

HUNS ASK PEACE

REPARATION AND INDEMNITIES NOT MENTIONED TO BELGIUM

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA BOTH MAKE SUGGESTIONS FOR PEACE SCORN OF THE BRITISH PRESS

Separate Peace with Belgium sought by Kaiser and Conference with Belligerents Suggested by Austria-Hungary; Considered by London an Insult.

London, September 16.—It is understood that the Government has received from Austro-Hungary a request for a peace conference of all the belligerents and also the proposal that all the powers should withdraw their troops from Murman territory. It is also learned that Germany has made a peace offer to Belgium on the terms of the proposal being that Belgium shall remain her neutrality until the end of the war; that thereafter the entire economic and political independence of Belgium shall be reconstituted; that pre-war commercial treaties between Germany and Belgium shall again be put into operation after the war for an indefinite period; that Belgium shall use her good offices to secure the return of German colonies; that the Flemish question shall be considered, and the Flemish minority which aided the German invaders shall not be penalized. The proposal contains no word respecting reparation or indemnities and no admission that Germany has wronged Belgium.

With the exception of the pacifist "Daily News" which advocates the acceptance of Austria's invitation, the London morning papers scornfully reject the note as a trap instigated by Germany to gain time to reorganize her armies, while the offer to Belgium is denounced as an insult.

The German press comment thus far received in London, indicates surprise at the action of Austria in sending the note.

LENINE AND TROTSKY WERE GERMAN AGENTS AND PAID FOR SERVICES WITH HUN GOLD

ALL DOUBT OF GUILT OF BOLSHIEVIKI LEADERS SET ASIDE BY OFFICIAL DOCUMENTS JUST MADE PUBLIC AT OTTAWA

Washington, Sept. 16.—Proofs removing any doubts that Lenin and Trotsky, Bolsheviki leaders, are paid German agents, if any doubts remain, are laid before the world today by the United States Government in the first instalment of an amazing series of official documents disclosed through the Committee on Public Information.

Secured in Russia by American agents, these documents not only show how the German Government, through its Imperial Bank, paid its gold to Lenin.

Trotsky and their intimate associates to betray Russia into deserting her Allies, but give added proofs that Germany had perfected plans for a war of world conquest long before the assassinations at Sarajevo, which, as the world now is convinced, conveniently furnished her a pretext. The documents further show that before the world war was four months old and more than two years before the United States was drawn into it, Germany was setting plans to "mobilize destructive agents and observers" to cause explosions, strikes and outbreaks in the United States and planned the employment of "anarchists and escaped criminals" for the purpose.

BRANDY SEIZED BY CONSTABLE ADAMS

Bottles Were Labelled "Nut Oil" and Addressed to Chinaman Who Does Not Appear.

Like George Washington, of truthful fame, Constable Adams rode up Third Avenue today with his little axe in his hand, a big screwdriver on his hip, and what some other people would have on their hip, on a wagon. The constable had two innocent looking cases with him, one labelled "superior China nut oil."

Notwithstanding their innocent appearance, Constable Adams had a search warrant to inspect the contents of these two cases, and found them both to contain bottles of brandy. They were addressed to Li Kee, care of C. S. C. Co. It was Three Star brandy, of a good brand, which a thirsty one might pay $15 or $20 a bottle for, if he could get it. Li Kee has not yet appeared. The goods were seized on the wharf, while in transit.

Chief Vickers arrived in the city last night after a holiday trip to Edmonton. Like all the others who return to Prince Rupert, the Chief is glad to get back.

STEAMSHIP COMPANY SENDS REPRESENTATIVE TO LOOK INTO THE PROSPECTS HERE

U. KOIKE FROM TACOMA OFFICE OF THE OSAKA SHOEN KAISHA SPENT TWO DAYS HERE AND WILL REPORT FAVORABLY ON PROSPECTS OF ESTABLISHING LINE HERE

Representing the Osaka Shosen Kaisha, one of the largest of the Japanese steamship companies, U. Koike of Tacoma was in the city Saturday and returned last night. He was here looking over the ground to report on the feasibility of establishing a line of steamers between this city and Japan and possibly with Vladivostok.

Discussing the scheme with The News, Mr. Koike said that he had discussed the situation with Mr. Beaumont and Mr. McNicholl and had been shown round the harbor by them. He thought there was a splendid harbor here and he was assured that the G. T. P. would provide adequate shipping facilities in case their steamships should come here. He also had been posted by the officials on the resources of the district and the possibilities of development. He was very favorably impressed and much pleased with the trouble the officials had taken to place all the information before him.

INDIAN ASSAULTED WOMAN AT BELLA BELLA LAST WEEK

Has Been Sent to Vancouver for Trial—Was Eighteen Year Old Lad.

Official reports have reached town today regarding the assault and attempted robbery at Bella Bella last week. An Indian named Wesley Hunt has been arrested, and will be taken to Vancouver for trial, that point being nearest.

This Indian youth, who is only 18 years old, broke into the store at Bella Bella kept by Mrs. Anne Pauline at 5:20 in the morning. The lady heard the noise of his entry, and came down stairs, asking what he wanted. "Nothing," was the reply she received, along with a smash on the head with a flashlight lamp. The Indian then ran to get an axe, and Mrs. Pauline called for help to her companion, Mrs. Edith Boyd. At the time the matter was reported here both women were unconscious, and one had a fractured skull.

The Indian has admitted his guilt, both regarding the attempted robbery and assault.

BRITISH AIR MEN BOMBING GERMAN TOWNS

Belt 250 Miles Long in the Rhine Valley is Brought Into the War Zone.

London, Sept. 16.—Twenty-one important German towns have been bombed by the British air forces during the month of August. Railway stations, chemical and other factories and blast furnaces, and towns including Mannheim, Frankfurt, Metz, Sablons, Saarburg, and Thionville. Three times each of the following were bombed: Coblenz, Cologne, Darmstadt, Karlsruhe, Luxembourg, Offenburg and Tressves. The total weight of bombs dropped in these raids was more than one hundred tons.

During the past three months the independent air force made two hundred and forty-nine aerial raids over the German territory. The extensive damage done has been confirmed by photographs in many cases. German territory thus brought definitely into the war zone is a belt in the Rhine valley approximately 250 miles in length.

ALLIES ARE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS GERMANS WERE CAUGHT IN A TRAP

London, September 16.—The British, French and American forces continue to make good progress on the west front.

There are indications that the Germans intend to make strong resistance on a line to which they have withdrawn from the St. Mihiel salient, entrenching themselves with feverish haste. The guns of Metz forts are now in action against the Americans.

When the St. Mihiel operations began there were from 90,000 to 100,000 Germans inside the salient. They escaped at the rate of 1,000 hourly but the pincers closed and trapped an unknown number. An entire German regiment with its commander and all the staff were captured.

THREE MILES OF HUN PRISONERS ARE STRIDING REARWARD IN FOURS

Paris, September 16.—Three miles of German prisoners under American guard passed along the high road today in the rear of the American front north of St. Mihiel, striding rearward four abreast.

London, September 16.—The French forces yesterday attacked the Germans behind the Hindenburg line, west and south of Laon. The assault was aimed at the Forest of Coucy at the southern end of the wooded St. Gobain Height, the west flank of the Chemin des Dames and enemy positions along the Aisne. All these strongholds form part of the outer defences of Laon.

The American barrage fire smothered the powerful German counter attacks hurled against our new front between Thiaucourt and Moselle during the night. The assaults were the first indication that the enemy is getting reorganized.

The number of prisoners taken and the guns captured is increasing. New German divisions have been identified opposite our first army.

Change of Sentiment
In Regard to Boxing.

Before the war there was considerable feeling against professional boxing, and the game was rapidly going into disuse. There was a tendency to look upon the art of fistic self defence as more or less brutal, tending to stimulate the lower instincts in the human race. Since the war began there has been a decided change in the point of view and boxing is now looked upon as one of the means of developing the all round man, making him self confident, resourceful and at the same time giving him self-command.

Sport of all kinds tends to give a boy control of himself. In boxing loss of temper is fatal. The one who is cool and watchful and who has staying power wins out. It is a great game and while it doubtless is sometimes abused it is within limits, one of the finest forms of exercise.

Geography is Most Unstable.

When the conference of representatives of the four western provinces met recently at Banff to confer on the matter of uniform text books it was decided to defer the choosing of a new geography until after the war, owing to the present mobile conditions. Any books which are now in use or which are compiled now would be out of date next year or the year after. There may not be a German Empire even after the war. Russia may be split up, and who can be sure that there may not be some more or less organic union of the Allies which would be most important. It seems almost unthinkable that, just as soon as the war is over, there will be a renewal of the commercial war which has always caused ill feeling between the nations. It has been suggested that there should be a customs union of some kind between the United States and Canada, in order to do away with the tariff wall, which at present divides the countries. The tariff is the chief obstruction on the boundary line. Do away with it and the average man would never know when he had crossed from one country to the other.

Austrian General
Compliments Air Force.

General Uzelac, chief of the Austrian Air Force, was interviewed by the Berliner Tageblatt on July 13, and naturally blew a loud trumpet in praise of the Austrian airmen. But, with the best intentions, he was only able to pay the air service he commands a back-handed compliment and, in fact, the louder he blew his own trumpet the higher the tribute to the R. A. F.

"The Austrian pilots," he said, "were considered quite first-class by the Germans themselves, although, of course, owing to their high average intelligence and general training in sports, the British had a better supply of men as regards quality."

The Austrian's "of course" is noteworthy, and the facts fully justify it. The airmen of the R. A. F. are the finest in the world and their training is planned and executed to accentuate all those native qualities which result in their notable ascendancy over the enemy aviators.

Let us pay Uzelac's service a return compliment, and congratulate him upon his Intelligence Branch which must (very properly) have emphasized to him the importance attached to sport in the R. A. F. He may even have heard of the appointment of a country cricketer as a R. A. F. sports instructor.

The truth is that airmanship, like seamanship, is native to the English speaking peoples, and that the training of the R. A. F. in work and sport, is successfully calculated to draw out the national capabilities of those who have always been the navigators of the world.

In training, thoroughness is everything and no R. A. F. pupil goes into the air until he has passed examinations in a series of interesting subjects which ensure his having a complete theoretic knowledge of the aeroplane. Even then, he goes up in a dual-control machine, with an instructor, and gains confidence and practical skill in many dual flights before he tries his first solo.

CANADA'S TRADE IS ON THE DECREASE

Ottawa, Sept. 14.—That there was a decrease of nearly $271,000,000 in the total trade of Canada for the first five months of the fiscal year, as compared with the same period in 1917, is shown by the monthly trade statement. The statement shows that Canada's trade for the first five months of the present fiscal year, which ended August 31 last, totalled $875,178,588. The decrease is largely due to the falling off in exports which this year totalled $451,846,814, as against $654,242,260 in 1917. Imports decreased $60,969,125 in the five-month period.

"The food crisis is grave and urgent, beyond possibility of exaggeration."—Sir Robert Borden

City and Town Labor Must Save The Food Situation

THE heart of the food production problem is labor, and the heart of the labor problem is the city dweller. City people must produce food if Canada is to do her full duty in support of our soldiers and Allies.

Men who are needed on farms must come from the cities and towns—there is no other source. The Provincial Departments of Agriculture co-operating with the Canada Food Board, can place thousands of men on good farms in this Province. They are needed at once.

Those who remain at home must also Grow Food

A War Garden will not excuse the man whose rightful place this year is on a farm. But War Garden service is needed from those who can do no more. and Vacant Lot cultivation will leave the farmers free to grow more food for export.

The vegetable garden offers an opportunity for service to men whose circumstances make it impossible for them to work on a farm, to women, to boys and girls—to city people generally.

Be a Food Producer This Year

If there is a garden or vacant lot movement in your community, associate yourself with it. If no organization exists, do what you can to interest your neighbours in the War Garden campaign. Write to your Provincial Department of Agriculture for pamphlets on gardening and additional information.

WIERD STORY FROM COAST LIGHTHOUSE

Terrible Condition of Family Where Wife Was Insane; Hoisted Distress Signals.

An almost inconceivable story concerning the alleged terrible plight of Lighthousekeeper Sadler and his family at Entrance Island comes from Port Alice in a report sent out following the arrival of the Consolidated Whaling Company's steam whaler St. Lawrence on Quatsino Sound.

Capt. Oversen, master of the St. Lawrence, on his arrival at Port Alice reported having answered distress signals which had been flying at the Entrance Island lighthouse for five days.

He found the keeper of the lighthouse and his family in a very distressing state, but in spite of his trouble the lightkeeper heroically stuck to his post, and succeeded in keeping the light burning for the guidance of mariners navigating the treacherous and rock-bound waters of the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

Lost Her Reason.

The wife of the lightkeeper, it is reported, had become violently insane, and the husband was completely exhausted through restraining his wife from doing away with herself.

It is presumed that the continued isolation at the far-flung station on the stormy West Coast caused the lightkeeper's wife to lose her reason. Two of the four children were reported to be in a precarious state for want of food.

Capt. Oversen took aboard Mrs. Sadler and two of the children and landed them at Port Alice, where they are being taken care of. The lighthouse keeper is still tending the light, but is said to be in a critical condition.

Aid Is Sent.

Upon receiving the report from Port Alice, Capt. G. E. L. Robertson, agent of marine for British Columbia, at once made arrangements to dispatch an officer of the department to investigate the trouble at Entrance Island. For this purpose, Gordon Halkett, superintendent of lights, left for Port Alice by the steamship Princess Maquinna.

Officials of the Marine Department are unable to understand the report coming from the West Coast regarding the condition of Lightkeeper Sadler and his family.

PICTORIZATION OF NOVEL IS AT THE WESTHOLME

The famous novel Jane Eyre by Charlotte Bronte is the feature at the Westholme this evening, the first show commencing at 7:15. This story is so well known that it is almost useless to make special mention of it. It is one of the classics of the language.

"Woman and Wife" is the name given to the picturized version of the famous story and it is said to be superbly acted and well photographed.

In addition to the novel there will be a gazette and pictures of current events all of which are right up to the minute.

ROLL OF HEROES WAS UNVEILED AT METHODIST CHURCH

Rev. George M. Raley of Sardis Performed the Ceremony, Rev. W. S. A. Cruikshank Conducting the Service.

An honor roll containing the names of those connected with the church who are serving the country in the war or who have served, was unveiled at the Methodist Church last night by Rev. George H. Raley of Sardis.

The names were inscribed on an artistic scroll which was decorated with the Union Jack and this will be hung in the church and other names added from time to time as occasion requires.

In performing the ceremony Mr. Raley gave a stirring patriotic address in which he referred to the self-sacrifice of those who went to fight for their country. The service was conducted by Rev. W. S. A. Cruikshank.

The names on the roll, which were read, were as follows: Robert Noble, Isaac Eardley, Jack Evans, Jas. D. Slater, Major J. C. Halsey, Hugh Killan, J. B. Clague, A. D. Harris, J. E. Unwin, Harold Shrubshell, John Munro, H. Hinckley and Dr. L. Kergin.

NO TRACE FOUND OF MISSING SURVEYORS

After making the most careful search with many boats and men, the provincial police authorities at Ocean Falls have still been unable to discover any trace of the two surveyors who were drowned there recently. The two men, whose names were Laverock and Griffith, were surveying for the Government and were returning to their camp with supplies from Ocean Falls. They were in a row boat, fitted with a "kicker" as they call an Evinrude engine. Owing to the rough weather prevailing, it is surmised that their heavily-laden boat was capsized when they got into the open water. The boat was found upside down several miles away, and dully damaged from pounding on the rocks.

The most careful search has been made, and every boat available has been impressed into the dragging operations for the recovery of the bodies of the two men, but so far without result.

SHOT BEAR, FINED FOR LACKING A LICENSE

Game Warden Emeett Welcomed Arrival of Big Game Hunter by Charging Him $50

A story comes from the Queen Charlotte Islands about the unexpected appearance of Constable Emmott, acting game warden, during his visit to Thurston Harbor.

Dr. Smith there went out hunting just before the constable's arrival, and during his trip got a bear. He came back on his launch with the bear slung high at the top of the derrick for all to see, and with the whistle making a great noise of jubilation. But on the boat's arrival at the wharf there was the game warden who promptly fined the doctor $50 for carrying a gun without a licence.

The occurrence so tickled the folks at Thurston Harbor that even the Presbyterian minister broke into verse over it. "Who shot the bear" has become quite a popular saying over there now, much to the disgust of the doctor.

CORPORAL P. NELSON ESCAPED PRISON, IS HERE IN-TOWN

Had Many Exciting Experiences in Germany Prior to Final Escape—Recruiting For Siberia.

After two attempts to escape from German internment camps and after suffering unthinkable hardships, Corporal P. Nelson finally escaped from the swamps of Westphalia when the electric wires which surrounded them had been put out of business by a thunder storm. Two of his companions were riddled by machine gun bullets, two were drowned in the swamps, but the other two, guided by the north star, eventually reached Holland and by that way got back to Canada. Now Corporal Nelson has again volunteered for service in Siberia and is here for a week recruiting for the unit that is being formed at Victoria for that purpose.

Corporal Nelson is known in this district where he was engaged for a long time on survey parties at Graham Island. He has been engaged in Red Cross work in the States for some time, and he proposes giving a free lecture here within a few days, to which all are invited and when he will tell the story of his capture. He is ready to attest anyone who can pass the doctor and who is between the ages of 19 and 45.

It makes a thrilling story that of how the men who tried to escape were put in the dark cells, and fed on bread and water, of how they were put in the hot cokes ovens so that some of them lost their hearing through the intense heat, and of how they were treated generally by the Germans.

Corporal Nelson fought at Ypres and in a number of other engagements and was wounded and captured in the assault on Mount Kemmel. Just now he is at the Prince Rupert Hotel where he may be seen by any who are interested in the new battalion.

A. L. Carruthers, provincial government engineer, returned to the city late on Saturday evening by the Princess Sophia from the north. Mr. Carruthers went up with Frank Mobley and George Clothier, the government mining engineer, to look over the ground for new roads.

Good assortment of pipes at Gil's.

Thos. Wallace, of Claxton cannery, arrived in the city yesterday.

D. J. Williams, superintendent of the Rocher de Boule mine, arrived in the city last evening from Hazelton.

Mrs. E. E. La Casse, who has been spending the last few months in the city, returned to Vancouver by the Prince Rupert last evening.

The launch Seashell arrived in port yesterday from Thurston Harbor, bringing to town the body of E. Toftegen, of Seattle, who was accidentally killed while logging. A big log rolled over the man from the head down, killing him instantly and completely flattening his body. The deceased had been in this country only three months and belongs to Seattle, where the body will be shipped for burial by tomorrow night's steamer.

W. H. Tobey is wearing a nice smile and a $100 pair of socks these days. Mrs. Hinton, wife of the general manager of the G. T. P., knit a pair the other day, with the words "S. S. Prince Rupert" in big white letters round the top, which Tobey will show any anxious enquirer. Miss Johnson, the stewardess of the S. S. Prince Rupert, raffled them on the last trip of the steamer, as she well knows how to do, and made $100 for the Red Cross. The Red Cross are indebted to Miss Johnson and so is Mr. Tobey, for he won the socks.

Four of Prince Rupert's mighty hunters, Doc Evans, W. E. Willis-Croft, J. D. McAulay and Jack Keefe, opened the deer season yesterday morning at dawn on the main thoroughfare of Port Edward. At the busiest crossing in the industrial annex to Prince Rupert, where Fifth Ave. crosses Harrison St., a two-year-old buck was sighted in the early morning mist by a pair of the huntsmen. The first shot did not stop him, and although the second knocked him down, the buck got up again and kept on going. It took eleven shots before they finally got the quarry.

BIG FISH CATCHES

Over 150,000 pounds of halibut was brought here yesterday and this morning by a number of fishing boats, and it is understood that some of the boats will remain in port until after the fair. EMBARGO ON GOLD

New York, Sept. 16.—Canada's embargo on the export of coin, bullion or bars from the Dominion, which is similar in purpose and design to the measure adopted by the United States attracts a fresh interest in the gold and silver movement between the two neighbor countries. The war has brought many changes in the relations between Canada and the United States, but none more unique than the movement of bullion over the international border.

To begin with, Canada assumed abnormal importance from the gold standpoint by reason of becoming the "channel" for the British gold flow to this country prior to America becoming a belligerent. Of recent months Canada has figured importantly it would appear in the silver stream to India via this country.

COAL COMING BY BACK DOOR INTO RUPERT

Mine at Telkwa Commenced Operations and Will Be Shipping in Ten Days.

That there will be a coal supply for Prince Rupert from Telkwa this fall is the good news brought by J. J. McNeill who arrived yesterday from that place and who announces that operations have already commenced and he expects to have the first shipment of coal here within ten days. This is the mine in which a Prince Rupert syndicate is interested. It is situated on the south side of the railway about five miles from Telkwa. In order to encourage the development of the mine the Provincial Government recently constructed a good wagon road to it. The road is now complete and other arrangements for shipment are being made today. This should insure a steady supply for this market from the hinterland which will reinforce that which comes from the south. It also means the development of a promising mine on the Grand Trunk line which will be a great factor in the development of this port and which will use this port as a shipping base for its output.

Several cars of this coal were shipped here in the spring and were then pronounced to be of excellent quality. The seam is to be driven, following the coal in and enabling the marketing of the product right from the first. The coal will be hauled to the railway in wagons and in the winter in sleighs until such time as a spur to the mine is constructed. While that is not a very economical way of handling it will enable the mine to be opened up without delay and improved facilities will follow.

Mr. McNeill, who is himself interested in the mine, runs the general store at Telkwa and also operates a ranch there. He says that the crops this year have been unusually good and that about one-third of the grain has been out. Threshing should commence in about two weeks.
