INVASION OF ITALY DEFINITELY STOPPED

ANOTHER HINDENBURG LINE -- FIERCE FIGHTING FOR CAMBRAI --- CITY SHELLED

TEUTONS DIG IN ON THE TAGLIAMETO FOR THE WINTER

The Invasion of Italy Definitely Checked—Italian Civilians Forced to Work on German Trenches.

(Special to The Daily News.)
Rome, Nov. 30.—Hindenburg's invasion of Italy has been definitely checked, and the Teuton troops are now digging in on the line of the Tagliamento river for the winter. The civilian population of that part of Italy now under German domination, without distinction of sex or age, are being forced to work on the entrenchments by the Austro-Germans.

In Albania, the enemy attacks at the confluence of the Rivers Susica and Voyusa made early yesterday morning, were repulsed with heavy losses. It has been learned from German prisoners that Hindenburg is the presiding genius of the Austro-German drive into Italy. Having failed to sweep over the plains of Venetia, he is establishing another Hindenburg line on the Tagliamento River.

German Foreign Policy.
Berlin, Nov. 30.—The Reichstag will reassemble this afternoon. Von Hertling's speech will deal with the foreign and domestic policy of the nation, and will be given a vote of confidence by the coalition parties.

ARTILLERY IS SHELLING CITY OF CAMBRAI NOW

Furious Fighting for Possession of Bourlon Wood, Which Dominates Approach to Cambrai.

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, Nov. 30.—On the Bourlon-Fontain Noire Dame line, the British and the Germans continue in a desperate struggle. The British advance eastwards in the direction of Cambrai is being slowly and methodically pushed forward, and the Germans are attempting to hold them up by strong counter attacks. Positions along this line have changed hands repeatedly in the furious fighting and all the German efforts to gain the dominating elevation of the Bourlon Wood have failed. Elsewhere along the western front, there is strong artillery activity. Berlin reports that the British artillery is now shelling Cambrai.

French Front.
Paris, Nov. 30.—Artillery actions have occurred north of the Aisne, and in the region of Sapienul. In the Champagne, north of Carnillet, the enemy last night after a violent bombardment, undertook a raid in great strength.

COUNCIL OF WAR

IN FLANDERS FIELDS

An Argument for the War Loan

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place, and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the dead; short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

TRANS WILL AGAIN BE RUNNING SATURDAY

It is learned today that the line of the G. T. P. will again be open for traffic tomorrow, when the first through train for the east for two weeks will leave Prince Rupert. The embargo upon travel both freight and passenger, which has existed on the mountain division, has been lifted, and with the advent of colder weather, the trains should be able to keep to schedule. The train from the east which is due on Sunday is expected to be in at the usual time on that day.

The damage done to the track by the floods has been repaired with all speed possible, and the officials of the G. T. P. have left nothing undone in order to have the line in condition at the first possible moment. There is still a lot of work yet to be done on account of the floods, but everything consistent with the "safety first" motto of the G. T. P. has been accomplished to permit of the passing of traffic without any further danger.

LENINE THREATENS TO REPUDIATE DEBTS

(Special to The Daily News.)
Petrograd, Nov. 30.—Lenine has issued a threat to repudiate the debts contracted by the late Russian administration. He believes he has a plan to make the Allies accept his suggestions. The last vestige of support for Kerensky has now disappeared from the capital. The soldiers are leaving the fighting lines and are returning to their homes. Among the creditors of Russia, the United States figures to the extent of a hundred and sixty million dollars.

ENTHUSIASM RUNS HIGH AT FRED STORK'S MEETING

EMPERESS THEATRE FILLED LAST EVENING TO HEAR ALDERMAN GEO. B. CASEY, MR. FRED STORK, LIBERAL CANDIDATE AND MR. A. M. MANSON—CHEER FRED STORK TO THE ECHO

The Empress Theatre was filled last evening to overflowing with interested citizens who had braved the wintry weather conditions to hear Mr. Fred Stork, the Liberal candidate and his supporters. Dr. W. T. Kergin presided over the meeting, which was a most enthusiastic one. The number of ladies present was indicative of the interest which they took in matters political. In opening the meeting, the remarks of Dr. Kergin were brief and to the point. He drew attention to the changes in government which had occurred among the other free peoples in this world since the war began and which among a free people was to be looked for. He deprecated the accusations of disloyalty which had been levelled against all those who did not agree with the present government. "There is no party which is not in favor of winning the war," went on the doctor, "although there are many opinions as to the best means to be employed to that end. The first necessity is that the Dominion be placed upon a war footing, that in addition to man power being conscripted for the army, and labor for production, that the total resources of the Dominion be utilized towards the same end."

Alderman G. B. Casey was the first speaker to be called upon and he delivered a very closely reasoned speech from the working man's standpoint. He declared that the working class throughout the Dominion had taken issue with the late government on their administrative policy. Ald. Casey referred to the breach of faith of Sir Robert Borden with the Trades and Labor Congress of Canada. After promising to organized labor that there would be no conscription without their opinion being taken and ample warning given, so that the idea could be assimilated by the workers, without warning the Military Service Act was introduced.

In the matter of food control, the Borden Government had done nothing, except appoint commissions, whose chief end was joy riding. Sir Robert Borden was unable to read the signs of the times. His policy for the present was based upon the past, and from the present conditions, he was unable to formulate any policy for the future, notwithstanding the period of social change which we were passing through. On the other hand, notwithstanding his years, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's views were modern and mentally he was still a young man. His actions proved his loyalty to the country and to the people, and was in distinct contrast to certain other extreme expressions of loyalty, which often covered highhanded rascality.

With regard to the increase of the tariff imposed by the Borden Government and the Disfranchisement Act, Ald. Casey found himself at variance with the Borden Government. In the matter of the taxing of war profits, the Borden Government showed that they had one law for the poor, and another for the rich. Ald. Casey reiterated the advice of Organized Labor to vote against the Borden Government.

Mr. Fred Stork. In opening his remarks, Mr. Fred Stork, the Liberal candidate, who received a great ovation, said that for the past three years, his candidature was known. Some suggestion had been made that this seat should go by acclamation. "I agree with that," said Mr. Stork. "I believe that it is my patriotic duty to help to put the Borden Government out of business." Regarding the disenfranchising of the women this was because the Borden Government could not trust them, on account of the high cost of living. The real issue of the campaign was the record of the Borden Government. They had to give an account of their stewardship and of the manner in which they had conducted the affairs of the country. That is what the Borden Government will be judged on in this election. This of course is what they did not want, so the real issue was being belated, and the same tactics of six years ago were being used. Mr. Stork told of the manner in which the Borden Government had attained office, how the real issue of reciprocity was side-tracked of different means in different parts of the Dominion, because reciprocity which would have benefited Canada as a whole, would have affected the profits of the big interests. The same arguments of disloyalty were applied to reciprocity then as to the question of today. And yet, the intensely loyal Borden Government was compelled to put into practice these disloyal proposals only a few months ago.

Mr. Stork referred to the carnival of greed and profiteering which had gone on since the war began and instanced the scandalous things: Colonel J. Wesley Allison, trench shovels, spavined army horses, binoculars, etc., and the C. N. R. steal. Even the Toronto Saturday Night had said that the Borden Government was the worst that had ever sat in Ottawa. Even at the Winnipeg Convention, Premier Sifton of Alberta, now a member of the Union Government, accused Borden of gross incompetence and inefficiency. But to escape judgment upon their record, they had dragged in something new to keep the people talking, which was the Military Service Act. This was alleged to be for the purpose of making Quebec do her duty. That province was held up to the rest of Canada as the slacker. The Hon. Mr. Crothers said that had Quebec done her duty, the Military Service Act would not have been necessary. The emergency of time was pleaded as a reason why this new question could not be put to the people. Men were wanted and wanted at once. Yet the bill took 103 days to pass the House, while the C. N. R. bill for the purchase of worthless stock which might cost $10,000,000 was put through in 29 days. Mr. Stork questioned the sincerity of the Borden Government with regard to this bill, because on the other hand, Deputy Speaker Rainville, a member of the Government, assured the people of Quebec that the Military Service Act did not

FOR THE PEOPLE

In a recent issue of the Toronto Saturday Night, which is regarded as being independent and impartial among Canadian newspapers, in its judgments, it discusses the retention of the chairmanship of the Munitions Board by Sir Joseph Flavelle after the publication of the report by the Cost of Living Commissioner upon profits. In Great Britain, where Canada found the model for her parliamentary system and procedure, the Saturday Night does not think that Sir Joseph would have retained his high position for five minutes after that report came out. If Sir Joseph did not possess the grace to resign voluntarily, his resignation would have been demanded.

Here in Canada, where public opinion is equally tender, although not so powerful—yet—Sir Joseph pursues the even tenor of his course. The people of Canada are wondering why. They have demanded that the man who has no qualms in taking for his own personal profit in three years the sum of $1,384,000 be removed. They have yet to learn whether the Borden Union Government have requested the gentleman to leave. Even if they did so, Sir Joseph has evidently refused. Even the so-called Union Cabinet formed after the dissolution of the last parliament has failed to make any impression upon Sir Joseph. The fact of his not having been fired is evidently because the Union Cabinet headed by Sir Robert Borden can't fire him, Sir Joseph is too strongly entrenched. And all the time, the people of the Dominion have still got to pay tribute to Sir Joseph every time they eat bacon.

At the outbreak of the war, when profits were still moderate, Sir Joseph gave his fellow business men a motto to live up to, which was "To hell with profits." But for Sir Joseph's single self, three years afterwards, during which time profits had increased largely, the chairman of the Munitions Board alleges that he had "no qualms" notwithstanding his previous utterance, in taking for his own use $1,384,000.

Prince Rupert people in particular have a special reason for seeing the last of Sir Joseph in the Munitions Board. He is the man who had the power to have orders placed with the drydock plant here for the manufacture of munitions and war material, and for shipbuilding. Sir Joseph evidently wanted to make the "curse" under which Prince Rupert is laboring just a little bit more effective. Rather than give any business to this plant here, to enable the Dominion and the Empire have some return for the $2,000,000 investment, Sir Joseph preferred to see new machine shops, foundries and shipyards established in other cities on the Pacific coast. From the disposition which Sir Joseph has shown in the past, so long as he is head of the Munitions Board, it is hardly likely that anything will come from him to Prince Rupert.

Money wins the war, and here is money's worth lying to hand, which the Munitions Board and the Borden Government have done nothing to use. To build the drydock now, at present prices would take quite a slice out of the Victory Loan, yet the Government passes it up.

The voters in Northern B.C. will have to see to it that a Government is returned to Ottawa which will do its bit in Prince Rupert to win the war. The Borden Government has consistently declined to do this. Laurier set Prince Rupert agoing and it needs Laurier to keep it agoing. We have had six years' experience of what Borden has done, and that is—nothing!

The voters will remember on election day that Fred Stork stands for the progress of Prince Rupert, for the full resources of the Dominion being utilized in the winning of the war—and these resources include the drydock plant.

apply to them. "You may safely present you, unmarried sons to the tribunals," he said. And the Hon. Mr. Grerar told the farmers of Ontario that the act did not apply to them. Who did it apply to then?

Yet the Act is law. Sir Wilfrid Laurier accepted it as such and advised his people to obey the law. "The Military Service Act is law," said Mr. Stork, "and it must stand, but for the raising of any further numbers of men, I would vote that wealth and resources be added, and that the whole question be put to the people. The people of Canada will bear all the sacrifices necessary, so long as they are fair and equitable. Laurier's first duty is to provide the men, so that the war will be brought to a successful conclusion. Some people will say that Canada will drop out of the war if Laurier is elected. Six years ago these same people said that Canada would drop out of the Empire. The guarantee of the utmost being done was Sir Wilfrid Laurier's forty years of public life. Since his election in 1896, Canada had years of united prosperity and development as never before in her history. Canada had continued prosperity and unity. Just consider the difference. During the first three years of the Borden regime, they fired 13,500 employees of the Government and appointed 25,500 partisans to take their places. If one Grit can do the work of two Tories, it is time the Grits were back. Since the Borden Government took office prices have steadily risen, and work got scarcer.

Personalities.

"I had hoped to go through this campaign without any personalities," went on Mr. Stork, "but my attention has been drawn to some things appearing in the press, to which I take exception to. When any man impales unworthy motives and criticises my actions unfairly, I have some comeback. It is now up to me to state that insinuations are not permissible with myself. I do not start this. If the mud flies, it is not my fault. It is the result of the doings of the dirtiest bunch of Tory registers ever seen in Canada.

"I have been for twenty-three years in the Canadian Militia, in Brantford, Ont., in Fernie, and in Prince Rupert. As commanding officer of the Earl Grey's Rifles, I kept the company going at no little personal expense, and efficiently. At the last inspection, our efficiency was such that Col. Roy, the inspecting officer, recommended the Earl Grey's being raised to the status of a four-company regiment. I have the official letters asking all details, after which came a letter stating that it had been decided to go no further with the organization owing to lack of funds. BE CLEAN INTERNALLY

Over 500,000 People Are Now Doing So.

For many years physicians have agreed that 95 per cent. of human ill was caused by accumulated waste in the lower intestine; that in our present way of living nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poisons from this waste circulated through the blood pulled us away down below par and were responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for internal bathing has, because of its recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor. Recently, however, the startling news, which has been covering the country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the Lower Intestine in such serious conditions of chronic ill-health as Nervous Debility and Rheumatism in this cause, also saying that these poisons are favorable to the development of Cancer and Tuberculosis (as stated in a recent article in The New York Times), has caused people to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping the Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Baths.

This enthusiastic and grateful word is to be means an exceptional one amongst the hundreds on our file:— "702 7th Ave. South, Lethbridge, Alberta, Tyrrell, Toronto. Dear Doctor Tyrrell,—After using your "J. B. L. Cascade" for four months, I feel it my duty as a thankful patient to express my enthusiasm for the great blessing it has been to me. You cannot feel too confident as I write this letter in praise of you in your great work. Words simply fail to express my thankfulness for first learning of your Cascade. Previous to using it I could not get a day without a drug of some sort, and since using it I have not, on my word of honor, swallowed one cent's worth of drugs. I spent over $300.00 in the two years previous to hearing of the "J. B. L." Would that all the young men and women I see in this town with their faces covered with horrid, unsightly pimples would use it. They would soon get rid of them, as I did. I must stop, or I will be keeping you from your work, but I could fill ten more pages of my past condition of health, also in praise of the "J. B. L." May you enjoy this life to the full. sincerely yours, William Devoy.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable—the poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her. Call and see it at Cyril H. Orme's drug store, Cor. 3rd Avenue and 6th St., Prince Rupert.

followed by the disbanding of the Earl Grey's, and finally an order for the return of the arms and equipment to Victoria, in March, 1914. On August 6, I received a telegram from the Militia Department who had evidently forgotten that the regiment had been disbanded. The telegram was addressed to Captain Alfred Stork, officer commanding and on its authority I secured the names of over one hundred men, including my own, volunteering for overseas service. After I had replied to this wire, I received another addressed to Alfred Stork, stating that the first one had been sent me in error.

"After the regiment was disbanded, I received a bill from Victoria for shortages in equipment returned. This is one thing that cannot be helped in Militia regiments, and is usually met with by a reissue. I doubt if any other officer in Canada ever received a bill of this kind. Well, the Earl Grey's were reorganized, and equipments sent up and stored in the Merryfield block at a rental of $175 per month, and $3,000 worth was burnt. Will anyone ever be called upon to pay for that? "I had hoped," continued Mr. Stork, "to go through this campaign without any mud slinging, but the gauge of the battle rests entirely with the man who penned these columns in today's paper. If that's what they want, let them come along with it. It will require more ability to defend some of these Tory regiment wreckers to keep them out of the penitentiary than to write articles of this kind. I have the evidence. If that is what these people want, there is plenty for them to get. "The first duty towards winning the war is to put Borden and his profiteering and grafting friends out of business," concluded Mr. Stork. "Laurier will go further, to make Canada do its share in the winning of the war by organizing Canada on a war basis. I will support Laurier. I am the Union Candidate; the right kind of Union—the Union of progressive forces of Labor and Liberalism." Mr. Alex. Manson, M. P. P. The last speaker of the evening was Mr. Alex. Manson, M.P.P., who delivered a sparkling speech. He said that the issue had been restricted by the Borden Government to our feeling towards the war. Insinuations of disloyalty had been made regarding those who disagreed with the Borden policies, even regarding Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself. On the issues raised by the food situation and the manufacture of war material, the Borden Government had not so much to say. Sir Wilfrid's plan was constructive. His proposals were concrete and were for the benefit of the people of Canada as a whole, and were not framed for the immediate benefit of the profiteers and the big interests. Mr. Manson scored the ultra patriots who claimed a monopoly in loyalty, for the Borden Unionists. What about Corporal Raymond Leighton? And Maxwell of West Kootenay? And Reilly of Alberta, and Reilly of Saskatchewan, and Lemieux? And Sir Allan Aylesworth? Were these sturdy Liberals disloyal? Mr. Manson quoted the real opinions of even the Tory press regarding Sir Wilfrid Laurier, expressed in their quieter and sner moments, which were altogether at variance with the insinuations of the present day. He put the alternatives plainly up to the voters, Laurier or Borden, and what they stood for, and showed the duty of the people plainly towards the Empire, Canada and Prince Rupert.

The meeting was closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

RAILWAY CO. HELPS EMPLOYEES BUY BONDS

In order to enable every employee in its service to become the possessor of a Victory Bond, the G. T. P. have made arrangements whereby their employees may purchase bonds by easy payments. The company will deduct a certain amount each month on the payroll from the employees' wages and salaries until the amount of the bond is made up. The payments are spread over the space of ten months for the employees, although the company will have the full amounts paid to the bank when due.

The importance of this bond issue both to the general public and to the Government is being impressed upon all their employees by the G. T. P., and by the arrangements they have made, it becomes within the reach of every employee to obtain a bond.

"THE BITTER TRUTH"

Virginia Pearson is the star actress in the photoplay being shown at the Westholme this evening. This is a play of New York, and of the famous Bowery. Virginia Pearson in this play takes the part of a girl of the slums who is wrongfully imprisoned for five years. She departs from jail at the end of that time vowing vengeance upon the judge who sent her there. How she works out her plan, and at the last moment the bitter truths of vengeful conduct is borne upon her and her better nature conquers. The play is a fine one all through. There is also to be shown a gazette and a comedy.

CRIMINAL ASSIZE COURT SITS TODAY

This morning at eleven o'clock the Criminal Assize Court sat to hear the cases which were upon the calendar. The grand jury was in attendance and the foreman, Mr. H. B. Rochester, intimated that it was their intention to visit the hospital, the schools and the police station, and would later make their report in writing if the court so desired.

The first case to be heard was that of John May, an Indian, accused of assaulting a police officer and with resisting arrest. Mr. L. W. Patmore defended, and the accused pleaded guilty. From the evidence it was shown that in the course of arrest upon the charge of drunkenness, the accused had resisted, while on the reservation. He had elected for a jury trial and had been in jail since August 28.

For the prosecution, it was contended that this was a dangerous character, and severe punishment should be inflicted, the more so, as he had a penknife in his hand. Mr. Patmore said that had it been any other Indian, this charge would never have been laid, but it was brought simply because he was Johnny May. The court will pronounce sentence at the close of the Assizes.

Seditious Language.

The next case was that of Eric Bruce, of Massett, Q. C. I., who was accused of uttering seditious language. Mr. Fleishman, of Vancouver, appeared for the defence. Accused pleaded not guilty. The first witness was Mrs. R. O. Davis, of Massett, who testified that when she was working in the hotel at Massett, the accused said in her hearing that he disliked the British and was in favor of Germany winning the war. Crowned heads should be beheaded and that he would get even with the English if they made him sign up. He knew the names of the Lords in England and would like to see them shot.

Mr. Harrison, of Massett, also gave evidence to the same effect.

The jury was sworn in for this case, which consisted of Messrs. Geo. Woodland, foreman; L. M. Fuller, J. C. Knight, H. Berryman, F. W. Chandler, H. Hampton, Wilfrid Kelly, R. Boyd Young, R. E. Benson, J. G. Moody, J. E. Dyer, and H. E. Lipsett.

NOTE—Only one show on Saturday from 7 to 9 p.m. Come early. 281.

When eggs get as high as they are now women set their heads working and get along as well without.

We've dozens of recipes that women have given us since they have discovered that Pacific Milk can be made to take the place of eggs in so many places.

Here's a Date Pudding.
 Rub 1/2 cup of lard into 2 cups of flour, one teaspoonful of baking powder and one cup of sugar sifted together.

Add one cup of chopped dates and pour in 1/2 cup Pacific Milk. Mix well and steam one hour.

We shall be glad to print any recipes you may send in that will help to reduce the cost of living. If they contain Pacific Milk we will send you a little surprise.
