917. A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the Water Act 1914 will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Prince Rupert. Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B. C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

The date of the first publication of this notice is February 21st, 1917.

GEORGE MCRAE, Applicant.

MINERAL ACT

Certificate of Improvements. NOTICE

"Dongall," "Dongall Fractional," and "Waterfront" Mineral Claims, situate in the Skeena Mining Division of Cassiar District.

Where located—On the west side of head of Alice Arm.

TAKE NOTICE that I, Richard B. McGinnis, Free Miner's Certificate No. 11306, acting as agent for the Dolly Varden Mines Company, Free Miner's Certificate No. 931, intend, sixty days from the date hereof, to apply to the Mining Recorder for a Certificate of Improvements, for the purpose of obtaining a Crown Grant of the above claim.

And further take notice that action, under section 85, must be commenced before the issuance of such Certificate of Improvements.

Dated this 24th day of April, A. D. 1917.
Jy. 9. RICHARD B. MCGINNIS.

they are capable. There are millions to whom the mere consciousness of doing their duty has brought an heretofore unexperienced peace of mind. For myself, I was never happier than I am at present; there's a novel zip added to life by the daily rush and the knowledge that at last you're doing something into which no trace of selfishness enters. One can die only once; the chief concern that matters is how and not when you die. I don't pity the weary men who have attained eternal leisure in the corruption of our shell-furrowed battles; they "went west" in their supreme moment. The men I pity are those who could not hear the call of duty, and whose consciences will grow more flabby every day. With the brutal roar of the first Prussian gun the cry came to the civilized world, "Follow thou me," just as truly as it did in Palestine. Men went to their Calvary singing "Tipperary"—rubbish, rimed doggerel, but their spirit was equal to that of any Christian martyr in a Roman amphitheatre. Greater love hath no man than this, that he lay down his life for his friend. Our chaps are doing that consciously, willingly, almost without bitterness toward their enemies; for the rest, it doesn't matter whether they sing hymns or rag-time. They've followed their ideal—freedom—and died for it. A former age expressed itself in Gregorian chants; ours, no less sincerely, disguises its feelings in rag-time.

Since September I have been less than a month out of action. The game doesn't pall as time goes on—it fascinates. We've got to win so that men may never again be tortured by the ingenious inquisition of modern warfare. The winning of the war becomes a personal affair to the chaps who are fighting. The world which sits behind the lines, buys extra specials of the daily papers, and eats three square meals a day will never know what this other world has endured for its safety, for no man of this other world will have the vocabulary in which to tell. But don't for a minute mistake me—we're grimly happy. What a serial I'll write for you if I emerge from this turmoil. Thank God, my outlook is all altered. I don't want to live any longer—only to live well.—Coningsby Dawson.

No Eggs, Milk or Butter

The following recipe shows how an appetizing, wholesome cake can be made without expensive ingredients.

In many other recipes the number of eggs may be reduced one-half or more by using an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted.

EGGLESS, MILKLESS, BUTTERLESS CAKE

1 cup brown sugar
1 1/4 cups water
1 cup seeded raisins
2 ounces citron
1/2 cup shortening

1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups flour
5 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder

The old method (fruit cake) called for 2 eggs

DIRECTIONS—Put the first eight ingredients into saucepan and boil three minutes. When cool, add the flour and baking powder which have been sifted together; mix well. Bake in moderate oven in loaf pan (round tin with hole in center is best) for 35 or 40 minutes. Ice with white icing.

Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients mailed free. Address 6 St. Lawrence Boulevard, Montreal.

DEGREE FOR MR. BALFOUR

Toronto, May 31.—Before one of the most notable gatherings ever assembled in convocation hall, the University of Toronto conferred the degree of LL.D. on the Right Hon. Arthur J. Balfour, the British Foreign Minister.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

There will be shown at the Westholme Theatre tonight a play of considerable interest, entitled "The Gilded Fool." The story is of a typical young waster, of good family and decent instincts, with too much money for his own good. He regards himself as a joke, and life as a laughing matter. He takes nothing seriously till at last the inevitable happens. He meets "the" girl. She is the daughter of a banker, a conservative of the old school, who regards this nut with contempt. However, his ambition is awakened, and he proves himself capable of steady application and to be a brisk business man.

In times of financial crises, by dint of his ability alone, he saves the day for the old banker, and, of course, there is the usual happy ending.

The staging of this play is a triumph. One scene is conspicuous. Rector's famous cabaret in New York, whose expensiveness keeps it exclusive, is transported bodily into this play. Gorks pop, eyes flash, diamonds glisten on white bosoms, and the Parisian toilettes typify the very smartest aspect of New York's millionaire night life. This too, is a real scene in the famous restaurant. Altogether, this play is in the front rank.

THE KILTIES MAGAZINE

The second issue of the "Breath O' The Heather," the regimental journal of the 236th Battalion—MacLean Kilties—has been received on the coast from Captain Percy F. Godenrath, the manager. The publication is now embellished with an attractive cover carrying the photograph of Hon. J. D. Hazen, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who with Mrs. Hazen is to present the colors to the Kilties. There is also a supplement of Lieut-General Sir Sam Hughes, after whom the Kilties are named. The contents include a farewell article, as the battalion is shortly to leave for overseas; a chronological history; "Our Medallists" by Lieut. H. S. Everett; a capital short story, "The Autobiography of a Sand Bag," as well as a serial, "Two of a Kind" by C. S. M. I. D. Appleby. Besides several splendid illustrations, the contents include several pages of regimental humor. The publication is of interest locally as several well-known British Columbians have joined the 236th, including Vancouver and Prince Rupert men. The battalion has the distinction of being officered by all returned men, brought back from the front for the purpose of taking commissions in Canada's latest Highland battalion.
