GERMANS MAKE STRONG COUNTER ATTACKS -- HEAVY FIGHTING AT CAMBRAI

BYNG'S TROOPS AT CAMBRAI AGAIN ON THE AGGRESSIVE

GERMANS MADE DETERMINED THRUST ON FRIDAY AND HAVE BEEN DRIVEN BACK WITH TREMENDOUS LOSSES--THE BRITISH CASUALTIES ALSO NUMEROUS--FIFTEEN ENEMY AEROPLANES DOWNED

(Special to The Daily News.)
London, December 3.—General Byng's troops in Cambrai salient in Northern France were again on the aggressive on Saturday attacking the Germans, who in a most determined thrust the day previous along virtually the entire eighteen mile front had thrown the British back from a few advanced positions they had captured in their recent drive. The result of Saturday's offensive is that the Germans are driven back from much of the lost ground.

Blew up Guns.
Berlin claims that the German forces have taken four thousand British prisoners. The British report that they blew up a number of their guns which were in danger of falling into the hands of the enemy, but there is no admission of any retrograde movement elsewhere. The British War Office has not intimated any retreat although Berlin claims to have thrown back the British on Graincourt, Anieux and Cantaing along the northern side of the salient. The German losses in their massed attacks are reported to be extremely heavy. General Byng's forces have also suffered considerable casualties in repelling the assaults and in their vigorous counter attacks.

Aerial Activity.
Yesterday our scout patrols fired more than fifteen hundred rounds from their machine guns on enemy troops and transports on a road behind the fighting line. Fifteen hostile aeroplanes were brought down and three others driven down out of control. Seven of our machines are missing.

French Front.
Paris, Dec. 3.—The German drive on the Western front resumed the offensive around Verdun without gain. The assault came after vigorously increased artillery firing on the right bank of the Meuse around Beaumont Lachaux Wood.

Troops Switched.
Rome, Dec. 3.—Austrian prisoners who have been captured by the Italians declare they recently came from the Russian front.

WHAT THE VOTERS HAVE TO CONSIDER

The piffle and twaddle "queries" of Peck's committee in the Empire on Saturday evening shows the hopelessness of their position. They have no real arguments.

Sir Wilfrid stands for lower tariff between Canada and the United States. Borden favors high tariff. Just think! That pair of shoes you are wearing can be bought two dollars cheaper in the United States than here. You may say, "well, the government may as well tax us that way as another." But the government does not get that two dollars, because we don't buy American shoes exclusively, so that the $2 goes into the pockets of the Canadian manufacturer; men like H. B. Ames, who put the paper in the soldiers' boots. Laurier would knock that duty down. You and I would be buying our shoes $2 cheaper and no one any worse off, but the big fat manufacturer, who is now waving the flag and trying to elect the Borden Union Government.

The gang that disbanded the Earl Grey's Rifles are the ones who are trying to defeat Stork at any price. Have the people forgotten that Stork received the first orders from Ottawa to call for recruits when war broke out. But the men who are now waving the flag had that order revoked after Stork had enlisted over a hundred men, and was himself among them and prepared to lead them to France. The men who are calling for Union today didn't want any Liberals to assist in the fight at the beginning of the war, especially when it came to officers. Fellow elector, are you going to assist that gang to continue their persecution of one of Prince Rupert's best citizens. Remember Earl Grey's and let justice be done. Vote for Stork.

The Borden Government is the government who equipped our soldiers with the Oliver equipment at a cost of $375,000, only to see it discarded in England and the Webb equipment substituted.

The Borden Government is the friend of Colonel J. Wesley Allison, who they supplied with millions of Canadian money to build factories in the United States, while our drydock plant stood idle.

The Borden Government is the government that paid 300 per cent. profit to its creatures for the purchase of binoculars, and huge profits on drugs and fixed dressings for the wounded.

The Borden Government is the government which since the beginning of the war has been steeped to its eyes in partisan patronage and unlimited corruption in everything pertaining to the conduct of the war.

ALLIED WAR COUNCIL MEETS AT VERSAILLES

(Special to The Daily News.)
Versailles, Dec. 3.—The Premiers of Great Britain, France and Italy, together with Colonel House, representing the United States, met here Saturday as the Supreme Allied War Council. After taking the military situation under consideration, they were joined by Generals Wilson, Bliss, Foch and Cadorna. The Council was in session over three hours, and the American members at the conclusion of the sitting, said that much more had been accomplished than had been expected. Their deliberations had been most harmonious and satisfactory.

JOE MARTIN AGAINST UNION GOVERNMENT

(Special to The Daily News.)
Winnipeg, Dec. 3.—Joe Martin will begin his campaign on the prairie against the Union Government on December 10th at Lethbridge. He will also speak at other points on the prairies.

THE ASSIZE COURT SITS THIS MORNING

The sittings of the Assize Court was continued this morning in the court house. The first case brought up before Mr. Justice Clement was that of DeVoin vs. De Voin for an order for trial. This was fixed for Thursday. An action of divorce is raised.

The charge of manslaughter against two men, named Lolloff and Carlo, was next brought up. This is the case in which a brakeman was killed in the mine at Anxox, through the alleged carelessness of these two men, who it is said left for dinner without seeing that the track was cleared after they had fired a shot. The accused will be defended by Mr. Fleishman, a Vancouver counsel.

HOLLAND WILL FIGHT IF SHE IS ATTACKED

The Hague, Dec. 1.—Premier Van Der Linden, during the budget debate in the second Chamber yesterday, said that the Government was entirely united on its foreign policy, and would continue to exercise the strictest neutrality even should the consequences be other than hitherto thought. The Swedish Government, he added, had notified Holland that for the present it did not intend to call together envoys from neutral countries for a discussion of economic interests.

"We are shut off from the world and our rights are assailed," said Premier Van Der Linden. "If attacked, we will defend ourselves without inquiring as to the proportionate strength of ourselves and our assailants, but save in self defence we will not enter the war. We will not allow the misery and sufferings of war to befall our country. Moreover, by our neutrality we are supporting the ideal of the future—the community of peoples which shall be the repudiation of war."

Alluding to the future, the Premier expressed the view that the establishment of a league of nations was the only path to international disarmament.

RUPERT DOES WELL BY VICTORY LOAN

The total returns for the subscriptions to the Victory Loan made by the people in Prince Rupert alone, not taking into consideration the outside places, were made up on Saturday night late. For the convenience of the public the banks remained open until ten o'clock on Saturday evening to accept the first instalments from those who were unable to take out a bond earlier. The total number of subscribers through the banks was 278 for the amount of $107,550, while the canvassers accounted for 450 persons, who subscribed $74,500. This makes a total of 728 subscribers in the city of Prince Rupert or about one in every four persons. The total amount is $182,050, which averages at about $250 for each subscriber.

This may be considered as a very good result for a city such as this and the committee and the workers are to be congratulated at such a fine outcome for their labors. They certainly put in some hard work in making this loan a success and that they have got the goods is gratifying.

BIG MINING DEAL IN THE OMINECA DISTRICT

One of the biggest bonds ever given on a mining property in the north was taken by Jas. Cronin, himself a prominent mine owner in this district, on the Grandview and Emerald groups on Sweeney mountain. Mr. Cronin acted on behalf of New York capitalists.

The deal is of great importance too as the properties are in a new part of the country and is the first deal that has been made out there. When the spring opens up in 1918 there will be a great deal of activity in that section of the northern interior.

The boys who will benefit are all old timers and well known and the general public are delighted. The boys are Bill Sweeney, Roy McDonnell, George Fowler, O. J. Benson, Duncan McGibbin and Frank Madigan.

It is understood that Mr. Cronin will have charge of the development work when it starts in the spring.

The Grand View and Emerald groups consist of fourteen claims situated on the north side of Emerald lake. It is about sixty miles by road and water from the railway. The mineral possibilities of the properties concerned in this deal and of the whole district are such that the transportation problem is not of serious consequence at this time.

The surface showings on the two groups are admitted by all who have seen them to be the biggest yet discovered in the north. J. D. Galloway, the provincial mineralogist, spent most of the summer of last year in that part of the country and his report to the government is most encouraging.—Omineca Herald.

BOLSHEVIKI EXHORTS THE ARMY FOR SUPPORT

(Special to The Daily News.)
Petrograd, Dec. 3.—Ensign Krylenko, Bolsheviki commander-in-chief, in exhorting the army to support the Bolsheviki program, urged it "to mark with you condemnation the lying hypocritical proclamations of General Dukhomin and his bourgeoisie disciples, who have entrenched themselves at staff headquarters, and who for eight months have misled the Russian nation with false promises of peace."

RETURNED SOLDIERS ADDRESS BORDEN UNIONIST MEETING

IN WESTHOLME THEATRE SATURDAY NIGHT, LARGE GATHERING HEARS SPEAKERS SUPPORTING COLONEL PECK'S CANDIDATURE—MEETING GETS LIVELY—MANY INTERRUPTIONS

The Westholme Theatre was filled on Saturday evening with an interested audience to hear the speakers in support of Col. Peck's candidature at the coming Dominion election. The gathering was composed of those in favor of the Borden Union Government—and of those who were not. The feeling of the meeting was by no means unanimous.

Mr. W. G. Fulton was chairman and the speakers were Mr. Geo. Morrow, Sergeant-Major Robinson, British Columbia's first D. G. M., Mrs. Robinson, and Private McSweyne, of the 16th Battalion. On the platform also, were several returned soldiers, Mr. S. M. Newton and the Rev. Canon Rix, while the chief of the Tory Orators, Mr. O. H. Nelson, was not in evidence at all.

Mr. George Morrow was the first speaker, and he started out advising the audience not to permit politics to separate friends. Anything he had to say would be without any unfriendly spirit. Mr. Morrow did not like the term Borden Government being applied to the Union Government with Sir Robert Borden as premier. He preferred the term Union Government alone, with Sir Robert not mentioned. The Liberal members who had joined the Union Government were mentioned, and as Mr. Morrow had still to poll his first Federal vote which wasn't Liberal, he thought he was justified in following their example. Certain of the Liberal newspapers were also advocating the Borden Union Government, "except the Daily News," said Mr. Morrow truthfully. He didn't seem at all pleased with the Daily News, which nevertheless, he apparently reads carefully enough. Considering all the array against Sir Wilfrid Laurier, Mr. Morrow thought that if he should win against them, he deserved to, which sentiment was loudly applauded.

Mrs. Robinson, wife of the Sergeant-Major, spoke next "as the wife of a returned soldier and the daughter and sister of fallen heroes." Notwithstanding the balling out she gave to the men of military age, the lady received a respectful hearing. "You are afraid of your skins tonight, and that's what is wrong with you, and I am not ashamed to tell you. That is why you want Laurier in. But I assure you you will have to go, because we women will make you go. Were I a young girl, I would be ashamed to be seen with anyone not in uniform. If I had anything to do with you, I would hunt you down to the boat on your way to the front." Mrs. Robinson also commented upon the failure of the Borden Government in connection with the proper provision for soldiers' dependents, which was left for the Patriotic Fund. "The government will have to take the Patriotic Fund over," she said.

Private McSweyne of the 16th Battalion, next spoke, as representing the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada. His first remark was that he was there in the interests of no political party. His next was that if Mr. Stork had been a Unionist, he would not have been there at all. (Laughter.) "The cream of the Liberals have gone in with the cream of the Conservatives." The derisive laughter which greeted this statement brought the quick retort from the speaker that there must be some skim milk present. Amid many interjections, Private McSweyne gave his opinions regarding Sir Wilfrid Laurier and conscription. "If I had my way, I would cut out the Military Service Act. I would go to Quebec and force 100,000 French Canadians out. Mr. Stork I do not know. I have heard nothing bad about him, so there must be something good." Pte. McSweyne then intimated that if Laurier were returned, further support would be denied to the men at the front, which raised quite a commotion, amid cries of "No; no." "Read the manifesto. Here's a copy." The uproar continued for some time, causing the chairman to sign for order—his voice could not be heard. Pte. McSweyne cut short his remarks upon this subject, contenting himself with stating that he believed selective conscription a very good thing.

Sergeant-Major Robinson was the last speaker. He was a typical sergeant-major, too. Although he said he came from Ulster, he had some acquaintance with the blarney stone, which is not in that province of Ireland. "Politics," he said, "Damn politics." "I am one of these men who believe that the day of democracy has dawned. I am the first vice-president of the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada, and I come here to ask you to vote for the man whom I know." The sergeant-major made a fine recruiting speech, but hardly one that would get the Borden Union Government anywhere. He left it to the audience to vote according to their conscience.

The meeting then closed with the singing of the National Anthem.

SELF INTEREST

In its advertising campaign for the Victory Loan, in addition to the patriotic duty which, it was pointed out, was fulfilled in subscribing for these bonds, a direct appeal was made to the self interest of the people.

In this forthcoming Dominion election, the same situation exists. It is the patriotic duty of Canadians and to the self interest of the people of the district of Skeena to do their part in keeping the Borden Government from again being returned to power at Ottawa.

In the vital matter of the people's food, the Borden Government have looked on when the people were being exploited. As a sop to the public, they appointed a food controller. But no one has seen any evidence of his activities in the way of a downward trend of prices.

than anywhere else, they have food controllers, and other controllers, who live up to their names.

But the patriotic duty of the Borden Government is to do the best they can for themselves and their friends so long as they can. The last act before Parliament dissolved was to railroad through the house legal authority for their friends to loot the public treasury for as much as $10,000,000, for the worthless stock of the C. N. R.

The patriotic duty of the voters is to see to it that the Borden government, even disguised by a new name, as Unionists, do not again have an opportunity of robbing the people of Canada. And in the matter of the self interest, as well as in the interests of the city of Prince Rupert and the district, and of the Empire, it is the duty of the voters to see to it that a government returns to Ottawa who will do something to instill life into the dead plant at Hays Creek. The Borden Government has had the opportunity for the last three years of having orders placed with the drydock plant for war materials and munitions, but this they would not do. They evidently have a prejudice against any project set out by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberals.

Patriotism and self interest made an irresistible appeal to the subscribers for the Victory Loan, and these same principles are none the less effective in demanding that Sir Wilfrid Laurier be returned as Premier. Borden has done nothing for Prince Rupert. Laurier has done everything. He put it on the map, and it will require him to keep it there. Borden has not utilized the whole resources of the country for the winning of the war. That is Hard to Drop Meat?

All depends on what you eat as a substitute. It is a good time to study "food value." You may be eating the wrong foods, the foods that cost most and give the least nutriment. Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains more real, body-building nutriment, pound for pound, than meat, eggs or potatoes and costs much less. Two of these Biscuits with milk and a little fruit make a nourishing meal at a cost of a few cents. Make Shredded Wheat your "meat." A satisfying breakfast on which to start the day's work. It is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat. Made in Canada.

what Sir Wilfrid demands be done. Borden won't. Laurier will. So vote for the man who will do something.

THE SOUND OF GUNS ON THE FIRING LINE

(By Pte. Patrick MacGill)

It was early morning in mid-winter and the draft marched away from the rest-camp on the hill overlooking the sea and made its journey to the station, the men singing as they marched. The trucks were already waiting, an endless number there seemed, lined up in a siding with an engine in front and another in rear, and the notice "Hommes 40, Chevaux 20," in white lettering on every door. The night before the men had slept in a bell-tent where a man's head pointed to each seam in the canvas, but tonight it seemed that they would sleep if that were possible, in a rather more crowded place. But a much desired relief came before the train started; space wagons were shunted on and a number of men were taken from each coach and given room elsewhere. In fact when the train moved off Fred Ronan, newly out, found that only eighteen soldiers, in addition to himself, occupied the apartment. Quite enough though, when equipments, packs, rifles and bayonets, savaersacks, overcoats and sheepskin tunics were taken into account.

A bale of hay bound with wires was given to the men for bedding, and bully-beef, biscuits, bread and cheese were served out as rations. At some point on the journey it was rumored that the men would get a hot meal and a lot of rum.

At noon they set off on their journey to the trenches, a gay party that found expression for its vitality in song. The sliding doors and the windows were open and the men who were not looking out of the one were peering through the other. To a number (youths of nineteen these were) France was a new country, a place far away in peace and a favorite resort of the wealthy, but now a land that called to any man, no matter how poor, if he were strong in person and willing to give his life away if called upon to do so. But others of the draft were men who had already known war on the Somme, in Gallipoli, at Mons and a dozen other places whither the duties of their service had called them.

Rifleman Ronan, newly out on the most momentous journey of his life, felt full of a strange thrill and excitement; the curtain which surrounded his previous existence was being lifted and he stood on the threshold of great adventures and wonderful exploits.

He looked out at the cottagers who labored by their humble and saw them stand idly for a moment and watch the train go (Continued on page three.)

NOTICE

A desperate attempt is being made to begot the real issues in this campaign. Conscription and Union Government are only red herrings drawn across the trail. The real issue is the record of the Borden Government, and in this connection it would be well to

BE CLEAN INTERNALLY

Over 500,000 People Are Now Doing So.

For many years physicians have agreed that 95 per cent. of human life was ruined by accumulated waste in the Lower Intestine; that in our present way of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poisons from this waste circulated through the blood polluted us away down below far and were responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" for Internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of 25000, been steadily growing in use.

Recently, however, the startling news, which has been carrying the country, that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the Lower Intestine in such serious diseases as Tuberculosis, and attribute such conditions of chronic ill-health as Nervous Debility and Insomnia to this cause, also saying that these persons are favorable to the development of Cancer and Tuberculosis (as stated in a recent article in The New York Times), has caused people to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping the Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Baths.

This enthusiastic and grateful letter is by no means an exceptional one amongst the hundreds on our file:—
793 7th Ave. South, Lethbridge, Alberta.
Dr. Tyrrell, Toronto:

Dear Doctor Tyrrell,—After using your "J. B. L. Cascade" for four months, I feel it my duty as a thankful patient to express my enthusiasm for the great blessing it has been to me. You cannot feel my emotions as I write this letter in praise of you in your great work. Words simply fail to express my thanks for the first learning of your Cascade. Previous to using it I could not go a day without using it I could not go a day without a drug of some sort, and since using it I have not, on my word of honor, swallowed five cents' worth of drugs. I spent over $300.00 in the two years previous to learning of the "J. B. L." Would that all the young men and women I see in this world with their faces covered with pimples, or slightly pimples would use it. They would soon get rid of them, as I did. I must stop, or I will be keeping you from your work, but I could fill ten more pages of my past condition of health, also in praise of the "J. B. L." May you enjoy this letter to the full.
Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM DEMPSEY

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable—the poisonous waste makes us bilious, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

by. Now and again a woman shouted out a blessing on the soldiers, and old men seated by their doorsteps pointed towards the firing line, drew lean fingers across their throats, and yelled advice for us and imprecations upon the Boche, in hoarse voices. The soldiers understood. The old men wanted an end made of Boche powers of military aggression, and envied the soldiers the job.

The day wore on and the evening fell, dark and stormy. A cold wind swept in through chinks in window and door and chilled the compartment. A favorite song with its catching chorus died away into silence. At ten o'clock when rations had been eaten, the men undid the bale, spread out the hay on the floor of the truck and lay down, wrapping their sheepskin jackets round their bodies and placing their overcoats over their legs.

They must have been asleep for some time when they were awakened by the stopping of the train and the sound of many voices outside. They opened the door and looked out. An officer hurried by shouting loudly, calling on the men to come out for food. On a level space bordering the line a dozen or more fires were blazing merrily and dioxies containing some steaming liquid were being carried backwards and forwards. A sergeant with a lantern came to Ronan's truck and clambered inside.

"Every man got his mess-tin," he shouted. "The train's not stoppin' ere for the duration, and there's tea and rum for every man who's quick enough."

With mess-tin in hand the men lined up two deep on the six-foot way, cold but cheery. The fires by the line threw a dim light on the scene, officers walked up and down giving quick orders, and everybody was in a hurry. Many of the men were now coming back, their mess-tins already filled. Some would come to a halt opposite Rifleman Ronan, sip their rum and tea, roll it round and round in their mouths and mutter: "Its damned good this, damned good!" Ronan got his mess-tin filled and he drank, imitating the older men by rolling the stuff round and round in his mouth and wiping his lips with his hand. The tea was bracing, and a new life surged through the boy as he ran back to his truck. He lay down again and was presently asleep. He woke with a start to find a sergeant pulling at his sheepskin jacket.

"Breakfast," said the sergeant. "Show a leg or ye'll be late." Ronan went outside into a morning grey and dull to find more tea dioxies by the line and breakfast being prepared.

"Well, they don't forget us out here anyway," he muttered as he sat down to his meal.

"It's gettin' better every day," said an old soldier, one who had known Mons in defeat and the Somme in victory. "We'll soon 'ave restaurant cars runnin' up to the firin' line."

At half past four in the afternoon the draft came to a village and formed into column of route outside the railway station. Two hours' march lay ahead of them, they learned, and as they stood waiting to move off, a sound ominous and threatening rumbled in from the unknown, and quivered by their ears.

"What's that?" asked Rifleman Ronan.

"That!" said the man from Mons with a queer, twisted smile. "That is IT."

And Rifleman Ronan, newly out, knew that he was bearing the sound of guns.

POINTS OF INTEREST FOR INTENDING VOTERS

There are many points about the Dominion elections act as affected by the war time elections act and the new provisions which will be applicable to the voting in the coming elections.

The following are some points which will be of interest to the voters in the coming federal election:—

Where provincial requirements as to residence cannot be applied at the time of making the lists the residential qualifications of voters is one year in the province and thirty days in the electoral district prior to the issuance of the writ of election.

Wives, widows, mothers, sisters and daughters of persons, male or female, alive or dead, who are serving or who have served outside of Canada in any of the military forces of Canada or Great Britain or within or without Canada in any of the naval forces, excepting such female relatives of persons who have ceased service in otherwise than an honorable manner are entitled to vote. No such relatives of persons who have joined the naval forces of Canada since the passing of the war time election act on September 20, 1917, will have the vote.

Lists to be Posted.

Fifteen days before the polling day (Dec. 17) lists of the voters in each polling subdivision will be posted in said subdivision. The enumerators then sit two hours per day for ten days preceding polling day to revise the list, answer inquiries and execute transfers of votes of election officers and agents whose duties may take them away from the polling subdivision on election day. Up to five days before election the enumerator may upon the representation of any credible person add or strike off the lists any name.

There are no printed lists. On election day electors whose names are not on the lists may appear before the enumerator who sits within or near the polling place. If they are entitled to vote they are given certificates. Any person who is refused a certificate may demand and obtain a written refusal which entitles him to a ballot which is sealed in a non-velope and not counted excepting in case of a recount and then only upon proof of his right to vote. Votes of persons challenged are treated in the same manner.

There is an enumerator in each polling subdivision. Entirely new lists are being made out in Prince Rupert. The lists when completed will be posted outside the polling booths or outside the postoffice, May be Sworn.

Every person, whose name is on the list, can be sworn by candidate, agent, or elector, and if the oath is refused the voter loses the right to cast a vote in the election. The oath is:—

"You swear that you are legally qualified to vote at this election, that you are of the (male or female) sex, a British subject, resident of Canada, and of the full age of 21 years. (In case of a female voter the following is added): You do further swear that you are the (wife, widow, mother, sister or daughter as the case may be) of a person who is serving or has served without Canada in the military forces (or within or without Canada in the naval forces) of Canada or of Great Britain in the present war."

The judges of every court whose appointment rests with the governor-in-council; Persons disenfranchised for corrupt practices under the act; Criminals, lunatics, inmates of poor houses and such institutions;

Any person who has applied for exemption from military service on conscientious grounds and who has not been refused;

All Mennonites and Doukhobors excepting those who may have enlisted;

Every naturalized British subject who was born in an enemy country and naturalized subsequent to March, 1902, excepting those who have enlisted and served out of Canada in the Canadian or British armies, or in or without Canada in the navy; or have tried to enlist and been refused because medically unfit; or those who are grandparents, parents, sons, or brothers of such as who have so enlisted or tried to enlist; or those who are or have been during the present war members of the parliament of Canada of any province; or those Syrians or Armenians who are Christians; or those who are females entitled to the vote through relationship to a soldier.

Every person who has been convicted of an offense against the military service act has no vote.

There is an enumerator in each
