TRENCH AND AIR RAIDS HARRASS THE HUNS

REPRISALS ANNOUNCED IN HOUSE OF COMMONS BY CHANCELLOR BONAR LAW

BRITISH BOMB BRUGES DOCKS & AERODROMES

Formal Statement Made in British Parliament Regarding Reprisals—Germans Bomb Town of Dunkirk.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Oct. 17.—The British troops carried out successful raids northwest of Bullecourt. The raiding parties were picked from Irish regiments, and their attacks were entirely successful. During the night, the enemy's artillery has shown considerable activity in the region of the Ypres-Staden Railway.

Air Raids.
The British airmen bombed the Bruges docks and also the Cassinara and Hotteve aerodromes. Considerable damage was noticed at the docks of Bruges and hangars at the aerodromes were destroyed. At the recent attack on the town of Roulers by British aviators, they were successful in destroying the arsenal, in which were quartered a newly arrived German regiment. Enormous casualties were inflicted upon the enemy during this attack. Numerous aerial raids were carried out over other parts of Belgium yesterday and on numerous occasions, German machines were driven down.

French Front.
Paris, October 17.—A German attack on the Verdun front last night was repulsed. On the right bank of the Meuse, artillery fighting was especially severe in the sector north of the Caucieres wood. Elsewhere the night was calm.

(Official). Yesterday we made two successful attacks, one east of Rheims, and one in the Argonne region. We repulsed attacks on the left bank of the Meuse. German aeroplanes again dropped bombs in the region of Dunkirk. There were no victims.

Ships and Subs Sunk.
French warships destroyed two German submarines in the western Mediterranean last week, according to a dispatch received today by the French Minister of Marine. The French steamer Medie, 4,450 tons, was torpedoed on September 23, when two hundred and fifty lives were lost.

Reprisals.
London, Oct. 16.—The British Parliament reassembled today after a recess of two months. The formal announcement was made in the House of Commons of the decision of the Government to carry out reprisals against Germany. These will be made in kind for the air raids made by the Germans over unfortified British towns. This statement was made by Mr. Bonar Law, the Chancellor of the Exchequer. He added that the Government had made arrangements to make air raids and to bombard German towns as far as the military need will supply the necessary machines. During the proceedings of the House, the policy of the Government pursued towards Ireland was deplored by Mr. John Redmond. The policy of the Government has been to let the Irish settle their own differences themselves.

U.S. WON'T STAND FOR FOOD PROFITEERING

Washington, October 16.—The Food Administration is on the trail of the food profiteer, and by an extensive licensing system, which will reach even the retailers doing a gross annual business of $100,000, will endeavor to put an end to hoarding, speculation and extortionate profits between producer and consumer. Co-operation is sought and expected in carrying through the program, but the big stick will be wielded if the occasion arises.

Announcement was made tonight that President Wilson, within a day or so, would issue a proclamation under the provisions of the food control law, which will place the machinery in operation by November 1. After that time licenses must be obtained and regular reports submitted by the individuals or firms included in the edict, which will cover dealings in all of the foods "forming the prime basis of life."

Middlemen and others will be forced at all times to open their books to the agents of the food administration under the penalty of having their business taken over, and in every case where it is found that false reports have been submitted the offender will be prosecuted. Regulations providing the conditions under which the persons affected may conduct their business will be promulgated. Violation of them, likewise, will mean prosecution and the surrender of licenses.

Five Important "Musts."
The general principles to be observed, as set forth by the Food Administration, are as follows:
"The producer must have a free outlet and a ready market."
"There must be no manipulation or speculation in foods."
"There must be no hoarding in foods."
"Unfair or unreasonable profits must be eliminated."
"Discriminatory and deceptive and wasteful practices which in any way restrict supply or distribution must be stopped."

ENEMY DAILY GROWS WEAKER

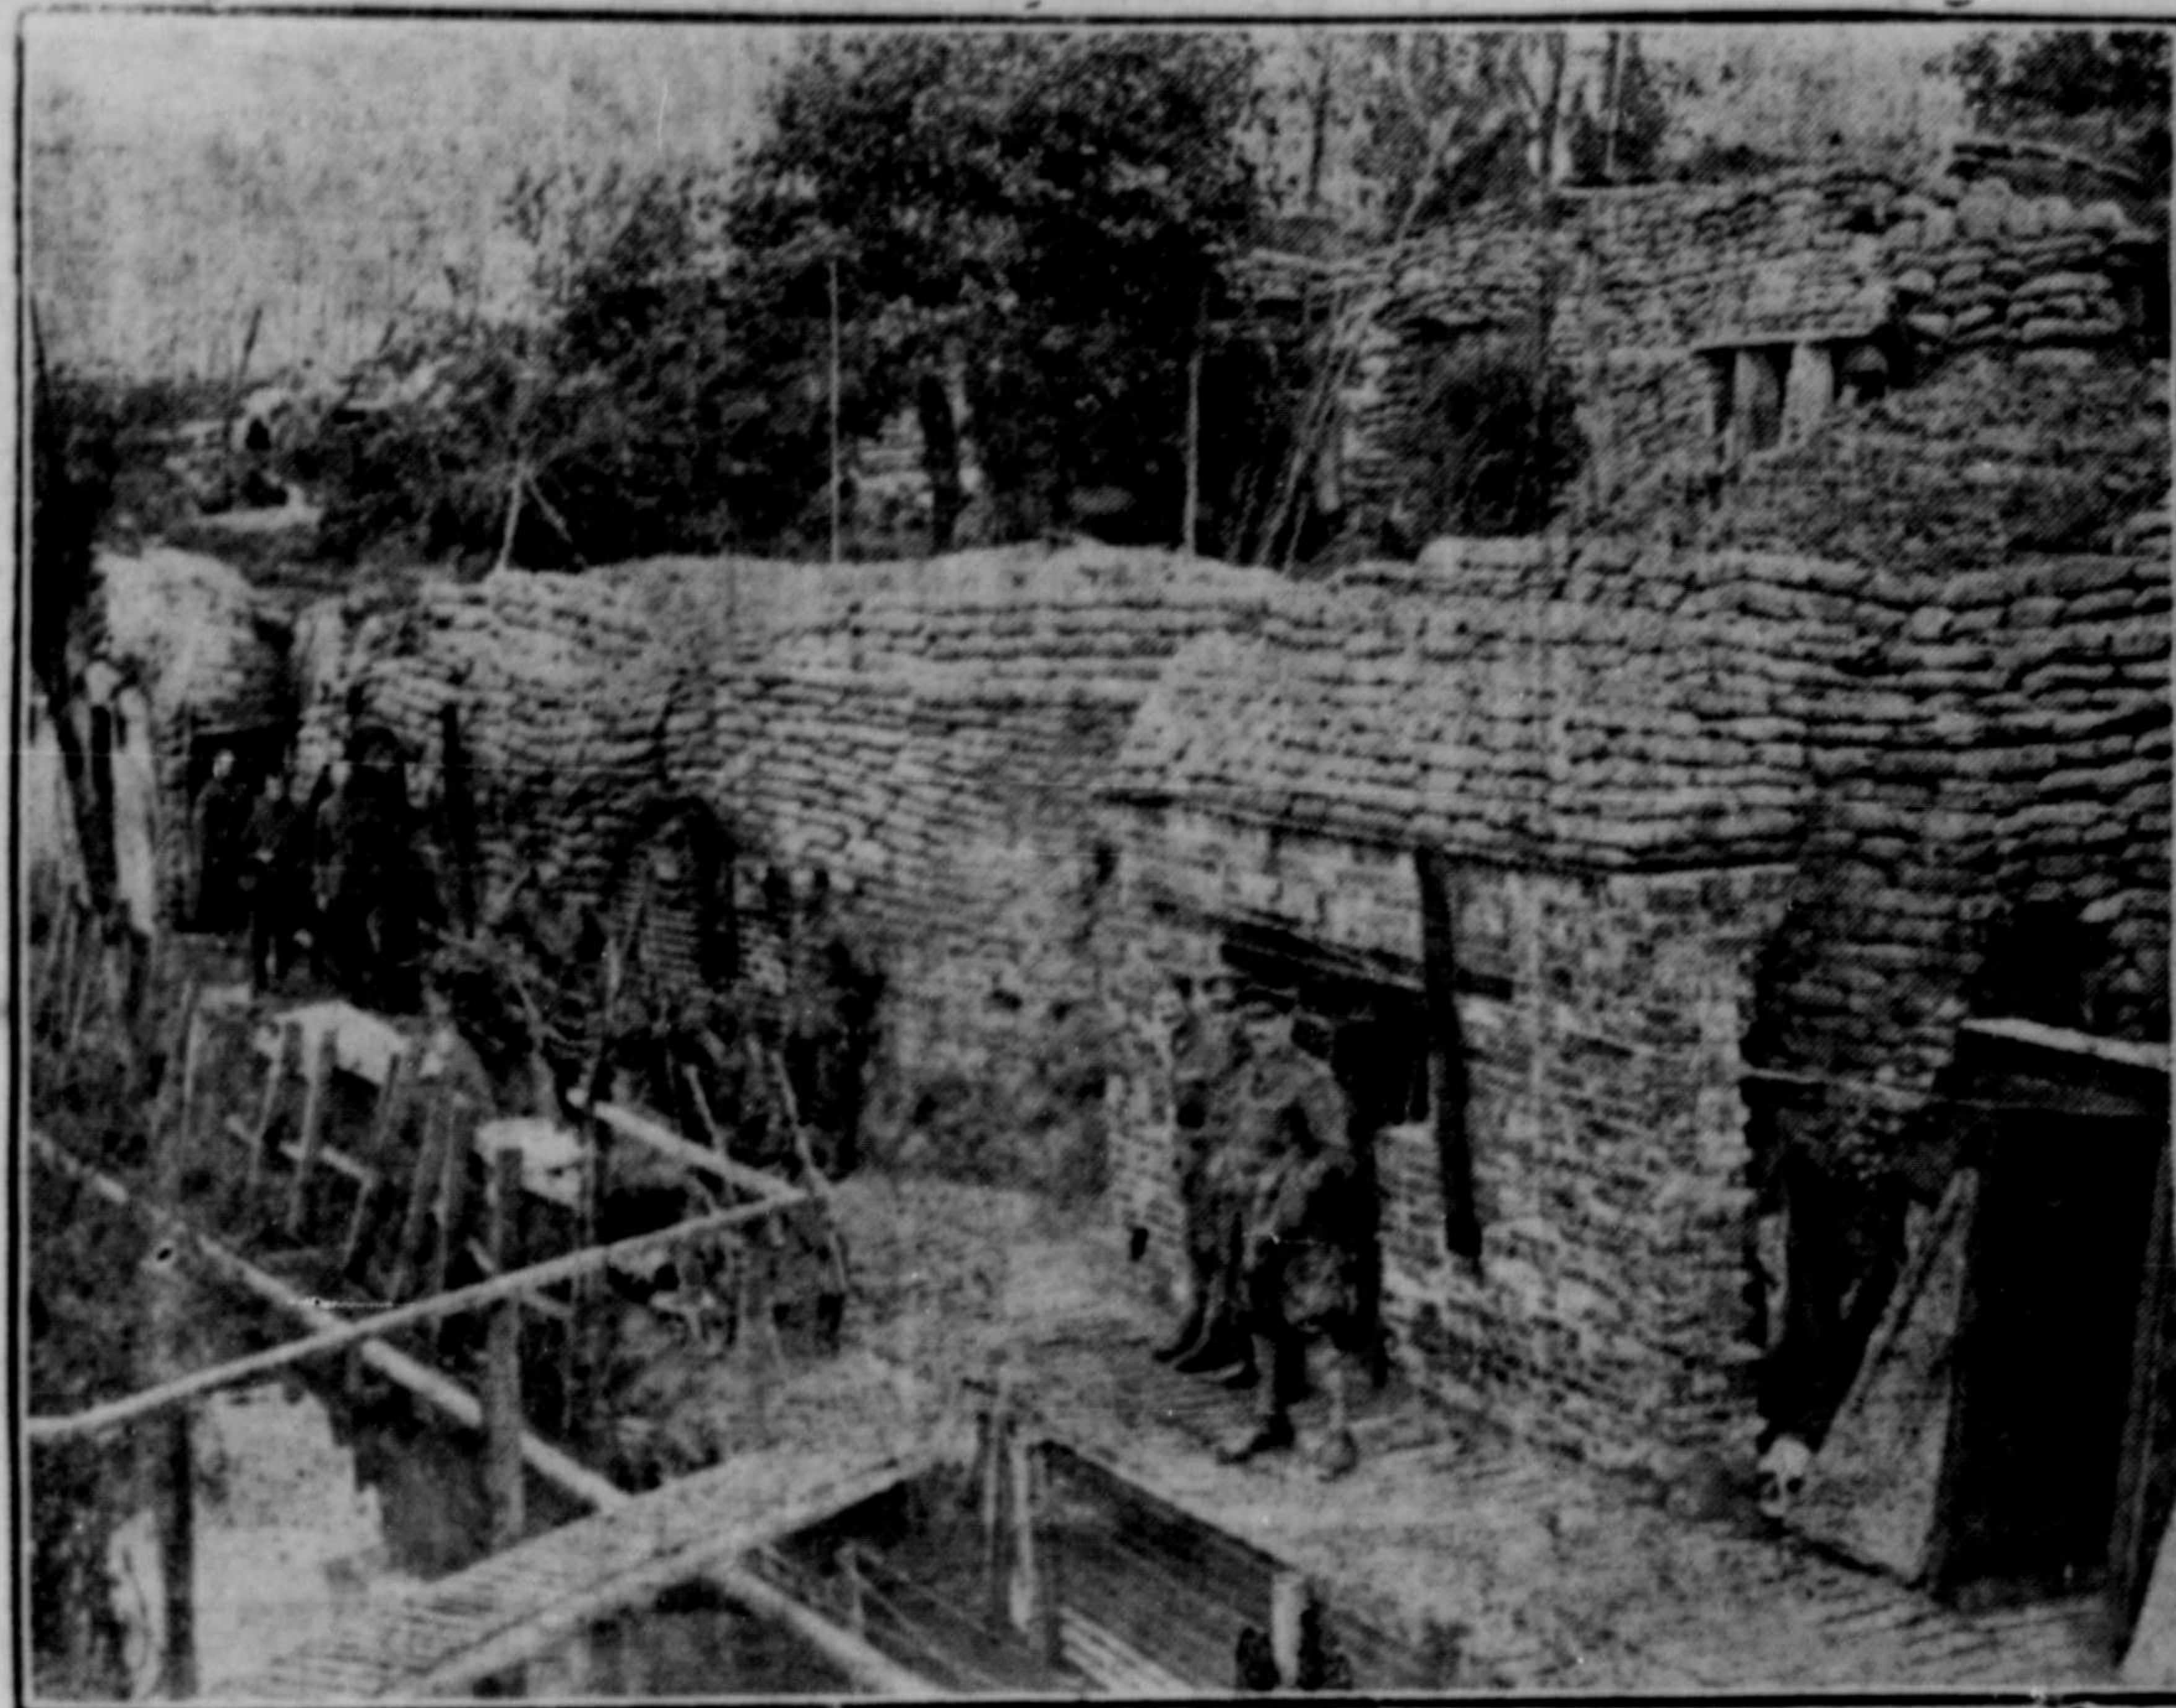

Ottawa—The greatest confidence in Allied supremacy on the western front has been expressed of late by officers and men who have returned in the recent past. The Allied commanders appear to be absolutely masters of the situation and the strain of being continually harassed by superior forces is beginning to tell on the German armies.

"The Canadian forces at the front are keen and enthusiastic," said an officer today who has a brilliant record for coolness under fire. "While the enemy is not despaired, for he often fights stoutly enough, evidence comes in abundance every day that the backbone of the mighty organization with which the Kaiser began this war is broken. I have met nobody at home so firmly and cheerfully confident as nearly all of the men at the front. Indeed, I never heard of a pessimist anywhere near the trenches."

Canada's men in the trenches are playing an important part in the fighting, according to this officer, and with the coming of the expected reinforcements, they will experience an impetus which must mean new glories for Canadian arms and greater service to the Allies.

GREAT FIRE IN KANSAS CITY STOCK YARDS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Kansas City, Oct. 17.—One half of the Kansas City stock yards, which are the second largest in the country, was destroyed by fire early yesterday. It is estimated that nearly ten thousand head of cattle were burnt to death. The animals did not have any chance of making for safety, on account of their being penned in.

TORRID CONDITIONS IN MESOPOTAMIA

Bagdad—in Mesopotamia 1917 has been the hottest season of which records exist. Bagdad people say they do not remember a worse summer, and at Basrah, owing to the moisture of the air and to the south winds, the conditions have been even more trying. The highest temperature reading at Bagdad was 122.8 on July 20, and at Basrah 122 on July 24, while in the tents the thermometer rose 10 degrees higher. The hot weather began a month earlier than last year. There was some relief during May and June, but in July the heat was excessive—often 10 or 12 degrees higher than in 1916. This month there has been another heat wave and the temperature of the first 11 days of September has been 8 degrees above the normal. The reading at Basrah was 118.2 on August 28 and 116 on September 5 in damp heat. However, owing to the improved conditions produced by the supply of ice, soda, and vegetables, the effects of the heat were much mitigated.

In spite of the abnormal heat the spirit of the troops has been splendid throughout the summer, and in the hottest phases games have been kept up as usual. Early in June a football cup was played for at Samarah, and produced a very full entry. During the last 10 days we have had a regatta and a race meeting at Bagdad, and men are now in training for a boxing competition.

More money must be forthcoming to enable the British Red Cross Society to continue its beneficent work of mercy among the sick and wounded. Besides the satisfaction of having contributed to a most worthy cause, you can feel in your heart that you have practically helped towards victory in the war. October 20th a collection will be made. Get ready.

RED CROSS NOTES

The public and all those who have contributed in any way to the Friday sales of home-cooking will be gratified at the result for the past year. The annual report shows $3,613 as the amount realized at these sales. Mrs. Morrissey kindly took charge of the arrangements for two months during the absence of the convener with much success. This year the society starts out to reach the $4,000 mark, when it is again hoped for the co-operation of everyone. Every one doing a little no matter how small, helps to ease the burden of the war.

The sale of home-cooking this week will be under the charge of Mrs. Geo. Kerr and Mrs. Pringle. It is with great regret that the society loses the splendid help of Mrs. W. T. Kerkin, who as superintendent of the knitting supplies, has done such good work. Mrs. Kergin still remains a member of this executive, but through pressure of other duties, has to give up this branch of the work. The society extends a very hearty welcome to Mrs. Clancy, who takes up Mrs. Kergin's duties.

Through the efforts of Mr. J. H. McMullin, the government agent, the provincial government planted potatoes in their grounds this year, and a fine crop is the result. The potatoes will be sacked by Mr. Van Gastel and a bag raffled each week at each Friday sale, until they are disposed of. This kindness on the part of the provincial government is greatly appreciated by the society.

The sale of home-cooking last Friday realized the sum of $61.20. The following articles were drawn for and won: Mrs. Haley presented a worked bag, which was won by Mrs. Morrissey; Provincial Government, sack of potatoes won by Mrs. Bryant; Mrs. Hart, sack of sugar, won by H. F. Wearmouth; Fritz, tobacco, won by A. M. Davies; W. H. Sherman, two pairs chickens, pair each to Mrs. Harvey Peck and Mrs. Bryant; Mrs. Allison, lace for table cover, won by Miss Sells; Mrs. Haley, worked slippers, won by Mrs. Cornish; J. C. Gavigan, fruit won by Jarvis McLeod.

The following ladies will act as captains of the different teams for the collections in aid of "Our Day," on Saturday the 20th inst.: Mrs. Dawson, Mrs. Morrissey, Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Jenns, Mrs. Bazel-Jones, Mrs. Holtby; for the I. O. D. E., Mrs. Besner, Mrs. Steen, and Mrs. Reilly.

GOOD WORK BY WOMEN'S GUILD AT PORT ESSINGTON

The Port Essington Women's Patriotic Guild held their third annual meeting on Friday, October 12th. The report showed that during the year the Guild had raised the sum of $1,289.68. Their donations to the Red Cross consisted of, 375 pairs hand-knitted socks; 43 pyjama suits; 14 Florence Nightingale bed jackets; 1 flannel shirt; 14 pillow slips; 3 hotwater-bottle covers; 100 packages cigarettes; $237.35 to the British Red Cross Society; $394.90 to the Prisoners of War Fund; $145.00 to Belgian Relief, and $305.12 for material, leaving a balance on hand of $237.31.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

In the Westholme tonight there will be shown a comedy-drama entitled "Bringing Home Father." As the title suggests, comedy enters to a great extent into this photoplay, although the story of the play is not altogether given over to the comic. Franklyn Farnum—the star, or rather one of the stars, as he is ably assisted by "Brownie" Vernon, one of the prettiest of Oregonians. This is the first appearance of both these players in Prince Rupert and they only require to be seen to be appreciated.

A Universal Gazette will also be shown and a splendid comedy, which will be a fine tonic on a night like this.

KERENSKY WILL OPEN RUSSIAN PARLIAMENT

Recovered From His Illness, the Russian Premier Will Return to Petrograd For This Occasion.
(Special to The Daily News.)

Petrograd, October 17.—The Provisional Government has postponed the opening of Parliament from the 18th to the 29th October. Premier Kerensky, who has recovered sufficiently from his recent illness, will return to Petrograd for the opening ceremony.

Russian Front.
The Germans are continuously landing further troops on the Island of Oesel. The expeditionary forces are developing their successes and are penetrating inland. With great reinforcements, the Germans are instituting an offensive against the Svorb peninsula, with the object of capturing the Russian batteries at Serel. These batteries cover the entrance to the Gulf of Riga, and at present are strong enough to prevent the Germans supplying their forces on the Riga front by sea.

Romanian Front.
Jassy, Oct. 17.—Charles Vopicka, the American minister to Roumania, has made several visits to the front recently, where he exhorted the Russian soldiers to continue fighting. On one visit he spoke to seventy thousand soldiers.

Italian Front.
Rome, Oct. 17.—Artillery fighting is being continued on the Bainsizza Plateau with extreme violence.

Peace Terms.
Count Czernin, the Austro-Hungarian Foreign Minister, has requested the German Chancellor Michaelis to state Germany's peace terms. He urged Germany to make concessions in the west. Count Czernin could not get any clear statement from the German Chancellor.

A UNION GOVERNMENT

The Government of Sir Robert Borden, elected in 1914, and after parliament has been dissolved, has been replaced by a Union Government. The new Government is said to contain half Conservatives and half Liberals, or quasi-Liberals. Although the new government is headed by Sir Robert Borden, he will have to see to it that a new policy is adopted. No matter what this new government may call themselves, that which will count will be their policy. It is said that their first move will be the formation of a War Cabinet. They will be judged as a War Cabinet. What they do in regard to war problems and the other problems arising out of the war will be watched with considerable interest all over Canada. War problems involve not only those of the immediate battle-fronts in Europe, but those arising at home out of war conditions. If this new Government fails to make any improvement upon the last with regard to affairs in Canada arising out of the war, they will fail, and will have to step aside.

other already have assisted the company to the extent of nearly $300,000,000. Incidentally, during the debate Government members were unable even to state the amount of the liability to be assumed by the country in taking over the system, a strange circumstance in view of the fact that something over $500,000,000 is believed to be involved.

Mackenzie & Mann's stock is owned by interests closely affiliated with Sir Thomas White. It is in the hands of the little group dominated by Sir Joseph Flavelle, Z. A. Lash, Sir William Mackenzie and other directors of the National Trust, of which Flavelle was President and White General Manager before he became the Finance Minister of Canada. It is this circumstance which gave a sinister aspect to a transaction that had to be rammed through Parliament under closure and for which no defence could be found. Is the new Government going to stand for it?

NOTES AND COMMENTS

Germany and Austria are said to be prepared to make further overtures towards the establishment of peace. Germany is now quite prepared to evacuate Belgium. But then Germany is evacuating Belgium right now, by about a mile at a time every time the Allies say so.

Meantime, Sir Wilfrid Laurier has not yet resigned the leadership of the Liberal party, and there has been no reduction in the high cost of living.

The Emperor Wilhelm has a pretty imagination. His latest vision is a Kingdom of Alsace-Lorraine, with a Catholic King. He has a passion for surrounding Germany with small countries, which doubtless he would overrun at his pleasure, the same as he did Belgium and Luxemburg. With a King of Poland on the east, and Alsace-Lorraine on the west, Germany would have no frontier touching either France or Russia. Wilhelm is an exemplification of the difference of wisdom and cunning.

The appeal for funds for "Our Day" which will be collected on October 20th has the approval and support of Their Majesties the King and Queen, and of Her Majesty Queen Alexandra and is being made simultaneously throughout the British Empire.

The appeal is urgent. The cause worthy. The object money. Get ready to give on October 20th.

FINANCE

One of the disturbing facts regarding the new Union Government is that no change has been made in the Ministry of Finance. Sir Thomas White still remains to look after the interests of the moneyed class. That his policy will change with the new government is questionable, and the new Cabinet members may not appreciate him so well as his old friends. If the new Government does not "compel the war profiteers to contribute their fair share towards the revenues of the country; if it does not smash the food trust, of which Sir Joseph Flavelle is the head, it will soon crash upon the rocks."

THE C. N. STEAL

When the Canadian Northern bill was introduced last session it was found that instead of taking advantage of the provision of the measure of 1914 for foreclosing on the stock, the Government proposed to pay for it at a sum to be determined by arbitration. The Mackenzie & Mann interests claim that the stock is worth $60,000,000. That there will be a compromise on many millions there can be no doubt. Yet the Government's own commission declared the stock to be valueless, while the Canadian people in one form or an-

A Few Facts About the Work of the British Red Cross

The British Red Cross Society is the only institution which carries voluntary aid to the Sick and Wounded of the British forces on land and sea in every region of the War.

Its work is therefore the concern of all classes of British subjects, whether living in the British Isles, in the Dominions and Colonies beyond the seas, or in foreign countries.

IN GREAT BRITAIN

$100,000 for initial outlay in providing and equipping after-care institutions for totally disabled men.

$100,000 for materials for Red Cross Working Parties.

460 Motor Ambulances, Cars, etc., for Home Service.

WHY ARMY IS LIKE A CIRCUS

Ottawa, Oct. 11.—An army in the field has been compared with a circus travelling about the country. The comparison is a rough and ready one but, according to military officers back from the front, it suffices to show certain essential features of the fighting force.

One is that a large number of men are needed to look after the transportation and care of equipment, to cook the meals and put up the tents, etc., while the number of actual performers is comparatively few. Many more work outside the ring than in it.

The army has many disadvantages, however, from which the circus does not suffer. It has to build its own railroads, as a rule, run them and keep them in repair, while it must also bring in with it nearly all the food and other supplies it needs. It must be braced also for a constantly increasing burden of casualties, requiring special care and comfort, and in modern war the big guns consume vast quantities of shells daily which must be replaced immediately.

Ever noticed the number of men who are engaged to keep the circus in running order? If you have, you may be able better to understand why an army needs thousands of men behind the lines.

NOTABLE FEAT OF A BRITISH AVIATOR

London—Reuter's correspondent at British Headquarters in France telegraphs:

"An exciting experience was that of one of our young airmen who crossed the enemy line near Zonnebeke at a height of about 2,000 feet. He dived upon a little party of about fifteen Huns and scattered them with his machine-gun. A little farther on he dropped eight bombs upon an ammunition dump. Being attacked by superior forces he dived and came down right through the artillery barrage into our own line. His machine was badly crippled and he himself was wounded in the leg. Two stretcher-bearers ran out to his assistance and got him into the stretcher. As they were carrying him back a shell burst, killing one and knocking over the other stretcher-bearer. The wounded aviator, half dazed though he was, got up to help the injured man, when another shell burst in almost the same spot, and he was hit himself. Thereupon, although suffering acute pain, the aviator succeeded in limping away to cover.

"The exploit of a single flying man in attacking what looked like an entire battalion on the march, inflicting considerable casualties and dispersing the rest, was a fine act of daring.

"Four British planes fell in with nine German machines and immediately attacked them. As a result one of the enemy disappeared in flames, three more crashed down out of control, and another went down apparently out of control. All our machines returned safely to their airdromes."

"How Many of our Men are Liable to be Drafted?"

The Canadian business man is asking this question often, now that the Military Service Act is the law of Canada. A simple means of answering it at once is being provided.

Medical Boards are in process of formation throughout the country for the free physical examination of all men who apply. The first class liable to call includes all single men and widowers without children between the ages of 20 and 34 inclusive, all men married after July 6, 1917, being classed as single for the purposes of the Act. In a very short time, the average employer may learn how many of his staff are liable for selection. Those adjudged physically unfit will be given a certificate which will secure them exemption from any Exemption Tribunal. Those found physically fit may still apply for exemption on any ground. The employer will be given a chance to decide if he should seek exemption for any employee whose physical condition renders him liable for selection.

This early medical examination, which quickly decides if a man is liable for selection or not, is a feature of the operation of the Military Service Act calculated to appeal strongly to the business community. It assists in definite planning for the future, enabling an employer of labor to learn at once what men will be left at their work and those who may be removed for military service. Haphazard withdrawals, the nightmare of business men of method and precision, are insured against by this timely arrangement.

Every employer of labor will find it to his advantage to note carefully the formation of Medical Boards in his locality and to be sure that his employees secure as early as possible this very important information as to their status under the Military Service Act.
