TORNADO IS SWEEPING OVER THE MIDDLE STATES

FIRE, TERROR AND DEATH SWEEPS THE CONTINENT

One are Killed and Twenty, Including the Denver Ball Team, Injured in Railway Wreck---Six are Burned Alive in Holocaust at San Francisco---Three Killed and Twenty Injured by Destruction in Tornado in Illinois.

(Canadian Press Despatch)
 Denver, May 29.—At least nine persons were killed and twenty injured by a terrible train wreck on the Burlington road this morning. The East and West trains met head-on when running at high speed. Scenes of great horror followed. Nine dead bodies have been recovered, and there may be more.
 Among those who were badly injured are the members of the Denver baseball team who were returning home. Their car was smashed to splinters, and practically every man is injured in some way.

Chutes, the largest outdoor amusement park in San Francisco, was destroyed by fire early this morning and several persons have lost their lives thereby. Three bodies have been taken from the ruins, and three others are still unaccounted for.
 In addition to the loss of human life, a valuable collection of wild animals has been burned up.

BODY OF GEO. McLEOD FOUND NEAR ESSINGTON

Fortunate Man Has Been Missing Since Jan. 14th—Was Lost in a Blizzard, and Had Evidently Died While Seeking Shelter in Crevice

After being missing since January 14th, the dead body of George McLeod of Port Essington was discovered this morning on a trail between Port Essington and the rock quarry. The body was crouched in a crevice as if seeking protection from a storm, and told its own tale of the unfortunate man's efforts to save his life in a blizzard.

When it was learned that he had not reported at the quarry fears were entertained. When after several days he did not turn up, he was given up for lost.
 Search was made along the trail for his body, but without success. The discovery this morning made the reason clear. He had evidently crawled for shelter into the crevice, and there died from cold. The drifting snow had blocked up the entrance to the crevice, so that the seekers on the trail were unable to find him.
 The body has been brought into Port Essington for interment.

INTERRUPTED PREACHER TO APPLAUD THE SERMON

Dramatic Incident in the Empress Theatre Last Night—An Incident With Very Pretty Story Behind It—The Poem Touched Him

"Hear! Hear!"
 His spontaneous exclamation burst out in the Empress Theatre last night, when Rev. F. W. MacPherson, during the course of his sermon read the well known poem "The House by the Side of the Hill."
 Almost everybody in the building turned to look in the direction whence the sound came. The man responsible for the exclamation sat in a back seat with a dog beside him which he had picked up at the sound of his master's voice and barked. The man's eyes shone with enthusiasm. He was a tall gaunt man, who showed the cult of a miner's pioneer. Hugh MacPherson was of this.

A few years ago the C. P. R. was building that famous tunnel near Field, B. C. Hugh MacPherson was one of the hundreds of men working in the camps on the job. He was a big kind hearted Scotchman, made outwardly rough by years of rough life. None, he said were rougher than he. Then there came a young Sky Pilot, fresh from a Presbyterian college and built his house by the side of the road to minister to and help the men working in the tunnels. He was Rev. F. W. Kerr. One day Hugh MacPherson received word that his wife had died. This was a blow to him. Then to make matters worse he got his leg broken. Other troubles came. The young man in the house by the side of the way played the real friend to MacPherson as he had done to many another in the camps.

But stay and hear what made him applaud in church. Some thought it was sacrilege. But was it? Are you give a verdict read on:

RED CLIFF ORE BY RAIL SOON

Supt. of New Line Promises Transportation in July

D. C. Lewis, construction superintendent of the Portland Canal Short Line now inspecting the work there, has expressed the belief that transportation facilities will be given the Portland Canal and Red Cliff mines before the end of July. The line is nearly all graded and the rails have been laid for a distance of three miles from Stewart. He is arranging for the location for the extension of side tracks to the ore bunkers.
 The upraise from the lower tunnel of the Red Cliff to the surface, a distance of about 350 feet, was completed last week, the entire workings being in ore. It is expected that a large tonnage will be available as soon as the railway reaches the mine.
 Mr. Lewis last summer made a reconnaissance survey for an extension of the line over the summit into Naas valley. He found that the construction of a line was quite feasible. He took the various levels proceeding inland as far as the Naas river.

WILL RACE TEN MILES ON THE FIRST OF JULY

Nicholson Accepts Holmquist's Challenge but Wants Sherman to Run Also---Scandinavian Society is Willing to Offer a Substantial Trophy for the Contest---Sherman May Not Run But Dave Watson Will and Probably Glyn Porter

Albert Nicholson, the long distance runner, has this morning accepted the challenge of Holmquist to run a ten mile race on Dominion Day, July 1st, for the benefit of the sport-loving people of Prince Rupert. The only condition he makes is that Sherman who beat him in the three mile contest on Empire Day will become a competitor.
 Dave Watson who has competed in several races, and has made a good showing at the ten mile distance has also announced his willingness to start in the race.
 Nicholson left for up-river this morning after announcing his willingness to run. But he will be back in ample time to get in form for the race. He has a large number of trophies at home ranging from silver cups to suites of furniture to testify to his ability on the track. His best races were run in England where he ran fourth in one of Shrubbs' big races, and has competed with the famous Dorando.

I am able to do so, I might enter but I do not see how I can," he said. Sherman, who is employed at P. Burns' store on Centre street pointed out that he was working at laborious work from seven in the morning until seven in the evening, and therefore could not do justice to himself go into the rigorous training that a ten mile race would require. "If it were a three mile or even a five mile, I might consider it, but it is impossible for me at this busy season of the year, on top of my hard daily work to make any binding promise to run ten miles," he said.
 "As a matter of fact," he added, "I did not particularly want to run in the three mile race, only there was a little dispute about the previous contest, which I wanted to clear up," he added.

Will Offer a Prize
 The Secretary of the Scandinavian Society, has authorised a statement that their society is willing to offer a substantial prize in conjunction with the sports committee for a ten mile race or a Marathon race on Dominion Day. This offer will almost certainly be accepted by the sports committee for the Dominion Day celebration.
 In addition to the runners already mentioned, there is a possibility that Glyn Porter of the fire hall, who has an excellent reputation as a long distance runner may be induced to compete.

DAWSON TELLS OF SUMMER RUSH

Men and Boats Getting Busy Bound for Iditarod

First arrivals from British Columbia and Northwest coast points by water this year, including the advance guard of the rush into Iditarod and Fairbanks, arrived at Dawson this week in small boats.
 Scores of small boats are coming, due in a day or two, with thousands of people. A fleet of eight steamers and eight scows has left Lake Le Barge for Dawson.
 The steamer Canadian, with 125 men and 100 horses, for the international survey work on Porcupine River and with cattle for Fairbanks and the Iditarod, left Yukon crossing Saturday night.
 The cold storage steamer Robert Kerr and Packet Sarah have taken cargo from Dawson for the Iditarod direct. The steamer St. Michael takes cargo for Porcupine.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE PLANS

Re-organisation of Colonial Office Considered

London, May 28.—The Imperial Conference on Saturday considered the question of the re-organisation of the Colonial Office proposed by Sir Joseph Ward, Premier of New Zealand. Vernon Harcourt, Colonial Secretary, submitted the list of changes the government is prepared to institute in the standing committee of the conference. These changes would make the committee absolutely advisory without being executive. It is stated that most of the premiers are satisfied with the present system, but decision in the matter is meantime postponed.

LATEST NEW ADDITION TO RUPERT'S LAUNCH FLEET

Powerful Gasoline Boat "Lakanian" is Launched and Ran Trial Trips Sunday—Built for A. W. Agnew for Survey Work along Coast Points

Early on Sunday morning when the tide was at its highest the fine new gasoline boat "Lakanian" built for A. W. Agnew was launched from H. Johnston's yard at Hay's Creek. This is the last boat to leave the stocks at the Hays Creek yard as Mr. Johnson has now removed to a new location at Cow Creek near Third avenue and Market Place.
 Trial trips of the "Lakanian" were run on Sunday, and proved very satisfactory. The launch is driven by a 12-15 H. P. Relaco engine supplied by the Parkin Ward Electric Co., and developed a good speed with the engine running at only half power yesterday. She will do nine to ten miles.
 Intended for survey work on the coast this summer, the launch is very substantially built, and has a handsome and powerful appearance. Her framing is of 1 x 2 in. oak at 8 in. centres, her planking 1 1/4 in. cedar. She is very strongly decked to suit the work for which she is intended, and has three roomy cabins lighted by eight ports. Mast and sail are included in her equipment. Practically all the fittings were supplied through the Park Ward Co.

 H. Johnston at his new boat-yard has installed the Rover boat-house which he has purchased with its set of fine boats and canoes, and these are available for hire this season. His new yard gives facilities for the building and equipment of all classes of launches and boats.

CONGRATULATIONS COME FROM ALL OVER WORLD

Readers of Daily News in Canada, United States, Europe and Australia Compliment Prince Rupert's Leading Newspaper—Editorial Reprinted

"I have been pleased to note the constant improvement of your paper and particularly the recent enlargement and change of name," is the extract from a letter received by the Daily News on Saturday from Mr. E. C. Mitchell, cashier in the Bank of Commerce, in Sulphur, Oklahoma. With this letter came a money order for a subscription to the News.
 By the same mail came more letters of congratulation "Pray accept my congratulations on your editing of a paper so well printed and free from exaggeration" was the encomium handed out by Mr. William Fitlander of Vancouver, who also sent a subscription for the Daily News. He had been taking the weekly edition.
 Rev. Mr. Brown, Presbyterian minister at Kitselas, handed out the next bouquet and following him came a letter from Mr. William Ashton of Boulder City, West Australia, who said he had seen the News and wanted to know the subscription rates as he liked the paper.

 In the issue of May 20, the Monetary Times, the leading financial paper of Canada, reprinted in full the News editorial of Wednesday May 3, entitled "The Spirit of the Press," which paid a tribute to the "Inland Colonist," then of Kitselas, now of Hazelton, for using grocers' wrapping paper to get out the paper when the regular news printing paper gave out rather than suspend publication.
 These things are encouraging. The News has improved and, furthermore, is going to keep on improving. The significance of the letters will be appreciated by our advertisers as well as our subscribers.

DAILY EDITION.

MONDAY, MAY 29

WANTED! HALF AN AMBULANCE

It will be gratifying news to the citizens, and especially to those whose daily occupations make them liable to become the victims of accident, to know that a sum of five hundred dollars is in the possession of Dr. Eggert, as the gift of the Grand Trunk Pacific railway company towards the purchase of an ambulance. For his service in laying the needs of the city in this respect before his company, General Superintendent Mehan, jointly with the G. T. P. is deserving of thanks.

In due time Dr. Eggert will of course, lay the matter before the Hospital Board, and notify them officially that the money is in his possession. In the meantime, owing to the daily risk that is being run, and the great urgency of the case, the public will be quite justified in acting as if official notification has been given, and make the necessary arrangements to procure an ambulance. Every day's delay means the risk of a repetition of the heart-rending sight of a couple of weeks ago, when injured men screaming with pain were borne through the streets on a common jolting dray. Every day's delay is a menace to the comfort and perhaps the life of anyone of us.

The cost of a properly equipped ambulance is placed at an approximate figure of $1,000. The Grand Trunk Pacific has set the pace by subscribing half the amount. We have got as it were, half an ambulance. Who will subscribe the other half?

This is not a case where the hospital board should go round hat in hand asking for contributions. It is a case where the duty is clearly laid upon the whole body of citizens to provide assistance for its helpless and injured members. It is as clearly a duty for the city to provide a proper conveyance for its injured contributors, as it is to provide a medical officer to protect the general health. It should not be made a matter of charity. It is a matter of civic duty—one of those utilities, which because they are of collective use, should be collectively purchased out of the public funds.

It is an open secret that the recent manoeuvring of the Hospital Board to appoint an "honorary president," is merely a device to give voting power to Mr. William Manson, thus to enhance that gentleman's prestige. If the city council was to get busy at its meeting tonight and vote a sum of $500 to complete the sum requisite for the purchase of an ambulance, public sentiment would be so grateful, that probably no hostility would be aroused if the act was followed by the admission of Mr. William Manson to voting power, without any juggling or manoeuvring. In any event his prestige would receive the desired enhancement by the act.

Public opinion—humane public opinion—is demanding an ambulance. The Grand Trunk Pacific on its own volition, on the recommendation of Gen. Supt. Mehan has acted very promptly and generously in the matter. It is now up to the city council to do the rest.

RISKY SURVEY THIS SUMMER

Party of Fifteen Set Out for Alaska Boundary

In locating the Alaska boundary line from a point inland from Kakutat Bay to the intersection of the 141 meridian a Dominion government survey party now in Vancouver will undertake this season one of the most hazardous undertakings in the annals of the survey. The party of fifteen white men will be in charge of Noel J. Ogilvie of Ottawa, who has had a great deal of experience along the northern frontier during the past five years.

The route inland to the boundary and on to the base of Mt. Elias, which towers to a height of 19,000 feet, is about forty miles. It extends along the famous Male-spina glacier which begins at the water's edge. There is little likelihood of the surveyors reaching Mount St. Elias this season. It will be an uphill ascent over ice-fields all the way. Every member of the party will be attired in winter clothing to withstand the cold weather. Sledges will be utilized in packing in instruments and supplies.

The glacier extends right up from the foot of the mountain and abounds in dangerous crevasses. In making their way inland from the sea, Mr. Ogilvie and all the members of the party will be roped. The survey line will be determined by triangulation and a series of photos will form a part of the official record for both governments. It has been deemed unwise to plant boundary monuments owing to the slow movement of the glacier.

Sealed tenders addressed to the undersigned and endorsed 'Tender for Public Building, Cranbrook, B. C.' will be received until 4 p.m., on Monday, June 12, 1911, for the construction of a Public Building, Cranbrook, B. C. Plans, specification and form of contract can be seen and forms of tender obtained at the offices of Mr. Wm. Henderson, Resident Architect, Victoria, B. C., at the post office, Cranbrook, and at this department.

Persons tendering are notified that tenders will not be considered unless made on the printed forms supplied, and signed with their actual signatures, stating their occupations and places of residence. In the case of firms, the actual signature, the nature of the occupation and place of residence of each member of the firm must be given. Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted cheque on a chartered bank, payable to the order of the Honourable the Minister of Public Works, equal to ten per cent (10 p.c.) of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the person tendering declines to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or fail to complete the work contract for the tender. The Department does not bind itself to accept the lowest or any tender.

By order, R. C. DESROCHERS, Secretary, Department of Public Works, Ottawa, May 18, 1911. Newspapers will not be paid for this advertisement if they insert it without authority from the Department.

INDIAN CHIEF DISAPPEARS

Moses Shakes of Wrangell Missing from His Boat, Yankee

Moses Shakes, son of Chief Shakes of Wrangell, mysteriously disappeared from his gasboat, Yankee, up the Stikine River.

The boat was closely examined by the party of hunters that camped close by, and Moses' hat, coat, shoes and empty purse were found in the boat. The wiring of the engine was tangled and disconnected and a closer search disclosed bold spots on the engine, floor, sidewalk and bedding. After a thorough search for the body the party returned to Wrangell and reported the facts to Chief Shakes and the officials.

That evening the party of hunters together with Chief Shakes and George Shakes, went back to Andrews Creek to make an ore thorough search for the body but failed to recover it.

BUILDING PERMITS

Several Plans L're Passed by the Building Inspector

The following permits have been issued by the Building Inspector: George H. Laux, residence on Fifth avenue, four rooms, cost $800.

Hickey & Bain, addition to carpenter shop, cost $300.

Anderson & McKinnon, remodeling Piercy-Morris building on Center street for the Canadian Customs, cost $800.

H. M. Dann, alterations and addition to residence on Fifth avenue, cost $200.

Kash & O'Brien, residence on Fifth avenue, eight rooms, cost $1,900.

There is not a ball player in the land who has the hold on the public like Hans Wagner. Larry Lajoie is not really popular any place, although his ability is not questioned. Ty Cobb has earned the rep of being pig-headed and the fans are generally pulling for him to make an error or strike out, but in Philadelphia, New York, Brooklyn, Boston and other places the bugs are eager to see Wag knock the ball out of the lot, even though the turning of such a trick means dire disaster to the home team. They all have a warm spot for the lumbering German and when he quits baseball the National League will lose its highest trump.

MUST HAVE THE RAILWAY HERE

Clift Ford's Views on Prince Rupert Red Hot this Morning

Mr. Clift Ford, the English financier whose wide interests in Prince Rupert are well known, arrived by the Prince George this morning, in company with Mr. O. M. Helgerson.

Talking to the Daily News, he remarked that his visit is one of investigation with a view to possible further investment. He is likely to go up river as far as Hazelton if time permits. Regarding Rupert itself, Mr. Ford is most optimistic, but his experience as a financier leads him to avoid any tendency to hope for a wild boom, but rather to expect the steady upward progress of the city.

"One thing I do say," he remarked. "You must have a railway here before the great mass of Eastern and British capital will flow in in any great quantity. Until the railway is through there can be no phenomenal movement. If there were it would not be good for the city."

Oh, You Cupid!

Mr. Ray Bowers, who has been for some time with Mr. C. B. Wark, left for a trip south last week. A well founded rumor has it that when he returns he will have a bride with him.

Triumphant Males

Friday's Bridge Tournamen was fully reported in another part of the paper, but this item from a masculine source is interesting. "Be sure you don't forget to put in that WE beat them by 3,100 points, and that the men's lowest score was equal to the girls' highest," says the said source. Now will you be good?

A Little Slip

The conductor of the Skidegate Band which won in the recent contest was Arthur Moody. The band was instructed by Arthur Solomon, who however, did not wield the baton during the contest. Charlie Bell, the baritone soloist of this band, also distinguished himself as a runner winning a silver cup.

A Great Dictionary

On another page will be found an advertisement of the "New International" Webster's Unabridged Dictionary. This is a reminder that the English language is being added to yearly, so that even the awe-inspiring sheepskin-covered tome which for years has been known as Webster's Unabridged, has to be added to by some seven hundred pages of words and illustrations and revised meanings. The New International has only been completed a few months, and supersedes the International edition of 1890. In looking about for the most complete and authoritative dictionary on the market, the Daily News has selected the New International for use in its own office.

THE COSY CORNER
DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

NOVEL COAT SUIT
used to cream chicken. If the ripe olives are chosen the flavor is delicious. They are also good in a chicken scallop. Mix the sauce with the chicken, put in a baking dish, cover the top with grated cheese and bake in a quick oven until the top is brown.

[THE GIRLS' PLAN]
Darn Socks to Endow College
The co-eds at Swarthmore College are taking all sorts of odd jobs in order to raise the $80,000 needed to complete a college endowment on June 7. They have scraped up $30,000.
During their spare time the co-eds act as nurse girls for the matrons in the vicinity of Swarthmore. Some mend socks at 5 cents a hole, no matter what the size of the hole.
Others make beds on a graduated scale of prices. For turning the mattresses they charge 5 cents, but they will put on the sheets in any old way for 2 cents.

An exceedingly modish white serge coat suit, introducing the new pincushion buttons, which are used for decorative purposes only. These combined with heavy stitching and the unique arrangement of side seam on skirt are most attractive. Similar treatment is given the jacket, which has a collar of wide striped black and white taffeta.

PICKNICKING IN EUROPE
Out of Doors Parties Made Easy Over There
In Europe picknicking is made easy. In some of the suburbs and recreation places, the municipality provides a kitchen with a large stove, tea and coffee pots, heavy white crockery in the form of pitchers, plates, cups, etc., all for the use of the picknickers. The picnic parties bring their own raw tea, coffee, or chocolate, take it into the kitchen, where it is made for them, or they may make it themselves.

THE FIRST KITCHENS
Warlike Race Brought Them to Womankind
Kitchens were introduced into England by the Romans. They were public places known by a name equivalent to bakehouse. In shape they were octagonal, fitted with several ovens and fireplaces. Unfortunately, the Romans did not impart the art of building these latter to the natives, and during the relapse which followed their departure from England, bakehouses fell into decay, while ovens and fireplaces disappeared altogether.

Social Notes
Mrs. Mortimore entertained pleasantly at cards on Saturday evening. The guests included Miss Schott, Miss MacDonald, Miss Milligan, Miss Johnston, Mr. Harrison, Mr. Reichel, Mr. Warton and Mr. Gamble.
Mrs. Naden has issued invitations for a Bridge tea on Thursday afternoon.
Mrs. G. A. Sweet leaves on Friday's boat on a month's visit to friends in Seattle.
Mrs. Vernor Smith returned on Saturday from a delightful visit to Seattle and Spokane.

Cuban Pudding
Press 4 ounces of dry sponge cake through a sieve, and add to this 4 ounces of grated coconut. Beat up 2 eggs, add them to 1 ounce of sugar and then gradually pour on them half a pint of hot milk, and pour the whole over the cake and coconut. Have ready a well buttered mold, and decorate the sides with 1 ounce of preserved ginger cut up, pour in the mixture, cover with a buttered paper, and steam for about an hour to an hour and a half. Turn out and serve with some of the syrup from the ginger heated and poured over it.

ITEMS OF SPORT
Sam Langford and Joe Jeanette have signed articles for a finish fight in Paris early in June for a purse of $10,000.

Unless another man is appointed Canada will be represented in the swimming events at the Festival of Empire only by George Johnston of Ottawa. George Hodgson, who was chosen with Johnston to go to England has decided not to make the trip.

The Clifinan and Drewry Lacrosse championship cups, for many years held at Regina, are to be packed up and sent to Winnipeg in accordance with the demands of the trustees, it being held that Regina is no longer affiliated with the Western Canada Lacrosse Association.

Stanley Ketchel was a born fighter, with his lightninglike shifts and his ambidexterous delivery. He had a peculiar manner of maintaining his balance when his fiercest swings went wild and every battle he engaged in kept the spectators on the jump from first to last.

Sam Langford is another natural fighter, but, while his notions may be original, his style seems to be a blend of Joe Wolcott's and Jack Johnson's. He is all three with high swings and upershocks, and his treatment of Lang is eloquent proof of the futility of the old mechanical style of boxing when pitted against the methods of the latter day.

It is worthy of note that the most effective of the natural fighters this country has known during the past fifteen or twenty years were colored men. Of these none had greater vogue than Joe Wolcott, who, on account of his peculiar build, peculiar talents and his particular effectiveness when sent against men taller and heavier than he, was sometimes called "Joe, the Giant Killer." Overhand blows were Wolcott's long suit, and he could deliver them in a notably damaging way when his frame was flattened against that of an opponent.

Jimmy Britt, once the lightweight champion of the world, is going to make a try for the title again. "But first of all," he said, "I want a return match with another former champion—"Bat" Nelson."
Britt has a commission from Hugh McIntosh, the Australian promoter, to offer Jack Johnson $25,000 for a fight next September with the winner of the McVey-Langford bout.

Frank Gotch, the world's champion wrestler, will meet George Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion, at Comiskey's ball park next Labor Day. The Empire A.C., which worked hard to land this match practically gave in to Gotch in every one of his demands, and obtained the signature of the champion to bind him to wrestle his old rival.

Arnst and Pearce will compete for the sculling championship of the world on the Parramatta on July 15. Harry Pearce is the present champion of Australia. Since he first defeated Webb for the title, Arnst has won three championship races—with Webb (the second match), George Welch and Ernest Barry.

The Vancouver lacrosse team is undoubtedly the highest priced lacrosse organization in Canada by a long margin, but that story from the East that Jack Laviolette turned down a salary of $2,000 to play here this season is simply too rich. A couple of Laviolettes would not be worth that much to the Vancouver team and nobody knows this better than President Jones. He declares Jack is very badly mixed in his figures, and must have been talking for the benefit of the National executives.

HOLDS SERVICES IN BIG TENT

Presbyterian Missionary at Kitselas Gets Good Congregations.

News of progress up-river shows that the churches are keeping abreast of the general advance that is being made. Mr. W. E. Brown, the Presbyterian missionary, recently in Prince Rupert on his way to Kitselas is now holding regular church services in a canvas church, to which large congregations are drawn.

Last Sunday he spoke on the parable of the Great Supper, the greatness of it, the cost of it, the excuses men made for not coming to it. He warned his hearers that those who discarded the invitation were trifling with the great Host. The invitation thus spurned might never be repeated.

The sermon made a serious impression. The outlook for the church is very good.

DESPATCH FROM GEORGE LEEK
Detachment of Mounted Police Join the Party at Regina
(Special to the Daily News)
Regina, May 25, 1911.
Under the command of Major Hart McHarg, the Canadian contingent reached Regina today, the men all in good spirits and enjoying the journey.
At this point we were joined by a squadron of eighty men and horses of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police, under one officer. The smart red-coated policemen with their well-groomed, well-trained mounts look splendid. They will make a good effect on the British people, who have doubtless heard a great deal about the bravery and splendid discipline of the mounted police.
The special train is lengthening out as we get additions to our company. The weather is fine, and we are all having a very good time.
Best wishes to all my comrades in the Earl Grey's Rifles.
Yours truly,
GEORGE LEEK

KNIGHT'S INLET CANNERY SOLD
Capt. R. G. Gosse is Retiring From Business
Captain R. G. Gosse, who has for many years been identified with salmon canning operations on the coast of British Columbia, is reported to be retiring from active participation in the industry, and he has just disposed of the cannery and plant of the Knight Inlet Packing Company at Knight Inlet. The purchaser is the A. B. C. Packing Company.
Last year the Knight Inlet Packing Company had a very successful season, putting up 23,000 cases. This summer the expected pack at this cannery is 37,000 cases, preparations for that number having been made.

INTERRUPTED THE PREACHER

The young man subsequently left that house on the highway of life and staked down in another centre. Hugh MacPherson got on his feet again, in the full meaning of the colloquial term. He bought a ranch at Kitsumkalum and hearing that Mr. Kerr was here came down on Saturday to see him.

Last night when the minister was preaching on the opportunities every one has to be a friend to man and concluded with "The House by the Side of the Road" the man in the back of the theatre knew the practical philosophy of it. His emotions were worked up and as a result out came the exclamation "Hear! Hear!"

He met Mr. Kerr after the service and the two men had a great talk during which they dug up a big area of reminiscences. By request "The House by the Side of the Road" is given in full.

The House by the Side of the Road
There are hermit souls that are withdrawn
In the place of their self content
There are souls, like stars, that live apart
In a fellowless firmament;
There are pioneer souls that blaze their path
Where highway never ran—
But let me live by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
Where the race of men go by—
The men who are good, and the men who are bad,
As good and as bad as I.
I would not sit in the scorners' seat,
Nor hurl the cynic's ban;
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

I see from my house by the side of the road,
By the side of the highway of life,
The men who press with the ardor of hope,
The men who are faint with strife.
But I turn not away from their smiles or their tears—
Both parts of an infinite plan;
Let me live in a house by the side of the road,
And be a friend to man.

After a visit here in connection with some big investments Mr. Clift Ford returned to Vancouver today.

Uncle Jerry's New List

Carpenters are getting busy on residences all over town but even with this building activity it will be some time before the demand for dwelling houses and apartments can be supplied if it ever is, because of the number of new people arriving with the object of making homes here. My correspondence upon this subject with parties now on the outside is constantly increasing so I make an especial appeal to those having apartments and houses to rent or for sale to immediately list them with Uncle Jerry.

"ASK UNCLE JERRY"
We have also a hotel proposition worthy of consideration, several business opportunities, stores to rent, boats for sale and so forth.
There has been a surprising demand recently for farm lands up the Skeena and in the Bulkley valley. We have a large amount of acreage, carefully selected, all the way from Kitselas to Francois Lake, with full descriptions of the character of the soil and so forth. The price at present is low, running from $10 an acre up. Some of the land is partly cleared and has farm buildings on it. You should certainly look into this.
