ITALIANS DRIVE ENEMY ACROSS THE ISONZO

FRENCH ATTACK ON VERDUN FRONT SUCCESSFUL—MANY PRISONERS CAPTURED

ITALIANS ARE ON OFFENSIVE SUCCESSFULLY

Have Taken Twelve Thousand Prisoners on the Isonzo Front—Have Crossed Isonzo River.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, August 21.—Driving forward successfully on a wide front of thirty-seven miles, the Italians succeeded in pushing back the Austro-German forces occupying them. Already they have captured twelve thousand prisoners and have been successful in making a crossing of the Isonzo river. This was done in the face of tremendous fire from the enemy, but notwithstanding all obstacles, the fiery Italian troops were able to turn the Huns out of their positions. Fighting is still in progress and the Italian armies are at close grips with the enemy. Considerable territory has been gained from the Austrians, and progress made towards the goal of the Italians, which is Trieste.

British Front.
London, August 21.—The Canadians have established themselves in the bend of German trenches in the northwest of Lens, obtaining command of the lost ground on which the Germans could overlook our advance from the west. This further progress puts the Canadians virtually in command of the coal city.

French Front.
Paris, August 21.—The French troops made a strong attack on both sides of the Meuse this morning on the Verdun front. Early information shows that the French were making a successful advance on an eleven-mile front. Prisoners are now coming in. The point on which the fighting is the heaviest extends from the Avoncourt Wood to the Bois du Caume.

Berlin Report.
London, August 21.—Berlin admits that the French troops, without fighting, have occupied the Meuse ridge on both sides of the house on the Verdun front. Fighting is still in full swing.

SIR CLIFFORD SIFTON AND BIG BUSINESS

Ottawa, August 16.—Big Business is again using Sir Clifford Sifton as a decoy as it did in 1914. Sir Clifford makes a good decoy because he still wears his Liberal label although he ceased to be one years ago. In the last analysis Sir Clifford is a knight who is looking forward to a baronetcy. He will found a family and live in England when he will get the deference due to rank and station. Sir Clifford does not let more than one quarter of his mind dwell on Canada and its affairs. The other three quarters of his mind is on England and his career in the peerage where he expects ultimately to make as great a success as Max Aitken, now Lord Beaverbrook.

The one quarter of Sir Clifford's mind which is accustomed to dwell on Canadian affairs is mostly occupied with hatred of Sir Wilfrid Laurier who let him out of his cabinet in 1905 for good and sufficient reasons. Ever since that time Sir Clifford has hated the Old Chief with his whole soul. This hate has grown with years because Sir Wilfrid never made any motion to take him back into his confidence. Hell hath no fury like Clifford Sifton scorned.

It is passing strange that Sir Clifford should hate Sir Wilfrid Laurier so because the Old Chief was never anything but kind to him. It was only when his faults became too glaring that Sir Clifford was allowed to resign and then with regret. Although Sir Clifford has been a failure politically, he has been a great success as a business man. He came to Ottawa as poor as a church mouse in 1896 and he is now said to have Croesus looking like thirty cents in rubber money. Much of his wealth synchronized with his regime as Minister of the Interior. During that period immigration poured into Canada by hundreds of thousands and the Yukon gold fields and liquor concessions were opened up. Sir Clifford shared in that era of prosperity. As the Financial Post—one of the organs of Big Business—aptly remarks, he "has made millions in real estate and elsewhere"—mark that elsewhere—"but his sources of wealth indicate great vision, a confidence in the future of Canada." In other words, Sir Clifford who, like Sir Joseph Flavelle, works without salary, when he works in the public interest simply takes what he can get. A peep into Sir Joseph Flavelle's profits in bacon shows us that gratuitous service pays well.

It is the same way with Sir Clifford Sifton. The laborer is worthy of his hire and the more worthy he is the more he grabs off. Sir Clifford has not come out of public life a poor man. No one would expect Sir Clifford to do so. He is chairman of the Conservation Commission. Having made a good deal out of our natural resources, Sir Clifford is now willing to conserve them. Rumor has it that Sir Clifford has made three million dollars in wheat and horses since the war began. Having made that much out of the war he is now ready to win it. This shows great moderation on Sir Clifford's part—if he had been like other men he would have tried to go on milking the war after the udder had run dry. Sir Clifford always

With the arrival of the S. S. Venture in port this morning, word was brought of the drowning of a fisherman on the Naas river during last night. PRINCE RUPERT'S LABOR DELEGATE

At a well attended meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held last night in the Carpenters' Hall, the situation as regards labor in connection with the Military Service Bill was discussed very fully. During the course of the meeting, Mr. S. D. Macdonald, president of the Trades and Labor Council, was chosen to be Prince Rupert's delegate to the big Labor Convention in Vancouver to be held on Labor Day. Mr. Sid. Cox was chosen also as alternative.

At this Labor convention, the attitude of organized labor in the province towards conscription will be definitely arrived at and stated.

PROPOSAL FOR VOTING BY TROOPS OVERSEAS

Ottawa, August 20.—"The Military Services Voting Act, 1917," introduced in the Commons by Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice, as a preparation for the forthcoming Dominion general election, provides for the taking of the votes of all persons on active service at the forthcoming general election. It provides for a complete recording of the votes overseas, including the counting of the ballots. Four weeks are to elapse between nomination day and polling day in all Dominion constituencies. This would give the soldiers 29 days in which to deposit their ballots, as they would have the four weeks plus the one day on which voting would take place in Canada.

A general returning officer is to be appointed on this side of the Atlantic, to whom the overseas results are to be sent. These he will add to the results from each constituency, following the home voting. This officer is to make the final return from each constituency, and not the local returning officer, as in the past. The bill provides the vote for everyone in the military service, including minors, nurses, Indians and those connected with the aviation and naval forces of Great Britain.

Just arrived, 250 tons of lump coal. Phone 116—Albert & McCaffery.

RESIGNATION OF HON. ROBERT ROGERS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Ottawa, August 21.—The Hon. Robert Rogers, Minister of Public Works, has handed in his resignation to the Premier. His reason is said to be that there is too much delay in bringing in the conscription Bill.

Dr. Michael Clark of Red Deer also announces his withdrawal from political life. His health is his chief reason. He is said to be averse to the leadership of the Liberal party coming from Quebec, and also objects to the other party being dominated by the strong Eastern corporations and the protectionist interests.

CITY COUNCIL JOTTINGS

A report was adopted at the council meeting last evening recommending that the Northern B. C. Agricultural Society be granted the exclusive use of the recreation grounds during the period of the fair on September 19th, 20th and 21st.

The health officer's report for the months of June and July was received at the council meeting last night. It showed that during June there were four births and two deaths, and July, six births. In July, there were 23 cases of whooping cough.

It was recommended to the city council that the salaries of two members of the fire department be raised from $90 to $100 per month. A meeting of the city council sitting as a committee of the whole will be held on Thursday evening to consider the salaries of all the civic employees.

At the meeting of the council last evening, Mr. T. C. Duncan was appointed to be superintendent of utilities in place of Mr. D. R. Kennedy, resigned.

In response to an enquiry by Ald. Montgomery at the previous meeting of the city council, the mayor last night reported to the council regarding the power situation at Falls river. The report from Mr. Anderson, the hydraulic engineer, has not yet been made.

A resolution from the Kamloops Board of Trade was endorsed by the city council last night. This resolution called upon the Government for action being taken for the development of the immense iron ore deposits in B. C. in view of the shortage of iron and steel throughout the Dominion at the present time.

BRITISH USE TANKS ON THE YPRES FRONT

German Line Forced Back on the Ypres Sector—Large Number of Tanks Help—British Losses are Light

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, August 21.—By sheer weight of steel, the British forced continued recessions of the German line in the Ypres-Poelkapelle sector today. A large number of huge tanks aided the British drive. Considering the intensity of the drive, the British losses were extraordinary light.

South of Lens, trench raids were made successfully by the British.

OFFICIALLY DEAD BUT ACTUALLY ALIVE

Word has been received in town from F. H. Nelson who left here with the 102nd Battalion. His name appeared in the official lists published at Ottawa as being killed, and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he is still alive and getting along as well as can be expected.

He was wounded on March 31 at Vimy Ridge in the taking of the Regina Trench. His ankle was broken and he has also lost the sight of one eye, but otherwise, he says he is doing nicely and hopes to be home again soon. He signed on with the 102nd at Hazelton. He is much struck with the beauty of the old country, which he considers to be the garden spot of the earth. Having heard so much about the Motherland, he is not in any way disappointed.

OUTPUT OF DESTROYERS WILL BE DOUBLED BY U. S.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Washington, August 21.—Secretary Daniels of the Navy Department, is conferring with the United States shipbuilders in order to double or treble the output of destroyers within the next eighteen months. Destroyers have proved their value in the patrol for submarines and with more of them the efficacy of the protective measures against the underwater craft will be vastly increased.

TO WIN THE WAR

The thing that comes first, in the minds of the Canadian people and of the British people the world over, is the winning of the war. This is the thing that the Empire is "up against." To do so every nerve and muscle of the body of the Empire will have to be brought into use. It is apparent that Canada has not yet reached the full measure of her capabilities in this direction. The present Government, supposedly representative of the Canadian people, have done many things which they ought not to have done and have left undone more things which they ought to have done. As shown by their action in bringing in and passing the Military Service Bill, and taking off the super profit tax, imposing in its place a four per cent income tax, they have shown conclusively that class legislation is not a thing of the past. And by the latter action, have also shown that they have no intention of utilizing to the fullest extent, the resources of wealth which the Dominion possesses.

It is noticeable among the Conservative party that meantime they have no politics, according to their own say so, although their actions might seem to belie them. They are still playing the game, and by means of "win-the-war" conventions and so forth, have no hesitation in declaring the other party to be "traitors," because, forsooth, they do not agree with them as to the best means to be adopted to the common end, which both parties have in view.

"There is much talk in the country," remarks a contemporary, "of holding win-the-war conventions. Doubtless the individuals behind these movements are honest and sincere in their purposes, but the inevitable consequences of win-the-war conventions will be a considerable crop of win-the-war candidates, whose candidatures will have as much effect in winning the war as the prayers of the Kaiser have in winning Hun victories."

Irrespective of their previous political color, they will be out "to win the war," but after that, what? Regarding the Military Service Bill, our contemporary continues: "There is a growing conviction in the minds of the Canadian people that the conscription measure of the Borden Government was the product of the tricky mind of the Honorable Bob Rogers, and that it was considered not so much for the purpose of winning the war as with the object of winning the pending Dominion election. We shall soon have the most convincing evidence upon that point. If the Government were actuated by patriotic and not political purposes in presenting the conscription measure to the house, if it were moved by consideration of the fact that speedy action was the essence of the matter, its measure would have been promulgated into instant effect, not left dangling before the electorate until the election is held. In the meantime, we observe that there is talk of holding 'win-the-war' conventions in all the Western provinces at which we shall hear a great deal about the conscription of man-power, but not a word about the conscription of resources, which are just as essential—indeed more essential, considering the situation in Europe today—than conscription of men. If we add insincerity to the record of extravagance, graft, profiteering, appointment of incompetent officers through political pull to the command of our men who have volunteered for active service, it is no wonder that the people of Canada from one end of the country to the other have lost confidence in the Borden Government, and demand either a complete change or the banishment from office of the men most transparently responsible for the prevailing chaos."

The people of Canada are ready for more than mere military service. They are demanding the full utilization of the whole resources of the country. This will mean, of course, a severe income tax on the big incomes, nothing like the four per cent, with which the Borden Government tickles its friends with. It would be fine of course if they could get away with it, and should by any chance the present government be returned to power, the people of the Dominion will already know what to expect. They will see the richest people escaping lightly from the burden of the war, which will fall most heavily on the poorer people. High tariffs and a low income tax suits the big interests very well, whether it works a hardship upon the people as a whole or not. The poorer classes are paying the bulk of the taxation at present, under a tariff which the Minister of Finance does not see fit to alter.

knows when to quit—which is when there is no more to get. Sir Clifford, as the Financial Post says, has enjoyed a well earned leisure ever since 1911. What the Financial Post means is that nobody asked him back into public life, not even the Conservatives whom he helped to win in 1911. They were afraid of Sir Clifford. He was too clever for them. Now he is obliged to ask himself back. During all the years Sir Clifford has been out of public life his animating motive has been hatred of Sir Wilfrid Laurier. He fed that hate fat in 1911 when he fought Laurier and reciprocity and delivered this country into the hands of the food pirates, and now he is trying to feed it again in 1917. Such is the impulse behind Sir Clifford's alleged patriotism—nothing better than a personal grudge.

What did Sir Clifford do in 1911? Well using "no truck or trade with the Yankees" as his slogan, he recanted his free trade doctrines, fought reciprocity, organized Canada against the Laurier government, defeated the Old Chief and incidentally handed Canada over body, bones and breeches to the food exploiters like Sir Joseph Flavelle, who have doubled the cost of living in seven years and bled the people of this country of the last cent for the necessities of life. That was Sir Clifford's great feat in 1911—that and the downfall of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as prime minister of Canada. Sir Wilfrid's defeat was a moral triumph—he went down on a bed-rock Liberal principle, freer trade, cheaper food for the common people.

When Sir Clifford set out to stab his party in 1911 he did it in no half-hearted way. No indeed. He handled the campaign fund for the Big Interests, distributed it where it would do most good—or most evil—and made a special point of wrecking the Laurier cabinet individually and collectively. He succeeded all too well. He waved the Old Flag with one hand until the people forgot what the other hand was working for. The people had to learn their bitter lesson through short rations and famine prices. They are fully awake now to the fact that Sir Clifford did them in 1911 and he can hardly do it again. The people always have to learn by experience it is their noble weakness to believe that a big man cannot tell anything but the truth. The voice of the people may be the voice of God but the mind of the people is often that of a twelve year child. Otherwise they could not be deceived by the smooth words of a Sir Clifford Sifton. To be deceived twice by the same person would show that they had no mind at all.

In 1911 Sir Clifford Sifton used "no truck or trade with the Yankees" to deliver this country over to the Big Interests. He also used Arthur Hawkes to excite the British born. In 1917 Sir Clifford Sifton used two cries "win the war" and "union government" with the same object in view—namely to tie the country up to Big Business again. He issues a manifesto to the effect that the Borden Government is no good, but he does not dwell on that thought very long. Fully three quarters of the manifest is occupied with invidious remarks about Sir Wilfrid Laurier—his old bete noir. Sir Clifford lacks the art to conceal his real feelings.

Strangely enough Sir Clifford is again using Arthur Hawkes as his little tin bugle in Ontario. This chartered crusader who has (continued on Page Four.)

Saves Eggs

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder makes it possible to produce appetizing and wholesome cakes, muffins, corn bread, etc., with fewer eggs than are usually required.

In many recipes the number of eggs may be reduced and excellent results obtained by using an additional quantity of Dr. Price's Baking Powder, about a teaspoon, in place of each egg omitted. The following tested recipe is a practical illustration:

SPONGE CAKE

- 1 cup sugar
- 3/4 cup water
- 3 eggs
- 2 teaspoons Dr. Price's Baking Powder
- 1 cup flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup cold water
- 1 teaspoon flavoring

DIRECTION: Roll sugar and water until syrup spins a thread and add to the stiffly beaten whites of eggs, beating until the mixture is cold. Stir together three times, the flour, salt and baking powder; beat yolks of eggs until thick; add a little at a time flour mixture and egg yolks alternately to white of egg mixture, stirring after each addition. Add 3/4 cup cold water and flavoring. Mix lightly and bake in moderate oven one hour.

The old method called for six eggs and no baking powder

Booklet of recipes which economize in eggs and other expensive ingredients mailed free. Address 6 St. Lawrence Boulevard, Montreal.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

There will be a fine big programme given at the Westholme Theatre tonight. A double attraction of unusual merit is offered. Mae Murray, of light comedy fame, and Charlie Chaplin are the two attractions. Mae Murray is well known and in the play "On Record," she enhances her already great reputation. This is a comedy-drama, with a delightful plot and is one which will greatly please any audience. Charlie Chaplin, of course, needs no introduction, and in "The Immigrant" attains to his usual heights of absurdity. An artist in the ridiculous, Charlie can always draw full houses. A Topical Budget will be shown as well.

Mr. W. P. Aitken, of Port Clements, is a visitor to Prince Rupert for a day or two.

Mr. J. T. C. Williams was among the arrivals by the Venture this morning from the Naas river.

Joe Innes and Mark Spence, both Indians, were fined $10 each this morning for drunkenness.

Mr. A. M. Manson, M. P. P., returned from Victoria on the Princess Sophia yesterday afternoon.

Mr. James Cronin, the well known mining man of the Babine country, is in the city for a day or so.

Among the visitors in town are Mr. and Mrs. Burritt, of Vancouver. They arrived on the Princess Sophia yesterday.

The New England Fish Company are building a wharf on the west coast of Queen Charlotte Islands. Construction is being proceeded with rapidly.

The arrival of the Venture was delayed for six hours this morning, owing to the vessel having got stuck for that time on the sandbar in the Naas river.

The many friends of Mrs. Herb. Hampton will be glad to hear that she is recovering from her recent indisposition. She is still in the hospital and is progressing favorably.

It is reported that the fall run of salmon on the Naas promises to be a good one this season. The sockeye pack has so far amounted to only half of the usual quantity but the sohoes are plentiful.

Yesterday the Princess Sophia arrived from the south with a very large consignment of mail for Prince Rupert. There was also on board a number of head of cattle on the way to Skagway.

Mr. James Sturgeon, of the Pony Express, was among the passengers for the south on the Princess Rupert yesterday. He is holidaying in the southern coast cities and expects to return shortly.

Mrs. King, Miss King and Miss Stephen have returned to Prince Rupert after having spent the last few weeks at Cameron Bay. A very enjoyable holiday was spent, although the weather was not all that was desired.

Word has been received in town that Mr. Emery Lewis, an old timer on this coast, has arrived safely at Sydney, N. S. W., after having completed the voyage in one of the new power schooners recently built in Vancouver.

A dance was held in the St. Andrews' Hall last evening, which was a very enjoyable affair. The Westholme Orchestra was in attendance and dancing was kept up till the early hours. The proceeds will be handed to the Red Cross Society.

At the Red Cross rooms on 3rd Avenue, the ladies in charge have about between sixty and seventy pairs of socks on hand waiting to be finished. They require to be "toed" before they can be sent off to the soldiers. Mrs. W. C. C. Mehan would like any ladies who can knit to drop in any afternoon after 2:30 at the rooms and finish off a pair or two.

Tomorrow Prince Rupert loses one of the most well known and old time families in the city. Mrs. J. B. F. Melville and family are leaving for New York to join Mr. Melville, who has been there for the past two months. Mrs. Melville was among the first residents here and has now made her residence in this city for a little over seven years. It is the wish of everyone that in their new home in far away New York they will become just as successful and well liked as in Prince Rupert.

Word has been received in town of the death of Mr. J. B. Johnson, late of Ninth Avenue. Mr. Johnson was at Smithers haying, and slipped off a wagon. His fall frightened the horses, who moved off, the wheels of the wagon passing over him. Fatal injuries resulted. Mr. Johnson was well known in this city and the sympathy of all will be extended to his family. His only son is at present with the army overseas, while Mrs. and Miss Johnson are at present residing at Smithers.

been in turn, Liberal, anti-reciprocity, Conservative, Canada first and Bonne Entente is now in favor of winning the war by fighting the Plains of Abraham all over again if necessary, unionizing the government and making Sir Clifford Sifton prime minister. The old outfit is working together again and Canada had better keep both eyes open.

Sir Clifford is getting some assistance in Ontario from certain disguised Tories who are posing as win-the-war Liberals with a union government as the immediate object. What they want to win is not the war but a toe hold for some pet in the union government of which Sir Clifford Sifton aims to be premier. The conspiracy is further assisted by an alliance of newspaper straddlers whose idea of moulding Liberal opinion is to let no real Liberal opinion get into the newspapers. The movement of Clifford Sifton is represented in the West by one newspaper, the Manitoba Free Press, of which Sir Clifford is the owner, and one newspaper editor John Dafoe, who of course, has to jump through the hoop when Sir Clifford tells him. All the rest of the West is against Sir Clifford. They know him too well there.

This is said to be Sir Clifford's last try at supreme power. If he fails this time he will shake the dust of Canada off his feet and hike for England and a peerage. Meanwhile he takes himself very seriously as the savior of the country. His main trouble is that the people are wise to him. He can't do it twice. Nobody really takes him for the second coming. —H. F. Gadsby.
