PENETRATE ENEMY LINES FOR NINE MILES ON AN EIGHTEEN MILE FRONT—CAPTURE THIRTEEN HUNDRED PRISONERS—MANY GUNS AND GREAT QUANTITIES OF AMMUNITION ALSO TAKEN

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, July 30.—Russia has succeeded in slowing up the German advance in Galicia. Dispatches today indicate the stiffening of the Russian lines in the threatened sector and desperate offensive attacks launched at other points on the great front, designed to relieve the pressure that was closing about Cernowitz.

The Roumanian army, reformed and completely revived from their crushing defeats of last fall, is vigorously pressing the enemy far to the south. In almost the same sector, the Russians were conducting an orderly retreat to better positions, inflicting considerable losses on their pursuers, and apparently having suffered no loss of morale.

To the south, the Roumanians have captured the German positions on an eighteen-mile front, to a depth of nine miles. They have taken 1,300 prisoners, two batteries of howitzers, many guns and tremendous quantities of ammunition.

The Roumanian troops are continuing their pursuit of the retreating Teutons in the direction of Kedzi-Vasarhely. They have occupied the heights southwest of Berison. In the region of Kalaikul mountain, on the Roumanian front, the Russians are also advancing. They are pushing towards the Putna river, and have occupied Boduple.

French Front.
Paris, July 30.—French troops repulsed a German attack on the Aisne front and instituted an offensive between Hurbise Farm and Labouville. The French soldiers gained ground at all points in this sector.

British Front.
London, July 30.—The British made successful raids on the German trenches at various points in northern France. Many casualties were inflicted. A number of prisoners and many guns were taken.

The Germans are bombarding Neuport violently. British guns are replying shot for shot. The tremendous cannonade is heard in London.

Aerial Activity.
London, July 30.—British airmen are again displaying their supremacy in the intense air fighting of last week. Thirty-one enemy machines were driven to earth, while only three British machines are missing. Enemy aerodromes have been bombed, and valuable photographs taken. The daring British aviators swoop low far behind the enemy battle lines. The production of aeroplanes has been tripled. More than a hundred factories in Great Britain are constructing aircraft.

Raid on Paris.
Paris, July 30.—The Germans made a raid on Paris last night, dropping bombs on a hospital, killing three and injuring several. It is believed the Germans are testing the possibility of bombarding Paris.

Italian Front.

Rome, July 30.—Artillery engagements were very brisk yesterday between the Zuga Torta and Arsa valley. Italian air squadrons dropped three tons of explosives on the enemy positions.

PROFITEERS SHOULD BE CONSCRIPTED FIRST

Ottawa, July 29.—Those members of Parliament who would conscript wealth as well as flesh and blood are coming round to the opinion that the first body of wealth which should feel the levy is that of the profiteers—particularly that of the profiteers who engaged in the manufacture of munitions and reaped the benefit of the abnormal prices at the start.

It has been frequently stated that the war has left in Canada a billion and a half dollars' worth of orders up to date. These orders have made a comparatively few men and corporations enormously rich. So far Finance Minister White's special taxes have taken about twelve million dollars out of them and will probably take that much more—in round numbers twenty-five million dollars. If these men had carried on their business in England they would have contributed to the Imperial treasury out of their swollen gains, perhaps, some seven hundred and fifty million dollars. Seven hundred and fifty millions applied to Canada's national debt, which grows at an alarming pace on account of the war, would reduce it to tolerable figures. The country though hard pressed by the additional taxes would not stagger under the post-bellum burdens as it threatens to do now.

Our national debt is now one billion dollars. According to the best authorities we may have to raise six hundred million dollars before the war is ended. This makes a total debt of one billion six hundred million dollars for a population of eight millions, a per capita debt of two hundred dollars for every man, woman and child in Canada. For the average family of five it amounts to one thousand dollars for the family. In the three war years Canada has raised by way of revenue $535,222,877 which is only eleven million dollars more than our current expenditures for the same period. This revenue, which is much above the average, includes the war taxes which are many and various. The people have paid most of it by way of the customs tariff.

Since the beginning of the war Canada has borrowed from England $200,000,000, from the United States $445,000,000, and from her own people $355,000,000. An aggregate sum of $700,000,000. It looks like something more than a mere coincidence that our borrowings on account of the war which amount to $700,000,000 should correspond so closely to the fifty per cent. of the profits which many fair-minded men say the profiteers ought to pay—namely $750,000,000. It looks as if Providence had an eye on our national mathematics and was pointing the way how to make the war pay its own way and thus

ACCOUNTANTS WILL FIND BACON PROFITS

Toronto, July 28.—Regarding the investigation into the report of Cost of Living Commissioner O'Connor on the price and profit of bacon, the Hon. W. J. Hanna gives the names of the Commissioners:—Price and Waterhouse & Company, Clarksons, Gordon & Co., and Mr. F. G. Henderson, K. C., of Ottawa. He asked in view of the appointment of that commission that judgment be suspended "whether it be on bread or bacon or anything else—but we will fix prices where necessary," said the Food Controller with a tone of marked confidence in the ability of his department to do so.

BURGLARY AT ESSINGTON

Thomas Gill, of Port Essington, was committed for trial on the charge of burglary. It is alleged that he entered the store of F. G. Cunningham, at Essington, and helped himself. Arthur Mordland and Gus Ross are also in charge for having stolen goods in their possession. They were brought to town by Constable Rogers yesterday afternoon, and the accused will be taken to New Westminster for trial.

leave Canada with a more reasonable national debt—say $900,000,000. Even at that the people will have to be heavily taxed to meet the fixed charges, the public services and the pension bill.

One hundred thousand conscripted men will cost just as much per year as one hundred thousand voluntary recruits—namely $100,000,000 a year. Each soldier costs in round figures $1,000 a year and the price is not going down. In this connection it occurs to many persons that it would be a sweet and becoming thing on the part of the profiteers who have in hand seven hundred and fifty million dollars which might have been handed over to the state, that they should pay (Continued on page three.)

A NOTED THEOLOGIAN COMING TO PRINCE RUPERT

The Rev. Dr. Grant preached his third anniversary sermon in the Presbyterian Church here yesterday morning. He is leaving on Wednesday for Terrace, and will spend a month's vacation there with his family.

During his absence, the Rev. Dr. Dyde, of Robertson College, Edmonton, will officiate here. Dr. Dyde is one of the greatest theological men in Canada in this generation. He is principal elect of Queen's University, Kingston, and will assume his duties there next year.

SOUTH AFRICAN WATERS STREWED WITH MINES

An Atlantic Port, July 28.—A British steamer which arrived here today from Calcutta brought word of German attempts to stop trade between the Far East and English and American ports. The ship's officers said the waters of South Africa had been strewn with mines recently, and that two steamers, one of 5,000 tons and another of 3,000 tons, which had not been reported since they left Cape Town, were believed to have been lost from this cause.

THE AMERICAN CONSUL

Tonight there will be presented at the Westholme Theatre a splendid photoplay entitled "The American Consul." This is something worth seeing. He has the reputation of being always a live wire and up to his job. He does things, consular and otherwise, and he gets there, too. There are seven reels of comedy and gazette as well, which makes a most interesting contrast. Tonight's is a good programme.

DEMANDS RESIGNATION OF SIR ROBERT BORDEN

TORONTO STAR WHICH UPHELD CONSCRIPTION AND NATIONAL GOVERNMENT DECLARES TIME HAS ARRIVED FOR ANOTHER LEADER—SAYS SIR ROBERT IS A FAILURE AS WAR PREMIER

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, July 30.—Sir Robert Borden is still proffering portfolios without finding any takers. The desperate attempts to secure a coalition with Sir Wilfrid Laurier, after the premier had framed his policy, having failed, Sir Robert is now striving to secure a Union Government, which will leave Sir Wilfrid out. Advances were made to certain Liberals, who, because they had voted for Conscription, were considered to have left the party to which they had belonged.

Still Liberals.

Unfortunately for this calculation, the majority of these men were unable to see why, simply because they voted with the Government on conscription, that they should be expected to endorse the other policies of the administration and abandon the Liberal principles which they had held so long. So now the Government has gone into the highways and the by-ways to see if some "loyal" Liberals may be found, who will join forces with them and save the country.

Call to Resign.

Meantime, great consternation has been created in the Government ranks because of the apparent apostasy on the part of a newspaper which it has been led to believe was a staunch supporter. The Toronto Star has consistently favored conscription and national Government, and repudiated the decision reached by the Liberal candidates and members at Toronto. It came out with a front page editorial demanding the resignation from the premiership of Sir Robert Borden in order that someone else might be permitted to pilot the ship of state.

Nothing New.

"The failure of voluntary recruiting," says the Star, "to meet Canadian needs was as well known nine months ago, when the Borden Government had a year to run as it is today. What use was made of that year? Seven months were dawdled away. Then the policy of conscription was exploded in the House on a Friday night, and weeks elapsed before anything else was done. We say that conscription was exploded in the face of Quebec. There is no other word for it."

Raw and Crude.

The handling of the matter could not have been different, if it had been, as some people said it was, a piece of raw, crude, Rogers' politics. If it had been deemed smart to create a situation that would place Sir Wilfrid Laurier where he would have to choose the manner of his own extinction at the hands of a pre-inflamed Quebec, if he accepted the grossly bungled conscription measure, or at the hands of the provinces if he did not, then it was a clever move.

Win the War.

"The main issue is to win the war. Sir Robert Borden had the greatest opportunity of any public man in Canada and he has muffed everything he has touched. He has for two and a half years gone his way as a partizan, fortunate in holding office. He would not ask the co-operation of the Liberals."

"We submit to the people of Canada," concludes the Star, "that as a war premier, Sir Robert is a failure. He is unfitted by lack of decision, by want of a chart for the work that the chances of politics and the tragedy of war imposed upon him. He is a governor who has not the power to govern. He has gone through the motions of conscription without being equal to the task of producing an army. He has been offering portfolios to everybody, but finds nobody to accept them. He should make way, so that some body else may take up the task of piloting the country through the troublous days and anxious times before us."

SUPPLYING

Constables Watkinson and Jessup recently raided some cabins at Port Essington. They had an idea that all was not as it should be. As a result they found George Huson, a white man, and Helen Kennedy and Matilda, her daughter, as well as Mary Seymour, Indian ladies, all drunk. George Huson was charged with supplying and came up before Justice Taylor and Justice Large, and was sent to the Okhalla Prison Farm at New Westminster for six months' hard labor. Helen was given three months in the Port Essington gaol, Matilda Kennedy and Mary Seymour were fined $15 and costs, with the option of one month's imprisonment. The fines were paid.

"French Joe," and an Indian fisherman were arrested at Essington on Saturday. They were both drunk on board Joe's boat. Joe was given six months' hard labor for supplying liquor to an Indian, before Justices Taylor and Large.

HYMENEAL

The wedding of Mr. Roderick McDonald to Miss Annie Lamonte was quietly solemnized at the home of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Grant on Saturday afternoon. Miss Lamonte is from Brandon, while the bridegroom has lately been in Anxox. Mr. McDonald is very well known around town and is receiving the congratulations of his friends. The newly married couple will reside in Prince Rupert.

STABBING AFFRAY

At Carlisle Cannery on Saturday, a Japanese was arrested for having stabbed another Japanese. The victim is now in the hospital at Port Essington recovering from his wounds. The accused is being held at Port Essington.

THE PEACE TALKER

"We Germans are superior to others in every direction," said a Prussian statement to Prince von Buelow some years ago, "but there is one thing in which we are lacking. We are perfect asses in politics."

German diplomacy in this war has convinced the world of the accuracy of this admission, says the Globe. For this reason, it continues, it takes little account of the speeches of the German Chancellors.

In his maiden speech to the Reichstag the new Chancellor had an impossible dual task to perform in his effort to please the Junkers and to allay popular unrest. It is twelve years now since the Kaiser drank the toast of "Powder dry, sword keen, eyes on the goal, muscles taut, and down with all pessimists!" After a huge expenditure of powder the Kaiser ruefully reflects that the pessimists are stronger than ever. And the greatest of the pessimists, now that Bethmann-Hollweg, like the Czar, has retired to his garden plot, is the Kaiser's new Chancellor, Michaelis. Brave words cannot conceal from the world the fact that Germany has gambled with high stakes and lost. Even as the Chancellor spoke, thousands of German troops were falling along the Aisne front like leaves in an autumn gale, as the French guns thundered their invincible note of defiance and French veterans hurled back another desperate assault.

The Chancellor's speech is construed in England as a definite rejection of the Socialist formula, "No annexations and no indemnities." It marks the triumph of the Pan-Germans at a stage when such a policy can be interpreted only as a last desperate effort to stave off a constitutional revolution at home. The autocracy that brought on the war is still in the saddle. Lacking the elasticity of free constitutions, Prussianism may break, but it will not bend. As the Kaiser told his people when he dismissed Bismarck: "We shall keep the old course; and now—full steam ahead!" When Michaelis talks of his desire for a peace honorable to Germany, he knows that peace is impossible while Germany is in the grip of Junkers who glory in their inhuman methods of war. To Michaelis, as to Bethmann-Hollweg, the Allies turn a deaf ear. They do not minimize the task before them, but they know that the day of victory for Germany has gone forever. The Chancellor's sneers at the entry of the United States will not pass unnoticed by our ally and neighbor. From the day that the great American republic drew the sword the outcome of the war was no longer in doubt. Victory may be tardy in her coming, greater sacrifices may be called for, and enduring fortitude under the protracted strain, but the weapons of victory, physical and moral, are on the side of the allied democracies. As for Germany, her last state is worse than her first. She is fighting at her maximum strength, with no real success to hearten her troops or to stay the numbing grip of despair at home. The verdict of the civilized world is given in the value attached to German credit, which in adjacent neutral countries is at zero. "We were born for one another," declared the Kaiser to his army when he came to the Throne. Holding inseparably together they violated the sanctuary of Peace and defied the laws of God and nations. And now they prate of an "honorable" peace! To Michaelis, their mouthpiece, there can be but one reply: "Fool's talk and idle. In this dance of Death

The man who called the piper's tune must pay.
Nor can he stop at will for want of breath.
Though War you chose, and chose its opening day,
It lies not in your power
To stay its course or fix its final hour."

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The retail price of fish "must and will be lower," according to the Food Controller. "If the prevailing prices are not lowered willingly, the Food Controller intimates that he has the authority to control the fish business, and himself reduce the cost to the consumer." It would be inter-

The Real "War Bread" must contain the entire wheat grain—not the white flour center—but every particle of gluten and mineral salts—also the outer bran coat that is so useful in keeping the bowels healthy and active. Shredded Wheat Biscuit is the real "war bread" because it is 100 per cent. whole wheat prepared in a digestible form. esting to know whether the Food Controller is aware of the destruction of hundreds of tons of fish on the Pacific coast every month, simply because the fish are too cheap. They are so cheap that the fishermen cannot get a sufficient price for them, hence they are tossed back into the sea where they came from, only dead. But possibly "fish" to the Food Controller means only halibut or salmon.

The Royal Commission investigating the regulations pertaining to the fisheries in District No. 2 has come—and gone. They are travelling all over the coast, and will in all probability cost the people of Canada somewhere around $50,000. A Royal Commission could hardly be royal on less. And for what reason did this costly commission come here? One member of the commission came from Toronto, one from Winnipeg, and one from Victoria. It cost this city $900 to have a delegation visit Ottawa to get the regulations amended, and it is going to cost the Dominion $50,000 for this Commission of Investigation. The Prince Rupert delegation stated the facts to the Department of Fisheries so cogently that the amendments were made forthwith. So why the commission? At whose instigation was this costly investigation carried out, when the facts were already in possession of the Government? On the one hand the Government advocates economy throughout the whole country, while they themselves scatter largess with no mean hand.

out of their own pockets for the new levy of one hundred thousand men who are to help defeat the Germans and make the profiteers' wealth secure. It has not been suggested in so many words but the thought dwells in many minds.

The other day Mr. Middleboro, the Chief Conservative whip, gave a list of some twenty-two companies which had paid in war taxes $5,268,811 during the year 1915. This amount represents the twenty-five per cent, tax paid on any profits they made over a legitimate peace profit of seven per cent. Multiply $5,268,811 by four and you get what they made over and above what they should have made—namely $21,075,244. Multiply the same amount by three and you get what they kept for themselves after paying the pittance to the state—namely $15,806,433.

And these figures represent only twenty-two companies. Of course there are hundreds of others. It is apparent that the money power of the country is not being conscripted to nearly the same degree as the man power.

In time of need

Every woman should know the comfort, and experience the relief of a reliable remedy that can be depended upon to right conditions which cause headache, dizziness, languor, nausea and constipation. At such times, nothing is so safe, so sure and speedy as

BEECHAM'S PILLS

During the past sixty years, millions of women have found them most helpful in toning and strengthening the system, and for regulating the stomach, liver and bowels. These famous pills are entirely vegetable and contain no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Use them with entire confidence for they cause no unpleasant after-effects, and list one observes that the William Davies Company, one of Sir Joseph Flavelle's numerous activities, paid in 1915 an excess profits tax of $109,623, which means that the William Davies Company made in one year $438,492 more than it should. When one considers Sir Joseph's protean disguises as a food exploiter, the many packing companies in which he is interested here and in the United States and in England, one begins to understand the causes of the high cost of living. One also begins to understand how Sir Joseph can scourge the other profiteers for making hogs of themselves when he is making so much money on his own account. Sir Joseph, who is chairman of the Imperial Munitions Board, and supposedly the power behind the Borden Government's throne, has said that Canadians should be ashamed to make so much money. Everybody will admit that Sir Joseph ought to know.

Another company which made considerable hay while the sun was shining in 1915 is the Imperial Oil Company. In fact the Imperial Oil Company is at the very top of Mr. Middleboro's list. Like Abou Ben Adhem its name heads all the rest. The Imperial Oil Company is the name the Standard Oil Company—Mr. John Rockefeller—takes to do business in Canada. In 1915 the Imperial Oil Company paid an excess profits tax of $734,045. This means that the Imperial Oil Company made almost three million dollars more than a legitimate profit of which it kept two million three hundred thousand dollars. Every farmer's coal oil lamp, every motor truck, every automobile paid cess to John D. Rockefeller. There is nothing like making the old man happy. He needs the money for his philanthropies.

The Imperial Oil Company's representative in Ontario is the Hon. W. J. Hanna who was but lately appointed food controller. Mr. Hanna is working without salary and it therefore behooves us not to look a gift horse in the mouth. But the question naturally arises what is Mr. Hanna's personal attitude toward the people who in 1915 were squeezed of an extra three million dollars by the company he represents. One hopes that Mr. Hanna's efforts for the public good will not have a kerosene flavor. Mr. Hanna is said to be working for the good of the cause, a more plentiful supply of limelight for himself than he has lately enjoyed and—a knight-hood.—H. F. GADSBY.

Help Canada Maintain Her Financial Freedom!

Do Your Share towards Financing the War with Canadian Savings Rather than with Outside Capital.

THE problem of meeting the enormous cost of this war is twofold. Not only must Canada get the money—most of it, of course, as loans—but she must get as much of it as possible here in Canada.

We can carry the war-debt if the bulk of the interest goes to Canadians, and so is used again in the country's development. But it will be a serious matter for us if a large proportion of the interest has to be sent outside the Dominion.

For the sake of our own and our children's future this drain on our resources must be avoided! Canada's financial freedom can and must be maintained! An average saving of 15 cents a day, invested by each man, woman and child in Canada in War Savings Certificates, would enable us to carry the whole cost of the war. To approach this average, hard work, thrift, self-denial and sacrifice are required of every citizen.

For each $21.50 you lend the Government now, you will receive $25.00 in three years—or you can get your money back at any time. Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $50 and $100, and may be purchased at any Bank or Money Order Post Office.

Yesterday afternoon quite a feat was accomplished by a dog at the government wharf. The dog had apparently come ashore with some of the boys of the Malaspina, but had been left behind when the boat returned. It was extremely anxious to get out to the boat again and the sailors kept whistling and calling to it till it finally took the plunge.
