CANADIANS AGAIN GET IN HEAVY FIGHTING

TERRIFIC BATTLE LASTS ALL DAY AND GREAT LOSSES INFLICTED UPON ENEMY

CANADIANS IN BRILLIANT OPERATIONS

Terrific Battle Lasts all Day in Fight for the Ruins of the Electrical Station Southwest Lens.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 5.—A terrific battle has been in progress all day in which the Canadians conducted brilliant operations in the capture of the Electrical Station to the southwest of Lens. After severe fighting, the ruins of the buildings were gained, but several hours later, the Canadian troops were driven back to their original positions under the pressure of the German counter attacks. The Canadian troops took back with them over one hundred prisoners. The fighting was of the fiercest nature, and great losses were inflicted upon the enemy in his counter attacks. These counter attacks were made in great force.

Raids Repulsed.
The British troops recaptured an advanced post near to Cherisy, which was retaken by the Germans during their counter attack late on Saturday night. Hostile raids were also repulsed near La Basse and Neuve Chapelle.

French Front.
Paris, June 5.—The Germans forced their way into the French advanced positions near Foidmont. On the front Vauclere and California Plateau, the Germans did not renew their attacks after their sanguinary repulse yesterday. In the Champagne district, we made a surprise attack on the German trenches, taking many prisoners and three machine guns.

Air Raids.
London, June 5.—British aviators dropped bombs on the docks and canal at Bruges last night.

SPANISH SHIP SUNK

POLITICAL LEADERS HAVE CONFERENCE

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, June 5.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Robert Borden conferred for half-an hour yesterday morning. The political leaders may make no announcement till later on in the week regarding the coalition question. The whole issue of the question centres around conscription. The National Labor Council is against conscription, and is generally critical on the conditions prevailing in the Dominion.

A deputation of Vancouver citizens waited upon the Government at Ottawa last week urging among other things the construction of a drydock at Vancouver. With this deputation went Mr. Herbert Clements, M. P. for this riding. Apparently Mr. Clements is no longer interested in the district which he was elected to represent. Prince Rupert has a drydock which will meet all the needs of this coast for some time. Mr. Clements is apparently content to see it stand idle. Isn't it time this district had a member who would represent it, and its interests?

ADMIT HINDENBURG LINE A FAIRY TALE

British Headquarters in France, June 4.—In the present lull the Germans seem nervous. The British, from their present positions in Roeux, can plainly see Douai, 14 kilometres distant. The intervening ground is dotted with factory smokestacks. Then comes Douai, peaceful-looking in the sunlight.

The bells of St. Pierre Church can be heard faintly in the rare lulls in the bombardment, and the factory outside the town is in full blast, as in the days before the war. In the foreground of the picture are heaps of enemy dead and the wrecked German defences demolished by the guns of a fleeing army seemingly bent on obliterating the scenes of its defeat here.

There is no evidence of an organized Hindenburg or other line. British aviators have located every enemy centre of defence. The artillery is giving the enemy no respite, and night raids harass him as the British reconnoitre the ground. The German wounded say the Hindenburg line is a fairy tale—"a line of fools led there blindfolded,"—and that the Australians are "demons vomited by Beelzebub."

CONSCRIPTION IN THE UNITED STATES

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, June 5.—The State Department in Washington is concentrating on the enforcement of the Conscription Act. All eligibles must register today. The Attorney-General will prosecute all evaders of the provisions of the Act. It is not anticipated that many will resist. A great co-ordination of effort is being made throughout the country.

MUNITION FACTORY IN PARIS EXPLODES

(Special to The Daily News.)
Paris, June 5.—All Paris was awakened at 4 a. m. yesterday morning by a tremendous detonation, when a munitions factory at Aubervilliers, a suburb, exploded. Nothing was left of the structure, and the roofs of all the nearby buildings were also carried away. No casualties are reported.

THE HOME RULE QUESTION

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, June 5.—The coming Irish convention for the proposed settlement of the vexed Home Rule question continues to be the leading topic of domestic politics. The successful outcome of the forthcoming Irish conference depends upon the spirit in which the delegates view the situation. The efforts of the reasonable elements may solve the great problem.

MORE SHIPS SUNK

London, June 5.—The British steamer Kiruma, of 2,995 tons, was sunk without warning by a submarine near the Cornish coast. The barque Imborhorne, 1,958 tons, was sunk by a submarine on the first of May off the west coast of Ireland.

Mr. C. C. Williams, of Juneau, is paying a visit to Prince Rupert.

TROUBLE IN PORTUGAL

(Special to The Daily News.)
Lisbon, June 5.—In the disorders and severe rioting which took place here last month, which resulted in many deaths, many arrests were made. It is understood that German influence had been at work in inciting the rioters, and that the disorders were started by German gold.

ITALIANS URGED TO REGISTER

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, June 5.—All Italians living in the United States have been urged to register by Prince Udine in an address to his countrymen. Prince Udine is the head of the Italian Commission now visiting the United States Government.

BELEATED ACTION

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, June 5.—It is understood here that the Emperor Charles will soon proclaim Trieste autonomous, whereby it will become a free city like Hamburg and Bremen.

For dressed lumber of all kinds—Albert & McCaffery. Phone 116. Killas.

GERMANY DESIRES NO MORE TERRITORY

Amsterdam, May 31.—The declaration is made by the semi-official Nord Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, of Berlin, that Germany desires no extension of territory for the purpose of aggrandizement or of political or economic accretion of power. Germany wishes solely to defend her own territory against foreign plans of conquest, the newspaper says, and moreover demands such guarantees as will serve for the purpose of her future defence and self-protection.

These statements are made in comment on the recent speeches by Lord Robert Cecil, British Minister of Blockade, and Mr. Asquith, former British Prime Minister. The newspaper says that apart from the imputations in Mr. Asquith's speech, the principles expounded coincide with those of responsible German quarters, both formerly and during the present war.

Lord Robert Cecil said in the House of Commons on May 16th that Great Britain could not commit herself to a policy of returning the German colonies and the Turkish provinces in which the natives had been mistreated and referred to the policy necessary in the cases of Poland, Alsace-Lorraine and Italia Irredenta. He said Germany and Austria should make reparation for despoiling Belgium, Serbia and Northern France and destroying merchant shipping.

Mr. Asquith said if the war were to end in an honorable peace there must be annexation, continuing the emancipation of populations laboring under despotism, and that the retention of strategic positions as safeguards against future attacks might be necessary.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS AND TEACHERS PICNIC

Yesterday the students and teachers of the High School enjoyed their fifth annual picnic. The place chosen was Tremayne Bay, near the Quarantine station on Digby Island. Launches had been placed at the disposal of the students, and an early start was made. Everything passed off in splendid style and there was not an idle moment from beginning to end.

During the day every sort of amusement was undertaken and the boys were specially enthusiastic over such sports as jumping, putting the shot, etc. All the places of interest around were visited, such as the hospital and wireless station, etc., and those in charge went to no end of trouble in order to entertain the youngsters. The young ladies provided an ample lunch, so that everyone felt well even though the day was rather strenuous. The tragical event of the day arose through the over zeal of the principal in the pursuit of an evasive crab. He discovered that when the boat listed too much, that the water around Digby is decidedly wet.

When the party returned to the city, the pupils proceeded en masse to take in the show at the Westholme Theatre, after which all were entertained to ice cream by Mr. and Miss Killas. Every year it has been one of the great pleasures of the high school students to enjoy the hospitality of the Killas Bros. Ice cream, music and a general good time was enjoyed, and at the "close of a perfect day," three rousing cheers were given for Mr. and Miss

GARRISON AT KRONSTADT DEMAND CZAR

Sailors from Fortress Declare Their Independence of the Central Government And Make Threats.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Petrograd, June 5.—The sailors from the Kronstadt garrison, which recently declared its independence of the Central Government arrived in Petrograd early this morning. They announced that the warships from Kronstadt would come to Petrograd and land men to make demonstrations. The sailors demanded that the deposed Czar be brought to them. They disapprove of Kerensky and the whole Provisional Government. So far, no warships have yet arrived in Petrograd, and in some quarters the threats made are believed to be merely the boastful talk on the part of the extremists. Nevertheless, in view of the independence declaration made by the whole garrison of the great fortress, considerable anxiety exists as to the final outcome.

HEAVY PENALTIES FOR BOARDING FOOD

Washington, June 4.—Hoarding, storage or destruction of food, fuel or other necessities of life to limit supply or affect prices would be a felony under a new amendment to the government's first food bill adopted in the Senate today without a record vote.

Several senators protested that the provision was too drastic, and would prevent legitimate storing to equalize markets, but all efforts to modify it failed.

Violation of the section would be punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for not less than six months or more than three years. Holding by farmers or others of the products of land cultivated by them is exempted.

Consideration of the Administration Bill which provides for a food survey and stimulation of production neared the final stage today, but the introduction of a number of amendments shortly before adjournment probably will prevent a final vote before Saturday.

REVOLUTION IN CHINA

Pekin, June 5.—A revolution in the provinces of China has made General Chang Laun military dictator.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

At the Westholme Theatre tonight there will again be displayed the great five-reel photoplay entitled "The Yellow Pawn" shown last evening. This is a play of great interest and in it, the stars Cleo Ridgley and Wallace Reid get full scope for the expression of their art. As actors they are in the front rank, and in this photoplay, they do live up to their reputation. The play is of great dramatic force, and is full of tense situations.

They now realize that Great Britain cannot be starved, nor stampeded into any weakening of her attitude as to the final outcome of the war.

Mr. Bowser declared in a political meeting in Vancouver that he felt he could appeal to the electors of the province with the utmost confidence of the result. But what else could anyone expect of Mr. Bowser? He always had the greatest confidence in himself, and never could understand—probably never will understand—why that confidence should not be shared by the public. It is to be doubted whether there is another public man in Canada, with the possible exception of the Hon. "Bob" Rogers, who would have the affrontery to face the public after the revelations of the last session of Parliament.

THE IMPERIAL TIE

This loosely constructed state resembles nothing that has ever existed in history before; it is held together by no coercive powers; the Government of the Mother Country cannot raise a corporal's guard in Canada, Australia, New Zealand or wherever you will; she has no power except the power which a certain class of politicians never remembers—the power of affection, sentiment, common aims and common ideals. Even those of us who firmly believed that the British Empire, a new experiment in the long history of the world, was going to succeed, even those who, like myself, took a sanguine view of the future of the great Empire, must have felt, so loosely was it knit, so vast were the areas that it covered, so improbable that this immense body should be animated by one soul, or that the indirect thrill of a common necessity should go from end to end, as it were from pole to pole, and everywhere be met with a response that such a dream was difficult, and such an ideal hard to carry into effect.—Mr. Balfour at Ottawa.

The dream has come true and the ideal has gone into effect. Between the lines of Mr. Balfour's striking speech we can read a complete change of view from that which this distinguished statesman held a few years ago. When Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman introduced the legislation which bestowed self-government upon the newly-conquered South African states, Mr. Balfour was one of those who viewed the proposal with alarm. He predicted, indeed, that in a very short time South Africa would be lost and he appeared to prefer the plan championed by the Milner school. The sequel has triumphantly vindicated Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman's faith and vision. Moreover, from it we may safely conclude that what Mr. Balfour feared would happen if self-government were bestowed upon the Transvaal and Orange Free State undoubtedly would have happened had the alternative he favored been carried into effect.

Mr. Balfour's utterances now reflect his full realization of the fact that the bonds of "affection, sentiment, common aims and common ideals" are links in the only chain which can hold this Empire together. As General Smuts and Sir Robert Borden have taken pains to emphasize in London, the Imperial tie has become stronger with the development of self-government in the constituent parts. Both of these overseas statesmen strongly discouraged the idea of a centralized empire through the establishment of an Imperial Parliament, Sir Robert Borden plainly pointing out that the scheme was neither "feasible nor wise," and that the "best assurance of the future is the record of the past." In this they were vindicating the attitude consistently taken by Sir Wilfrid Laurier when in power, and for which the Liberal leader was made the victim of a campaign of calumny by the Bourbon school, to whom the "record of the past" conveyed no lesson. We may be sure the industrious little group of Empire tinkers either in Canada or England will not number Mr. Balfour among them. His speech before the Canadian Parliament clearly revealed the angle from which he views the British Empire in the light of the lesson taught by the war.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Both the Kaiser and Hindenburg assert that the last allied offensive on the western front "failed." With a gain of six miles on a twenty-mile front by the British, and the hilly regions around Craonne captured by the French, and more than fifty-two thousand prisoners, the failure of the Allies looks somewhat substantial. There will doubtless be more failures of the same kind.

The result of the voting in the province of Alberta this week will be watched with much interest by the remainder of the Dominion. For the first time in the provincial elections in that province, the women will exercise their newly-won franchise.

After four months of unrestricted submarine warfare by Germany and her allies, the goal for which they were working seems to be as far away as ever.
