CANADA MUST SAVE FOOD OR ELSE THOSE DEPENDENT UPON US WILL SUFFER

AMERICANS AGAIN MAKE A SUBSTANTIAL GAIN

ON THE FRONT IN PICARDY THEY PIERCE THE ENEMY LINES FOR A DEPTH OF THREE MILES, AND TAKE SOME MORE OF THE ENEMY'S YOUTHS

(Special to The Daily News)
With the American Army in Picardy, June 8.—As a result of two attacks by the Americans in the second battle northwest of Chateau Thierry the Americans captured three hundred prisoners, a number of machine guns and extended their lines to a depth of nearly three miles.

While the losses of the Americans were necessarily heavy, still the German dead were piled up in tiers three deep in places. Many of the German prisoners taken by us were mere boys in the line for the first time.

With the American Armies on the Marne, June 8.—Fighting both today and yesterday makes it certain that the Germans are checked everywhere. Their present attacks invariably result in both prisoners and advantageous recapture of the local positions. The first and second divisions of Prussian Guard after trying four days to advance along cities off Oureq to turn the forest of Villers Cotterets from the south were completely thrown back by the French counter-attacks with very heavy losses.

BRIEF DISPATCHES

(Special to The Daily News.)

Washington—A bumper wheat crop this year which before the harvest leads to the prediction of over a billion bushels was the forecast today by the Department of Agriculture.

London—French troops improved their line in the neighborhood of Loere early this morning by successful local attacks in which they captured a few prisoners.

U-BOATS STILL OPERATING ON THE ATLANTIC

Frightfulness Employed Off the Atlantic Coast—Waiting For Some Bigger Prey.

(Special to The Daily News)

New York, June 8.—More Prussian frightfulness is coming into play in the submarine raids on the Atlantic coast shipping, according to the details of the sinking of the steamer Harpathian, which were received here today. This British ship of 2,800 tons was torpedoed without warning between ninety and a hundred miles off the Virginia Cape. Captain Owen and crew of forty-one barely had time to get into the boats. Flying timbers from the explosion broke one man's leg and injured the head of another. The attack came at five a. m. when most of the crew were asleep.

Looking for Big Prey.

The fact that submarines are braving the dangers from patrols which are converging around the area of operations leads officials to believe that the raiders are waiting for bigger prey than they have yet found.

Cape May, N. J., June 8.—Nineteen survivors of the Norwegian steamer Vinland was sunk this morning by a German submarine 46 miles off Cape May were landed here by a torpedo boat destroyer.

WOULD COMPLETE P. G. E. RY.

Victoria, June 7.—The government has received a letter from a Vancouver broker, who is stated to be backed by American capital, offering to take over the Pacific Great Eastern where Foley, Welch & Stewart left off and to complete the railway to Prince George. The proposal, however, suggests that completion of the section between North Vancouver and Squamish is unnecessary.

It is estimated by the Vancouver broker that it will cost $15,000,000 to finish the line to Prince George. He proposes to ask the Federal Government for a subsidy of $12,000 per mile and to ask the province for $7,000 per mile, against which stock in the new company will be issued. With this assistance the company undertakes to finance the completion of the line.

The tea given by the Queen Mary Chapter of the I. O. D. E. to collect a donation for jam for the soldiers brought in $90. The raffle results were:—$5.00 gold piece donated by Alec Manson, won by Miss M. Jenns. Men's socks donated by Mrs. Alec Manson were won by Mr. P. W. Anderson. Camesole donated by Mrs. Dawson was won by Mrs. Elkins. Kitten donated by Sydney Hunter was won by Gladys Gammon. Lusitania German medal donated by Capt. Bay was won by Mrs. Bazzett-Jones. Boudoir cap donated by Mrs. P. W. Anderson won by Lorne Tite.

AMERICANS AND FRENCH TAKE SOME VILLAGES

Near Chateau Thierry Gains are Made—Germans Scared of Dash of Americans.

(Special to The Daily News)

Paris, June 8.—The French and Americans operating against the Germans northwest of Chateau Thierry during Friday's fighting made additional gains of ground and captured the villages of Veully la Poterie and Boursches.

The Americans by their dash and spirit have instilled fear in the Germans. Mostly young boys or veterans weary of fighting oppose them and are easy victims for the Sammies.

SOLDIER INTERESTS ARE PROTECTED

Victoria, June 7.—An order-in-council, passed by the provincial executive yesterday, is of considerable importance to all soldiers on service. It provides that interest due in respect of any agreement to purchase from the crown, town or city lots or land, within the site or suburb of a town under the designated section of the Land Act, held by any returned soldier or person on active service, shall be waived for a period dating from the date of enlistment to a date one year after his discharge from military service.

The term "soldier" has a broad application and includes any person, who since August 4, 1914, has joined or who hereafter joins, for service in the present war, any of the naval or military forces of His Majesty, or of any power being at the time an ally of His Majesty and who, having so joined, has been engaged or engaged on active service in connection with the said war, either at home or abroad; and, without in any way restricting the generality of the foregoing provisions, shall be deemed to include any person so joining, whether by enlistment or as volunteer or reservist, or through being commissioned, mobilized, called out, or drafted to such service, seaman, soldier, marine, nurse, or in any capacity whatsoever.

SUN ECLIPSE TODAY

The total total eclipse of the sun on June 8th is regarded by scientists as not only the great astronomical event of this year, but of several years. That the eclipse may mark the greatest crisis of the war is held to be possible. Added interest is attached to this belief in view of the fact that during the first month of the war there was a total eclipse of the sun visible over all Europe and lasting three and a half hours. Astronomers say the solar eclipse of June 8th will last five and one-fourth hours. In this connection it is interesting to recall an old belief that the effect of an eclipse lasts the number of years equal to the number of hours of its duration. Since the war has been going on practically as many years as was the duration in hours of the August, 1914, eclipse, some claim the length of the forthcoming eclipse indicates that there will be over five more years of war.

The effect of the eclipse will not be as noticeable in the city as in some of the southern points. It will, however, be noticeable here.

CANADA MUST CONSERVE WHEAT FOR HER ARMY

HENRY B. THOMPSON MAKES AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT IN RESPECT TO THE PRESENT NEED—UNTIL HARVEST OF 1919 ALL MUST SAVE

(Special to The Daily News)

Ottawa, June 8.—Conservation of wheat and the substitution of other cereals on this continent so as to supply great amounts to the countries overseas which are dependent upon us must be continued at least until the 1919 crop situation is known. Such is the effect of an announcement by Henry B. Thompson, chairman of the Canada Food Board. Mr.

Thompson said: "Although the world wheat crop situation at the present time is more promising than a year ago, still considerable time will elapse before the crops are harvested. Even if the greatest expectations are realized the fact remains that the world reserves of wheat are exhausted. The greatest care will have to be taken to re-establish these reserves both here and abroad."

WESTHOLME THEATRE

At the Westholme Theatre tonight there is an unusually good programme for the last show of the week. "The Turmoil" will be shown, and is a very good labor picture, which has had good audiences wherever shown. Many critics have passed upon the picture and are very favorable in their criticism of the same. In addition to this there is a two-reel Fox comedy which has all the features necessary to make a good laugh. Patrons will not be misled in choosing this show as one of the best shown here recently.

Two boats arrived from the south this morning within about fifteen minutes of each other. The Venture came in about eight forty-five and the Grand Trunk arrived at nine sharp.

At the session of the Dominion Railway Commission now being held in Vancouver, residents of Massett, Queen Charlotte Islands, petitioned for a reduction in freight rates by boat from Vancouver. After hearing the statements of G. T. P. officials the commission reserved its decision for the time being. A New Hazelton application for a level crossing in accordance with a former order of the board was also answered by Mr. G. A. Mc. Nicholl of the G. T. P. While the commission ruled that the crossing is essential, it will be determined later whether or not the responsibility rests with the Provincial Government.

"Fuss and feathers" may hardly be the proper term to apply in this instance and yet it is not substantially correct? For was there not a fuss and were there not feathers? Yes, it is all true. You know it happened this way: Poor old Ben, of course we mean Big Ben—well, he must have seen better days, but he was not equal to the occasion this time and dear only knows where he is now. But it is safe to say that there will be no parsley to decorate his resting place on a nice platter, for you see we have strong suspicions that he was condemned to death when he couldn't make good. Strange how these roosters stray away from home, but then they often do and then are often sorry afterwards, for how can one tell that others of the same species are loitering around?

Saturday, June 8, 1918.

The war news from the western front yesterday was certainly encouraging. It was more; it was exciting, because, as "coming events cast their shadow before," it left a lot of hope that today's news would be even more exciting. It was like a fascinating fiction that on the eve of an anticlimax always says "To be continued in our next." It indicates, as foreshadowed in this column yesterday, that Commander-in-Chief Foch has taken the initiative. He did not begin it with a general attack on the whole front of the German lines, but successfully picked one of the weak spots in that line. Then he partly followed the German tactics in their offensive, wave on wave of troops, but not in solid mass as the enemy has been doing to his certain undoing eventually. Nor did he blow the martial trumpet a la Hindenburg, and state the exact time when his train of victorious troops would arrive in Berlin. No, there is no spread-eagleism about this foxy French general, although his martial emotions are no doubt stirred by the splendid work at the front of the American soldiers. Also, he knows that he can afford to play waiting tactics, with ten thousand fresh troops arriving from the United States every day, as they have been for weeks past and will continue for weeks to come.

Poor, perplexed Kaiser Wilhelm, head of the great theological partnership of Me & Gott. Imagine his bowed head in the crook of his palsied arm, moody at the news. Suddenly he starts up and in his usual thunder commands: "Order my fleet to wipe perfidious England off the map at once." There's where hell will break loose next and where the exciting news will come from, and the result is not at all likely to relieve the Kaiser's moodiness, but is certain to give him a few interesting things to think about. Germany was properly proud of her great naval fleet and considered it the strongest in the world. Experts ranked it as second only to the British fleet. Yet it has been bottled up in the very harbor designed by Germany as the strategic spot from which she could overwhelm England at a blow, bottle up the British fleet during the whole of the war. Now, when the Kaiser's fleet does make its first public appearance in war, it will be met not only by the British battleships, but by those of the United States, now classed as the second sea power of the world. Certainly the war news will be interesting the next few days, more so to us than to His Supreme Satanship the Kaiser.

CANADA'S NEW RAILWAY ERA

Canada faces a new and progressive era in railway operation. The public taking over the Canadian Northern, followed by the Premier's Parliamentary intimation that negotiations would take place in Britain this summer with a view to similar action in connection with the Grand Trunk, opens the way for the development of a great national system of railways. Public ownership and operation is to be put to a practical test on a gigantic scale.

If efficiency and business methods prevail there is no doubt as to the outcome. But enemies of the public ownership of public utilities are still many and powerful. It will be to their interest to have the project fail. It will prove advantageous to them to see it cluttered with figureheads, managed with incompetency, and bedeviled by politics. It is against such a contingency that progressive advocates of public ownership must guard. The activity of its enemies should be the measure of their vigilance.

Serious responsibility confronts the Government. The choice of the man to direct the management and determine the administrative policy of the new national railway system is a matter which should engage its best thought and endeavor. He should be a man in the prime of life, endowed with wide technical knowledge and administrative ability—a man altogether divorced from politics and thoroughly in sympathy with the principle of public ownership. The Government should make it its business to find such a man, for only by so doing can the Dominion properly inaugurate and successfully carry out the great progressive policy which promises to usher in a new railway era in Canada.

VICTOR HUGO'S PROPHECY

A day will come when the only battlefield will be the market open to commerce, and the mind opening to new ideas. A day will come when bullets and bombshells will be replaced by votes, by the universal suffrage of nations, by arbitration of a sovereign senate, which will be to Europe what the parliament is to England, the diet of Germany, the legislative assembly to France. A day will come when a cannonball will be exhibited in public museums, just as an instrument of torture is now, and the people will be astonished how such a thing could have been. A day will come when these two immense groups, the United States of America and the United States of Europe, shall be seen extending the hand of fellowship across the ocean, exchanging their products, their industry, their arts, their genius, clearing the earth, peopling the deserts, improving creation under the eye of the creator, and uniting for the good of all these two irresistible and infinite powers—the fraternity of men and the power of God—Victor Hugo.

PREDICTS DOOM OF KAISER

London, June 6.—"I believe this war will have been fought in vain if at its conclusion the Kaiser and his war lords do not find their heads in a noose," said John Hodge, Minister of Pensions and a Labor Party leader, in an address today.

"An inconclusive peace would be a greater disaster than continuance of the war. No matter what the sacrifice, we have got to fight to the finish."

THE BETTER HAND

A good story is told of General Foch and his supreme confidence in the ultimate success of the Allies. At the close of one of those January conferences in France which led to the formation of the Versailles Council Mr. Lloyd George and General Foch found themselves alone in the room. "Tell me," said the Premier to the General, "in this game between you and Ludendorff whose cards would you rather have?" General Foch reflected a moment. "I would rather have my own hand," he replied. That ended the conversation for the time being. Many weeks afterwards came the great onslaught of March 21st. After that attack had exhausted its initial force by sweeping back the Franco-British line to the proximity of Amiens, General Foch sent to the Premier a reminder of his preference. To a French officer who was about to visit this country the General said:—"If you see Mr. Lloyd George tell him I would still rather have my own hand." The message, according to the story, was duly delivered—and appreciated.

SHELL STRIKES CHURCH

Paris:—While the British were observing Cardinal Hartmann's request not to bomb Cologne on the Feast of Corpus Christi, German long range guns steadily bombarded this city. One shell struck a church, killing or wounding eighteen persons. The official statement making this announcement adds: "This fact should be compared with Cardinal Hartmann's request to the British. It is merely another example of German bad faith, for the least that could have been expected was that Germany would have exerted the same forbearance toward Paris that was asked for Cologne."

MUST SUPPLY WHEAT

Ottawa, June 6.—Canada and the United States must continue to supply to Great Britain and European allies, the bulk of the wheat supplies, which are essential to victory. This is made clear in a cable received by the Canada Food Board from the British ministry of foods. It is pointed out that the increased cereal production in the United Kingdom, even if the most optimistic predictions were fulfilled, would not be appreciable in proportion to the amounts required from this continent.

This cable also states that in order to effect economies in food, labor and fuels, arrangements are being made for the establishment of the national kitchen all over the United Kingdom. The people of Great Britain are now on tea rations, and their consumption will be restricted to two ounces per week.

Constipation Cured in His 78th Year without Drugs

Did you ever know any person who was permanently cured of Constipation by taking drugs of any kind? Drugs seem to assist Nature at the time, but as time goes on larger doses are necessary until the trouble becomes chronic.

Internal Bathing is the only real cure for Constipation. It keeps the Colon or Lower Intestine free from all accumulation. Soon the system performs its regular functions unaided, and there is no further trouble.

Mr. A. McLean, of Conger Lumber Co., Parry Sound, writes:—"I have been troubled with Constipation for the last 25 or 40 years, and could not pass one day without taking medicine. I have used the 'J. B. L. Cascade' since getting it 21 days ago, with wonderful results. Will recommend any person to use it."

Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York, invented and perfected the "J. B. L. Cascade" for Internal Bathing, which is today the only efficient means of accomplishing the desired results. Dr. Tyrrell has published an interesting book on Internal Bathing, called "Why Man of Today is Only 50 Per Cent. Efficient," which can be had free for the asking of Cyril H. Orme, Druggist, cor. 3rd Ave. and 6th St. He will also be pleased to show and explain the "J. B. L. Cascade" to you.

Clyde H. A. Rogers, of Skagway, arrived in the city this morning on his return home. Mr. Rogers has been having a holiday in the south for the past month, and will return to his position in the employ of the White Pass and Yukon Railway.

Mr. Nickerson who recently went south for the purpose of joining the Aviation Corps, arrived back in the city this morning for a period of about three months. Mr. Nickerson passed all examinations satisfactorily and will await his call to service.

Lloyd Conant, who recently left here to join up, is now located at Hastings Park. His acquaintance with soldiering has not been of sufficient duration to permit him to pass judgment on a soldier's life, but he expects to make good in the same way he did as a popular employee at the G. T. P.

Leaving the city this morning on the Venture were Mrs. Hal Peck and daughter Eleanor. Mr. Peck is now located at Namu, and Mrs. Peck and Eleanor will spend the summer there and remove to Vancouver this fall, where they will take up their permanent residence. Many friends in the city wish them well and will welcome their return to this city with pleasure.
