This will swell Canada's forces by more than a hundred and fifty thousand men. The men will be instructed to report by notice. The intention is to have as many "rookies" daily as the headquarters can handle.

WEDDING BELLS

The celebration of marriage was held last evening in the Baptist Church, the Rev. W. W. Wright officiating. The high contracting parties were Mr. J. A. McMaster and Miss Nickerson. The wedding was a quiet one, and this morning the happy couple left for the south by the Princess Sophia. They will take with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

COUNTING OF SOLDIERS' VOTE MAY BE DELAYED

Ballots Burned in Great Ottawa Quarter of a Million Dollar Fire.

Ottawa, Dec. 21.—The General Returning Officer is having a knotty point upon his hands for consideration, and which may result in the delaying of the counting of the military votes. There was a great fire in Ottawa, which did about a quarter of a million dollars' worth of damage. It burnt through the Arcade building from Queen Street to Sparks Street, and was not got under control until a great deal of damage had been done. The Arcade building was occupied by the military authorities as a base recruiting office, and the office contained at least one ballot box.

May Delay Count of Vote. The fire in the base recruiting office here may result in a delay in counting the North American military vote. So far as can be ascertained, a military ballot box was in the recruiting office safe, and there are doubts whether it is still intact.

Under the terms of the Military Voters Act, counting of military votes may be begun when all the ballot boxes issued to Deputy Presiding Officers have been returned. In the event of all ballot boxes not being returned by that date, counting will be begun on the 31st day after polling day. Hence, if one of the military boxes was destroyed by the fire, and is therefore not returnable, the counting of military votes may have to be postponed.

QUEBEC MEMBERS FOR CABINET POSITIONS

(Special to The Daily News.) Ottawa, Dec. 22.—It is thought here that French-Canadians will be represented in the Cabinet. The report is that they will have two Unionist and two Liberal members in the government.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

There was a great gathering in the Presbyterian Church Hall last evening, where there was a fine Christmas Tree looking lovely. The evening was delightfully spent amid music, tableaux, and the proper Christmas festivities, and everyone enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The programme, which was put on by the scholars of the Sunday school, was quite a remarkable one. The first part consisted of recitations, which were well rendered, the second part was a little sketch of the birth of Christ, consisting of tableaux of the Madonna and child, the angels, shepherds, and wise men, with songs appropriate. The third part consisted of choruses by the children and dancing around the tree.

Santa Claus appeared at this part and was vociferously received by the scholars. He had a great bag of good things on his shoulders, and old Santa's annual visit was as welcome as ever.

The audience enjoyed the uniqueness of the programme, the whole of which reflects great credit upon those taking part. Miss Helen Morrison was the accompanist for the evening.

GERMANY AND RUSSIA DON'T COME TO TERMS

Reported That Russian Delegates are Recalled to Petrograd as Germans Refused Their Proposals.

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Dec. 22.—It is unofficially reported that the Germans have refused to consider the peace terms proposed by the delegates of the Bolsheviki government of Russia who have been in consultation with the German delegates for several days past. The Bolsheviki government are said to have recalled their delegates to Petrograd, evidently considering it useless to have any further discussion in the matter. This decision, however, does not mean the immediate resumption of hostilities on the Russian front as, according to the terms of the armistice which has been arranged, all hostilities were to cease for the space of one month.

Permission to ex-Czar. The former Czar Nicholas and his family have been permitted to seek a haven in some other country than Russia.

Vodka Plentiful. Petrograd, Dec. 22.—Incessant fighting has occurred in many parts of Petrograd in connection with the efforts to check drunkenness among the soldiers, and to prevent them raiding the wine cellars. One distillery was raided by the mob, who carried away all the supplies they contained. Fifteen of the soldiers, however, preferred to stay with it, and drank themselves to death.

Japan and Siberia.

Washington, Dec. 22.—Japan is anxious to strike at Germany by occupying Siberia. Some of the allied diplomats are in favor of this Siberian move in view of the possibility of the Teuton domination of all the Russias. Even in the East, the American consul at Vladivostok says that there is a great need of troops at that port.

THE POLICE COURT

This morning, the liquor cases which have been dragging on for the last three weeks were again brought up before Magistrate Carrs. The five accused, who were Charles Taylor, Harry Taylor and Lulu Tuvance (colored) and Ernest Braybrook and Carl Anderson, were each sentenced to six months' imprisonment in Okalla Prison farm. They were convicted of selling liquor.

CONSCRIPTION NOT YET DECIDED IN AUSTRALIA

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Dec. 22.—A cable received from Melbourne stated that half the votes on the conscription referendum had been counted in Australia. While half a million votes had been cast in favor of conscription, there were seven hundred thousand votes cast against it.

A PROPOSAL FOR QUEBEC TO SECEDE

(Special to The Daily News.) Quebec, Dec. 22.—A proposal for the Province of Quebec to secede from the confederation of Canadian provinces is proposed in a motion introduced in the provincial legislative assembly by France E. P. (Special to The Daily News.) Edmonton, Dec. 22.—The Union majority over Frank Oliver has now been reduced to forty-five. There are still some thirty-four polls to hear from, and if the Liberal gain continues in the same ratio, Frank Oliver will carry this riding with a substantial majority.

HUNS' LARGE LOSSES IN ARTILLERY

London, Dec. 20.—The Daily Chronicle's correspondent with the French army, states that a secret report issued on October 4 by the chief of the German general staff and signed by Ludendorff himself, shows alarming losses in the German artillery. The report states that during the grand operations the average number of guns lost by a single German army in a single month, either by wear and tear or enemy fire, is: Field guns, 870; heavy pieces, 585.

In other words the arsenals and workshops are obliged to make or repair pieces to the extent of three-quarters of the whole artillery establishment, merely in order to maintain the existing strength.

GERMAN CARICATURE OF THE ENGLISHMAN

According to the "Vossische Zeitung," in the first lecture of a series which he is delivering on "England," in the Oceanic Institute at Berlin, Professor Meyer said:—

"Scratch a Russian and you will find a Tartar," is a saying which is much more applicable to an Englishman, who on close acquaintance reveals himself as a barbarian of the purest water. The English are the most brutal people in the world. They despise the feelings of everyone else, and commit every possible violence. As a characteristic example I may relate that at a hunt dinner at which I was present with people in the best society, the lights were extinguished and the guests proceeded to pull off one another's clothes, breaking all the crockery in the process, while the person who was first rendered completely nude had to stand champagne all round. Another instance was that of a young English nobleman whose father had acquired the biggest telescope in the world. The son was so incensed at his father spending on his hobby so much money, which would ultimately have come to him, that immediately after his father's death he smashed the valuable instrument with an axe.

Such deeds are considered natural in England, and at the most one laughs at the grotesque manner of their execution. The obverse side to the Englishman's character is his enormous moral comardice, which is based on an entirely wrong education. An Englishman always has an eye to what the majority thinks, and every politician, without suffering reproach, trims his sails according to the way the wind blows.

An Old Joke.

Proceeding to describe the character of the English lady, Professor Meyer said:—
On one occasion a woman was admitted to a London hospital suffering from a severe bite, and the doctor asked her if a dog had bitten her. She replied: "Oh, no; it was another lady." An English gentleman may be defined as "a man who behaves correctly." The moral factor is not taken into consideration. It is unnecessary to reveal one's ulterior motives. But no excitement must be shown, and according to an Irish proverb, "An Englishman's smile is one of the things in the world most to be feared."

Professor Meyer concluded with a reference to the "credulity of Englishmen, who," he said, "firmly believe that children are slaughtered in Germany and that Herr Scheidemann will shortly be made German Emperor."

The other German newspapers appear to have ignored Professor Meyer's lecture.

"HER GREAT LOVE"

The great actress, Theda Bara, who is a favorite from the Atlantic to the Pacific, is billed to appear on the Westholme screen tonight. Theda Bara is in a class by herself in the silent drama, and in the play to be shown tonight fully unholds her reputation. It is a story of how a daughter sacrifices herself and her love for the sake of the overweening ambition of her mother. What the results of this unnatural action on the part of the mother arrive at is vividly portrayed on the screen. There will also be a fine gazette and a splendid comedy.

UNITED STATES IN ACCORD WITH GREAT BRITAIN

War Aims of Great Democracies are at One—Struggle to be Continued Until Aims are Realized.

(Special to The Daily News.) London, Dec. 22.—Great Britain is in full accord with President Wilson's outline of the war aims of the United States, in that the fight is for the world's democracies and not for the realization of selfish desires. Great Britain seeks no territorial extensions, except that which an international peace conference agrees with as necessary for future security.

The pledge given in the House of Commons yesterday by Premier Lloyd George has practically the unanimous support of the government. It demands only the elimination of the standing menace of the German outposts in Africa, and supports the claims of France, and of Italy, and the permanent settlement of the Balkan troubles.

G. W. V. A. DANCE WAS MOST SUCCESSFUL

The dance got up by the Great War Veterans' Association last evening was one of the most enjoyable affairs. There were about fifty couples present, and the floor of the large St. Andrew's Hall was in good shape. Everything passed off merrily and the hours passed all too quickly.

THE MAYORALTY

It is but a few weeks until the municipal election will be upon us, and up till yesterday the only announcement of candidature for the mayoralty which had been made was that of Alderman McClymont's. Alderman Montgomery, however, has now declared himself in the field for the honor of being Prince Rupert's chief magistrate for the next year.

It is quite possible, now that the excitement consequent upon the Dominion election has somewhat subsided, and thoughts begin to run anew in their ordinary channels, that there may be other candidates for the mayor's chair as well.

A CHRISTMAS PRESENT

Recently advices received from Europe had it that the Kaiser was going to make his Christmas present to the Allies in the form of peace proposals. In his usual manner of "passing the buck" Big Willy put the onus for the continuance of the war upon the allies, if they did not accept his proposals. A present with conditions attached, is not always the most pleasant kind, and there is no doubt that peace proposals from the Kaiser would be welcomed. It might indicate that the Kaiser was in a somewhat chastened spirit—that he would even give out proposals of peace.

Big Willy, however, knows just exactly what conditions of peace will be accepted by the allies. He has been told often enough, by the statesmen of the different allied countries. Lloyd George just the other day reiterated what has already been said so often, that there can be no peace which will not remove forever the menace of war. The allies are determined to make a sacrifice sufficient at this time such as will indemnify succeeding generations from the miseries which have been experienced in every one of their countries since August, 1914.

Kaiser Wilhelm knows that peace can be obtained tomorrow, if he should so desire. He will have to make reparation for the great wrong he has committed, and he has condemned the German people to wear sackcloth and ashes for long after he will be gone. But the German voice that will accept the terms of peace will not be that of Wilhelm, alone, as Kaiser. It will have to be the voice of the German people collectively, and not the voice of the Kaiser.

The German people have submitted to an autocracy, veiled under the form of the Reichstag, which in reality has little power. The government was the Kaiser's, not the people's. And before the German people can ratify the terms of peace which will be imposed upon them, the Kaiser and the Junkers, and the military caste will have to be disposed of. Until that is done, the Kaiser will hardly be in a position to make an acceptable Christmas present to the allies and to the world.

Little has been heard from the western front for the last several days, and it would not be surprising if the Germans got a little Christmas present themselves which they would rather be without. The best way in which the allies could reply to any terms of peace which the Kaiser is likely to offer would be another series of blows on the western front. These are the allies' preliminary steps towards peace, and the ones which the Germans understand best. And the greater the blow, the easier it is for the German mind to comprehend the beauties of peace.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

December weather — sunshine and snowfall!

Three different armies in Russia are opposing the Bolsheviks, and each with a different object. Kerensky is fighting the ultra Socialistic Bolsheviks for democracy and the republic, Korniloff and Kaledines are fighting for the independence for the Ukraine primarily, while the Grand Duke is apparently out for Czardom.

The schooner Margaret is reported to have struck a shoal in the Hecate Strait in 1782. The Department of Marine at Ottawa on the 28th of November, 1917, declares that the shoal is non-existent. There is apparently no speed limit in the government service.

The plum puddings in Great Britain this year will not be up to the usual standard. There is no white flour being sold, it's all war flour. And the sugar! Currants, raisins and peel are also scarce. In fact, plum puddings this year are luxuries there. And what is Christmas without one!

Mr. Hanna, the Canadian food controller, denies the statement of some of his many detractors

Man's Staff of Life is the whole wheat grain—not the white, starchy centre of the wheat—make no mistake about that—but be sure you get the whole wheat grain in a digestible form.

Shredded Wheat Biscuit contains all the tissue-building, energy-creating material in the whole wheat, steam-cooked, shredded and baked. A perfect food for the nourishment of the human body. that he recently spent $4.20 for a meal in a railway dining car. And he well might deny it!

British soldiers will this year celebrate Christmas in Jerusalem, and in Bethlehem, in the very country where "there were shepherds abiding in the fields watching their flocks by night," nineteen hundred and seventeen years ago, when they saw one of the grandest sights ever man saw.

The promised land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river Euphrates, for the first time in history, is about to pass under the control of one nation, a nation whose rule means justice and right. The expounders of Old Testament prophecy are seeing the fulfillment of many of these ancient sayings in these "latter days."

AN APPEAL TO POLES FOR POLAND'S SAKE

The "Ordre aux Sokols Polonais D'Amerique," which is signed by the Committee of the Sokols, is an appeal to Poles to join the Polish Army, which has been raised to fight on the side of the Allies. The inspiring principle of the movement is "a united and independent Poland," which has been recognized by the Allied Powers, and it is pointed out that the raising of the army will "confer on our nation the right to take part in the Peace Conference." The appeal states that the movement is a sign of "the end of the century and a half captivity of Poland," and "a protest against the Germanisation of Silesia and Poland, and the expropriation of our soil, against the slaughter of Polish children for refusing to cease praying in their native language, and against the vile treatment of our sisters and mothers by the German and Austrian soldiers." The summons to enlist in the Polish Army is addressed to every Pole capable of bearing a rifle and of undergoing the fatigue of military life, and urges them "to enter the national ranks and to march under the White Eagle to victory for a Poland one and independent." It is claimed that there are no feeble hearts in the ranks of the Sokols. "For a quarter of a century citizen soldiers have been trained in prospect of the struggle for independence" and the hope is confidently expressed that they will "respond to the present appeal with all the dignity of an advance national guard." The "Ordre" concludes: "Down with Germany; today will decide her doom or the doom of Poland."

BE CLEAN INTERNALLY

Over 500,000 People Are Now Doing So.

For many years physicians have agreed that 95 per cent. of human ill was caused by accumulated waste in the Lower Intestine; that in our present way of living Nature could not remove all this waste without assistance, no matter how regular we might be; and that the poisons from this waste circulated through the blood pulled us away down below par and were responsible for many diseases of a serious nature.

During this time the "J. B. L. Cascade" or Internal Bathing has, because of their recommendation and those of its users, been steadily growing in favor.

Recently, however, the startling news, which has been covering the country that great surgeons and specialists have been operating on the Lower Intestine in such serious diseases as Tuberculosis, and attribute such conditions of chronic ill-health as Nervous Debility and Rheumatism to this cause, also saying that these poisons are favorable to the development of Cancer and Tuberculosis (as stated in a recent article in The New York Times), has caused people to become thoroughly awake to the importance of keeping this Lower Intestine free from all poisonous waste matter, and over 500,000 are now using Internal Baths.

This enthusiastic and grateful letter is by no means an exceptional one amongst the hundreds on our file:—

703 7th Ave. South, Lethbridge, Alberta, Dr. Tyrrell, Toronto:

Dear Doctor Tyrrell:—After using your "J. B. L. Cascade" for four months, I feel it my duty as a thankful patient to express my enthusiasm for the great blessing it has been to me. You cannot feel my emotions as I write this letter in praise of you in your great work. Words simply fail to express my thankfulness for first learning of your Cascade. Precious to using it I could not go a day without a drug of some sort, and since using it I have not, on my word of honor, swallowed five cents' worth of drugs. I spent over $300.00 in the two years previous to hearing of the "J. B. L." Would that all the young men and women I see in this town with their faces covered with horrid, unsightly pimples would use it. They would soon get rid of them, as I did. I must stop, or I will be keeping you from your work, but I could fill ten more pages of my past condition of health, also in praise of the "J. B. L." May you enjoy this life to the full.

Sincerely yours,

William Devoy.

If you try the "J. B. L. Cascade" you will find yourself always bright, confident and capable—the poisonous waste makes us listless, blue, dull and nervous. Internal Baths are Nature's own cure for Constipation—just warm water properly applied. Drugs force Nature—the "J. B. L. Cascade" gently assists her.

Call and see it at Cyril H. Orme's Drug Store, Cor. 3rd Avenue and 6th St., Prince Rupert.

Ask for "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient," a booklet of great interest, which is given on request. If you prefer, write at once to Chas. A. Tyrrell, M.D., 163 College Street, Toronto, for this book.

Serve Save Produce

EVERY ONE CAN do something for his country

Some can bear arms
Some can produce food
Some can make munitions
Some can give money

It is the privilege of all to help.

YOU CAN SERVE by Fighting—Working—Saving—Giving

This is NATIONAL SERVICE

Are YOU doing your part?

ALL EYES turn now to the Canadian Farmer, for he can render the Empire SPECIAL SERVICE in this sternest year of the war.

But—our farms are badly undermanned—25,000 men are needed on the land.

With insufficient help, the Man on the Land fights an uphill fight to meet the pressing need for Food.

CITY and TOWN can help.

Municipal Councils, Churches and Schools, and other organizations, both of men and women, can render National Service by directing all available labour to the Land.

Farmers themselves can exchange labour. School boys can assist.

Were you raised on a farm? Can you drive a team? Can you handle fork or hoe? If you can't fight, you can produce. Spend the Summer working on the Farm.

Let every man, woman and child in the Dominion who has access to Land, no matter how small the plot, make it produce Food in 1917.

Anyone Can Have Whipped Cream

PACIFIC MILK is so rich in cream that it whips as easily as most of the fresh cream sold around the Province.

Mrs. McCary of New Westminster wrote in to say that she whips PACIFIC MILK regularly for a treat for the youngsters for breakfast. All she does is to set aside the amount she wants, in a cool place, for a time and then beats it with a sieve egg-beater. She puts this on toast and gives it to the children for breakfast. You'll find it is good on cakes and puddings.
