LONDON PESSIMISTIC--REPORT THAT BELGRADE HAS BEEN OCCUPIED--RUSSIA WANTS TO FIGHT

RE-DECKING PLANK ROADWAYS AGAIN BEFORE CITY COUNCIL

ALDERMEN DISCUSSED FAMILIAR TOPIC INFORMALLY AND DECIDED TO MAKE PERSONAL INSPECTION OF WORN OUT ROADWAY

Ald. Dybhavn favored opening Fifth Avenue to McBride. The Mayor said the Council could do it if they had unity on the question. Ald. Maitland suggested that the aldermen all go out and look over the walks and be prepared to act on a report at next Monday's Council meeting. Ald. Basso-Bert said repairing was the most economical plan and he would not support any other plan. It would not be fair to the property owners otherwise. Attention was drawn to the fact that some parts of the roads needed new mud sills and bracings and the aldermen all agreed that that work would have to be a part of either plan, though there was a pronounced difference of opinion as to what was the discoverer of the fact. Ald. Dybhavn and Morrissey presented a motion that Sixth Avenue from Fulton to McBride, including Tatlow, and Fifth Avenue East be re-decked. The motion was eventually withdrawn until the councillors make a personal investigation. Ald. Morrissey declined to take part in the pedestrian outing as he claims he runs a little red wagon over the road every day and knows every plank. Some of the aldermen thought they ought to have the fire auto out to see how many planks it would break. The question was then given an adjournment.

WATER SERVICE FOR QUARANTINE STATION

Union District Engineer instructed to make preparations. B. Hull, engineer in charge of the Dominion Public Works Department here, has received instructions to prepare the ten for the water pipe line to quarantine station on Digby. This pipe line will draw from the city supply. It is proposed to tap the city main at Lynch's corner and run a ten inch main out Park Avenue. This will be reduced to a six inch at Crescent Avenue and the line will continue along the avenue to Fairview Point where a four inch flexible joint main will cross the harbor to the quarantine station. Over on Digby the main will run over the bridge to the hospital island. This whole line will be put in by the Dominion Government but at a subsequent date the city will reimburse the government for that portion of the line which will be used to supply sections three and four. That is the reason the big main is put in. The city will start to pay for this pipe two years after sections three and four have been put on the market. It will be paid for in sections as utilized by the city. The deal is considered a very good one for the city and will be a big advantage to property in sections three and four when they are put on the market.

SAFE WEIGHED TON--STOLEN BY THIEVES

Robbers Then Used Dynamite and Secured Two Hundred Dollars

Lindsay, July 30.—Daring burglars visited Lindsay and after entering the C.P.R. station, stole the big safe, weighing a ton, placed it on a lorry and deposited both lorry and safe in the railroad ditch at the corporation limits. Here the safe was dynamited and the cash removed. To lift the safe it was necessary to saw away a portion of the doorway and wall, but this was done to a nicety. It is estimated that the robbers got away with nearly two hundred dollars, as fortunately the C. P. R. station official had remitted the bulk of the day's sales to the head office. The local police are working on the case, but as yet nothing has been gleaned as to the whereabouts of the midnight robbers. It is supposed that they had a waiting auto and made a clean getaway.

CAN LEAD YOU TO IT

There may be a few idle men in the city and perhaps those whose occupations are speculative have not the income they had in the days of real estate activity, but Prince Rupert is not hard up—its citizens are all living well and buying good raiment and the choicest offerings of the food market. Are you getting your share of the business? If you have got the goods to offer, The Daily News can lead you to the buyers. It has more readers and a greater circulation in Prince Rupert than any paper published.

HATCH BELIEVES HE WILL WIN MATCH

Posted $50, Which Was Promptly Covered by Sigurdson's Supporters

Al Hatch, who is to wrestle Pete Sigurdson in McIntyre Hall, Saturday night to try and recover the middle weight championship of British Columbia, arrived yesterday and is staying in the city with friends. He is training between eight and nine at the Windsor and Pete is working out one hour earlier. On his arrival yesterday Hatch posted $50 on himself at G. Tessier's, and it was promptly covered. Chet McIntyre, who is both a boxer and wrestler, has offered to match with the winner of Saturday night's contest. The referee will be Frank Mitchell of New York and Montreal. He understands the game thoroughly and is unknown to both the contestants. Use "Canada First Cream," it has the fresh cream flavor. 173-5

REV. H. R. GRANT INDUCTED INTO LOCAL PRESBYTERIAN CHARGE

INTERESTING CEREMONY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH FOLLOWED IN DETAIL--ADDRESS OF WELCOME FROM LOCAL CLERGY

Last evening was a proud time for the Presbyterians. They turned out in force to honor the induction of their pastor, Rev. H. R. Grant and to welcome him and his family into their midst. Rev. Dr. J. Knox Wright, agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society preached an appropriate sermon. The moderator of the Presbytery, who also presided, addressed fitting words to the people with regard to their treatment of Mr. Grant. Other visiting clergymen including Rev. Canon Rix, Rev. W. W. Wright, Rev. W. E. Collison and Rev. J. F. Dimmick and Capt. Edwards of the Salvation Army, delivered appropriate addresses of welcome. At the close Mr. Grant responded with "winged words" and again convinced his people that they have secured the services of a big man. After the formal part of the ceremony was over a very pleasing program of songs by Miss Nauman and Mr. Davis, which were well received, and an excellently rendered reading by Mrs. Patterson.

An Appreciation of Rev. H. R. Grant

Written by a Member of His Late Congregation

The translation of the Rev. H. R. Grant from Vancouver to Prince Rupert should be the cause of much satisfaction to the citizens of the northern city, who have called a man whose worth they can only as yet surmise. Vancouver's loss is Prince Rupert's great gain and the pulpits of Prince Rupert have received a great addition in the "Sky Pilot." As a preacher Mr. Grant stands in the very forefront of Canada's best. He preaches the message with enthusiasm born of sincerity, and even at his worst is always good. To see him in the pulpit is a sight never to be forgotten. The tall man, whose kindly face shows plainly the marks of the hard life he has fought for his master, leaves an impress that will remain indelible for all time. Now he declares the truth in quiet conversational manner, now he proves his statement with emphasis, and again his clear voice rings and the face grows stern as he reminds his hearers "that life is more than meat, and the body more than raiment," and his whole frame shakes with earnestness as he declares the folly of man in seeking first the things of the world. But look, he now leans forward over the pulpit with hands clasped, and a beautiful smile lights up his countenance as he tells of the wonderful love of God. Here is a man, talking not from what he has heard others say, but telling in unmistakable terms the truth he himself has experienced. But not only in the pulpit has Mr. Grant won fame, but it is in the nearer relationship of friend to friend, that one really learns the wonderful power of the man. He does not wear that stiff, saintly, goody-goody expression so common amongst ministers, but he is the most approachable of men. In the great big man, there beats a heart of deepest love, and as tender as the heart of a child, and it is the great experience of the writer to know that in the Rev. H. R. Grant there is to be found a true friend indeed for every needy soul. To the people of Prince Rupert this would I say: Give Mr. Grant your fullest confidence, and you will never find it misplaced. He hates cant because he himself lives to the letter that which he preaches. With him Christianity is a "big" thing, and he makes one feel the greatness of the cause. He is a man, every inch a man. He loves to watch the baseball game, and at curling has made a name. He loves the joke, and loves the joker, and in all things he is practical. But not only in Mr. Grant has Prince Rupert gained a great acquisition, but also in Mrs. Grant have they gained one who will win the respect and warmest love

RUSSIA AND GERMANY BREAK--BELGRADE OCCUPIED BY AUSTRIANS

Highest Sources in Berlin and London Believe War Cannot be Averted---One Despatch Says Belgrade Has Been Bombarded and Occupied--All Nations Mobilizing

(Special to The Daily News) Berlin, July 30.—From the highest sources it is learned that a break between Germany and Russia is impending. The impression is abroad that the Kaiser's negotiations with the Czar have failed.

Russia to Stand by Serbia

St. Petersburg, July 30.—In Russian eyes the die is cast and only a political miracle can avert war. Russia will not swerve from her determination to support Serbia. A partial mobilization is already ordered and there is every indication that the whole military machinery of Russia will be soon set in action. An imperial manifesto is awaited tonight. Should, as is understood, Emperor Nicholas become generalissimo of the Russian forces, an immense war enthusiasm will sweep over Russia. All political parties have sunk their differences and the general attitude is not jingoistic but a resolute confidence in the justice of their country's cause and a readiness to make sacrifices.

Spain Assembling Fleet

Gibraltar, July 30.—Spain has ordered every available warship to assemble at Balearic Isles in the Mediterranean. The battleship Playa and several cruisers are proceeding from the Moorish coast. The cruiser Estremadura and the torpedo boat Castro are leaving Algiers for the same destination.

Belgrade Occupied

London, July 30.—According to The Times, diplomatic relations between Austria and Russia are suspended. A Vienna despatch says that after heavy bombardment from the Danube gunboats, Belgrade was occupied by Austrian troops on Wednesday.

British Fleet Sail

London, July 30.—Britain's first battle fleet consisting of 28 battleships, 14 battle cruisers and 70 destroyers left Portland sailing westward under sealed orders.

Belgium Getting Troops Ready

Brussels, July 30.—The Belgian cabinet has decided to call out immediately three classes of army reservists and military movements in Belgium are being pushed rapidly. By this evening 100,000 men will be ready for service.

Europe More Anxious

London, July 30.—The day's events has brought no relief to the suspense nor is there any diplomatic achievements to restrict to Austro-Servia the war between those two nations. The feeling existing throughout England and the continental feeling as reflected by the correspondents of the London papers is distinctly more anxious than yesterday. Two events have made for pessimism. The direct negotiations between Russia and Austria have failed. Russia is mobilizing against the Austrian frontier four army corps, each of four districts, consisting of 1,280,000 men.

Servian Steamers Captured

Vienna, July 30.—The Servians at 1:40 yesterday afternoon blew up the bridge spanning the River Save between the Austrian town of Semlin and the Servian city of Belgrade. The Austrian infantry and artillery are stationed at Semlin and in conjunction with the monitors in the Danube are firing on the Servian positions beyond the bridge. The Servians retreated with trifling losses. A small detachment of pioneers in co-operation with the customs officers captured two Servian steamers laden with ammunition and mines. The pioneers and customs officers, after a short and sharp encounter, overcame the Servian crews and took possession of the vessels and the dangerous cargoes.

Endeavor to Localize War

London, July 30.—Lord Rothschild, in an interview given yesterday, says he thinks the situation looks rather better but he does not know personally of any developments in the situation. At the same time, it looks as if there were more chances of the war being localized without spreading to other great nations. The seriousness of the European situation was reflected in the London Stock Exchange. British consols dropped to 69½, the lowest point reached since the early years of the last century.

German Peace Message

Berlin, July 30.—The North German Gazette says there is a peaceful tone prevailing. An official Russian communication issued yesterday finds a lively echo here. The Imperial German government shares the wish of Russia for the maintenance of peaceful relations, and hopes that the German people will support this by maintaining a moderate and quiet attitude in relation to foreign affairs.

Belgrade is Bombarded

Athens, July 30.—The Austrian legation received the following telegram from Nich dated July

Eastern Fleets Active

Shanghai, July 30.—The British and German Far Eastern fleets are reported mobilizing.

Local Firm Got Tender

The city engineer and purchasing agent reported to the City Council that the tender of the Pacific Coast Pipe Company for wooden sewer pipe was lowest at $670.25, and Handasyde & Clayton's tender was $677.80. The Council decided to accept the tender of the local firm in consideration of the fact that there was only $7.55 difference.

DAILY EDITION Thursday, July 30, 1914

Southern Europe is again about to be deluged in war. Their reputation for events of this kind seems to be about as good as that of Mexico.

Austria-Hungary is a dual kingdom, one-half of which is German and one-half Slav, and they mix just about as well as oil and water. A split is sure to come sooner or later.

The perpetual Irish question is still far from being solved. Premier Asquith's amending bill has not proven satisfactory and even the conference called by the King has not produced results.

The Irish question has split governments in the past and it is very likely to do so with the present administration. A shuffle of forces is almost sure to take place.

The acquittal of Mme. Cail- laux, who shot and killed M. Camille a few months ago for making a political attack on her husband, was not received with surprise. Under any circumstances it is a difficult matter to punish a woman, and when she happens to be beautiful and of a good family the task is that much harder.

It is reported that Mr. A. A. Cox, architect of the proposed Provincial Buildings, is about to examine the various qualities of stone in the district with a view to using local material.

About two years ago a number of local people were very busy securing samples of stone for submission to the Architect, and at that time it was understood an immediate selection would be made, and the buildings started.

The Bowser-McBride Government has found the British Columbia people gullible for so long that they imagine they can still play the same tactics. At the next Provincial election the Government will find that the people have acquired a little wisdom.

In connection with the application of the Hydro-Electric Company for approval of their plans to enter the city, we are told that the city presented a perfect case. There is nothing like modesty. We are inclined to think that we will know more about how perfect the case of the city was presented after the Government has rendered its decision.

Nothing has been heard of our Federal member, Mr. H. S. Clements for a long time now. Recently a dummy was fished out of the post office swimming hole, and it was at first thought that it might be our "popular" member, as it is certain that he will lose his political life in those polluted waters.

OPEN NEW HOTEL ON GRAND TRUNK PACIFIC

Magnificent Holiday Home For Winnipeg Business Men

Two vice-presidents of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, Mr. Morley Donaldson and Mr. J. E. Dalrymple, have just attended the opening of Canada's largest and most modern summer hotel. This is the Minaki Inn, situated on the Winnipeg River, one hundred and fifteen miles east of Winnipeg; three hundred and thirty-four miles west of Fort William, on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway.

The railway officers were accompanied by many prominent bankers and businessmen of the city of Winnipeg. Previous to the building of the Grand Trunk Pacific the site, where the big hotel now stands was a favorite camping ground of the Indian tribes, who called the surrounding country in the Ojibway language "Mee-naw-kee" meaning "Beautiful country."

The big wigwam of these wise Indians has been superseded by an hotel that accommodates 350 guests in surroundings of elegance and comfort. The Indian took a bath when he fell into the river but the present day Minaki guest has a bath attached to his room; in place of the camp fire there is a fairy land of electric lights; the bark canoe pulled up on the sandy beach has given place to a modern steel constructed two-storey boat house filled with craft of stout timbers and safe construction.

Mr. W. P. Hinton, assistant passenger traffic manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, told the guests at the formal opening banquet that the aim in building the hotel was to supply a holiday home for Winnipeg business men and their families where all the comforts and conveniences of the metropolitan hotel could be obtained. The hotel was to be managed by the Canada Railway News Company.

A novel feature of the opening was an exhibition of moving pictures depicting scenes in connection with the building of the G.T.P.

MAKE GREWSOME FIND

Developments in Union Labor Mine Disagreement Startling

Fort Smith, July 29.—Finding of charred fragments of the bodies of two men in the ruins of a log cabin and reports of an attempt to destroy the surface workings of another mine owned by the Bache-Denman Coal Company, were to-day's developments in the conflict between strikers and non-union coal miners, and other company employees in the Hartford Valley coal fields.

The discovery of parts of two skulls and human bones, raked from the embers of the log cabin, explains, it is believed, the disappearance of J. W. Sylesberry and John Baskins, mine guards after Friday's battle at Prairie Creek and tends to confirm a statement sworn to by Sam C. Thomas, a company employee, that he witnessed the execution of Sylesberry and Baskins.

Showing her purchase to her friend, she was very particular in going into details as to prices and all incidental particulars. The bereaved one sighed: "Chile, when I mourns, I mourns."

BARNES LIBEL WRIT WILL NOT STOP ROOSEVELT

Oyster Bay, N.Y., July 29.—The reply of Col. Roosevelt to the $50,000 libel suit of Wm. Barnes today was an attack on the Republican state chairman and a promise to move the suit forward. Col. Roosevelt said he would not be deterred from attacking Mr. Barnes by the suit but on the contrary would assail him the harder. He expressed the hope that he would have the opportunity to take the stand against Mr. Barnes before election.

REAL ESTATE is just as good an investment in Prince Rupert today as it was when the market was active and the speculators were making a quick turn over. No man who holds any bulk of property here anticipates or fears a slump. The big owners have perfect confidence in the city and in the real estate. They are improving their property and getting good revenues. That is where the small owner is handicapped during the period of inactivity. He has not enough money to improve his property and get a revenue. But if he pooled his available means with the savings of others, the whole would make a good working capital. That is where the Prince Rupert Building and Investment Co. is helping the small capitalist to make good. This company improves its property and has an income. It has been one of the most successful organizations in the city. It has paid an average of SEVENTEEN PER CENT in dividends in the past three years. We have a limited amount of stock offered for sale.

A voting contest has recently taken place in Germany to decide which are the seven wonders of the twentieth century. STENOGRAPHER TAKES 284 WORDS A MINUTE

After Two Years' Study Young Man Beats Mark Made in Speed Contest

San Francisco, July 29.—In a speed trial held before Judge Sturtevant, presiding over the superior court of San Francisco, Lasher B. Gallagher, twenty years old, who has studied stenography only two years, wrote 284 words a minute, which was as fast as anybody in the room could read to him, but apparently not as fast as he could write, for he was not flurried in the least. In the national shorthand contests, 280 words a minute is the highest reading speed and in the last contest the winner got 272 words correct.

Gallagher read his notes correctly, and comparison with the original, which was a legal transcript showed that he had not made an error.
