HUNS DON'T TRY TO REGAIN LOST GROUND

GERMANS HAVE MADE NO SERIOUS ATTEMPTS TO REGAIN THEIR LOST POSITIONS

SUPREMACY OF BRITISH AVIATORS IS REMARKABLE

HUNDREDS OF BRITISH AEROPLANES WERE WELL BEHIND THE GERMAN FRONT LINES WHEN THE BATTLE OF MESSINES RIDGE OPENED AT BREAK OF DAY—GERMANS DEMORALIZED

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, June 11.—The manner in which the British aviators dominated the air during the Battle of Messines Ridge on Thursday completely smothered the German aviators for the time being. It is one of the most remarkable stories of the entire war. Hundreds of the British aeroplanes were well behind the German lines when the battle broke into fury at dawn.

British Front.

London, June 11.—The German army under Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria has apparently not recovered from the blow against their lines to the south of Ypres of Thursday. They are not making any serious attempts to recapture their important positions lost to the British in that great battle. The German prisoners now number more than seven thousand.

Canadian Raid.

The Canadians made a raid last night to the south of Lens and returned with one hundred and fifty prisoners, besides leaving many casualties in the German lines.

Italian Front.

Rome, June 11.—The Austrian attacks were repeated last night in the region of Gorizia, particularly in the Vodic and nearby sectors. All the assaults were repulsed with heavy losses to the Austrians.

In the Carso Plateau, artillery activity is noticeable on both sides.

Russian Front.

Petrograd, June 11.—In the Carpathians northwest of Rafailovka, Russian scouting parties surmounted the wire entanglements and attacked the Austrians, driving them from their trenches. A German aeroplane was brought down in the region of Kozav.

Neutral Reports.

Copenhagen, June 11.—The death notices in the German papers indicate the terrible toll the western battle is taking among the German aviators. The losses of submarines are not allowed to be mentioned. The Bulgars are needing money and are appealing to Germany.

WOULD PUNISH THE CZAR

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, June 11.—The demand for the punishment of the Czar is growing throughout Russia. The crews of the battleships have adopted a resolution requiring the imprisonment of the deposed emperor at Kronstadt. They threaten to apply force if the demand is refused. This suggestion, which was started by extremists in the meeting, met with wide spread approval. Red placards spreading the news have been posted in Saratov.

The Council of Workmen and Soldiers scorned the Hun plea for an armistice, and have appealed to the army not to listen to the blandishments of the Germans.

AIMS OF UNITED STATES IN ENTERING THE WAR

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington, June 11.—President Wilson has defined to Russia the aims of the United States in entering the war. For the wrongs done by Germany, reparation and indemnity are necessary. Now or never is the time to act, when the whole world's peace and liberty is threatened.

The conference with the Italian War Mission is now virtually completed. The members of the Mission will tour the south and the middle west some time next week.

PRINCE RUPERT MAY GET CONTRACTS FOR ENGINES

Although no contracts for ships came to the plant here, it is reported in the southern press that a share of the auxiliary machinery contracts for the vessels may come this way. At a conference held with the two representatives of the Munitions Board, Messrs. R. P. Burchart and Captain Truop, the Metal Trades Association were given an absolute assurance that all the auxiliary machinery for the vessels will be built and procured in the province. This includes hoisting equipment and gear and all the hundred and one items of metal outfitting other than the engines themselves.

The report continues:

The detailed plans for the engines are not all available so far and final decision regarding them will not be made until some further information has been received from Ottawa. But it was represented that from twelve to fifteen engines can be built in the present British Columbia shops, including those in Vancouver, North Vancouver, Victoria, New Westminster and Prince Rupert. The whole provincial situation was surveyed with a view to obtaining co-operation of all the available shops and men in this work. It is expected that when the negotiations are completed contracts will be awarded for a dozen or possibly fifteen engines, during the coming year. Deliveries are to commence within about five months, engines being turned out to keep tally with the production of the vessels for which they are intended.

The meeting was exceedingly harmonious and all ports in the province being well represented it is expected that all the contracts which will be available. The distribution of the contracts will provide for the employment of skilled men at the local ports as well as at Prince Rupert.

DAYLIGHT SAVING FOR ALL DOMINION

Ottawa, June 9.—The Government has decided to put in force daylight saving throughout the Dominion. Sir George Foster has given notice of legislation to put all clocks ahead one hour on a day to be fixed later and keep them so throughout the summer.

Daylight saving has been adopted in previous years by municipalities in Canada, but was not so successful as it would have been had the system been general, as it will be under the Government legislation.

FROM A LAND ON THE VERGE OF HUNGER

London, June 8.—The Times today prints the first of a series of articles written by Frederick Sefton Delmer, an Australian, who, before the war, held a lectureship in Berlin University, but was interned at the Ruhleben prison camp until March, 1915. Later he was permitted to reside in Berlin, and recently allowed to come to London.

Professor Delmer in his article expresses astonishment at the abundance of food, taxicabs and horses in London, as compared with those in Berlin. He ridicules the grumblers he has met who have complained of the shortage and costliness of food.

"They have no idea," says the professor, "how ridiculous such grievances sound to anyone coming from a land on the verge of hunger, if not actual starvation. The consumption of food in Germany is now reduced to a point below which it can not go without disaster to the public health."

Nevertheless, the writer adds, the people in Germany manage to get along, and, although they grumble a great deal, they do not dream of giving in or slackening their efforts. He says it would be utter misleading to think that any German collapse is yet in sight.

WILL THE GOVERNMENT FORCE AN EXTENSION?

Ottawa, June 2.—The political pot began to boil the day after Premier Borden returned, when the Conservative morning papers carried hints that the Government might force an extension bill by means of their majorities in both Houses and send it over to England to be ratified by a Tory Government over there.

At this writing the Government has not announced its policy, but there is no doubt that, if it chooses to violate custom, precedent and the British North America Act by dispensing with the unanimous consent of both Houses of the Canadian Parliament and asking the Imperial Parliament to ratify an Extension Act carried by brute force, they can do it.

At this juncture there is practically a Tory Government in power in England. With the exception of Lloyd George, who is not as radical as he was, the inner war cabinet consists entirely of Tories—Curzon, Milner, Carson, Law, and Balfour. It stands to reason that one Tory Government will help another Tory Government when asked, particularly when the Tory Government is in a hole. Oceans may divide one Tory Government from another, but they are as one when it comes to trusting the people.

It is a matter of history that Charles the First and his Tory friends forced the Long Parliament on England, and, as is well known, British precedent has great influence with the Borden Government here when it wants to pull off anything particularly arbitrary. We are in a fair way to have a Long Parliament in Canada. By October next, if the Borden Government doesn't take the plunge sooner, it will have outstayed its original mandate one year. The year's extension, whose end is now in sight, was obtained by constitutional methods. The House of Commons and the Senate agreed without a dissenting voice to the extension and the Imperial Parliament ratified the unanimous wish of the Canadian Parliament as by law and custom provided.

But this session the Borden Government has a doubt in its mind whether the consent would be as unanimous as formerly. Its conscience tells it that it has not employed the time worthily. It has in its cupboard a War Measures Act which practically suspends the constitution so as to enable it to do anything for the relief of the people that reason or pity may dictate. Instead of using this great power to ease the cost of living and prevent the food pirates gambling with the necessities of life it has put the War Measures Act away on a shelf where the Opposition can't get at it and tells its friends to get rich while they may. The war can't last forever—now is the golden age. Get busy.

As for the constitution, having suspended it for beneficial purposes, which were not carried out, the Borden Government naturally believes that it can abrogate the constitution entirely to prolong its own life. The War Measures Act may be a bluff so far as dealing with the food problem is concerned. The Government may use dilatory artifices like Royal Commissions and fake enquiries to stave off the poor man's cry for cheaper meat and bread, for flour that will cost less than sixteen dollars a barrel, and bacon that will cost less than forty-six cents a pound—it may tell him, as Sir Thomas White does, to draw his belt tighter—or, as the Hon. Mr. (Continued on page three.)

ELECTION IS NOW BELIEVED INEVITABLE

Secretary of State Patenaude Resigns from the Cabinet on Account of Conscriptio Bill Proposals.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, June 11.—A general election is now believed here to be necessary and inevitable, owing to dissensions within the cabinet. Secretary of State Patenaude has resigned, on account, it is said, of the conscription proposals of the Government. The task of reorganization of the cabinet from within the ranks of the Conservative party is causing acute anxiety. The Conscriptio wing of the Liberals, who are alleged to be prepared to support the measure of the Government, are not prepared to go so far as to completely merge into the Conservative party.

Microrepresentations.

The Tory press are very busily engaged in trying to make capital out of the alleged Liberal split, and have already named several successors to Sir Wilfrid Laurier as leader of the party. The supposed split is said to be over conscription, but as the bill has not yet been discussed, such judgment is rather premature.

SERVICES AT MASSETT

Nine candidates, four young men and five young women, were confirmed by Bishop Du Vernet in St. Paul's Church, Massett, last Thursday morning. These candidates were presented by Rev. A. E. Price, who now ministers to the whole country surrounding Massett Inlet, including Port Clements, Naden Harbor, Tow Hill etc. While the Bishop has confirmed many Haidas in St. John's Church on the Massett reserve, this was the first confirmation service in the church erected for the settlers in the village at one time called New Massett. An honor roll is about to be placed in this church with a list of 115 names of men who have gone to the war from Graham Island, several of whom have laid down their lives for the cause of freedom.

A MISFIT

A few weeks ago, when the Hon. Thomas Crothers, Minister of Labor, was asked in the House of Commons what he was doing with regard to the food situation, says the Victoria Times, he replied that he was "making enquiries." Last week he announced the result of his enquiries respecting sugar and coal. He absolves the refiners and the coal dealers from responsibility for the high prices, and places the blame on the war. Whether he has made any other enquiries with regard to other commodities is unknown, but if he has done so, the result can be easily anticipated. He will inform the House that the war is alone to blame for the high prices, and that anyway, everything is all right, because the working men are earning now more than they ever earned before.

Mr. Crothers does not believe in appointing a food control board because in his opinion such a body could not do much to reduce the price of commodities. Conversely, it may be presumed that it could not do much to prevent them rising higher. Great Britain, France, Germany and the United States have food controllerships, and the first three have found them to be of vital importance. Mr. Hoover will make a similar demonstration in the United States. Mr. Crothers must regard these measures with contempt. He has a better way to deal with the most critical situation of the day. It is to make enquiries.

The food problem on his continent is more urgent than any other problem which has arisen from the war. Upon Canada and the United States revolves the duty of providing a large proportion of their Allies' supply. To do this they must stimulate production and regulate prices, by force if necessary. Mr. Crothers, the minister charged with the supervision of this matter, is absolutely incapable of understanding the situation, not to speak of handling it. He is a hopeless misfit. How many others of the ministers are of the same reactionary type? While Mr. Crothers is making enquiries, and apologizing for extortion, his department reports show that the price scale continues to mount rapidly. According to the Labor Gazette for May, the weekly budget for the average family in food, rent and fuel, has reached $17.34, as against $17.16 for April. On the basis of 1,500,000 families, the Canadian people paid $1,000,000 more for necessities in May than they did in April, and the merry dance continues. Mr. Crothers as Minister of Labor was always regarded as a joke. He has now developed into a tragedy. If he expresses the attitude of the Cabinet as a whole on this vital question, it is high time for wholesale resignations at Ottawa.

The whole Government is nothing if not Conservative. They will not change nor make progress, as the times call for. But they run the bluff of being so. They pass a War Measures Act giving themselves power to do anything, but they do nothing, except possibly appoint a Royal Commission or two, which may report—or may not. Be conservative. Sit tight. Do nothing. Things are fine as they are. That seems to be the attitude of the present Government of Canada.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The bestowing of titles as a reward for political services has been sharply criticized in the London Times, Lord Northcliffe's paper. Lord Northcliffe himself received his title for what? Other considerations more deserving often result in a title being bestowed, but in a country which prides itself on being democratic, such sale of titles brings the whole system into disrepute. Canada does not want a titled aristocracy, yet the number of titles coming over here year after year goes on increasing. Mr. J. W. Flavelle, chairman of the Munitions Board, is now a baronet. Mr. Flavelle's company had recently nearly $3,000,000 of foodstuffs in cold storage in Toronto, a food baron and a baronet.

Germany apologizes to Spain for the sinking of a Spanish ship by her submarines. Promises to salute her flag, when she gets a chance, and so on, and then immediately turns round and sinks another Spanish vessel. With a little patience and perseverance. Germany will soon have all the neutral ships at the bottom. Forty Norwegian ships were sunk during May. Had Norway been at war, her losses could hardly have been greater. It seems to be a case of "eventually, why not now?"

Hard to Drop Meat?

All depends on what you eat as a substitute. It is a good time to study "food value." You may be eating the wrong foods, the foods that cost most and give the least nutriment. Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains more real, body-building nutriment, pound for pound, than meat, eggs or potatoes, and costs much less. Two of these Biscuits with milk and a little fruit make a nourishing meal at a cost of a few cents. Make Shredded Wheat your "meat." A satisfying breakfast on which to start the day's work. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat. Made in Canada.

Fearing that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, had he joined Sir Robert Borden in the Government, would insist upon the conscription of excess profits of the food speculators, trusts and combines, who have exploited the people of Canada for such a long time, it is known that certain "powerful interests" have been making their every endeavor to prevent a satisfactory arrangement between the two leaders. The present Government may conscript the man power of Canada, but the "interests" are too strongly represented to permit of the country being placed upon a proper war footing.

"For over two years I was sick and miserable. I suffered from constant headaches, and had palpitation of the heart so badly that I feared I would die. There seemed to be a lump in my stomach and the constipation was dreadful. I suffered from Pain in the Back and Kidney Disease."

I was treated by a physician for a year and a half and he did me no good at all. I tried "Fruit-a-tives" as a last resort. After using three boxes, I was greatly improved and twelve boxes made me well. Now I can work all day and there are no Headaches, no Palpitation, no Heart Trouble, no Constipation, no Pain or Kidney Trouble and I feel like a new being—and it was "Fruit-a-tives" that gave me back my health."

WILL THE GOVERNMENT FORCE AN EXTENSION?

Crothers does, to work more and eat less—but when it comes to giving itself another year of the spoils of office it makes no bones of using all the means at its disposal.

A year may not be enough. The war may last longer than that. The Toronto News naively suggests that the Borden Government be continued in office for the duration of the war and six months after. If this should be a thirty years' war—and Germany has had that kind before—the Borden Government, or such members of it as had escaped the tooth of time, would still be in power in 1947, and Sir Thomas White, who is now the baby of the Cabinet, aged fifty, would be a veteran of eighty. Sir George Foster would be just turning a hundred.

The Borden Government at the present minute is handling something more than a million dollars a day, and naturally it doesn't want to let go while so much money is passing through its hands. Its past actions would go to show that it does not bother much about the good of the people, but it does worry about the interests of its profiteering friends. It feels that it would be recreant to its trust—I beg pardon, its trusts—the country is full of 'em—if it quit now. There are several millions of dollars in the crisis yet. If the wicked Grits came in they might appoint a food dictator and stop the looting. If the Extension Bill goes all the way—which it may not—it will be because the friends of the Borden Government tell it not to desert its post while there is a cent in it for them.

An Extension Act, carried by brute force through the Canadian Parliament, and—ratified by the Curzon-Milner-Carson crowd at Westminster, would be thoroughly in line with what the people have come to expect of the Borden Government. It is true that, by this method, any Government, once in power, could keep itself there indefinitely by renewing its majority from time to time in the Senate and holding no by-elections when the seats in the Commons fell vacant, yet it would be against the constitution and against the spirit of Home Rule just the same. This Home Rule of ours we have won with wounds and blood. The Tories on both sides of the ocean should be careful how they conspire to take it away from us.

It is only fair to say that many members of the Conservative party are opposed to this infringement on responsible government. The Borden Government does not flatter the people of Canada when it says, "You are feverish and hysterical. Your judgment is not to be trusted. We are the only cool-headed people in Canada. Consequently we will not give you an election." The Borden Government, I repeat, does not flatter the people when it says that, but the chances are that it may say so, and if it wants to put the thing over it has the majority with which to do it.

Of course moderate Conservatives all over the country are pointing out that the Government can't throw Home Rule and Responsible Government into the discard that way without doing irreparable harm to the Conservative party in the esteem of the people. But these counsels are outside the House. The Conservative members in the House of Commons are pretty well agreed on an extension if the Government wants it. They know that they want it themselves. They say it will help to win the war to keep them in a year longer. What they mean is that it will keep them in a year longer whether it helps to win the war or not. Many of them feel that when their own fight comes off at the next general election they are not going to win it. Consequently they shudder at the thought of a war-time election. And they have reason. One might almost venture to state that the shuddering is confined to these timid persons. They seek by their shudders to create a shuddering atmosphere. They shudder and they want the rest of us to join in. Human nature is pretty much the same the world over and there is reason to suppose that, if a war-time election is in the best interests of the country, Canada will do no more shuddering about it than Australia did.

Nobody knows just what Parliament will do with the extension proposals, but it goes without saying that the question will be thoroughly discussed. Some talk there is about an onus. If there is such a thing as an onus for a general election it would be a fair statement of the case to say that both political parties share it with the British North America Act which provides that there shall be a federal election at least once every five years.

I have heard Conservatives—outside the House of Commons, of course—express a wish for a general election anyway. They put it on this ground. A Government that is trembling on the brink of an election does nothing for fear of offending this or that body of electors. The Government that comes in with five years of life ahead of it can carry out a vigorous policy.—H. F. Gadsby.

This applies equally well to nearly all baked foods. Try the following recipe according to the new way:

1 teaspoon flavoring

New Way

1 cup sugar
1 cup milk
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
1 egg
2 tablespoons shortening
1 teaspoon flavoring

Makes 1 Large 2-Layer Cake

DIRECTIONS—Cream the sugar and shortening together, then mix in the egg. After adding the flour and Dr. Price's Baking Powder together, two or three times, add it all to the mixture. Gradually add the milk and beat with spoon until you have a smooth pour batter. Add the flavoring. Pour into greased layer cake tins and bake in a moderately hot oven for twenty minutes. This cake is best baked in two layers. Put together with cream filling and spread with white icing.

RUSSIANS WERE NOT TAUGHT TO THINK

London, June 8.—A correspondent of The Times who has been some weeks in Russia studying the situation telegraphs an estimate of conditions, which, however, he gives with great reserve. Some of his statements follow:

"I have an impression that all the revolutionary forces somehow are languishing. Even the extremist followers of Lenin show little energy. This perhaps may be explained by the absolute decadence of czarism, which was so rotten that it simply fell by itself without the possibility of resistance.

"It is remarkable how order has been preserved in Petrograd although the police have been removed and replaced by the militia. In some cases expropriation occurred, but there was no strong anarchistic movement as there was after the revolution of 1905. This was partly because czarism is not there to foster anarchy as a means of provocation and partly because the war is operating a check on the minds of the people.

"Since czarism neither taught nor encouraged the people to think, the adoption of democratic forms and the organization of the new Government can not be very efficient. The coalition is not an organization of strong political individualism, but rather an organization of parties. There is a noticeable lack of unity. One minister speaks against other ministers and in various departments, even the Military Department, new men who are thorough pacifists are appointed."

WESTHOLME THEATRE

At the Westholme Theatre tonight, there will be displayed a very interesting programme. Vivienne Martin is the star artist in the photoplay entitled "The Right Direction." This is a play of very great interest and deals with the upbringing of a young girl, in "the right direction." Vivienne Martin again displays her great talents, and this production is a masterpiece. A Typical Budget showing some of the very latest events will also be shown. This is a budget of unusual interest, and it is right up to date.
