THE FRENCH TROOPS STRIKE SWIFT BLOW ON GERMAN LINE

A SUDDENLY ASSUMED OFFENSIVE OVER A WIDE FRONT ON FRENCH SECTOR ATTAINS ALL OBJECTIVES—HEAVY LOSSES INFLICTED ON ENEMY AND PRISONERS CAPTURED—BRITISH ARE BUSY

(Special to The Daily News.)

Paris, June 27.—By suddenly assuming the offensive over a wide front northwest of Hurbise the French troops last night captured a large portion of the front line German trenches. All objectives were completely attained. Heavy losses were inflicted upon the enemy, and over three hundred prisoners have been sent to the rear already.

British Front.

London, June 27.—The outstanding feature of the battle front activities of the past twenty-four hours is the great British drive towards Lens, where the Canadians have made good progress in surrounding the town. The Germans have been compelled since the victory of the Allies at Messines to keep a large force constantly mobilized to withstand countless surprise attacks. The recent activities in this section lead to the conviction that something approaching a decisive battle may be expected here in the near future. The British troops yesterday were busy along a fifty-mile front from Ephy northward to Hodge.

Aeroplane Fight.

Three British naval planes fought ten German machines in an aerial battle over Roulers. One of the German machines was shot down and two others were probably destroyed.

Berlin Report.

Berlin, June 27.—Sharp fighting occurred yesterday between the Teutons and the Russians on a battle front extending from southeastern Galicia to the Carpathian mountains. On the eastern Macedonian front, several clashes occurred between the British and the Bulgarian detachments.

Russian Offensive.

New York, June 27.—The Russians are now prepared to assume the offensive. Dispatches received from a war correspondent with the Russian armies predicts a spectacular drive on the eastern front which will tax the resources of the Central Empires to the utmost. The Russian armies are fit and ready and are anxious to redeem themselves.

Italian Front.

Rome, June 27.—The conquest of the highest peak of Ortigara gives the Italian troops command of the whole of that mountain region.

Holland Worried.

The Hague, June 27.—Little Holland is quite worried. The Dutch Government fears that the United States may not understand her situation in relation to the Central Powers.

Argentine's Reason.

Buenos Ayres, June 27.—The sinking by a German submarine of the Argentine steamer Toro, it is officially admitted today, brought the southern republic close to a severance with Germany.

Belgians Deported.

Le Havre, June 27.—The deportations of Belgian civilians continue. The people are fearful that they will be sent to Roumania.

Norway Would Fight.

New York, June 27.—Norway would fight if the United States gave the invitation. A secret service official says that the whole country is boiling with rage over the continued outrages against her merchant marine. English, French and American coins totalling in value seven hundred and sixty-five million have been melted.

New Serbian Ministry.

Washington, June 27.—Premier Nicholas Passich has formed a new Serbian ministry.

Mine Sweepers for Ships.

London, June 27.—After this, all vessels will carry mine sweepers. This new device is expected to afford protection for merchant ships in the war zone.

U. S. Liner Attacked.

The American Government will announce the disposal of its forces on the eastern front at the proper time. It has been suggested here that the American holiday on the fourth of July be observed in England. One United States liner had a narrow shave from destruction. Two torpedoes were fired and narrowly missed the ship. The submarine was plainly visible in the bright moonlight.

NEW LOCOMOTIVES TO DEVELOPE RUSSIA

Washington, June 26.—"Locomotives, locomotives and still more locomotives" are the fundamental needs of Russia today, according to Prof. Lomonosoff, railroad minister with the Russian mission. "Quite frankly I can say to you, our American friends," he said, "give us locomotives and we shall give you military success."

Russia needs at once one thousand ten-wheel American locomotives to put her idle cars in operation, another thousand with an appropriate number of cars to free the congested freight terminals, and another 850 annually to meet the deficiency between Russia's manufacture and her needs for renewal and new construction.

The United States, the professor said, is Russia's hope in this huge programme, and negotiations are now in progress which are most promising.

SAWMILL ACCIDENT AT PORT CLEMENTS

Port Clements, June 27.—A nasty accident occurred in the sawmill here this morning, whereby one of the hands was severely injured. A Hindu named Banka Singh, fell across the large saw and his back was very severely cut. He is being rushed to Prince Rupert on board one of the fast fishing boats, where he will be at once taken to the hospital for treatment.

The Rev. Father McGrath went up the line on the train this forenoon.

SWEEPING LIBERAL WIN IN SASKATCHEWAN

Regina, June 26.—As a result of the provincial elections held yesterday, another great victory for Liberalism has been recorded. The Liberals have secured forty-eight seats, the Conservatives six, while three are still to be heard from. All the cabinet ministers have been re-elected, by majorities running well into four figures.

GREAT DAM BURSTS IN THE STATE OF UTAH

Fairview, Utah, June 27.—The dam of the Price River Irrigation Company, twelve miles from here, which started to break yesterday afternoon, was a total loss this morning. All fears that there will be loss of life in the towns of Schofield, Helper, Castlegate and Colton, in the path of the 11,000 tons of water that was released in the break, were dispelled this morning with an announcement by the Rio Grande Railroad that its force of men, assisted by workers of the irrigation company, had taken hundreds of men, women and children to safety.

While officials of the irrigation company were unable to give an exact estimate of the loss to the dam, crops and property, they declared that the damage would probably exceed $3,000,000.

The amount realized from the Queen Alexandra Tag Day was $288.47. Of this sum $245.00 will be spent on the needs of the local hospital.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, June 27.—The debate on the Conscription Bill still continues. The share of Quebec under the selective draft system is estimated at 25,000. Seigney says this would not drain the Eastern province. Four speakers were heard yesterday, who divide on the merits of the conscription issue. The Hon. Mr. Pugsley and Mr. German want the people's consent, while Kemp and Seigney favor the bill.

The Coal Commissioner is given wide discretionary powers, to adjust the difficulties at the mines.

RUSSIANS FORMING STORMING UNITS

Petrograd, June 26.—One of the most favorable features of the situation on the Russian front is the formation of "storming battalions," which are newly created army units composed of soldiers who favor a policy of active fighting. Soldiers who wish to fight are transferred to battalions composed entirely of men holding this view. These men receive red and black arm bands to distinguish them from shirkers. Their function is to lead in attacks.

The movement started in the extreme south wing of the army, but now there are storming battalions everywhere. Dr. Eugene Hurd, of Seattle, who has been with the central army since the beginning of the war and is now in Petrograd, says the idea is spreading like wildfire.

Before starting for this city Dr. Hurd saw two splendid new divisions composed of storming battalions. He also met several trains of soldiers on the way to the front, all wearing the red and black arm bands and in excellent fighting mood. Dr. Hurd predicts that nearly all the soldiers will join the storming battalions and regards the movement as a signal for the regeneration of Russia's fighting forces.

GERMANS CARRYING OFF MORE BELGIANS

Havre, June 26.—Information reaching the Belgian Government daily from the occupied territory confirms the fact, officially denounced by the Belgian Government, that the Germans have started again to carry off by force Belgian civilians and compel them to perform work useful to the enemy. According to forms for classification of the inhabitants of Mons prepared by the German authorities and in possession of the Belgian Government, the Belgians have been divided into five categories. Men from 28 to 40, from 15 to 17 and 41 to 60, and women from 15 to 17 and 41 to 60, and women from 15 to 35 and from 36 to 60. In each category information must be furnished as to the indemnity of the person, his or her profession and place of employment.

EXPECT THAT GREECE WILL JOIN ALLIES

French Troops Enter the City of Athens—Venizelos Will be Premier and Campaign Will Follow.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Athens, June 27.—It is expected that Greece will join the Allies within a few months, and that Venizelos' assumption to power will be followed by a great campaign for the Allies. The new Government will not mobilize the nation against its will. The new leader Venizelos was received by the King today and will succeed Zaimis.

French troops have entered Athens. A slight disturbance by the followers of Gounaris was quickly subdued. The Allies are in command of the situation.

THE SINN FEIN RIOTS

Cork, June 25.—Machine guns were used on the Sinn Feiners in the disturbances here yesterday morning. They were brought into action after the police with clubs had failed to restore order. One rioter was killed, another severely wounded, while a dozen were treated in hospitals for bayonet and other wounds. The riot eventually was quelled without the troops coming into action.

The rioters smashed windows in a number of recruiting offices and hoisted the republican flag on the courthouse flagstaff and committed many other acts of violence.

The Sinn Feiners, at a big meeting in the afternoon, adopted resolutions denouncing the national convention as a diplomatic attempt on the part of the government to place Ireland in a false position and prevent the fulfillment of Ireland's claims to sovereign independence. The resolutions demanded that the executive convene the council to express the opinions of the people and elect representatives to a peace conference.

London, June 26.—The number of persons injured more or less seriously in the rioting in Cork last night is given as about thirty, in a Central News despatch from that city. One police inspector was injured seriously and several policemen had narrow escapes. When machine guns were trained on the crowd most of the rioters disappeared.

AT OTTAWA

According to Ottawa dispatches, the advice tendered to the Government by Pardee and others, says The Sun that any attempts to enforce conscription should be preceded by a last supreme effort under the voluntary system is beginning to have its effect.

Last month 7,000 men enlisted voluntarily, 500 of them from Quebec. Some weeks ago Col. Guthrie brought 1,000 Canadian volunteers over from Boston. In Australia when conscription was defeated on a referendum, a joint committee of six, three from each side of politics, has been appointed, and there is talk of inaugurating a similar arrangement in Canada. Anything is worth considering, which as Mr. Pardee said, "would save a situation fraught with serious possibilities of schism and strife."

It cannot be deemed that recent actions on the government side have not tended to strengthen the idea that immediate conscription is intended. Hon. Arthur Meighen's speech on Thursday was unusually significant.

"This bill," he said, "is far from being designed or framed to result in unfairness to the province of Quebec. It is so designed and framed, for good and sufficient reasons of state, to fall more lightly upon the province of Quebec than any other province, the reasons being that Quebec was an almost purely agricultural province and that its manhood married young and had big families." The solicitor-general, we are told, concluded a somewhat acrimonious address by declaring that the offer of co-operation with the Liberal party is still open.

The admission that the measure has been framed "to fall more lightly upon the province of Quebec than any other province" will not prove very welcome to those who have urged that all the provinces shall be treated with absolute equality. It also looks very much like an attempt to assure Quebec that, whatever may happen to the other provinces, she has little to fear from conscription. Hon. Mr. Meighen's renewed attempt to draw Sir Wilfrid into a coalition seems to indicate that the courage of the government is fast oozing away. Our Ottawa correspondent is probably right in concluding that if the conscription bill becomes law, it will be on condition that it will come in force only on proclamation, and that it will not be proclaimed until a final honest effort to secure recruits on the voluntary plan has been thoroughly tested.

Such a suggestion could only be opposed on the ground that recruiting efforts in Quebec up to date have been exhaustive and thorough going. But everyone knows that such is not the case. No one would favor sending a Roman Catholic to obtain recruits from an Orange lodge, nor would any one suggest the opposite proceeding. And yet this "opposite proceeding" is precisely what has been going on in Quebec since the beginning of the war under the curious management of Sir Sam Hughes. The alleged attempts of the government to recruit in Quebec have been so ill judged and ineffective that they scarcely can be dignified as attempts at all.

The government can take the course outlined in the despatches without receding from its announced policy of conscription. It will no doubt claim that it is simply postponing the execution of its policy. It does shake our confidence in its bona fides most seriously, however, when at so early a stage we are told that it is proposed to treat Quebec very differently from the other provinces.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The fact that the ex-King Constantine has purchased the magnificent Chateau Chartreuse near Thun in Switzerland may indicate that he intends to be comfortable where he is now. The atmosphere of Switzerland will be more bracing and health-giving than where he came from. Besides, Thun will be nearer to Berlin than Athens and Queen Sophie will be able to visit her dear and costly brother more frequently and with less effort. The increasingly democratic atmosphere in Europe is also causing insomnia at times to others of Royal state.

The Czech regiments have deserted to the Russians, according to dispatches. It has been said that hitherto, just to prevent such contingencies, that the Czech regiments have been sandwiched between other Austrian and German troops. With disaffection in the ranks opposed to a reborn and well armed Russian army, the German High Command will have something to face, when the Russian offensive does start again.

The return of Former Premier Venizelos to Athens is another bright spot on the outlook for the Balkans. Venizelos was for the Allies all the time, and protested most vehemently when King Constantine treated his treaty with Serbia as a "scrap of paper." Before long, it may be looked for that the Greek army will be again in arms against their hereditary enemy, the Turk and the Bulgar. Hatred of the Turk is the one thing that is in common with all classes in Greece, and nothing would have a greater unifying effect on the Greek people than war on the Ottoman.

WOULD CONSCRIPT ALSO WEALTH AND RESOURCES

Ottawa, June 25.—Last week's debate on the manhood conscription bill ended with the House divided into three fairly distinct sections. They are described by the Ottawa Citizen (Independent), as follows:—

"A large part of the government members favor compulsory military service without a referendum and a number of Liberals agree with them. Another party composed of French and English speaking Liberals favor conscription with a referendum. The third party is made up exclusively of government supporters and it is absolutely opposed to conscription with or without a referendum. It is this party which elected the government in 1911 and has since helped to maintain it in office and it has been an active force in the Conservative Nationalist coalition government since 1911. For the first time in our political history a large and influential body of supporters of the government proposes the six months' hoist to an administrative measure."

Liberals Want Extension.

Above as nearly as possible is about the situation at the end of the week. It may be added, however, that in the classification above mentioned, Liberals who agree with the government members favoring compulsory military service, go further to wealth and resources. There really should be four classes. Three more Liberal members added their support to the conscription bill. They were Hon. Geo. P. Graham, E. W. Nesbitt and W. F. Buchanan. Mr. Graham after laying down the principle that any man who voted against the Laurier amendment was "not severing the ties which bind him to his grand old chieftain nor was he slinging away from the great Liberal party."

He favored the bill, but he did so on the assumption that the government would undertake an extension of the principle to wealth and resources and should go about co-ordinating and organizing the industries of the country toward the winning of the war.

Sir Thomas White replying to Mr. Graham declared that mobilization of man power in order to reinforce troops at the front was one thing and that taxation for the purpose of finding funds for the prosecution of the war was another and a very different matter. They could not properly be discussed together. "Taxation," he said, with the air of profundity, "must be wisely imposed. Men who are reputed to be wealthy may have no ready cash. Let us say that they are engaged in a great industry that employs thousands of men, shall the state seize part of the capital engaged in that industry. Financing of the war must be carried by drawing from the liquid funds of the nation, from new wealth so to speak, created through the war. Otherwise, essential industry is likely to suffer. The minister of finance, therefore, must be sagacious in his imposition of taxation or he may defeat the very purpose that he has in view."

It would appear that the minister lays down the principle that the war must be financed from "new wealth" created by the war. A billion and a half dollars' worth of war orders have been placed in Canada since the war commenced. This constitutes "new wealth," but the minister of finance has only tapped it so far to the extent of twelve million dollars.

Burden on Soldiers.

The minister hinted that the income tax might "probably" be imposed, but generally speaking his understanding along the lines of widening the principle of conscription was vague and uncertain. The minister was willing at another time to justify his heavy borrowing. In this regard Mr. Graham intimated that the system of piling up the bonded debt would create burdens of taxation after the war which the soldier

ANTI'S WOULD RESPECT LAW OF THE MAJORITY

Montreal, June 26.—At the anti-conscription meeting addressed last night in Baril hall, in Montreal's east end, by Tanerere Marsil, the anti-conscription leader, another speaker, Lorenzo Robitail, who has addressed many meetings with Mr. Marsil, said:

"If the majority of Canada is for conscription, I will respect the constitutional law constitutionally made. There is no need to preach revolution. There is a better way. The workmen throughout the country are organized and the best remedy would be a general strike."

Mr. Robitail told of a great number of other matters, referring to the appointment of a Methodist minister as recruiting officer for Montreal and declared his belief that French-Canadians have enlisted in greater numbers than they were given credit for.

at the front will have to bear when he comes back.

It is expected that a vote on the second reading of the bill will be reached by the middle of the week. Thereafter in committee the provisions of the bill itself will come under the survey of members.
