ITALIANS HOLDING AUSTRO-GERMAN ARMY

FRENCH BRING DOWN TEN ENEMY AEROPLANES — DOMINION ELECTION DEC. 17

ITALIANS AND ALLIES WILL MAKE A COUNTER OFFENSIVE

AUSTRO-GERMAN PATROLS ARE REPULSED ON THE BANKS OF TAGLIAMENTO RIVER—FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACKS ON THE AISNE—BRITISH POSITIONS ARE IMPROVED NEAR YPRES

London, Nov. 3.—Official dispatches received here from Rome state that Austro-German patrols have been repulsed by the Italian troops on the banks of the Tagliamento river. A correspondent writing from the front says that the Italians and the allied troops are preparing for a counter offensive. A great battle is forecasted.

French Front.

Paris, Nov. 3.—Artillery on both sides has been particularly active north of the Aisne. We repulsed two enemy attacks elsewhere. Yesterday we brought down, or forced to land damaged, ten German aeroplanes.

British Front.

London, Nov. 3.—In minor operations we slightly improved our lines south and west of Paschendaele and south of Poelcapelle.

Another Naval Mutiny.

Details of another German naval mutiny, which happened on board some of the vessels of the German High Seas Fleet stationed at Kiel some time during the month of September, have come to light.

RIOTING AT ESSEN

Amsterdam—Anti-Government demonstrations took place on Saturday at Essen. Women demonstrators formed the majority, and they threw missiles through the windows of the Town Hall, and shouted demands for more food, for peace, and for the return of their men folk.

The police and the military had to be called out to quell the riot. Several women were arrested, and two were seriously injured. The whole of Essen is in a state of ferment.

RUSSIA IS NOT YET OUT OF THE WAR

Secretary Lansing States there is no Basis for Idea—Russia Will not Quit.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Secretary Lansing says that neither on the basis of the official Russian dispatches, nor on the basis of Kerensky's statement can it be said that Russia is about to quit the war. The allied diplomats at Washington have faith in the statement by Kerensky that Russia, though war worn, is not out of the war.

CONSERVING FOOD IN GERMANY

Amsterdam—The Rotterdam correspondent of the "Telegraaf" learns from a good source that a bill is being prepared in Germany authorizing the Government, in view of the scarcity of foodstuffs, to remove from Germany all foreigners who are not employed on war industries. The bill will probably be enforced within three to four weeks.

Last night's regular passenger train carried a special car with a party of farmers from Saskatchewan, on their way to California for the winter. One of them had quite a romantic story to tell of his fortunes on the prairie. Five years ago, he was farming in Iowa and had not been fortunate. He left there, even against the wishes of his wife, who thought fifty years were too many to be carrying to a new country. However, this farmer, Mr. Smith, arrived at Louverna in Saskatchewan with five cents and two teams of old horses. He took up a farm and traded his old horses for two steers and after five years has now retired. There have been some enquiries at the ticket office about the fare to Louverna.

BOARD OF TRADE DISCUSS COW BAY

Want Matter Held up Until Position of G. T. P. is Known on the Matter.

At the meeting of the Board of Trade held last evening in the rooms on Second Avenue, the question of the disposal of Cow Bay was brought up and discussed. It was intimated that the feeling in town was that Cow Bay should not be closed up. Mr. G. W. Nickerson, speaking on the subject was insistent that in a fishing centre like Prince Rupert, fishermen with little boats should have somewhere to go for repairs and building. Mr. J. C. Gavigan pointed out that the point of view of the fishermen and those using Cow Bay would be interesting. Mr. Nickerson finally moved, seconded by Mr. Stanley Parker, that the department of lands be wired and requested to hold the whole matter in abeyance until the position of the G. T. P. was made known.

Islands Service.

The matter of steamship service to the Queen Charlotte Islands was also brought up. Massett and New Massett are two different points on Massett Inlet, and the steamer only calls at one of them, although freight is accepted for both points. The matter was referred to the transportation committee.

The action of the Victoria Board of Trade in wanting the repeal of the weekly half-holiday was also discussed. As this was a local matter in Victoria no action was taken.

A communication asking for the co-operation of the Board of Trade regarding the Victory Loan was also read.

WESTHOLME THEATRE

The play to be screened tonight at the Westholme Theatre is one which will create a great interest in Prince Rupert. The star artiste being Fannie Ward, a fine picture is assured. The role she undertakes is one wonderfully appealing and pathetic, being that of a young mother who in her desperation is ready to sacrifice everything that she holds dear, to save her little son. The cast is a good one, and Fannie Ward has the support of many fine actors. In addition there will also be displayed a Topical Budget, together with a fine comedy.

IN THE LETTER BOX

Prince Rupert, Nov. 2, 1917. To the Editor, Daily News.

Dear Sir:—In your issue of the "News" of today under the heading of "Notes and Comments" you ask the following question, which, I presume, you expect the citizens of this city to answer as they see it individually:

"How much better off will Prince Rupert be with four hundred and sixty feet of waterfront instead of about a thousand feet of mud flat at low tide in Cow Bay?"

As I see it and as others are seeing it, there is little waterfront in Prince Rupert harbor more valuable than Cow Bay, which is, without doubt, capable of being made a convenient and safe shelter for smaller craft, such as fishing boats, pleasure boats, etc., to say nothing of its value from a commercial point of view. It occurs to me that this tract of Government foreshore together with the land contained in Block "F" is capable of being improved and the waterfront of the bay enlarged through dredging, the erection of wharves and such other improvements as may be found expedient from time to time. As I know the Prince Rupert waterfront, there are but two bays which afford shelter which properly admits of repairs to small craft and to which access can be had without the necessity of crossing the G. T. P. tracks. One of these is Cow Bay and the other Seal Cove. Cow Bay being convenient to the business district of the city is a constant refuge for smaller craft for minor and other repairs and is at present about the only place in the city where shipbuilding of any kind is being followed and there are always small boats under construction at this point, the development of which industry should be encouraged.

The type of vessels being built at the present time at Cow Bay may be said by some to be of no account, but to those I would answer that during the past three or four years, and during the times made abnormally hard through the unfortunate war, that the success of this city, and of many of our business men, has been largely due, either directly or indirectly, to the business furnished by the fishermen who are using a large number of this class of boat in the halibut and salmon fisheries, and surely the lesson of the past should teach the encouragement of the fishing industry of the city wherever and whenever possible. To deprive the owners of boats of Cow Bay, by its obliteration, means the sending of at least a large number of them to Seal Cove, if indeed this bay will take care of them, or possibly drive them out of town, and certainly it cannot bring them nearer to the merchant and outfitter who prizes this trade.

A few years ago we heard that there were not street ends enough on the waterfront, and permit me to point out that this (Cow Bay) is the only waterfront within the city limits which can be reached by any street with a good grade without the necessity of crossing railway tracks. Few will contend that we have too many street ends on the waterfront and now that we have the means of getting at least one independent street end on the waterfront without the necessity of crossing railway tracks would it not be folly to dispose of, or consent to the disposal of, other cities are reclaiming waterfront instead of destroying it and this particular bay should be guarded by the people of the city as one of its most valuable assets.

DATE OF ELECTION IS FIXED FOR DECEMBER 17

Candidates have to be nominated by November 19—House will Have 234 Members.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.—The date of the Dominion election has been decided for the 17th of December by the issuing of the writs. Monday, November 19, has been fixed for nomination day, and the new Parliament will meet for the first time on February 28th.

There will be a great lot of extra work attached with the lists of voters at this election, compared with any others. The new women voters' names will have to be added and the names of those disenfranchised by the War Time Elections Act will have to be taken off.

The military voters will also be something extra and it is expected that about five weeks will elapse between the day of the polling and the final announcements of the general returning officers.

Mr. J. Flewin, of Port Simpson, has been appointed returning officer for the Skeena district.

EXPECTS EATING BEEF TO BE PROHIBITED

Calgary, Nov. 2.—Dr. J. W. Robertson, chief adviser to Food Controller Hanna, speaking here, predicted that before next spring the consumption of beef would be prohibited. He also promised to use his influence to secure the prohibition of the manufacture of ice cream, although at the same time he predicted that to abolish ice cream would increase the price of milk. He gave as a reason why the killing of young animals was not forbidden that it takes two years for them to grow, and will not affect the quantity of meat now.

DAILY EDITION

ON THE JUST AND ON THE UNJUST

The chief topic of conversation in the city this week has been the weather. Some of the newer arrivals in town, who cannot yet be addressed by the term of "old timer" are inclined more or less to permit their mental outlook to adjust itself to the lurid skies. They feel low and depressed at the constant patter of the rain drops, forgetting that the humidity of the atmosphere is the finest thing for the complexion. While it is true that for a time the new arrival will find a greater rainfall than he was accustomed to is not conducive to the brightest of spirits, still in a little, familiarity breeds contempt.

Prince Rupert and its people are a living proof of the triumph of hereditary over environment. Once an old timer, and the weather conditions don't matter. The natural and spontaneous gaiety of the citizens rises exultant above the damp surroundings. As is fitting in a fishing centre, those whose business takes them out in all weathers soon become amphibious. Why should the weather conditions interfere with the placidity and serenity which characterises rush and tumble of a busy day? Forget the weather! There are many worse places than Prince Rupert.

CITY COUNCIL

Whether the city council should be composed of eight members as at present, or four, as proposed, is a matter which is likely to be placed before the community in the very near future. The present council can propose such an alteration, but it is for the citizens to decide for themselves, just how many representatives they want. While there are always two sides to every question, it is hard to see why four good men and true should not be able to administer the affairs of the city equally well as at the present time. If the present council were judged by the quantity of business which comes up each Monday night at the public session, then one might wonder what the eight get to do. Of course, most of the work is done in Committee.

MENTIONED IN DISPATCHES

"The British have captured Beersheba." In the ancient days, when people meant to say "from Land's End to John o' Groat's," conveying the impression of wide extent, in Palestine they said, "from Dan unto Beersheba." Having got hold of Beersheba, the British forces will be setting out on their way to Dan, at the earliest possible. It will afford peculiar satisfaction to most people when they learn that the "Promised Land" has been taken from the Turk. Under proper administration, it will soon again flow "with milk and honey." With the blighting hand of the Turk removed from his provinces, what are potentially the richest lands in the world will be thrown open for development. When it is remembered that these countries were the cradle of civilization and in their day even with their antique methods, were able to support their millions of inhabitants to the hundreds of late years, some idea of the value of these lands to modern civilization may be realized.

SLIDES

Mr. McCall, the new superintendent of the G. T. P. who is taking the place of Mr. Mehan during his vacation, is having a fine introduction to some of the troubles of his new position. On the last occasion when the official party of G. T. P. officers, including Mr. A. W. Smithers, the London chairman, and Mr. Kelly, the new manager, were due here, their arrival was delayed from the same cause. Slides and wash-outs on the railroad track are apparently no respecters of persons. Railroading in the mountain division and on the prairies are two different things.

The Gift of Freedom is bought with Blood, but Money will help preserve it.

Let this great truth burn itself into your soul--the Gift of Freedom cannot be bought with money, but money will help to preserve it.

From the four corners of the earth those who love Freedom have united to defend it from enslavement by Germany.

Millions of free men have already sacrificed their lives on Freedom's altar.

Still other millions stand ready to make the supreme sacrifice.

Noble women have sent loved ones to Freedom's service with an anguish harder to bear than death.

Still other millions have yielded their entire resources in service or in money to the need of their countries.

Canada proudly claims her full share of these noble souls.

And now, for their sakes, asks her citizens (men and women) to support with money Canada's part in the mighty efforts of the free peoples of the earth to save themselves from the ghastly crucible into which the Hun would pour and then remould mankind.

To prevent this, brave men are giving their lives. Will you hesitate to lend your money?

Canada must raise more money in order to continue to play her great part in the prosecution of the war.

This money must come from the people of Canada. Outside financial markets are closed and it is in the interests of Canada that as much as possible of our war indebtedness should be held within the Dominion and interest upon it paid to our own people.

The money is here. The only question is, will Canadians, now that they know the need, respond magnificently to this appeal? They will!

holding the German forces six miles or so west of Udine. The Central Empires are still able to say that they have kept their lands inviolate from the invaders in Europe. Just how long this state of affairs will continue, of course, remains to be seen. That nothing would please the Tommies in the trenches better is certain. And it is only a matter of time. The fact of the fighting being done on foreign soil is one of the chief sops which the German Government is throwing to the people when they become clamorous. The impotence of the Allies to invade Germany is given forth as proof of the invincibility of the German army. The presence of the Allied troops on any part of the enemy territory would bring home to the German people, who, true to their training, believe what a benign Government tells them, some doubt as to that invincibility. If belief in the army and their Kaiser and his Government gone, the German people will do the rest.

Over half a million bright, keen up-to-date Canadians and Americans have found that Internal Bathing is more essential to their well-being than External Baths.

Have found that, taken occasionally at night, they feel like different people the next morning. No more of that bilious, tired, nervous condition—but, having by Nature's own cleanser, antiseptic warm water, removed all the poisonous waste from the Lower Intestine, they awake thoroughly refreshed by normal sleep, with all their functions acting in healthy accord, bright, happy, clear-headed and confident, eager and capable for the duties of the day.

for the present high price of coal amongst other reasons the excessive cost of wharfage and handling, and here it may be pointed out that scows may at this time be taken into Cow Bay with that same comodity and the fuel transferred direct from the scows to the wagons for delivery to the consumer, thus cutting out a large portion of the double handling cost.

A few years ago the city constructed a recreation park at a cost of some $30,000 and few have found any fault with the investment, but let us compare the use that is made of this park with that made of Cow Bay without the outlay of any money by the city in the improvement of the latter, and reflect on what it would be possible to do in the interest of both business and pleasure by the consistent and interested improvement of this bay.

of way, for with Seal Cove within the limits of its own holdings, the citizens will have little to look for in the matter of accommodation to small craft unless they are paying toll to the company.

The city at present is party to contracts with the G. T. P., in which the city's covenants appear to be the only ones worthy of fulfillment, yet the G. T. P. was relieved of a large portion of its taxation on its holdings and has not fulfilled its portion of the contract. Surely it would be well to have one thing completed at a time, or at least before looking for other easy deals at the expense of the city. The reduction of the company's taxation means that we are paying a little more than our share in order to make up the total, yet the promised improvements have not been forth-

An exquisite "newness" for all woollens

Somehow, with ordinary washing, one always thinks of woollen garments coming out of the wash a little worse off than when they went in.

Far otherwise when you let LUX wash them. They come out of the wash with a soft, fleecy "new" feeling, as well as being absolutely clean—quite unshrunk, and quite unthickened.

How is it done? Allow 3 tablespoonfuls of LUX for each gallon of water, which should be near the boiling point. Put the woollens in and stir them about with a stick. Then let them soak until the solution is cool enough for you to squeeze the woollens with the hands—when the dirt will run out. Then rinse in 2 or 3 relays of tepid water and hang to dry.

Directions for Employers

Who Purpose Claiming Exemption for Class One Men in Their Employ

THE following course is recommended for employers who have in their employ any number of men—bachelors and widowers without children (not otherwise excepted) who were 20 years old on the 13th October, 1917, and whose 34th birthday did not occur before Jan. 1st, 1917, and who propose claiming exemption for any of these men, to continue in work which is deemed to be in the National interest:

First, it will simplify matters for you and for the exemption tribunals if you instruct Class One men in your employ to go up for medical examination at the nearest Medical Board Centre.

Only Class One men, who upon medical examination are placed in Category A are liable for immediate service under the Act. Class One men placed in Categories B, C or E satisfy immediate requirements if they attach their medical report to their claim for exemption.

Employer's Statement and Schedule

Second, prepare a full statement of the total number of your employees grouping them according to their respective occupations and qualifications and stating the number in each group. Indicate the possibility or otherwise of replacing the labour of Class One men with the labour of those unavailable for military service, or outside the statutory class called up; the extent to which the withdrawal of men in the statutory class would affect the business, the reason for considering that the carrying on of the business is in the National interest, and such other facts and circumstances as may appear to be relevant.

Append to this general statement and classification, a schedule of the names, ages and occupations of all men in Class One, indicating as to those who have been medically examined, the medical Category in which they have been placed, noting against each name whether or not you propose to claim exemption on behalf of the man.

Where exemption is claimed employer should state his opinion whether such exemption should be conditional on the man's continuing to follow his present occupation and whether it would suffice if exemption were granted for one, two or more months, as the case may be.

A copy of both statement and schedule should be prepared for each man for whom the employer is applying for exemption.

Forms for Exemption

These forms may be obtained on request from any Post Master, who will transmit the forms when filled in, to the Registrar.

Claims for exemption must be made not later than November 10th.

 coming and poverty has been pleaded as the reason. Since this reason apparently still holds good what may we look for through making a foolish contract at the present, with admittedly poverty-stricken company?

A few years ago local "interests", which all old timers will remember, invested in a brick plant on the Kayex river, which was partially blocked by the construction of a railway bridge across it. These "interests" appealed to the Railway Commission for relief, with the result that a "lift bridge" was built at this point, although I understand that to this day not a brick has been shipped, and that the "lift" has never been used except as a trial. If this dormant brick plant was worth the construction of a "lift bridge" over the Kayex, how much more may we not look for, as citizens, for the improvement of Cow Bay, with all its possibilities, as shelter, industrial sites and the like, convenient alike to all parts of the city.

Sir, if I have not been brief in this it is because I am desperately in earnest regarding a matter that apparently is to become an issue of the municipal election campaign, and if it does I trust that fisherman, merchant, professional man, or whoever the elector may be, will insist on a public declaration from all candidates for office on this matter and no "hedging" be permitted any of them. It is a matter of no small concern to the future of this city and a matter that should not be permitted to slip away from the city without mature consideration.

Here may it be stated that perhaps is a reason why the number of aldermen should not be reduced from eight to four, since apparently some of our present eight are sufficiently willing to part with Cow Bay to move a resolution to that end. If this should be the means of setting the people thinking I shall feel well rewarded, and your paper will have fulfilled one of the duties of a newspaper, and I trust that since you have asked the question you will not delay in publishing what I consider to be in part, at least, an answer.

Yours very truly,
 M. M. STEPHENS.
