CANUCKS PUSH HUNS FROM PASCHENDAELE

ITALIANS RETIRE TO A SHORTER LINE--SIR WILFRID LAURIER ISSUES MANIFESTO

CANADIANS ARE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PASCHENDAELE RIDGE

CAPTURE ENEMY DEFENCES WHICH THEY WERE TO HOLD AT ALL COSTS--ITALIANS TAKE UP A NEW LINE AND ABANDON PART OF TAGLIAMENTO RIVER--RUSSIA DOING UTMOST TO CARRY ON

London, Nov. 7.—Yesterday the Canadian troops operated with complete success against the defences of the Paschendaele Ridge. This position which is the last of the high ground remaining in the hands of the enemy, his divisions were instructed to hold at all costs. The attack of the Canadians was too much for the Boche and the villages of Paschendaele, Messelmarkt and Goeborg are now in our hands, along with a considerable number of prisoners. A correspondent reports that the Canadian lines are now over a hundred yards beyond Paschendaele this morning.

French Front.

Paris, Nov. 7.—Along the entire front at Chaume Wood, violent artillery action is reported.

Italian Front.

Rome, Nov. 7.—In making a new line, the Italians have abandoned territory. General Cadorna has given up the entire line of the Tagliamento river from the valley of the Fella to the head of the Adriatic Sea. The retreat extends over a front of one hundred and sixty miles on the plain of Venetia. The new line of defence is much shorter. The enemy is still exerting considerable pressure, particularly in the northern part, where the mountain regions are in his possession.

Russia Has Not Quit.

Petrograd, Nov. 7.—Kerensky says that Russia is still doing her utmost to carry on the war, and will continue to do so. The soldiers and Workmen's Council have requested the Petrograd garrison to disregard any orders which are not approved of by their council.

THE VICTORY LOAN

There was an enthusiastic meeting held in the city hall last evening to make arrangements for popularizing locally the Victory Loan. It was finally decided that Mayor McCaffery appoint a committee to deal with the matter.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Prisoners of War Branch of the Red Cross Society have four prisoners under their care. Parcels of food to each man cost $15 per month. The Friday sales of home-cooking are now being held for this object.

As the Red Cross tent on Third Avenue is at present being overhauled and fixed up properly to withstand the winter weather, the sale of home-cooking this week will be held in the supply rooms, the same as last week, and will be in charge of Miss Young and Miss Du Vernet.

A meeting to discuss sewing for the soldiers, in addition to knitting, will be held at the residence of the Vice-President, Mrs. R. L. McIntosh, 310 Fourth Avenue W., on Tuesday next at 3 p.m. All ladies interested in this work will be very welcome.

The sale of home-cooking last Friday realized the sum of $79.20. The particulars of the drawings are as follows: Mrs. Hart presented a tin of honey which was won by Mrs. Healey; Mr. F. W. Peters, a box of apples won by Mrs. Potter; Provincial Government, a sack of potatoes, won by Mrs. Cornish; Mrs. Clements a worked cushion won by Mr. Willett; Mrs. Willisroft (Georgetown), a lace yoke won by Mrs. Hart; Miss Mitchell hand-knit socks won by Mr. Vance.

The thanks of the society are due to Mr. Paul Nelson for his attention to the supply rooms, and to Mrs. Willisroft of Georgetown for plants and fancy work for the sale.

The daughters of the Empire, Chapter Hill 60, will hold a sale of work on Saturday, December 8, 1917.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER OUTLINES HIS POLICY

First Duty to Find Men, Money and Resources Necessary to support Soldiers.

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—In the manifesto issued by Sir Wilfrid Laurier today defining his position and outlining his policy, he says that his first duty would be "to find the men, money and resources necessary to ensure the fullest measure of support of our heroic soldiers at the front and to enable Canada to continue to the very end to do her part to win the war. A fundamental objection to the government's policy of conscription is that it conscripts human life only and that it does not attempt to conscript wealth, resources or the services of any persons other than those who come within the age limit, prescribed by the Military Service Act."

Stop Profiteering.

The manifesto proceeds: "One of the most important contributions toward winning the war is to put a stop to profiteering on war supplies. The government has deliberately encouraged profiteering for the benefit of its partisan followers. A first duty of my administration would be to ensure to the country, which pays for war supplies, the excess of profits being realized by profiteers. If necessary, Sir Wilfrid continues, he would not hesitate to take control of factories engaged in the supply of war materials. Suitable government shops also, Sir Wilfrid believes, should be turned to the production of war materials at cost prices.

He declares of the War Times Election Act, passed last session, that "it is a blot upon every instinct of justice," and holds the view that the Canadian Northern purchase should be adjudicated upon by the new parliament.

Concrete Proposals.

"The government as recently reconstructed, the Union Government, so-called, is now appealing to the country for support.

"Six members of the Liberal party, some of them close personal friends, have consented to become members of the government and the programme which they intend to follow has already been placed before the public, but in this programme not a trace is to be found that the Liberal members of the government have succeeded in influencing their colleagues to the adoption of measures which they deemed essential not only to win the war but for the welfare of the country at all times.

"It was natural to expect that the reconstructed government would give serious thought to the situation of the country, which is admittedly critical. There is no allusion to it except the vague promise of 'effective measure to prevent excessive profits, to prohibit hoardings, and to prevent combinations for the increase of prices, and thus reduce the high cost of living.' The economic problems have to be grappled with at once in no vague general terms, but in vigorous and concrete proposals.

"The prices of all commodities have been steadily rising since the beginning of the war. The daily provisioning of the family table is from day to day becoming a more and more alarming problem for all classes of wage-earners and for all people of small and of even moderate incomes. It is no answer to say that this is a natural consequence of the war. The remedies are at hand and I at once set down the policy.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER

The statesman in Canada who believes in constitutional methods and in trusting the people.

Tariff Reforms.

"No measure to reduce the cost of living can be effective until the tariff is reformed, and its pressure removed from those commodities in which there are 'excessive profits,' 'hoardings,' and 'combinations for the increase of prices.' Of this obvious fundamental reform there is not a word in the government manifesto. Indeed, members of the present government have announced that all questions of tariff legislation must be relegated to after the war.

The manifesto deals with the tariff as being one of the chief factors in the high cost of living, which it would be the duty of his administration to reduce.

Military Service.

Sir Wilfrid pledges himself to submit the Military Service Act to the people and to carry out the wishes of the majority of the nation as thus expressed.

"I would, at the same time, organize and carry out a strong appeal for volunteers. It is a fact that can not be denied, that the voluntary system, especially in Quebec, did not get a fair trial, and a fair trial would receive from a generous people a ready response which would eliminate from our political life one of its most harrowing problems as no loyal Canadian can view without the greatest apprehension a disunited Canada at this critical hour of our history.

"To these views it is no answer to say, as is now often said, that we must have conscription or 'quit.' This statement is falsified by a recent and conclusive example. Australia rejected conscription and Australia did not quit. Australia is still in the fight under the voluntary system."

HUNS GET THEIR FIRST AMERICAN PRISONERS

Germans Raid Trenches Held by United States Troops and Capture Twelve.

Washington, Nov. 6.—American troops of the American expeditionary forces have experienced their first real clash with the enemy.

In the early dawn of Saturday a German raiding party swept over the parapets of a trench occupied by an American company, and after a brief hand-to-hand encounter retired to their own earthworks. General Pershing's first despatch announced at the war office department reported that three Americans were killed, five wounded and twelve captured in the engagement.

The principal point, war department officials say, is that all Germany now knows Americans are in the front line trenches—a fact that Germany has been trying to keep secret. The German attitude is indicated by her succinct statement that "North Americans" were prisoners, not specifying that they were the first captures of Pershing's men.

Having located some of the American forces, officials believe the crown prince, whose army is opposite the point where the Saturday skirmish took place, may attempt to stage a spectacular attack in this sector.

SOME OF THE ISSUES OF THE COMING ELECTION

Brockville, Nov. 5.—That conscription was introduced as a measure by Premier Borden to disrupt the Liberals in Canada, that he is against such wholesale profiteering as has been rampant throughout the Dominion since the war broke out, and that he is a follower of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, were some of the chief points enunciated by Arthur C. Hardy, Liberal candidate for Brockville and Leeds in the forthcoming Dominion election, at the opening of the Liberal Club rooms. It was Mr. Hardy's maiden speech on political issues.

HON. G. P. GRAHAM RETIRES FROM SOUTH RENFREW

Brockville, Nov. 5.—Although pressed by the Liberals of South Rensfrew to again be their candidate, Hon. G. P. Graham has announced his retirement from that constituency, in a letter to the president of the Liberal Association, J. E. Thompson of Arnprior. He has represented the riding for a much longer period than that anticipated when he replaced Mr. Thos. Low, the sitting member, who so generously retired in his favor. The riding is strongly Liberal at the present time, and whoever is chosen can easily be elected.

BIBLE IN SCHOOLS TO BE ISSUE AGAIN

Nanaimo, B. C., Nov. 6.—A question of fundamental importance in the educational system of British Columbia will be before the School Trustees' Convention, which opens its sittings here tomorrow. Resolutions are on the order paper asking for an amendment of Section 3 of the School Act, which defines the non-sectarian character of the provincial schools, in order to have the Bible introduced into the schools and to be made a text book for study. In addition to the resolutions from boards, the executive puts it at the head of the list of subjects committed to the convention for an expression of opinion.

GREAT HEROISM OF RETREATING ITALIANS

Overwhelmed on Isonzo During a Dense Fog, Italian Troops Fight Gallantly.

Milan, Nov. 5.—Thrilling incidents are narrated of the titanic fight that rages around the Isonzo. Austrian troops have been raked together for a supreme endeavor, with the co-operation of the German allies. Separate but simultaneous thrusts made by the enemy at points between Plezzo Hollow and St. Gabriele were favored by dense fog, and the assailants managed to advance right up to the barbed-wire defences before they were discovered.

Three converging columns, composed exclusively of Germans, swooped down upon Caporetto and then upon Lucio, where, during a bloody fray, the village changed hands eight times over. The Italian gunners kept the invaders at bay a couple of hours and then leaped back into the trenches to sustain the battalions which, under overwhelming pressure, had been obliged to fall back from the banks of the Isonzo with heavy losses. By these tactics the Germans were finally repulsed and the guns saved.

As on Friday, the Germans showed no signs of activity in that sector. The commanding general ordered a strong cavalry reconnaissance, he himself following in their rear in a motor car. Arriving at a sharp bend in the road near Idersko, they found themselves faced with a swiftly oncoming corps of German motorcyclists with mitrailleuses affixed to their machines. The latter forthwith opened a withering fire, which caused the horses to stampede.

Horsemen Regain Lines.
The general hardly had ordered a retirement, when his car was struck and he was severely wounded. The few surviving horsemen, seizing their stricken leader, succeeded in regaining their lines.

The Austrian column, issuing at Tolmino, scaled the summit of Globocak, but later were dislodged by the Fifth Bersaglieri Brigade, whose gallantry not only saved the big batteries, but made possible the orderly evacuation of the Bainsizza tableland.

These sorely-trying troops, after withstanding a destructive bombardment for more than one hour and fifty minutes, drove back in furious counter attack a foe five times more numerous, and capturing 700 prisoners.

Despite a dearth of roads in that recently occupied region, all guns were got away safely, and the invaders held in check until Saturday morning at dawn.

The latest tidings are far from reassuring.

COW BAY

In the discussions which have occurred over the filling in of Cow Bay and in the correspondence which has been published, one thing that is very noticeable is the oneness of the arguments used in connection with the matter. There are usually two sides to every question, and in the merits of a public question it is always better to have a due regard for both sides. The question of the filling up or not of Cow Bay resolves itself into part of a larger question, which is the development of Prince Rupert as a seaport, and the terminal city of the National Transcontinental Railway. That development had hardly yet started, and there are still many fills to be made in various parts of the city before it will be ready for business on the scale which the citizens look for. In considering the matter of Cow Bay, some consideration should be given to the future of the city.

Cow Bay is situated in the business section. On the map of the city it is laid out as warehouse sites. It forms part of Block F, which belongs to the Provincial Government, and it must have been their intention from the beginning that it would be filled in as some of their lots are shown right into what is now water.

In the meantime, Cow Bay is undoubtedly being used for the building of boats, and is the only place centrally situated where a small boat can be beached for repairs between tides. But its usefulness in this direction is limited by its size. As a place of shelter on a stormy day, perhaps too much emphasis has been placed upon this aspect of the case. The experience of some of the men who tie up there is proof. The building and repairs of small boats, and its being a place of shelter seem to be the most strident arguments put up for Cow Bay. If these considerations weigh more in the balance than the value of the ground as warehouse sites, and the development of the shipping facilities of the port of Prince Rupert, then by all means let Cow Bay be kept open. On the other hand, the development of the port and of the G. T. P. go hand in hand. The fortunes of Prince Rupert and the G. T. P. are intertwined. The intention of the G. T. P. is said to be the removal of their present shops and repair plant to that stretch between Cow Bay and Hays Creey, where the plant can be extended, and where the benefits of the present machine shop can be derived. Even right now the present yardage is insufficient. As the city grows, more trackage will be required and warehouse sites will be in demand. If this is more necessary to the welfare of the city, Cow Bay will be filled in eventually, if not now. The sheer-legs at the drydock are capable of a heavier lift than any on the coast, and shipping facilities will have to be improved at Hays Creek.

There are many other considerations which ought to be borne in mind in discussing this matter, if the correct decision is to be arrived at. What should be done is the best considering everything. So let everything be considered.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

If the Westholme Theatre people would change the view on their curtain to show what the waterfront in front of Cow Bay would be like after it is filled in, if ever it is, quite a number of their patrons would be interested. The city coal bunkers would have to have a place.

There has been something peculiarly exasperating in the weather lately. Telegraph lines have been up and down and up and down for the past ten days, but chiefly down. That's the chief reason for the scarcity of war news. We are hoping for the day when all telegraphy will be wireless.

Notwithstanding the stand of the Italians on the Tagliamento River, the Germans have apparently succeeded in effecting a crossing. Hard on the Italians! But the Germans themselves

“Bring Up The Massed Battalions of Finance”

“To defeat the German I want you (representing investors of all classes) to bring up the massed battalions of finance—to bring up your reserves and simply smother the Hun with all arms—big guns and small—hundreds of subscriptions of a million dollars and millions of subscriptions of a hundred dollars.”

Lord Northcliffe—before the Convention of the American Bankers' Association.

When Lord Northcliffe urged those financiers to bring up their massed battalions of finance it was no empty, high-sounding request. It was a dead-in-earnest injunction. Because, Money is the fundamental basis of every weapon of defence and offense, and there is no substitute for it.

It costs one million dollars a day to feed, clothe, shelter, transport and munition the Canadian army, and this cost will increase.

But in addition to raising money to maintain our army, we must also raise money to extend credit to Great Britain, because she can now buy, on this side of the Atlantic, only to the extent to which she can obtain dollar credits.

Canada needs, and must have, Britain's trade; our whole agricultural and industrial prosperity depends upon it. In order to get this trade, we must give the credit.

These, then, are the two great reasons why it is so imperative to make Canada's Victory Loan an overwhelming success, and why every man and woman who can should buy Canada's Victory Bonds.

IN THE LETTER BOX

So That the People May Know.

Dear Mr. Editor:—As introducer of the proposed bylaw to reduce the number of aldermen for the city of Prince Rupert, I consider it only fair to set forth to the electors how this bylaw was defeated while in committee of the whole.

The clause providing for a reduction in the number of aldermen from eight to four was under consideration and a motion to adopt said clause was duly made, whereupon Ald. Montgomery offered an amendment to strike the number four out of the clause, which in itself would annul the bylaw. It was thus contrary to the motion, not an amendment, and should have been rejected. However, the chairman, Ald. McClymont, entertained the "amendment." Ald. Casey offered an amendment to the amendment to substitute 6 for 4, and this was in order as an amendment. This last amendment was voted down, whereupon the chairman proceeded to call for a vote on Ald. Montgomery's so-called amendment. Two votes were cast in favor of it, and in calling for the negative votes, two were cast against it, the other aldermen not voting. Ald. Montgomery took the view that those who did not cast their vote were to be considered as being in favor of his amendment, and it was consequently declared carried.

The chairman then proceeded to put the original motion and called for the vote in favor of same. Two votes were cast. Without calling for the negative vote on this motion, Ald. McClymont declared the motion lost.

That the whole proceeding in connection with this so-called amendment was irregular and entirely out of order is shown by the following, taken from a "Manual of Parliamentary Practice":

"The term 'amendment' is in strictness applicable only to those changes of a proposition, by which it is improved, that is, rendered more effectual for the purpose which it has in view, or made to express more clearly and definitely the sense which it is intended to express."

From the above it will be clearly seen that the means adopted by the majority of the council for the purpose of suppressing this bylaw from the people at the

LUX

An exquisite "newness" for all woollens

Somehow, with ordinary washing, one always thinks of woollen garments coming out of the wash a little worse off than when they went in.

Far otherwise when you let LUX wash them. They come out of the wash with a soft, fleecy "new" feeling, as well as being absolutely clean—quite unshrunk, and quite unthickened.

How is it done? Allow 3 tablespoonfuls of LUX for each gallon of water, which should be near the boiling point. Put the woollens in and stir them about with a stick. Then let them soak until the solution is cool enough for you to squeeze the woollens with the hands—when the dirt will run out. Then rinse in 2 or 3 relays of tepid water and hang to dry.

CANADA

Will Class One Provide The One Hundred Thousand Men?

It will be greatly to the advantage of Canada if the entire quota of 100,000 men to be raised under the Military Service Act can be secured from the first class; that is, from the men between the ages of 20 and 34 who were unmarried or widowers without children on July 6th, 1917.

This is almost self-evident for the following reasons:

It is admitted that, between the ages of 20 and 34, the average man is at the height of his physical strength and is most adaptable to the change of conditions from civilian life; the military Service of unmarried men and widowers without children would occasion less distress than that of most others, since they are largely without dependents. Also, it would entail less financial burden for Canada, through separation allowances, etc.

Authorities estimate that, after all proper examinations have been allowed, Canada should be able to produce from the first class 100,000 men fit for service, so the drain upon the man power of the country will not be severe.

Members of Class One will be well advised to present themselves for examination immediately to the Medical Board in their district. Upon examination as to their physical fitness, they will be placed in one of the following categories:

- Category A—if fit for service in overseas fighting units.
- Category B—if fit for service overseas in Army Medical Corps, Forestry Battalion, etc.
- Category C—if fit for service in Canada only.
- Category E—if unfit for military service of any nature.

If not placed in category A, the applicant will know that he is not liable for immediate service, but will go to the Post Office and send in a claim for exemption with his Medical Certificate attached, when he will receive in due course a certificate of exemption until those in his medical category are summoned for service.

Where a man, who is placed in category A, feels that exemption should be allowed, an application form can be secured from the postmaster. This form, when filled in, will be forwarded by the postmaster to the registrar of the district, and the applicant will be informed by mail as to the time and place for the consideration of his application by the Exemption Board.

Tonight at the Westholme Theatre the photoplay to be displayed is entitled "A Kentucky Cinderella." This is one of the Bluebird productions, which are the last word in picture perfection. The players are high-class artists, and the play is a good one, and the audience should have something of a very pleasing nature. There will also be a Universal Gazette and a fine comedy.

IN MEMORIAM

COLLIER.—In loving memory of our dear son, James Arthur Collier, (629,975), bandsman, 47th Battalion, Canadians, who gave his life for his King and Empire November 7th, 1916, somewhere in France, aged 22 years and 6 months.

Just one year has passed away
 Since our great sorrow fell;
 And in our hearts we mourn the loss
 Of one we loved so well.
 For many years our family chain
 Was fondly linked together;
 But, oh, that chain is broken now
 One link is gone forever.
 Tho' he sleeps beside his comrades
 In a hero's grave unknown,
 His name is writ in words of love
 On the hearts he's left at home.
 Inserted by his sorrowing father, mother and sisters.

SINN FEINERS START FOOD CONTROL BOARD

London, Nov. 5.—The Sinn Fein organization, according to The London Morning Post, has started a food control department in Ireland independent of the Government. The newspaper prints the text of a circular, which it says is being distributed widely, asking priests to help in making an inventory of the food stocks as an initial step toward "retaining in Ireland sufficient food for the entire population and arranging to have it available for distribution whenever famine is to be dreaded." The circular describes the danger of shortage to the excessive exportation of Irish food products, the consumption by the large garrisons there and the submarine menace. It declares a wish to prevent a repetition of the calamity of 1887.

Women Know More Than The Scientific Men

PACIFIC MILK is the cheapest milk there is to be used in cooking. It's been proved. First scientists tested it. You know how they do things. They proved it to be unusually rich and absolutely pure. Scientific cooks took it in hand and tried it in their ways, and sent in the results in glowing but scientific terms. They proved that if measured correctly and everything else weighed it was very inexpensive as compared with fresh milk or with all the other samples submitted. But it remained for our young lady "investigators" to prove that the women themselves had put all the scientific demonstrations in the shade as far as knowing how to use it in cooking so as to make good cakes and things for very little money. Have you tried PACIFIC MILK in your cooking?
