MILITARY SITUATION UNCHANGED IN WEST

WAITING HINDENBURG'S NEXT MOVE -- ITALIANS START OFFENSIVE AT ASIAGO

MARKED AERIAL ACTIVITY ON THE WESTERN FRONT

BRITISH CARRY OUT GREAT BOMBARDMENTS—BRING DOWN MANY ENEMY MACHINES—NO CHANGE IN MILITARY SITUATION—RAIDS AND ARTILLERY FIGHTS REPORTED

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 18.—Last Wednesday, the British airmen accounted for thirty-seven German aeroplanes, twenty-five of which were destroyed. The latest official statement on the aerial operations reported a marked increase in the activities of both the aerial forces on the western front. The British flyers continue to bombard railway stations and billets behind the German lines.

The French Record.
Paris, May 17.—During March and April, the French airmen brought down three hundred and twenty-two enemy machines, and only lost ninety-six of their own during the same period. The inferiority of the German air service is causing their general staff grave anxiety.

The Greatest Blow.

Glasgow, May 18.—In accepting the freedom of the second city of the Empire here yesterday, General Smuts declared that "As a climax of four years' cumulative effort upon us, the Germans are about to deliver the greatest blow of the war. The enemy has determined that if the British army is beaten, the war will be over."

Still Waiting.

With the British Armies in France, May 18.—The Allies are still waiting for Hindenburg to show his hand. Magnificent weather has favored the western front for the last forty-eight hours, but even this has brought no change in the military situation. The Germans continue to remain comparatively inactive, and were not for the grumbling of the big guns, the clouds of dust along the lines of transport, and the flight of aeroplanes, it would be hard to realize that a war is going on.

More Raids.

London, May 18.—The British raided the German positions near Beaumont Hamel, and captured many prisoners. They also repulsed a raiding party south of Arras. Hostile artillery has shown greatly increased activity between Locon and Hinges and from the Forest of Nieppe to Meteren.

SUCCESSFUL RAID CARRIED OUT BY THE MEN OF 102ND BATT.

A story, full of incident and daring, of the men of B Company of the 102nd Battalion, has been written by Mr. P. I. Palmer from France to Major Brandt who is presently in town, having arrived back here several weeks ago. Writing under date of April 23, the letter goes on to tell the story of how 126 men of B. Company went over to pay a visit to Fritz without being invited, or even expected. They succeeded in surprising the enemy completely, and did some great execution when leaving their visiting cards. They succeeded in bringing back a bunch of prisoners, and the whole party of B. Company were successful in regaining their own lines with only one officer and six men being slightly wounded.

The raid was said to have been one of the most successful of such functions which have yet been carried out over there and great kudos was coming to the officers and men for the manner in which it was carried out.

SONS OF ENGLAND ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

The K. P. Hall last evening was the scene of a very happy gathering of the Sons of England and many of their friends. The evening passed delightfully with cards, songs and dancing. The proceedings were opened with a whist drive. There were many tables, and the first prizes were carried off by Miss King and Mr. Tabram, while the consolation prizes went to Miss Byatt and Mr. J. Myhill Jones. A splendid concert programme had been arranged, to which songs were contributed by Messrs. W. Cummings, W. Davies, C. Freeman, J. Myhill Jones and G. Waddell. Mr. Arthur Silversides gave a recitation and a duet from Messrs. Derry and Davis was followed by a violin solo from Mr. W. Balagno. Dancing also was indulged in, the music for which was kindly contributed by Messrs. Balagno and Davies. The proceedings for the whole evening were greatly enjoyed by all who were present.

CANADIAN FISH FOR U. S. NEED NO LICENCE

Vancouver, May 17.—Advices have been received at the office of the United States consulate that a general license has been issued by the United States government permitting the importation of fresh and frozen fish from Canada and that no individual license will be required, as was stipulated in the order of May 1. This is believed to be the result of representations made to the department at Washington, D.C., by the Hon. W. C. Redfield, secretary of commerce, following his trip to Prince Rupert and Ketchikan.

NOTICE

The City of Prince Rupert, being desirous of forming a Roll of Honor would, like to have the names as early as possible of all the men from Prince Rupert, who have fallen in the war. Will every one who has lost a relative at the front, who formerly belonged to this city, please communicate with Mr. J. J. Hutchinson, secretary of the Great War Veterans Association, or Mrs. P. I. Palmer, president, or Miss Brand, secretary, of the Ladies Auxiliary.

GERMANS CAPTURED NO- BRITISH NOR U. S. SUBS. IN RUSSIAN HARBORS

(Special to The Daily News)

London, May 18.—The Russian naval officials blew up their four American submarines before retreating from Hango, in southwestern Finland last April, the Admiralty announced today. Seven British submarines were also destroyed when the German naval forces and transports approached Hango. None of the British vessels fell into the hands of the enemy.

The Admiralty says that the project of blocking the harbor by sinking ships in it has been rejected by the Russian commander in chief. The effect of the destruction of the British submarines upon the crews of the merchant ships was excellent and induced the destruction of many ships that would otherwise have fallen into the hands of the enemy.

"WHAT IS A DRUNK?" WAS ASKED IN POLICE COURT

Evidence for the prosecution was led this morning in the police court before Magistrate Carss, in charges preferred against Mr. K. McKay of the Dominion Hotel, for breach of the Prohibition Act, in permitting drunkenness upon his premises, and against E. V. Fisher for assaulting William Adams, a police officer, while in the execution of his duty. The charges this morning were the result of a little fracas which occurred on Thursday night, when the assault was alleged to have taken place at or near the Dominion Hotel. There were five witnesses, all police officers, and in the course of the proceedings, the question was asked of Constable Bailey "what is a drunk?" According to the statute, there is only one answer correct, and Constable Bailey had it. There are several stages or degrees of drunkenness known colloquially, such as fighting drunk, singing drunk and happy drunk and so forth, but in the eyes of the law, the adjectives are not recognized.

Both cases were adjourned until Monday, when the evidence for the defence will be led.

THREE GREAT STARS AT THE WESTHOLME

"The Guardian" is the title of the World-Picture Brady-Made feature which will be shown at the Westholme Theatre this evening. This picture has three stars, June Elvidge, Montagu Love and Arthur Ashley, and the picture is so full of incident and excitement that it offers unexcelled opportunities to each and every one of these stars. The story is of every day people—the kind of people that everyone knows. It is a convincing tale of modern life, and is presented in an unforgettable manner. The love of a guardian for his beautiful ward develops into a romance of startling power and tumultuous incident. Montagu Love is effective as guardian, June Elvidge entrancing as the high-spirited ward, while Arthur Ashley is handsomely villainous in the role of the young fortune hunter, who first tries to marry the ward, and then, failing in that, puts into operation a diabolical plot against her. The play gives the opportunity for many remarkable scenic effects, and much exceptionally fine acting, and needless to say, all these opportunities are taken advantage of. There is also an official gazette as well as a fine comedy.

BATTLE FLARES UP IN ITALY WITH AUSTRIANS ON DEFENSIVE

OFFENSIVE COMMENCED BY ITALIANS ON ASIAGO PLATEAU WITHOUT AWAITING LONG EXPECTED ENEMY ATTACK—ANTI-GERMAN AGITATION IN UKRAINE CONTINUES—MARTIAL LAW

BORDEN INTIMATES OTTAWA WILL TAKE OVER G. T. P. SYSTEM

Ottawa, May 16.—In the Commons this afternoon Sir Robert Borden said that the G. T. P. inevitably would be acquired by the Government at some not far distant date. He said it was not self-sustaining and the G. T. R. was quite incapable of meeting its obligations in respect to the G. T. P. If the G. T. P. should be taken over it would practically involve the acquisition of the G. T. R. itself. He intimated that negotiations were proceeding in regard to the G. T. R. but at present they must remain confidential.

"It may be possible," Sir Robert added, "indeed I think it is probable, that at some later date, but not in the immediate future, that the land transportation facilities in Canada in the shape of railways may, so far as operation at least is concerned, be amalgamated into one system, carried on under one management."

Will Visit England.

Ottawa, May 17.—Hon. Arthur Meighen and Hon. J. A. Calder are the two cabinet ministers who will have charge of negotiations for the nationalization of the Grand Trunk and the Grand Trunk Pacific. They will accompany Sir Robert Borden to England for this purpose. Sir Robert yesterday intimated that two ministers would take up the matter this summer but did not give their names. Messrs. Meighen and Calder are the men selected. They have been members of a sub-committee of the cabinet which for some time has had the whole railway question under advisement and which has been conducting long-distance negotiations with the Grand Trunk and the Grand Trunk Pacific. These cable negotiations failed to come to any conclusion, so the ministers will negotiate personally with the directors of the companies.

MAY VOLUNTEER TILL REGISTRATION IS OVER

Montreal, May 17.—Major-General F. Wilson, G.O.C., received telegraphic instructions from Ottawa as follows: "Men of nineteen and those who attained the age of twenty years on or since October 13 last, will be ordered by proclamation to register on or before June 1. Up to that date such men may be treated regarding enrolment as volunteers."

THE MACHINISTS' STRIKE

The strike of machinists which has been on in the city during this last week has now been settled, and it is expected that the men will be on the job again on Monday morning. The Rupert Marine Ironworks have signed the agreement, and the other shops will follow suit.

Mr. D. McLeod, late of the firm of Foley, Welch & Stewart, arrived in the city last evening from Vancouver, and left again this morning for Hazelton. Mr. McLeod is interested in the Silver Standard mine up there and will inspect the new concentration mill which has been installed, and which is about ready for operation.

(Special to The Daily News)

London, May 17.—The Italian forces taking the initiative, severe fighting is again in progress on the Brenta river running through the Asiago plateau. Without awaiting the long expected attack which has been heralded for weeks past by the Austrian armies, the Italian troops threw themselves into the fight with great vigor, compelling the enemy to fight hard to maintain themselves. This action is on the ground where the Italians have stood since last November, and seems to have centred upon a comparatively short section of the battle line, between Monte Asolone and Monte Pertica.

Martial Law at Odessa.

London, May 18.—Martial law has been proclaimed at Odessa by the Austrian commandant at the request of the Germans. Much severe street fighting has been reported. At Kiev, Austrian patrols are in the streets day and night, and thousands of persons are fleeing the city. The anti-German agitation continues unabated. The Ukraine press makes the charges against the Germans that they are using the port of Sebastopol as a naval and fleet base, requisitioning coal, and stealing from the Ukrainian ships.

IRISH HOME RULE BILL IS DELAYED

(Special to The Daily News.)

London, May 18.—The House of Commons adjourned last night until May 28 without any sign of the long delayed Home Rule Bill. Apparently the members of the Government have no idea when the bill will be introduced.

LODGE VALHALLA BALL A FINE ONE

Yesterday being a day of national celebration throughout the world among Norwegians, as the 104th anniversary of the gaining of their independence, was fittingly recognized in the city. The many private functions held throughout the city culminated in a ball given in the St. Andrews Hall by the Lodge Valhalla of the Scandinavian Society. Dancing commenced about 9 p. m. and was kept up until the early hours. There was a fine attendance and the large St. Andrews Hall was fittingly decorated for the occasion. The many dances were popular and were fully taken advantage of, and everyone enjoyed the occasion thoroughly.

Supper was served upstairs during the course of the evening in fine style, and the supper room was a scene of much animation. The floor of the large hall was in good condition and the music which was most tempting, was supplied by Harvey's orchestra. Everyone was sorry when the affair came to a close, and it was voted by all to be one of the successes of the season.

The Propaganda of Falsehood.

The intelligent portion of the population of allied countries are pretty well fed up on propaganda that starts out from London under the guiding hand of Lord Northcliffe or Lord Beaverbrook (surely a well chosen pair if it is "bunk" and not facts we are after), or specimens of George Creel's romances emerging from Washington, or again some of our own fairy tales, makes little difference. For some reason, the psychology of which it is hard to fathom, we are seldom, if ever, now told the truth about this war. Creel, or members of his staff, composed mainly of professional romancers such, for instance, as short story writers and playwrights, take a little incident, a grain of truth, and build about this setting an elaborate story of heroism. It is simply bubbling over with what these writers would style human interest. The only trouble with the entire thing is that it is not human, as it does not happen to be true, and as for interest, we are not so sure that it is even interesting, especially at this time.

Canadians do not have to be told what sort of propaganda would be forthcoming from the Beaverbrook office. We have had specimens of that in prospectuses in times gone by. And as for Northcliffe, possibly he might be able to tell the truth, provided his orders did not read to the contrary. Over here in Canada we are in the hands of propagandists and British censors. Between them we get our facts in homeopathic doses, nicely sugar-coated. In fact, our only possible knowledge of events is obtained either from officers recently returned or contained in letters that escape the censors. The truth we do get from official sources one might liken to a grain of sugar on a desert of sand.

Of course, we are told that all this is necessary to keep up our morale. That without swallowing a peck of lies every twenty-four hours, hot from the battle front at No. 1 Downing street, we would get downhearted, and give up contributing to the Red Cross and the Patriotic Fund and cease knitting and such things. Now, the effect on the average mind is quite the contrary. We have become distrustful, exceedingly distrustful. The intelligent reader has ceased to believe anything he reads concerning the immediate past in this war. Of previous matters, say a year or two back, which are not now of paramount importance, we can generally check up the facts to the extent of eliminating the chaff. Let us take a specific instance of this foolery. When Canada spent freely of her men to defend the Ypres salient and Langemarck, we were told that these were places of paramount importance from a strategical standpoint. When the troops are obliged to back out of some of these positions under pressure from the Germans, we are calmly told that they were of no importance, and that we did not want them anyhow. Never had wanted them for that matter. This sort of thing is simply foolish, and is offensive to anybody who has reasoning powers and the sense to scan a map intelligently.

All of which reminds one of the fable of the boy and the wolf. The boy yelled wolf so many times when there was no wolf, that when the wolf actually did come no one would believe him. And so it is with our censors and propaganda artists. Someday they will tell the truth, or allow the truth to be told, but no one will take stock in it.—H. F. Gadsby in "Toronto Saturday Night."

Keeping Down the Price.

For some reason Canadians ate more wheat, beef and bacon in February than they did in January. Government officials profess to be ignorant of the cause for this increase.

It is not far to seek. By last January, the people of Canada had become so enthusiastic over the conservation of food that they were turning in every possible direction to substitutes—with the result that the prices of these substitutes promptly aviated in response. Naturally, when the prices of substitutes became such that wheat, bacon and beef were cheaper foods they went back to wheat, bacon and beef.

Persuasion and voluntarism can do a good deal. A properly directed campaign of propaganda can do much to put a whole people on the right road; but to make them stay put is a different matter. They will not stay put when their patriotic impulse is allowed to become the sport of profiteering dealers in substitutes.

And we do not hear of any expensive propaganda being carried on to induce dealers in substitutes to keep down their prices.

Nothing Like Internal Bathing for Constipation

If people only knew what Internal Bathing is doing for thousands of others there would be fewer Pills and Laxatives swallowed and very much less suffering from Constipation and the accompanying Stomach and Nervous troubles resulting from it.

Mag. Cave, 841 Ellery St., Victoria, B. C., writes:—"Before using the 'J. B. L. Cascade' I suffered constantly from Constipation, had frequent bilious attacks and sick headaches. Since beginning your system of Internal Bathing with the 'J. B. L. Cascade' four months ago, I have not had one attack and feel stronger and better in every way. My only regret is that I did not get a Cascade sooner."

By the proper application of nature's cure, warm water, by means of the 'J. B. L. Cascade' the lower intestines are kept free from all poisonous waste. Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, a specialist on Internal Bathing, invented and perfected the 'J. B. L. Cascade,' which has done more during the past 20 years in restoring health and lessening disease than all other means combined. Ask Cyril H. Orme, druggist, cor. 3rd Ave. and 6th St., for Booklet, "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient." He will also be pleased to show and explain the J. B. L. Cascade to you.

Your daintiest blouse, Madame, wash it this way

Take, say a gallon of hot water, but not hotter than the hands can be placed in with comfort. Drop in 3 table-spoons of LUX and whisk into a lather. Stir the blouse about in the solution for a few minutes, then squeeze it well in the hands. Rinse in two or three relays of tepid water and hang to dry.

LUX

What's the result? A shining, shimmery, purely-clean garment with the color and life of newness—unshrunk and unfaded. Silk, crepe-de-chine, or any sheer fabric is cleansed with perfect safety.

You see, LUX is the purest essence of soap and cannot harm anything that pure water may touch, and it makes the hardest water as soft as summer rain. It won't shrink woollens.

"The food crisis is grave and urgent, beyond possibility of exaggeration."—Sir Robert Borden

City and Town Labor Must Save The Food Situation

THE heart of the food production problem is labor, and the heart of the labor problem is the city dweller. City people must produce food if Canada is to do her full duty in support of our soldiers and Allies.

Men who are needed on farms must come from the cities and towns—there is no other source. The Provincial Departments of Agriculture co-operating with the Canada Food Board, can place thousands of men on good farms in this Province. They are needed at once.

Those who remain at home must also Grow Food

A War Garden will not excuse the man whose rightful place this year is on a farm. But War Garden service is needed from those who can do no more.

Every pound of home-grown vegetables, produced on city land by city labor, will be a positive addition to the food supply. Home Garden and Vacant Lot cultivation will leave the farmers free to grow more food for export.

The vegetable garden offers an opportunity for service to men whose circumstances make it impossible for them to work on a farm, to women, to boys and girls—to city people generally.

Be a Food Producer This Year

If there is a garden or vacant lot movement in your community, associate yourself with it. If no organization exists, do what you can to interest your neighbours in the War Garden campaign. Write to your Provincial Department of Agriculture for pamphlets on gardening and additional information.

SOVIET POWER IS ESTABLISHED IN RUSSIA FIRMLY

London, May 16.—A correspond writing of conditions obtaining at present in Russia says that May Day was a notable celebration throughout Russia by the Soviets. The Soviet proclamation declared the day doubly important as it also marked the end of the six months of the Workmen's government in Russia, and the firm establishment of Soviet power.

The Moscow celebration centred about the Red Square, adjoining the Kremlin, where the victims of the October revolution are buried. Probably 100,000 working men and women of the various unions, bearing gigantic red banners, proclaiming international Socialism, and extolling the Soviet government, marched through the streets and passed in review before the members of the Central Government grouped about the graves of the revolutionists.

Thousands of sailors and soldiers, representing all services of the Red Military Establishment, participated in the parade and patrolled the streets. Perfect order was maintained.

Count von Mirbach, the German Ambassador, together with the Turkish Ambassador, watched the parade from an automobile near the reviewing stand near the Red Square, and later went to the drill grounds, where Leon Trotsky, the War Minister, reviewed the troops. Trotsky, accompanied by hundreds of workmen and several members of his staff, preceded the procession of troops to the reviewing point.

A notable number of banners carried in the parade emphasized the necessity for the strict discipline of Labor and for constructive effort.

Premier Lenin, with War Minister Trotsky and other members of the Government, witnessed the taking of the Red Army of the oath of allegiance to the Soviet Government at the conclusion of the review.
