GERMANS TRY AGAIN ON VERDUN FRONT WITHOUT SUCCESS — RUSSIANS FIRM

BAD WEATHER LIMITS ACTION OF THE ALLIES

Movement of Troops on Both Sides Hampered—German Counter Attacks Held Off By Artillery Fire.

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, October 12.—The extremely bad weather on the western front is limiting the activities of the belligerents. The Allies, however, have maintained themselves in the territory they gained on Tuesday's big drive. The work of consolidating the newly won positions and preparing for the renewal of the offensive is proceeding with feverish activity. Several German counter attacks have been attempted while this work has been in progress, which have been broken up by the English artillery fire.

Verdun Front.
Some attention is being attracted by the persistence of the German efforts to regain the ground on the French front at Verdun, which the enemy were compelled to give up lately. In this connection lately, one of the German military critics in alluding to the situation in Flanders spoke of the "Verdun" which the Germans might be subjected on the Verdun front of the German lines in the Belgian area should give way.

French Front.
Paris, Oct. 12.—We broke up attacks against our new positions in Belgium, and inflicted severe losses on the enemy. Our artillery fire was particularly effective. On the right bank of the Meuse, the Germans got a footing in our advanced trenches near Hill 344. The enemy attack was made in force, and after a fierce hand to hand struggle, we repulsed them and remain masters of the field.

SCRAMBLE FOR OFFICES GOING ON AT OTTAWA

Safety First is the Motto of Most Conservatives Who See the Storm Gathering.

Ottawa, Oct. 5.—Commenting editorially today on the first tangible results of Sir Robert Borden's "Union Government" efforts The Ottawa Citizen says: "Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, the new Minister of Public Works, is no more a Liberal than are Sir Clifford Sifton, Sir William Mackenzie, Sir Edward Kemp, or the other protectionists who are interested in buttressing the tariff. It is nonsense to claim that his inclusion in the Cabinet is evidence that Sir Robert Borden is succeeding in forming a Union Government. The real Liberal leaders in the country are not found in the protectionist plutocracy of Montreal or Toronto, but in the democratic atmosphere of Western Canada."

Scrambling.
Secondary to the main issues of Union Government and the Liberal leadership, there is a big scrambling for offices going on and a general shifting of Cabinet positions under way.

It is understood that Sir George Perley is to be relieved of his duties as Overseas Minister of War and to be formally appointed Canadian High Commissioner in London. Sir James Lougheed, the Government leader in the Senate, is slated for the overseas war post until after the elections at least. The need of reorganization of the Canadian overseas administration has been pressed upon the Government forcibly of late, and Sir James is looked upon as the best man to tackle the job. If the Government wins the election he will probably retain the position. His present post as Government leader in the Senate will, it is said, be taken by Sir George Foster, who would like a safe seat for the remainder of his days, and who, it is said, does not want to risk another election in North Toronto.

Members Get Safe Berths.

The unparalleled rush of Conservative members of Parliament or ex-members as they now are, for safe jobs before the election storm with its uncertainties break is hardly edifying or indicative of confidence in the return of the Government. The latest appointment is that of Mr. A. C. Boyce to fill a long-vacant position on the Board of Railway Commissioners at a salary of $8,000 per year. The board as constituted calls for six members, but for the past eight or nine years five have been able to do the work.

Dr. Clarence Jameson, Conservative member for Digby, has just been provided with a five-thousand-dollar post as a Civil Service Commissioner, a partisan thus replacing a non-partisan, Dr. Adam Shortt, for whom a new position at the same salary was created. And for Hon. Dr. Roche another new position is being created—namely, chairman and additional member of the Civil Service Commission.

Gerald Brabazon, Conservative member for Pontiac, has taken the position of Inspector of Storage dams on the Ottawa river. Frank Shepherd, Conservative member for Nanaimo, has been placed with the post of Inspector of Dredging in British Columbia. Three other Conservative members, Messrs. Blain, Fisher and Macdonell, were recently given safe preferment in the Senate. A half-dozen others are expecting to be similarly provided for before the Government risks the election. They include Messrs. Barnard, Schaffner, Bradbury, R. B. Bennett and W. H. Bennett.

LLOYD GEORGE AT THE EISTEDDFOD

Mr. Lloyd George drew a moral from the Eisteddfod which he addressed at Birkenhead on Sept. 6th. The first condition for the work of this ancient institution, he said, was that all difference should be sunk, and thus it had a lesson for this hour of fate, the lesson of National Unity in the greatest enterprise this country had ever embarked upon. This photo shows Mr. Lloyd George addressing the meeting. The Eisteddfod is an ancient Welsh institution, dating back from almost prehistoric times, when the famous Welsh bards used to gather in competition. Nowadays, choral societies from all over Wales, and England too, compete for the honors.

DISCUSSING UNION WITH SIR ROBERT

(Special to The Daily News.)

Ottawa, Oct. 12.—Nineteen of the leading Liberal politicians representing every province in the Dominion except Prince Edward Island, are here today discussing the question of a Union Government with Sir Robert Borden. Premier Brewster, of British Columbia, is not staying in Ottawa. The Federal representative of British Columbia will be either the Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, or Mr. R. F. Green of Kootenay. Nothing further has been heard of the alleged intention of Sir Wilfrid Laurier resigning the position of Leader of the Liberal Party.

Colonel Prior, of Victoria, ex-Premier of British Columbia, and Lorne Campbell, late Minister of Mines in B. C. under the Bowser regime, are mentioned in Federal Honors.

good and lucrative jobs left, but the applicants exceed the positions. There are three members to be appointed to the Land Settlements Board. There is a Clerk of the House to be appointed at $5,000 a year. There is a Comptroller of the Mounted Police to be named at a similar salary. Best of all, there are ten Senatorial positions to be filled. By the time all these jobs are filled the men who came to Ottawa with Sir Robert in 1914 will have dwindled to a corporal's guard.

MAYOR M'CAFFERY WILL NOT SEEK ANOTHER TERM

Last evening, coming on for boat time, Mayor McCaffery was seen making his way towards the wharf, carrying a grip and an overcoat. These signs of traveling caused questions, to which the mayor replied that he was going to Vancouver, partly on business and partly on holiday. "This is the first time I have gone away from the city to the south this year," said the mayor, "except on city's business." "Yes I'll be away for several weeks."

It has been customary in past years for the announcements of candidatures for the mayoralty being made during the month of November, and on being asked regarding his intentions in this matter, His Worship replied definitely that he had no intention of running again this year for a third term. "Two terms as mayor consecutively is quite enough for any one man," said Mayor McCaffery. "While I have always done what I considered to be the best in every case for the city's interests, and while I know that I have the people behind me in what has been accomplished, still I have no intention of standing for a third time."

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Prince Rupert General Hospital will hold their annual ball in the St. Andrew's Hall on October 19. Dancing will commence at 9:30 p.m. The Westholme Orchestra will be in attendance. Admission $1.00. 237-8-9-3-4

WIN THE WAR MEETING IN EMPRESS THEATRE

The Borden Government's Method to Win the War is Criticized by Q.M. Sergt. Youhill.

Last night in the Empress Theatre a win the war meeting was held at which the chief speakers were Mr. C. W. Craig, K. C., and Quartermaster Sergt. Youhill, of Vancouver. These gentlemen arrived in the city Wednesday afternoon and left then for Terrace where they addressed a meeting on the same subject Wednesday night. They arrived back in town by last night's train. The meeting was late in starting owing to the dilatory arrival of the audience which at no time even half filled the hall.

Judge Carss was chairman of the meeting and on the platform beside him were Mr. O. H. Nelson, Mr. H. O. Crewe and Mr. Fred Stork, as well as the speakers from Vancouver. After a patriotic song by Mr. C. A. G. Armstrong, Mr. Craig addressed the gathering. He explained the platform of the Win the War League, the three cardinal principles of which are: Party politics to be buried out of sight for the time being, support for the fighting men at the front, and the mobilization of all the resources of the country. The necessity of winning the war was a point which, although admitted by all Canadians as essential, he was at pains to labour somewhat. Mr. Craig, who spoke well and plainly, put the matter up to the reasonableness of the meeting.

Mr. Craig was followed by Quartermaster Sergt. Youhill, who was a speaker of a different stamp. He spoke from the point of view of a labor man of thirty years' standing, and also as a man who has worn the King's uniform for 26 years. "Believing that there should be no politics in the winning of the war, we are here tonight to try to get the people to leave party politics alone. We want to send men to Ottawa who will cut out that graft that has been going on there for years. We want men who will think for themselves, and act accordingly."

Sergeant Youhill spoke vigorously and was much applauded. He spoke of the necessity for the Military Service Bill, and said that in Vancouver right now he could raise a battalion of two thousand men, under 22 years, who would not go to the front unless under compulsion. He put in an eloquent plea for the soldiers in France. "When we send a man to the front," he said, "we make him offer up his life." He compared this with the present state of affairs, which did not conscript the men who stayed at home. The workman in the shipyards, doing equally necessary work as the man in the trenches, received $5 and $6 per day, without risking life unduly, while the soldier at the front, received $1.50 in all, with a fifty-fifty chance of not coming back. "I would reverse this order," said Sergeant Youhill, "I would give the man in the trenches $6 per day and the shipbuilder $1.50—and I don't know if I wouldn't give him $6 too, but I would make sure that the man at the front got it anyway."

He told of his regiment being reduced to a quarter of its strength at Ypres through lack of reinforcements and still compelled to do the work of a full battalion. Reinforcements were being held up, he continued, while they were squabbling at Ottawa as to who should be Brigadier; as to who should be Brigadier; (Continued on Page Two)

MUTINIES IN GERMAN NAVY NOT SUBDUED

Although First Rebellion was Suppressed, Dissatisfaction Yet Exists—Soldiers Revolt Also.

(Special to The Daily News.)

Berne, Switzerland, Oct. 12.—Dispatches received here state that the mutinies in the German navy are not yet subdued. The first rebellion was suppressed, when the crews of four battleships at Wilhelmshaven mutinied. Three of the ringleaders were shot, and the remainder are now in prison. Dissatisfaction is rife among the crews of the other vessels and other outbreaks are almost certain. Several infantry regiments have also revolted, and are being besieged by other loyal troops. Poor food and an iron discipline, entailing severe punishment for the slightest offences, together with the spreading knowledge of the continued defeats being inflicted upon the armies at the front, are said to be responsible for the present condition. The Kaiser is greatly concerned at this turn of affairs.

The New Russian Cabinet.

Petrograd, Oct. 12.—The new cabinet has declared itself to be in full accord with the other allies. In taking office, they have pledged the aid of Russia with all its power to the Allied cause. The diplomats of the Entente are more optimistic now than ever, and they feel that a serious effort to restore order will be made. In Turkestan, many of the rebels have been arrested and the Russian troops are coping with the trouble.

At the Front.

On the northern front on the Stauli sector, the enemy artillery bombarded our advanced trenches but no further attack was made. In the Gulf of Riga, eleven motor boats appeared but were dispersed by our coast batteries.

The Balkans.

Amsterdam, October 12.—According to an official Bulgarian Statement, the allied troops made a strong attack on Tuesday, south of Doiron. The dispatch states that the allied losses were heavy, while the Bulgarian casualties were slight.

Wilhelm Going South.

Extensive preparations are being made in Sofia to entertain the Emperor William during his forthcoming visit here. Von Kuelmann, the German Foreign Secretary, is proceeding at an early date to visit Vienna, Buda-Pesth, Sofia and Constantinople. His mission is said to have an important political and peace significance.

CANADIAN WAR FINANCE

One of the imperative duties of a new Parliament will be the reshaping of war finance on more equitable and democratic principles. An opportunity to deal immediately with one branch of the question will be offered by the expiration of the Business Profits War Tax Act at the end of the current year. The Minister of Finance had announced positively that the tax would not be renewed, but he changed his mind when public protests began to pour in. It may have dawned upon him that his prospects of being in a position to write next year's financial program would not be brightened by giving the profiteers free rein.

In 1915 and 1916 the business tax was twenty-five per cent. of a company's profits above seven per cent. to any height. For over two years of the war many Canadian industries, new and old, made abnormal earnings, until the Government war forced by the scandal of profiteering into framing a higher scale of taxation. Under the new schedule the treasury takes twenty-five per cent. of a company's profits exceeding fifteen per cent., but not exceeding twenty per cent., and seventy-five per cent. of the profits beyond twenty per cent. In view of recent disclosures showing how excessive profits may be screened by a comparatively moderate dividend, the new schedule may not be nearly so drastic in practice as it appears on paper. The Big Interests are still touched too lightly. All over the country there are many businesses, great and small, earning more than in peace times, to say nothing of industries that have been created by the war.

The Finance Minister, during the past session, in arguing against more radical taxation, pleaded that a man should not be "punished" merely because he possessed wealth. It may justly be contended, however, that the State should not permit anyone to make more than a reasonable profit during a war which puts an almost unbearable strain on the finances of the country, and places unusual burdens on the mass of the people through the increased cost of the necessities of life. It is true there are many industries, especially munition industries, which were brought into existence by the incentive of high profits, and which must make more than ordinary returns in order to pay for plant that will be useless after the war. Full allowance should be made for these cases; they might be considered as a class apart. But there are many permanent industries in Canada which during the war have earned far beyond anything in the past, after paying the Federal tax. Companies of this kind should bear a heavier share of the burden, and the Government should exercise greater inquisitorial powers to prevent any concealment of profits. As the profits tax for 1917 will not be collected until next year, any higher scale adopted by the next Parliament should be made retroactive so that it would apply to this year's operations.

The new Parliament ought also to stiffen the income tax, which cannot bear comparison with either the British or the American schedule. A tax which taxes only $80 from an income of $5,000, and which leaves a man $9,640 out of an income of $10,000, is almost farcical as a war measure. There may be objections to conscription of wealth in the form of capital needed for production, but in this time of sacrifice equity and sound public policy demand the conscription of inordinate profits, and a levy upon incomes based on the principle that men shall pay according to their means. —Globe.

and as to who should get the contract to make the soldiers' clothes. Sergeant Youhail continued his indictment of the Borden Government when he referred to profiteering and Sir Joseph Flavelle's hog factory. He was distinctly in favor of making these profiteers disgorge, and he told the audience how he would do it, too. Mr. B. T. Rogers, of the B. C. Sugar Refinery, also was classed with Sir Joseph Flavelle, whom he classed as profiteers, and likened to highway robbers. When the soldiers returned from France, he said, the public men of the country will have to face a tribunal they never faced before, and the question they will have to answer will be, "What have you done to win the war?"

Chairman Carss then read a resolution for the formation of a national union, non-party win the war government; for the enforcement of the Military Service Act; for the mobilization of all resources; the taxation of wealth and the prevention of profiteering, and for the support of candidates adhering to these principles. The motion was seconded by Mr. D. C. McKee. Ald. Nelson also briefly spoke to the motion, which was carried unanimously. The meeting then closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

Bathe Internally and Keep Well!

Nature has richly equipped us all, old and young, to resist disease—but she requires that we give her a chance. We give her no chance if we permit the lower intestine to become more or less clogged with accumulated waste. Yet that is a natural condition today, as is proven by the number of laxative drugs that are consumed.

To help Nature in Nature's most efficient way by Internal Bathing, and in so doing, form a habit of keeping the intestine as sweet and clean as Nature demands it to be for perfect health and sure defence against contagion. Over half a million keen, bright, healthy people testify to its result.

THE FARMING WEST IS NOT TROUBLED

Ottawa—Reports reaching here from the agricultural districts in Western Canada indicate that no trouble is anticipated from intensified labor problems as a result of the operation of the Military Service Act. Experience at the time of the harvest this year, when sufficient labor was supplied through the co-operation of many patriotic forces in addition to the regular supply, has caused the farmers to view the prospect with complacency.

In the first years of the war, a large number of farmers left the land to join the armies. The exodus was led by the large number of men from the Old Country who had taken up farms in the West. The operation of the Exemption Boards under the Military Service Act will tend to prevent any serious withdrawal of farmers or their assistants in the future, as agriculture is one of the industries which will be given particular care.

Since Western Canada is intensely democratic in its political views, the sharing of military burdens under the Military Service Act meets with wide approval there. The scope permitted Exemption Boards in their dealings with individual cases is nevertheless admitted to be necessary in the highest interests of the country.

A TRUE GUARANTEE OF A LASTING PEACE

Rome—The "Osservatore Romano" publishes a notable article, evidently inspired by the Vatican, in which it is stated that one of the chief objections to the practical working of international arbitration, as proposed first by President Wilson and then by the Pope is the impossibility of coercing a nation which, trusting in her material force, would not accept any verdict arrived at by arbitration, the more so since both President Wilson and the Pope propose disarmament or reduction of armament, thus depriving the nations entrusted with the maintenance of universal peace of the means of enforcing their sentence. Lord Robert Cecil, the article goes on, has solved the difficulty by suggesting a League of Nations to condemn to economic, commercial, and financial isolation any nation desiring to impose her will on the world by violence, thus constituting a true guarantee of peace for humanity. The idea of the British Minister, as a corollary to the Pontifical Note, is excellent, and, being truly English, it is therefore characterised by the greatest practicability. The complete isolation of a rebel nation, not only from the enemy but from the rest of the world, means surrender at discretion. The people within the iron belt of this measure would certainly suffer, but infinitely less than if they experienced the sufferings imposed by war, with all its destruction of life and property.

LUX and the way to use it

Pour boiling or very hot water over the LUX flakes—"pure essence of soap."

Whisk into a lather. At once you get the richest, creamiest lather you ever saw, which dissolves dirt without rubbing.

After cooling, stir the clothes about in this heavy lather. Do not rub or twist them. Rinse in two or three relays of water of the same temperature you washed them in.

So thoroughly is LUX dissolved that not a trace remains in the garment to discolor it. LUX won't harm anything that pure water alone will not injure. For silks use lukewarm water.

These Men Will Help You Decide

Are you liable to be selected for service under the Military Service Act?

The answer to this question is being made readily available for you. Remember that the first class to be called includes only men between the ages of 20 and 34, both inclusive, who are unmarried or widowers without children, those married after July 6, 1917, being deemed single for the purposes of the Act.

Medical Boards are now being established throughout Canada. These Boards will examine, free of charge and obligation, all men who wish to be examined as to their physical fitness for military service. They will tell you in a very short time whether your physical condition absolves you from the call or makes you liable for selection.

It is important that you obtain this information as soon as possible. A certificate of unfitness from a Medical Board will secure for you freedom from responsibility under the Military Service Act from any Exemption Tribunal. A certificate of fitness will not preclude an appeal for exemption on any ground.

In order that you may be able to plan your future with certainty, visit a Medical Board as soon as possible and find out if you are liable to be selected. Your family and your employer are interested as well as yourself.

"THE BEAST"

"The Beast" is the name of the play to be screened at the Westholme Theatre tonight. This is a play in which George Walsh acts the title role, and one in which he is seen to great advantage. The plot is one of very great interest, and the play is really much more attractive than its title would indicate. The word "beast" itself is not a pretty one, and the more it is regarded, the less pretty it seems, but in this play, it is not so. It requires to be seen to be appreciated. In addition, there will be a Pathe Gazette, and also a fine comedy.

SKIPPER W. J. THOMAS LEAVES TO JOIN UP

Captain W. J. Thomas, one of the most popular men in Prince Rupert, left last evening for Vancouver, where he will join the Flying Corps. Captain Thomas, of the Alice B., will be missed here until his return.

He was given a good send-off last evening by a few of his friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Hill. About twenty of his intimate acquaintances were gathered to take farewell. The evening was spent joyously and they accompanied him to the steamer, when three rousing cheers and a tiger were heartily given to "Jim."

Before his departure, a small presentation was made by Mr. Harry Birch in appreciation of the kindly affection in which Captain Thomas is held by his friends.

THE HIGH COST OF EATING

"Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high," is a fairly common expression of satisfaction in this part of the country, but just you say that to Harry Atkins or George Hill, and take your chances of what happens. Talking about geese, thereby hangs a tale, which wound up in the police court. Mr. George Hill was one of a hunting party lately. He brought home a fine fat goose and two grouse. Not being too fond of a very high flavor, and yet wishing the goose for next Sunday's dinner, he took them across to Mr. Harry Atkins' butcher shop and asked if the birds could be kept in his ice box. This was on Wednesday afternoon. That being a busy day, on account of the half-holiday, the birds were hung up in the front shop temporarily instead of being put into the ice box at once. During that half-hour, the game warden caught sight of them. It is against the game laws to have game of any kind exposed in a store, whether for sale or not, and for this infraction of the law, Mr. Harry Atkins was fined $5 in the police court yesterday.

The birds were confiscated on Wednesday and Mr. Hill has lost his Sunday's dinner, all through trying to do his best to obey the behest of the Government to eat less beef.
