STEADY PRESSURE ON LINE BY BRITISH AND FRENCH; BOTH MAKE SMALL GAINS

AMERICANS AND FRENCH CROSS THE VESLE RIVER EAST OF BRAISNE — BRITISH MOVE FORWARD OVER FIVE-MILE FRONT TO DEPTH OF THOUSAND YARDS

London, August 8.—British troops over a front of nearly five miles have pushed their line forward to a depth of a thousand yards between the Lawe and the Florence rivers. Counter-attacks have been made by the Germans along the Braye-Corbie Road and were repulsed. This is in the neighborhood of Amiens.

Berlin, August 8.—North of the Somme the Germans yesterday captured nearly two hundred additional British prisoners. The British counter-attacks south of the Braye-Corbie Road have broken down before the German lines.

Paris, August 8.—American and French troops have crossed the Vesle river east of Braisne and held three positions, notwithstanding furious counter attacks by the Germans. North of Rheims the French pushed back the German line more than four hundred yards.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL FOR THEFT OF BACON

Took Slab of Prime No. 1 From Hold of S. S. Prince George Yesterday.

Yesterday afternoon Captain Groves of the Pacific Stevedoring Company noticed that E. J. Weber, one of the longshoremen, coming off the Prince George during loading operations, had become suddenly afflicted with embonpoint. On being removed to the wharf office the man's intention of apparently bringing home the bacon was apparent, as he had a 22-lb. slab of prime smoked hidden under his slicker, which had caused his sudden stoutness. The police were sent for, and the man and the bacon escorted to the police office where a formal charge of theft was laid. This morning the accused was arraigned before Magistrate Cars in the police court, and was committed for trial. The bacon he said he found under a tarpaulin in the hold of the ship, and not being in any package, thought he might as well have it as let it go to waste. It was a tempting piece of bacon, too. Theft from a ship is a much more serious offence than theft on land. It is an indictable offence, rendering the accused liable to fourteen years' imprisonment.

MILL STARTS CUTTING

The Prince Rupert Lumber Company's mill started up this morning with about seventy men employed. They are not yet running full blast, as it takes some little time to get everything in shape in a new mill. They are however already cutting spruce for the Imperial Munitions Board.

NEW HOTEL BEING BUILT AT SEAL COVE FOR MILL

A new hotel for the purpose of accommodating employees is being erected by the Prince Rupert Lumber Company at Seal Cove. It is a two-storey building and will have about thirty rooms. J. W. Potter is the architect.

One of the difficulties new arrivals in the city find is the securing of houses. Every available building seems to be in use and yet there is demand for more. When the shipyard starts operation there will have to be a great deal more building done both in the way of boarding houses and private dwellings. The new hotel at Seal Cove is just a beginning in the way of building activities.

BRITAIN HAS RECRUITED 6,250,000 MEN, EXCLUSIVE OF OVERSEAS DOMINIONS

LOYD GEORGE GIVES IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT FIGURES SHOWING MEN RAISED — INDIA MILLION AND QUARTER AND OTHER DOMINIONS HAVE CONTRIBUTED A MILLION

London, August 8.—Speaking in the British House of Commons yesterday Lloyd George stated that since 1914 there has been recruited in Great Britain alone, including both the army and navy, no less a number; than 6,250,000 men and most of these were volunteers.

The Dominions have contributed 1,000,000 approximately, while India has already raised 1,250,000.

If America were to call to the colors the same number of men in proportion to the population it would mean that she would have in the field the immense army of 15,000,000 men.

Washington, August 8.—General March told the Senate Military committee today that the War Department plans to have an army of approximately five million men raised as soon as possible.

SHORTAGE OF ICE DRIVING BUSINESS AWAY FROM CITY

SEVERAL CAUSES CONTRIBUTE TO PRESENT SCARCITY; SUGGESTED SOLUTIONS OF DIFFICULTY; MEETING DISCUSSES WHOLE QUESTION AT LENGTH AND LETS IN SOME LIGHT

In the course of a tedious and somewhat involved conference of the fisheries and transportation interests in the city yesterday afternoon some light was shed on an intricate problem. Summed up the situation seems to be that there is a decided shortage of ice this season as a result of which the independent boats are unable to put to sea. Just how great the shortage is could not very well be ascertained, but it was estimated at something like 1,200 tons a month for the busy season. There are twenty-five boats at present tied up as a result of the shortage. The smaller boats belonging to independent owners.

Cause of Shortage.
The cause of the shortage was admitted to have been the failure of the Booth Fisheries to put up any ice at Lake Kathlyn, owing Mr. Cash alleged, to the promise of the Cold Storage Company to provide sufficient ice for their purposes; the change of management at the cold storage plant at Ketchikan resulting in failure to rebuild the plant at Sitka in the spring prevented their providing any reserve.

It was shown that the Cold Storage plant at Seal Cove was producing just the same amount as usual and that they were selling any surplus they might have to the independent boats. This surplus was very small however and for the month of August it was estimated by Manager Johnson to be only about one hundred tons.

Superintendent McCall of the G. T. P. stated that his stock was getting very small and that it would last only a few weeks, especially if he was to supply the boats as well as the dealers.

The Remedy.
The only remedy for the shortage seemed to be that all the larger boats should use sea ice, that some of the smaller craft might go to Gardner Canal for supplies, and that others could get ice at Ketchikan. There would also be a surplus at the local cold storage which could go to the independent boats. Next year each dealer would have to look after his own needs. There was usually plenty of ice floating near Petersburg, but this year there was none without going to the glacier for it.

Those Present.
Mayor McClymont presided and explained the purpose of the gathering. There were also present W. J. Cash, of the Booth Fisheries; Alderman Dybhavn, Charles E. Starr, of the Pacific Fisheries; H. C. Numan, of the Atlin Fisheries; John Megher, representing the Halibut Fisheries Union; H. McCall and G. A. McNicholl, of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway, and T. H. Johnston, manager of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., Ltd. There were also one or two of the independent owners present.

Mr. Johnson, who was called on to speak first, explained that early in the spring they loaded up with ice until they had from 2,000 to 2,500 tons in stock. From May 1st the reserve fell until today they had only nine tons on hand and there were three boats waiting to put to sea as well as several cars being loaded with fish which would require ice to pack. The situation had become tense only during the last few weeks. Besides the lack of ice they were delayed somewhat in shipping by shortage of sawdust and lack of cars.

There were boats here recently that had never been here before so far as he remembered. These came this way because of the shortage at other places.

Shortage at Ketchikan.
Mr. Numan explained his position. There was a shortage at Ketchikan and even when there was ice to be got at that place it was impossible to get transportation to Prince Rupert. The cold storage at Ketchikan had but a limited output because it was freezing so much fish. In July it sold 580 tons or an equivalent to twenty tons a day. He advised that the Grand Trunk should conserve their small stock for the dealers and that the boats should go to Ketchikan, Juneau, Sitka or the glaciers for their ice. Each should rustle for himself just as he had to do.

No Conspiracy.
It was suggested that there might be a conspiracy to put up prices but this it was shown was not to be true. All were anxious to supply the ice and were providing all they possibly could. (Continued on Page Six.)

GERMANY MAY STRIKE SOON WITH FLEET

Leaders Realize That They Must Do Something to Keep Up Morale of the People.

Paris, Aug. 8.—German papers which usually reflect the feeling of the populace to a large extent, seem very despondent over the present situation. They see no hope of the war ending in the near future and say that there is nothing but sacrifice ahead of them during the coming year.

Germany realizes that she must do something soon to raise the spirits of the people. With that end in view an order has been issued by the Chief German Admiralty Staff in which Admiral Scherr is said to express the wish of the fleet to attack the British naval forces.

The rumor becomes daily more persistent that Field Marshal von Hindenburg and General Ludendorff will strike a big blow on the western front with the object of maintaining their prestige and stimulating the depressed morale at home. A blow against the British front in conjunction with the German fleet is said to be contemplated.

G. T. P. WILL SUPPLY ALL ICE AVAILABLE TILL END SEPTEMBER

Fish Packing Houses Will be Kept Going to Handle the Fish Arriving Daily—None for Small Boats.

A further conference was held this morning of the parties directly interested in the present shortage of ice for the fishing vessels. A statement was put in by H. McCall, general superintendent of the G. T. P., showing that the railway company had supplies of ice at the following places:

Prince Rupert	550 tons.
Pacific	425 tons.
Atlin Fisheries	500 tons.
Endako	600 tons.
Fallis (purchased)	400 tons.

Total 2,475 tons.
Against this the company would require for their own use 1,100 tons.

Royal Fish Co.	175 tons.
Atlin Fisheries	525 tons.
Booth Fisheries	450 tons.
Pacific Fisheries	300 tons.

Total 2,550 tons.
This leaves a shortage of 75 tons, not including the shrinkage due to moving the ice from these various places. It was decided that the fish packing houses be kept going with the ice available until the end of September, when the Cold Storage Company will be in a better position to supply the requirements.

Meantime, the fishing boats will have to procure their supplies wherever they can, either from other ports, or from the glaciers. It is hard work, however, cutting ice from the glaciers, and if salt water gets on it, causes it to melt rapidly; besides which, it is too far from the fishing grounds for the smaller boats to go for supplies.

Inquiries are being made as to the supplies in sight at other ports on the coast to tide over these two coming months, and the other fishing centres on the Pacific will be advised as to the shortage of ice existing here.

Some Reflections
On the war.

(Contributed.)

Millions of men, raining destruction on other millions of men by means of every devilish device possible, does appear a most outlandish way to settle disputes between nations; but it always has been the end of law and justice to punish criminals for the good of the majority, even to the taking of life. Germany has been an outlaw in the eyes of the large majority of nations; her allies are accomplices. We have been four years endeavoring to arrest and punish the despoilers of the homes and the peace of our neighbors. The task has been a difficult one, we all admit; it has cost dearly and will cost a great deal more.

If "coming events cast their shadows before," the march to the Rhine will soon be undertaken, and it is there the final settlement will be made. Germany is no longer able to meet the forces opposing her, on the many battlefields of Europe. Her strength now lies in her home defenses. It would be invidious to make predictions regarding the many problems before us, and those that will arise, before this war comes to a conclusion. The people of Germany, Austria and Turkey may bring the war to a sudden conclusion by accepting any terms the Allies make. Peace will not be assured until the invaders are back, in their own territory and willing to take the medicine to be administered by the Council of nations involved in the war. Germany knows full well, and her Foreign Secretary has acknowledged in the Reichstag that defeat is certain. They "cannot obtain their objective by war, and must use diplomacy." The Allies are aware of the "diplomacy" of the Prussians. At the present time the "diplomats" arranging terms with the Prussians is General Foch, and his means of attaining an end is not with smooth words and the "scratch of a pen."

Plenty of Ice
Must be Provided.

It was plain from the ice discussion yesterday that the future prosperity of Prince Rupert depends very largely on its having an abundant supply of ice for packing fish. Unless there is ice here the fishermen will not bring their catches. It is better to have too much than too little of the commodity, and it should be for the citizens to see that they have it.

Seattle solved the problem by putting in its own plant, with the result that it has been able to retain a great deal of the fish business in spite of the distance from the fishing grounds. If Prince Rupert had an abundance of ice this year it would mean that she would have increased the business of the port very considerably.

It is expected that the local cold storage plant will be enlarged very considerably during the coming winter, so that it will be in a position to produce twice as much ice as at present and also take care of a much larger quantity of fish. This will to some extent meet the situation. It is also expected that the independent fish companies will try to secure stocks for themselves next year. It must be expected however that the fishing business will increase very considerably. There is talk of organizing groups of returned soldiers to take up the business under competent instruction and this would add to the catch. There is plenty of demand if the fish are forthcoming. Having the situation clearly before them it should be for the people of the city to decide whether they are ready to trust to luck for another year or meet the situation by themselves providing the remedy.

The question is a big one and all the facts and figures in connection with it should be well thought out. In any scheme however it must be reckoned that the industry is bound to develop, and plans should be laid to care for it, no matter how large a business may offer. The port that offers the facilities will get the business. There are enough buyers here just now and if there were plenty of ice there would be plenty of fish.

Outfitting Americans Is Prodigious Task.

It is a wonderful thing that a little country like Great Britain should be called upon just now to outfit American soldiers, and that at a time when they are increasing their food output to such an extent that they are able almost to feed themselves. With millions of their men overseas and with those to feed and clothe and provide with ammunition they take upon themselves the outfitting of another immense army, greater than any army that was ever put into the field up to the time of the present war. The possibilities of a race that can do such work are almost unlimited. To say that they cannot do anything is absurd. With all our boasted improvements on this continent we have yet to look across the ocean to the old home land in time of great need.

Light Crop Should Affect Prince Rupert.

The monthly commercial letter issued by the Canadian Bank of Commerce mentions the shortage in the cereal crop in this country. That is all the more reason why the fish crop should be larger than usual. It is all the more reason why every pound of fish that it is possible to save from the sea should be used for food. Usually people work for wages only but this year there is a double incentive. Every big catch means more food for the Allies and less possibility of a shortage. The fruit crop is said to be normal and that will help out with the lack of cereals. If the fish crop is bigger than usual we have the Germans beaten by just that much.

TRYING TO OPEN TAKU ROUTE INTO ATLIN COUNTRY

Juneau Newspaper Quotes Letter of F. H. Mobley, M. P. P., in Regard to Proposal.

In connection with the trip north into his constituency of Frank H. Mobley, M. P. P., the following from the Alaska Daily Empire will prove of great interest:

"The following message to E. P. Pond from F. H. Mobley, Atlin representative to the British Columbia Legislature, indicates that action will soon be taken in road building from the head waters of the Taku to Atlin Lake.

"Arrangements have been completed whereby the District Engineer, the mining engineer and possibly one of two members of the Provincial Government will visit Juneau en route to the Taku river early in August, arriving on the C. P. R. steamer August 7. We would be pleased to have you and other interested parties accompany us."

"While my efforts to interest the people of Atlin and Juneau in the project of opening the Taku route have extended over a period of years," said E. P. Pond, "no serious consideration was given to the proposition until the Alaska Territorial Road Commission commenced work last year. I have kept the British Columbia authorities informed of the progress made on the Alaska end of the road, and the fact that Captain Strong has proven the river navigable to headwaters. He is now building a light draft speed boat which will provide service on the river at the very low stages of the water.

"Our excursions have given people the opportunity to enjoy in a day scenic beauty that cannot be excelled by a trip down the Yukon river. Our efforts to attract attention to the commercial advantages to be gained by the people of Juneau may be appreciated in the near future when more thoroughly presented by the delegation representing the Atlin district. It is up to the people of Juneau to prove their recognition of the mutual advantages to be derived by the opening of the Taku river route."

Those who like a night of love and romance will have their opportunity tonight to see Dorothy Dalton in picture at the Westholme in "Love Letters." Miss Dalton is one of the stars of the Paramount circuit and picture fans are looking for her plays regularly. There is a color about them and a charm that is not obtainable in any other films.

The reel of comedy which goes with the feature will round out a good program which will doubtless prove attractive.

SHIPS FOR ALASKA

The Pacific Steamship Company has transferred one passenger boat, the Admiral Schley, from the California run to the Southeastern and Southwestern Alaska run. They have transferred the Goodrich, a freighter, from the Nome traffic, and have chartered the Lovejoy, a freighter, for the season to operate in Southeastern and Southwestern Alaska. This will give the Pacific Steamship Company five passenger boats and four freighters plying to and from Alaska. So far none of them call here.

To all to whom these presents shall come or whom the same may in any wise concern—Greeting.

A Proclamation of Conditional Amnesty respecting men belonging to Class 1, under the Military Service Act, 1917, who have disobeyed our Proclamation of 13th October, 1917, or their orders to report for duty, or are deserters, or absent without leave from the Canadian Expeditionary Force.

Have failed to report for duty as lawfully required of them under the said Military Service Act and the regulations thereunder, including new Order in Council duly passed on April 20 last, or have deserted, or absented themselves without leave from our Canadian Expeditionary Force.

WHEREAS, we desire if possible to avoid the infliction of the heavy penalties which the law imposes for the offences of which these soldiers have thus been guilty and to afford them an opportunity within a limited time to report and make their services available in our Canadian Expeditionary Force as is by law their bounden duty and as is necessary for the defence of our Dominion of Canada.

Now know ye, that we in the exercise of our powers and of our good will and pleasure in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare and cause to be published and made known that the penalties of the law will not be imposed or exacted as against the men who belong to Class 1 under our Military Service Act, 1917, and who have disobeyed our proclamation aforesaid or who have received notice from any of our registrars or deputy registrars to report for duty on a day now past and have failed so to report, or who having reported and obtained leave

CONSTANT PAIN AFTER EATING

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Corrected by "Fruit-a-tives"

St. MARTIN'S, N.B.

"For two years, I suffered tortures from Severe Dyspepsia. I had constant pains after eating; pains down the sides and back; and horrible bitter stuff often came up in my mouth.

I tried doctors, but they did not help me. But as soon as I started taking 'Fruit-a-tives', I began to improve and this medicine, made of fruit juices, relieved me when everything else failed."

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes and which is not timber land.

Partnership pre-emptions abolished, but parties of not more than four may exchange for adjacent pre-emptions, with joint residence, but each making necessary improvements on respective claims.

Pre-emptors must occupy claims for five years and make improvements to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivation of at least 5 acres, before receiving Crown Grant.

Records without permanent residence may be issued provided applicant makes improvements to extent of $200 per annum and records same each year. Failure to make improvements or record same will operate as forfeiture. Title cannot be obtained on these claims in less than 5 years, with improvements of $20 per acre, including 5 acres cleared and cultivated, and residence of at least 2 years.

Pre-emptor holding Crown Grant may record another pre-emption, if he reserves land in conjunction with his pre-emption, without actual occupation, provided statutory improvements made and residence maintained on Crown granted land.

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesteads; title to be obtained after fulfilling residential and improvement conditions.

THIRD CONVENTION OF VANCOUVER MILL

Big Staff Enjoys Talks on Business Subjects — Promotions Announced at Dinner.

The third annual convention of the Executive and staff of the Vancouver Milling Company, Ltd., was held Saturday at the Terminal City. The Vancouver Hotel was the scene of the big business gathering which closed with a theatre party. Regret was expressed at the absence of Robert McKee, the popular assistant general manager who is in New York on Company business.

The convention was opened by J. E. Hall, general manager, who in well-selected terms outlined the progress of the company during the past year. Mr. Hall was followed by L. A. Walker who has just been chosen assistant to Mr. McKee in the Foreign department. Mr. Walker's subject was "The Ideal Branch Manager." O. B. Fleming addressed the convention on "The City Salesman," while Mr. Whitney discussed "Salesmanship."

A. A. Hoen, the company's chemist, gave an interesting talk on "War Substitutes" which was thoroughly enjoyed. A. L. Gallopy, head of the company's advertising agency, addressed the convention on "Our Advertising Policies." Mr. Gallopy was followed by an interesting debate between W. Lloyd Craig and A. G. Foreman on "Resolved: That the Head Office Supervision over Branches and Agencies is preferable to independent operation." The debate was won by Mr. Foreman who took the negative.

After an afternoon of sports, the convention was again addressed by J. E. Hall on "Economic Conditions," after which the convention closed with a theatre party.

SPHAGNUM MOSS

"Sphagnum Moss for the wounded at the front from Prince Rupert, B. C.," is the label on the car load that is going forward to Toronto. Everyone is familiar with the manner in which the Red Cross Society under Judge Young, the president, organized the bee to gather the moss and then what strenuous work was the drying and packing. Now it is all away and doubtless will prove very useful for the binding up of wounds and other purposes at the front.

The difficulty was that there was not enough to go round. In the course of discussion it was stated that Prince Rupert was the biggest halibut market on the coast and that in spite of the shortage it would make a good showing this year. The shortage of ice was driving business away. Mr. Cash told of one fisherman who had purchased an ice breaker and intended to pick up his own ice, either from the bergs or from the glacier.

Small Boats.

Mr. Megher said it was impossible for the smaller boats to go as far as the glacier for ice. He thought it was not a fair deal for the ice to be cut off from the boats. If they could not get ice here they would go to Seattle, as many of them did not like cutting their own ice.

It was suggested that the trawler Carruthers should tie up for a time and give the other boats a chance, but it was explained that the Canada Food Board was more anxious to get the cheap fish than the more expensive halibut.

After nearly two hours of discussion Superintendent McCall suggested that they should meet in his office in the morning and he would then be in a position to state exactly how much ice the company had, and perhaps they would be able to get the waiting fleet away for one more trip. The gathering then adjourned.

William Thomas, a fisherman, was fined $50.50 in the police court this morning for a breach of the Prohibition Act. He was rounded up last evening, slightly under the weather, and two soda water bottles were found in his possession. The bottles appeared to contain soda all right, according to the color of the liquid, but the contents were discovered to be gin. "Don't know how I got it," said the accused this morning to the magistrate.

A new departure this year in the salmon fishing industry is the arrival on the Skeena of large quantities of Alaskan salmon for canning. The American boats are bringing in large quantities, and disposing of them at the various canneries. The fixed price set by the U. S. Government is said to be the cause of this, as the canneries on the Skeena pay a better price, even with import duty. Added to the large run on the river this season every one of the canneries ought to have a record pack, if they can get enough cans.
