INTENSITY OF FIGHTING IS INCREASED BY ALLIES

BRITISH, FRENCH AND ITALIANS INCREASE THE PRESSURE AGAINST THE ENEMY ON EACH FRONT—GOOD PROGRESS MADE BY ITALIANS—STRONG AUSTRIAN POSITIONS CAPTURED

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, June 18.—Heavy fighting is in progress in Belgium, but details are lacking, as no reports have yet been published today. In France and also on the Austro-Italian fronts, the Entente forces are also on the aggressive. Rome reports considerable achievement by the Alpine troops. Strong positions were captured from the Austrians at Corno Cavento in Eastern Trentino at an altitude of more than ten thousand feet. Several Austrian guns were taken. Attacks were made on several other Italian positions in different sectors, which were repulsed.

French Front.
The French are increasing their fire both in the Aisne and Champagne regions, and all indications point to the resumption of the French offensive in those sectors. Berlin is expecting such a move by General Petain. In the Meuse Heights, the French successfully repulsed several raids against their lines and inflicted severe losses on the raiding parties, which were made in considerable force.

British Official.
The British troops attacked again today to the south of Ypres and made substantial gains. Several counter attacks were made upon the new positions established south of the Ypres and Comblis Canal.

GREAT EXPLOSION IN MINNEAPOLIS

(Special to The Daily News.)

Minneapolis, June 18.—A fire which was caused by a terrific explosion in the top of an elevator of the Bayley Elevator Co., destroyed the building and the wheat it contained. The loss of the property is estimated at $200,000 and the wheat was valued at $50,000.

REVOLUTION IN SPAIN

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, June 18.—According to information received here from unofficial sources, it is learned that revolution has broken out in Spain. All the submarine cables and the overland wires have been cut, and no telegraphic information can be received from Spanish points. A strict censorship exists in Portugal.

HOW TO RETAIN OFFICE FOR ANOTHER YEAR

Ottawa, June 15.—The Toronto News, which invariably presents the strongest meat of the Borden Government's word, reverts to the question—Can the government, by making use of its majority in the House of Commons and in the Senate, extend the life of parliament after its life has expired?

Put another way, the question is—Can the Borden Government dispense with the unanimous consent of the Canadian Parliament and the subsequent ratification by the Imperial Parliament—both of which are required under the British North America Act—and keep itself indefinitely in office by means of its party majority in both Houses?

Put a third way, the question is—Can the Borden Government play hob with our National Constitution whenever it likes, for the purpose of dodging a general election that is going to send it back to the tall grass?

While the News lacks the nerve to say plain Yes! and, indeed, argues that there is danger in any precedent which conflicts with the language of the constitution, it hints that "great emergencies may over-ride all regulations and conditions."

In other words, the News, having inside information, wouldn't be at all surprised if the Borden Government tried it on as a last desperate measure to stave off the impending doom. The News does not forget that the Borden Government is a Tory government and that a Tory government believes in the ruling class ruling with as little interference from the ruled as possible. In October, 1917, at which time its year's extension lapses, the Borden Government will have done its worst for the common people for six years. Taxes were never so high, food never cost so much, graft was never so prevalent or so outrageous, as it has been under the Borden Government. The Government that was responsible for paper shoes, Sir Sham Fuse, Col. Allison, the Ross Rifle, and a hundred other scandals, now shapes up to ask another year's reprieve, and, if it is refused, to sandbag the constitution and steal one.

The dear old News would look on and see this done quite cheerfully. As another famous Tory said, "What is the constitution between friends?" In its less excited moments, the News is wont to expatiate on the benefits of Confederation, and to relate the long struggle that led up to that consummate document, the British North America Act. But the first time the Borden Government runs into the British North America Act, the News is prepared to kick the whey out of it—out of the British North America Act, I mean—not out of the Borden Government.

Another interesting paradox is the News' attitude on Canadian home rule. Ordinarily the News is prepared to sacrifice large quantities of Canadian home rule to an Imperial Council on Downing Street. In fact a centralized Imperial Government with the great autonomous overseas status whittled down to Ontario size, is its heart's desire, as it is the Borden Government's. But when it's a case of keeping the rotten Borden Government in office, the News is all for home rule. "Perdition take the British Parliament," says the News in effect. "We'll do our own extending." Such is the logic that emanates from the knightly editor of the Toronto News. The suggestion is so hostile to the Canadian constitution, that it might well come from Sir John Willison's employment.

RUSSIA GIVES IRREVOCABLE PLEDGE TO WAR

Stirring Proclamation Finally Disposes of Separate Peace Talk—Will Continue With the Allies.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, June 16.—A stirring proclamation, which places the Council of the Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates on record as irrevocably opposed to a separate peace, has been adopted by the council today. This proclamation has been prompted by the Austrian efforts to lure Russia into a separate peace.

Russia will continue in the war, says Tereschenko, The Minister of Foreign Affairs has given a definite statement of Russia's policy to the Root Commission.

No King in Greece Now.
Athens, June 18.—The former King Constantine is out of Greece now. The Military Club, which was the rendezvous of the Royalist officers, has been closed by the Allies' Commissioners. The food situation is improving.

NO SETTLEMENT OF THE ALBERTA COAL STRIKE

(Special to The Daily News.)

Calgary, June 18.—The attempt to settle the coal strike has resulted in failure. The coal operators reject the proposed agreement. The absence of a clause preventing the abrupt stoppage of work is the rock on which the negotiations were shattered. The increase of wages and the appointment of a commission to make future revisions of the scale were accepted.

TROLLING CLOSE SEASON IS NOW WITHDRAWN

As stated in our issue of Saturday, the weekly close season which was included in the Fishery Regulations for trolling, will be withdrawn this season. This is the first year in which there has been regulations regarding trolling, which can only be carried on when weather permits. Strong representations were made to the Department of Fisheries at Ottawa, and in view of the fact that the weather automatically imposes a close season weekly already, and other considerations, the Department has withdrawn the enforcement of the weekly close season this year.

This information will be gladly received by those engaged in the fishing industry, and will clear up the position of the trollers, who are now assured that their activities are within the law.

WANTS MORE PAY

Ottawa, June 16.—Robert Bickerdike, M. P., has given notice of a resolution in the commons that he will move that the pay of soldiers be increased from $1.10 to $2.50 a day, and that the pay of officers be raised in proportion.

New York, June 18.—A British recruiting station was opened in Boston on Saturday. The Scotsmen living in Philadelphia have begun recruiting a Scots regiment. The Jamaica negroes in New York are also attempting to form a unit to fight with the British forces.

GERMANS LOSING THREE SUBMARINES A WEEK

New York, June 16.—Arthur H. Pollen, a British expert on naval gunnery, whose articles in Land and Water are credited with having helped to force the reorganization of the British Admiralty, has arrived in New York to give a series of lectures on the war.

In an interview Mr. Pollen said the British Admiralty was using every means to overcome the submarine, but whether the danger was diminished or not would make no material difference in the final outcome.

"From what I have been told by those in a position to know," Mr. Pollen continued, "the Admiralty has captured or sunk three German submarines a week since the beginning of February, and in one week I believe the average was one a day. I had not learned before I left England what progress had been made with the new method of destroying U-boats by mines as they left their own waters, but I believe that it has proved successful. The Germans are putting out three submarines a week, which about equals the destruction of the craft by the British."

CHINA IS ALL LINED UP FOR A CIVIL WAR

Six Provinces Have Combined For Active Resistance to the Government at Peking—Civil War Next.

(Special to The Daily News.)

New York, June 18.—The six Chinese provinces of Kwang Tung, Kwang-si, Kivei Chow, Yunnan, Hunan, and Shei Chuen have coordinated plans for active resistance to the Government at Peking. It is now considered certain that unless the rebellion is brought under control at once, that extensive military operations will ensue, and that the whole country will be plunged into a civil war.

TO MAKE ACCUMULATED WEALTH CONTRIBUTE

Ottawa, June 16.—The impression prevails that the parliamentary situation, in so far as the fate of the Government's selective conscription bill is concerned, has been clarified by the notice by Hon. George P. Graham that he will move, probably on a motion to go into supply, a resolution calling for action to make accumulated wealth contribute to the cost of the war and that the resources of the country should be so organized as to ensure the greatest possible assistance to the Empire in the war and reduce the cost of living. The resolution, which undoubtedly is the production of the committee of five appointed by the Liberal caucus to draft a resolution, will not be introduced in any form in connection with the consideration of the bill as a party measure. It will be considered and voted upon when a suitable opportunity presents itself, quite apart from the bill, with the object of putting before the country what the Opposition believes a conscription bill should include.

This means that the principle of conscription in so far as it applies to the man-power of Canada for service at the front, probably will not be challenged by the Opposition in the House and the members will vote as they please. It is quite probable that the anti-conscriptionists may move for a six-months' hoist for the bill, but this would not be a party move, and it would be voted down by the conscriptionists on both sides of the House. A six-months' hoist motion may reasonably be looked for from French-Canadian members on either side of the House.

CONSCRIPTION

In introducing the Compulsory Military Service Bill into Parliament, the Prime Minister said that the Government would welcome any suggestion from the House, which would improve the measure. The chief point to be determined by the supporters of the principle denoted by the bill, says the Victoria Times, is its practicability for quick and effective enforcement with the least possible disturbance throughout the country. In considering this it would be well to bear in mind that the details of any such measure should take note of conditions peculiar to Canada. We should remember that what might be perfectly applicable to Europe might be entirely inapplicable here. The United States recognized this salient probability and adopted a measure which, we are convinced, would be more appropriate to Canadian conditions than any other compulsory service system in existence. The New Zealand system is patterned after the American arrangement put into force by Lincoln during the civil war.

In our judgment, any measure of compulsory military service in Canada should call for the registration of the man power of the country as a primary essential. Only in this way can an inventory of the human resources of the country be had, and without that inventory it would be impossible to put Canada upon a war basis. Such registration would enable the selective boards to determine at a glance the classification of the nation's man-power and where to look for the men for the various war services. It would enable them to ascertain, too, how great a strain the industrial channels of the country can stand in the loss of effectives. Moreover, we are confident that unless there is registration there either will be great difficulty in carrying out the provisions of the law fairly or the law will be enforced most unfairly. Such registration could be completed in one day in Canada, as it was in the United States.

The bill provides for too many avenues of escape from its operation. It sets up too many courts of appeal. First there is to be a local tribunal.

Then there is to be an appeal tribunal and above this again will be a central appeal judge. This unfolds a vista of illimitable possibilities of complications and delay in the course of which a very considerable army will escape compulsory military service, particularly if the list of exemptions is not clearly defined—as it is not in the bill. How far would those provisions facilitate to compulsory military service in those districts of Canada where opposition to it is most pronounced? The loss through exemptions would be startling. Would it not be much better to have complete registration, an arbitrary list of exemptions, one tribunal only and selection by ballot? Moreover, according to our Ottawa correspondent, the bill, while prescribing heavy penalties for classes which do not report when called upon, does not state to whom they must report, and provides absolutely no machinery for enforcing the order. Instead it seems to have been dissociated entirely from the control of the Militia Department or from the Government itself, for that matter, as far as its enforcement is concerned.

Finally, however, before any compulsory military service measure, no matter how criticism-proof it may be made on its face, can be enforced in Canada, it must have company. It will have to be accompanied by measures calling for the organization of the Dominion on a full war basis. There must be nationalization of the country's resources all round, as practically every public body in Canada which favors compulsory military service admits and demands. If the nation conscripts men it must conscript wealth. It must nationalize its essential industries, which means the conscription of excess profits as well as of labor. One form of compulsion must carry the other as a logical complement not only because it is just and reasonable but because it cannot be carried out unless it does. This is what had to be done in England, and it was done before conscription was introduced there and in no other country in the world were property rights and vested interests so deeply entrenched as they were Made in Canada.

In England. It can be done in Canada at least as easily as it was done there, but obviously such complete mobilization must involve first the registration of the human resources of the country.

A TRIBUTE TO BRITAIN

A fine tribute to Britain's wonderful effort to free France and the world is paid by General Fonville in the Matin. He reviews the war's greatest miracle—the raising of a British army of 5,000,000 in less than thirty months.

After referring to the battles of the Somme and how the British helped to save Verdun, General Fonville adds:—

Under the terrible British guns, supported by the irresistible pressure of the infantry, the enemy fled without venturing even to offer battle.

If he felt that he was strong enough to win the engagement,

AUTOINTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition Which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" — The Wonderful Fruit Medicine — will Protect You

Auto-intoxication means self-poisoning, caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

Poisoning of the blood in this way often causes indigestion, Loss of Appetite and Disturbed Stomach. It may produce Headaches and Sleeplessness. It may irritate the Kidneys and bring on Pain in the Back, Rheumatism, Gout, and Rheumatic Pains. It is the chief cause of Eczema — and keeps the whole system unhealthy by the constant absorption into the blood of this refuse matter.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Auto-intoxication or self-poisoning — as "Fruit-a-tives" acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. ## HOW TO RETAIN OFFICE FOR ANOTHER YEAR

er, Lord Northcliffe, who doubtless argues that the way to link the Empire together is to undermine the constitutions of the overseas dominions and then hand the weakened remnants over to a strong central government at Westminster. In short, the News aims to do two things: To violate the constitution to keep the Borden Government in, and, incidentally, to weaken the constitution so that Canada can be handed over to the centralizers. This is the ripe fruit of the Borden Government's administration, that the British North America Act is treated as a scrap of paper.

If the News' suggestion is followed to its ultimate conclusion, heaven only knows where the encroachment of the Federal power will stop. If the Federal power can extend its tenure of office, simply by its own say-so, it can equally as well assert that the provinces have no rights under the constitution, and proceed to exercise the functions now delegated to them. If the Federal power can flout the British North America Act whenever it pleases, then there is no lesser authority that it may not over-ride.

It is worth noting that the News experiences a sense of shame in making this impudent suggestion, and tries to tie it up with the impossibility of registering the soldier vote if a general election takes place. Its argument is, in short, that the British North American Act ought to be assaulted at home because our soldiers are fighting for it abroad. The News freely admits that it was in favor of the Soldier's Votes Act — as indeed everybody was — and that it argued strongly, from the precedent of the American Civil War, that the vote could and should be taken.

It now admits quite freely, that the vote cannot and should not be taken, but it does not give the real reasons. The News says it was difficult, if not impossible, to poll the British Columbia soldiers' votes in France, and that it should be more difficult to poll the overseas soldiers' votes in a Dominion general election.

In 1915, the News thought, as the Hon. Bob Rogers did, that the soldiers' votes could be polled and that they would be cast for the Borden Government. But 1916 found them wiser. The soldiers had Sam Hughes and Colonel Allison and the Ross rifle and other matters in their crop, and when the British Columbia soldiers had a chance to show their detestation of Ottawa graft and incompetence by kicking out a government of the same party-stripe in Victoria, B. C., they went to it heartily. The result was a change of heart in the News. It believes, for publication, that the soldiers' vote cannot be polled, and feels, in private, that this is the best thing that can happen to a vote that has gone back on the Borden Government.

The News, of course, mixes the argument up with a lot of snivel about disfranchising 400,000 soldiers who ought to vote for Canada when they are ready to die for Canada. The simple answer to this is, that if anybody disfranchises the 400,000 brave men, it will be the Borden Government that is afraid to entrust the soldiers with the ballots that are now stacked up in the High Commissioner's office in London.

Thus the News has two strings to its bow. The first is — to the deuce with the constitution if it prevents the Borden Government staying in as long as it likes.

The second is — to the deuce with the soldiers' vote, because the Borden Government wouldn't get it anyway. — H. F. Gadsby.

Save the Food and Serve the Empire!

The Average Canadian Family Wastes Enough to Feed a Soldier

"The Kitchen must help as well as the Workshop and the Trenches" Lloyd George.

INTELLIGENT economy in the kitchen can do much to prevent the threatened world famine—can counteract the effect of high prices—and can replace growing debt with systematic saving.

Careful investigations show that before the war the average British family wasted 25% of their food—and we Canadians were even more extravagant.

This waste is not in a few big things, but in many little ones, each, we used to think, too small to bother about—such as careless peeling of vegetables and fruit—failure to make good use of dripping and "left-overs"—and such others as will occur to every thrifty housekeeper.

For the Empire's sake as well as your own, hunt up and cut out these leaks! You'll be helping to relieve the food shortage—saving your own money—and putting yourself in a position to buy Canadian War Savings Certificates and help win the war.

War Savings Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, to be repaid in three years at full face value. They cost $21.50, $43 and $86 respectively, at all Money Order Post-Offices and Banks, thus yielding over 5% interest. Should you need it, you can get your money back at any time.

MARGUERITE CLARK AT WESTHOLME THEATRE

"Snow White," the great fairy story for the children, will be shown at the Westholme tonight. This is a play that will be of great interest to the kiddies, young and old. Real fairies and gnomes appear in this play and they can't be seen around Prince Rupert every day. For the kiddies, a play of this sort is one to stimulate the budding imagination, and for the grown up children, it conveys them back again to the days when fairies were real to them. It is worth while, once in a time, to get back to these days again. Marguerite Clark in the title role needs no introduction to the public, her name is sufficient.

In addition, there is some real live comedy to be shown, in which Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew are splendid. The programme is a first-class one, and should not be missed.

Mr. J. McNeill, of Telkwa, arrived in the city yesterday and is a guest at the Hotel Prince Rupert.
