Attorney General Pooley Dispels Rumors That An Appeal Is To Be Made

Probability Is That Legislature Will Meet Once More Before Completing Its Term of Office

VICTORIA, July 9:—Rumors of an early election in British Columbia were dispelled yesterday when Attorney General Pooley, acting Premier, denied suggestions that the government might seek a verdict from the people in September.

"The government of B. C. has not the slightest intention of summoning an election this year," Mr. Pooley declared. He said it would be unwise at this stage to disrupt the government procedure and departmental administration and to rush ministers and members into a campaign at a time when careful determined application to the affairs of the province was urgently needed.

In view of the announcement of Mr. Pooley it seems certain that the government will assemble the legislature once more before completing its term.

ANOTHER OLD-TIMER PASSES ON

Nick Gurvich Was Present at Founding of City of Prince Rupert in 1909

The death occurred yesterday at his home on Fraser Street of one of Prince Rupert's early and respected citizens in the person of Nicholas Gurvich, mining operator, general contractor and one of the large property owners of the city. He was 65 years of age in April last and had been in poor health ever since meeting with an accident five years ago when he was struck in the abdomen with a plank. For the past three years he has been in bed and the end came peacefully yesterday about five o'clock.

Mr. Gurvich is survived by a widow and five sons and two daughters. The sons are John, head of the 32 Taxi business; Dido, Spiro, Nick and Mike. The daughters are Amelia and Nellie. All are well known to the people of Prince Rupert.

Mr. Gurvich came from Yugoslavia forty years ago to the United States and first located in the mining fields of Nevada. Soon he moved to Butte, Montana, where he lived for 11 years. However, the north was calling and he moved on to Alaska until the romance of the founding of a new city in Canada appealed to him and he moved down to the present site of Prince Rupert in 1909, being one of the first men on the ground and since then taking an active part in the development of the city.

A few years ago Mr. Gurvich interested himself in the Alberta coal fields, taking a controlling interest in the McLeod River Hard Coal Co. in which other Prince Rupert men also became interested. This concern he operated for several years.

A large property owner, Mr. Gurvich had great faith in the future of Prince Rupert. The outstanding property owned by him was the Exchange Block on Third Avenue which he purchased and renovated.

The funeral will take place Tuesday, arrangements being in the hands of Haynor Bros.

C. N. R. Tennis

Thursday night the incomplete tennis game in the C. N. R. series was completed. Jas. Horton and Mrs. Currie beating Percy McIntosh and Mrs. Horton, 6-3.

Last evening W. Tobey beat D. M. Davis in singles the score being 6-3, 3-6, 7-5.

The finals will be played tomorrow.

Crop Report From Prairies Shows Everything Favorable to Big Yield Of Grain This Year at All Points

WINNIPEG, July 9:—Crop conditions continue good as considerable rain has fallen since the last report. This moisture, coupled with cool days, has been ideal for the filling of all heads which are past the flowering stage. Grains continue to show growth in advance of previous years, and from some territories, come reports of lodging as the straw is rank and the crop will be difficult to handle. Inter-mittent warm weather, however, will materially remedy the lodging situation. Summer-fallowing is rapidly nearing completion, and weeds have this year been kept under control, according to the weekly crop report of the agricultural department Canadian National Railways.

In Manitoba, daily rains have occurred which, in addition to supplying ample moisture, have decreased the activity of grasshoppers. However during sunny weather, the grasshoppers in some districts are in veritable clouds. Weather has been cool and early grain is filling rapidly. All crops show an even stand and good color, and the general outlook continues encouraging.

Along the Lampman, Avonlea, Gravelbourg, Central Butte, River Hurst, Bengough subdivisions, in Southern Saskatchewan, heavy rains have fallen and for the whole period weather has been cool.

These conditions have greatly benefited crops which were suffering from drought and winds, and will result in the later sown crops being much heavier than the earlier sown grains. No appreciable damage is reported from insects, although, in some localities, poison bait stations are operating.

Central and Northern Saskatchewan also received heavy rains and all land is well soaked. Growth has been rapid and wheat is either all headed out or in the short blade. The more northerly territories report excessive moisture with grains lodged and some under water, but warm weather should correct this situation.

From all points in Alberta come reports of rapid growth as precipitation has varied from heavy

COMMITTEE IS FORMED

Bishop Rix is Honorary Chairman With Mayor Orme Actually in Charge of Operations

Mayor Orme this morning announced the personnel of the committee that will have charge of the organization of the welfare work in the city in connection with relief.

The members are: Bishop Rix, Hon. Chairman. Mayor Orme, Chairman. George Mitchell, Secretary. William Brown. Leo W. Waugh. George H. Munro.

It is probable that this committee may be enlarged from time to time.

There was a rumor around town this morning that several more ships were due almost immediately to load grain. The elevator officials say they know nothing of this and the officials who were here for the loading of the steamer Fresno City are returning south.

F. L. Buckley Busy on Pulp Project Sees Improvement Following the Settlement at Lausanne Yesterday

F. L. Buckley was out this morning inspecting the proposed site for the sulphite mill planned to be erected by the Prince Rupert Pulp & Paper Company at Seal Cove and arrangements for the survey are being made.

Speaking of the situation this morning, Mr. Buckley said that quite steady progress was being made. He was making no promises but was doing his best under the conditions obtaining and he expected to be successful. He said he thought the worst point in the financial depression had been reached and he saw many indications of better conditions in store.

Mentioning the news that came through yesterday in regard to the Lausanne conference, he said this was the biggest thing in the world today and the Ottawa conference was pretty sure to be also a success and be a further step toward better times. He was very optimistic in regard to the future.

Mr. Buckley has a number of contacts to make before he goes south, probably on Monday, after which he will proceed east on the same business.

FISH STRIKE NEARS END

Indications Are That Men Will Be All Fishing Sunday. Night

Word received from the Skeena River this morning was to the effect that the present situation in regard to the strike is unchanged but there was every indication that a settlement would be arrived at and the men be all out Sunday night.

The cannery men have been planning to close their canneries if the men did not go to work soon as they claimed it would not be worth their while to remain open for so short a season. A big run of fish is expected and if that passes without more men fishing the best part of the season would be gone.

Prairie Man Hunt Ended With Suicide of Man Who is Said to Have Killed Mounted Police

KELVINGTON, Sask., July 9:—Exhausted, wounded and hunted by a relentless posse of forty armed policemen and three hundred militant farmers, William Miller, alleged robber and murderer, took his own life yesterday. Two companions, Mike and William Kuruluk, had already been taken by the police and both in confessions said that Miller was the man who fired the shots which killed Corporal Leonard Ralls of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Foam Lake Tuesday morning.

The finding of Miller's body in a patch of scrub timber brought to an end the greatest man hunt ever spread over Central Saskatchewan.

PASSING OF MRS. RENNER

Pioneer Woman of Skidegate Inlet Dies of Burns

SKIDEGATE INLET, July 9:—Skidegate people were greatly shocked at the sudden death recently of Mrs. Joseph Renner who succumbed to severe burns and shock.

The deceased was 67 years old and was a pioneer and one of the few early settlers who has stayed with the Islands. She and her husband were well known to everyone on the Islands for their hospitality. Their home, furthest west on the Maude Island, was not only known to local people for its hospitality but to many Prince Rupert fishermen who always made the farm the last port of call on the way to the west coast.

People came from all parts of the inlet to pay their last respects at the funeral of the deceased, who is survived by her husband, Joseph Renner; son, Julius Hubbley of Seattle; and sister, Mrs. Pauline Locker, Burns, Oregon. The pallbearers were E. Wiggins (Tliel), N. Schafer, S. E. Harbour, G. Carmichael (Q.C. City), A. Gordon (Skidegate).

Floral tributes were sent by the following at Queen Charlotte City: Mr. and Mrs. Fairbairn, Mr. and Mrs. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Duval, Mr. and Mrs. MacKenzie, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund, Mr. and Mrs. ... Continued on Page 3.

SUCCESS AT LAUSANNE

The report that came from Lausanne yesterday to the effect that a settlement of the reparations problem had been reached and that Germany and France had got together in a final agreement which would prove beneficial to the world, was the best news received in many a day. It will prove a great feather in the cap of Premier Ramsay MacDonald of England who has been leading the negotiation on behalf of the British government.

It is to be hoped and expected that this settlement will be the first important step toward the return of better times and that it will also tend to draw the countries of Europe closer together.

Britain has already started on the road to financial recovery and with the other European countries in agreement over reparations, there should be an almost instant improvement in Germany, Austria, France, Italy and Belgium. This improvement will reflect itself in other countries and will tend to give the world confidence in the future and prevent drastic political moves such as might otherwise have been expected. With a return to a greater degree of prosperity people will forget many of their grievances and the wheels of administration will turn much more smoothly.

NEXT BIG MOVE

The next big move will probably take place at Ottawa when representatives of the nations of the Empire will sit around a table and discuss the economics of the commonwealth. Such matters as inter-imperial tariffs and preferences will be among the subjects settlement of which may have a great effect on the markets for Canadian wheat, lumber, minerals and fish, in all of which Prince Rupert is directly interested.

The success at Lausanne has raised the hopes of Imperial statesmen that Ottawa may also have a successful conference and one that more nearly affects the Dominion of Canada and her future.

The Progress of Prince Rupert Depends upon --- YOU!!

The growth and development—the achievement of Prince Rupert to make itself a happy and comfortable place in which to work and live—depends entirely upon the attitude of each citizen towards his responsibility in making the town prosperous.

Teams at the Olympic Games do not root for competing teams from other countries. In the greater game of life and existence, Prince Rupert's team would be foolish to root for competing cities. Yet this is the condition every time good northern money is sent to the mail order houses of the bigger cities, when as good or better value might be obtained at home.

Root for your own town! The same enthusiasm of the athletes at the Olympic Games applied to everyday affairs will make your own city one to be proud of and you proud to live in it.

Trade at home. Buy from your home-town merchant of your own race who employs the city's sons and daughters. Buy from those who do not send their profits to foreign countries. Play the game and step into the spirit of the game of helping to make Prince Rupert a better town.

Frank Inrig Starts New Cannery in Rivers Inlet— Well Known Local Salmon Troller Gassed— New Manager at Humpback Bay

Frank Inrig, old time cannery operator of the Skeena River and well known at Port Essington where he was located in the early days, has a small cannery in operation this season on Moses Inlet off Rivers Inlet. It is a one-line outfit with hand butchering and filling, a clincher, double-seamer and two retorts. Mr. Inrig, who has been engaged in salmon canning for more than 25 years, was with the B. C. Packers for over 20 years and, under the name of the Standard Packing Co. Ltd., he built the Goose Bay cannery on Rivers Inlet which he sold to the Canadian Fishing Co. in 1927.

The local provincial police cruiser P. M. L. 8, with Staff Sergeant Alex McNeill and other officers on board, is still at Rivers Inlet where it has been engaged in patrol duties for several weeks. There is no word as to when the vessel may be expected to return here.

Fachena to Ketchikan

Pacific Salvage Co.'s service boat Fachena, Capt. Charlie Larkin, returned to port on Tuesday afternoon of this week after a trip north in the course of which it took the Anyox baseball team to Ketchikan for the Independence Day celebration at the "First City." The Fachena left for Anyox at midnight Friday, picked up the smelter town ball team Saturday, arrived at Ketchikan for the Independence Day celebration at the "First City." Happy Moore, well known local salmon troller, is a patient in the Prince Rupert General Hospital suffering from the effects of carbon monoxide poisoning. Moore was running his boat Gudrum from here to Jap Inlet, Porcher Island Tuesday morning with the intention of going salmon trolling, his boat being lashed alongside another. Both craft were running and the exhaust fumes from the other were blowing into Moore's wheelhouse. When nearing Porcher Island, Moore was overcome by the fumes and collapsed. The man in the other boat, fortunately, saw his plight and rushed him back to town and hospital. Moore's condition is not serious.

Salvage Princess Back

Following a two weeks' voyage to Vancouver for the purpose of taking lumber from the Billmor Spruce Mills Ltd. sawmill at Porpoise Harbor, Pacific Salvage Co.'s power tug Salvage Princess, Capt. Frank Tyler, returned to port on Tuesday night of this week. Coming north aboard the vessel were Capt. Paul Armour, local manager of the company, and Mrs. Armour and daughter, June, who attended the recent Rotary International convention in Seattle.

Suit has been instituted in Vancouver by Francis Miller against the Fishermen's Co-operative Association. It is understood that Mr. Miller is suing for his salary when in the employ of the association as its cannery manager.

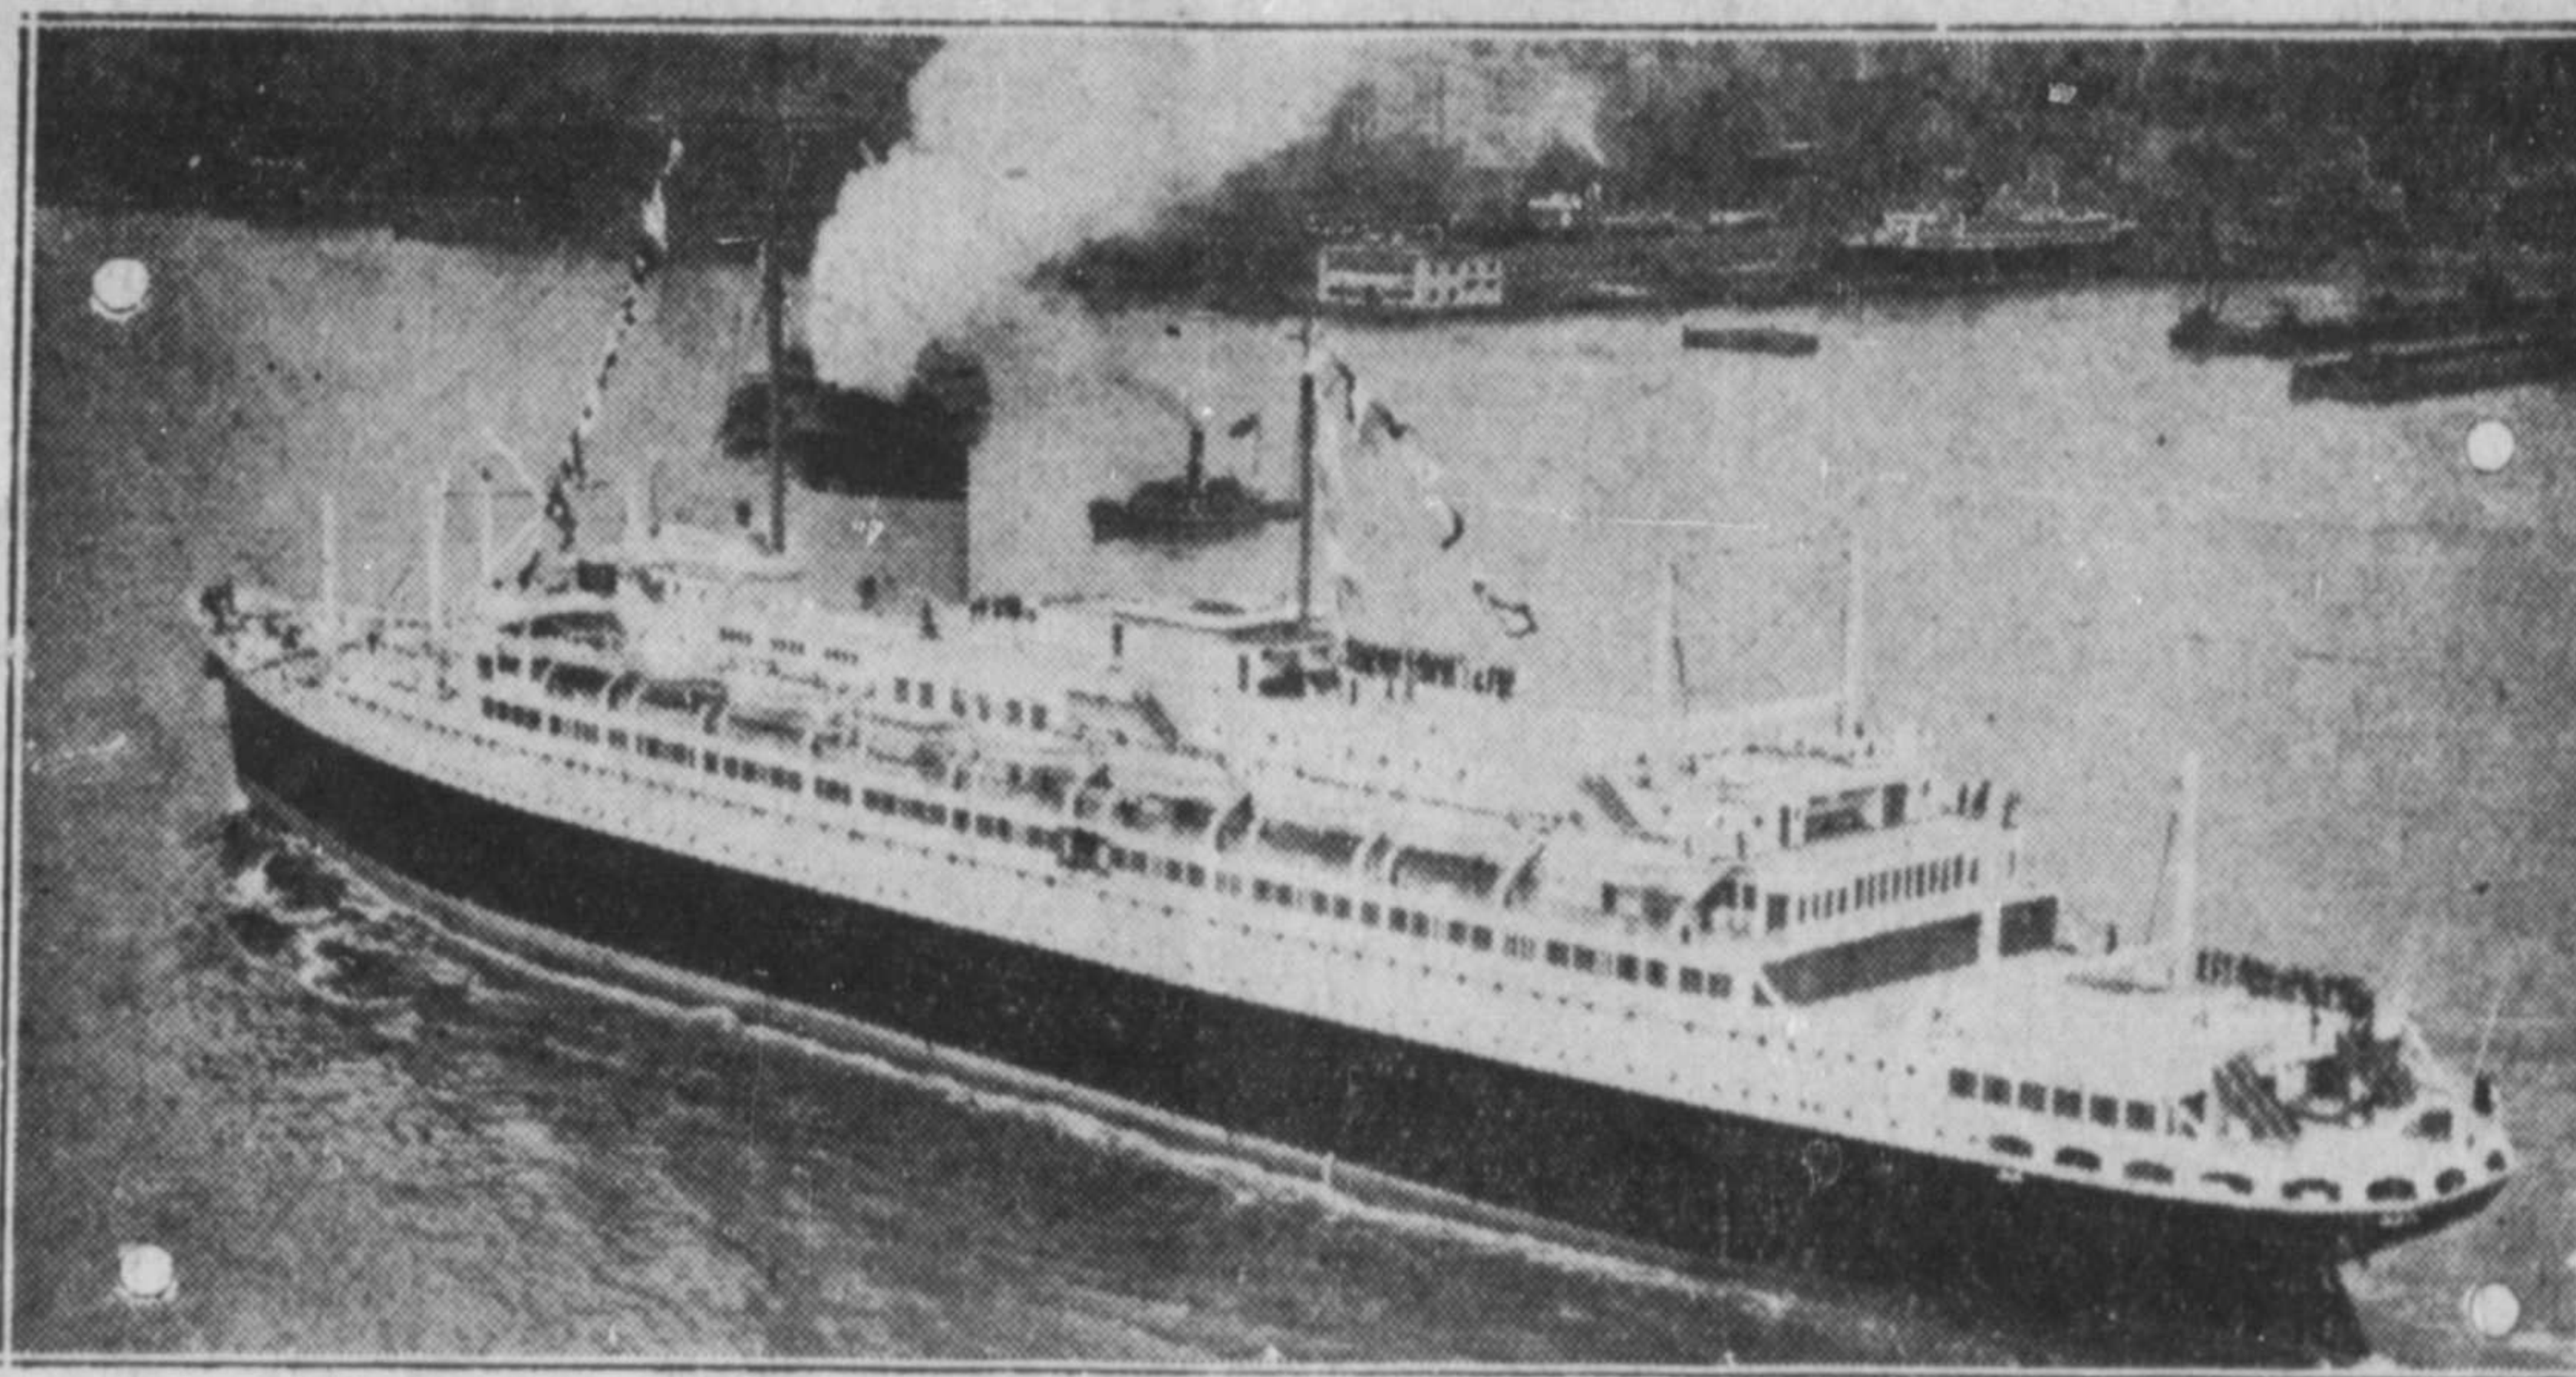

Although, according to the managing director, F. J. Kwapi, the United Pacific Fisheries, long ere this, was again to be engaged in the handling of Pacific Coast halibut on a co-operative basis, nothing has lately been heard as to what progress, if any, Mr. Kwapi is making with his organization on which he spoke so optimistically when here about six weeks ago. It is presumed that Mr. Kwapi has run up against some difficulties, although there is nothing to indicate that he has abandoned his plans.

New Cannery Manager

The Chatham Sound Fishing & Packing Co.'s cannery at Humpback Bay, Porcher Island, is operating under a new manager this season in the person of J. E. Cunningham who has been with the company since 1929. Mr. Cunningham is no stranger to the salmon canning industry on this coast, having been previously for three years at Port Edward cannery and later with the American Can Co. Another old hand in the Skeena River fishery, Alex Sutherland, is now foreman at Porcher Island.

LEAGUE IS NOW TIED

Elks Defeat Empress 9 to 6 Last Night in Slow Game—Arseneau Made Fine Catch

Elks won their fifth game in the last six starts in last evening's baseball fixture with Empress by a score of 9 to 6 to even the league standing. All teams have now won and lost five games and with two more games apiece to be played in the first half, it appears as though the Elks will cop as both of the other teams have been weakened considerably by injuries and players leaving town.

The game lacked pep and with Elks taking a five-run lead in the first stanza there was never much doubt as to the ultimate outcome. George Arseneau pulled off a sensational catch when he went out in foul territory to stab Kenny's fly. Chenoski made a beautiful play when covering first on Stalker's roller to Barry in the fifth. He was forced to fall right on his back as he reached the sack to take the throw.

Farquhar, who has been hitting on all six lately, took a bad slump when he whiffed the ozone in his four trips to the plate, striking out twice in the first inning. Barry did the most effective stick-work for the winners, collecting three safeties in four times at bat and scoring three runs.

Brooklyn Moves Into Fifth Place in National League—Yankee Lead Further Reduced

PITTSBURG, July 9.—National League leaders all won their games yesterday, the Pittsburg Pirates taking a close decision from the New York Giants, the Boston Braves winning an easy victory from the world champion St. Louis Cardinals and the Chicago Cubs downing the Phillies. The margin of leadership of the Pittsburg Pirates remains at one and a half games over the Boston Braves who, in turn, are leading the Chicago Cubs by one game. The Brooklyn Dodgers, by means of a heavy slugging victory over the cellar-dwelling Cincinnati Reds, displaced the St. Louis Cardinals from fifth place.
